

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 351 - Tips

0 5 minutes read

John's eyes flashed with joy when he heard this.

"Where is Nora now?"

He couldn't help asking.No wonder he was so excited because the people he sent out hadn't got any useful information yet.

"She is now in the east side of the city,and our people are watching her."

The man replied,and John even recognized something wrong.

His face became gloomy,then he frowned and asked,"Since you have found her,why don't you save her?"

The men didn't care,and said their concerns.

"What our boss wants is Miss Davis to be unharmed,so we must have a complete plan before we can start."

John was somewhat curious when he heard the words.

What kind of person cared so much about his daughter,Nora?

Although he was curious,he didn't ask.

The reasons were simple.First,he knew that even if he asked,these people would not tell him.

The second reason was that it was not the time for discussion,so he just lost his mind for a moment and turned back to business.

"So you have a definite plan and now you need my help,right?"

This was a question sentence,but John said it in the tone of an affirmative sentence.He was sure.

The man in black,who was the leader,did not deny it.

“Yes,we have made a plan.”

John listened and his eyes brightened,“What’s the plan?”

“Because the person who pursued Miss Davis was more than this,so our boss asked us to take her back.We know that Miss Davis has a older sister.He needs you to find her.When necessary,this woman needs to be a replacement for Miss Davis.”

John’s eyes were full of shock.

Because he didn’t know Nora was in such a dangerous situation.

“OK,I can help you cheat Evelyn,but you must make sure Nora is OK!”

He agreed to the man’s plan without thinking.

After all,in his heart,Evelyn’s life was completely no match for Nora’s.

“Good,this is my business card.When you have finished arranging it,tell me,then I will start to act.”

The man handed John a black business card with a phone number on it.After John received it,the man turned around and left.

John looked at the card on his hand and then looked at the man’s back.His eyes were full of light.

He sat back in his office chair.He looked unpredictable and nobody could know what he was thinking about.After a long time,he took out his cell phone and dialed a number.

On the side of the old town,Evelyn had stayed in the rented house for half a day and been in the blues.

Her heart was full of Lucas and Nora.

Originally,she had planned to go to guard Lucas as she had done the day before,but in the morning,she saw the news on Weibo,saying that there were mobs at several stations in the city,and the whole city entered the alert mode,so she gave up the idea.

It was not that she was afraid of thugs, but because she guessed that these thugs were only the excuse for Lucas to find her.

Only because she found Cater in the photos of the news.

At this moment, the whole city was full of Lucas's people.

If she was found accidentally, it would be all over.

When she was depressed, the phone call from John made her very excited.

"Is Nora rescued and back?"

She grabbed her cell phone and asked immediately. In fact, what she really wanted to ask was whether she could go back.

One day later, she found that she missed Lucas very much, and she was reluctant to let him go.

And she did not dare to think about the future. She was afraid that she could not bear the pain in her heart.

At the moment, she had to admit that she had fallen for Lucas and. Yes, she just loves the man who was indifferent outside but warm inside.

John didn't know what she was thinking and said his reason of this call.

"Nora has not been rescued yet, but we have already got a definite position of her. I have already contacted Lucas and talked with him well. He will join hands to save Nora. You should be careful and alert not to be found by him or his men.

When Evelyn heard that John would go to save people with Lucas, she began to feel nervous.

"Is it dangerous?"

She asked subconsciously.

John narrowed his eyes and said in a deep voice, "Danger is inevitable. After all, the other party is not good people at all. OK, just remember my words, and I'm going to meet Lucas."

When he finished speaking,he pretended to hang up.

Evelyn was in a hurry.

“Wait.I’m going with you.”

She was worried.Even John said it was dangerous.She was very worried about Lucas.

Especially the picture of Lucas’s injury before was still vivid.

When John heard this,his eyes flashed over his satisfaction with the success of the calculation,but his face didn’t show it.He scolded,”What are you going to do?Do you want to hold us back?Don’t forget,you can’t show off in front of them now.”

Evelyn heard the words,and then realized.

Yes, she couldn’t appear in front of people,especially Lucas.

But she was not at ease...

“You can rest assured that I will not appear in front of them.I will be just watching from afar.If you need my help,I can listen to all your arrangements.I can even listen to you in the future,as long as you let me follow.”

She didn’t dare to show that she was worried about Lucas,so she repressed her care and begged.

But she didn’t know that,John,who was talking with her,had long been aware of her mind,and was just pretending not to find it.

John watched his goal achieved,and his eyes flashed with happiness.

He pondered for a moment and reluctantly agreed when Evelyn begged again.

“Well,I can let you follow,but you have to look at it from afar,and can’t arouse anyone’s doubt!”

Evelyn was delighted when she heard this and promised repeatedly.

“Don’t worry.I won’t let anyone find me.”

John snorted coldly. Then he told her that before he went to see Lucas, he would send someone to pick her up.

After hanging up, Evelyn got up to prepare.

...

At the same time, in Hawk house.

Since Nora had not been found last night, Lucas had been sitting in his study for a night.

And his cell phone was in front of him.

At this time, the originally silent mobile phone suddenly vibrated.

Lucas listened to the movement and opened his eyes coldly.

He glanced at the strange number displayed on the screen, and his eyeground flashed past him to answer the phone.

“Mr. Hawk.”

Then Lucas saw the figure of Tian Lang on the phone screen. The scene behind him was blocked by his body, which made Lucas unable to see clearly.

“How about my wife?”

Lucas saw his eyes narrowed dangerously and his voice was cold extremely.

“It turns out that Mr. Hawk still cares about your little wife. I have thought you didn't plan to save her. I was scared by the big battle last night.”

Tian Lang laughed lightly, and his words were full of warnings.

Lucas also heard something wrong. His face became gloomy and he asked sharply, “What did you do to Nora? Where is she? I want to see her!”

Tian Lang chuckled and stood aside to show Nora behind him.

“In view of Mr. Hawk's non cooperation, I'd like to give your little wife a lesson and hope Mr. Hawk will remember this lesson.”

When Lucas saw Nora in the video screen in a state of embarrassment, whose face was even more marked with scars, he burst into great anger.

“You bullied her?”

He ground his teeth and asked. There was obvious anger in his every word.

Tian Lang also heard it and didn't care. He smiled and said, “Didn't I just say that? In view of Mr. Hawk's non cooperation, I have to take the necessary measures here. What's more, your little wife is so impetuous that she can't help it. So we might hit her a little hard.”

Lucas looked at his calm face, and wanted to have his heart cramped and skinned.

But seeing Nora's scars, he forced himself to calm down.

At this moment, she was still in the hands of Tian Lang. He was very passive no matter what he did.

“What do you want to do?”

He forced himself to be calm and contend with Tian Lang.

Tian lang looked at the coldness in his eyes and knew that if he kept on equivocating, the effect would be just the opposite, “I know Mr. Hawk is eager to save people, so I plan to give you another chance. Tonight, in the abandoned factory at the foot of Nanshan Temple Mountain, I will wait for you there with your wife. Mr. Hawk, you have to go there with what I want. Remember, you can only go by your own, or I will kill this hostage!”

Lucas lowered his eyes and stared at Tian Lang with the cold light of his eyes, “OK! I see.”

After receiving the reply, Tian Lang hung up with satisfaction.

Then Lucas contacted Cater.

Originally,he had intended to let Cater make some arrangements,but when he thought of Nora's injury and his two actions that had been known by Tian Lang in advance,he changed his words.

"I have news about Nora.I need to go to Nanshan Temple in the evening.You don't need to follow me,but you have to call some people to wait for my message."

Cater's face changed a little.

