0 5 minutes read

Amelia's eyes narrowed when she heard what little maid said.

"What do you mean?"

The little maid heard what she said and told her what she thought.

"Miss, a person can change, but it seems impossible to change as another person. During this period that woman has been at home. Don't you feel very strange? It's not that woman could do."

Amelia listened and looked down thoughtfully.

Seeing that Amelia seemed to agree with her, the maid continued, "I think if Miss you want to deal with that woman, you can start from this aspect. Even if you really can't find out anything, you can also make trouble to her."

After she finished, she looked at Amelia and waited for her to make a decision.

Amelia thought she was right and nodded, "That's a good idea... I'll let someone to look into. You guys go out."

She waved to let the two out.

As they left, Amelia looked out of the window at the location of the new house, her eyes flashed cold light.

"Nora, don't let me catch any thing of you, otherwise, I will not let you feel well!

...

Then talking about the new house part. After Evelyn just finished her telephone conversation with John , Cindy knocked at the door and came in.

"Young Madam, the maid went to Amelia again. I saw she was upstairs just now. Maybe she heard something."

Evelyn was shocked to hear that!

When she responded, the first thought was that the conversation she had just had with John might have been heard.

At that moment, she was in a panic. If Amelia heard, the woman would surely have doubts. When she was investigated, the consequences would be... She didn't dare to imagine!

Cindy was aware of her uneasiness. She comforted with eyes twinkling :
"Mistress, in fact, you do not need to be nervous. I think she may not hear too much."

Evelyn pursed her lips without say anything.

If she didn't hear anything, how could she went to Amelia?

Looking at the silent Evelyn, Cindy narrowed her eyes and asked carefully,
"Did Mistress really say something that you shouldn't say?"

"How could I had anything that I shouldn't?"

Evelyn refuted subconsciously, but soon found out that her reaction seemed to be to excited. She coughed lightly and said, "I mean, I had nothing that couldn't be known by others. "

"I understand, so I say that you should not be nervous."

Evelyn looked at her and frowned, "How could you know? "

Cindy laughed when she heard that.

"Didn't the Mistress say that just now? You have nothing couldn't be known. What's more, if the maid really heard anything, at this moment, I'm afraid that Miss. Morgan and Mrs Hawk will come, but now I haven't seen those two. I think she didn't heard anything important."

Evelyn thought about it and thought she was right. She recalled the conversation just now carefully.

Except for something about her mother she seemed to have said nothing else that the maid could not imagine anything.

Thinking in this way, she reluctantly reassured herself that she planned to act according to circumstances later.

Even if Amelia were suspicious, there were many excuses for her before there was no conclusive evidence.

John will not let her be exposed. She didn't worry anymore.

In fact, the follow-up development of this matter was really beyond her expectation.

Because it's not until Amelia to investigate, she heard the news that Amelia was going to be sent away first.

That evening, Lucas dropped a bomb while his family was sitting at a dinner table in what seemed to be a happy atmosphere.

"Mom, in a few days, you can send Amelia back to Morgan family"

As he said this, everyone was stunned and looked at Lucas incredibly.

Amelia was also among them. Her face was pale and her eyes were full of disbelief.

"Lucas ..."

Lucas did not pay any attention to her, but looked at Sofia.

"What's the matter? Amelia live here with nothing wrong. Why send her back?"

Sofia frowned and looked at her son puzzled.

"No reason."

Lucas did not want to say more, but responded in a cold voice.

Who knew that Sofia was not satisfied with this answer.

"If there in no reason, why do you want Amelia to move out? I won't let you do that!"

She stared at her son in a disapproving tone.

Lucas saw the situation, rubbed his forehead: “Mom, it is also good for her. You should know that Morgans’ development in recent years is not bad. Aunt Morgan’s company is booming. She will also take over the company in the future. Always living in our family is not good for her. It will also have the bad impact on Uncle Morgan’s promotion.”

Amelia heard that Lucas’s was trying to persuade her aunt Sophia. She was panicked with pale face.

She knew why Lucas wanted her to move out. It was just because of the thing happened in the last night.

But she could not be expelled from his family.

Absolutely not!

“Lucas, it doesn’t matter. Haven’t it been the same for years before? And I’m still working in the company.”

She tried to persuade Lucas.

However, Lucas just glanced at her indifferently and insisted, “If you want to stay in the company, you can continue to stay, but... you can’t live in the family.”

Amelia’s eyes were full of tears.

“Lucas, do you have to drive me out?”

She questioned pitifully.

Sofia looked at it with great distress, and was even more dissatisfied with Lucas.

“Amelia, don’t cry, Aunt will never let you move out.”

She soothed Amelia, and then looked sideways at Lucas.

“Is that woman Nora picking things up in front of you again and letting you say this? How could she be such a stingy person?”

Lucas frowned and retorted in a cold voice: “This has nothing to do with Nora.”

“If it didn’t related to her, why do you want to drive Amelia away ?”

Sofia didn’t believe it at all. She asked again.

Lucas saw the situation and said angrily, “Okay, even if it’s related to her, isn’t it taken for granted? She’s my wife. Can you tolerate a woman who tries to seduce your husband by sending her to the house on her own initiative?”

After that, he looked at Sofia with heavy eyes: “Mom, you are an elder, shouldn’t you stop this thing happen again? What did Amelia do? I think you know it better than others.”

When Sofia heard this, she bit her lips, but said nothing.

Indeed, she knew exactly what had happened last night.

Amelia drugged herself and tried to seduce Lucas, but she was exposed by Lucas.

Because she liked Amelia and wanted her to be her daughter-in-law, that she let it go.

She thought that Lucas had no follow-up action. It was over. However she didn’t expect that he would wait to now and mention it again.

Amelia was even more embarrassed. She didn’t expect that Lucas would say something about last night.

And the most painful thing for her was Aunt’s silence.

It gave her a feeling that all was over.

Regardless of what she thought, Lucas put down the bowls and chopsticks. He got up and said, “I hope Mom can listen to my words and don’t let me say it again!”

After that, he turned around and left without turning back.

Sofia looked at his back and slapped the table angrily.

“He should warned me!”

Amelia saw the situation and rushed forward to comfort.

“Sophia, Lucas was just too angry. Don’t be angry with him. It’s bad for your health.”

When she finished, she changed her self-reproachful expression and pursed her lips. “All in all, it’s still my fault. If I wasn’t so impulsive, it wouldn’t be like this. I’m sorry, Sophia.”

Looking at her sad appearance, Sofia quickly consoled her, “Silly girl, what’s wrong? Everyone has the right to love people. You just went for what you want.”

After heard that Amelia continued to feel sad: “But Lucas refused me, he still wanted to drive me away. I don’t want to leave, Sophia. Can I stay? Can you help me persuade Lucas? You tell him that I know it’s wrong and I’ll never do it again.”

When Sofia heard this, the hand patted on her back stopped instantly.

“Amelia, I can not help, but I promised you, as long as there is a chance, I will pick you up again.”

Lucas did not know what his mother thought.

After he left the main house, he went straight back to his new house.

Back in the room, he saw Evelyn sitting on the balcony and doing embroidery.

Under the sunshine of the afterglow, he had the illusion that the life was quiet and good.

Evelyn suddenly found another person in the room and jumped up from her chair in horror.

“Who’s there? Ouch..”

She asked in a cold voice. However she bumped into the embroidery table accidentally and she was pierced by the embroidery needle on it. She was so painful to breath.

Lucas was awakened by the sound of her inhalation. Before he could chagrin his thoughts, he unconsciously came forward and said, "Are you all right?"

He said, pulling Evelyn's hand and observing it carefully.

On the white finger, a drop of blood was very conspicuous.

"Why are you so careless?"

He looked at the blood bead and frowned slightly.

Evelyn heard this and came back to herself.

She looked at the handsome face close by. Her heart missed a beat. She was panicked and pulled back her hand and held it in her mouth.

"It's nothing serious. It's just a pin."

Lucas didn't believe what she said at all.

"Wait a moment. I'll get the medicine box."

After said that he turned straight away.

