0 5 minutes read

Country M, Flanger Airport.

Nora, who had exactly the same appearance as Evelyn, wore a light-colored short skirt, a sunglasses, and was dragging her luggage to board the plane.

The destination on her ticket was country Z of Jingzu.

Yes, she planed to return, but she still wanted to be in secret.

“Without notice, my return will not affect our plans.”

She said to John with her mobile phone.

“Okay, everything is up to you.”

John would naturally agree with his daughter’s words with every conceit.

Nora curved corner of her mouth, she was in a good mood.

“That’s it, I’ll board the plane first.”

John nodded and said, “Pay attention to safety. When you are arrived, I’ll pick you up.”

Nora nodded and immediately hung up.

And all this, Evelyn did not know, nor did she know she was being followed again.

When she got home, she took out the business card that Freya gave her and thought about it.

She wanted to say that at this time hit the iron while hot, and then accepted a few interviews, no doubt that it would be very helpful to her future design.

In particular, these magazines who wanted to submit to her were not small companies, they all had a certain reputation in the industry.

Because of this, she was hesitant and would not know who to choose.

Finally, she decided to ask Lucas at night.

That's it, she put this aside and turned into the design draft.

After all, if she accepted an appointment, she also needed to come up with a good design draft.

She waited until the evening, Lucas came back from work, and saw Evelyn still working.

The slender back was especially warm under the setting sun, making him feel stuffed in his heart.

"Not finished yet?"

He stepped forward and hugged her into his arms.

Evelyn was affected by his breath, so she calmed down.

"Your work is done?"

She said, scanning the alarm clock on the table, exclaimed: "Oh, it's six o'clock. I haven't changed my clothes yet, wait for me."

In a word, she struggled from Lucas's arms and hurried to the bathroom.

Lucas did not stop her, looking at her panic, his face was tender.

Immediately he glanced at Evelyn's book, his eyes flashed with astonishment.

He saw that the book was painted a modified daily the Han-style clothes, very beautiful, suitable for the taste of young girls nowadays.

At the same time, he couldn't help sighing, always feeling that Evelyn had gone to school to study finance, and some of her talents were buried.

He thought wildly, and Evelyn was almost ready there.

She wore a light blue dress, and her long dark hair was arbitrarily held in her head, leaving only a few strands of hair floating randomly on both cheeks.

Because she didn't have enough time, she didn't put on any exquisite makeup, but she was even more beautiful.

"I'm ready!"

She reappeared in the room with a fresh look.

Lucas looked at fresh her, his eyes flashed.

"Very beautiful."

He praised with a smile, making the smile on her face brighter.

"Let's go, I've already booked the restaurant."

She took the initiative to hold Lucas's arm and walked towards the door.

Mo Li saw the two of them going downstairs and immediately got up from the sofa.

She glanced at the bright Evelyn, and jealousy flashed in her eyes, but she quickly converged and turned to look at Lucas.

"Sir, are you going out?"

Lucas gave her a cold glance, and nodded: "Yes, you are at home, you don't have to follow us."

Mo Li compressed her lips and disagreed. "How is this possible? In case ..."

"Ok?"

Before she finished speaking, she was frightened by a nasal sound from Lucas and couldn't say any more.

"Let's go!"

Lucas saw that she was no longer talking and turned his head to Evelyn.

Evelyn nodded and left with Lucas.

Mo Li looked at the back of the two people leaving, her eyes full of unwillingness.

Especially when she glared at Evelyn's back, she can't wait to make two holes on her body.

Evelyn was aware of it, but didn't care, followed Lucas to the car and walked towards the booked restaurant.

As the two left, the man who had been silently monitoring outside, frowned slightly, followed them.

Lucas and Evelyn did not know what happened around them, and they got off at a fine restaurant in the urban area.

After a good meal, the two chatted.

Speaking in a whisper, Evelyn thought of the interview, so she said it to Lucas, and wanted him to give her an idea.

"Tell me, which one should I choose to be interviewed, I feel that their strengths are similar."

She told out the simple information of several magazines and hesitated, then she looked at Lucas.

Lucas was not surprised. After knowing that Evelyn was famous, he had expected such a situation.

He groaned for a moment and gave an objective answer: "These magazines are all good. If it is for long-term development, I personally suggest that Fashion Master is good. Its cost-effectiveness is higher than the other ones. In addition to its popularity, behind it is the international brand LADL as a background. If the cooperation is good, this is also a relationship. "

Evelyn heard the words, she thought it carefully.

"Okay, then I agree this interview."

She said with a smile, Lucas nodded, and then the two talked about the other.

Being happy, Evelyn drank some wine.

By the time they left, she's already a little drunk.

Lucas looked at the drunk Evelyn, his eyes were filled with helplessness, and he was even used to her capacity for liquor.

He helped Evelyn get on the car. This time she was not so noisy as before, but was more sticky.

Her entire body was like an octopus, clung to Lucas tightly.

Luckily fortunately, Lucas was not driving when he returned, otherwise the two would have an accident.

"No more trouble."

Although Lucas liked the drunk Evelyn's enthusiasm, it's limited to the room.

In the car at this time, he could only look at the delicious food in front of him, but couldn't eat it, and a sleeping beast on his body had been fully awakened under Evelyn's continuous teasing, making him very uncomfortable.

"No."

Evelyn clutched Lucas's chest tightly, rubbing her pink cheeks constantly, not even knowing that she was on the verge of death.

Lucas took a breath of air, and coldly ordered to the driver in front of him: "Go back quickly!"

The driver heard the words, did not dare to neglect, immediately stepped on the accelerator to speed up.

He originally had a ten-minute journey, and it only took him about five minutes.

After arriving, Lucas directly got off the car with Evelyn and strode toward their room.

Mo Li heard the movement outside and ran out of the living room happily.

"Sir....."

She called him with a smile, but Lucas ignored her and walked upstairs while hugging Evelyn.

At this time, all his thoughts were on the woman in his arms, and he just wanted to return to the room as soon as possible, and punish the woman who had disorder his thoughts.

Evelyn didn't know that the danger was near. She teased him and laughed 'Giggle'.

Mo Li looked at the two people's departures and squeezed her fists, her face twisted to the extreme.

The next day, Evelyn slept until the next noon of the day before waking up, but her body seemed to be crushed by a car. She felt very uncomfortable.

However, before she could react, the expression froze on her face.

Because the memory of last night rushed to her, making her anxious, she did want to dig a hole to bury herself. She was so embarrassed.

Sure enough, drinking's a mistake. It seemed that in the future, she must not drink in front of Lucas, otherwise she didn't know what else she can do.

She rested in bed for a while, and when the soreness in her body eased, she got up and went downstairs.

Mo Li saw Evelyn getting up late, especially the bare traces on her body. Her eyes were full of jealousy, and she couldn't help being ironic.

"Sure enough to be Lucas's wife is good fortune, unlike Mr. Hawk, he has to get up and go to the company at dawn, and he doesn't have enough time to relax after returning from work at night."

When Evelyn heard this, she paused slightly.

She looked at Mo Li, her eyes narrowed, and sneered: “Miss Mo, I know your opinion, I will tell Lucas at night.”

After that, she stopped paying attention to Mo Li and turned into the restaurant.

And Mo Li changed her expression slightly because of her words, and she was worried that the woman really told it to her husband.

