Hearing what they said, Yao Si narrowed his eyes and looked at them, chuckled and said, "I can promise you, but at least you should let me know if the U disk is intact in your hands, otherwise, who knows if you are lying to me."

Lucas's look turned stiff when he heard this.

As it was mentioned before, he didn't have the U-Disk that they wanted at all. If he took it out, he would be exposed.

Evelyn was also in anxiety, too.

Because she knew Lucas didn't have the U-Disk at all.

She glanced at Yao Si and forced herself to calm down.

"Lucas, No."

She stopped Lucas and said to Yao Si, "Your golden U-Disk is so important. Who do you think will always carry it?"

Yao Si heard Evelyn accurately say the color of the U-Disk. his eyes were bright, and he could be sure that they had the U-Disk .

He glanced at Evelyn and turned his eyes to look at Lucas.

"In that case, I can grant your request and let Miss Davis go first."

He said, gesturing to his men to let Evelyn go.

Evelyn was free and immediately walked to Lucas.

"Any injuries?"

Lucas saw Evelyn coming and asked her with concern immediately.

Listening to his words, Evelyn was moved and "then shook her head . "Don't worry, they didn't hurt me."

When Lucas heard her saying that she was ok, he was completely relieved.

Yao Si watched the them talking and did not disturb them.

He waited for a while, then said again: “OK, Mr. hawk, since I have released your wife, should you take me to get my thing?”

Hearing the words, Evelyn looked at Lucas subconsciously.

Lucas’s face remained the same, nodding: “Sure.”

Yao Si saw this, narrowed his eyes and waved to his men to prepare the car.

“Please.”

When the car came, Yao Si invited the two to get in.

Evelyn looked at Lucas and silently asked him what should they do.

Lucas gave her a reassuring look and took her to get in the car.

“Address!”

After getting in the car, Yao Si asked Lucas to give him the address.

Lucas said an inn at the foot of the mountain. Yao Si told his men to go there directly without any doubt.

Within ten minutes, they arrived at the inn.

Because it was an Inn around the scenic , its rooms were all separated.

Instead of letting Lucas and Evelyn out of the car immediately, Yao Si asked his men to check around.

“Boss, no ambush.”

A few minutes later, his trusted subordinate went to the window to report.

Then Yao Si motioned Lucas and Evelyn to get off.

“Get off. Give me the U-disk and you’ll be free.”

When Evelyn heard this, she looked at Lucas nervously and didn’t know what he was going to give to Yao Si.

However, Lucas was unaware of her nervousness, and then led Evelyn to the inn room.

Yao Si followed them vigilantly.

After a while they arrived at the room, Lucas turned on the light and the room lit up at once.

Yao Si stood at the door, glanced at the clean room, and looked at Lucas coldly.

“Where is it?”

“Just a moment,” Lucas replied, with his face remained unchanged.

Then he took Evelyn to the tea table in the room, as if he was really going to take out something.

Who knows, he didn’t take any U-Disk, but grabbed the kettle on the tea table and smashed it at Yao Si.

Yao Si saw what was flying to him, and subconsciously tilted his head.

Just then, Lucas grabbed Evelyn and jumped out the window of the room quickly.

Fortunately, these Inn rooms were all two floors which were not very high.

They jumped through the window and were not hurt, but Lucas still asked uneasily, “Did you hurt?”

Evelyn shook her head and was about to speak when she saw Yao Si chasing them to the window from the corner of her eye.

“I’m fine. Run.”

Lucas naturally saw the gloomy Yao Si, pulling Evelyn to run.

Yao Si looked at the figures of the two running away. He knew that he has been tricked, so he was furious.

“After them!”

He snapped to order, and his men accepted the order at once.

Lucas saw them coming after them, and led Evelyn to the woods. With the moonlight, their tracks could be covered a little.

“Freeze!”

“Damn it, freeze!”

Those foreign big men didn't know the terrain of Jinyang mountain. Even if they were well-trained, they were very upset about the natural fence in the forest. So they scolded Lucas and Evelyn along the way.

Lucas ignored them completely, heading to one direction with Evelyn desperately.

Evelyn has never experienced such a trip. At this time, she was scared and nervous, especially when she saw the people getting closer and closer behind her, she had her heart in her mouth.

“Lucas, they...They are almost catching up. “

She said in panic with a trembled voice.

Lucas felt her fear and held her hand more tight.

“Trust me, we will be okay!”

His voice was soothing. His firm eyes made Evelyn stunned, and eased her fluster.

“Okay!”

She nodded her head hard to show that she believed him.

Lucas saw this, pulled her to continue to run, simultaneously pressed the wireless contact device on him.

“Cater, now, we are running in the predetermined direction. Come with our men quickly.”

“Yes!”

Cater accepted the order, and then took men to meet them immediately.

Evelyn heard that Cater would come to support them, so she was relieved.

She relaxed her taut body, and the sense of crisis just now disappeared. As the result, the feeling of fatigue of her body emerged, so her feet seemed to weigh a thousand pounds.

“Ah -“

At this time, she was caught by the withered vine and fell forward.

Lucas also stumbled because of her, but he did not fall down.

“Nora, are you ok?”

Lucas went to check Evelyn and helped her get up.

“I’m okay!”

Evelyn shook her head and stood up with Lucas’ help. At the same time, her face changed greatly because she found that those man who were chasing them were getting closer and closer.

“Lucas, run.”

She grabbed Lucas and turned to run.

At this time, Lucas heard a dull sound, followed by a sound that something was cut through in the air.

She saw his face darken sharply, then he pounced on Evelyn.

“Hum!”

He tightly hugged Evelyn, and his body trembled. The sharp pain on his shoulder made him grunt.

In the dark, a silent bullet hit his left shoulder.

Evelyn didn't hear the bullet, so she didn't know about Lucas's injury.

"What's wrong?"

Subconsciously, she thought Lucas's action was strange. She asked with her head tilted.

Lucas, enduring the sharp pain in his shoulder, frowned, "I'm OK, run!"

With that, before Evelyn could ask again, he took her to run again.

But the route was changed from a path at the beginning to a mountain road.

They changed it in case the people behind them would shoot again.

He didn't expect these people to be so daring. They carried private guns in the territory, and they even dared to shoot!

Lucas took Evelyn to wind down the mountain road and finally got away from those pursuers.

"Nora, is anyone catching up?"

Lucas asked with cold sweat on his face.

Evelyn didn't notice because she was nervous. She listened to him and looked back.

"Lucas, I don't think those people are coming."

Lucas was relieved to hear that.

"Let's go ahead. Cater. They're almost there."

He said, and took Evelyn to run again, but his pace was not so fast like before.

Evelyn nodded, followed him out of the woods and onto a road.

At this time, a car suddenly sped from a distance and stopped in front of them.

Evelyn was startled. Lucas's face changed a little, and managed to protect Evelyn behind him.

"Mr. Hawk, I finally find you."

Mo Li happily got off the car, but when she saw Lucas protecting Evelyn, the smile on her face suddenly froze.

Lucas didn't notice her change. He was relieved when he saw that it was her.

"Mo Li, you..."

Before he finished speaking, he fell forward.

Evelyn and Mo Li were shocked.

"Mr.Hawk."

"Lucas."

They squatted down to catch Lucas at the same time, but Mo Li was more skilful than Evelyn.

And she moved faster than Evelyn. So Evelyn could only watch Mo Li hold Lucas in her arms and then her face darkened.