Soon afterwards, he came back with his medical kit and took out sterile alcohol and bandages.

"Give me your hand."

Natural tone, made Evelyn stunned again. She subconsciously put her hand out.

Lucas grasp her hand, then carefully disinfect and wrap the bandage.

"Now that you're injured, don't work at night. Go to rest early."

When he finished all this, he looked up at Evelyn.

Evelyn unexpectedly bumped into his dark eyes, suddenly recovered, a touch of crimson stained her cheeks, and her heart beat faster.

“No... I don't need. This dress is only an embroidery flower left. It will be finished in half an hour.

She hid her uneasy look by going to the workbench.

But her heart was very unquiet.

She forced herself to calm down, not pay attention to the eyes behind her, and returned to work.

Lucas did not find her strange, but thought that the woman was serious, stubborn, but also charming.

He went up and touched the cheek of Evelyn.

The cool touch made Evelyn feel stunned. Then she noticed the person beside her and her cheeks burst red again.

“What... What's wrong?”

She looked at Lucas in bewilderment.

Lucas looked at her doubtful eyes, then looked back and coughed uncomfortably. “Nothing, just see your hair fall off, it will affect you. As you are busy, I will not disturb you.”

After that, he went into the bathroom.

...

The next day, Lucas didn't left early as usual.

Instead, he got up with Evelyn until they had the breakfast. He finally left because the company had an emergency meeting.

Evelyn did not care, and continued to eat.

At this time, Cindy came mysteriously.

“Mistress, Miss Morgan is leaving.”

“Where is she going?”

Evelyn did not think much about it but asked subconsciously.

” She’s back to Morgan family. I heard she was driven out by the young master.”

When Evelyn heard this, she paused and wondered, “What happened?”

Seeing that she was not aware of it, Cindy hastened to tell the news she had heard.

“I heard that last night the young master had a bad time in the main house.”

Evelyn frowned. They didn’t call her last night, so she didn’t know about it.

She wanted to ask Cindy some details, but Cindy also inquired about these things that these details can not be answered.

Evelyn couldn’t do anything but let it go.

She thought of Lucas’s return last night but she did not find anything unusual. She didn’t know some of his thoughts.

It’s too sudden to ask Amelia to leave. Couldn’t it be because of that night?

Maybe it’s really possible... After all, the man was really upset that night.

She couldn’t help being overjoyed at the thought.

If there’s no Amelia in the family, her life would be quite peaceful.

But she didn’t know it’s related to her.

After dinner, she also planed to go to the company.

Didn’t except that she just went out of the new house then saw Amelia with luggage standing outside the main house, reluctantly looking around.

After all, she lived here for so many years. She had to leave suddenly, no matter who would be lingering.

“Miss, I don’t want you to leave.”

Her little maid pulled her with tearful eyes and said.

Amelia had a complex look, and she didn't want to leave either.

"Don't worry. I'll try to come back. Don't forget what I told you."

"Miss, I'm sure I'll help you watch that woman."

The little maid nodded to make sure that, because of this action, she could see Evelyn and changed her face slightly. She gritted her teeth and said, "Miss, that woman is behind you!"

When Amelia heard this, she turned his head sharply.

Evelyn came to her with a smile on her face which hurt her eyes.

This woman must be very proud now!

She stared at Evelyn bitterly. Her hands clenched into fists, and she didn't even feel painful.

Evelyn also noticed the sight of this strong resentment. She wanted to ignore it and went directly to the door.

However Sofia came out of the main house. She said angrily: "Nora, what are you doing here?" Come and see the joke?"

Evelyn was reprimanded inexplicably. She immediately looked at Amelia, but understood what Sofia meant by said this. She was so speechless.

"Mom, the gate is over here. I have to go through it when I go out. It's not a special visit for you."

She explained in a cold voice, but they did not believe it.

Amelia went up to her and said in a cool voice, "Nora, you will be proud, but I will never give up. You wait. I'll see how long can you stay here!"

After that she took her luggage and went into the car without looking back.

Evelyn watched Amelia get on the car and left away. Thinking of what she said she was a little uneasy.

Her eyebrows frowned. Before she could figure out what was going on, there came the satire of Sofia.

“Nora, are you satisfied now?”

Evelyn was speechless when she heard that.

She just wanted to say something but Sofia did not give her a chance. Angrily said: “Do not think that you tell Lucas drive away Amelia, I will look at you differently? In my heart, you will never be as good as Amelia!”

After she had finished, she stared at her with anger and went into the main house without turning back.

When the maid saw the situation, she also gave a cold hum to Evelyn and followed Sofia back.

Evelyn looked at their backs and got mad to laugh.

They all blamed her for driving Amelia out of there.

But she had done nothing with it. It was decided by Lucas. She only heard the news this morning.

They didn't dare to complain in front of Lucas so that they vented their anger with her just because she was weak.

When she thought about it, she was very angry to go to the company.

However, Amelia did not come to the company today that she got the chance to spend a quiet day.

In the evening, after work, Evelyn returned to her new house. Before she finished washing, there was a noise outside the door.

“Get out of there!”

Vivian shouted harshly at the housekeeper who was in front of her.

“Miss Hawk, it’s not suitable. The young lady is taking bath, and that’s the young master’s bedroom.”

The housekeeper stood where he was, respectfully.

“Oh, she’s so shameless to enjoy after she dove away Amelia!”

Vivian didn’t catch the point in the housekeeper’s words at all. At that time she just wanted to help her good friend.

” Get away, I don’t want to say it again or you don’t blame me for being rude.”

She scolded at the housekeeper and said, “Don’t forget, you are only a servant of the family. What right do you have to stop me? Believe it or not, I will let Lucas dismiss you tonight!”

When the housekeeper heard this, his old eyes glanced at Vivian quietly. Could not see his emotion. He said coldly, “Then it will be troublesome for Miss Hawk.”

What he meant was he didn’t care what Vivian will said.

Vivian understood what it meant. She choked with anger and her face turned red.

Just as she was ready to speak again, Evelyn came out of the room.

“So noisy, what’s the matter?”

She didn’t seem to have heard the argument just now and was impatiently reprimanded.

Then, as if she had just saw Vivian. She was surprised and said, “Hey, my little aunt is here. Why did you come here?”

Vivian looked at her pretentious expression and said, "Why did I come here, don't you know?" I tell you. You go to pick Amelia back or I'll never let you feel good!"

Evelyn frowned and guessed that what she did was related to Amelia.

"I'm afraid I can't help. It's Lucas' idea. If I bring her back, I will be against Lucas' idea."

After heard what she said Vivian got more angry.

"Nonsense, who didn't know that Lucas expelled Amelia because you abetted behind. Nora, you are jealous. You are jealous that Sofia like Amelia more, You are afraid that she will replace you. I tell you, even if you are jealous, it is useless, because you are only nobody but Amelia is a part of our family!"

She pointed at Evelyn and scolded at her. After heard what she said Evelyn could not help but be annoyed.

"Yes, my little aunt is right. For you, I am a stranger, but Lucas is willing to protect me. What can you do?"

She looked at Vivian in a cold voice. She wasn't angry but laughed. "Besides, if I drove Amelia away, do you think I would allow her to come back? Don't tell jokes, aunt!"

"You-"

Vivian was so stunned that she could not refute for a moment and stared at her for a long time without speaking.

"You...what?"

Evelyn raised her eyebrows and looked back with relief.

Vivian looked at her very angrily.

"Wait for me, I'll never give up on this!"

She said and turned away.

As she left, Evelyn also restrained the smile on her lips and calmed down.

Her intuition told her that it would not be settled so easily.

In fact, she was right.

After Vivian left, she went to the main house directly to find Sophia.

“Sister-in-law!”

She saw Sofia sitting in the living room and rushing into.

“What’s wrong, Vivian? Who made you angry?”

Sofia looked at her angry face and asked immediately.

” The woman Nora!”

Vivian responded with grinding teeth.

When Sofia heard this, her face got terrible. “What’s wrong with her?”

“That woman was shameless!”

