

Got Busted 48

Chapter 48: First Time

Juliana's eyes lit up slightly and she smiled, "Take some more then."

Benson nodded, but put down the fried egg and ate the noodles that smelled good.

However, some of the noodles were overcooked while some were half-cooked and so sour that he shivered and gasped.

Juliana looked at him, "What's wrong?"

Benson swallowed the noodles with difficulty and said with a blank face, "Nothing, it's just so good that I bit my tongue."

Juliana said, "Then eat some more."

Benson wondered why the noodles looked so appetizing but taste so bad.

He asked her, "Have you ever cooked before?"

Juliana hesitated slightly, then shook her head, "No."

She had cooked once when she had been Miranda, but only once.

However, it was indeed the first time she cooked as Juliana.

Benson was in a much better mood. It was the first time she cooked and Jayden hadn't enjoyed it before.

the

made him doubt his

sour noodle soup in front of Juliana and

her

He said seriously, "I will cook for you for the

he could

sweet words made Juliana's face burn and she looked finished eating and took the dishes to half a pot of noodles, thought for a while, and

food as well as these

noodles, the dog ran over to eat

he rolled his eyes and fell to the ground, sticking out his big tongue and barking: It's too bad!

still sitting in the dining room. She looked into the kitchen, where there was the sound of clattering water, the sound of washing dishes, and the trance, thinking it was the peaceful life

...

day, at the dining

while eating, "Jill

chopsticks paused slightly before he

curiously, "Was it

sitting across the table, saw her look over, and once