Chapter 1491: I Have a Big Spicy Strip!

“Give me half an hour, and I’ll teach him how to play with a sword!!” Er Ha said with a spicy strip still dangling from his lips.

The Crown Prince was speechless. The girls, on the other hand, screamed. Was their God of Life finally going to show his power? In their minds, Er Ha was stronger and tougher than the Crown Prince!

Rumble!

“You’re courting death!” Fang Wuji’s voice was cold and ruthless. After flying into a rage from embarrassment, he blew up. His sword was the Sword of All Things, and his sword art was to wipe out everything that stands in his way!

The Crown Prince stood where he was. Strictly speaking, he should be the one who made a move. However, since Bu Fang wanted Er Ha to do it, he would just watch. It wouldn’t be too late for him to step forward if Er Ha failed.

With a spicy strip dangling from his mouth, Er Ha walked slowly out and stood in front of the restaurant as everyone watched.

A terrible sword intent was surging in the air, while a tremendous amount of sword energy gathered and turned into a huge sword in the sky. Then, it slashed straight down from the top of the skyscraper toward the restaurant as if to split the whole building in half!

Er Ha’s eyes flashed. The next moment, he shot up into the sky like a spring and collided with the huge sword!

“Ahhh!”

With a groan, Er Ha was struck by the giant sword and smashed to the ground. The ground trembled, and the crowd was shocked.

One strike?

Even Fang Wuji froze for a moment. He thought Er Ha was very strong. ‘Didn’t he say he would fight me with his sword? Why is he defeated with one strike?’

The girls’ eyes went wide, and their cheers came to an abrupt end. Their God of Life was defeated? Didn’t he say he would last for half an hour?

The Crown Prince covered his face, speechless. ‘I knew this fellow is here to joke around...’

“What? Even rubbish like this dares to challenge me now?” Hovering in the sky, Fang Wuji sneered. He had three sword moves. He just used the first move, but the fellow couldn’t take it anymore. “How dare he boast that he could defeat me in half an hour? This is ridiculous! Has the Xiayi Divine Dynasty been reduced to relying on these guys who talk big to impress people?”

Suddenly, rubble fell from the roof of the building, and a figure could be seen jumping up from the ruins.

Er Ha flipped his hair, tidied it up, then said, “I wasn’t ready just now, so I let your sword hit me. Let’s fight again!”

Bending his body slightly, he stomped on the roof and shot up again with a bang.

“I have a sword. Show me what you got!” Er Ha shouted.

Fang Wuji focused his eyes. ‘My sword struck him, but he was unscathed... He must be an extraordinary expert!’

An uproar broke out in the crowd of onlookers. They couldn’t believe Er Ha could still fight, and that surprised everyone.

With his hands clasped behind him, the Crown Prince looked up at the battle in the sky. His face also showed a look of great interest.

Fang Wuji dared not be careless. “One Sword Breaks the Mountains and Rivers!” he shouted. A surging sword intent burst out of him and gathered on the sword. Then, with a clanging sound, the sword swept out with a force strong enough to destroy heaven and earth, slashing down toward Er Ha!

The power of this sword move was extremely fearsome. It was the same move that defeated Luo Hui not too long ago.

Rumble!

The whole building was shaking violently, frightening all the people present. Under the power of this sword move, the void burst open, and spatial turbulence leaked out of the opening. There was no doubt that it was at least as powerful as the attack of a Perfected God.

After all, Fang Wuji was a gifted Demigod of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty!

In the sky, a figure flew back again and then smashed to the ground with a bang.

“Ahh...” A groan sounded again. Soon after, Er Ha stood up again. While rubbing his chest with the spicy strip dangling between his lips, he said, “Have you not eaten yet? Please use more force!”

The surrounding people were stunned. Even the Crown Prince froze for a moment.

‘This fellow is actually so... tough? Does the Law of Life have this effect? Is this how the Law of Life works?’

Fang Wuji’s face twitched, and the look in his eyes grew more and more serious. ‘He’s still unscathed? This is incredible...’

“Come again!”

Fang Wuji was bursting with anger. He didn’t believe that his sword couldn’t hurt this guy. With a buzzing sound, the sword fell from the sky, emitting a hazy light that obscured the whole sky. The power of this move was even more terrifying.

Er Ha stood where he was, his hair waving around him. His aura was growing stronger and stronger, and the Law of Life spread from him. The next moment, he leaped, exuding the aura of life and glowing like a star.

Rumble!

As Fang Wuji thrust the sword, thousands of sword light immediately fell like stars and struck Er Ha.

“Ahh...”

Er Ha groaned as his body was repeatedly hit, but under the healing of the Law of Life, he remained unscathed. “Hit me!” he said, staring at Fang Wuji. “Have you not eaten? Use more force!” he roared and kept releasing the power of the Law of Life.

That frightened Fang Wuji, and he almost lost his grip on the sword. ‘Why is this fellow so fierce?’ He swung his sword again. Countless sword lights slashed down from the sky, shattering the void, while a terrible aura of destruction swept out and filled the whole world!

Er Ha was instantly enveloped by the destructive sword energy...

Fang Wuji took a deep breath. This was his strongest sword move yet.

With a buzzing sound, the sword light faded away. Er Ha was covered in sword marks, and blood was gushing out of his wounds. However, they were recovering at a rate visible to the naked eye.

“Hit me! You need to use more strength! Do you not know how to use a sword?!” Er Ha growled. His eyes were wide and bloodshot as the Power of Law swirled over his head.

“Why is this guy so strong?”

“Not even Fang Wuji’s Law of Sword Art could kill him with a single blow?”

“Also, this guy’s attitude deserves a beating...”

Such a battle almost gave Fang Wuji a psychological trauma, and he began to doubt his life... Every time he thought he had hacked the guy to death, the guy still stood up, alive and kicking. When this happened again and again, he became afraid.

He couldn't believe that his sword intent, which could suppress heirs of aristocratic families, could not kill the guy in front of him!

"The Law of Life..."

When he finally sensed Er Ha's Law, he immediately sucked in a cold breath. It was the same Law comprehended by the Empress of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty. She could even use it to revive a dead great world in an instant.

'This guy actually comprehended the Law of Life as well! But since when does the Law of Life begin to make its possessor immortal? No matter how hard I attacked, I couldn't kill him. If this were to continue, how am I going to fight him?' he thought, the sword in his hand trembling.

Er Ha approached step by step. Finally, he came in front of Fang Wuji. "I have a big spicy strip!" As he drew near, he roared.

Fang Wuji looked puzzled. 'What's this fellow shouting about?'

Suddenly, his pupils constricted as he noticed a large black, brick-like object in Er Ha's hand. Was this the so-called big spicy strip?