"Mr. Hawk, wake up."

Mo Li called Lucas nervously, ignoring Evelyn's face.

It was just then that she found Lucas's face very pale. She smelled a strong smell of blood and touched a thick moist place with her hand, which made her pupils shrink.

Evelyn didn't know about Mo Li's discovery. She watched Mo Li holding Lucas without doing any first aid. She was very worried, especially Lucas was unconscious at the time.

"Lucas....."

She wanted to go over and check Lucas. Before her hand touched Lucas, Mo Li pushed her away with a rush.

“Don’t touch Mr. Hawk!”

“Hiss -“

Evelyn was unprepared and pushed to the ground by her. Her left hand’s skin was scr.aped on the ground.

“What are you doing?”

She stared at Mo Li with a calm face.

Mo Li stared at her coldly. Obviously, Evelyn didn’t know about the injury of Mr. Hawk.

She was angry and jealous at the thought.

She knew it without thinking that Mr.Hawk must have been hurt for the woman, and he didn’t say anything and managed to get here to keep her from worrying.

“Nothing, but for Mr. Hawk, I’m going to take him back first. You can wait here for Cater.”

She said, holding Lucas and getting in the car.

Evelyn was uneasy, and immediately stood up to follow her, “I’ll go with you.”

Then she noticed Lucas’s face and couldn’t help being worried.

“What’s wrong?”

Mo Li sneered: “Nora, isn’t it too late for you to care about Mr. Hawk?”

Evelyn was shocked. Mo Li didn’t want to waste time on her. It was more important to save Lucas at the time.

She held Lucas to get in the car, but she didn’t expect Lucas to hold on to Evelyn tightly even if he was unconscious.

Evelyn stumbled forward with inertia because of his action, and when she collected herself and saw Mo Li leaving, she immediately said, "I'll go with you."

She couldn't be at ease if Mo Li took Lucas away alone, and she tried to follow her into the car.

Mo Li was angry to see it.

At this time, she saw Evelyn is persistent, so she couldn't help scolding her with anger.

"What can you do if you go with us? What can you do except being a drag on Mr. Hawk?"

With that, she forced their hands to separate and pushed Evelyn away hard.

"Go away!"

After that, she ignored Evelyn and put Lucas in the car and immediately closed the door. She went to the driver's seat, opened the door, got in the car and closed the door. Her actions were in one smooth motion, and then she disappeared in Evelyn's astonishment.

Evelyn watched the car go further and further, and her face was full of annoyance.

She wanted to go after the car, but how could two legs compare with a four wheeled car.

Even because of running fast, she fell to the ground and sprained her ankle.

Mo Li drove and saw Evelyn fall down because of chasing the car. She raised her mouth corner coldly and accelerated to leave.

Evelyn fell to the ground and watched the car disappear. She had no choice but stand up again.

Just when she was going to knock the dust out of her clothes, she smelled the bloody on her hands. She was stunned.

She did fell just now. Although there were bruises, she did not bleed at all.

But where did the dried blood come from?

Just when she was wondering, she suddenly saw there is a pool of dark color in the place where Lucas had just fallen.

It wasn't until then that she realized Lucas was hurt.

She was shocked and turned pale, and understood why Mo Li would suddenly treat her in that way. She was upset about herself and also worried about Lucas.

She even didn't know when Lucas was hurt!

But at this time, the messy footsteps sounded behind her again.

"You go there to find them! We can never let them run away! "

"Yes!"

When Evelyn heard the voice of Yao Si, she had her heart in her mouth.

She must never be caught again!

Thinking about it, she began to look around, intending to do what Mo Li said and hide in a place, waiting for Cater to come and pick her up.

Finally, she found a blind corner on the opposite hillside where she could hide.

She ran towards the hillside quickly without hesitation. Just squatting down and hiding, she saw Yao Si and the others running out of the woods.

They carried weapons in their hands which were reflecting cold light in the moonlight, and at the same time, Evelyn took a breath of cold air.

Because she saw that the weapons those people carried were guns!

She hurriedly covered her mouth in fear of screaming and drawing their attention.

Yao Si and the others didn't find her. They scattered and began to search around.

Evelyn crouched in this blind corner, dared not move at all.

Especially when she saw someone coming to her hiding place, she suddenly had her heart in her mouth and even held her breath.

Fortunately, the man did not find her. After a search, he turned around and went to another place.

Evelyn hid in the blind corner and watched them search for about half an hour. She dared not move.

Fortunately, their search was finally over.

“Boss, they are gone!”

Those who searched around returned to Yao Si and reported respectfully.

Hearing this, Yao Si glanced at the open mountain road around him. His face was gloomy to the extreme with a rage!

“Morons, damn it!”

He kicked these man down one after another madly. If it was not convenient to kill people in country Z, he felt like killing them at the time!

Evelyn watched his angry face from a distance, and her eyes were full of fear.

At the moment, Evelyn suddenly understood one thing.

Mo Li forced her to stay, not because she was anxious to save Lucas, but she wanted her to die!

At the thought of this, Evelyn’s eyes turned chill.

She forced herself to calm down, crouched in the blind corner, waited for Yao Si to finish venting and leave completely, and then breathed out a mouthful of turbid breath and fell to the ground.

Blowing the cold wind, she couldn’t help but shiver.

At this time, she was shocked to find that her back was drenched because of cold sweat.

She rested for a while and waited for Cater to come.

But she waited for a long time and saw nobody was coming. She was worried, especially about Lucas's injury.

At last, she decided to wait for another ten minutes. If she didn't see Cater in ten minutes, she would leave by herself.

After that, Evelyn estimated that it was nearly ten minutes and Cater still hadn't come. So she didn't plan to wait any longer, running in the opposite direction of Yao Si's departure.

On the dim road, she was the only one running. The silence around set off her clear heart beat.

Normally, such a quiet environment should have frightened Evelyn, but she was worried about Lucas and had no time to care about it.

She didn't know how long she ran. When she was almost out of breath and strength, she finally saw several cars coming from far away with a high speed.

Her eyes flashed with joy and rushed out without thinking.

The driver was shocked when he saw a woman rushing to the car suddenly. Cater, who was sitting in the copilot's seat, recognized Evelyn at the moment when she appeared.

"Stop!"

His pupils shrank and he ordered his subordinate to stop. His subordinate stopped the car immediately.

He gave his order very timely.

The car stopped when it touched Evelyn's knees.

Evelyn heard the screeching brake sound, felt the slight touch of her lower body, and her whole face turned pale totally.

At this time, she regretted what she had done.

If the driver didn't stop the car in time, she would have been hit and flown out.

"Young lady, are you ok?"

Cater came back to himself and immediately got out of the car to check with concern.

When Evelyn heard the voice, she responded in shock. "Cater!"

She breathed a sigh of relief and grabbed Cater at once. She said nervously, "I'm ok. Go to find Mo Li. Lucas is injured."

Hearing this, Cater's face changed suddenly.

.....

At the same time, in the private hospital of the Hawk Group.

Mo Li drove fast all the way and sent Lucas to the rescue room.

Doctors and nurses had already knew the superior arrangement, and secretly rescued Lucas.

They took out the bullet that hit Lucas's shoulder, sewed up the wound, and sent him out.

"How is Mr. Hawk doing?"

Mo Li saw Lucas being pushed out and immediately went forward to ask with concern.

"Mr. Hawk is not in danger now. The bullet has been taken out. He will wake up when the anesthetic has no effect."