Vivian angrily spoke out their conversation then Sophia was also full of anger.

“That’s really what the woman said?”

“Yes! She relied on the support of Lucas. She becomes more and more unruly!”

Vivian gnashed her teeth. Her eyes were full of anger.

Immediately she seemed to think of something. She turned her topic and said,
” Sister-in-law, I’m afraid we’ll regret sending Amelia back this time.”

Sofia was angry at Nora’ attitude, and suddenly heard the words. She couldn’t understand, “What do you mean?”

When Vivian saw the situation, she said what she had heard.

“Two days ago, I went out to a party and listened to my friends who were in the rich circle said that Amelia’s father was going to be promoted”

After heard that Sofia’s eyebrows frowned.

“Is the information reliable?”

“Should not be wrong, otherwise the shadow-less thing will not come out in that circle. We send Amelia back, and don’t know whether Morgan family will be annoyed. Hope we will not lose the good chance.”

Sofia pressed lips and said nothing, seemingly suspicious of the news.

But soon, her suspicions were dispelled.

Because when Devin Hawk came back at night he couldn’t hide his smile.

“Madame had foresight.”

He took Sofia’s hand and said with relief.

When Sofia heard this, she looked at Devin Hawk in an incomprehensible way.

“Devin, what do you mean?”

Devin Hawk looked at her and thought that she didn’t know Mr Morgan’s promotion so he told her again.

“If it hadn’t been for you liked Amelia and took her to our house making a good relationship with their family. Now we can get a lot of benefit from Morgan’s promotion.”

He said, unable to help sighing: “There is a word: A person’s success could make great benefit to his poultry. We have to make good relationship with Morgan family in the future.”

Sofia listened and got too shocked.

There was no other reason, just because Mr. Morgan’s promotion was a real high-ranking power!

But after she got calm her face was dark and worried.

Because she thought that they had drove Amelia away!

Besides what Vivian said to her during the day, it also echoed in her mind, making her face look more terrible.

Sophia could not help complaining.” What? Your son drove Amelia away. We should be thankful that they are not annoyed. “

Hearing this and looking at the discontent on her face, Devin understood what she was thinking. But he didn't think that way.

“I think there is nothing wrong with Lucas. Though Amelia has lived in our house for years and we said she is just a guest, we all know exactly what people are thinking about this. It really had some bad effects on her reputation.”

Sophia was still reluctant.

Especially now, the Morgans suddenly gained a higher status. When this occurred to her, rage was filled in her eyes.

She could not help complaining.”Really. I have not figured out what father was thinking, Amelia should be the best for Lucas. She has a pretty look and a pretty family background, she will be a good wife for Lucas. But father insisted to keep his promise at that time, insisted to let Lucas get married to that useless woman and she only knew how to benefit herself.”

Hearing this, Devin hawk frowned.

“Dad always thinks keeping promise is important. You know it. No more these words, in case it's known by father.

He lowered his voice to warn her. Even if she wanted to complaint more, she had to keep them in her own heart.

...

The next day, Evelyn knew the news of promotion of the Morgans. She was shocked for a while.

Well, Amelia left and her father got promotion.

She didn't know what people were going to say about her this time.

This was going on forever.

Thinking of it, she rubbed her brows to relieve the headache.

She came there just to play her own role well in this year, who knows that there was always a wave going up and going down.

At the moment, she could only take a step at a time.

She just hoped that the trouble wouldn't come to her so soon.

She thought to herself, but reality was just the opposite.

The Morgans was going to celebrate their promotion.

But while they had improved their status, they still needed to keep a low profile.

And Amelia's father had worked in the south side of the Jiangnan, now he stayed in Jingdu. He just got this job, superiors would observe him for a while. So he couldn't make it a big banquet. He was going to invite some relatives and friend to gather at his house.

And Evelyn heard from the housekeeper at night.

The Morgans also invited the Hawks to dinner.

She thought it had nothing to do with her.

After all, Amelia hated her very much. And no one came to tell her about it. She let the housekeeper prepare dinner when night came.

As she was going to eat lunch, Lucas came back.

"Don't you know we are going to the Morgans' to eat dinner?"

He asked, frowning as he looked at the dishes in front of Evelyn.

He looked at the dished in front of Evelyn, asking her with frown.

Evelyn was stunned. Then she came to her mind and said slowly. "Nobody told me about it, I thought I wasn't on the invitation list."

Though she said it mildly, Lucas still knew her mind.

He frowned tightly. He guessed it might be his mother's idea.

"You are my wife, you are part of the Hawks. You should be there."

His eyes were deep. Hearing it, Evelyn's heart started to beat fast. But she did not care.

Because she cared about another thing.

If she went there, she always felt like she would get in trouble.

But now, she had no excuse to refuse him, she could just wait and see what would happen.

Thinking so, she went upstairs and simply dressed.

A light blue dress made her simple and generous. And the elegant make-up, it was not eye-catching.

After all, the Morgans held this dinner.

As for Lucas, he was still in the same high-level custom suit.

They simply dressed. And they went to the main house, intending to go with Sophia.

In the living room, Sophia was talking and laughing with Vivian. On seeing Evelyn, their smile faded.

Especially, Vivian said coldly. "Nora? what are you doing here?"

Evelyn did not respond her immediately, but looked at Lucas.

Lucas gave her a glance, frowning with discontent.

"Aunt, Nora will go with us to the Morgans'. Is there something wrong?"

There was threat in his voice, which made Vivian couldn't say a word and got annoyed.

"How dare she go there, she..."

Vivian intended to say that Evelyn drove Amelia away. But before she could finish her words, Sophia stopped her.

"All right, Vivian. Since Lucas is going to take her with us, just let her. With Lucas on her side, I believe she will be fine."

Sophia didn't want to argue with her son about it anymore.

She knew in her heart that the more she quarreled with Lucas over these things, the more Lucas would make excuse for that woman.

In the end, she wouldn't drive the woman away, but she would make their relation more intimate.

Thinking of it, she changed the strict attitude before, said indifferently.
"Remember to pay attention to your own words and behavior there. Don't lose our face, or, even if Lucas wants help you, I won't let you go easily."

Evelyn shivered in her heart, hearing her fake words.

They would blame on her even if it wasn't her fault.

She thought in her heart. But her face was still calm. She nodded slightly.

So, they left for the Morgans together.

The Morgans' was brightly lit. This house was the European style villa. Although it couldn't compare with the Hawk's, it was still gorgeous.

As they arrived, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and Amelia stood at the door to greet them.

"Welcome, Mr. Hawk, Sophia."

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan saw them and greeted them first.

Amelia followed her parents and greeted them sweetly.

Devin and Sophia's worries suddenly disappeared for their enthusiasm.

It seemed that they didn't care much about the thing happened before. And they began to chat.

Amelia stood by them and kept looking back.

She knew that Lucas was coming today. She had been dressing up since this afternoon to make Lucas see her at his first sight and amazed by her.

She was full of discontent in her heart after that thing.

She didn't believe she couldn't compare with Nora, that bitch.

The elders saw her solicitous appearance in their eyes, but didn't speak it out.

It was not long before Lucas and Evelyn, who had fallen behind, reached the house.

Lucas got out first.

Amelia saw him. She was so delighted and about to step forward, but then she froze.

Lucas didn't immediately come to her, but went to the other side, opened the door for Evelyn and invited her out like a gentleman.

Amelia looked at Evelyn. Her face suddenly changed.

She didn't expect Evelyn, the bitch, dare to come!

But it seemed something occurred to her. She removed her angry face, smiled brightly and stepped forward to greet them. "Lucas, you are finally here. We have been waiting for you for a long time. "

She went around Lucas and kept talking to him.

Then, as if she just found Evelyn was here, she pretended to be sorry and made a playful apology. " Evelyn, I am sorry. I forgot to say hello to you. It has been a long time since I saw Lucas, I'm a little excited. "

Evelyn listened to the false words of Amelia, and gave her a fake smile, and it was counted as a response.

Immediately, the three joined the elders and entered the Morgan family.

After the group came to the restaurant, a servant began to serve.

