Chapter 18: To spoil to kill

Selene's eyes turned red with her head down, "I'm sorry, it's all my fault.

Don't be angry, Jill."

Jermaine became even angrier and blamed Suzanne, "Why did you let Selene apologize without even asking? How can you be such a mother?"

Suzanne smiled softly, "It's right for a younger sister to give way to her older one. Besides, how could Jill do anything wrong?"

She came downstairs and looked at Juliana with a loving smile, "Jill, don't be afraid, mom will back you up and not let them bully you."

Juliana looked up at Suzanne, who wasn't particularly pretty but still charming.

Yet Suzanne was no match for Juliana's mother and didn't even have a third of her beauty.

But it was this woman who stole Jermaine from Juliana's mother and took her place in the family.

Suzanne was a bit freaked out when Juliana looked at her and turned her head to scold Selene: "Selene, why are you bullying Jill again? How many times have I told you to give in to her? Why don't you listen?"

Selene bowed her head and cried, "I give in. I'll give in to Jill. I don't want anything."

Jermaine saw her daughter crying, heartbroken. He got angrier and angrier: "Why should Selene give in to Juliana? Juliana must have bullied her again."

Jayden stood up, defending Selene, and said angrily, "Juliana told Selene not to get engaged to me and asked Selene to marry into the Leach family instead of her."

"Selene didn't agree and she made her kneel. She even kicked me down. She's trying to supplant Selene."

Selene cried as she shook her head: "It's not like that. It's not Jill's fault. I'm the one who's willing to give up Jayden to Jill and marry Benson Leach instead of her. Dad, don't blame Jill."

Jermaine only got furious when he heard these words, "How dare you ask Selene to marry Benson instead of you? You are asking her to die! Are you still a sister?"

As the words came out, Jermaine raised his hand to smack Juliana's face.

Juliana's face turned grim and she was about to fight back, when Suzanne, who was standing next to her, grabbed Jermaine's hand quickly, "Jermaine, talk nicely. I won't allow you to hit Jill."

Jermaine showed anger: "For so many years, Selene gave her room, her toys, and almost her boyfriend to Juliana. Now Juliana's asking Selene to die. Does she have a heart? Is she still acting like a sister?"

Suzanne tightened her grip on his hand to keep from hitting Juliana, "It's all right. We did wrong to Jill and I agree with Selene going to the Leach's."

She said heroically, "You can't watch Selene go to her death. I can't watch Jill go to her death either. They are both my daughters. If one has to be sacrificed, let it be Selene."

Hearing this, Juliana raised her eyes to look at Suzanne coldly and spoke in a cold voice: "My mother is already dead. Suzanne, you, a mistress, want to be my mother? Go and lie down in the cemetery first."

Juliana used to hate Suzanne too, but she was soon touched by her "goodness".

The reason was that Suzanne satisfied Juliana with everything.

When Juliana did not want to go to school, Suzanne asked for leave for her and took her to play.

When Juliana wanted something, Suzanne bought it for her.

Juliana didn't have to practice playing the piano or dancing. She was allowed to stay out of school, to fight and make trouble, and to keep toy boys...

All in all, Suzanne unconditionally supported Juliana in whatever she wanted to do and helped her out when things went wrong.

Such "goodness" was to ruin her by spoiling her!

Suzanne had turned Juliana into a loser yet Juliana was grateful to her!

Chapter 19: It's me

Suzanne froze, then looked at her, half crying, and said, "I'm sorry, Jill. I should have known about this earlier and stopped your dad."

Fury flamed in Jermaine. He said, "As soon as Suzanne found out about this, she said she wouldn't let you go to the Leach family and asked Selene to go for you. She treats you like her own daughter, and you curse her to die?"

"And Selene risked offending the Leach family to help you escape, inquired about your well-being early in the morning, tried to get into the Leach family for you, and you ended up trying to steal her fiancé?"

"Juliana, do you have any humanity left?"

Jermaine yelled and raised his hand to hit Juliana again.

But Suzanne held him back: "Don't hit Jill. Just let Selene go to Leach for her."

Selene also cried, "I am willing to marry the Leach family for Jill. I am willing to give Jayden to Jill. Dad, don't hit Jill."

Jayden only felt angry: "The one I love is Selene. I'm not an object that you can give away."

"..."

With her arms folded over her chest, Juliana watched indifferently as the four of them argued over there violently as if watching a drama.

After watching for a long time, Juliana spoke, "Then let Selene go to the Leach family."

The four people arguing suddenly stopped, looked up at Juliana, and froze.

Juliana pulled out her cell phone, "I'll tell Benson now that I'm going to be substituted."

This morning, Benson had taken her phone to save his phone number on it.

Juliana clicked on the address book and saw the first number with a note - A husband.

Husband?

Juliana blushed with shame when she saw the note.

She had been engaged to Stewart but she had never set his number as "husband".

Blushing, Juliana dialed the number.

Juliana thought that a busy person like Benson might not be able to answer the phone, but unexpectedly, the phone was answered in a second.

"Jill."

The low and cold voice was like the ice mellow wine that was pleasing to ears.

Juliana's ears inexplicably burned when she heard his voice and she couldn't help but say in a soft voice, "Benson."

They looked at Juliana, eyes wide open. She was talking to Benson on the phone?

Selene was even more shocked. Did Benson's voice sound so good?

Well, she had heard that most people with good voices looked ugly.

Benson: "Yes, it's me."

Juliana only felt it burning from the tips of her ears all the way to her face. She said, "Selene is going to replace me to marry you."

*...*

On the other side of the phone, it fell silent.

Although Benson was not here, they felt a sudden chill in the air and an invisible pressure fell on their heads.

Juliana, in particular, felt that her death had arrived.

His voice was so gentle just now, but the silence really froze them.

Suzanne rubbed her arms and plucked up the courage to say, "Mr. Leach, Jill is our beloved girl and we don't want to sacrifice her happiness or offend the Leach family, so we would Selene to replace Jill."

Selene spoke too, "Mr. Leach, my sister is in love with someone. I don't want her to marry someone she doesn't love, so I'm willing to take her place."

Juliana looked at the hypocritical mother and daughter like she was watching a play.

Did they really feel sorry for Juliana and really want to go to the replacement?

No, they were trying to make a name for themselves, to smear Juliana in front of Benson, to make Benson sick of her, to make her struggle in the Leach family, and even to have her killed by Benson the madman!

These were their real thoughts, which was to kill her with a borrowed knife!

At this point, Benson, who had been silent, spoke, "Juliana, did you agree with the substitution?"