The doctor replied truthfully and Mo Li breathed a sigh of relief heavily.

She helped the nurse send Lucas to the ward, and then stayed in the ward to take care of him.

On the bed, Lucas frowned even when he was in a coma, but it did not affect his handsome appearance. On the contrary, it added a morbid beauty.

Mo Li watched him and couldn't help being obsessed.

An hour later, the anesthetic in Lucas's body slowly receded.

His eyelashes trembled and he opened his eyes. In a moment, he was at a loss.

"Mr. Hawk, you're awake!"

Mo Li saw him wake up and bent down to ask excitedly: "Does the wound hurt? Do you need me to call the doctor? "

When Lucas saw her, the daze in his eyes suddenly disappeared in a flash and his eyes became fierce.

He ignored Mo Li and struggled to sit up.

"Mr. Hawk, what are you doing?"

Mo Li saw he doing this and tried to stop him in a hurry.

"Go away!"

Lucas pushed her away with a sullen face and was about to tear off the injection needle on his hand.

Mo Li was frightened and grabbed Lucas' hand in a hurry.

"Mr. Hawk, you shouldn't do this!"

"Get out of my way! Don't stop me looking for her! "

Lucas pushed her away and yelled at her.

Mo Li suddenly understood that her Mr. Hawk was going to look for Nora. She was very jealous, but she still forced herself to stand it and tried to persuade him.

"Mr. Hawk, young lady will be fine. Just now, Cater called, he has picked up young lady!"

Lucas heard that, so he stopped struggling.

He stared at Mo Li with cold eyes and said with anger: “Mo Li, did I indulge you too much, so you forget your identity now?”

Mo Li’s heart trembled when she heard his words.

She knew that Mr. Hawk was going to get even with her for what happened just now.

So it was.

Although Lucas was comatose before, his consciousness remained a little.

He heard their conversation clearly.

“How dare you leave Nora in that place?”

In the face of Lucas’s sharp question, Mo Li bit her lips, “At that time, I saw you...”

She tried to explain, but before she finished speaking, Lucas interrupted.

“I don’t want to hear any excuses. When the task is over, get out of the country and never show up again!”

Mo Li raised her head abruptly. Her eyes were full of disbelief, and her face turned pale in a moment.

“Mr. Hawk, are you going to drive me away?”

After that, Evelyn rushed in from outside.

“Lucas ! ”

When she saw Lucas awake in the hospital bed, she was finally relieved.

Lucas was also relieved to see that she was all right.

“Did you hurt?”

He asked with concern.

Evelyn shook her head to indicate she was OK.

Then she thought of Lucas's wound and worriedly said, "How about you? Where are you hurt?"

Lucas didn't want Evelyn to worry. He smiled and said, "I just hurt a little. Don't worry."

Mo Li, hearing this, had a look of dissent.

She opened her mouth to try to say something, but she saw Lucas's fierce eyes and trembled all over, and then she bit back the words.

Evelyn, of course, saw the movements of the two.

She knew Lucas didn't want her to worry about him. She simply didn't ask any more questions. Seeing that he didn't look good and he was sweating on his forehead, she helped him back to bed with heartache.

"Now that you are injured, lie down and take care of yourself. Don't toss and turn restlessly."

Lucas listened to her concerned words, and the cold on his face gradually disappeared. Instead, he was lying in bed smiling.

After Evelyn saw him lying in bed obediently, she got up and found Mo Li still standing in the ward, frowning slightly.

"What are you still doing here? Don't you see Lucas is going to have a rest? Get out! "

Hearing her words, Mo Li looked terrible.

She wanted to open her mouth to retort, but was wary of Lucas.

In the end, she could only look at Lucas and hope that he could let her stay.

But Lucas didn't pay any attention to her, and his eyes were always on Evelyn.

In a moment, her face was extreme terrible, and the fierce jealousy was burning inside her. However, she had no choice but to turn around and leave.

She went out of the ward and was unwilling to leave in this way. So she stood at the door staring at the ward lingeringly.

Cater looked at her and shook his head helplessly.

He could see that Mo Li was into Mr. Hawk, but her deeds were useless in his eyes.

Especially at the time Mr. Hawk was more and more interested in young lady. It was even more impossible for him to fell in love with Mo Li.

He thought that Mo Li was also a rare talent. He didn't want her to ruin her future, so he went forward to advise her.

"Mo Li, no matter what is on your mind. Stay away from young lady. She is the taboo of Mr. Hawk. I think you should know the consequences of angering Mr. Hawk."

After that, he passed Mo Li by and left.

Mo Li did not move, but her twisted face showed that she didn't accept Cater's advice.

But it was also because she accept it, so she was burning with anger inside.

Why?

What qualification did Nora have to be with her Mr. Hawk and become the untouchable taboo of Mr. Hawk!

Evelyn didn't know that Mo Li's hatred for her has deepened again.

She has been around Lucas since Mo Li left.

She fetched water to wipe his body.

When she took off Lucas's bloodstained clothes, her heart broke.

Especially when she saw the wound on his shoulder and the overflowed blood, she took a breath of cold air.

“This is what you said you hurt a little!”

She took the towel, sobbed, wanted to hit him, and was afraid of touching Lucas’s wound.

Lucas saw her tears overflowing in an instant and wiped them away tenderly.

“You don’t have to cry. It’s not a big deal as long as I’m not dead!”

Hearing his words, Evelyn stared at him sulkily.

“Bah, bah... How can you curse yourself like this! “

Lucas chuckled, stroked her cheek and said, “Okay, don’t worry. I’m ok now.”

Evelyn pressed her lips and held on to his hand.

“Well, I won’t worry about you, but I don’t want you to suffer this again, and don’t hide it from me even if you get hurt in the future.”

Lucas nodded.

After that, Evelyn helped Lucas to put on the clean sick clothes. After cleaning up, Lucas was tired and fell asleep.

Evelyn looked at Lucas, who was asleep, with guilt in her eyes.

If it wasn’t for her carelessness, how could so many things have happened.

She was thinking about it, and was also gradually tired. She fell asleep on the sofa.

.....

The next day, Sophia and Devin learned that their son was injured and hospitalized, so they rushed over.

However, when they just arrived at the hospital, they met envy who came to see Lucas.

The three rushed to the ward together.

Evelyn heard the noise, waked up on the sofa, saw them coming in, and immediately greeted them.

“Dad, mom, Miss Miller, why are you here?”

Sophia scolded her with a sulky face when she saw her.

“Why am I here? Aren’t you shameless to ask that? if it wasn’t for you get Lucas hurt, why would I come? We haven’t had a peaceful day since you married in our family! “

Evelyn was upset because of her scold, but she couldn’t retort.

Because she did get Lucas hurted and hospitalized, she let Sophia reprimand her without retorting.

Envy saw Evelyn is obedient, and her eyes were full of shock, as if she was in a trance.

She knew what happened last night, so she kept worrying about it all the time. As a result, she didn’t rest all night.

She thought she could get the news that Nora was k!lled this morning, but she got the news that Lucas was injured.

At that time, she didn’t care about what happened to Nora at all. She hurried to the hospital, but she didn’t expect to see Nora is unharmed!

How could this happen? That man didn’t succeed in k!lling her?

But he promised her!

She was wondering in her heart and didn’t notice that Evelyn saw her look at all.

Evelyn didn’t understand why Envy looked at her in surprise, and there were other emotions in her eyes.

She couldn’t help but wonder.