During the dinner, the conversation was constant.

Sofia and Mrs. Morgan had a happy talk.

Devin Hawk and Mr. Morgan were discussing about the current situation as well.

Even Lucas was entangled by Amelia to talk about the company's development.

Only Evelyn was sitting in a chair alone, she was some kind of neglected indeed.

She looked at all the people who were happy, and her eyes were full of embarrassment.

Amelia naturally also saw that she was uncomfortable and proudly cast her eyes to Evelyn.

Since she dared to come, don't blame her for causing embarrassment to her.

The Morgan family members seemed that they did not see Evelyn, didn't know they pretended it or just really didn't see her.

When the dishes were served, they greeted the people to start the dinner.

"These are all ordered by Amelia. According to your preferences, we don't know if they suit you."

" Amelia is really thoughtfully!"

Sofia looked at the dishes on the table and found that many of them were her preferences. The smile on her face could not help but deepen again.

“I really admire Mrs. Morgan’s daughter who is so sweet and lovely, but I only have a boy who loves to make me angry.”

She said it , and her face showed her preference to Amelia.

Mrs. Morgan looked at her face, and the eyes flashed the dark light.

She was modest, then she changed the topic, and she glanced at the well-regulated Evelyn. She smiled and said: “While Sofia does not have a daughter, but the daughter-in-law is still a daughter. I heard that Miss Davis was chosen by your father, she must have her own forte, you don’t need to be modest.”

Evelyn was eating the food in front of her. She never thought that they were having a good conversation and how did the topic suddenly turn to her?

She looked up in confusion and didn’t expect that hit the eyesight of Mrs. Morgan. She didn’t know why, and she was a little worried.

Sure enough, the next second, she heard the different judgments of Mrs. Morgan.

“Before I had a meet with Miss Davis, I hadn’t looked at her carefully. And now, I’m looking at her, Miss Davis was very attractive.”

Evelyn frowned, and was not sure what the meaning of Mrs. Morgan was.

Was to praise her beauty, or to say that she only can use her beauty but no any wisdom?

She lowered her eyes and covered all the emotions, modestly said: “Mrs. Morgan , you are flattering me.”

Sofia did not like Evelyn for a long time, and then she saw that she wasn’t humble for her praise and sighed: “She isn’t better than Amelia, you don’t need to praise her.”

Mrs. Morgan saw it, and nodded with a smile.

Sofia was satisfied, and she told her about the changes of Amelia over the past few years.

“It’s also a feeling of emotion. In the past, she was just such a small child. Now she’s already slim and tall, and she’s going to be a young lady of note in the future.”

When Mrs. Morgan heard this, she pretend that she was sorrowful: “What is the use of this? Lucas doesn’t like her at all.”

This was obviously aimed at Lucas.

The atmosphere was awkward for a time.

The smile on Sofia’s face had also become far-fetched.

She kept shooting Lucas a warning glance.

Lucas naturally did not miss the words just now, he looked down and put down the chopsticks.

“Mrs. Morgan must be joking, Amelia is very good, and she deserves better one.”

His words were undoubtedly a rejection, and the Morgan family members can no longer speak more about it.

Otherwise, it was to let the Morgan family members think that their daughter was not worthy of the better one.

Mrs. Morgan became unhappy immediately, and Amelia’s unhappy as well

About Mr. Morgan, he’s really a cunning fox.

Although he was not happy too, he changed the topic and held the rhythm.

“That is also true, my daughter Amelia has been sweet and clever, never let me and her mother worry about her.”

Sofia heard this and was happy to pick up his sentence.

“Yes, this child is the most well-behaved, and has always been very filial. She just left here, then I have not been used to these two days. I can’t sleep at night. Anyway, I have been with her for so many years, and suddenly she left, I feel empty in my heart.”

She did not hide her love for Amelia, and finally let Mrs. Morgan’s face ease.

As she finished her speaking, Devin Hawk also followed.

“If you really miss her, you pick Amelia up and live with her again for a short time. Anyway, you are close.”

“You are right.”

Sofia nodded and responded.

The two talked with the Morgan family members, and Evelyn listened to their conversations, and she couldn’t stop taunting.

From their conversation, it seemed that Amelia was a family member with them, and she was just an outsider, and she was shielded from them.

Simply, this result, she had long expected.

Therefore, she just ironically glanced all of them and re-emerged to make a quiet background.

At that time, suddenly there was a chopstick dish in her bowl.

Just as she was stunned, Lucas’s voice rang near the ear: “I noticed that you didn’t eat much, eat more.”

After Evelyn knew afterwards, she raised her head and saw the concern in Lucas’s eyes. Her heart was very warm.

“Okay.”

She nodded, and then ate what Lucas gave her.

Others looked at them and they had different facial expression.

Amelia’s so unsatisfied, and her eyes were full of jealousy.

Mrs. Morgan was not much better.

Apparently, Lucas's actions meant that he did not even listen to her previous words.

Even so, the dinner ended in a successful conclusion.

The group said goodbye to the Morgan family members and left.

After leaving the villa, Sofia couldn't help but stop Lucas.

"What attitude did you have just now? Do you know that we were almost unable to find a way out of an embarrassing situation."

Lucas was stunned, then he was frowning and coldly questioning: "What happened to my attitude? If you don't have unrealistic thoughts, how can you be unable to find a way out of an embarrassing situation?"

When Sofia heard his words, she became so angry.

"You still have reason, you know that Amelia loves..."

She originally wanted to say Amelia's feelings for him, but the words had not been finished, she was interrupted by Devin Hawk.

He glanced at Evelyn and said angrily: "What are you arguing for? Can you calm down? We are just out of their house!"

Sofia was not reconciled and stared at Evelyn. She did not feel good: "Don't think that Amelia has been driven away by you, you haven't won, she can still come back!"

When she finished speaking, she did not care about the feelings of Evelyn and Lucas. She went straight to the car and left away with Devin Hawk.

Evelyn looked at the car shadow, her lips were tight, and her heart was uncomfortable and helpless.

Lucas observed the expression on her face and pulled her hand up and comforted her: "Don't care what Mom said, let's go home."

Evelyn stunned, especially the words of "go home", gave her a kind of incitement.

She resisted the strangeness in her heart, nodded and left with him.

As they left, Amelia watched them leave hand in hand on the second floor, and her face was distorted.

Mrs. Morgan looked around and knew her daughter's thoughts. She couldn't help but comfort: "Amelia, it's okay, you still have chance. Now your father is promoted, and the Hawk family will definitely feel that they have not married us is a loss."

Amelia understood what her mom meant, she nodded and tried to adjust her emotions.

Indeed, she still had a chance, shouldn't be confused by the temporary loss.

Nora, our war wasn't over!

.....

As for Evelyn, she didn't know that Amelia intended to fight to the end.

After the two returned to the new house, Lucas suddenly asked: "Well, how do the clothes develop in the design department, and the company is going to propagandize them a few days later."

Evelyn frowned and responded: "It's gonna be OK. I have only one left here, but I can finish it if I work overtime tonight."

Lucas: "You must be tired."

Evelyn shook her head and said that she was going to wash up first, then she went into the bathroom.

After washing, she ignored Lucas and directly sat down by the workbench and started working.

Lucas glanced at her and said nothing. He took the nightgown to the bathroom to have a bath, after that, he still didn't bother her, and just took the financial magazine. Besides, he opened a bottle of red wine, and at last sat on the sofa to enjoy reading in the room.

However, he failed to enjoy his reading, because he always couldn't help watching her unintentionally.

Under the gentle light, the figure of Evelyn looked very thin, so that he couldn't repress the thought that to hold her in his arms.

He took a sip of red wine, staring at Evelyn.

Recalling the life with her in this period, he suddenly felt it was actually quite good.

Evelyn naturally noticed the gaze behind her. She got stiff for a moment, but quickly adjusted herself so that she could not care and concentrate on her work.

She didn't know how long it took, and the last garment finally was finished tonight.

"Finish!"

She couldn't resist stretching out and then enjoyed the masterpiece in front of her.