"Mr.Hawk,do you want to go alone?It's too dangerous!"

His words were full of disapproval.

Lucas also knew it was dangerous,but at this moment it was the only way.

"Don't worry.I'll be OK!"

When he finished speaking,he turned to talk about the arrangement in the evening.

Cater could only do what he was told since he couldn't change Lucas's mind.

At the same time,in Nanshan Temple.

"Tian Hu,you go to prepare.Lucas will come in the evening."

Tian Lang put up his cell phone and said.

Tian Hu didn't refuse.Then he walked to Nora.

"What do you want to do?"

When Nora saw Tian Hu,she was afraid of her because of those two slaps.

"Shut up!"

She immediately took her collar and went into the warehouse.

In less than half an hour,they came out again and changed.

The original Tian Hu had been made up as Nora.Of course,it was. It couldn't stand the scrutiny.

But they didn't care about the details.

Because their plan was to cheat things out of Lucas's hands.

But Nora's face had also been decorated. Her bright and colourful appearance had become ordinary, and the clothes on her body had been changed into another one. It seemed that she was not comfortable in it. She kept pulling. She was even angrier at Tian Hu but she didn't dare to say it.

In the heart, she swore viciously and waited for her to be saved. She swore that she would torment this woman heavily.

Tian Hu just ignored her fierce eyes and went straight to Tian Lang.

"I'm Ok, Tian Sha, you can take her away."

Tian Sha nodded and walked straight to Nora.

"Where are you taking me?"

Nora looked at the tall man in front of her vigilantly.

"If you don't want me to hit you, just follow me!"

Tian Sha threatened her coldly. Nora's face was so gloomy, but she did not dare to contradict.

When the night fell, Lucas drove to the foot of Nanshan Temple by himself.

In the night, the mountain was silent and frightening, surrounded by darkness.

Lucas stopped his car and walked towards the abandoned factory. He saw that the factory was shining yellow light, and the faint fire light was jumping under the night.

He walked cautiously and looked around. He didn't find anyone else in the factory.

There was only a fire around that indicated that someone had been here.

Obviously the other side was also guarding against him.

“Here I am.”

He walked step by step toward the depth of the factory.

There was still a terrible silence.

Lucas took a few steps and stopped.

Because he was acutely aware of a sharp line of sight sweeping over him.

His face was gloomy and he didn't make a sound again.

Three minutes later, Tian Lang seemed to have been sure of something, and he came out from his hiding place.

”Finally, Mr. Hawk, you kept your promise.”

He looked at Lucas proudly.

Lucas narrowed his eyes, glancing at his back.

“How about Nora?”

Instead of answering, Tian Lang asked, “Where are the things I want?”

When Lucas saw this, he knew that Tian Lang wouldn't let Nora go until he gave him what he had wanted, so he had to take them out.

“Things are here, and where is my wife?”

He asked again.

After confirming that the U disk was the same as what the employer told him, Tian Lang turned around and took “Nora” out of his hiding place.

“Nora” kept lowering her head, which made others unable to see her state clearly.

Lucas looked worried when he saw this.

“Nora!”

He cried in a hurry, but “Nora” didn't respond.

“What did you do to her?”

He snapped.

Tian Lang chuckled, “Mr. Hawk, just rest assured. She is still alive, but she was so noisy that I knocked her out. If you don’t believe me, I can wake her up.”

Nobody knew what he did after saying. Nora, who had been silent, groaned.

“Lucas.”

She raised her head. Her hair was so loose that Lucas could not see her face clearly.

Therefore, Lucas did not find any difference.

“OK, Now you are sure that she is OK. Hand in the things.”

Said Tian Lang, gesturing to Lucas to put the U-disk aside on the waste bucket.

Lucas squinted, “I can give you the things, but how do you make me believe that you will let people go?”

His words fell, and he stared at Tian Lang coldly.

“What do you want me to do?”

Asked Tian Lang.

“Give me Nora first, and I’ll give you the things when I’m sure she is safe.”

Without any doubt, he put forward favorable conditions.

When Tian Lang heard the words, he stared at Lucas as if he was thinking.

Originally, Lucas had thought that he would have to have a thorough discussion. To his surprise, Tian Lang agreed with him after thinking for a while.

“OK.”

When he finished, he let go of “Nora”.

Although Lucas felt strange,he saw “Nora” walk to his side safely,and finally felt relieved.

“Nora,are you ok?”

He quickly reached out his hand to hold Nora,his face full of care.

Tian Lang looked at his action,and he slightly laughed,”Now I have given her back to you.Shouldn’t you give it to me?”

When Lucas heard the words,he gave him a light glance.

He took Nora’s hand and was about to hand over the USB flash drive,but he suddenly found something wrong.

His eyes narrowed slightly at the person around him.His fingers seemed to flick the palm of Nora’s hand.Instead of the softness in his memory,they were full of calluses.

For a while,his face slightly changed,and he immediately responded.This person beside him was not Nora that he was looking for.

Lucas Hawk realized that it was not right. He immediately stopped to hand over the flash disk.

Tianlang saw it through and squinted his eyes dangerously.

“What’s the matter? Do you regret it, Mr. Hawk?”

Lucas Hawk glanced at him coldly and questioned, “Isn’t it you who repents?”

When he did not react, he directly attacked Tianhu’s neck with one hand.

Tianhu, who was originally dressed as a weak person, now was aware of the danger and avoided the attack of Lucas Hawk for the first time and at the same time gave Lucas Hawk a cold look.

Lucas Hawk had been on guard for a long time. He turned around to avoid her attack and kicked her on the stomach.

Tian Hu didn't know what skill this CEO had, but she didn't think much of it. She just wouldn't let him kill her.

Lucas Hawk's kick was hard. Tian Hu fell to the ground only to feel that her inner organs were displaced and her eyes blackened by the pain.

Suddenly, Tian Lang was shocked by the sudden change. He immediately responded and went to help Tian Hu.

"Are you okay?"

As he inquired, he looked warily at Lucas Hawk.

"I'm okay. Looks like this man is trained."

Although it hurt, it was not unbearable.

She stood up with the help of Tian Lang and stared at Lucas Hawk.

Tian Lang spat and sneered, "So what? He is alone!"

After he finished, he went directly to Lucas Hawk.

Lucas Hawk was ready to avoid the attack.

When Tian Hu saw that Tian Lang was on, she also gritted her teeth and followed him.

However, they thought that both of them had super high combat experience. It was only the matter of time before they could win Lucas Hawk.

But, the fact was surprising.

They not only did not beat Lucas Hawk, but also were defeated one by one by Lucas Hawk. They were not able to deal with him.

Lucas Hawk immediately dialed Cater Wood after beating them.

"Cater Wood!"

Cater Wood had been waiting for Lucas Hawk to call. When he heard his voice he immediately replied, "Yes, Mr. President."

"You can bring someone here immediately. This is a trap. Nora is not here."

When Tian Hu and Tian Lang saw his contact, their faces flashed with anger.

It was just a contempt for them.

When they attacked again, Lucas Hawk gave orders to Cater Wood.

"You should immediately ask Mo Li to take people to the exit of each station to check and guard."

Cater Wood immediately heard the order of Lucas Hawk. he dared not talk nonsense and hung up the phone.

After Lucas Hawk hung up, he focused on dealing with Tian Lang again.

At the same time, Evelyn Davis had been waiting for John Davis' people to pick her up after hanging up the phone.

In the evening, when people came, she immediately followed them.

Before she got on the car, she saw John Davis, who was sitting at the back, with a gloomy and anxious face that she had never seen before.

Nora Davis was his favorite daughter. How could he not be in a hurry when something happened?

