

Got Busted 1047

Chapter 1047 Don't mess with-

Juliana Lewis smiled and said, "But master, you are old and have three highs. You should not eat such greasy things. It is still suitable for young people like Ah Cheng."

So Juliana Lewis gave Benson Leach braised pork again.

Yang Laotou looked puzzled, gave himself a pulse, and then said, "I don't have three highs. How can I have three highs? When did I get three highs?"

He took his pulse, but he didn't. He paid great attention to maintenance.

Juliana Lewis smiled and said, "Now I say you have three highs. Master, are you questioning my medical skills?"

Yang Laotou wanted to nod very much, but looking at the serious eyes of Landing wine, he shook his head again and again: "No, your medical skills are very good. I have three highs now, that is... my three highs don't seem to be very serious, otherwise I can't live to be in my nineties, can I?"

Yang Laotou is 91 years old this year, with silver hair, sage like type, and nothing like the three highs mentioned by Juliana Lewis.

But Yang Laotou can't deny it.

Juliana Lewis looked at the old man Yang and said, "That's because Master has meddled and can still live to 999."

Yang Laotou can't compete for braised pork. He can only compete for the sweet and sour ribs on that plate: "I think if you eat sweet and sour ribs, you can live for ten thousand years."
