

Got Busted 49

Chapter 49: Good Morning

Benson looked at her, urging, "I'm going to be late. And Grandpa's here, so do me a favor."

Juliana looked at old Mr. Leach, who hurriedly looked away as if he had not seen them, but then quietly tilted his head and looked over.

Juliana still did Benson a favor and stood on her tiptoes to tie his necktie.

Benson was so tall that even if Juliana stood on tiptoes, she was not tall enough. And she had never tied a necktie before, so she was clumsy but serious.

Benson looked down at Juliana, smelling her fresh medicinal fragrance, and he was tall enough to see the view under the collar vaguely, white, delicate, and plump...

Benson felt his mouth dry and he swallowed.

He couldn't help but take Juliana's slim waist and bring her into his arms, "Jill..."

Benson had only opened his mouth when he felt his neck constricted and his face turned red. He coughed, "You're... murdering... your husband!"

Juliana glanced at him, then loosened the tie and straightened it, "You should behave yourself."

She wouldn't allow him to tease her.

his hand to touch his neck, then looked down at Juliana's

"Mrs. Leach."

Juliana also

her mouth and her soft lips were quickly kissed by then quickly retreated as he looked at her with a smile, "Good morning saying that, he turned around and left, for fear of being

Benson on her lips, and her

getting more and more

over and saw him covering his eyes with his hands, looked over, old Mr. Leach hurriedly turned his head away,

phone rang just as she was about to go

It was Juliana's Grandma.

and soon had

the only person who treated Juliana well in the Lewis family, not in a flattering absurdity. Finally, she had moved back to her old house, out of loved her as much