She walked behind Evelyn in a few steps and could not speak any words to apologize. She could only grit her teeth and say, “What can you do, woman, besides complaining?”

Evelyn sneered: “Miss Mo, I can complain to him, and it’s my ability. If you have the ability, you can do it too.”

Mo Li did not expect that Evelyn would argue with her like this, and could not find anything to refute for a while.

Evelyn looked at her blushing face, she chuckled a little, stopped paying attention, and started dining.

Twenty minutes later, she finished her meal and planned to go to the company to report on her decision to be interviewed.

In the company, Freya learned that Evelyn agreed to the interview and smiled: “So, what kind of cooperation do you need, just tell the company, I will let them cooperate with you.”

Anyway, if Evelyn was interviewed, and it’s also good to be with the company, which can better build the company’s reputation.

Evelyn naturally knew this, so she was willing to agree that.

Ji Yi knew that Evelyn had agreed to the interview, and when she was so angry that the good design drafts were scrapped.

She was filled with unwillingness and anger.

“What kind of damn lucky has Nora got, and she has taken up all the good things!”

Evelyn didn't know the anger in her heart. After reporting with Freya, she contacted the person in charge of the Fashion Master.

The two decided on the interview time, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

In the evening, Evelyn also reported the incident to Lucas.

"Then I will let Cater free the afternoon time to accompany you."

Lucas frowned slightly, he's responding.

Evelyn shook her head: "No, I can do it myself, you can do your business."

Lucas wanted to say something more, but before being said this, he was interrupted by her: "You have so many things to do, don't worry about me. Besides, don't you say that those people are gone? There should be no danger to come back, and Miss Mo will follow me. "

After hearing her words, he never insisted.

He could not wait until the meal was over, and he called Mo Li to the studying room.

"Sir, are you looking for me?"

Mo Li walked into the studying room with joy.

Lucas saw her and stared: "Tomorrow Evelyn is going to do an interview. I will not allow any more accidents, otherwise you will leave the country yourself!"

When Mo Li heard this, the smile on her face instantly became stiff.

She bit her gums and her hands tightly held around her legs.

"Yes!"

It took her all strength to not let her emotions erupt, and she responded.

Lucas seemed to have heard nothing unusual in her tone. After the explanation, he waved his hand directly to let her leave.

Mo Li turned and left, and the expression on her face was gloomy as she turned.

Uh ...

The next day Lucas went to the company early.

Because of an interview in the afternoon, Evelyn had been preparing at home in the morning.

She waited until the appointed time, and then she led Mo Li towards the Fashion Master Magazine .

Within half an hour, the two arrived at an office building.

Compared with the mighty office building of the Hawk Group, this office building was very common.

“Miss Davis, this way.”

After the two got out of the car, an assistant came to greet them and took them into the company.

As their figures disappeared at the gate of the magazine, a black car slowly drove out of the street.

The man in the car was the one who had been staring at the Hawk family a few days ago.

“It looks like today is a good opportunity to get started.”

He glanced at Evelyn’s situation with a telescope, and curved the corner of her mouth.

And all these, Evelyn did not know.

After entering the building with the assistant, she met the interview editor.

After a brief greeting, the two entered today’s topic.

One questioned, one answered, plus the experience that had been once, Evelyn can handle it with ease.

Even so, when she finished the interview, it was too late.

“I’m sorry, it did take a long time, Miss. Davis.”

The editor finished the interview and smiled apologetically at her.

“It’s okay, then I’ll go back first.”

Evelyn did not care about it, she showed the smiling and responded.

The editor nodded and sent her out of the company: “Miss Davis, see you. After the finalization, I will inform you the date of publishing the magazine and also send you samples.”

“Thank you.”

Evelyn didn’t refuse, after saying goodbye again, she left with Mo Li.

After the two left, Mo Li went to the parking lot to drive the car, and Evelyn stood alone at the intersection and waited.

Seeing this, the man who had always been outside, only felt that the time had come.

He was driving in the car opposite her, immediately opened the door and got out of the car, headed straight to her.

Evelyn didn’t notice the danger approaching her.

She lowered her head and replied Lucas’s text message.

“The interview has been completed and I am going to go back.”

He just didn’t respond after the news was sent, which made her extremely frustrated.

Just when she was planning to put away her cell phone, her body was suddenly hit and her cell phone fell off the ground.

“Sorry.”

The man picked up the phone with an annoyed face and apologized in a jerky tone.

Evelyn looked at him, he was like a good-looking guy, but she didn’t care about it, took the phone, “It’s okay, I was playing the phone, it’s my fault, I can’t blame you.”

She said so, and turned away, intending to let the man pass.

When the man saw this, his eyes flashed cold light.

He glanced around, and no one noticed it. Just when he was going to drug her, and a brake sounded behind him, let him stop.

He heard the woman beside him said in a surprised voice, "Lucas, why are you here?"

Lucas Hawk?

The man narrowed his eyes, glanced behind his back, his eyes without leaving a trace, and saw that Lucas Hawk was sitting in the car, looking at Evelyn with a gentle look.

"Just off work, so I come down to pick you up."

Evelyn Davis heard this and the smile on her face got bigger.

That time, Mo Li drove here and saw Lucas Hawk. Although her face was flashed with joy, her smile became farfetched when she thought that Lucas Hawk was here for Evelyn.

"Sir."

She greeted in a low voice.

Lucas Hawk did not care. He nodded and said in a deep voice, "I'll take lady back first. You drive yourself back."

He led Evelyn Davis to the car.

Mo Li clenched her fists and watched them leave. She was not willing to go back alone.

By this time, a man had come to the corner of the street and pretended to answer a phone and observe them.

Even though his movements were very secretive, Mo Li still noticed him.

She had a sharp sight and looked at the direction of where the man was.

Naturally, the man felt her sight and was surprised. However, he did not escape. Instead, he pretended to call with his phone.

She couldn't see anything wrong with him, then looked around subconsciously, but she still did not find anything. In this case, she had more doubts in her eyes.

She had just realized that someone was peeping, just like someone was following, but there was nothing around. Was it her feeling wrong?

She glanced through her eyes again uncertainly, but still found nothing. With that, she had to give up and drive to chase Lucas.

However, she did not catch up. Lucas Hawk and Evelyn Davis arrived first.

When they got home, they went upstairs to wash.

Mo Li did not see the two people so she asked the housekeeper.

When she learned that the two were back in the room, her lips tightened.

Especially when she thought about their close relationship during the day, she went upstairs directly.

“Sir.”

She stood up at the door and knocked respectfully.

After a while, the door was opened by Lucas Hawk.

“What's up?”

He frowned and asked.

Mo Li looked at Evelyn Davis behind him.

Evelyn Davis also noticed her sight, rolled her eyes then lay down to rest.

Lucas Hawk was dissatisfied with Mo Li's attitude. He wanted to say it directly but he did not know what to say. He whispered, "Go to my study and wait for me."

Mo Li heard that and her eyes splashed with joy.

Mistakenly, she thought Lucas Hawk and Evelyn Davis did not have that good relationship as she thought before.

If they were good enough, Sir wouldn't keep something away from that woman.

She turned away.

Lucas Hawk watched her leave and turned to Evelyn Davis.

"I'll go to my study. You sleep first."

Evelyn Davis nodded without looking back.

Lucas Hawk did not care. He turned around and left.