She put up her sour heart and followed the car.

After the car started, Evelyn Davis looked at the street view that was constantly going backwards and couldn't help asking, "Where are we going now?"

In fact, what she asked was about Lucas Hawk, but she was afraid that John Davis would see something and could only bear it.

John Davis glanced at her coldly and said, "You will know when you arrive."

When he finished, he no longer paid attention to her feelings and leaned back in his chair to keep his eyes closed.

Evelyn Davis was so worried that she could not ask any more questions. She could only look out of the window with her lips closed.

Ten minutes later, they arrived at the railway station.

“Get out of the car!”

John Davis opened his eyes and gave orders in a cold voice. He opened the door and got off.

Evelyn Davis watched and immediately followed.

After that, John Davis took her inside of the railway station.

It was late at night but there were still many people waiting to take the train in the railway station.

Their appearance immediately attracted many people’s attention including Tian Sha and Nora Davis.

Nora Davis saw her father’s eyes flashed with joy, but Tian Sha was puzzled because he saw a person who looked exactly like Nora Davis.

But, even so, he did not forget to threaten Nora Davis.

“Don’t shout or I’ll fire my gun.”

She saw him clinging to Nora Davis’s waists with a black gun.

It was also because of the gun that Nora Davis kept quiet all the time.

It was just that they did now know about John Davis.

When they entered the waiting room, Evelyn Davis thought they would meet Lucas Hawk. But, recently let alone Lucas Hawk, she did not see any people around.

She was puzzled for a moment.

“Don’t you mean to cooperate with Lucas Hawk? Why don’t you see their people?”

John Davis looked at her, said in a deep voice, “He and I are acting separately. He will come soon.”

He stopped paying attention to Evelyn Davis and went to the place he had agreed with the man in the black.

The man was already there.

“What about the people?”

He asked.

Evelyn Davis followed her and looked at these people curiously. Her intuition told her that these people were very dangerous.

She did not speak and stayed quietly behind John Davis.

“Over there, number seven.”

The man in black glanced at Evelyn Davis and replied.

John Davis looked down his eyes and saw the location of Tian Sha, but because Tian Sha was tall, Nora Davis was completely blocked by him.

“Do it.”

He had no patience left and wanted to rescue Nora Davis immediately.

The people in the black dress did not refuse. They wanted them to save lives as soon as possible.

Tian Sha had been aware of the urgency around.

Out of the years of professional experience, he immediately made the decision to leave.

“Come with me.”

He said while holding Nora Davis and went out of the station.

Nora Davis was in a hurry and thought about how to save herself so that her father could find her and so were the people who came to rescue her.

They stepped forward and blocked the way of Tian Sha.

Tian Sha saw these people. His face changed greatly. He grabbed Nora Davis and wanted to escape in another direction but there were also people on the other side.

His eyes were a little red.

“Do it.”

He was biting his teeth and shouting when he saw a number of strong men sprang up behind those people in black.

They attacked the people in black with ferocious look.

There was a fight.

“Oh, someone fight!”

“Help!”

The two sides frightened the people around.

They ran around with their heads in their arms.

Tian Sha originally wanted to leave through the chaos but did not want the other side to come and rescue people beyond his budget.

He saw the man in black again in front of him.

When Nora Davis saw the clothes of these people, she immediately recognize their identity and her face was full of joy.

They were the subordinates. He still cared about her!

Evelyn Davis saw the chaotic waiting room. Although she was afraid, she followed John Davis and kept her composure.

However, John Davis saw that Nora Davis was stopped by the man in black. He couldn't help worrying and walked over under the protection of the bodyguard.

At the same time, Tian Sha and the men in black also got in touch.

He seemed to be making a final struggle, attacking and testing at the same time.

He soon found that the other side sent more people than he expected.

But even so, he didn't dare to shoot.

Because the law of X country was not allowed, if he opened fire, it was not only these people who were not provoked, but also the military department of X.

He could not do that. He could only give up his struggle and intended to negotiate with these people.

"Tell your people to stop, otherwise, don't blame my hand for slipping."

He threatened Nora Davis with a dagger.

When the people in black who wanted to attack saw this scene, they frowned and stopped. John Davis shouted.

"You'd better be careful. If my daughter hurts even a little, I won't let you go anywhere!"

He proposed a grave threat!

Tiansha sneered as if he didn't care at all.

His eyes narrowed slightly, and he stared at the man in black headed in front. "Let your man go, let me go, I can let the woman you want go."

The man in black looked at him and glanced at Nora Davis, who was not very good. While thinking of the boss's explanation, he nodded: "Okay."

When he finished, he gave his eyes to the people around him, and they all retreated.

“Let’s go.”

At once, Tiansha immediately beckoned his men to go toward the exit.

The man in black squinted and asked his men to follow them.

John Davis followed closely.

Evelyn Davis watched and naturally followed.

When a group of people left the railway station, Tian Sha asked his men to grab a car.

The man in black looked at it, his face was heavy. He didn’t move.

Seeing that his men had snatched the car, Tian Sha suddenly pushed Nora Davis out.

“We’ll give the person to you.”

Others got into the car.

“Drive.”

He snapped at his men and saw the men in black running after them, throwing dagger at Nora Davis.

Nora Davis didn’t know that the danger was near.

She had to run to John Davis immediately.

John Davis looked at his daughter. Before he could breathe a sigh of relief, he saw the dagger flying to her, almost unconsciously pushing Evelyn Davis out.

“Be careful!”

He pulled Nora Davis away. Almost at the moment when his words fell, Nora Davis heard a dull sound of a knife stabbing into the flesh and Evelyn Davis's painful cry.

"It hurts—"

Evelyn Davis fell to the ground, and the bright red blood flowed out of her belly, soaking her clothes.

Her face was white with pain, her limbs were shaking, but it could not compare with the desolation in her heart.

At the same time, Lucas Hawk, who was originally entangled with Tian Lang was suddenly frightened.

It's like being pricked. Although it's not very painful, it's very uncomfortable.

In this case, Lucas Hawk was almost subdued by Tian Lang and Tian Hu.

Fortunately, at this time, Cater Wood came with people.

"Help the president!"

Cater Wood immediately ordered the bodyguards around him.

Those people took the lead and immediately joined the fight, while Lucas Hawk withdrew from the circle under their escort.

"Sir, are you okay?"

Cater Wood watched and hurriedly came forward to care.

"I'm okay."

The palpitation just now was just a moment, and now Lucas Hawk had returned to normal.

He looked at the battle situation in front of him. It was clear that it was only a matter of time before Tian Lang and Tian Hu were caught under the pressure of the number of people.

In fact, in less than five minutes, Tian Lang and Tian Hu were overwhelmed and caught on the ground.

“President, how to deal with these two people?”

The captain of the bodyguard grabbed the two men and came to inquire.

Lucas Hawk glanced at them and said in a deep voice, “First send them back and close the case.”

He asked Cater Wood, “Don’t you get any news from there?”

Cater Wood wanted to answer, but his mobile phone rang.

“Sir, it is Mo Li’s call.”

He gave his cell phone directly to Lucas Hawk.

“Cater Wood, tell sir that I have traced the lady here!”

Lucas Hawk frowned and asked, “Where is the lady?”

Mo Li suddenly heard Lucas Hawk’s voice. She didn’t respond for a moment and was stunned.

“Huh?”

Lucas Hawk didn’t wait for the answer for a long time. He snorted discontentedly.

Mo Li got back to her senses, and quickly continued to report: “Sir, our people found out that the lady appeared near the railway station.”

After hearing this, Lucas Hawk immediately hung up and asked Cater Wood to drive to the railway station.

