

Got Busted 96

Chapter 96: Flower Kiss

Juliana felt puzzled as Benson pulled her out, but Benson's current aura wasn't quite right and she didn't dare to irritate him.

Who would have thought that this jealous man would have an attack once he was stimulated?

Jayden kept watching them. When he saw them go out, he followed them with a frown.

He felt bad because he had just heard Juliana call Benson "honey" in a silky voice.

He was going to see what they were up to.

Selene came downstairs and saw Jayden following the two. She also followed in suspicion.

Old Mr. Leach took a look at them but did not say anything.

Grandma stayed unmoved too, mainly because she was too embarrassed to go around now.

Benson took Juliana to a hidden corner of the garden.

The wall was covered with roses, which were now in full bloom.

Benson pulled Juliana and pressed her against the wall. The roses blooming on the wall shaded her from the sun and the dappled sunlight scattered on her body, making her even more beautiful and dreamy.

at Benson with a light frown, "Benson,

down at her, feeling his mouth dry as he watched her

Juliana, "Hmm?"

her eyes made her

itching to kiss her and do a lot of low pleading words inexplicably sounded in his mind, "Benson, looked at her red lips and asked in a hoarse and low voice, "Mrs. Leach,

widened

request, Benson had leaned in tasted the bitter taste of the medicine she had prescribed for him was when he had an attack, he lost his mind but still remembered her and preferred to hurt himself rather than

Benson was different.

him some sweetness,

thoughts had passed through her mind in a flash, Juliana followed her heart and raised her arms around Benson's neck. She opened her lips slightly and kissing carefully, but he suddenly became dominant as not his first kiss, he was still the same

tingling, aching,