When Evelyn Davis heard the door closing, she turned and looked at the door. Her eyes were full of complexity and her heart was full of discomfort that could not be ignored.

Although she was not the real Nora Davis, this kind of feeling was still bad.

In his study, Lucas Hawk did not know what Evelyn Davis was thinking. He looked at Mo Li flatly and asked, "What's the matter?"

Mo Li heard the impatience in his tone and hurriedly said the strange thing she left when she came back just now.

"Sir, I think there may be some fraud in it. Maybe those people did not leave. They act so to catch off guard."

Lucas Hawk said nothing and frowned as if he was thinking.

If she wanted to say that Yao Si's man did not leave, he might not believe it. After all it was a foreign affair. He asked Mo Zhui to make moves. He must went back to deal with them in person, or the consequence would be that they lost, even if they were rich but they would be broken once.

He believed that Yao Si had left but he could not exclude the other tricks Yao Si left.

“I know about this. These days, you should protect the young lady closely. If you have any problem, please contact me at any time.”

He seemed to have an idea in his mind, then waved to Mo Li to leave.

She did not want to leave. But, she did not have any excuse to stay. Finally, she left unwillingly.

As she left, Lucas Hawk did not immediately returned to the room, but sat alone at the study and meditated.

It was a long time before he moved.

“Cater Wood, go investigate this. After you leave Yao Si, investigate what suspicious people appear at Jingdu and check the road momitor. I will see the results tomorrow morning.”

Although Cater Wood was confused, he still acted according to the orders.

The following day, Lucas Hawk accompanied Evelyn Davis to have breakfast and went to the company.

Evelyn Davis stayed at home to draw and design because there was nothing to do at the company.

On this side, as soon as Lucas Hawk arrived at the company. Cater Wood immediately took the investigated information and made a serious report.

“Sir, I checked last night after they left Yao Si, it seems that some unidentified forces have infiltrated the city. At present, they are unidentified.”

When Lucas Hawk heard this, his heart sank.

He did not interrupt Cater Wood and signaled him to continue reporting.

“As for Hawk Company, these past two days, there were no suspicious people found.”

After Cater Wood finished, he looked respectfully at Lucas Hawk and waited for instructions.

Lucas Hawk's eyes narrowed dangerously. His fingers were clenching.

Cater Wood took the lead.

When Lucas Hawk came back last night, he thought of the unidentified forces and asked Mo Li.

She did not expect that sir looked for her still for Nora Davis again. The jealousy in her heart was surging.

It took her a lot to keep her sane.

"Don't worry, Sir. I'm sure I won't let your wife make any mistakes this time."

Lucas Hawk did not believe all her promises. He replied coldly, "Remember what you said today."

Mo Li quitted the study.

She stood outside the door. Her eyes were full of grievance and unwillingness

She didn't understand why he could do so.

It was clear that they knew each other for more than ten years. Couldn't she compare with that woman?

She thought angrily. Her eyes were full of hatred and looked at the room where Evelyn Davis was.

Sooner or later, she would let the b!tch leave her sir.

She did not deserve the care of her sir.

Evelyn Davis did not know about Mo Li's idea.

She was a little absentminded in that room.

She did not know what was wrong with her. From yesterday, Lucas Hawk left her to his study with Mo Li. The bad feeling in her heart grew bigger. Her breath was blocked and her work was not in order.

What were they discussing about?

Why did he avoid her?

Evelyn Davis took a paintbrush and stood on the balcony for a half day without drawing. Her mind was all about Lucas Hawk.

A cool breeze came, which made her shiver. At the same time, she also calmed her mind from her own thoughts and let her head get light.

She found that she cared more about Lucas Hawk than her own safety.

She bit her lips and constantly warned herself that she could not go on like this or she would lose herself.

When she persuaded herself, she heard the sound of opening door behind her.

She was stiff and knew who came in, she did not turned around immediately.

However, when she did not turn around, he soon put a warm embrace on her back.

“Why haven’t you rest yet?”

He asked Evelyn Davis.

Recently, they had become closer to each other, which made him hold her often, feeling that she belonged to him.

Evelyn Davis just froze and soon returned alive. She said with a smile, “The painting is going to be finished. You go to take a rest first.”

After that, she struggled out of Lucas Hawk’s arms and turned to work.

Lucas Hawk saw it and chuckled and did not disturb her anymore. He turned around and washed and lied on the bed.

Evelyn Davis was standing on the balcony. She did not know whether it was because the person in the room or something else that she could not focus on her work anymore.

Especially, when she heard the gentle breath, her heart was full of ripples and complexity.

In the end, she gave up her work to divert the attention. After a while, she went to bed with him.

But just as she got in bed, Lucas Hawk naturally carried her into his arms.

She leaned against Lucas Hawk's chest and his warm breath was beside her ear. Her heart, which was not easy to calm down, beat faster again, even felt uncomfortable and at a loss.

Obviously, at present, they were more and more in line with each other that she was reluctant to leave.

She even kept dreaming that Nora Davis would not come back.

But, she knew that it was impossible.

It was impossible for Nora Davis not to come back. She was doomed to leave.

When she thought about it, she felt so sick that she could not leave anymore. She turned over and looked at the man in front of her. She touched his eyebrows, eyes and his nose.

Not knowing how long Evelyn looked at him, she finally felt sour in her eyes and closed her eyes and rested.

The following day, Lucas Hawk got up and found that Evelyn Davis's eyes were black and blue. His eyebrows frowned.

"Didn't you sleep well last night?"

Evelyn Davis was stupefied and nodded slowly. She concealed it, "Hm. I could not find a good way to deal with last night's design and it made me upset."

When Lucas Hawk heard this, his brows tightened even harder.

Knowing how terrible a block was for a designer, he suggested, "If you don't have the inspiration, don't punish your body, I will ask Freya Lee to suspend your work."

Evelyn Davis listened to his tone with obvious concern. Her heart was moved and a bit sour.

She knew that the concern was not for her. It was for Nora Davis.

But, now she played Nora Davis.

It could be said that the contradictory reality made her fall into a dead end.

"Yes, I know. I'm going out today too."

She responded to Lucas Hawk and really wanted to go out.

It seemed that she had not seen her mother for a long time since her last birthday.

She wanted to see her mother and talk about her pain.

At this time, only her mother could understand her.

Lucas Hawk did not know what she was thinking. When she told him she wanted to go out, he said, "Take Mo Li with you. If you need anything, tell me."

Evelyn Davis could not take Mo Li to see her mother. She just hooked a smile, pretended to agree.

After Lucas Hawk went to the company, she went back to her room and called John Davis.

"I want to see my mother."

She said and John Davis was silent for a while, "Well, do you want to come over or let me pick you up?"

Evelyn Davis had prepared that she might be rejected. Unexpectedly, he agreed.

"Send someone to pick me up."

She thought of Mo Li and said with her lips suppressed.

John Davis replied coldly and hung up directly.

Evelyn Davis did not care either. She got up to clean herself.

After half an hour, she went out.

Mo Li saw that she was going out. Although she was dissatisfied, she followed her from behind.

“I come back home today. You don’t have to follow me. My father doesn’t like to have an outsider at home.” Evelyn Davis said with a smile.

“You think I like following you? Mr. Hawk let me follow you, that’s what I do.”

Evelyn Davis could only let her follow.

Later, they waited at the door for the driver.

About ten minutes later, the driver arrived.