Why did she respond in this way?

Maybe she knew something?

In an instant, Evelyn's heart was full of doubts.

But there were just doubts.

And at the time she was being scolded by Sophia, and she couldn't think so much.

But Lucas in the hospital bed was woken up by them.

He frowned at the moment when he saw Evelyn standing in front of his mother like a sinner.

"Mom, why are you here?"

When Sophia saw that he was awake, she couldn't attend to scold Evelyn and hurried to the bedside and said, "Lucas, you wake up, how do you feel? Do you want the doctor to come over? "

Envy also collected herself and went to echo with her. "Yes, Lucas, are you ok? I was shocked to hear that you were hurt."

Then Lucas was surprised to notice envy.

"Envy, you're here, too."

Envy's smile was a little stiff after she heard this.

"You're hurt. How can I not come?"

Sophia also spoke for her: "Envy came here only because she cares about you. Unlike someone, did nothing helpful except to get you into trouble."

Lucas frowned, and he knew the person his mother said was Evelyn.

"Mom, it was an accident. It had nothing to do with Nora."

Sophia didn't believe his words, but looking at his son's calm face, she didn't say anything more.

But even so, she also hated Evelyn in various ways, even hated her eyes and nose.

Evelyn felt warm because Lucas spoke for her, so she didn't care about Sophia's face.

Anyway, she had hated her for a long time.

In this way, under Lucas's mediation, the atmosphere in the ward was peaceful.

Evelyn went to buy breakfast and helped Lucas finish it.

Sophia watched her tried her best to take care of her son. She looked better than before.

But Envy couldn't stand the intimacy between Evelyn and Lucas. After a while, she proposed to leave.

Lucas didn't keep her, which made her very sad.

But she still forced herself to look spunky and said goodbye.

"Then I'm leaving, Lucas. Take good care of yourself. I'll visit you tomorrow."

Then she turned and left under Lucas's eyes.

Evelyn looked at her back with an unpredictable face.

Of course, envy didn't notice that.

After leaving the hospital, she went back to the car and couldn't wait to contact Yao Si.

"Hello?"

The tired voice of Yao Si soon sounded in the phone.

Envy didn't notice that. She grabbed the cell phone and bombarded him with questions, "What's did you do? I gave you such a good chance, why is she still OK? "

Yao Si was never questioned by anyone like this. His eyes flashed with anger, but he soon subdued it.

After all, this woman was still useful to him at the moment.

“You offered the chance, but you didn’t tell me that Lucas had great dexterity!”

Envy was too angry to speak.

Should she be blamed for the failure of the plan?

Before she could talk back to satire, Yao Si continued: “Although the plan failed, it’s okay. We still have a chance to deal with her...”

Envy frowned, bit back what she just wanted to scold, and asked, “What is it?”

Yao Si smiled, “The chance? Is Miss Miller willing to cooperate with me again? “

Envy thought that maybe he had any good plans, but she didn’t expect that he would say this. So she refused angrily: “No!”

She has taken a risk to cooperate with him, so she couldn’t take a risk again. If Lucas found out, she could never marry him in her life.

When Yao Si heard her rejection, he was not surprised.

He raised his eyebrows and raised his mouth corner evilly. “Are you sure you want to refuse my proposal?”

Envy bit her teeth and was about to answer, but she was shocked and angry for what he said next.

“What would Lucas think if he knew you were involved in this event?”

Hearing the words, Envy held the mobile phone tightly until her fingertips turned white. Her face looked extremely terrible, and her eyes were full of fear.

.....

Meanwhile, in the ward.

Sophia and Devin stayed with Lucas for a while and then left.

As they left, Lucas called Cater and Mo Li in.

“Mo Li, you contact Mo Zhui. Tell them to cooperate with Cater to investigate and find out the real identities of those people.”

Mo Li didn't want to leave, but she dare not disobey Lucas's order. So she could only leave with Cater.

That night, while Evelyn was out shopping for food, Cater got a clue to report.

“Mr. Hawk, we have some information.”

“Go ahead.”

“It was Yao Si, the second son of JK Group, who kidnapped young lady last night.”

Lucas frowned, his eyes were full of doubts. “JK?”

Cater replied with a nod: “Yes, the Group was transformed from the underworld. Its background is fairly complicated, especially the second son who is said to be a ruthless character. At the beginning, the successor of the company should be his half-blooded brother, but the day before his brother took office, he died in a car accident.”

Lucas narrowed his eyes and didn't speak.

“Although there is no evidence left behind, he is the most suspected. Since his elder brother died, he has got authority in the company,” Cater continued.

When he said that, he paused, looked at Lucas's face, and saw that he still didn't tend to speak. Then he continued: “According to our investigation, this time they made such a big move to fight for the U disk probably because it is related to his position in the company.”

Lucas heard this and sneered lightly.

“Check this company to see what is its business.”

He said, narrowed his eyes dangerously: "If you offend people you shouldn't offend, you need to have the ability to keep yourself unharmed."

When Cater heard the gloomy words, he couldn't help shivering.

He knew that Mr. Hawk was completely annoyed this time. He accepted the order at once: "Yes, I will check now."

After that, he turned to leave, then he saw Evelyn who came back with dinner.

"Mrs. Hawk."

He greeted her respectfully, and after Evelyn nodded in response, he left.

Evelyn went back to the ward and she was very distressed to see Lucas look tired .

"Tired?"

She went up and put the dinner on the bedside table, helped Lucas lean against the head of the bed: "After dinner, I'll wipe your body, and then you can have a rest."

Lucas did not decline. Evelyn took out the dinner and laid them out. She planned to feed him as she did in the morning, but Lucas stopped her.

"Huh?"

Evelyn looked at him puzzled.

Lucas was a little embarrassed. The reason why he let Evelyn feed him in the morning was to show Evelyn's good side to his mother. At this time, it was strange to be fed again.

"I hurt my should, not my hand. I can do it myself."

He said and grabbed the cutlery in Evelyn's hands.

Evelyn guessed a little bit of his mind, and felt warm for his meticulousness.

"Be careful, then. Don't get the wound dehiscent."

She said this with full concern in her eyes which made Lucas feel warm.

“By the way, have you eaten?”

Evelyn was stunned and said with a smile, “I’ll buy it after you finish.”

She just bought Lucas dinner. She was afraid that he would be hungry if she came back late.

Hearing this, Lucas knew she cared about him so much, so he was moved and a little distressed.

He looked at the dinner in front of him. It was very rich. More importantly, he could not finish it alone.

“Eat with me.”

After that, before Evelyn could refuse, he began to feed her.

After all, he didn’t forget that Evelyn couldn’t be hungry, otherwise her stomachache would recur.

And Evelyn didn’t expect this to happen.

Most of the dinner that she originally bought for Lucas went into her stomach.

In a moment, she was annoyed and moved.

“Are you full?”

She was worried that Lucas wasn’t full.

Lucas looked at the worry on her face and smiled, “Do you think I’m the one who will starve myself?”

Evelyn was speechless and shook her head.

He was not the one who would treat himself like that.

Thinking this, she was relieved. “Then I’ll fetch some water to wipe your body.”

Lucas sat on the bed and watched her get hot water.

“Take off your clothes.”

She twisted the towel and said to Lucas naturally.

After that, she didn't know why she thought what she said was strange.

Before she thought more, Lucas has already used his uninjured hand to take off his clothes and his strong upper body revealed.

"Yes."