He paused. The next moment, he saw the black object came smashing toward his head. With a bang, the big black spicy strip hit him hard on the head.

He immediately felt dizzy, and his body was forcefully thrown to the ground, causing the earth to cave in with a rumble.

The surrounding onlookers were stunned, while the experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were struck dumb.

Fang Wuji was... knocked down from the air. He was struck by a brick, no, a spicy strip. This should be a fierce battle, but why had it become so weird and comical? What the heck was a big spicy strip?!

In midair, Er Ha's clothes had been torn into strips of cloth by the sword energy. He grabbed some of them on his chest with both hands and tore them apart.

"The man with spicy strips is mighty and strong!" he bellowed in midair.

Neither the onlookers nor Bu Fang knew what to say.

Rumble...

On the ground, smoke and dust dispersed. Fang Wuji stood where he was, sword in hand. He felt his head spinning. He wondered what magic weapon the so-called spicy strip was. Why was its power so horrible?

Suddenly, he looked up. Over his head, a black dot was constantly enlarging in his blurred sight. The next moment, Er Ha, carrying the big black spicy strip, fell from the sky. With terrible force, the spicy strip hit him hard on the head again.

Bam!

Time seemed to freeze at this moment. With a crackling sound, the spicy strip that struck Fang Wuji's head slowly split in half. Blood oozed out on his forehead and trickled down slowly in a stream, obscuring his sight.

"I'm... bleeding?" said Fang Wuji blankly. He felt strong dizziness. He raised his hand and tried to point his sword at Er Ha, but it suddenly fell to the ground with a clang.

The next moment, he also fell to the ground. His divine sense stopped rotating as he fainted. A gifted Demigod of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty, Fang Wuji—the record holder of fifteen consecutive victories—lost to a spicy strip.

Er Ha flipped his hair. Although the spicy strip he made could not be eaten, it was absolutely qualified as a weapon.

He grimaced. Even with the Law of Life, he still felt a stabbing pain all over his body as he had suffered too much damage. He needed time to digest this power. He nearly failed to resist them...

“It f*cking hurts! My delicate skin is hurt...” After shivering for a while, Er Ha turned to look at the Crown Prince in the restaurant.

“Xiao Di, it’s your turn...” Then, he went back inside the restaurant, trembling.

The Crown Prince rolled his eyes. ‘I can’t believe he used the otherworldly Law of Life as if it is the Law of Hooligan... What a waste to such a precious Law. It seems that the Law had chosen the wrong master.’

The experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty bolted forward like crazy and landed beside Fang Wuji. Though his forehead was bleeding, he just fainted. Realizing that, a look of relief came over their faces.

Fang Wuji, who had won fifteen straight victories, was actually defeated. They felt indignant at his defeat...

The corner of Bu Fang’s mouth twitched as he watched Er Ha walk back into the restaurant. He checked the time, yawned, and said to the Crown Prince, “Business hours are over. You are free to do anything now...” After that, he put his hands behind him and went back into the kitchen.

“Business hours are over?”

The corners of the Crown Prince’s mouth twitched slightly. Then, he raised his hand and began to undo the buttons of his uniform, staring coldly at the experts outside. When he was done, he shook his hand. The void tore apart, and a golden dragon knife fell into his hand.

The Dragon Soul Knife appeared again, letting out a deafening dragon roar.

Holding the knife, the Crown Prince walked step by step toward the group of gifted Demigods. He glanced at them, sneered disdainfully, and said, “I’ve never been afraid of anyone except that stinking chef. All of you... come at me together!”

Chapter 1492: A Provocation to Bu Fang

Er Ha had defeated Fang Wuji.

It was a blow to those geniuses of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty. Fang Wuji was not the strongest of them, but he was... the most active one.

Among their group of emissaries who came this time, Fang Wuji could only rank second in strength, and the first was a prince of their dynasty. The prince, however, did not like to take part in such fights. Therefore, when Fang Wuji lost, it was basically very difficult for them to return the favor and cleanse themselves of the humiliation.

But the experts felt indignant because the guy did not defeat Fang Wuji with true strength. Fang Wuji lost the match because the guy used a shameless tactic.

Yes, it was a shameless tactic.

In terms of strength, Fang Wuji crushed that guy. However, the guy who comprehended the Law of Life was so resilient that he kept standing up after being struck, and eventually, he managed to defeat Fang Wuji with a strange weapon...

Therefore, these geniuses felt somewhat humiliated. How could they take this lying down? And now, the waiter in the restaurant even asked them to fight him together. This was a total disregard for them!

The Crown Prince looked at the group of people indifferently with a faint disdain on his face. Although he behaved like a spineless animal in Bu Fang's restaurant, it was because he knew the horror of this restaurant.

Putting aside Whitey, who was a professional at stripping clothes, just the black dog lying under the Path-Understanding Tree alone was not someone he dared to provoke. He felt that he might begin to doubt his life if he were hit by the dog's bone.

However, he was the proud Crown Prince after all. He had his own confidence and arrogance.

“The Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty? So you want to crush the younger generation of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, don’t you?”

He walked step by step with the Dragon Soul Knife in his hand. His aura was soaring, and as he walked out of the restaurant, it seemed to break through the sky and threaten to crush the experts from the other divine dynasty.

It was extremely terrifying!

The Dragon Soul Knife had lost its dragon soul, but it was still a top-notch divine artifact in terms of weapon quality.

A gifted Demigod of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty narrowed his eyes. “The Crown Prince of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty... Now that Fang Wuji has fainted, let me see what you got!”

Rumble!

The expert took a step and rushed to the Crown Prince like a dragon. With movements as elegant as a fairy, he reached out a hand to strike the Crown Prince in the face.

The Crown Prince held the dragon knife firmly, his face expressionless. He cocked his head slightly, looked at the expert rushing at him, and showed a disdainful smile. “Do you despise me?” he said, holding the knife in one hand. He then swept it out and unleashed a knife light.

The expert immediately gave a miserable cry. Before he could unleash the power of his Laws, he flew back and fell to the ground miserably.

Resting the knife on one shoulder, the Crown Prince looked at his opponent with a lofty attitude and said in an indifferent voice, “How dare you challenge me when you have not comprehended the supreme Law of the Universe? Who gave you the courage?”

The expert who had his hand cut off kept howling bitterly. His hand was gone, and his wrist was bleeding profusely. However, he was a Demigod after all, so he could still recover. But still, he looked very pitiful at this moment.

“I only cut off one of your hands as a lesson...” the Crown Prince said lightly. He walked forward, step by step.

The experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty became more and more frightened and kept backing away. The Crown Prince of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty was indeed fearsome!