Evelyn Davis took the lead in getting inside the car, but when Mo Li was about to get inside, Evelyn Davis stopped her.

“You drive your own car. So that my father doesn’t need to take me back at night.”

Mo Li heard what she said and although she was confused, she did not say anything. She turned around and walked towards the garage of the house.

Evelyn Davis saw her leaving and ordered the driver to drive.

Mo Li heard the car and came out.

At that time, she did not know that she was fooled by Evelyn Davis once again.

For a while, she was angry. But she dared not to keep it from Lucas, so she immediately called Lucas Hawk.

After all, she was left by Evelyn Davis. If something happened to Evelyn, she would never spare her.

Lucas Hawk was puzzled when he received Mo Li's call.

He did not understand why Evelyn Davis had to leave Mo Li when she was only going back to the Davis' house.

Evelyn Davis did not know that she raised his suspicion. She and her driver went straight to the hospital.

She went straight to her mother's ward.

She saw an unexpected person at the door of the ward.

"What are you doing here?"

She saw John Davis standing at the door, dressing like a successful person.

Before he could answer, there was a charming voice behind John Davis.

"Dad, I'm ready to go in."

Nora Davis walked out from behind John Davis, as if she did not see Evelyn Davis.

Evelyn Davis saw her as if she had just seen a ghost.

"Nora, why are you here?"

As if she thought of something, her face became ugly, she asked with fear, "When did you come back? Why didn't anyone tell me?"

When Nora Davis heard the words, there was a flash of unhappiness on her face.

She raised her chin slightly, stared at Evelyn Davis from a higher position and said loudly, "Who are you? Why should I inform you when I come back?"

Evelyn Davis' face got even uglier, her lips moved as if she was about to say something.

Before Evelyn Davis could say anything, she was interrupted by Nora Davis.

“Do you think that you can order me easily as the lady of Hawk’s family? Don’t forget, Evelyn, everything you have now is what I gave you. You are not qualified to ask questions, so when I come back, you have to serve me a good place.”

When Evelyn Davis heard this, her heart thumped and her face turned pale.

She thought that Nora Davis was coming back to get all this back.

At this moment, she thought of Lucas Hawk and his gentleness and suddenly, she was reluctant.

In particular, she thought that she would never see this person again. Her heart was like being cut into pieces with a dull knife. It hurt so much that her breathing even ached.

“How could it be so fast? The appointed time hasn’t arrived yet.”

She forced herself to be calm, but her hands were shaking uncontrollably.

Nora Davis did not know that Evelyn Davis misunderstood her. When she heard this, she thought it was weird.

She said with a cold voice, “Who has set the rule that I can’t get back before the appointed time?”

Evelyn Davis was shocked to hear this.

She brightened up.

She knew from Nora Davis’ words that she did not come back to take away all this things. At the same time, she could not help thinking.

“Why do you come here today if you’re not coming back to conclude the transaction?”

She stared at Nora Davis wearily, her eyes were full of precautions.

Nora Davis did not care and sneered and said, “Naturally, like you, I come to see the useless woman who gave birth to me!”

Evelyn Davis listened to her rude words and her anger rose.

“Useless woman? She is your mother anyway!”

She clenched her teeth and scolded Nora Davis.

Nora Davis looked at Evelyn Davis ironically, as if she had just heard a bad joke.

“Mother? She did not raise me for a day except for giving birth to me. She is not my mother!”

Evelyn Davis was very angry when she heard that words.

“Is this how you act at home?”

Nora Davis looked at her angry looks and her eyes were full of disdain and a trace of dissatisfaction.

“You don’t deserve to say our Davis family. As for that woman, I feel ashamed to be her daughter!”

Evelyn Davis’ face became gloomier with emotion. She swept the two people in front of her. Her chest fluctuated.

“Well, since she is not worthy to be your mother, you are not worthy to visit her. Now, you leave immediately. You are not welcome here!”

She pointed to the elevator and shouted at Nora Davis.

Nora Davis looked at her and her face was full of mockery.

“Dad, she’s urging me to go.”

Along with her words, John Davis who had never spoken before, coldly lowered his face and warned, “Evelyn, how dare you speak to Nora like that? Do you forget where it is? If you two are acting up again, you may leave!”

Evelyn Davis heard the words and looked at John Davis in disbelief while trembling all over. She was obviously angry.

Nora Davis saw that she was so angry and could not speak. She snorted and went directly to the ward.

John Davis also went in.

Evelyn Davis responded and rushed after her. She was worried that Nora Davis would harm her mother.

In the ward, Katherine Browne was still lying in coma on the bed, but her face was much better than before. She was very thin.

She said, "For so many years, this woman has not changed at all. She's still useless. She even made herself half-dead."

Nora Davis looked at Katherine Browne on the hospital bed with a disdainful look.

Evelyn Davis listened to her sarcastic words and was so angry that her brows tightened.

"Nora Davis!"

She snapped and her eyes were burning at Nora Davis. Nora Davis was not afraid at all. She glanced at her contemptuously while holding her chest in both hands and said, "What? Do you think I'm wrong?"

She continued to satirize, regardless of Evelyn Davis's difficulty in seeing her face, "If she was useful, she will not lead you to live like this. She rely on her daughters to trade to survive. Which part of her is useful?"

After hearing that, Evelyn Davis was furious and shivered.

She stared at Nora Davis coldly, while biting her teeth, "Her good is that you mercenary people don't realize at all. Maybe, she's useless to you, but in my heart, she's the priceless treasure of my life."

Nora Davis looked at her red eyes. There was no reason for her discomfort.

She sneered, her eyes were full of disdain, "Priceless treasure? Then, you should keep your priceless treasure."

She turned around and left the ward. John Davis followed her.

Evelyn Davis looked at the back of their departure while holding her hands tightly. She did not understand what they were doing at the hospital.

At the same time, she felt unworthy for her mother.

Over the years, she lived with her mother and she always heard her mother's nagging about Nora Davis.

If she let her know that Nora Davis thought of her like this, she did not know how hard it will be for her mother.

At this time, she was very glad that her mother met Nora Davis while she was in coma.

She looked at her mother painfully and gave her water to wipe her body.

She whispered, "Mom, Nora came to see you today, haven't you been talking about her? Mom, I've been famous in the industry lately. People like my drawings. When you wake up, we can open a shop and live a happy life."

"Mom, when will you wake up?"

Evelyn Davis was sad.

She did not know that Nora Davis was at the door listening to her words with disdain.

"Only you who have no ambition yearn such an ordinary life."

She murmured and was disgusted by the scene in front of her.

In other words, she thought that a dying was not worth caring about and better off dead.

She thought about some ideas and without the dying woman, Evelyn Davis could not cooperate with their plan.

She was more comfortable, she thought but she did not want to stay any longer.

"Dad, I have something else to do. Let's go."

She turned and was about to leave.

Seeing this, John Davis hurriedly paced up.

“Nora, wait for me.”

He walked a few steps to Nora Davis’ side and suddenly thought that Nora Davis did not tell him when she came back this time. He could not help but frowned and asked.

“By the way, Nora, you haven’t told Dad what are you going to do when you come back this time?”

Nora Davis heard the question and stepped slightly, “Dad, I have something to do and anyway, you don’t care.”

John Davis frowned, with obvious disapproval in his eyes.

“What do you mean I don’t care? In case something goes wrong, all we have done before is in vain.”