At the railway station, Evelyn Davis fell to the ground, while her eyes were full of disbelief.

Her forehead was covered with sweat because of the sharp pain.

She looked at the man who kept comforting Nora Davis not far in front of her, and suddenly understood something.

That's why he brought herself here.

She thought in a daze and began to lose her mind.

She looked at the dark night above her head and was very afraid.

Was she dying?

At this moment, Lucas Hawk's handsome face flashed in her mind, as well as the pictures of two people getting along these days.

She didn't want to die, she didn't want to leave that person.

"Help me..."

She forced herself to cry for help to John Davis.

At this time, Nora Davis had calmed down under the comfort of John Davis.

When she heard Evelyn Davis's cry for help, she looked at it subconsciously and saw Evelyn Davis in the blood. The whole person was stunned.

John Davis also looked at her, but also just looked at one, did not care.

"Nora, is there any injury?"

For him, Evelyn Davis's life and death had nothing to do with him.

Nora Davis returned to her senses and had no sympathy for Evelyn Davis because she thought what she suffered these two days.

"Dad, don't let these people run away. I want them to know the consequences of offending me."

She opened her mouth fiercely, but pulled the wound on her face, which worried John Davis for a while.

Evelyn Davis fell to the ground and watched the two people turn a blind eye to her, and the cold spread from all four limbs.

She no longer had the strength to call for help, lying on the ground, her consciousness gradually broke away.

When she fell into a coma, the black man in pursuit of Tian Sha came back.

“Do you capture him?”

Nora Davis saw them and asked sharply.

The man headed by shook his head and said, “He ran away.”

Nora Davis was so angry and grinned her teeth, “Damn it.”

Although John Davis was dissatisfied with the result, he didn’t bother to rescue people.

“Okay, Nora, don’t be angry. Dad will send someone to stare at you and inform you if you have any news. Now let’s go to the hospital for examination.”

After hearing this, Nora Davis reluctantly agreed.

“Take her with you!”

She glanced at Evelyn who was unconscious, sneered.

If the woman did not die, she would be useful for them.

Naturally, John Davis understood what she meant. He called an ambulance soon.

When Lucas arrived at the railway station, John had done all the rest thing.

People around them were talking about what happened just now, and there were some staffs were cleaning the place where Evelyn was injured.

But the air around was still tinged with blood.

“Cater, go to check what happened just now, and let someone check which hospital has taken over the wounded.”

Lucas heard the voice around him. And looked at the dark blood, ordered seriously.

Cater took the order and immediately ordered to his subordinates. At the same time, he walked towards the crowd.

Mo Li looked at the back of his departure. She hoped the injured person was Nora.

At the same time, John arrived at the hospital with the ambulance.

Evelyn was sent to the emergency room for rescue.

Nora also had some injuries. After taking some medicine, she went to the corridor.

“Dad, how is that woman?”

John saw her coming, he didn't respond, but cared about her body.

“How are you? Did the doctor check for you? “

“I've been put on some medicine. I just got the news that Lucas is on his way here. I can't stay more.”

Nora saw that John didn't say that, she didn't ask more, and then talked about something else.

John frowned when he heard that Lucas was coming.

“You can't expose to him at this time. I will send you to the hospital of Davis Group, where you will have a good examination to make sure you are OK.”

Nora did not refuse.

“OK, I'll leave first.”

Not long after Nora left, Lucas found the hospital.

He strode to the emergency room, looked at the red light hanging high in the emergency room, and stared at John and asked, “How is Nora?”

“It's not clear. The doctor is rescuing,” John said.

When Lucas heard his steady voice, he felt something was unusual, but at present he didn't care about the matter and asked again.

“What happened? How can Nora get hurt? “

Of course John couldn't tell the truth, he lied to him: “I got the news that those people wanted to take Nora leave by the train, I took people to catch up with them, and want to stop them, but those people were so strong, they grasped Nora and threated us, I have no other way but to protect Nora, but I didn't know that those people stabbed Nora in order to prevent us from pursuing them.”

When Lucas heard this, his face was turned gloomy.

John pretended not to see it and went on: “But you don't have to worry that I've asked people to keep tracking and I have called the police. They can not run away.”

Lucas glanced at him and was not at ease with his people.

“Cater, you help the police to catch them.”

He ordered him and was so gloomy.

Just because these people hurt Nora, he didn't intend to let them go easily.

Cater took the order and arranged people immediately.

Mo Li was full of envy when she looked at Lucas.

She stared at the emergency room, hoping that Nora would die on the operating table.

Don't know if her prayer was useful.

She saw that the emergency room which had been closed suddenly opened the door, and the nurse hurried out of it.

“Who are the family members of the injured?”

“I am.”

Lucas went forward.

John went a little slow and followed him and looked at Lucas's back with deep eyes.

"How is the patient?"

Lucas didn't notice John's difference at all. He saw the nurse and asking anxiously. "The patient's wound is very deep, it almost stabbed to the uterus, and now it's even more serious bleeding."

The nurse said the situation of Evelyn, and she did not forget the purpose of her coming out. "At present, the blood of AB blood group in the hospital is in urgent need, and it will take a day for temporary transfer. If you are AB blood group or O blood group, you can help her pass the dangerous period first."

When Lucas heard this, he immediately looked at John.

"I'm type B, I can't."

John shook his hands helplessly.

Lucas could only look at Cater and Mo Li.

However, neither of them owned the blood that the nurse wanted.

When the nurse saw this, she became worried: "You all can't, what should I do? The patient continues to receive blood transfusion now, otherwise the insufficient supply is likely to fail in rescue due to excessive blood loss. "

Lucas heard that his pupils were constricted and it was difficult for him to breathe.

His mind was full of the nurse's words about rescue failure.

In a moment, he couldn't imagine the future without Nora.

"How long will the hospital's remaining inventory last?"

He forced himself to calm down and questioned the nurse.

"Half an hour at most!"

“OK, do your best to rescue her now. In half an hour, I’ll send people to send enough blood bags!”

He snapped.

The nurse was a little hesitant. However, she saw Lucas didn’t seem to be an ordinary person, so she nodded and went into the rescue room.

Lucas looked at her entering the rescue room and shouted, “Cater, use all Hawk’s power immediately. Within half an hour, I’ll see enough blood bags!”

Cater knew that the situation was serious and dared not neglect it. He took the order and executed it immediately.

Mo Li looked at Lucas. In order to save Nora, he did not hesitate to use the power of the whole family. Her heart was full of envy.

She clasped the palm of her hand tightly, and the intense stabbing pain stimulated her, so as not to let her emotion come out.

Why was that woman so fateful, how could she live?

She complained in her heart, and no one found her expression.

The next half hour, it can be said that it was passed with the king of hell.

Fortunately, Cater didn’t fulfill his mission. Within half an hour, the blood bags were delivered to Evelyn by his private plane, and saved her life.

“Although the patient has been rescued successfully, it is not sure whether the wound will be infected. Aseptic observation is needed.”

The Doctor came out of the emergency room with Evelyn.

He made a brief account of Evelyn.

Lucas watched Evelyn’s pale face on the bed, his heart was pain and even blamed himself.

If he had got the news earlier and rushed there earlier, it would not have been like this.

He escorted Evelyn into the ward until the nurse settled down her.

John looked at his nervous look, his eyes twinkled said: “Fortunately, Nora is all right, and you don’t have to worry.”

Lucas pursed his lips and didn’t speak.

John frowned at his disregard.

He glanced at Evelyn on the bed and gradually lost his patience.