At this moment, Fang Wuji grunted and woke up. As soon as he regained his consciousness, he let out a roar of rage. He couldn't believe he was knocked unconscious by a spicy strip.

This was a great shame! How could he endure such humiliation? That guy's fighting prowess was obviously so much weaker than his!

Rumble!

With a humming sound, the sword behind him jumped out of its sheath.

In the distance, the Crown Prince grinned and looked indifferently at Fang Wuji, who was rising into the sky. ‘That's the one who made the loudest noise just now!’

A sword light fell and shot toward the Crown Prince, accompanied by sword energy that blotted out the sky like immortal energy. However, it was ruthlessly torn apart.

The Crown Prince's knife energy slashed out like a dragon with a power that could destroy heaven and earth! With just one strike, he annihilated everything!

Fang Wuji's expression changed. Sword in hand, he moved at high speed in midair.

The Crown Prince was not Er Ha. The latter was incredibly resilient because he comprehended the Law of Life, but when it came to fighting prowess, Fang Wuji could kill him in seconds.

But the Crown Prince in front of him made him feel the pressure. It was the first time he had felt pressure from his peers in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

“This is the battle I want.” Fang Wuji took a deep breath, his eyes filled with a strong fighting spirit.

Just then, a warship came from a distance, crushing through the void. Soon, several figures walked out of it. The geniuses of the Titan Divine Dynasty finally showed up.

They were all naked from the waist up, and they looked as fierce as if they had come out of the wilderness. However, they were led by a skinny young man, who was carrying a bone axe on his back. He was also bare-chested, and his lower body was wrapped with a tiger skin. His eyes shone brightly as he looked at the battle at the top of the building.

“Here comes the geniuses of the Titan Divine Dynasty!”

“That’s Tai Fei, whose record is no weaker than Fang Wuji!”

“I heard that so far, no one has been able to force him to use his axe...”

The onlookers chatted noisily, and every face was glowing with excitement. The appearance of the Titan Divine Dynasty’s experts made this battle more interesting and lively.

“Is that the Crown Prince of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty? I wonder if he can force me to use my Titan Axe?” Tai Fei, with his bone axe on his back, smiled faintly.

The battle between Fang Wuji and the Crown Prince broke out.

Fang Wuji didn’t comprehend any supreme Laws of the Universe, but he comprehended dozens of Laws, and some of them were high-tier Laws. Moreover, these Laws all complement his Law of Sword Art, making his sword extremely powerful.

Losing to Er Ha was a disgrace to Fang Wuji. There was nothing he could do to erase this disgrace but a victory, and the Crown Prince in front of him was his best choice...

Rumble!

A sword flew into the sky, then a thousand sword lights shot out of the void toward the Crown Prince.

Facing the attack from Fang Wuji, the Crown Prince didn't dodge. With a thought in his mind, the void around him began to wrap, and any sword light that came in contact with the twisting void was diverted and exploded elsewhere.

“The Law of Space...”

In the distance, Tai Fei narrowed his eyes.

They all knew that the Crown Prince of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty had comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe, and they wanted to feel just how strong such an expert was.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The void exploded, and Fang Wuji drifted out of it, full of fighting spirit. He was holding his sword as his figure moved like a ghost, disappearing and reappearing constantly. Every strike he made contained the power of dozens of Laws, and the force of his sword was also exceptionally strong.

“Have you had enough?” The Crown Prince's face was indifferent, and his lips curled into a smirk. “If you've had enough, then it's time to let it all end...”

The dragon knife in his hand buzzed. The next moment, it burst into a brilliant golden glow, and then a knife light shot out of it, soaring into the sky.

Rumble!

One sword light after another exploded in midair.

Fang Wuji's expression changed dramatically as he found that the Crown Prince's knife had destroyed all his sword lights!

“He's so... fearsome!”

He flipped his hand and unleashed tens of thousands of sword lights in an instant.

“It only takes one knife strike to beat you,” the Crown Prince said. Then, he wrapped the dragon knife with the Law of Space and the Law of Destruction.

Bam!

A knife light swept out and collided with Fang Wuji in midair. For a moment, like two stars colliding, a terrible rumble filled the whole world.

“It’s over,” said Tai Fei faintly in the distance.

The pupils of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty’s experts constricted. As they watched, Fang Wuji flew backward in midair, coughing blood and turning deathly pale. At the same time, his sword was chipped.

He was able to suppress the heir of the Luo Family with his sword, but when facing the Crown Prince, it nearly broke.

Was this the Crown Prince’s power?

Fang Wuji fell in midair, his sword hand shaking, and his face was filled with fear and disappointment.

Holding the dragon knife, the Crown Prince stood in midair. He opened his mouth and exhaled a puff of turbid air. His face was calm. The knife strike would have been enough to break Fang Wuji’s sword in half if the knife still had its soul.

The experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were somewhat dejected. They couldn’t believe Fang Wuji had suffered two consecutive defeats. It was undoubtedly a huge blow to his confidence.

Unfortunately, their prince would not make a move. Otherwise, they might still have a chance to beat the Crown prince.

Meanwhile, the experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty who watched the battle in the dark all clenched their fists and beamed with excitement. Even though the Crown Prince had been defeated by Bu Fang, he was still an expert who comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe. His strength was so fearsome that he was the best among his peers!

The victory came as a huge relief to the younger generation of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

The battle also set fire to the Crown Prince's heart. He held the dragon knife and turned suddenly, his eyes shining like torches. At the same time, his fighting spirit soared and approached the restaurant...

But just as he turned around, a beam of light suddenly shot into the sky from where the Titan Divine Dynasty's geniuses were, and a skinny young man flew into the sky, laughing wildly.

"Greetings, your highness! I'm Tai Fei from the Titan Divine Dynasty! Please show me some guidance!"

He let out a long roar. As his voice echoed through the air, it seemed to turn into a roar of some beast, shaking heaven and earth. It also sounded like thunder or the furious roar of heaven.

The Crown Prince spun around. A terrible aura was constantly pushing him, blowing his hair.

The Titan Divine Dynasty was the most aggressive of the three divine dynasties. Their imperial family was the Titan Divine Clan, who possessed divine physical strength innately.

As Tai Fei flew into the sky, he grabbed the bone axe behind his back and slashed it down toward the Crown Prince. It might seem like an ordinary move with no power at all, but it caught everyone's attention in an instant.

Everyone gasped and was completely attracted by the axe.

The axe cut through the air in a beautiful arc and hacked toward the Crown Prince, rumbling.

This was the first time that Tai Fei had used his axe. The experts from the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty, and the Titan Divine Dynasty were watching intently.

Bu Fang pulled over a chair and sat in front of the restaurant door, watching the battle with great interest. He happened to see Tai Fei thrusting the axe toward the Crown Prince.