Evelyn Davis knew that John Davis was worried about and frowned slightly, “I know what you mean, but I have my purpose. You can rest assured that I will not trouble Evelyn this time.”

John Davis chuckled, “What a fool. How can I worry about you making trouble for her? I just worry about you.”

Nora Davis listened and deeply moved.

Not knowing what she thought of, she touched her belly secretly.

If someone looked carefully, he could see that her belly was slightly raised.

But, nobody could not see it because she was in a loose skirt.

“You don’t have to worry. In a few month, I’ll be back and take everything that belonged to me.” she said, her eyes shined with light.

John Davis did not find out her difference. When he heard this, he did not ask more questions for fear of causing Nora Davis' impatience.

"Okay. Just say what you need me to do."

Nora Davis nodded and said a few words to John Davis before leaving the hospital.

John Davis looked at the back of her leaving and the ward where Evelyn Davis was at. His eyebrows were slightly frowned. He did not go in to say anything. He also left.

After Nora Davis left, she went directly to the underground garage.

She was going to drive away.

When she came to the side of her car, a dark shadow came out from the other side.

"Who is that?"

She asked in a stern voice.

In response, however, the cold barrel of a gun was pointed against the back of her head.

"Be honest..."

The mercenary man who had been following Evelyn Davis, was now standing behind her.

Obviously, he took Nora Davis as Evelyn Davis and warned in a cold voice, "Get in the car, don't think of any small action or don't blame my gun for fire!"

Nora Davis shivered. Her heart sank. At the same time, she was full of doubts.

She had just returned home. How could these people catch up so quickly?

Although she was uneasy, she still tried to bear the panic in her heart and pacified the people behind her.

"Don't do it. I will cooperate with you."

Then, she raised her hand and opened the door at the man's beckon.

Seeing her cooperate him, the man didn't look for any troubles. He followed her to the car.

But he never withdrew his gun.

Later, he gave an address to Nora Davis to drive to.

Nora Davis did not resist. She could only follow his advice.

Within half an hour, they came to an abandoned building in the suburb.

The man ordered Nora Davis to get out of the car.

Nora Davis looked at the wilderness and was worried, she wanted to help herself but her communication equipment was collected by the man.

She could only be obedient and listen to the man.

After that, they went into the abandoned building. The man took out a stool and asked Nora Davis to sit on it. Then took out the rope and tied her up.

"What do you want to do?"

Nora Davis was furious but she seemed to be afraid so she did not resist.

The man glanced at her coldly and ignored her.

After he tied Nora Davis, he put away his gun and drew a dagger from his boot and laid it across her neck.

She was shocked and her face became ugly.

The man did not care.

He took out his phone and dialed the president office of Hawk Group.

Lucas Hawk was working on his job when his phone rang.

He looked at the strange number and hesitated to pick it up. When he received the call, the picture on his screen made him horrible.

In the video, a strange man held a dagger against Nora Davis' neck.

"What do you want to do?"

He asked. He was angry.

However, Nora Davis did not notice the screen and her eyes were full of surprised.

She thought that she had been caught by those people but now that was not the case.

"What do I want do? Shouldn't Mr. Hawk be clear about it?"

The man smiled at Lucas Hawk and responded in a cold voice.

Lucas Hawk's face was heavy and he had already guessed the identity of the man.

He was the unknown force.

"I think Mr. Hawk should guess my identity. If you don't want your wife to die, please hand it over!" said the man.

With his words, Nora Davis' neck was cut by the dagger. Red blood was dripping down.

Lucas Hawk looked at it and his eyes were full of grumpiness.

Nora Davis was also angry.

From the conversation of the two, she had understood what was going on.

Obviously, all that the suffering now was for that bitch. How could she not be angry?

If she was hurt, she would never let go of that bitch.

In her gloomy thoughts, Lucas Hawk at the other hand had gradually calmed down.

He stared at the phone with dim eyes and there was a surprise in his eyes.

Although Nora Davis was shown on the phone, he found that she dressed different with earlier today.

But he didn't know why it was different.

He started to deal with the man.

"I can give you what you want, but I want the hostages to be unharmed."

He said while looking at the place where Nora Davis was scarred by a dagger.

When the man saw this, he raised his mouth coldly, "As long as Mr. Hawk is honest, the hostage will be safe naturally."

He left a trading address and hung up directly.

After the phone was hung up, Lucas Hawk held the mobile phone tightly and his face was extremely dark.

He took his phone and immediately called Mo Li.

"Sir."

She was so glad to hear from him.

Lucas Hawk listened to her cheerful voice and his anger rose.

"How about the lady?"

When she heard this, she noticed something wrong and the smile on her face was not so bright anymore.

"The lady is not with me."

She pressed her lips, making Lucas Hawk squinted dangerously.

"Not with you? Didn't I let you to follow her?"

Mo Li immediately felt wronged and complained, "Sir, I'd like to follow the lady but I don't know if she had any objection on me. When I go out, she deliberately set me aside. When I came to see her again, she was gone."

When Lucas Hawk heard this, he frowned tightly. He was sullen and confused at the same time.

What did the woman hide from him, even risking to get rid of his people?

Although Lucas Hawk was curious, he did not think of that at this moment.

But, Mo Li also found something wrong. She asked carefully, "Sir, is there something wrong with the lady?"

Lucas was extremely gloomy when he heard this.

He sneered and commanded: "Now immediately gather our people together, go to the Southern District and wait for me!"

After a while, he hung up the phone.

Mo Li looked angrily at the phone.

This Nora really couldn't have a peaceful life for a day, knowing that there's the danger and still causing trouble to Mr. Hawk.

Although she was angry, she didn't dare to neglect in action, and immediately took her men to the place designated by Lucas.

But all of these Evelyn didn't know. She was with her mother in the hospital, took care of her mother's personal hygiene, and then gave a massage for a while before planning to leave.

When she just got out of the hospital, she received a call from John.

"Evelyn, where are you now?"

On the phone, John's tone was very impatient and anxious.

Evelyn frowned, but still answered honestly: “Just got out of the hospital and ready to go back.”

John heard her words and wanted to order directly, “Now back to the hospital immediately, and you must not appear outside, especially in front of the Hawk family.”

Evelyn was startled, her eyes flashed with confusion.

“Why!”

She questioned with a trill, thinking that Nora was going to take everything back.

John did not hear the difference in her tone, he said coldly: “Nora is kidnapped. At this time, two Noras must not appear at the same time, so you must hide and not let anyone discover your existence, otherwise, everything will stop ! “

After he finished speaking, it seemed that he was in a hurry to rescue Nora, he hung up the phone directly.

Evelyn took a cell phone and stood at the door for a long time before calming down from the news he gave.

Nora was kidnapped!

She looked pale, and also understood why John arranged this way.

Because Lucas got the news, he would definitely go to rescue “her”.

She thought and was worried.

She was not worried about that Lucas and Nora would meet, but she was worried that Lucas would be injured.

After all, she still remembered the previous abductions!

The more she thought, the more panic she felt, and she felt that she couldn't sit here waiting for the news.

At the moment, she had a decision in her heart, went directly to the nearest clothing store, and modified herself.

When she came out of the shop again, her appearance had changed a lot.

Her original bright appearance was very ordinary now, and her clothes were replaced with simple t-shirts and jeans.