Lucas heard the sound and looked at it sideways.

"Perfect!"

He had to admit once again that Evelyn was talented in designing.

The color of that garment was vivid and it was full of three-dimension effect, really eye-catching.

Evelyn heard his compliments and was about to be modest, but her stomach growled at this time.

The sound was not small, she promised Lucas must have heard it.

Suddenly her face flashed embarrassment.

"Are you hungry?"

Lucas did not laugh at her, but asked softly.

Evelyn nodded awkwardly.

“A little bit.”

She had eaten little in the Morgan family. After working hard just now, she naturally got hungry quickly.

Lucas said nothing, just let her go downstairs and told the maid to make something to eat.

Evelyn didn't refuse, nodded and went away.

When she reached the kitchen, the maid had already gone home.

She didn't intend to trouble others, so she planned to cook by herself.

However, when she opened the refrigerator, she was a little dumbfounded.

There were much raw food inside, so she didn't know how to start.

She didn't believe that there weren't fast food in this big kitchen. She started a rummage and finally found some noodles.

“it's so great to see you, or I'll stand the hunger all the night.”

She was ready to make some noodles for herself, and suddenly she thought of Lucas who was still upstairs. It had been so long since dinner, he should also be hungry now!

Moreover, she found he also had eaten little in the Morgan family.

Thinking about this, she went upstairs to ask.

“Lucas, do you want to have something too?”

Lucas was a bit surprised when he heard this.

He subconsciously looked at the time on his mobile phone and said: “The maid should get off work now!”

“Yeah, I plan to cook by myself, just thinking that you ate little at night, so I come to ask you.”

Without thinking too much, Evelyn said. However, her answer amazed Lucas, so that he squinted at her doubtfully.

Because he had never heard that Miss Davis could cook.

It was rumored that this lady’s life was really luxurious, not only in the Hawk family where she married into , but also in her own family.

Evelyn didn’t know that he was once again doubting her. Seeing him was in silent, she asked again.

“Would you like some noodles?”

Lucas collected himself, looked at her seriously and responded: “Yes, please!”

Evelyn nodded, then she turned and went downstairs to prepare. She did not notice the strangeness of Lucas, nor felt that there was anything wrong to cook by herself.

She must be starve to death !

Instead, looking at her back, Lucas seemed to thought of something, put down the magazine and went down stairs.

When he came to the kitchen, he saw that Evelyn had already dressed apron and skillfully preparing the ingredients on the cabinet.

Wash and cut the vegetables and the meat, cook oil, put noodles, every step was clear, so she must often cook.

Soon, two bowls of fragrant noodles were put on the table.

They were good in color, flavor and taste, which stunned Lucas and suspicion was full of his mind.

“Enjoy!”

Evelyn still didn’t find the strangeness in his eyes, she just gave the chopsticks to him and asked him to eat.

Lucas came to himself, darted a look at her and sat down to eat.

His movements were very elegant, just like an ornamental art, which amazed Evelyn very much.

He did indeed come from an illustrious family and was well educated in good etiquette. Even he ate noodles more elegantly than she did.

“How do you like it?”

Seeing Lucas put down the chopsticks, she asked subconsciously.

Lucas looked at her intricately: “Not bad.”

“Thank you.”

Maybe because she was praised by him, Evelyn bowed to her noodles satisfactorily.

Since she was hungry, she ate very fast.

Lucas always observed her, and suddenly pretended to inadvertently ask: “Do you often cook at home?”

“Well, I used to do it, I...”

Evelyn consciously answered, but before she finished, she found she had exposed herself.

“You...”

Lucas seemed not to find her change, and continued to ask.

Hearing the words, her eyes flashed confusedly and looked at him.

“I... I didn't used to eat out when I was in college, so sometimes I would cook food myself.”

Lucas glanced down at her uneasy look and continued: “Can you only cook noodles?”

Evelyn heard this and didn't know whether he believed her or not. She had to persist: “Yes, I can only cook this because it is the easiest.”

Hearing this, Lucas suddenly smiled.

“It’s already great to cook noodles, and now few girls can cook.”

After hearing his words, Evelyn couldn’t resist relaxing herself.

He seemed to believe in her words.

She answered casually while was thinking, after that, she bowed to concentrated on eating noodles.

Lucas watched her eating noodles, and closed his eyes slightly.

Of course he had noticed the woman’s upset. She seemed to conceal something, which made him feel strange, but he couldn’t figure it out right now. Therefore, he had to stop doubting and observed her later.

Evelyn did not know the suspicions in his heart, but the exposure made her very guilty, and now she was afraid to stay with Lucas.

Therefore, she quickly finished eating, found an excuse that she had to finished the last step of the garment, and went upstairs in advance.

After returning to the room, she subconsciously patted her chest and warned herself: “It’s so dangerous tonight, I almost exposed myself, and I must be cautious next time!”

When it’s late, Lucas also returned.

Evelyn noticed the sound outside, lying on the bed, pretending to fall asleep.

When Lucas entered the room, he saw the person lying on the bed, with eyes closed and the eyelashes trembled. He knew she was awake.

He knew that she was pretending to sleep and didn’t intend to expose her. He glanced at her and explored this woman’s secret again.

What kind of secret was this woman hiding, so that she was so afraid to face him .

With such doubts, he also went to bed.

As he moved closer, the people on the bed first got tense for a moment, then relaxed.

Lucas stared at the face of Evelyn sideways.

No matter what secret she had, he would find it out sooner or later!

Evelyn didn't know that her strangeness had already attracted Lucas.

She pretended to sleep for a short while, then breathed evenly in her sleep.

Nothing happened tonight.

.....

The next day, they got up one after another. After washing up, they went downstairs together to eat dinner.

Perhaps she almost exposed last night, this morning, Evelyn was extra quiet.

Lucas observed her quietly and said nothing.

Evelyn was surprised that Lucas still stayed at home.

However, she didn't ask too much. When she finished the meal, she got up and said: "I'm full and I'm going to the company."

After saying that, she was about to leave, but she was stopped.

"Wait, I will go with you later."

Evelyn heard this, she frowned a bit but didn't refuse.

Then they drove to the company together, and Evelyn was still getting off at the intersection.

She walked to the company, and when she enter the design department, she met Amelia unexpectedly.

Amelia naturally saw her, glanced at Evelyn coldly, sneered and past by her.

Evelyn didn't care too much for her but directly went to her own desk.

She was clear that Amelia just left the Hawk family only temporarily, she would come back sooner or later.

Thinking of this, she collected herself and concentrated on sorting out the things at hand.

It's the day to hand in garments. Normally, she should hand over the works to Amelia.

However, the lessons told her that something might happen if she handed them over to Amelia.

This woman was the most interested in scheming against her and she was not willing to let go of any opportunity to do this.

The company attached importance to this batch of garments, so Evelyn was unable to hand over the finished products to Amelia.

Thinking about this, she went to the general manager's office with her three pieces of ready-made garments.

"General manager."

She knocked on the door and Freya was a little surprised when seeing Evelyn

.

"What's up, Evelyn?"

Evelyn heard the words, didn't conceal her own intentions, and handed over the ready-made garments she made.

"I'm not a narrow-minded woman. General manager should know about my affairs with Director Morgan, So I hand you these garments in case of something unexpected and delay the process."

Freya understood the meaning, didn't refuse and nodded: "OK, is there anything else?"

“NO.”

Evelyn shook her head, turned around and walked out of the office.

Just as she returned to her desk, she received a notice of meeting.

This meeting had two key points, one was for the designers to deliver the manuscript, and the other was to announce the company's next run.

In the conference room, all the designers handed in their garments, except Evelyn.

“Designer Davis, where are your garments?”

Amelia had always paid attention to Evelyn and found that everyone has handed in their works, except her. She couldn't help guessing: “Haven't she finished the garments yet?”

She stared at Evelyn closely, and her eyes were full of bad intentions.

As long as Evelyn answered “yes”, she had an excuse to punish this woman severely and deflated her spirit.