After all, Evelyn was just a tool for him, and Nora was the daughter he really loved. If not for this woman that was instead of Nora, he needed to play as a kind father to her. He also wanted to leave and went to find Nora earlier.

He didn’t know if Nora had arrived at the hospital.

The more he thought about it, the less he wanted to stay here, and he said he wanted to leave.

“Since Nora is all right, I’ll see her tomorrow.”

Lucas frowned. Though he thought he was weird, he didn’t stop him.

After John left, Cater looked at him and felt that something did be wrong.

He was very curious why this person can find Nora faster than them?

As he knew that he loved Nora very much?

Mrs didn’t wake up now, shouldn’t he stay here?

He wanted to ask, but watched that the his boss was devoted to lady, and he surpressed his doubts.

But he thought of another thing and had to step forward to report it to him.

“Boss, there is news from there. Those people have run to the hills in the suburbs. The police have assisted us to seal the hills and prepare for a carpet search.”

When Lucas heard these words, his face went dark immediately.

“Let them catch everyone for me, never let one go!”

Cater nodded and said that he understood, then he saw that Lucas was staring at Evelyn on the hospital bed, and he pulled Mo Li out of the ward.

Mo Li was originally unwilling to leave, but she didn't expect that Cater's strength was so great that she couldn't resist.

“What are you doing?”

Mo Li left the ward and asked Cater angrily, meanwhile, shook off Cater's hand.

Cater loosened her, and chuckled, “I don't know how you got promoted by boss.”

He said, scanning the affectionate pictures in the ward, and continued, “You can't see that boss need some private time now? Learn from me.”

After this, he didn't care about Mo Li, turned around and left to do what Lucas let him do.

Mo Li looked at the back of his departure, and then in the ward. Lucas was gently wiping Evelyn's body, which scene made her jealous face distorted.

How could she doesn't know that, everything was just that she deliberately pretended not to see it!

At the same time, the Davis Hospital.

As soon as Nora finished her inspection, she saw that John was here, she was surprised.

“Dad, why are you here?”

John waved his hand, concerned: “I can't rest assured, so come and see you.”

Nora listened, her heart was very warm, but thinking of Evelyn who did not know her life and death, she could not help asking: “Dad, what happened to Evelyn?”

“She is out of danger for the time being, Lucas is staying over there, don’t worry.”

John responded briefly, Nora heard Lucas’s presence, she frowned slightly, but didn’t care.

“It’s all right, or it will be over in the next few months.”

She exhaled softly.

John knew what she was saying, and nodded in agreement: “It is true, it will not affect everything now.”

He said, he seemed to think of something, and looked at Nora with a kind look.

“Yes, did you do the test? What did the doctor say, what about the baby?”

Nora heard the words, with a motherly smile on her face: “Relax, the child is fine, just has some skin trauma.”

She said at last that her eyes were extremely gloomy.

Especially when she thought of Tianhu, she was so angry.

She looked at the man in black beside her and asked coldly, “Does anyone find out who kidnapped me this time?”

The man in black looked at her coldly, and could guess her mind without thinking.

“Miss Davis, boss said, you needn’t to get involved in this matter, he will deal with it, he let you go back as soon as possible, don’t stay in China for too long!”

Nora compressed her lips, a little unhappy.

However, thinking of the character of the man, he said that he would deal with those people.

As a result, she took away the slightest dissatisfaction at the bottom of her heart and agreed with the man in black.

The next two days, the situation was surging outside.

The hospital was silent.

Evelyn came out of the operation and was drowsy in the bed for a day and night, so that Lucas, who had been caring for her, was worried.

Fortunately, before he exhausted his patience, Evelyn finally woke up.

She ... alive?

She couldn't believe it. She opened her eyes and looked at the ceiling overhead, as if she had a feeling of rebirth.

She reacted, subconsciously wanted to get up, but touched the wound. She was so hurt, tears swirled around her eyes, and she did not notice Lucas who closed her eyes on the sofa.

Lucas was awakened by her gasp.

Opening his eyes sharply, he saw a picture that surprised and distressed him.

"Nora, don't move!"

He walked to the bed a few strides, quickly stopped Evelyn who wanted to get out of bed, and pressed the call bell at the same time.

"What are you going to do?"

When Evelyn saw Lucas, she was totally stunned.

"Lucas ..."

She spoke hard, and endless grievances flowed from her heart.

Lucas heard her voice with choking, and saw that her eyes were flushed, and his heart was so painful that he couldn't breathe.

"I'm here, what do you want? Tell me, I'll help you."

He said, gently brushing the hair scattered on her cheek.

Evelyn didn't speak, just clutching Lucas tightly.

Her soft hands were shaking, she's still afraid.

"It's okay, don't be afraid."

Lucas thought that Evelyn was afraid of the previous abduction and kept comforting her.

At this time the doctor also came.

Lucas saw this and comforted her.

"Nora, let's lie down and let the doctor check your wounds."

Evelyn had not responded yet, and she had been gently pressed back to bed by him.

But he didn't know, the moment Evelyn lay back on the bed, reminding her of the moment when she was pushed out to block the knife.

At that time, she was lying on the floor like this, and she felt the pain all over her body.

She was obviously not far away from John and Nora, but neither of them had thought about saving her.

She thought sadly, and tears could not help falling out.

Was her life so worthless in their eyes?

Lucas didn't know what she thought in her heart, he saw the tears she kept flowing, and her body was shaking, he's sad.

At this time, the doctor's test results also came out.

"Mr. Hawk, Mrs's condition is temporarily stable, as long as the wound is not infected, and take a good rest in the later period, there will be no impact."

Doctor was doing a report, and Lucas was relieved when he listened.

“Thank you.”

He thanked him softly, the doctor was flattered and said a few more words, and then took the nurse away.

Waiting for them to leave, Lucas looked at Evelyn, who was still immersed in the sadness on the bed, he could not add any more pain.

He stepped forward and took Evelyn’s hand and comforted her, “Nora, it’s all right.”

He didn’t expect that when she hear what he said, her tears flowed even more.

Lucas looked at her, his heart was hurting, just like being squeezed tightly by an invisible big hand.

“It’s my fault, I’m late, I promise you, there is no next time.”

He wiped away the tears on Evelyn’s face, and held her into his arms without hurting her.

“Sorry, I was not by your side when you were most helpless.”

Evelyn listened to his apology, and then felt his tenderness and warmth in his arms, and her depressed emotion broke out and she cried even more fiercely.

“Lucas, I thought I was dead and I will never see you again ...”

When Lucas heard this, he couldn’t help hugging Evelyn hard.

She wasn’t the only one. Actually, after the doctor announced that she might not survive, he thought he would lose her.

“No, you’re alive now, aren’t you?”

Lucas klsed Evelyn on the top of her hair, gently coaxing her with red eyes.

It was his tone that made Evelyn even more upset, as she clutched at Lucas's clothes, sobbing.

"It hurts..."

Since Evelyn was crying too much, her wound was accidentally torn.

And her cheeks, which had been flushed with tears, turned pale, she gasping.

Lucas heard her complaining of pain, pressing the call bell and calling back the doctor, who had been away for a while.

The doctor thought something was wrong, hurrying back.

It turned out that she was only crying so hard that her wound was accidentally torn, so the doctor was just amused.

Still, he pressed his emotions, urging. "Mr. Hawk, Mrs. Hawk is not fit to get too excited right now. The wound has just been stitched up, so it will be all right when it heals."

Lucas knew he'd made a mistake, but he wasn't embarrassed, as he was just very worried about Evelyn.

"Is there nothing to stop the pain?"

He asked, not wanting to see Evelyn feeling sick.

The doctor understood his intention, but did not agree with him.

