

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 5 - Tips

0 5 minutes read

Seeing that she was about to fall. Suddenly, a strong force came to hug her waist and struggled to the side.

Then, Evelyn's whole body had steadily fallen into a warm embrace.

At this time, their postures were a little ambiguous.

Evelyn snuggled on the chest of the coming person.

Hearing a burst of strong and powerful heartbeats.

She could smell a faint cologne scent during the breath, such as fresh as wood and intoxicating.

Evelyn was stunned for a moment before she looked up.

Suddenly, Lucas's perfect and flawless face came into her eyes like a picture.

Just then, he frowned and asked coldly, "What are you doing?"

"Lucas."

Amelia was shocked and quickly retracted her hand. Her eyes admired and said embarrassedly: "We didn't do anything..... I was just having fun with Nora."

When Evelyn heard this, she was a little angry immediately, she mocked, even though she was still in Lucas's arms at the moment, "Who was having fun with you? You just wanted to hit me!"

Amelia was so angry that she almost vomited blood. She secretly glanced at Evelyn and looked at Lucas with some fear.

"Lucas, don't listen to her nonsense. I didn't hit her." She explained with some guilt.

Lucas didn't say anything after looking at her faintly. He just held Evelyn to stand firm. His eyes were dark, looked up and down at Evelyn.

He found that this little wife was not the same as the rumors.

There was nothing about arrogance and domineering! Completely different from the rumour.

At this time, the appearance of complaint was quite cute.

A glimpse of interest flitted through Lucas's eyes. He coldly warned Amelia, "This kind of thing is not allowed to happen again." Then he pulled up Evelyn and said, "Go back with me."

Seeing the back of them leaving, Amelia was almost mad with jealousy after being left behind.

Why did he believe in that woman!

Obviously she's the one who cheated you the most.

After coming down from the mountainside, Lucas released the hands of Evelyn.

Evelyn was a little uncomfortable, and hid her hands behind her and whispered, "Thank you."

"Just by chance, I came to you because grandpa wanted to see you and he needed a little face-face time."

Lucas's tone was still light, but his voice was damn nice.

Low and deep, such as the tune of cello, se.xy and attractive.

Evelyn felt that her ears might be pregnant in the long run.

After a long while, she returned to her mind and asked, "Why did grandpa find me?"

Lucas said:"You would know when you go "

They went back to the villa group one after another.

This time they entered the main villa in the center.

Only the old grandpa, the housekeeper and the servants lived here on weekdays.

It was said that the old grandpa loved calligraphy and also collected antiques, so all the decorations and layouts in this room looked antique.

After Evelyn looked around, she finally saw a spirited elder in the study.

He seemed to be sixty or seventy years old. He was dressed in a Tang costume and had white hair, but his face was red and his eyes were sharp. The majesty that had accumulated over the years had made him full of vigour.

This man was undoubtedly the current owner of the Hawk family, Michael Hawk.

He was the same as what the information said, was a very prestigious old grandpa.

Just as Evelyn was in a daze, Lucas shouted: "Grandpa, I brought her."

He immediately looked over. The original serious expression was disappeared instantly after seeing Evelyn.

"Nora, came over quickly and let Grandpa see you."

He waved at Evelyn kindly with a smile on his face.

It was said that the old grandpa was the only one who loved Nora in Hawk family.

Although Nora was usually arrogant, when she faced the old grandpa, she would also be a little more restrained.

The old grandpa was happy when he saw her. He looked at her and at Lucas on the other side with a big smile on his lips and nodded with satisfaction."Okay, good! Nora, I called Lucas back this time and would not let him go back again. You had been married for one year. It was not good to be separated all the time, it easily affected your affections. So, you would live well with Lucas in the future. If this kid bullied you, you tell grandpa and I will protect you, okay?"

Evelyn did not expect that the old grandpa would say so and stunned for a moment. Suddenly she felt a little warm in heart.

This old grandpa was really different from the outside rumors!

There was nothing about ruthless and strictness in him but kindness!

Evelyn were busy nodding with laugh,"Yes, grandpa."

"That was good. Grandpa would be happy to see you live in harmony. Next, you would work harder to add a great-grandson for me as soon as possible. This, I would have no regrets in my life."

The old grandpa continued with a smile. He had some white beards which was shivering with laughter.

This topic was shifted too sudden.

Evelyn almost choked with saliva.

But Lucas said with a calm face, "Yes, I would make a lot of 'efforts' to let you be Great-grandfather as soon as possible."

The old grandpa laughed. "Okay, hahaha, I would wait."

Evelyn's ears were inexplicably hot and she was very embarrassed.

It was not easy to amuse the old grandpa until Lucas took Evelyn away.

When they came out of their main house, they met Amelia waiting outside.

She seemed to have been waiting here for a long time.

When she saw Lucas, she immediately came forward and said with a smile, "Lucas, you finally came out."

Lucas stopped and looked cold. "What is the matter?"

Amelia nodded with smile. "You came back too late last night. I was in a hurry when I met you just now and couldn't speak properly. So I booked a meal at the Qianxi Building and specifically told the chef to cook your favorite dishes to welcome you. I hoped you would not refuse."

Lucas heard the words and did not respond much. But he did not refuse and directly nodded to say: "Okay."

Amelia looked happy. "Then let's go now..."

But she just said half of it, she saw Lucas turning his head and said to Evelyn: "You also go with us."

Amelia's expression suddenly froze and the smile that she was just about to raise was also fixed.

Evelyn looked at Lucas in a slight surprise.

Originally, Amelia deliberately ignored her. She did not care and simply stood aside as if she did not exist. She did not expect Lucas would ask her to go together on his own initiative.

Evelyn glanced at Amelia who did not look so well, and answered, "I'm fine, I'll go back home"

She didn't want to look at her face to avoid indigestion.

Seeing that she meant something, Lucas asked Amelia coldly, "What is wrong? Couldn't she go with us?"

Amelia was so angry that she kept gnashing her teeth.

This was the meal she set up to eat with her Lucas alone. What was Nora going to do?

But on the surface, she also could not say this, she just said with reluctant smile: "Sure, she's coming."

Just... She didn't plan to let her go for anything.

This Nora had changed into another person since Lucas came back. Today, Amelia must expose her hypocritical mask in any case!

Amelia thought of this, the slightest unpleasantness in her heart gradually dissipated and it was replaced by calculations!