Evelyn looked at the light in her eyes, she easily guessed what she was thinking and smirked: “I'm disappointing you, and my work has already been completed.”

“Is it? Why don't you hand in? Are they too bad to show up?”

Amelia questioned aggressively.

Evelyn was careless and pretend to be surprised: “Who said that I didn't hand in? I handed them over to the general manager, did I not tell you?”

After hearing this, Amelia's face got black all of a sudden.

“Nora Davis, what do you mean by saying this?”

There was no reason to think over. Evelyn directly handed over the garments to the general manager without telling her, so she didn't afraid this director at all.

“Don’t be so angry, director! I don’t mean anything and I am just afraid that you will collect so many garments and accidentally got confused or ruin the clothes, so that you affect the company... what’s more, general manager also wants to see my works I designed, so I gave them to the general manager.”

After saying that, she looked at Amelia meaningfully.

How could Amelia not understand what she said. Evelyn was implying that she would play tricks on her and her works.

She was so angry that her face sometimes was dark and sometimes was white, and she could not refute.

“Since it’s requested by the general manager, let it go. In case of mistake, you’d better tell me in advance next time!”

She gnashed at Evelyn and said slowly.

Evelyn shrugged and nodded.

Amelia saw this and had to change the topic in resentment. The second topic was about the company’s propaganda of designs in the following days.

“I got some news about the propaganda in our company that we will invite the most popular female in China Envy Miller to be our spokesperson. At that time, I hope that all of you here won’t make any mistakes and affect the whole plan of our company!”

At the end of the word, she sternly scanned the circle of people, and finally fixed on Evelyn.

Evelyn didn’t notice her. Like everyone else, she was shocked by the company’s marketing, so upscale and avantgarde.

Envy Miller was not only simply the most famous celebrity in China, but also a benchmark in the circle of female celebrities.

Except that, she was also the editor-in-chief of the top fashion magazines in China, leading the fashion trend.

Her clothes she had worn had always been limited, and many stars and rich girls dreamed of buying them .

It was no exaggeration to call her the leader of the fashion world!

Amelia had expected the shock of everybody.

After clapping her hands to keep quiet, she made some supplement before she dismissed the meeting.

Evelyn left with other staff.

Originally she thought that Amelia wouldn't let her go, but half a day passed, nothing happened.

She felt strange, but she didn't think much.

When it was late in the afternoon, she had nothing to do, so she left the company directly for fear that she would fight Amelia unexpectedly.

Amelia didn't know Evelyn had left.

At this time, she came to the office of Freya, using the quality inspection as excuse, and let Freya show her Evelyn's garments.

Freya didn't think much, and took the clothes out.

When she took out three pieces of finished clothes designed by Evelyn, there was a flicker of amazement and envy in Amelia's eyes.

Amelia looked at the perfect ready-made clothes, but she didn't realize that Nora Davis really had some skills.

No wonder she had the courage to challenge her before.

She thought of it, her eyes flickering over the calculation.

Didn't Nora Davis think she was excellent?

If something goes wrong with the ready-made clothes, she wanted to see how arrogant she was and how Lucas protected her!

...

Evelyn didn't know that someone was going to do something about her ready-made clothes.

When she returned to new house, she did not run around, but found a quiet place to continue drawing.

Although the first batch of ready-made clothes was over at present, she couldn't stopping working.

Especially for Lucas helped her several times, she wanted to repay him by drawing more designs.

And the scenery in the villas group was beautiful, the backyard was pleasant, and the environment was very quiet.

The pavilions and flower racks were all beautifully constructed.

Hidden in this place, with a pot of tea, a lounge chair, you could stay for an afternoon.

This was the case with Evelyn.

By evening, she was getting ready to go back to dinner, she heard footsteps and conversations.

She couldn't help pausing.

It seemed to be the voice of Lucas and a woman.

Evelyn listened with a subconscious and held her breath, and a woman's teasing came from a short distance.

"Lucas, I didn't expect you to invite me one day."

Lucas glanced at the person beside him and said with a faint look, "as the editor-in-chief of the first fashion magazine. It's already a brilliant thing you can come here."

Evelyn heard the joke and she thought their relationship was strange.

Usually she seldom saw who Lucas would joke with, but now he laughed with this woman. It's not a normal relationship.

Just when she was thinking, the woman blamed again.

"Don't tease me, you don't look for me on casual days!"

Lucas did not say anything, but the woman did not care and looked around.

Then she turned to laugh and said, "I haven't been to Hawk's house for a long time, it has not changed much."

"What needs to be changed?"

Lucas looked at her doubtfully.

Their voices are getting closer and closer, they approached Evelyn.

Evelyn finally saw what the woman looked like.

Her identity was recognized almost at the first glance.

Envy Miller!

Her eyes flashed with surprise that Lucas knew the first lady.

Not far ahead, the woman's delicate and elegant make-up was just right. Her dark brown long hair was half-curled behind her head, revealing a slender white neck.

Like a high white swan, noble and elegant.

A purely hand-made improved cheongsam of peony clinged to her body, displaying her concave and convex figure vividly.

From the thigh of the skirt, as she moved, a pair of slender legs loomed.

They stood together as if they were shaped by heaven, a handsome man and a beautiful woman, and Evelyn could not bear to destroy the atmosphere

Her brows were slightly stunned, subconsciously wanted to avoid two people.

She was found right now.

“Nora Davis.”

Lucas stopped her, frowned and asked, “What are you doing ?”

Evelyn had to stop and turn around.

“I think the scenery is good,I just drew a design here.”

Lucas looked at the drawing board in her hand and he did not doubt her words.

“To introduce you, she is Envy Miller ,and she will be the spokesperson of the company.”

He pointed to Envy Miller and made a soft introduction.

“Envy Miller, I have known you.”

Envy Miller responded by nodding to her indifferently.

Immediately she laughed to Lucas.

“I haven’t promised that yet. Don’t talk nonsense.”

Lucas didn’t care. He confidently said, “When you look at Nora Davis’s design, I think you’ll agree.”

Envy Miller looked at Evelyn in surprise.

Evelyn was also stunned. She didn’t expect Lucas to say that.

Envy Miller naturally saw her expression, and asked Lucas with a slight frown, “You mean the clothes I spoke for were designed by her?”

Lucas laughed, but his meaning was obvious.

Envy was even more surprised.

“I’ve heard some rumors about you , but I didn’t know that she like design. Did she study the design?”

She asked Evelyn calmly.

Evelyn can't be honest. After all, she's Nora Davis now.

The information about Nora Davis was clear to everyone outside.

"No, it's just a personal hobby, so I took design as an optional course."

She continued to use the excuses she had used, but Envy's eyes were filled with discontent.

But she didn't show it. Looking at the drawing board in her hand, she smiled and said, "Do you mind showing me the drawing?"

Evelyn naturally knew what she was thinking and nodded, "Yes, and I hope you can give some advice."

As she spoke, she handed the drawing board.

As the saying goes, an expert watches the skills while an outsider watches the bustle.

Envy Miller was the editor-in-chief of fashion magazine and a famous lady. She had her own views on fashion design. At this time, she accepted Evelyn's design manuscript and she could figure out whether the design was good.

But Lucas couldn't help stepping forward and asked, "How is it?"

Envy closed the sketch, glanced at Evelyn with a smile, and said in a soft voice, "You've got a treasure."

When she finished, she returned the drawing board to Evelyn regardless of Lucas.

"Evelyn gave me a big surprise."

Evelyn was modest.

When Lucas saw them standing for a long time, he said, "Envy, you may not be here for a long time. Stay for dinner tonight."

It was only his words that stunned Evelyn.

Because Lucas seldom invites anyone.

But she didn't think much about it. After all, they would cooperate. It's a basic manner to invite her for dinner.

Envy didn't refuse either. She nodded, "Yes, I haven't seen my aunt and uncle for a long time. We just took this opportunity to get together."

The three people entered the main house.

Lucas's mother was delighted to see Envy.

Especially at meals, Lucas's mother was very enthusiastic.

Lucas's mother recommended dishes to her and held her hand.