He said with a low voice. Evelyn subconsciously looked up and saw his healthy wheat-color skin.

It was different from her yesterday's worried mood. When she saw this powerful body, her face blushed in an instant and her hands shook.

Lucas naturally saw her shyness. Her cheeks were red, just like ripe peaches, which sent out an attractive fragrance and lured people to take a bite.

He looked at her, and his eyes darkened. Then his sexy Adam's apple rolled.

"Didn't you say you'll wipe my body for me? Why don't you move? "

Evelyn came back to herself and her eyes were so flustered that she didn't know where to look at, but she still summoned up her courage to wipe his body with the towel.

But she was so nervous that she tripped and stumbled, and then fell towards Lucas.

"You're throwing yourself in my arms, eh?"

Lucas put his arms around Evelyn's waist, smelled the unique fragrance from her, and said with a hoarse voice.

Evelyn's face was reddened more for what he said. She only felt that the skin he was touching was so hot that it seemed to burn.

"Who, who would do that!"

She wanted to stand up in embarrassment, but Lucas tightly held her waist.

Evelyn was hugged tightly by Lucas, and at the same time, she found out the physical change in Lucas. She was ashamed and annoyed.

“Let me go!”

She struggled to escape from him.

But she didn't know that her action disordered Lucas's breath.

“Don't move, let me hold you for a while.”

Although Lucas felt like getting laid with the beauty in his arms, his health did not allow him to do that.

He hugged Evelyn tightly, buried his head in her neck and smelled her sweetness hard.

Evelyn has lived with him for so long, so she knew what was on his mind at this time.

She was very glad that Lucas was injured at this time. Otherwise, she would have been exhausted as before.

Thinking of this, she simply let Lucas hold her, waiting for him to calm down, and then cleaned him up again.

For the next few days, Evelyn was in hospital looking after Lucas.

This day, Lucas's stitches could be removed and he could be discharged, so the two intend to leave.

For fear that Lucas would hurt his wound, Evelyn asked him to sit aside and rest. She tidied up his things for him.

Lucas watched her do this busily, as if they were an old couple who has lived together for more than ten years.

Although Evelyn didn't need Lucas's help, Lucas would always deliver it as soon as she needed something.

This silent tacit understanding made the two feel sweet.

Mo Li arranged the trip back. When she returned to the ward, she saw such a picture. Her eyes were red with jealousy, but she put up with it because of Lucas.

She clenched her fists tightly and knocked on the door with a cold face, "Mr. Hawk, the car is ready to go at any time."

Lucas saw her, and the tenderness on his face suddenly subsided.

Mo Li was even more heartbroken.

Why, why would it become like this?

She asked madly in her heart, but did not dare to let out her emotion at all.

Lucas did not know the anger in her heart. After glancing at her, he looked at Evelyn and said softly, "Have you finished packing?"

Evelyn looked at the luggage next to her, felt everything was almost here, and nodded.

"Let's go."

Lucas nodded and went up to help her take the luggage.

Evelyn was worried about his injury and refused. But Lucas insisted on doing this.

"Don't worry, I'm okay."

Lucas took Evelyn's hand and was deeply moved by her concern.

He glanced at Mo Li, who was stunned at the door, and said in a cold voice, "Take the luggage down."

With that, he took Evelyn straight out of the ward.

Mo Li looked at the back of the two leaving, thinking of Mr. Hawk's indifferent tone just now, and felt very wronged.

She stared at them with gloomy eyes which was mixed with jealousy and unwillingness, but she still bit her teeth to force herself to act according to the order.

Then the three returned to the hotel and Evelyn helped Lucas rest on the sofa.

Although the wound stitches were removed, he still needed rest.

Lucas didn't refuse Evelyn's kindness.

Half leaning on the sofa, he saw Mo Li coming in with the luggage, as if he thought of something, he stopped her.

"Mo Li."

His cold voice made Mo Li's heart tremble.

"Mr. Hawk, what's the matter?"

She put down the luggage and asked respectfully.

Lucas glanced at her coldly and said in a deep voice, "Today, you go back to Mo Zhui, and I will ask him to rearrange someone to come."

Mo Li raised her head in amazement when she heard this. Her eyes were full of panic. "Mr. Hawk, are you going to drive me away?"

Evelyn, who poured water for Lucas, was also surprised at this, but more relieved.

After all, if Mo Li kept being around, she would not be at ease.

This woman didn't simply aim at her, but wanted her life!

When she thought about it, there was a sense of resentment in her heart.

So she didn't participate in their conversation. After giving Lucas the warm water, she went to the room with her luggage. She hasn't been back in a few days. It needed to be cleaned up.

Moreover, she believed that Lucas would handle it well.

Lucas didn't know what Evelyn was thinking. Seeing her back in the room, he looked at Mo Li, who was looking wronged.

"You are not suitable for being my subordinate because you affected business because of your personal feelings again and again. I will ask Mo Zhui to arrange other tasks for you."

Mo Li heard this, and was in a panic.

"Mr. Hawk, I know I was wrong. Please don't drive me away."

She begged Lucas.

Lucas was unmoved.

Mo Li was flustered. It was not easy for her to have the opportunity to work beside Mr. Hawk.

She knew in her heart that if she was driven away this time and wanted to return to Mr. Hawk in the future, it would be impossible.

Thinking of this, she saw Evelyn who was busily cleaning in the bedroom from the corner of her eye.

She knew why Mr. Hawk wanted to drive her away. Although she was furious, she still bit her teeth and said: "I know that you are blaming me for not protecting young lady well, getting young lady into danger again and again. I beg you to give me another chance to make amends. Now those people have not completely given up. They will definitely do it again. I promise to do my best to protect young lady, and I dare not to let my personal feelings affect my work!"

Lucas's eyes darkened when he heard her words.

What Mo Li said was what he wanted.

Those people haven't been got rid of yet, and Nora could be in danger at any time.

And Mo Li was transferred here because she was the best person to protect Nora.

Mo Li saw Lucas is silent and has hesitation in his eyes. She couldn't help but feel happy because she seemed to have another chance.

She wanted to convince him again, but before she could speak, Lucas interrupted her.

"I don't have the final say."

Lucas wanted to keep Mo Li, but he took Evelyn into consideration.

Mo Li understood what he meant, and the joy in her eyes froze.

Ask Nora that b!tch? Without thinking, she knew that b!tch certainly didn't want her to stay.

In fact, she didn't.

Evelyn didn't want Mo Li to stay, but she could recognize that Lucas wanted to keep her.

Although she knew Lucas wanted to keep Mo Li for her, she still felt uncomfortable.

"I don't care. This is your subordinate. You want to keep her? Then keep her."

She pressed her lips and spoke with a trace of sulk.

Lucas recognized that, but because of his worry, he didn't follow Evelyn's idea to drive Mo Li away.

"Okay, I will give you another chance. If you make any mistakes again, you will immediately go abroad."

He warned Mo Li with a serious face.

Mo Li was happy and nodded repeatedly.

Lucas didn't care about that, motioned her to leave, intending to explain to the woman in his arms why he did this.

Because just now he said to keep Mo Li, he felt the woman in his arms frozen for a moment, and she was expressionless.

Mo Li didn't want to leave, but she accepted the order and get out of the room. As soon as she left, Lucas asked Evelyn to sit down in front of him.

"Are you angry?"

Evelyn Davis heard this and pursed her lips, "No."

Lucas Hawk couldn't help chuckling.

"No? That pout is enough to hang a teapot."