She was very satisfied with the appearance of herself, as long as she did not appear in front of Lucas and looked at him from a distance, it was impossible to recognize her.

In this way, Evelyn took a taxi to the Hawk Group.

A few minutes later, she arrived at the Hawk Group.

When she was about to go to the company to inquire about Lucas's whereabouts, a familiar car sped out of the underground garage.

She saw Lucas sitting in the driver's seat, driving fast.

Evelyn looked at him, her face paled slightly, and she was going to follow him subconsciously.

However, how could she catch up him with only two legs.

Seeing that Lucas's car disappearing, she immediately ran to the street to stop a taxi to follow him.

However, she did not stop a taxi, but instead met Joseph.

"Evelyn!"

Joseph downed his window and looked at Evelyn in surprise, his eyes were full of joy.

"I haven't seen you for a long time, this time you finally let me get back a little bit of you before."

"Joseph, why are you here?"

Evelyn was very surprised to see him too, but also had a headache.

“I was passing by, but I saw you need the taxi, so I came here. Are you going to take a taxi? I’ll send you there.”

Joseph clearly saw the anxiety of Evelyn and offered to propose.

“No, you don’t need to care about me. I’ll take a taxi by myself.”

Although Joseph had met Nora and knew that their identity had changed, she did not want him to know more.

After all, the secret inside was serious, if there’s anything wrong, what was waiting for her was the hell.

After she said, she would turn around and leave.

Joseph wanted to chase her, so he got off the car.

“Evelyn!”

He grabbed Evelyn’s wrist, his eyes were full of worry.

“I know you have a secret and don’t want to tell me, but we are friends, and when you obviously need help, I hope I can help you!”

Evelyn looked at him with anxiety in her heart.

She knew it would become like this when she met Joseph.

She was anxious, especially Lucas’s car had disappeared.

Joseph naturally also saw the anxiety on her face and her look in front of her.

“Evelyn, although I don’t know what you are looking for, but if you disagree, the car in front of us will disappear.”

Evelyn could not help but agree to accept his help.

“Help me catch up with the Maybach in front!”

She quickly got into the car, pointing at the car, and eagerly said, “After catching up, don’t let him find us.”

Joseph looked at the direction she was pointing, narrowed his eyes, let her sit firmly, and then started the car to speed up.

Although his car was a little worse than Lucas's, its performance was still good.

They chased for a few minutes, and they were only 100 meters away from Lucas's car.

"Evelyn, this distance is good, if we are close, I'm afraid that the other party will notice us."

Joseph said his thoughts, and Evelyn thought so too.

Ahead, Lucas was worried about Nora, and he didn't notice that someone was following him.

He hurriedly hurried to that place.

Uh ...

At the same time, the man who was waiting for Lucas to trade in the Southern District received a call from his employer.

"I heard you have caught her?"

Yao Si's somber voice sounded on the phone.

The man glanced at the woman tied to his chair and chuckled, "Yes, I can complete your task from a distance. Now Lucas Hawk should rush to me with something."

Hearing his words, a bloodthirsty smile appeared in the corner of his mouth.

"Very good! However, I don't want to trade with him now."

He moved his mouth fiercely, his eyes were full of anger.

Hearing this, he frowned slightly, and asked with a dangerous aura: "What? You want to cancel the order?"

"No, I want you to bring her back!"

Knowing that the man had misunderstood, Yao Si countered: “Just letting him hand over things seems to be too easy for him!”

He said this, could not help but grit his teeth.

It was only because of the trouble that Lucas caused for him this time that he lost hundreds of millions dollars. His anger could not be quenched.

The man didn't know what was in his mind, and knew that he wasn't going to cancel the order, so he eased his attitude.

“Why didn't you say this early? Now I'm afraid that Lucas Hawk must be bring someone over. You want me to take her away, unless you send me support, I can't do it alone.”

Yao Si also understood that, so he responded: “Rest assured, I will let your partner go there. You just need to keep your eyes on her, and must not let Lucas rescue her.”

The man heard this, and said with a smile: “As long as you give me support, no one can rescue her from me!”

When Yao Si heard this, he hung up the phone with satisfaction.

The man put away his mobile phone, looked down at the woman who was staring at him with anger, and said indifferently, “Ma'am, sorry, my employer doesn't want you to be rescued in this way, so you have to go with me.”

When he finished speaking, he untied Nora, the dagger threatened her and made her follow him obediently.

“Who is your employer?”

Nora did not dare to resist and did not want to give up self-help.

Although she didn't hear the phone call of the two just now, she probably guessed it. She was so angry that her heart and stomach were hurt.

Obviously the person who wanted to revenge Evelyn didn't want to let her go so easily!

For a while, she had the thought to kill Evelyn!

It's all because of this bitch. Evelyn must offend someone, causing her to be implicated.

The man seemed to not hear her words, and when he untied the rope, he signaled Nora to follow him obediently.

She had no other ways, Nora could only leave with him.

When they just left here, Mo Li arrived with her men.

As a result, when they carefully lurked into the abandoned building and searched the entire floor, they couldn't find Nora and the kidnapper.

"No one's here?"

After listening to other's report, Mo Li's eyes were full of disbelief and doubt.

"Yes, we searched both inside and outside the building. No suspicious people were found."

Her man respectfully reported it again.

Mo Li's expression sank, and felt a bad hunch in her heart.

Wasn't their action discovered by the other party and then the other party took Nora away?

She was thinking so, but didn't have an answer.

In the end, she could only report this situation to Lucas.

"Sir, I'm already in the Southern District, but I haven't found Mrs and the kidnapper!"

When Lucas heard this, he stepped on the brakes suddenly.

"You didn't find her? What's the matter?"

He asked in a deep voice, his voice was full of anger.

Mo Li dared not hesitate, and immediately reported the situation here.

“Sir, would it be the kidnappers found us and left with Mrs?”

Then she talked about her guess.

Lucas did not refute because he felt it was possible.

After all, the other party could enter Jingdu silently under his eyes, and take Nora away, which was not easy.

Thinking, his eyes darkened, and he said coldly, “Don’t move in place and wait for my order.”

...

At the same time, in an ancient castle with a long history abroad.

This old castle was full of luxury feeling everywhere, the walls were full of famous paintings, and the long corridors were extravagantly covered with good wool blankets.

There’s a young man in a steward’s costume hurriedly appeared in the corridor and walked towards the room at the end.

“Boss, Miss Nora was kidnapped in Z Country!”

He knocked on the door and entered the room, reporting respectfully at his desk.

As he spoke, a cold voice sounded in this room.

“What’s going on? Who did it?”

He lowered his head and responded: “The specific information has not been found. Miss. Nora went back in secret this time. Our people didn’t follow her closely.”

The man heard the words, and the cold spirit was released from him, causing the subordinates to change his expression slightly, and his eyes flashed with fear.

“Boss, you can rest assured, I have sent someone to rescue Miss Nora.”

He quickly said his own arrangements, which made the man snorted softly, and slowly regained the coercion of the whole body.

“Remember, I want her and her child to be safe. If there is any accident, you don’t have to come back again, just get the suicide and confess your sins!”

Lucas did not know that someone else had inserted this kidnapping incident.

He hung up Mo Li’s call and immediately found out the number that before the kidnapper contacted him before.

However, when he dialed it, the robot prompted that it’s an empty number.

For a while, a storm gathered in his eyes!