The Crown Prince felt the pressure. Tai Fei's axe strike might look ordinary, but it actually contained the profound Power of Laws, including the Law of Destruction and many others.

When so many Laws combined and descended from the sky, they seemed strong enough to split the sky in half!

The Crown Prince sucked in a cold breath, and he turned, thrusting his dragon knife at the axe that was falling toward him. As a crown prince, how could he be afraid of Tai Fei, who looked like a savage?

Rumble!

The bone axe and the dragon knife collided and produced an explosive sound that shocked heaven and earth!

The next moment, a figure flew backward from the center of the collision. Everyone gasped because the person who was knocked away was the Crown Prince!

The skinny young man stood in midair, holding his bone axe. His eyes shone like torches, and there seemed to be a great ape roaring behind him.

He turned his eyes to the restaurant. After defeating the Crown Prince with one move, Tai Fei didn't seem satisfied. He set his next target on Bu Fang, who was sitting in front of the restaurant.

He raised his chin and smiled provocatively at Bu Fang.

Chapter 1493: Hit the Titan Genius

Tai Fei was a proud man. Perhaps this was the common fault of all geniuses.

He knew that the Crown Prince of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty had been defeated by a chef, and he had no doubt that the chef was the guy sitting in the chair, watching the scene in front of him.

'Since this guy could defeat the Crown Prince, he should have some tricks up his sleeves,' he thought to himself.

Tai Fei was an aggressive man. He perfectly inherited the warlike genes of the Titan Divine Clan. Now that he was in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, he naturally had to fight all the geniuses here.

The defeated Crown Prince was already out of his sight, and he had chosen Bu Fang as his next target. He wanted to fight this chef.

The Crown Prince retreated a few steps, his expression changing slightly. He had comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe, and he also possessed the Dragon Soul Knife. Even so, he couldn't resist this guy's axe strike?

The skin on his palm split open, and blood oozed out of it. His expression became very serious. 'This Tai Fei from the Titan Divine Dynasty is indeed... fearsome.'

Compared with Fang Wuji, Tai Fei was stronger because he comprehended the supreme Law of the Universe. More importantly, he was born with mighty strength.

And like Fang Wuji, he also comprehended many Laws.

The realm of Gods was a realm of comprehending Laws. In fact, a God's strength was distinguished by the number of Laws they comprehended.

Tai Fei stood in midair, emanating a fierce aura. Behind him, a huge ape was growling. It was said that the Titan Divine Clan had the Divine Ape's blood. Now it seemed that this was not a rumor.

"So much for the... Crown Prince of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty." Tai Fei smiled faintly. Holding the axe, he ignored the Crown Prince and set his provocative eyes on Bu Fang. For him, the Crown Prince was no longer someone to fear, and Bu Fang, who had defeated the Crown Prince, had become his current target.

The purpose he came to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty this time was to challenge all the geniuses here.

He had already reached the peak in the Titan Divine Dynasty. Except for the Titan Divine Dynasty's Crown Prince, he was the strongest of the younger generation. If he wanted to seek a breakthrough, he had to find himself enough pressure!

He could feel that he was about to break through the limit of the Demigod realm and become a God, and the only thing he lacked now was pressure. As long as the pressure was great enough, he would certainly be able to break through the limit.

Bu Fang, sitting in front of the restaurant, was a little bewildered. 'Is this guy provoking me? I'm just a watcher!'

He was somewhat speechless, and he curled his lips. 'Well, since there is nothing more to watch, I'd better pack up and go back to sleep.'

He shrugged, stood up, carried the chair, and walked back into the restaurant, then closed the door with a bang.

Tai Fei looked slightly embarrassed. Was he being ignored? He thought his provocative look was already very obvious.

'Shouldn't the chef, under normal circumstances, fight me for the dignity of an expert? Why doesn't he play by the rules?!'

He looked at the Crown Prince, then at the restaurant...

The Crown Prince shrugged with a straight face. There was a sense of urgency in his heart.

'This Tai Fei is strong. Even though I have comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe, I may not be able to defeat him. The main reason is that his mighty innate strength and the many Laws he comprehended have greatly boosted his strength...' He sighed.

'No wonder Father used to say that there's always someone stronger out there... I thought Bu Fang was only an exception. Now it seems that I'm a frog living at the bottom of the well. The universe is so vast that it's still possible to have a few geniuses out there who I haven't met.'

He put away the dragon knife, shook his head, and then snapped his fingers. The next moment, a luxurious warship came flying over. He stepped into it and sped away as the crowd watched.

Tai Fei stood frozen in midair, the axe still in his hand.

Had he been ignored again? Their fight was not over yet!

But it didn't matter to him that the Crown Prince was gone. He turned his eyes to the restaurant. The chef inside this restaurant was his next target.

'This chef has defeated the Crown Prince. If I defeat him, that will mean I have crushed every genius in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty!'

Tai Fei beamed at the thought!

'In that case, I'll make a big deal of it! So you want to hide in the restaurant? That's alright. I'll hack this restaurant open! I don't believe you will still hide in a hole after that!'

Rumble!

Tai Fei focused his eyes and held the axe with both hands. The next moment, his aura began to rise.

Dark clouds began to gather in the sky while the Law of Destruction swirled around his axe. A terrible aura spread, shaking and tearing the void in front of the axehead.

"What is he trying to do?!"

"Is he crazy? He wants to hack open the restaurant?"

"This is too much... This is the capital of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty! How can he act so wantonly?"

The surrounding experts were stunned, then they all became angry. No one had expected Tai Fei to take things that far.

"Sure enough, those from the Titan Divine Dynasty are barbarians who only know how to fight! His move would soon attract the attention of the capital guards, right?"

Many people were watching.

Up in the sky, Black Armor frowned at the man standing in front of him.

It was a mid-grade God King from the Titan Divine Dynasty. Judging from his aura, he seemed to be slightly stronger than Black Armor.

“My lord has gone too far. This is Xiayi Divine Dynasty, not your Titan Divine Dynasty. You can’t do whatever you want here,” Black Armor said coldly.

Behind him, many Black Armor Guards had already drawn out their weapons. Sharp energy permeated the sky, while the air was filled with a constant clanging sound. A shocking clash seemed to be about to happen.

“This is just a small conflict between the younger generations. Don’t be too nervous...” the mid-grade God King of the Titan Divine Dynasty said, chuckling.

However, he showed no intention of moving away. That made Black Armor’s face grow uglier. ‘A small conflict? If this axe strike really splits a commercial building in the capital, it will cause great panic and serious economic losses in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty!’

Black Armor, of course, would not allow this to happen.

Down below, many experts began to feel a little strange, as up to now, the capital guards had not shown up. This was something worth pondering.