He kissed the tip of the nose of Evelyn Davis and explained, "The reason why I want Mo Li to stay is because she is the best one to protect you. Secondly, compared with other people, Mo Li's ability is much better."

Evelyn Davis knew that Lucas Hawk was thinking for her, but she was still unhappy.

However, Lucas Hawk's gentle coax gradually dissipated her unhappiness.

They were in the room for a long time.

In the evening, Evelyn Davis rested in the room. Lucas Hawk got up and went to the living room because Cater Wood came to see him.

In the living room, Cater Wood reported all the information he found these days.

Lucas Hawk listened and squinted dangerously.

This was a surprise to him.

With this information, it seemed that there was no need for the person to start.

He thought he had an idea in his mind and told Cater Wood, "After you report these information, check their tax situation. Companies like them that do not hurry up should also have tax problems."

Cater Wood nodded and left with an order.

After he left, Lucas Hawk turned around and went back to the room. He found that Evelyn Davis was awake.

She did not go out because she heard them talking outside.

Evelyn Davis saw Lucas Hawk coming in and asked softly, "Are you finished?"

Lucas Hawk nodded.

Evelyn Davis was just about to talk about the flash disk, but before she could even ask, someone knocked the door.

She took back her words, "I'll open the door."

Lucas Hawk did not stop her.

Evelyn Davis opened the door and found that Envy Miller was standing outside with a smile on her face.

"Is there something wrong, Miss Miller?"

She did not invite Envy Miller to come so she asked in a cold voice.

Envy Miller naturally noticed the coldness in her words. Although, she was very uncomfortable, she did not show it.

"I heard that Lucas was discharged today, so I came to see him." she said while looking into the room, "Lucas."

She saw Lucas Hawk heard her voice and came out of the room.

She cried with joy but Evelyn Davis did not let her in.

She pushed Evelyn Davis and stood at the door with a frown.

"Lucas, why don't you inform me when you come back from the hospital. Do you even treat me as a friend?"

Evelyn Davis listened and thought that this was extremely harsh. A strange feeling toward Envy Miller grew stronger than ever.

However, when she went to observe it again, she found that apart from caring about Lucas Hawk, Envy Miller did not do anything too much and even their conversation was just regular, mostly about work.

As if everything was her own wishful thinking.

She could only temporarily press down the strange feeling.

In the next two days, Lucas Hawk and Evelyn Davis stayed in the hotel for final observation. In the absence of other people's disturbance, they got along warmly.

The emotional progress was beyond Evelyn Davis' expectation.

At this time, she did not find herself trapped.

***

At the same time at the JK Group.

After two days, the arrangement made by Lucas Hawk finally made the group disordered.

Many of their brokerage firms, real estate and other industries had been reported anonymously. They were suspected of illegal prostitution, tax evasion, corruption with solid evidence and forced by the people above to close down for rectification and business suspension.

For the time being, all the financial news and internet were breaking the news.

As the leader of the group, Yao Si was so worried about these things and decided not to deal with them temporarily.

"You have to give us an account this time."

In the conference room, Yao Si was being forced by various shareholders to explain the matter and compensate them for their loss.

“I will find out what Mr. Yang have said as soon as possible and let the company reopen. As the loss to our economy, I will transfer my personal account to the company.”

He still needed them in the company, so Yao Si had to compromise their conditions.

After a lot of bargaining, he finally dismissed.

He went back to the office impatiently. He sat on the office chair, loosened his tie and asked his trusted subordinate.

“Find out who targeted us this time.”

The henchman heard the impatience in his tone and did not dare to hesitate to reply, “It’s found out. It’s reported by the Lucas Hawk’s side. It’s said that they also found a lot about our previous scandal.”

Yao Si’s eyes narrowed dangerously.

“Lucas Hawk?” he asked, “It seems that I have underestimated him!”

The subordinate nodded.

Yao Si did not care either. He sat on the office chair and smashed the table.

In fact, the disturbance had no effect on him.

He knew clearly that his JK Group was transferred by underground forces and many industries could not really get rid of it. Sooner or later, one day, it would happen. It was only a matter of time.

The only trouble was that this time, it had great influence on his unstable position.

However, he turned to think that as long as he got the flash disk, his position would be stable.

In the end, he did not worry much.

After thinking about it for a while, he gave a lot of orders to his subordinate.

One of them was to spy at Lucas Hawk.

Lucas Hawk did not expect that Yao Si could spare him and keep spying on him after so many things happened.

“It seemed that such things were very important to him. Cater, arrange a plane. I hope I can back to Jingdu as soon as possible.”

Cater Wood nodded and did it immediately.

As he left, Lucas Hawk said to Mo Li, “Inform Mo Zhui, we need Xiu Luo Tang and the headquarters to do something.”

Mo Li nodded and left.

When they were finished, Evelyn Davis went over with an apologetic face.

“Sorry, I did not expect to cause you so many troubles.”

Actually, since she came back, she had always wanted to say that. As a result, she had delayed it until now because of various reasons.

Lucas Hawk glanced at her and shook his head indifferently, “This matter has nothing to do with you. You should also be involved. Don’t think about.”

Evelyn Davis listened to him. Although she still felt guilty, she could not help but relax.

He did not blame her.

After staying in the hotel for a while, Cater Wood came back.

He bought tickets to Kyoto for them.

In the afternoon, a group of people walked towards the airport.

Envy Miller got the news and hurried to go.

“Lucas!”

Lucas Hawk was surprised to see her.

“Envy, why are you here?”

“I know you have to go so I come to see you off.” she said and asked the assistant to come over. She took two gift bags and handed them to her.

“This is my gifts for aunt, uncle, and grandpa. You go back and say hello to them for me.”

Lucas Hawk looked at the gifts and did not refuse them.

Evelyn Davis stared at the gifts weirdly.

However, she didn't think much about it. After the two shuddered and nodded politely to Envy Miller, she went back to Kyoto with Lucas Hawk.

It was in the evening when they arrived in Jingdu.

The driver of the Hawk's family had been waiting outside the airport for a long time. After they got on the bus, they went straight back to the new house of Hawk's family.

When they got home, they went back to the room to wash and rest.

At one time, the room was very quiet. They were doing their own things.

Evelyn Davis arranged the luggage and suddenly saw the flash disk she left in her bag. She was stunned and remembered what it was.

“Lucas, I almost forgot. Here you are.”

She took the flash disk and gave it to Lucas Hawk.

When Lucas Hawk saw that thing, he did not respond for a moment, “What is this?”

Evelyn Davis explained, “This is what those people are looking for. I almost forgot.”

When Lucas Hawk heard this, his eyes flashed light.

“This thing is in you.”

He said while taking the flash disk and checking it.

On the contrary, Evelyn Davis was embarrassed because of this.

“I’m sorry. I didn’t know what to do with this thing when it gets to my hand and I didn’t pay attention to it. I put it away. I didn’t expect to cause you so much trouble.”

Lucas Hawk saw worry in her face and comforted her, “It’s nothing. They should not believe that it’s in you.”

His eyes twinkled when he said his guess. It seemed that he had an idea. He put away the flash disk and said softly, “For your safety, I’ll take care of this thing later.”

He was frowning. There was worry in his eyes.

“Don’t you need to give it back? What if they come to trouble you again?”

Lucas Hawk chuckled and explained, “Even if we give it back, they won’t let us go easily.”

Evelyn Davis heard his words and saw his face changed slightly. His eyes were puzzled.