"There are pain relievers, but they have a very negative effect. As a doctor, I don't recommend them to patients."

Lucas had only been trying to ask, but when he heard about the side effects, his idea disappeared.

"Nora, let's put up with it. You'll be all right after two days."

He coaxed Evelyn, his face full of tenderness.

The pain had calmed Evelyn down, at least for now.

However, when she saw the love in his eyes, she became confused again after managing to calm down.

Fortunately she managed to hold back, and though she still sniffled now and then, she was not quite as excited as before.

When the doctor found out, he offered to leave.

After the doctor left, Lucas watched Evelyn as he wiped tears from her face.

Seeing her calm down, he worded his inquiry carefully. "Nora, can you tell me exactly what happened that night and how you got hurt?"

When Evelyn heard this, she wanted to express her dissatisfaction, but it meant that her identity would be exposed if she did this.

Her identity cannot be exposed!

Furthermore, she had no idea what had happened that night.

After all, it was Nora who was arrested by those people. She was afraid that what she said here was not the same with John, which would make Lucas suspect her.

She thought, looking down, and hiding her apology in the shadow of her long eyelashes.

"Lucas, I don't want to say what happened that night, so can I stop talking about it?"

She looked at Lucas imploringly.

Lucas thought she was scared, so he didn't force her.

"Well, if you don't want to say it, let's not talk about it. Have a good rest. I'll be right here with you. "

He coaxed Evelyn gently.

Evelyn was moved and ashamed by his words.

Just as she was getting ready to rest, she saw John coming in the doorway out of the corner of her eye. Her eyes suddenly turned cold, like a knife shining with cold light.

Lucas didn't notice the change in Evelyn because of his perspective.

But John coming in, saw it.

He was shocked but understood why the woman was looking at him like that.

But he thought of the purpose of this time, he staring back with warning.

Evelyn was shaking with anger that John had not only dared to appear in front of her, but also had the courage to threaten her after what he had done.

Lucas was also aware of Evelyn's feelings at this point, he asked with concern. "What's the matter?"

As he spoke, he looked over Evelyn's eyes and saw John standing in the doorway.

"There you are."

He frowning, thought Evelyn's attitude was strange, but he didn't think much about it and greeted John.

"Yeah, I heard Nora wake up, so I come over to see her."

John played the role of a good father, after replying, he looked over, asking her with concern. "Nora, how are you? If there is anything you want to eat, I will ask the servants at home to cook some of your favorite dishes for you these days. "

In the face of his insincere concern, what Evelyn remembered in her mind was how he ignored her that night.

She, turning her head aside, and pretending she was out of spirits, didn't want to respond.

Lucas thought she was tired, telling him briefly. "Her condition is stable for the time being, but doctors need to keep her under observation for some time."

Just then, his cell phone rang. It was from the office, so he had to answer it.

“Nora, I’m going to answer the phone. If you need anything, ring the bell or ask someone to call me over.”

He, taking his cell phone, told Evelyn.

Evelyn’s face softened as she faced him.

“Then go and answer the phone.”

Lucas nodded, walking to the door.

He didn’t forget to tell John when he passed by. “Please, John, keep an eye on Nora for me.”

John, of course, would not refuse. He smiled obsequiously, agreeing.

It wasn’t until Lucas came out of the room that he stopped smiling.

After making sure Lucas was gone, his face became gloomy, closing the door.

Evelyn’s eyelashes twitched as she heard him close the door.

She could detect John’s approach, but pretended not to see it.

John didn’t care about her indifference, he confronted her. “Did you ever say anything to Lucas that you shouldn’t?”

Evelyn glanced at him coldly, turning her head aside and ignoring his words.

John looked at her, screwing up his eyebrows.

“Evelyn, I’m talking to you. Please pay attention to your attitude.”

Evelyn looked at him, who was with anger all over his face, then she raised the corners of her mouth coldly.

“This is my attitude to you now, and if you are not satisfied, you can leave!”

John was so angry, and yet, thinking of his purpose, he managed to hold back his emotions.

“If you don’t want your mother in danger, you’d better remember what to say and what not to say.”

Evelyn became furious when she heard him threaten her with her mother.

“You can have a try!”

She stared at John with angry eyes.

John didn't mind, grunting coldly. “Anyway, remember what I said. If we're in trouble because of you, I won't be well off, and neither you nor your mother will be alive! “

Evelyn was furious, and a little frightened in her heart.

She was not afraid alone, but she did not want to involve her mother in.

She clenched her fists, saying nothing.

John watched her fall silent, then spoke of his purpose this time. “And if Lucas asks about that night, tell him what I told you.”

He simply told her about the experience of Nora on that day, and finally he did not forget to warn her. “Remember, don't say the wrong thing!”

Evelyn knew that this person would not come to see her so kindly.

He really did it for their plans.

For a moment she felt very disgusted with what John said.

But John, he pretended that he hadn't seen it, and then asked Evelyn to confirm it.

“Remember what I said? Don't let it slip up.”

Evelyn's patience had been exhausted, she said coldly, “Are you finished? Go away when you finish!”

John was stunned by her bad tone.

He was just about to scold her, the door of the ward was pushed open, and Lucas came in from the outside.

“What are you talking about?”

He felt a little wrong, and squinted to ask.

Evelyn compressed her lips, “Nothing, I’m tired, I want to rest.”

Lucas’s eyes flickered, he followed her: “Okay, sleep, I’m here.”

Evelyn nodded, really closed her eyes.

When John saw this, his eyes flashed with anger, but in the face of Lucas Hawk, he still converged.

“Nora, take a good rest. Dad will come to see you next time.”

He embarrassedly played a role of a kind father to Evelyn, then thanked Lucas and said, “Lucas, please take care of Nora, I will go first.”

Lucas nodded expressionlessly and closed the ward door again after watching him leave.

He turned, his eyes fell on Evelyn on the bed.

He always felt that the atmosphere of the father and daughter was a little weird, but where it was weird, he couldn’t tell.

In the end, he didn’t ask anything, and while he was guarding Evelyn, he handled the company’s affairs.

He did the same thing for the next few days.

Envy learnt about Evelyn’s injuries, but instead of going to find Lucas, she went to the Hawk family.

“Envy, why are you coming here today?”

After being disappointed with Amelia, Sophia was full of hope that Envy would become her daughter-in-law, so she was very kind to her.

“I came to see Nora, but I heard that aunt was at home, so I came to see you first.”

Envy responded nicely, but when Sophia heard her words, she frowned.

“You are looking for Nora? What happened? She provokes you again?”

Because of the lesson learned, Sophia subconsciously thought that Evelyn had done something to offend Envy again.

Envy naturally also could feel her dissatisfaction with Evelyn in her tone, and her lips curved strangely.

“That’s not true. I just heard that she was injured in the accident a few days ago. I have been out of the country before, came back here and thought about coming over. No matter what, Lucas and I are friends.”

“Injured?”

Sophia’s eyes were full of surprise, and she looked at Envy in amazement.

The reason was simple. Evelyn had an accident and Lucas didn’t tell his family.

Envy looked and knew that Sophia did not know as she thought.

She pretended to be surprised: “Auntie, you don’t know that?”

After that, she made an annoyed expression, “It seems that Lucas should not want you to worry, so he did not tell you, will he be angry because I told you that?”

Sophia’s eyes flickered, and a dissatisfaction and anger rose from the bottom of her eyes.

She thought that Lucas was too busy to stay home these days, it was the company’s business, but now it seemed that this’s not the case at all. He must go to the hospital to take care of Nora.

However, facing Envy, she still put away the anger in her heart.