"Envy, I really envy your mother for giving birth to such a good daughter as you, who is young and promising."

"Lucas is excellent, and my father often praises him."

Envy's courteous response was pleasant to Lucas's mother.

She looked at Lucas with great pride. She thought that the proudest thing for her was to give birth to Lucas.

But when her eyes fell on Evelyn who was beside Lucas, her good mood turned into a melancholy instantly.

If her son made her proud, then Evelyn was her failure!

Mrs. Hawk always wished her daughter-in-law was in the same rank as her son.

However, Nora Davis broke her good wish.

Thinking of this, a flicker of annoy appeared in her eyes.

Suddenly, she laughed and started to reminisce the old days with Envy Miller.

“You grow up with Lucas and often chase after him when you was young. Now you are still close like before, which make me extremely happy .”

Anyhow, she wanted to express that how good the relationship between the two was, and didn't care about Evelyn's feelings at all.

She thought Evelyn as transparency.

Fortunately, Evelyn had become accustomed to it.

After all, Mrs.Hawk had also treated Amelia Morgan like this when she was in this family before.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help comparing Amelia Morgan with Envy Miller.

She had to admit that Envy Miller was the most popular female. Envy was better at talking and handling affairs than Amelia Morgan.

No one knew whether Envy understand Mrs.Hawk's words, and she replied with a smile: “Auntie, I don't expect that you still remember those old thing and don't refer them again. Now I grow up, and I find I was too simple when I was young.”

A few words of her skillfully changed the original intention of Mrs.Hawk.

Evelyn listened to their conversation and ate silently.

After the meal, Mrs.Hawk chatted with Envy Miller.

Since Lucas had invited Envy Miller for diner , he couldn't leave early.

Evelyn couldn't get in their conversation, she found an excuse to work and returned to her room.

When it was late, she heard some sound outside the door , but finally Lucas didn't appear, so she could resist going out.

“Is Lucas back?”

She asked Cindy.

“Mr. Hawk came back with Miller. Now they seemed to talk about business in study.”

Evelyn heard in a daze and then she nodded: “Sent some drinks and fruit to them.”

“OK.”

Cindy answered and left.

Evelyn watched her leave, turned back to the room , and began to design her clothes again.

However, her thoughts always fled away while she was drawing, uncontrollably guessing what Lucas and Envy Miller were doing over there.

First, Lucas had invited Envy to have dinner; then, he had accompanied her to chat; now, he was talking business with her in study. All the things above showed the different attitude of Lucas.

At least, Amelia Morgan didn't enjoy such treatment.

And she won't even talk about it.

She couldn't stop guessing the relationship between them, which made her disturbed. At last, she was so sleepy that fell asleep on the table .

When she woke up again, she was awakened by Lucas.

After talking about the business, Lucas went back to the room, finding her sleeping on the table.

She was wearing a thin pajamas, and the room was still air-conditioned.

He subconsciously walked over and wanted to wake her up.

Nevertheless, when seeing her sweet face, he couldn't bear to do it.

He took back his hand and planned to hold her, but when felt her body was cold he frowned tightly.

As soon as he walked two steps, the person in his arms woke up.

“Who?”

Evelyn seemed to be frightened, so that she trembled and screamed.

Not until she saw the person in front of her was Lucas did she turn relaxed.

“It’s you, when did you come back? Are things finished?”

As she spoke, she found herself being held by Lucas.

His heart was beating in her ear, which made her shy and awkward.

She subconsciously wanted to struggle, but Lucas stopped her strictly.

“Don’t move, I am not responsible for falling.”

Evelyn heard this and suddenly felt that his hand loosened a little, for fear that she would fall on the ground tragically, she quickly grasped Lucas.

Then she pouted and glared at Lucas angrily.

It’s OK that you didn’t put me down, but why did you frighten me?

She said to herself mentally, then found a good position to enjoy Lucas’s arms.

His arms was very warm, at least her cold body was getting warmer.

Lucas had no idea about her thoughts. He didn’t loosen his hands until put the person on the bed.

However, when he saw her thin pajamas, he frowned in disapproval and asked: “Why are you wearing so few and don’t go to bed to rest? Aren’t you afraid of a cold?”

Evelyn didn’t expect that he would care about her she stunned and answered carelessly: “I won’t catch a cold, and the temperature in the room is not very low.”

After saying that, she lied down and said that she would sleep.

Lucas looked at her and didn’t say anything more. After washing up, he went to bed.

Nothing happened this night.

As a result, the next day, there was a big slap in Evelyn's face.

She woke up sleepy, feeling uncomfortable, wanting to get up, but she was so weak that finally she failed. She soon fell into a deep sleep.

As for Lucas, he got up early and went to the company.

At that time, he didn't find the strangeness of Evelyn. Seeing she slept well, and hoping she could sleep longer, so he didn't wake her up.

During this period, the servants didn't get the call of the hostess, so no one found her strangeness.

Therefore,, Evelyn kept sleeping the whole morning. Not until Lucas came back to take the documents, he found that she looked terrible.

Evelyn's white cheeks had turned an abnormal red. Her forehead was covered with cold sweat and pink lips were white and cracked.

Lucas felt her temperature and found it was very high, so he patted her quickly.

"Nora, wake up! You have a fever, get up, and I will send you to the hospital."

Evelyn mumbled uncomfortably, and then woke up.

Although she had a heavy head, she still heard Lucas clearly.

"No, I'll be fine after taking some pills."

She subconsciously refused, because she was used to such a treatment when she was young.

After all, there was no money when she was young, and going to the hospital meant that a lot of money would be costed.

Lucas didn't know her worries. He saw her persisting so hard and his eyes flashed with anger. He didn't intend to argue with her, just directly picked the woman up.

“What are you doing?”

In case of falling down, Evelyn subconsciously surrounded his neck and exclaimed.

“I’m sending you to the hospital.”

Lucas respond angrily, and immediately rush to the hospital.

This woman really didn’t know her current situation, if she saw the doctor later, she would actually get pneumonia.

Evelyn resisted and struggled in his arms.

But she was unable to resist, especially at this time she was still having a high fever.

After a while, she used up her strength and fell asleep in the arms of Lucas.

Looking at this, Lucas went faster.

After a long while, she woke up and found she was already lying on the hospital bed.

“Mistress, you wake up! You have slept for one day and one night, and you scared us all.”

Noticing that she woke up, Cindy was excited and greeted her anxiously.

Mrs.Hawk always wished her daughter-in-law was in the same rank as her son.

However, Nora Davis broke her good wish.

Thinking of this, a flicker of annoy appeared in her eyes.

When she woke up again, she was awakened by Lucas.

After talking about the business, Lucas went back to the room, finding her sleeping on the table.

She was wearing a thin pajamas, and the room was still air-conditioned.

He subconsciously walked over and wanted to wake her up.

Nevertheless, when seeing her sweet face, he couldn't bear to do it.

He took back his hand and planned to hold her, but when felt her body was cold he frowned tightly.

As soon as he walked two steps, the person in his arms woke up.

"Who?"

Evelyn seemed to be frightened, so that she trembled and screamed.

Not until she saw the person in front of her was Lucas did she turn relaxed.

"It's you, when did you come back? Are things finished?"

As she spoke, she found herself being held by Lucas.

His heart was beating in her ear, which made her shy and awkward.

She subconsciously wanted to struggle, but Lucas stopped her strictly.

“Don’t move, I am not responsible for falling.”

Evelyn heard this and suddenly felt that his hand loosened a little, for fear that she would fall on the ground tragically, she quickly grasped Lucas.

Then she pouted and glared at Lucas angrily.

It’s OK that you didn’t put me down, but why did you frighten me?

She said to herself mentally, then found a good position to enjoy Lucas’s arms.

His arms was very warm, at least her cold body was getting warmer.

Lucas had no idea about her thoughts. He didn’t loosen his hands until put the person on the bed.

However, when he saw her thin pajamas, he frowned in disapproval and asked: “Why are you wearing so few and don’t go to bed to rest? Aren’t you afraid of a cold?”

