

Got Busted 51

Chapter 51: Lawyer

Jermaine also said, "Juliana, you always make trouble and this time, you solve it yourself."

He saw that this lawyer seemed sophisticated.

He had not said a word before Juliana came, so it was clear that Juliana had really gotten into some big trouble.

Selene looked up and said softly, "Dad, don't worry too much about Jill. No matter what happens, her husband will help."

Grandma looked at Juliana with confusion, "You got married?"

How come she didn't know about this?

Juliana nodded her head and didn't answer her but said to the lawyer, "Hi, what do you want to see me about?"

The lawyer was a middle-aged man with an overpowering aura as a lawyer, despite his average looks.

The lawyer handed Juliana his business card, "Hi, Miss Lewis, my name is Charles Simpson."

card and read the

and he couldn't help but ask, "You're Charles Simpson, the owner of Simpson &

Charles nodded: "Exactly."

bit panicked and even wanted to break off the relationship with cases he had represented in the past ten years had must have made a big mistake and pissed off for a moment, but still looked up and said to Charles, "Mr. Simpson, my sister is still young and still young and doesn't know what to do. As long as we can mediate privately, I the old lady, going to court was not a good out of anger.

did our Jill commit? Did she hurt someone or...

stumbled as soon as she heard the

would really be no

held up her grandmother, "Grandma, he wanted to jump up from the hospital bed on one foot and beat Juliana up. He said, "Selene, call the police quickly. How