Chapter 64: Seduction

Juliana watched as Selene's collar loosened because of her movement, which revealed her white and tender skin.

Moreover, the blush on Selene's face due to running over and her panting made her enchanting.

At least men would be captivated if they saw such a scene.

Juliana looked up at Benson who also looked at her, not even giving Selene a glance.

Juliana smiled softly, "Grandma let me go alone?"

Selene, still holding her posture, nodded, "Yeah, go ahead."

Benson said, "We'll go in together."

Juliana responded, "Okay."

Selene held her seductive pose still, but Benson walked past her without even glancing at her.

Selene gritted her teeth reluctantly.