Evelyn didn’t expect that he would care about her she stunned and answered carelessly: “I won’t catch a cold, and the temperature in the room is not very low.”

After saying that, she lied down and said that she would sleep.

Lucas looked at her and didn’t say anything more. After washing up, he went to bed.

Nothing happened this night.

As a result, the next day, there was a big slap in Evelyn’s face.

She woke up sleepy, feeling uncomfortable, wanting to get up, but she was so weak that finally she failed. She soon feel into a deep sleep.

As for Lucas, he got up early and went to the company.

At that time, he didn't find the strangeness of Evelyn. Seeing she slept well, and hoping she could sleep longer, so he didn't wake her up.

During this period, the servants didn't get the call of the hostess, so no one find her strangeness.

Therefore,, Evelyn kept sleeping the whole morning. Not until Lucas came back to take the documents, he found that she looked terrible.

Evelyn's white cheeks had turned an abnormal red. Her forehead was covered with cold sweat and pink lips were white and cracked.

Lucas felt her temperature and found it was very high, so he patted her quickly.

"Nora, wake up! You have a fever, get up, and I will send you to the hospital."

Evelyn mumbled uncomfortably, and then woke up.

Although she had a heavy head, she still heard Lucas clearly.

"No, I'll be fine after taking some pills."

She subconsciously refused, because she was used to such a treatment when she was young.

After all, there was no money when she was young, and going to the hospital meant that a lot of money would be costed.

Lucas didn't know her worries. He saw her persisting so hard and his eyes flashed with anger. He didn't intend to argue with her, just directly picked the woman up.

"What are you doing?"

In case of falling down, Evelyn subconsciously surrounded his neck and exclaimed.

"I'm sending you to the hospital."

Lucas respond angrily, and immediately rush to the hospital.

This woman really didn't know her current situation, if she saw the doctor later, she would actually get pneumonia.

Evelyn resisted and struggled in his arms.

But she was unable to resist, especially at this time she was still having a high fever.

After a while, she used up her strength and fell asleep in the arms of Lucas.

Looking at this, Lucas went faster.

After a long while, she woke up and found she was already lying on the hospital bed.

"Mistress, you wake up! You have slept for one day and one night, and you scared us all."

Noticing that she woke up, Cindy was excited and greeted her anxiously.

When Evelyn saw Cindy, she was a little surprised.

"Cindy? Why are you here?"

Although she had a fever yesterday, she felt dazed, but still vaguely remember that the person who sent her yesterday was Lucas.

"Young Master was looking after you yesterday. He needed to go to the company and just left. Mistress, do you need to find to him?"

Cindy said yesterday's situation briefly, after she heard, there were many thoughts in her mind.

That man, Lucas, actually took care of her for a day and a night.

Somehow, she was moved beyond words.

“No, since he has business to attend to, please don’t bother him,.”She shook her head and refused.

Cindy nodded and took care of her body immediately, “Do you feel better? If you feel any discomfort, you must tell me.”

She said with a smile,“I just have a fever, I am not weak, to take some antifebrile medicine will recover.”

When Cindy heard this, she could not say anything more.

However, as a member of the family of Hawk ,Sophia had heard of Evelyn was ill, Lucas also took care of her for a day and night, could not help to be hesitate.

No matter how to say, she was Evelyn ‘s mother-in-law, now she was ill.As an elder.She was supposed to visit and care about her, avoid being talked about by others.

But she was not really want to visit her, so she was hesitant, finally she asked Vivian,who was chatting with her.

“Vivian, do you think I should go to the hospital to visit her?”

Vivian heard this, she gave a disapproving sneer.

“No,you do not need to visit her,the day before yesterday she was lively and vigorous obviously, why did she suddenly fall ill,and so seriously, she must be pretending”

After she said this,her eyes were contemptuous.

Sophia heard this and felt reasonable, then she gave up the idea..

In the afternoon, Evelyn felt very boring to stay in the hospital, she thought she was not seriously ill, so she asked Cindy to go through the discharge procedures.

“But the doctor says you’ll have another day’s observation to prevent your relapse, and young Master had ordered you not to be discharged without his permission.”

Cindy replied awkwardly.

She was speechless after heard this.

It was just a fever, and she thought she needn't stay in the hospital.

She looked at Cindy, and she knew that Cindy would not defy the meaning of Lucas, so she planed to wait until the evening, told her real thought to him when he came to the hospital .

In the evening, he came to the hospital.

“Awake?”

He looked at her,whom was lying on the sickbed, asked carefully, “Do you still feel uncomfortable?”

She shook her head.

“There's nothing wrong. I feel fine. I don't need to stay in the hospital for observation.”

She was afraid of being refused, so she said in an ingratiating tone ,”I really don't like the smell of disinfectant, if you don't believe, you can let the doctor come over to check me, if there is no problem, we leave the hospital.”

He looked at her, was not rejected, motioned Cindy to find the doctor.

And the fact also was true liked she said, her fever had gone down, and she did not have any problem temporarily.

But she did not tell him, although her fever had gone down, but her head still felt dizzy.

He did not know, he thought she was recovered, then took her back to home.

When getting off the car, she felt very dizzy, and suddenly, as she was getting out of the car, she leaned forward.

But for his quick embrace, she would have fallen and touched the earth intimately

“Is that what you said?”

Lucas said to her in a cold voice,in front of Evelyn.

When she heard what he said, shrinking her body, as if she was guilty and she became silent.

Lucas looked at her for a while, gave a sneer, did not say anything and immediately embrace her in the house.

However,the laughter coming from the main living room as soon as they entered.

Lucas stopped to look at them subconsciously, and he saw Amelia was accompanying with Sophia and Vivian,they were talking something and laughing loudly.

Also at this time, there was a servant noticed Lucas, called him respectfully.

“Master.”

After he said, the three people in the living room looked at the direction of him.

When they saw him holding Evelyn, the smile on their face convergence up.

Especially for Amelia , she was not finished her words,but now,she dared not say anything.

“Lucas....” Amelia said.

She was looking at him sadly, and the picture of them hurt her.

Evelyn also found them at this time, and consciously found that in his bosom was not appropriate.

Just as she was ready to signal him put her down,the terrible voice of Vivian appeared.

“She was so weak that people thought she was seriously ill.”

Sophia felt bad when she heard this.

Her son, who was usually very busy and tired, had to put so much thought into this woman.

“Well, why didn’t you see her weak before?”

She followed sarcasm.

When Evelyn heard this, she understood they were dissatisfied. Her face looked bad.

She pressed her lips and said, “Lucas, put me down.”

Lucas glanced at her and did not move.

He looked at them, ignored their words just now, said in a cold voice, “mom, there is nothing important, I will take Nora back.”

After his words fell, he did not care her what her mom’s thought, holding Evelyn went straight to their room.

Their faces darkened as he left.

Especially for Amelia, her face was extremely ugly.

Sophia took back the vision to her son, and saw Amelia was sad, she didn’t know how to comfort her, she could only said in carefully, “Amelia, this was only for a time, you needn’t care it.”

She understood the meaning of Sophia’s words, gnashing her teeth, “Aunt, please rest assured, I understand.”

Even so, she was burning with jealousy.

If it were not for maintaining her image in front of Sophia, she would have lose her temper.

And to her forbearance, Vivian also understood.

She rolled her eyes and smiled, “Well, sister-in-law, just stop saying these disappointing matter, it is not easy to company with Amelia, how about go outside with me to walk, or take a rest.”

Amelia knew that she needed to divert her attention, otherwise it would be easy to break out, so she did not refuse.

As for Sophia, it was a good idea. So she agreed.

She knew that Amelia was affected by what had just happened, she thought Vivian was about Amelia's age and their relationship was good, so maybe with Vivian's company, she would become more comfortable.

They went to the back garden without Sophia.

Then Vivian looked around and made sure that there was no body, she suddenly stopped to turn around and held Amelia's hand.

"Amelia, I know your mind, please rest assured, I will help you get him back."

After she heard this, her face looked mysterious under the dim light of night.

She pretended sad, and said, "if it can really get him back, long ago..."