“Damn it!”

He slapped the steering wheel violently, and knew that he was being trapped by others.

The other party didn’t really want to deal with him, just to test him.

Thinking of this, he took a hard breath and made himself calm down.

He picked up his phone and contacted Mo Li again.

“Let your people back.”

Mo Li was surprised and asked, “You don’t save Mrs?”

However, Lucas did not respond to her, he hung up the phone directly.

He did want to save her, but now he can’t contact the kidnapper at all, how to save her, he didn’t know!

It can be said that he was very passive now, unless the other party appeared, he could not make a plan at all.

But he was not willing to be fooled like this.

In particular, Nora was still trapped by them.

From that man could threaten her with a knife, he knew that this time the person was the tough guy.

He was worried that those people would hurt Nora.

After a few moments of silence, Lucas gradually got an idea in his mind.

He took out his phone and contacted Cater directly.

“Cater, Nora has an accident, immediately let someone to investigate the surveillance after coming out of the Hawk family, check their whereabouts, and the Southern District, check if any suspicious people came over these days.”

Cater heard the words, his expression changed greatly.

Knowing that the situation was urgent, he did not dare to neglect, and immediately did so.

Just as he was about to hang up, Lucas seemed to have thought of something again, and commanded again: “Yes, greet the police and ask them to assist in the investigation, investigate the airport, the highway intersection, and the main exits. If they find any suspicious people, notify us immediately! “

Cater nodded and hung up the phone.

Lucas took back the mobile phone with a calm face. He squinted his eyes and did not plan to go to the Southern District anymore. he went back to the company and waited the news.

Joseph looked at the direction in which he was turning and walked towards the way they came, looking at Evelyn in doubt.

“He seems to be going back, shall we follow?”

Evelyn looked at Lucas far away, she was puzzled too, but she still nodded: “Follow him.”

Joseph heard the words, and then turned around and chased after.

The two followed Lucas back to the Hawk Group.

Evelyn watched Lucas enter the underground garage, and the doubts in her eyes grew deeper.

Why did Lucas go back?

Had Nora been rescued?

Joseph did not know what she was thinking. He was surprised when he saw the car entering the parking lot of the Hawk Group. He immediately remembered that the man who stood with Evelyn at the banquet before was the president of the Hawk Group.

For a moment, he was full of doubts.

He moved his mouth several times and wanted to ask Evelyn what happened to her, but when he saw Evelyn's apparent absent-minded appearance, and she had hidden several times before, apparently she didn't want to tell him.

Eventually he suppressed the curiosity and broke the silence and asked: "Evelyn, he's in the underground garage. Do you still want to follow him?"

Evelyn reacted, glanced at Lucas's direction of disappearance, she frowned slightly.

"I want to see him again, if you have something, go first."

How could Joseph leave her alone, so he refused immediately.

"I'll stay with you."

Evelyn looked at his expression that could not be rejected on his face. She couldn't reject him, so she gave up directly and nodded. "Okay, thank you."

In this way, the two waited from day to night, but Lucas did not return.

And Evelyn did not receive any news from John.

Lucas didn't know these at all, he was working on the documents while waiting for news of the kidnappers.

However, after a long time, the kidnappers still did not contact him.

This made him angry again.

As soon as he was about to break out, news finally came from Cater.

"Boss, the police found suspicious guys at Southeast Station."

"Did anyone be caught? Did you see Mrs?"

Lucas immediately asked.

Cater apologized: "The man was very smart. When the police man appeared, he noticed and left. As for Mrs, the police said that no one saw her, but it is certain that the man is still in the city.

Lucas heard the words, his whole body aura became gloomy.

"Send more people there, and take the station as the center, carry out a carpet-like search, and find them out!"

Cater nodded and went to do this thing after the phone was hung up.

Lucas put away his mobile phone, at this time he had no intention to work.

He had a somber face and left the company.

Evelyn saw him leave, she immediately let Joseph follow him.

The two followed behind Lucas and saw him return to the Hawk family.

Evelyn looked at him and frowned.

She thought of her own guess in the afternoon.

Did Nora come back?

Joseph didn't know her thoughts. When he saw that Lucas returned to the Hawk family, he asked.

“Evelyn, do we still need to stare at him?”

Evelyn reacted, she was not sure.

“Wait a minute, I’ll make a call.”

In a word, she called John directly.

“Is Nora back?”

The call was connected, and she asked directly.

She didn’t know if it was because Nora had no news yet, John’s tone was very cold: “You shouldn’t ask me about this, now what you should do is hide in somewhere quietly, don’t let anyone find you!”

After he said, he hung up directly.

Evelyn looked at the phone that was hung up, and frowned.

From John’s words, she obviously could know that Nora had not been rescued yet.

Why did Lucas have not actions?

She didn’t think that Lucas didn’t care about her, she just felt confused.

But she was quickly suppressed this doubt.

She thought that there should be something unexpected here, so Lucas did not take any actions.

Thinking this way, she was relieved.

If Lucas not act, it meant there’s no danger.

“Evelyn?”

After seeing Evelyn hanging up the phone and did not speak for a long time, he reminded again.

A pair of dark eyes stared curiously at her cell phone, wanting to see who she was calling.

Unfortunately, the mobile phone had been blanked, and Evelyn had reacted, she didn't give him any chances, took up her phone directly.

"Sorry, I was thinking about things just now, let's go back, we don't need to stare at him longer."

She looked up at Joseph with a smile, and immediately apologized, "Oh, I have delayed you so much time today, we haven't eaten yet. I want to treat you tonight."

When Joseph heard this kind words, the smile on his face became far-fetched.

"Evelyn, we shouldn't need to be so welcome, right?"

He looked at Evelyn, then started the car to leave, "Where do you want to eat?" Evelyn saw this, she knew that it's not good to say more, so she reported to a slightly remote restaurant.

After a while, the two arrived at the restaurant. When Joseph finished ordering, he looked at Evelyn and moved his mouth several times as if he had something to say.

Evelyn naturally knew what he was going to say, and said, "Joseph, can you still do the same as before, don't ask anything."

Joseph froze, a bitter smile aroused in the corner of his mouth, and said helplessly: "Well, I don't ask, tell me when you want to."

Evelyn heard the words and looked at him gratefully.

Then the two talked about the situation one after the other.

Until it's getting late, the two were separated.

Because she was unable to return to the Hawk family, Evelyn had to go to the rental room in the old town.

She took a bath briefly, but couldn't sleep in the deserted room.

Her mind was wondering what Lucas was doing at this time? Who arrested Nora?

Even she was embarrassed and didn't know if she could go back.

Uh ...

At the same time, Cater's investigation had finally got news.

"Boss, our people found suspicious guys at the station."

After hearing the news, Lucas flashed a red light in his eyes.

"Tell them, let everyone keep the exit and wait for me to come over."

After he finished speaking, he hung up the phone immediately and left with the car key on the table.

Less than half an hour, he arrived, Mo Li followed tightly behind him.

When Cater saw him, he immediately stepped forward to report: "Boss."

"Where're they?"

Lucas looked at him and asked immediately.

Cater heard the words, his complexion became embarrassed.

"They ran away ..."

Like an erring man, he stood with his head bowed in front of Lucas.

When Lucas heard this, he was not as irritable as before, he's calm as he was during the day.

"What's the matter, explain to me carefully!"

