Chapter 67: Prelude

Sensing the danger, Juliana hurriedly stepped in front of Billy again, "You and I no longer have a relationship and we definitely won't have a relationship in the future."

She could feel Benson's strong murderous aura even as she stood with her back to him. She said in a cold voice, "If you insist on badgering me, I will make you regret coming to this world."

Billy stared blankly at Juliana, "Do you really forget it?"

Juliana only felt Benson's murderous aura getting more and more intense and she didn't have that much patience, "Say it, now."

Billy even raised his arms to hug her leg, but instead, he hurriedly said under her gaze, "We have agreed that I give you $100,000 a month to be your follower. Why did you want to end it so suddenly?"

Juliana froze, "You gave me $100,000 to be my follower?"

Hadn't he been a toy boy of the original Juliana?

Billy nodded repeatedly, "Yes."

Juliana pressed her temples and said, "I have fallen into the river and got water in my brain so I have intermittent memory loss. When I remember it, I'll talk to you. Now go back."

Billy felt nervous when he took a look at Benson's car and hurriedly got up.