Tai Fei’s eyes shone dazzlingly. When his aura reached its peak, he let out a long roar. Then, it seemed as if a giant ape was holding an axe and bringing it down hard toward the restaurant, intending to split it in half.

For a moment, a burst of terrible axe energy spread tens of thousands of miles! If this axe strike hit, the whole building would surely collapse, and the capital of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty would face heavy losses!

Everyone’s expression changed at this moment.

“This is too much!”

The door of the restaurant remained closed.

Looking at it, Tai Fei narrowed his eyes and growled, “Get out of here!” His voice sounded like the roar of a great ape. At the same time, the horrible axe came hacking down hard from the sky!

‘So you want to hide, huh? Let’s see where you’re going to hide now!’

Tai Fei’s eyes lit up with a wild smile. That was how crazy he was. In fact, this was the unique characteristic of the Titan Divine Clan.

“Since you don’t want to fight, then die!”

In the restaurant, Bu Fang sensed the terrible attack outside. His brows furrowed. The aggressive attitude of the guy outside had slightly angered him.

“Lord Dog, lend me your bone,” Bu Fang said, turning his eyes to Lord Dog, who lay fast asleep under the Path-Understanding Tree.

Lord Dog opened his bleary eyes and paused for a moment. Before he could figure out what Bu Fang was trying to do, he already saw the latter carrying the Heavengod’s bone and opening the restaurant door with a bang.

‘Bu Fang boy must have coveted my Heavengod’s bone for a long time...’ Lord Dog rolled his eyes.

The restaurant door finally opened.

Tai Fei’s eyes shone dazzlingly as he let out a long roar. At this moment, the axe slashed down to kill Bu Fang with one blow.

“There he is! He finally came out!”

“He had to! Otherwise, his restaurant would be split in half.”

“This guy from the Titan Divine Dynasty is pushing others too far!”

The experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty were a little resentful. However, they still watched the battle in midair with wide eyes.

Bu Fang came out at last with a bone in his hand. Seeing this, the onlookers’ faces became very strange.

“A bone?”

Many people suddenly remembered the scene when that dog had smashed Black, who was very close to becoming a high-grade God King, to death with a bone. Immediately, they observed a moment of silence in their hearts for Tai Fei.

They had almost forgotten that there was a big boss in the restaurant!

“A bone?!” Tai Fei sneered. He didn’t care what bone Bu Fang was using because everything would be crumbled by his Titan Axe!

“Die!” he roared.

Carrying the bone, Bu Fang rose step by step into the sky at a steady pace. As the axe fell, a gust of wind blew at him and stirred his hair. The next moment, he gently swung out the bone and collided it with the axe.

There was no terrible rumble or sonorous clang, but only the crackling sound of broken glass.

The axe that seemed powerful enough to destroy heaven and earth slowly broke and shattered in front of the bone.

Tai Fei and the experts of the Titan Divine Dynasty froze. Even the experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty were stunned.

Fang Wuji was so shocked that he sucked in a cold breath. “Is this chef really so formidable?!”

“How is this possible?!” Tai Fei’s pupils constricted as he came to his senses.

“I heard you were looking for me?” An indifferent voice rang out.

Tai Fei looked up and saw Bu Fang’s expressionless face. Somehow, he shuddered. “Fight!” he roared, his veins popping up across the skin of his bare upper body.

Facing Tai Fei’s roar, Bu Fang just raised the bone and smashed it out.

Bam!

Tai Fei howled miserably. His proud defense was shattered under this bone.

He quickly raised his hands to block. However, the bone fell and struck him again. His expression changed dramatically. ‘Why can this bone... ignore my defense?’

Bu Fang’s face was expressionless as he kept hitting Tai Fei with the bone. His movements made him look like a father who was lecturing his child.

“I’ll hit you in the leg.”

“I’ll hit you in the chest.”

“I’ll spank you.”

Tai Fei made a conscious effort to block, but each time the bone swung down, he was still hit with it.

“You... You...” He was furious. He couldn’t understand why such a crushing situation had occurred.

He, Tai Fei, was the second strongest expert in the younger generation of the Titan Divine Dynasty. It was impossible for him to lose! Only the Crown Prince of the Titan Divine Dynasty could defeat him!

“I cannot accept this!” he screamed.

Bam!

The next moment, the bone hit him in the face.

He was stunned, covering his face with one hand, his eyes filled with tears.

At the moment, he was black and blue all over and looked very miserable. He was ready for a big fight, high-spirited. Why did this abusive situation occur to him? He felt as if he were being chased and beaten by his father!

“I’m still not convinced!” Tai Fei growled, grabbing his axe and swinging it.

Bam!

This time the Heavengod’s bone hit his arm, sending a sharp pain through him. He looked like a stray dog being chased and beaten by Bu Fang with the Heavengod’s bone in midair.

If truth be told, Bu Fang was surprised. ‘This Heavengod’s bone is a good thing indeed! The feeling of chasing and beating someone is really great!’

In the sky, the expression of the mid-grade God King who had stopped Black Armor suddenly changed. He looked down and saw Tai Fei, who was being chased like a dog.

“What happened?” The Titan Divine Dynasty’s expert looked puzzled. How could Tai Fei, an exceptionally gifted genius, be suppressed by someone from the younger generation?

Behind him, Black Armor looked relieved. Of course he recognized the bone in Bu Fang’s hand. It was the Heavengod’s bone belonging to that gifted black dog.

‘He deserves to be the man valued by His Majesty. He did not bring shame to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty...’

Tai Fei burst into tears. He really did. Every time the bone hit him, it brought him an excruciating pain that went deep into his bone, stinging his nose and making him want to cry.

“Stop it!” At this moment, the mid-grade God King from the Titan Divine Dynasty shot over from the sky. A terrible aura spread as the God King locked onto Bu Fang.

When his eyes rested on the bone in Bu Fang’s hand, his pupils constricted immediately. The next moment, a look of greed came over his face.

“A Heavengod’s bone?! I can’t believe this is actually a Heavengod’s bone!”

Chapter 1494: Steal the Heavengod’s Bone?

‘A Heavengod’s bone! I can’t believe this is a Heavengod’s bone! No wonder Tai Fei was beaten. With the Heavengod’s bone, the chef can basically ignore the Power of Laws, and Tai Fei’s innate physical strength is useless against it...’

The Titan Divine Dynasty’s mid-grade God King showed a strong look of greed. He wanted to make a move immediately and snatch the Heavengod’s bone, but he was no fool. Even in the capital of the Titan Divine Dynasty, he would not dare to snatch it so blatantly.

Though the Divine Emperor of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty was in his twilight years, he was still not someone he could afford to offend. If the Divine Emperor wanted to kill him, using one finger would have been enough.