“Why?”

Lucas Hawk knew she was going to ask that. He gave her a reason.

“This thing records important information about their group. In order to prevent leakage, they will kill all people who know these things.”

When Evelyn Davis heard this, her face turned pale.

When Lucas Hawk saw through her fear, he could not help comforting her, “Don’t worry. I won’t allow them to hurt you.”

“But...”

Evelyn Davis was still uneasy. She thought about the kidnapping and injuries Lucas Hawk suffered.

Before she finished, Lucas Hawk held her in his arms and comforted her, "It will be okay, trust me!"

Evelyn Davis looked at the light in his eyes. The uneasiness in her heart was inexplicably appeased.

She nodded in agreement.

After that, Lucas Hawk went out to arrange things regarding the flash disk. He did not come back until an hour later.

Evelyn's heart ached for him. "It's too late now. Rest first, you haven't recovered yet!"

Lucas Hawk did not refuse either. After all, he felt the pain in the wound.

Evelyn Davis served him and took off his clothes and rest. He did not want to see his wound. He worried about the infection. She let him had his medicine and rest.

Lucas Hawk naturally cooperated with her.

He lied n.aked in the bed. Evelyn Davis took the ointment and put it on for him.

But, she did not know that in the moment she touched his back, he was tense but then he relaxed with time.

With Evelyn Davis' touch, his breath was gradually disordered.

He did not expect that Evelyn Davis had such impact on him.

Evelyn Davis did not find any changes in his body. After giving him some medicine, she planned to get up and leave.

Just as she stood up, her wrist was grabbed by someone.

Being pulled to lie down, she was under him.

She clung to Lucas Hawk's arm and directly met his lustful eyes.

Before she could open her mouth, he k!ssed her.

She did not care to resist. Apart from her fear of touching Lucas Hawk's wound, she also had her own thoughts and wanted to indulge in.

Without having sex for a long time, Lucas was very fierce this night.

It was only after daybreak that they stopped.

At this time, Evelyn Davis did not have any strength left to get up and wash.

***

In the next two days, their life was a lot calmer.

However, compared to them, Yao Si's side was in constant trouble. There was another grievous news came again before he could deal with the events of company.

"Boss, the pharmaceutical factory laboratory got involved and some reporters reported our manufacture of forbidden drugs. Now, the outside world is in full crusades against us. The stock of the headquarters had been in turmoil for two days in a row and it has dropped a lot. The people above have also sent an inspection team to thoroughly investigate us, I'm afraid that you need to go back to deal with it."

When Yao Si heard this, his face got ugly.

"How can journalist get in? Are all the security guards in the drug factory rubbish?"

He shivered for a moment and answered honestly, "The following people has investigated that someone is helping the reporter secretly."

He said while looking carefully at Yao Si and continued, "According to the reporter's description, we found that the person who helped him is probably Lucas Hawk. Besides, it's very important, so boss you need to deal with it as soon as possible, or I'm afraid that those old guys in the head office will take this opportunity to shake your position."

Yao Si glanced coldly.

He knew that this event was important.

There were many people dissatisfied with him when he was at this position, but now there must be many people want to act in this situation.

What shocked him even more was that he did not expect Lucas Hawk to have such ability.

Yao Si always thought that Lucas Hawk was just a rich man from country Z. Now, it seemed that he was too narrow.

Especially, if this person could rescue people from his hands again and again, he was not a simple person.

He could not help being annoyed, but he soon calmed down, and it was not too late to know.

He did not know what he thought. Seeing that he did not make a decision, he asked again, "Boss, do we need to book a ticket back?"

Yao Si returned his mind and shook his head hesitantly.

He said, "Not yet. Things didn't get there. In case of any other force, JK would be finished."

He knew how important the flash disk was to JK, but the other side was also very important. He could not help but suggest, "Let's hire private lansquenet, then."

Yao Si did not respond immediately, but thought deeply.

It was undeniable that this was the best way at present. He finally agreed.

"Okay. You contact country D's Tiexue lansquenet and let them send people quickly. Tell them that things are urgent!"

He bowed his head and took the order, but Yao Si let go and ordered him to book a ticket for tomorrow.

The next day, Yao Si did leave country Z.

As he left, Lucas Hawk got the news really soon.

“Has he gone yet?”

Lucas Hawk was surprised when he heard Cater Wood’s report.

“Yes, I heard he leave early with his man.”

Cater Wood returned again.

Lucas Hawk frowned.

He should feel at ease when Yao Si left but somehow he always felt that this man should not leave that simply. It was not his style.

He thought for a while, but he couldn’t think of any reason. He stopped his tangled thought and said, “Let’s go ahead and let them keep watching. If there is any abnormality, let me know immediately.”

Cater Wood nodded and turned away.

Lucas Hawk looked at the back of his departure. His eyes narrowed slightly.

No matter whether this man was really leaving or acting, there was always a time to reveal it.

However, in the next two days, there was no change on Cater Wood’s side, which made Lucas Hawk began to doubt himself.

Did the man really leave?

He thought again and again and it was possible. After all, the events that Mo Zhui caused for him in abroad were also serious.

He thought that he planned to tell Evelyn Davis the good news, which would cut her worries.

That evening, Lucas Hawk called Evelyn Davis for a dinner.

Just as Evelyn Davis was dressed up, Lucas Hawk came back.

She sat in the car and looked at Lucas Hawk, who seemed to be in a good mood. She was surprised and said, "Is something good happened today? You seem in a good mood."

He heard this and said with a smile, "It's a good news."

He told her that Yao Si had left.

When he came back these days, Evelyn Davis stayed at home all the time. He was afraid to give Yao Si another chance to catch her and make trouble again.

Although she did not say it, Lucas Hawk saw it through.

When Yao Si left, he really wanted to take Evelyn Davis out for a walk.

Evelyn Davis did not know that he thought that. After hearing that Yao Si had left, the burden in her heart finally put down.

"Let's go."

She breathed a little, but could not help worrying a little, "Will he come back?"

Lucas Hawk knew the worry in her heart, took her hand and held it tightly. He comforted her, "Don't worry. If he happen to come back, I won't let him touch you."

Evelyn Davis listened to his words and felt relieved.

"You should pay attention to your own safety."

Lucas Hawk nodded. They arrived at a Chinese restaurant.

They ate in a harmonious atmosphere and because of the potential danger had gone, Evelyn Davis could not help but drink some wine with pleasure.

After finishing the meal, Evelyn Davis was very drunk.

"Lucas Hawk, how did you become two? Don't move."

She shook Lucas Hawk and stared at him.

Lucas Hawk looked at Evelyn Davis who was drunk, he was so helpless to help her.

“I did not move. You’re drunk.”

Evelyn Davis was drunk and confused at the same time. He heard Lucas Hawk mumbled discontentedly.

“I’m not drunk. I’ll never be drunk.”

When he heard this, he was neither laugh nor cry. He did not intend to argue with her while she was drunk.

He coaxed Evelyn Davis to the car and took her back home.

On the road, Lucas Hawk drove steadily. Evelyn Davis leaned against the door and fell asleep.

He became gentle.

He raised the temperature in the car. He was afraid that she might catch a cold.

She was unconscious and slept soundly.

Soon, they arrived. Looking at Evelyn Davis who was sleeping, he could not bear to wake her up so he lifted her from the car.

Mo Li, who knew that they were going out, was waiting in the living room uneasily. At this time, seeing Lucas holding Evelyn Davis, she felt very jealous.