“How did Lucas get mad at you? You were kind enough to come and see Nora.”

Sophia comforted her, although she covered up her emotions, she was still captured her dissatisfaction by Envy. “Hope so.”

She responded meaningfully, and then chatted with Sophia for a while, and then went to visit Nora.

“You don’t have to go, they should still be in the hospital and not come back.”

Sophia stopped Envy and took her hand and continued, “Otherwise you go to the hospital with me.”

Envy would naturally not refuse.

Twenty minutes later, the two arrived at the hospital.

Sophia learned the ward number from the nurse, she directly took Envy went there.

In the ward, Lucas and Evelyn didn’t know they were coming, they were laughing.

It turned out that Evelyn had eaten the porridge for a few days, so she wanted to eat spicy food, and let Lucas buy something spicy for her.

Lucas didn’t agree because the doctor said that she had to eat light food during the bad period of the wound.

The woman was laughing, the man was watching her, and his eyes were full of petting, making Sophia and Envy, who suddenly appeared in the ward, felt uncomfortable.

“Lucas, I want to eat ... Mom, Miss Miller.”

Evelyn could move some more. She pulled Lucas and begged him, then the corner of her eyes swept to the door and saw two familiar figures, she couldn’t help but wonder.

When Lucas heard her words, he followed her side, his eyes flashed with surprise too.

“Mom, Envy, when did you come?”

Sophia glanced at Evelyn and responded with a bad look: “Just arrived.”

The words fell away, and she frowned, questioning: “Lucas, what the hell is going on? How did she get hurt again? Shouldn’t she cause any trouble outside?”

Lucas was naturally impossible to tell the truth.

“It’s still my fault. Nora has been implicated. Mom, you don’t have to worry, things are almost resolved now.”

When Sophia heard this, her expression became more ugly.

Because she felt that Lucas’s provenance to Nora.

And she did not believe that things were really like what Lucas said.

After all, when Nora was not here in the past, their family had been fine. After marrying this woman, the family was in trouble.

She narrowed her eyes and stared at Nora, although she was very annoyed her in her heart, but she did not say something terrible in front of Lucas.

She knew that at this time if she scolded Nora, her son was absolutely defending that b!tch.

At that time, their mother-child relationship would be affected.

Therefore, she stayed for a while and left with Envy.

On the way back, Envy couldn’t help but sigh in the car, “Why do I feel that Nora has been so troubled during this time, Lucas has worked hard.”

Sophia did not speak, but her eyes seemed to have made a decision.

After sending away Envy, she returned to the Hawk family and called Devin back.

“What happened, why do you call me back in such a hurry.”

When Devin returned home, he’s full of doubts.

Seeing him, Sophia immediately told him that Evelyn was injured and hospitalized.

“How many times has she been in the hospital in the past six months? This woman is just a b!tch. Even if she is unlucky, she has to take Lucas to care for him.”

She said and felt much angry. “You didn’t see Lucas. I looked at him and think he’s a lot thinner. In this way, Lucas will be exhausted because that b!tch sooner or later.”

After hearing the words of Sophia, Devin was surprised.

“Nora was injured again?”

Sophia rolled her eyes and responded: “Yes, I heard that Lucas has been in the hospital to take care of her for several days, and the company has piled up a lot of things. Lucas has not dealt with any of them. No, we can’t keep this woman here longer, she will only hinder Lucas and implicate the entire Hawk family! “

Devin listened to Sophia’s words, he did not feel these were exaggerated.

Some things, although he can’t speak well, he knew well.

During this time, there was always accidents on the b.ranch company, and many shareholders had opinions, but it was just that the loss was not great, and the remedy was timely, so no one had argued with him.

If such a thing that they had been hidden, it would be difficult to guarantee that the company’s shareholders would not have an opinion or even have a different mind.

“I know this, I will find a way to transfer Lucas away.”

After some measurement, Devin had a decision in his heart.

This decision Sophia also agreed very much.

“Okay, you transfer Lucas away, I’ll look for an opportunity to drive the woman away, and make our family back to a peaceful life.”

Of course, Lucas and Evelyn did not know these things.

After sending away Sophia, they chatted for a while. Evelyn was tired, so she lay in bed to rest.

Lucas covered the quilt for her before leaving lightly.

Out of the ward, he took out his mobile phone and contacted Cater.

“What’s up there on the mountain?”

Because there was no news for several days, he had to call and ask in person.

“Our people and the police have not received any specific information, but it is certain that those people are professionally trained, so they can hide and fight in the jungle.”

Cater reported respectfully and said his guess of those people.

Lucas looked down: “Keep looking for them and pay close attention to the intersections of the entrance of the mountain.”

This time he was so determined to catch these people so that he could give a profound lesson to the people behind the scenes.

Cater also understood, he hung up after receiving his order.

At the same time, the Hawk home.

After the discussion, Devin returned to the head office.

He was sitting in the office and thinking, what can be done to drive Lucas away.

Soon, he had an idea in his mind, and it was the idea of killing two birds with one stone.

He called an assistant to make arrangements, the two went to the Miller Group.

Mr. Miller was surprised when he learned that Devin had come.

“Brother, you came here today, why didn’t you tell me in advance, I’ll let someone go down to pick you up.”

Devin smiled politely, and said today’s purpose: “Don’t be so welcome. This time it’s not a private matter. I have a good project here, and I plan to join forces with the Miller group. What do you think?”

After a while, the assistant on the side passed the prepared documents.

Seeing this, Mr. Miller reacted after a moment’s stun.

He took the file with a smile and read it.

The two discussed in the office for more than an hour, and when Devin came out, the cooperation between the two had been finalized.

“I will give full responsibility to Lucas when this cooperation is reached. You can talk with him if you have any problems.”

Before he left, Devin said something meaningful to Mr. Miller.

Of course, Mr. Miller could understand these hints, especially his daughter’s thoughts.

“Okay.”

He nodded with a smile.

When Devin left, and then put away the smile on his face, and said, “Go and call the general manager, and tell her I have something to find her.”

Envy received a call from her father’s assistant and immediately rushed back to the company from the outside.

“Dad, what’s up?”

She pushed into the chairman's office and asked.

Mr. Miller saw her and beckoned her: "Come and see this project."

Envy didn't doubt him, walked over to check, and was a little puzzled and surprised when she saw the cooperation with the Hawk family.

But more was joy, because this project can give her a better chance to approach Lucas.

She originally was still worried about how to approach him calmly, but did not expect the opportunity to come in such a timely manner.

"Dad, I think the investment in this project is not small, and it is too risky to give it to others, so let me take responsibility."

Mr. Miller looked at the joy in her eyes, how he didn't know her thoughts, he laughed: "Originally I asked you to come here, I was going to make you responsible. Since you are willing to do it yourself, then this project will be left to you "

Envy rejoiced and promised again and again: "Dad, rest assured, I will definitely fix this project."

At the same time, Lucas also performed the same drama.

Devin returned to the company and contacted Lucas.

"Lucas, there is a project here. Our company needs to cooperate with the Miller Group. I have negotiated with them here, and I will give you the full responsibility for the subsequent matters. You invest your energy. The board of directors of this project attaches great importance to it. There must be no mistakes. "

Lucas nodded: "I know that I will stare carefully at that time."

The two said a few more things about work, and then hung up.

Evelyn looked at Lucas to accompany her for a long time, he had a lot of works on the phone. She was distressed for him.

"Lucas, if something happens to the company, go ahead and get busy."

She didn't want Lucas to be too tired. Although she was a bit reluctant, she still could balance the situations.

Lucas heard this apparently insincere remark, raised his brow slightly, and smiled, "Want me to go?"