So he put his greed in check. Still, his eyes occasionally brushed over the Heavengod’s bone in Bu Fang’s hand. It was a treasure that even a God King would covet.

Tai Fei was in tears, intense sadness evident in his eyes. He never expected that he would be beaten like this. ‘A Heavengod’s bone! I can’t believe this guy has a Heavengod’s bone...’

Now that a mid-grade God King had made a move, Bu Fang stopped attacking. He felt a little disappointed because it felt really good to chase and beat someone with the bone in hand.

The geniuses of the Titan Divine Dynasty and the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were stupefied. They had never thought that the battle would end in such a farcical way.

‘A Heavengod’s bone... I must find a chance to seize it...’ The God King’s eyes flashed as he began to plan in his mind.

Black Armor finally arrived. With him here, the God King, of course, would not make any drastic moves. He just left with Tai Fei and the others. Before leaving, he took a deep look at Bu Fang and the restaurant.

...

The crowd around the restaurant dispersed and left. Bu Fang also returned to the restaurant with the bone and gave it back to Lord Dog with some reluctance.

Lord Dog rolled his eyes. ‘Sure enough, Bu Fang boy is really coveting my Heavengod’s bone!’

“It’s no use for you to covet it. You can’t exert its power without getting its acceptance. Otherwise, you could have smashed that little fellow with one blow just now,” Lord Dog said.

Bu Fang also understood that. He just wanted to try it out. After all, the Heavengod’s bone belonged to Lord Dog.

Lord Dog put the bone back on his back, yawned, and said, “Bu Fang boy, it’s almost time for me to return to the relic...”

“Back to the relic?” Bu Fang paused for a moment.

“There are many good things in the relic of the ancient Heavengod, so I need to visit that place again. I suggest you go there when you’re free.” Lord Dog yawned again, the fat on his face shaking.

Bu Fang pondered for a moment. He had not yet visited the relic of the ancient Heavengod, and he could visit it when he had time. However, he was afraid of trouble. He felt that he was most comfortable basking in the sun in the restaurant.

“Also, the creature that attacked us has shown up in the relic. I have to take my revenge on it. I’ve never been screwed so badly by anyone in my life except the Will of the Great Path and this creature.” Lord Dog’s eyes narrowed slightly, and they seemed to flash.

Bu Fang nodded. His face grew grave as he thought of the creature. A creature that could make even the Divine Emperor nervous was naturally uncommon, so he dared not underestimate it. He had told the Divine Emperor where the creature came from, but the latter still couldn’t figure out what it was.

It had wiped out a third-class great world and even killed many God Kings in the relic of the ancient Heavengod. It seemed that this creature had grown more and more terrible!

...

News of the presence of a Heavengod’s bone in the mysterious restaurant quickly spread among the emissaries, and both the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty and the Titan Divine Dynasty were excited by it.

They couldn’t wait to make a move, but because this was the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, they did not act wantonly. However, it seemed that all the emissaries were plotting something. They certainly would not give up the Heavengod’s bone easily. Such a rare treasure was like a huge sweet steamed bun, attracting countless people.

It was worth noting that every divine dynasty had an ancient Heavengod’s relic, but the Heavengod bones inside were limited. It would be a big deal to get one from the Xiayi Divine Dynasty. For other divine dynasties, this was a way of enhancing their national strength.

...

It was late at night, and the streets were ablaze with lights. Several figures stood outside the building belonging to the Luo Family.

These people were all experts of the Titan Divine Dynasty. They coveted the Heavengod's bone and would not pass up the opportunity. Since they couldn't do it in the day, they would make a move in the dark.

The Divine Emperor of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty was already in his twilight years. So even if he knew this, he wouldn't dare wage war against the Titan Divine Dynasty. The Titan Divine Dynasty was very aggressive and violent and might have long expected to go to war with the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

The mid-grade God King of the Titan Divine Dynasty wore a serious face, and his eyes shone with greed. "You keep watch for me outside the restaurant. If Xiayi's guards show up, stop them immediately. It only takes me a moment to escape. As long as they don't have any evidence, they can't get the Heavengod's bone back!" he told the few God Kings around him.

When he informed the high-grade God King who came with them about the plan, the latter was very supportive of their actions, so he did this with great confidence.

The few God Kings nodded and then disappeared into the void. Soon, the surrounding world was sealed off.

In the distance, the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty's God Kings narrowed their eyes and became alarmed when they sensed the change in the void.

"The Titan Divine Dynasty has already made a move. Let's stay put and act according to the situation..."

"This Heavengod's bone floating outside is a great chance..."

"Any Heavengod's bone that is not in the Divine Emperor's hands is our chance!"

The Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty's experts talked in low voices.

The Divine Emperor had announced that the passage to the relic of the ancient Heavengod would be opened tomorrow. Therefore, if they wanted to make a move, they must do it today. Once inside the relic, they would lose this opportunity...

As soon as the surroundings of the building were sealed off, the expression of the Perfected God guarding it suddenly changed. Then, he sucked in a cold breath as one terrible aura after another appeared in the perception of his divine sense.

“What’s going on?”

Rumble!

All of a sudden, a terrible burst of aura exploded out, and the Perfected God dared not move immediately.

With the surrounding void sealed off, the God King of the Titan Divine Dynasty stepped on the wall of the building and raced up to the top floor. In a few moments, he was in front of the restaurant’s clear glass, looking at its quiet interior.

“The Heavengod’s bone is in this restaurant!”

The corners of his mouth curved upward slightly, and a look of excitement came over his face. He had done his research before he came, so he knew that there were no God Kings in the restaurant. There was only one black dog with the strength of a high-grade God. Although it once killed a mid-grade God King, it was with the help of the Heavengod’s bone.

This time, the high-grade God King who came with him had given him a barbaric seal that could temporarily block the power of the Heavengod’s bone. What could a black dog, who was merely a high-grade God, and a gifted Demigod do when they lost the power of the Heavengod’s bone?

The mid-grade God King’s eyes were blazing with light. The next moment, he raised his fist and smashed it against the glass.

‘Heavengod’s bone, here I come!’ he growled inwardly.

The fist, with great force, hit the glass and made a loud bang. The whole glass shook violently, and then... It did not suffer any damage.

The God King was stupefied. ‘What? I didn’t break it? Did I miscalculate my strength? If I can smash mountains with my fists, how can I not break a restaurant window? No, I’ll try it again!’

The God King took a deep breath. This time, he put more strength into his fist and then punched it out. With a bang, a hole was made in the void.

The fist hit the glass again. For a moment, the atmosphere became somewhat awkward. The God King cleared his throat and twitched the corner of his mouth as he looked at the intact glass. Then, he jumped up and landed on the roof of the building. He decided to break in through the door.