She was clenching her fists and pressed her emotions down.

“Sir, your injury is not completely healed. Let me carry the young lady.”

She did not want Evelyn Davis to stay at Lucas Hawk’s arms.

However, Lucas avoided her, “No, boil some water for lady and send it to my room later.”

But, Lucas Hawk gave an order with a cold voice and walked upstairs with Evelyn Davis in his arms.

Looking at the back of two of them leaving, Mo Li's face became ugly.

It took a while for her to breathe and calmed down. She went to the kitchen to cook something for Evelyn Davis.

However, when she came upstairs with the soup she made, the scene up there hurt her badly.

In the room, Lucas Hawk and Evelyn Davis were in bed. He gently took off her coat and rubbed her hands and feet, which made Evelyn uncomfortable. Evelyn moaned subconsciously.

When Lucas Hawk heard the beautiful voice, he looked at Evelyn Davis' beautiful face and red lips. He could not help but hang down his head and hold her.

Evelyn Davis who was drunk, smelt the familiar scent and instead of resisting the kiss, she responded to it.

Mo Li was so jealous that she wanted to separate them.

But, she knew she could not.

She forced herself to calm down and did not leave. She knocked on the door to interrupt them.

When Lucas Hawk heard the knock on the door, he was able to recover from Evelyn Davis' seduction.

He gasped a little. There was a flash of dissatisfaction in his eyes. He looked sideways.

"What's the matter?"

Mo Li found the unhappiness in his eyes and she was very sad. She held her tears and offered the soup, "The soup is cooked—"

"Thank you. Now, you can go back to your room to have a rest." he cut her with a cold voice while receiving the soup.

Mo Li bit her lips and watched Lucas close the door in front of her face.

No need to think, she also knew what would happen between them tonight.

She was unwilling, but she had no other ways, so she can only turn and leave.

In the room, Lucas was holding the hangover soup, watching Evelyn, who was already drowsy on the bed, his eyes were full of love.

In order not to let Evelyn have a headache when she woke up in the next day, he personally served Evelyn and drank the sober soup.

But when he saw Evelyn's red lips that had become fuller after being stained by water, his lust that had already been suppressed turned up again.

This night was destined to be another passionate night.

The next few days, as Lucas said, everything was fine.

Evelyn resumed her previous schedule, two days at the company and two days at home.

When they relaxed their vigilance, a man full of coldness got off the cruise ship at Jingdu Pier.

His stiff face, straight spine, and the dangerous atmosphere around him all told that man was a tough man.

"I've arrived. Once I've settled in, I'll go to the Hawk family and step on it."

The man hung up the phone after he reported to someone.

Then, as he said, after settling, he walked towards the Hawk family.

Lucas and Evelyn did not know that someone was following them at this time.

The two worked normally.

After Evelyn sent Lucas away, she returned to the room and began to create.

The man chose an excellent location outside the courtyard, and could monitor the situation of the house clearly.

He naturally found Evelyn.

He squinted and looked at Evelyn, while rummaging through the information he had just received about the Hawk family.

“Nora Davis, Lucas Hawk’s wife, is said to be his most important woman, Sophia Hawk, Lucas Hawk’s mother ...”

He murmured to all the family members’ names of the Hawk family and seemed to be struggling who to be caught.

And all this, Evelyn did not know.

She was calm at home for a few days, and finally broke the calm on the seventh day after the return.

“Chang Xin, where are you now?”

Li Man excitedly asked on the phone, making Gu Changqing confused.

“General manager, I’m at home, what happened?”

She asked a little uneasily.

Freya said with a smile: “Yes, something did happen, but it’s a good thing. Come to the company soon.”

After she said, without waiting for Evelyn to ask, she hung up the phone.

Evelyn was confused, but she still packed things and walked towards the company.

But she didn’t expect that as soon as she entered the company, she received congratulations from various colleagues.

“Congratulations, Nora, congratulations!”

“Yeah, congratulations, you are really famous now.”

Evelyn listened to their congratulations and walked into the design department.

Similarly, many people in the design department also congratulated Evelyn for a while, they pleased her.

“Nora, you will become famous in the future, but don’t forget to support us!”

“Yeah, Nora, just let me know if you need any help in the future.”

Chloe looked at the designers who always flattered her before, they were now all around Evelyn, and her eyes were full of unwillingness.

“Well, her design was just showed on a fashion magazine, you congratulated her too early. In this era, the old and the new are updating fast. Maybe someone will replace her.”

She said so with jealousy, and everyone felt embarrassed.

However, Evelyn knew what happened from her words.

She ignored Chloe, said goodbye and walked towards the general manager’s office with a smile. Right now she just wanted to confirm whether her thought was right.

After a while, she arrived at Freya’s office.

When Freya saw her, she immediately took out the latest fashion magazine the company received today.

“Nora, you’re famous now, look at this magazine.”

She said so and gave the magazine to her, and then opened the company’s official website for Evelyn.

Although Evelyn already had the thought, she still couldn’t hide her excitement when she saw this magazine comments and the online reviews.

“This dress is so beautiful, it’s my style, why I didn’t notice this designer before.”

“Me too, I also went to see her official information, and the clothes on top of it made me really addicted.”

“Ah, I decided, I will buy this designer’s clothes from now on.”

Uh ...

In addition to these netizens, there were many veteran designers in the industry who had made comments on Evelyn’s designs.

“The lines are smooth, and the color matching is also innovative. She has potential.”

“It is true that the design is also trendy. Designers with independent thinking generally have a good future.”

It can be said that because of the compliments of these predecessors, Evelyn had made a small fire in this industry, and her reputation had also been famous too.

She also promoted the brand of the b.ranch.

This was why Freya was so happy.

“Yes, I have good news for you.”

She seemed to think of something, she looked at Evelyn with a bright smile. “After your design in NK magazine became famous, many magazines in this city also wanted to interview you. But they could not contact you, so they called me. They want to know if you are interested. “

Evelyn heard the words, and she was very happy, but she did not immediately agree, but told Freya to think about it.

Freya didn’t force her, after all, she knew Evelyn’s identity.

Then she talked to her about work, then Evelyn leave her office.

When Ji Li knew about Evelyn’s affair, and was filled with anger.

She thought that Evelyn wanted to fight with her.

Because Evelyn's outstanding performance, the more incompetent she would be.

What a pity, even if she was so angry that her heart and stomach were hurt, she had no good way to deal with her at this time, and could only watch her leave the company.

Evelyn didn't know that because of this, she was jealous by many people.

After she left the company, she couldn't hide her happiness and wanted to find someone to share this joy.

For the first time, Lucas's handsome face flashed in her mind.

She picked up her cell phone and called him immediately.

"What happened?"

After a while, Lucas's gentle voice rang from the phone.

When Evelyn heard his voice, she told him that she was famous now.

"So, congratulations!"

Lucas responded with a smile, he did not tell Evelyn that he had known about it in advance.

Evelyn listened to his congratulations, and the smile on her face became brighter.

"To celebrate the good news today, I intend to treat you tonight. I wonder if Mr. Hawk will be free?"

Lucas naturally would not refuse.

"Okay, you go back first, and I'll pick you up when I get off work."

Evelyn nodded, and immediately returned to the Hawk family.

At the same time, the man who had been monitoring them finally got the target.

He still decided to start with Evelyn.

After all, this's the woman that the man cared about most.

He had heard that they almost succeeded before.