Evelyn looked at him, moved her mouth and wondered how to answer.

At heart, she didn't want Lucas to leave.

But the reality was not that she wanted to ...

Lucas looked at the silent Evelyn, how did he not know what she thought.

He put away his mobile phone and walked to the bed, rubbing her long hair, said softly: "Don't think about it, I will not leave before you are cured."

Evelyn heard this, and felt a warm current in her heart.

She looked at Lucas with emotion, but she was still a little worried.

"But ..."

"No but."

Before she finished speaking, she was interrupted by Lucas. "And I always feel that if I don't look at you, you will hurt yourself again, so I look at you better, at least don't let me worry."

Evelyn heard this unloving love affair, although felt some guilt, but more sweet.

In this way, Lucas urgently needed to stay in the hospital to accompany Evelyn.

The next two days, it was very calm, so Evelyn had the illusion of quiet years.

At this time, Cater and others searching on the mountain finally found some traces of Tiansha.

"Boss, we have traced some traces here, but the other party is very cunning, and every time we follow them, they disappeared."

Lucas was not angry when he heard this.

After Cater reported once before, he guessed that these people may be professionally trained mercenaries. These people were very capable of fighting in the wild. To catch these people in the wild, they must find another shortcut.

He wondered, his eyes narrowed dangerously, and his eyes flickered.

“Cater, keep going, let everyone withdraw, including the police, tonight.”

Cater was confused, “Boss, are we not chasing them?”

Lucas curved his lips strangely, “We naturally will catch them, but we want that they will bite the hook themselves. After you evacuate, you need to accidentally guard a kilometer down the mountain.”

Cater understood the meaning of his boss and immediately arranged after he hung up the phone.

That night, their people and police evacuated from the mountain.

As they left, several figures appeared in the jungle at a dead end to the east.

“Those people are gone.”

They observed for a long time, and reported to Tiansha when they back the place where the hiding place was retracted to hide.

“Are we leaving now?”

They asked him.

Tiansha looked at the foot of the dark mountain, his eyes narrowed and said in a deep voice, “It may also be the other party’s trick, observe for two more days.”

No objection.

When Tiansha saw this, he turned to find an empty place to sit down, and immediately took out his mobile phone to contact his employer, which was Yao Si.

There was a bad feeling in Yao Si's heart that he could not wait for the news.

He didn't wait for him to call and ask what was going on, Tiansha's phone number was called, and he answered it without hesitation.

"What's going on? Didn't I ask you to bring her back? Why didn't I see anyone in the time?"

As soon as the phone was connected, he was questioned, which made Tiansha felt angry.

"You gave the wrong information. The other party is not a simple rich man. Now we are all trapped on the mountain. According to the contract, you must compensate us and find a way to take us out!"

When Yao Si heard his words, he was so angry.

He even scolded Tiansha in his heart, even a woman couldn't figure it out by them.

However, although he cursed, he still had to promise Tiansha's request.

After all, the information on his side was indeed inaccurate, and then if one of these mercenaries lost, he needed to compensate a lot of money.

If someone caught her, he would pay it willingly.

The problem was that these people hadn't caught anyone at all, which was equivalent to a loss of money.

"I see, I will arrange for someone to come over, and when someone arrives, you will find the opportunity to come down the hill and meet."

Tiansha gave a sneer and hung up the phone directly.

It was like this, the day went by.

There was no movement under the mountain, and Tiansha sent his man to investigate and did not see any suspicious places.

When he guessed whether Lucas's person had actually withdrawn, he received the call from Yao Si's person.

"We are now on a highway three kilometers east of the mountain. We will arrive in half an hour. Please go down on time."

Tiansha nodded, and after hanging up the phone, he did not hesitate to summon his men to start down the mountain.

But while they were acting, the spies on Cater's side also found them.

"Mr. Wood, those people acted."

Cater heard the words and picked up a telescope to observe.

"According to the order of the boss, the arrest will be carried out after the people descend."

He made sure that it was the person they were going to arrest, and Cater immediately ordered.

Tiansha didn't know that their actions had been followed.

After walking down the mountain, they originally planned to clean their up at the nearest homestay.

After all, they had been on the mountain these days, and their body had been already embarrassed.

But they didn't expect that when they near the homestay, they were surrounded by Cater's people.

"Boss! There is an ambush!"

More than a dozen people watched Cater and others was on guard with back-to-back.

Tiansha was also exasperated.

Obviously, they were waiting here for them to let them bite the hook by themselves, but they were more calmer than anyone else.

“Kill!”

He ordered immediately, everyone heard the words, and immediately acted.

They had been on the mountain these past few days. The weapons of them were originally consumed a lot in the previous firefights, and they could not be compared with the well-equipped Cater and others.

After a while, their situation was at a disadvantage.

Tiansha looked in his eyes, and was anxious in his heart, especially a few of his men had been killed.

At that moment, the voice of the convoy came not far away.

Tiansha heard this, rejoicing flashed on his face.

Because he thought of someone to come.

It was Cater, and when he saw the armed convoy, he looked serious.

And those who came to support, seeing the battle here, said nothing to join the firefight.

After all, their mission was to take these mercenaries away.

With their joining, the original headwind situation was immediately broken.

Tiansha and others also cheered up and began to resist again.

Cater looked at the situation and immediately called for reinforcements.

After almost two hours of confrontation between the two parties, Cater finally crushed by the number of people and won the final victory.

Tiansha and others, as well as those who came to support were captured.

Cater took these people back to the city and waited to settle down. Then he was reporting to Lucas.

“Boss, we got all of them. What’s the next step?”

Lucas heard it, his eyes flashed: “Interrogate them first, I will come later.”

Cater agreed.

After the call was hung up, Lucas returned to the ward.

“Nora, I need to go out because I have something there. If I don’t come back later, you’ll rest first. If there’s anything, tell Mo Li or call me.”

He didn’t tell Evelyn what he got, but he planned to confirm it before he said it.

Evelyn nodded: “Go and get busy, be careful on the road, and don’t be too tired.”

Lucas nodded and turned to leave.

When he was out of the ward, he saw Mo Li standing at the door of the ward, and he said, “Take care of my wife.”

Although Mo Li was unwilling, she still had to take orders.

He then left the hospital by car and went to meet cater.

Twenty-five hours later, Lucas came to another property in his name.

“Boss.”

Cater got the news and waited at the door. When he saw him at this time, he hurried forward to greet him.

“Where are they? Any result?”

Lucas saw him and immediately asked about the results.

“Those people would not say anything, but it is certain that those who had kidnapped Evelyn before were internationally renowned mercenaries.”

Cater answered truthfully, then Lucas’s face became gloomy.

He didn’t speak, but went to the room where Tiansha and others were detained.

In the room, Tiansha and others were still being questioned.

Lucas stood at the door and watched for a long time. None of these people leaked any news or plans about the employer.

“Forget it, no interrogation, lock them up.”

After a long time, Lucas gave up interrogation.

Anyway, he knew the Lord behind the scene, they reason that arresting these people for questioning was just wondering if that person would arrange other people.

“How’s the situation over JK?”

As he asked, he turned towards the studying room.

JK was also a company under the name of Yao Si. Cater thought of the latest news and respectfully responded: “They are still in chaos, the company has been closed for inspection, and several industries have broken out, especially their most important economy, the source drug factory was investigated very strictly. “

Lucas listened to his words, the anger flashed across his brows.

Now that the danger was lifted, it’s time for him to settle the bill with the man.

In particular, he thought that Nora was still in bed.

If he didn’t let the man be punished, he felt sorry for Nora.