When he reached the door, he raised his hand and pressed it against it. The restaurant door slowly opened with a creak. Compared to the unbreakable glass, the door was a bit strange.

The God King didn't think too much, though, and went straight into the restaurant. He was very confident, and he was determined to get the Heavengod's bone. What he was worried about now was that the Xiayi Divine Dynasty's guards would come and stop him.

The restaurant was somewhat dim. After stepping inside, the God King glanced around and saw tables, a counter, a tree, and a dog under a tree...

'Hmm? The dog...'

On the dog's back was a glittering white bone, which was exactly the Heavengod's bone he saw during the day! The God King's heart began to race.

'The Heavengod's bone! It's really the Heavengod's bone!'

With a thought in his mind, a terrible aura spread from him and rolled toward the black dog.

Suddenly, a light flashed in the darkness.

"Troublemaker, you will be stripped as an example to others!" A mechanical voice echoed through the darkness, making the hair of those who heard it stand on end.

The God King turned his head, and then he saw a puppet staring at him.

"A mere puppet..." he said disdainfully, twitching his lips.

Seeing that the puppet was flying toward him, the God King raised a hand. The divine power inside him surged, turning his palm somewhat transparent. Soon, however, his expression changed, for his palm crumbled as soon as it touched the puppet. That took him by surprise.

Rumble!

Whitey slapped the God King in the face with a backhand, knocking him back several steps.

‘What the f*ck?! This puppet is immune to my divine power and Laws? I’m a mid-grade God King who has comprehended nearly four hundred Laws!’

In the restaurant, Whitey was immune to the Power of Law. It was an incredible ability. However, in addition to the Power of Law, the members of the Titan Divine Clan also had a natural advantage in physical strength. Soon, the God King was able to use it to force Whitey under him.

Tap.

The restaurant lights came on. A lean figure leaned against the kitchen door, looking at the mid-grade God King expressionlessly.

“What are you doing?” Bu Fang asked.

When the God King saw Bu Fang, he focused his eyes. “Hand over the Heavengod’s bone... and I’ll spare your life!” At this moment, his aura exploded, distorting the void. He stared at Bu Fang with greed in his eyes.

Tap. Tap. Tap.

A sound of footsteps came from upstairs. Then, Nethery and Er Ha came down, their faces full of surprise when they saw the God King.

Covering his mouth, Er Ha said in an incredulous tone, “Heavens, someone actually sneaked into the restaurant to steal Lord Dog’s bone in the middle of the night? Bu Fang young man, do you need my help? This guy is stronger, and I may take two hours to take him down...”

Bu Fang glanced at Er Ha with an odd expression and shook his head. Then, he raised his hand, pointed behind the God King, and said, "It'll be dawn when you kill him."

In the direction Bu Fang was pointing, Lord Dog, holding the Heavengod's bone in one paw, was squinting at the mid-grade God King from the Titan Divine Dynasty.

"I heard someone was trying to steal my bone?" Lord Dog's gentle and magnetic voice resounded through the restaurant.

Chapter 1495: A Peerless... Fierce Dog!

To dogs, bones were like clothes to men. So when the mid-grade God King tried to steal the Heavengod's bone from Lord Dog, it was like trying to strip him of his clothes. It was simply... unbearable.

'A black dog?!'

At this moment, the God King shuddered, and all his hair stood on end. An emotion spread through him in an instant, causing his heart to skip a beat. Even then, he swiftly performed a series of movements—he spun, threw out a fist, and unleashed his Laws!

Before he came, he had studied this black dog. Its strength was not something to be fearful of, but when coupled with the Heavengod's bone, it became formidable. Before this, it had smashed a mid-grade God King, who had comprehended nearly five hundred Laws, to death with the bone.

Therefore, although this God King was confident, he dared not to be careless.

His punch rumbled like thunder and produced powerful blasts that seemed to blow the air apart. It was a mighty move, truly reaching the level of a mid-grade God King. The terrible blasts swept forward like waves to suppress Lord Dog, but such blasts could hardly spread in the restaurant.

The God King's expression changed. He finally noticed the strangeness of this restaurant. If it were an ordinary restaurant, his punch would have blown it apart!

A faint snort rang out, accompanied by a cocky tone. The next moment, a bone glittering like jade thrust forward and collided with the God King's fist.

A crisp crackling sound could be heard. The God King gave a miserable howl, his body moved back continuously, and his face turned deathly pale in a flash. Then, with a bang, he shot backward like a cannonball and smashed hard on a table in the restaurant.

The table... didn't budge.

'Ugh? This restaurant...'

The corner of the God King's mouth twitched. He felt as if he had fallen into a deep pit and could hardly climb out.

'The Heavengod's bone together with a mysterious restaurant... There's something strange about this place!' He rolled onto his side and pushed to his feet. 'This place is full of mysteries. I can't stay here for long. I'd better acquire the Heavengod's bone and leave at once!'

The God King felt a little scared. He focused his eyes, and then his aura began to rise while the patterns drawn on his body seemed to move. This was a trick used by the Titan Divine Clan, and they called the glyphs on their bodies barbaric text, which could provide them unmatched power!

Rumble!

The glyphs began to burn like fire, and the God King seemed to have become someone else. His eyes shone dazzlingly as he took a step and shot himself toward Lord Dog. The Power of Law spread from him while thousands of Runes of Law circled around him. At the same time, he let out a deafening roar, his voice rippling out of the building in an instant.

Outside the building, the God Kings waiting for him narrowed their eyes.

"Has it started?"

They glanced around warily, their auras fluctuating as they sealed off this part of the world to prevent the Xiayi Divine Dynasty's God Kings from intervening. This was considered the most dangerous thing they had done here. Such a thing must be completed as soon as possible because once it was discovered by the Divine Emperor, they would have a hard time explaining.

Now, they could only pray that the mid-grade God King in the restaurant could be faster. They had confidence in him. After all, he had the barbaric text given by the high-grade God King, which could temporarily restrict the power of the Heavengod's bone.

A rumbling sound filled the air in the restaurant, causing the atmosphere to become tense.

The mid-grade God King activated the barbaric text and rushed toward Lord Dog. He was sure that he would not be knocked flying away by the Heavengod's bone this time, for he had used the barbaric text that could restrict the bone's power!

"Give me the Heavengod's bone!" he roared, his eyes bloodshot. He moved as fast as lightning while a frightful aura shook the void.

Lord Dog narrowed his eyes slightly, raised the Heavengod's bone, and smashed it toward the approaching God King.

The restaurant was not big. The God King moved almost as fast as teleporting in it, his figure flashing constantly.