He squinted dangerously, glancing around the station.

Cater did not dare to conceal, and immediately reported.

“Originally, our person found that guy and was about to arrest him. He seemed to notice something. After entering the bathroom, he seemed to evaporate and disappeared.”

When Lucas heard this, his face was so cold.

And Mo Li, she couldn't help secretly expecting it.

She can see that the other party obviously did not want sir to save Nora.

She really hoped that those people can take this opportunity to kill Nora.

Lucas didn't know what was in her mind, he thought without speaking.

These two mistakes in a row made him have to think more. This was a warning given to him deliberately, so that he should not act lightly.

Obviously, the other party wanted to control sovereignty.

“Tell them, everyone withdraws.”

Lucas felt that he had thought of the truth, and there was a glimmer of light in his eyes.

Cater was surprised, “Boss, what about Mrs?”

Lucas just glanced at him coldly, Cater stunned for a second, and immediately understood.

At this moment, he and Lucas were thinking about the same thing.

“Yes, I'll let them leave.”

Lucas withdrew his men, and the other man got the news, he curved his lips.

Of course he wouldn't really believed that Lucas would really let his men away. He even didn't need to think about it, he knew that as long as he showed up, what was waiting for him was the hell.

After all the information that the employer gave him said that this Lucas's a super cunning man.

The next day, Jingdu Airport.

On the airport exit, a very sweet couple came out from the entrance.

The man's tall, tight-fitting leather jacket showed his slender figure and overbearing momentum.

The woman next to him, although she's petite in front of the man, she was very tall with golden curly hair and a sculpted figure, which was a combination of angel and devil.

Many people were attracted by their appearance, but the two turned a blind eye to it and left directly.

They went to a hotel, and when they entered the room, the two separated from the roles of the loving couple.

"Go get in touch with Tianlang. I'm a little tired, I want to rest for a while."

After the woman finished speaking, she lay on the bed.

However, anyone who had practiced kung fu can see that her casual lying posture was actually the best defensive posture, so she didn't need to worry about any sneak attack.

The man saw this and did not make a noise, he took out the connector on his body to send a signal.

After a while, he heard a cold male voice on the phone.

"Tianlang, we are here. Where are you and the hostage?"

The man in leather jacket sat on the sofa and asked with his feet across the coffee table.

Tianlang, that was, the mercenaries who kidnapped Nora, chuckled: "I'm in the demolition house in east city, come here, pay attention when you coming, this time the goal is very cunning."

The man in the leather jacket hummed, glanced at the woman on the bed, and hung up after decided the specific time with him.

Until the afternoon when the three met at the east city demolition house.

"Tiansha, Tianhu."

Tianlang saw the two and greeted.

Tiansha was the man in leather clothes, and Tianhu was that cold and gorgeous woman.

"What about the hostage?"

Tiansha saw him and immediately asked about Nora.

"She quarreled with me one night last night and she was gagged and tied inside."

Tianlang said, and took them into the abandoned building.

After a while they stopped in an abandoned old building.

They saw in the middle of the room, Nora was tied and lay on the ground very embarrassedly.

When she heard the movement, she opened her eyes from closing her eyes.

When she saw Tianlang, her anger was raised in her eyes.

If it wasn't for her mouth being blocked, she would have scolded.

Even though, she was struggling to scream 'wow'.

Maybe it's the same se.x repulsion. Tianhu listened to the noise made by Nora, and she was agitated. So she strode over, before Nora reacted what happened, she slammed her.

“Be quiet!”

She reprimanded coldly.

Nora stunned.

Especially her left face was swollen, and the five fingers were very obvious.

“Slut, how dare you hit me!”

Nora now reacted, and the rag in her mouth had just been knocked out because the slap, so she screamed in anger.

“Noisy!”

Tianhu narrowed her eyes dangerously, and slapped her face again.

This time, the force was even stronger than before, and the blood was flowing in the corner of Nora’s mouth.

Nora felt hurt to the extreme, but also hated the extreme.

When did she suffer such humiliation.

“Slut, don’t wait for me to go out, otherwise I will let you die!”

She gritted her teeth and stared darkly at Tianhu, her eyes were full of killing meaning.

Tianhu noticed her hate, her eyes narrowed, and the bloodthirsty light flashed under her eyes.

As she was about to start to slap her again, her wrist was tightly held.

“Tianhu, enough, if she is crippled, we can’t explain to the employer.” Tiansha warned in a loud voice.

Tianhu snorted coldly, glanced at Nora, who was still resentful, then threatened: “If you are noisy, I will cut your tongue off!”

After this, she broke free of Tiansha’s restraint and walked aside.

Although Nora was angry, she was scared by the look before she left.

She didn't dare to speak for a while.

Tianlang looked at her and couldn't help laughing, "What's the matter, such a great anger."

Tiansha reluctantly responded: "You know, she doesn't get enough sleep, and the most annoying thing is noisy."

Tianhu listened to the conversation between the two, rolled her eyes, and said angrily, "Do you want to talk about business or not?"

Seeing this, the two looked at each other and walked towards Tianhu.

"What did your employer say when you came here?"

Tianlang glanced at Tiansha and asked Tianhu.

Tiansha didn't conceal it, and said it simply: "The employer asked us to take her back, and Tianhu stayed here to pretend to be a hostage and deal with Lucas Hawk. He would then send someone to cooperate with us."

Tianlang agreed.

Nora's face changed suddenly when she heard their words.

"Where are you taking me?"

She sternly questioned, but it was Tianhu's gloomy eyes that responded to her, scaring her that she didn't dare to speak.

Because she can see that this woman was not easy, and what she said before was never a joke.

She can't be hurt!

She kept calming herself in her heart and couldn't help praying.

She's been missing here for almost a day and night, and that man should have gotten the news.

She hoped he can find here before these people take her away.

And the facts did exactly what she thought.

The Davis Group.

John waited for a day and a night without any news of his beloved daughter. He was so anxious.

At this moment, the assistant hurried in.

“Boss, the front desk downstairs said someone wanted to see you.”

John refused without thinking about it, “No, no ...”

Before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by the assistant’s surprised voice.

“Who are you? Who allowed you to come up?”

He saw a few black men pushing the assistant aggressively and went into the office.

“Who are you?”

John looked at them with a frown, and he could obviously feel that these people were not ordinary people, because they were all with killing feeling.

“Mr. Davis, it doesn’t matter who we are. What’s important is do you want to save Miss Nora?”

The sunglasses man stared at John expressionlessly.

John squinted, his eyes filled with doubt: “What do you mean?”

The man in black heard the words and did not waste the time, and said frankly, “Our boss sent us to help Mr. Davis save Miss Nora.”

John suddenly felt confused, “Who is your boss? What is your relationship with Nora? Why should I believe you?”

Man in black seem to know that what John would ask, he’s still with the same complexion, and responded: “Mr. Davis, I can’t answer these questions. If you want to know, you can wait for Miss Nora to come back and ask her.”

When John saw this, he knew from these people that he could not get useful information.

In addition, he thought that the identities of these people were not simple, and he was anxious for Nora's safety. He forced the dissatisfaction in his heart to discuss with them how to save her.

"Okay, you can't tell me, I won't ask it again, just now you said to help me save her, can you tell me, do you have news about Nora now?"

The man in black bowed his head: "Yes, but we also need Mr. Davis's cooperation to rescue Miss Nora."
