

Got Busted 58

Chapter 58: Flowers

Channing looked at Benson and said according to his conscience, "Mr. Leach, with your..."

No sooner had he opened his mouth than he saw Benson glance over coldly. Channing only felt a chill down his back and that he would lose his job, and he hurriedly said against his conscience, "With your looks, family, and character, Grandma will definitely be satisfied with you."

Benson nodded in satisfaction this time. He looked down at his phone and remembered that Juliana had said her phone was broken.

"Jill's phone is broken." Benson looked up at Channing and asked, "Are custom phones still available?"

Benson's phone was customized, with the same brand, but different from the market ones, which had better confidentiality and security.

Channing asked, "Do you want the ones customized for couples?"

The word "couples" was new to Benson and he found it interesting.

He nodded his head, "Yes. What styles are available?"

Channing contacted the company and soon received the designs, which he then showed to Benson.

chose one of them, "This

...

old mansion of the winding the wool into a ball, while a family drama was playing on

should take

after all, it was a rare warmth for her bit panicked, "Mrs. Lewis, there's a guest

Grandma looked up at

think so. Let's go have

down the wound ball of wool, stood

of the living room and saw the slender

shadow, carrying a gift box in one hand and holding

by looking from afar like this,

waiting outside the

saw him, immediately ran to him, opened the iron door, and looked up at him,

to come