

Got Busted 83

Chapter 83: Reason

After what had happened last night, Juliana wanted to understand Benson's condition more thoroughly.

She asked for more details.

Benson answered everything she wanted to know, without holding back.

When Juliana was almost done asking questions, she said, "Ask Zach to send a copy of your medical records and stuff over the years."

For now, healing Benson was the primary concern for Juliana.

Benson nodded, "Okay."

After asking the questions, the two went quiet again. Philip had long since left sensibly.

Juliana turned her head to look at Benson, his arm bandaged with white gauze, which was very harsh in the sunlight.

She called out in a deep voice, "Benson."

Benson looked at her.

his eyes and changed her words, "Billy is my sidekick, not a account and confirmed that Billy did give this morning, and I

well, but it was Suzanne and the others who spread the word about things like and needed to

with her to act as night, Juliana tried to explain the

at her and

...

gave Juliana a copy of all of the charts and asked with contempt, "You don't think you can cure Benson just by going through the

up, "What? You want for so many years, but the medical team of mine behind me was built for Benson, but so far the cause of the disease has not yet been found, and you say anything but looked up at quickly snorted, "I don't need you to cure Benson. As long as you can tell me the cause of Benson's illness, I'll call you looked down, and continued to look through the medical records, "Benson's attack has nothing to do with the mental aspect, but