"It's no use! I know the Heavengod's bone is very powerful! Do you know why I still dare to come to snatch it even though I'm aware of its mighty power? Because I have a barbaric text, and it made me invincible!"

Laughing wildly, his body emanated a dazzling light, shining as blindingly as the sun while the barbaric glyphs on it burst into light. With a thump, he caught the Heavengod's bone with a bare hand, and the Power of Law exploded out from it!

Lord Dog paused. In the distance, Bu Fang and Er Ha were slightly taken aback as well. It appeared to them that this guy came prepared.

The Power of Law rippled. Was the power of the Heavengod's bone suppressed? Yes! It was! The God King burst out laughing excitedly. He made a move in an instant. Grabbing the bone, he unleashed the Power of Law to pull the bone from Lord Dog's paw.

He mustered his strength and pulled. However, the bone did not budge. He had failed to move it... How was that possible? He furrowed his brows, stared coldly at Lord Dog, and snapped, "Let go of the bone!"

The God King's aura fluctuated. He didn't wish to waste time with this black dog. Once the Divine Emperor made a move, he would not be able to get his hand on the Heavengod's bone.

The Power of Law exploded out of him—over three hundred Laws rotated crazily over his head. The void seemed to be on the verge of shattering under the weight of such mighty power.

Lord Dog fixed his eyes on the God King. Suddenly, he laughed. The corners of his mouth curved upward slightly, and a contemptuous look came over his face.

'What the heck?' The God King paused. The next moment, his pupils constricted. His whole body seemed to be frozen—he couldn't move at all. Then, he saw the black dog raise a paw and waved it before his eyes. With a splat, the paw slapped him in the face, causing his skin and flesh to sink deeply.

The flow of time returned to normal.

The God King suddenly felt a stab of pain, which was pricking his head. The next instant, he was slapped flying away and thrown out of the restaurant door, tumbling continuously in the air.

Holding the Heavengod's bone, Lord Dog walked out of the restaurant, strutting his elegant cat-like steps. A few moments later, he was hovering in midair, looking indifferently at the God King in the distance, whose face was covered with blood.

The Titan Divine Dynasty's experts around the building were stunned. "What happened? Did he actually fail?" They couldn't believe that a mid-grade God King with the barbaric text bestowed by a high-grade God King was knocked flying out of the restaurant!

"Oh? You came in a group..." Lord Dog raised his eyes slightly, glanced at the surrounding people, and smiled faintly. His gentle and magnetic voice rang across the void.

The God King was covered in blood, and his face was sunken and twisted with a paw print. His anger burned like fire, and he felt as if his chest was about to burst apart.

“Let’s attack together and kill this dog!” he growled.

The surrounding Titan Divine Dynasty’s experts narrowed their eyes. The God King was right. They had to attack together and delay no more. Otherwise, it was very likely that they would attract the Xiayi Divine Dynasty’s Divine Emperor’s attention.

“Let’s fight!” The God Kings’ eyes lit up. Their primary duty in this trip was to protect those gifted geniuses, but if there was a chance for them to snatch a Heavengod’s bone, they naturally wouldn’t give up.

Their roars rose into the skies. The power of countless Laws filled the air and seemed to make the surrounding void boil. At that moment, both low and mid-grade God Kings struck out together.

It was a shocking scene. If anyone saw this, they would be aghast. So many God Kings were attacking at the same time. Even the battle between the Imperial Concubine and the Divine Chef Temple that happened not too long ago was not as horrifying as this!

The void around the restaurant kept shattering and exploding. At this moment, sharp whistles rang out in the capital as Black Armor sped toward the scene with his men, his face grave. He couldn’t believe that the experts from the Titan Divine Dynasty were bold enough to stir up trouble in the capital! This was unforgivable!

Around the Luo Family’s building, the barbaric text had sealed off the void, causing it to become somewhat blurry. Outside, one warship after another flew through the air. As the experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty watched in the dark, the experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty had gathered around.

King Pingyang, King Tianlong, the heads of the Luo Family, the Zhao Family... Many experts had descended, their faces grave. They could not believe that the experts of the Titan Divine Dynasty really dared to attack someone in their capital. This was a total disregard of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty!

Black Armor hovered in midair before the barbaric text with a cold and dark face. He raised a hand and smashed the text with a punch. The void trembled, and he felt a mighty sealing power.

“How dare you!” Black Armor flew into a rage. “This is an invasion of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty’s territory! How dare you wantonly set up a seal in our capital...”

Meanwhile, a terrible battle broke out behind the seal. A rumbling sound rang without end as one God King after another struck out crazily. They knew there was no way back, and mid-grade God Kings and low-grade God Kings all joined the battle.

Dreadful Power of Laws seemed to form a sea, while Lord Dog was like a small boat in this raging sea that was about to be overturned at any moment.

“You’re here to steal a bone, but you’re making so much noise...” Lord Dog took a deep breath. The next moment, he suddenly grew larger. Around his body, black Earth Prison Flames emerged and spread, distorting the void. At the same time, bloody patterns appeared on the Heavengod’s bone, crawling all over it like veins.

Then three dog heads made their appearance, all bursting with a frightful aura. They opened their mouths together and barked at the same time. As the bark shook the air and shattered the void, the power of the Law of Time spread, and the raging sea of Laws was frozen.

Every God King’s pupils constricted.

“The Law of Time!”

A bone fell suddenly.

Bam!

The head of a low-grade God King exploded. Blood spilled everywhere as his Power of Law burst out of him in an instant.

Like a peerless monster, Lord Dog charged into the group of God Kings and began to slaughter everyone. Naturally, no low-grade God Kings could withstand more than a blow from him. After all, he was a heaven-defying dog who comprehended the Law of Time.

Mid-grade God Kings could resist his attack, but when the Heavengod's bone hit them, it made them howl, broke their bones, and filled the sky with their blood!

There was a look of horror on the faces of all the Titan Divine Dynasty's God Kings. They were confused and puzzled. Why could they not suppress this black dog when they had the barbaric text bestowed by the high-grade God King?

The black dog was just a high-grade God, but the Law of Time and the Heavengod's bone had given him a qualitative transformation. This was a peerless... fierce dog!

In the restaurant, Bu Fang's eyes were bright. As he sensed the Laws drifting all over the sky, he became very excited. He reached out a hand, and a silver flame immediately began to burn in the palm. Then, he flicked his fingers.

The Divine flame darted forward, turned into a stream of light, and sped away. In the blink of an eye, countless Laws were absorbed by it.

The souls of the God Kings killed by Lord Dog with the Heavengod's bone were all devoured by the bone, but their bodies and their Laws were drifting listlessly in the sky. In Bu Fang's eyes, these were all resources.

So, while Lord Dog was slaughtering the other God Kings, he kept collecting them happily. After the battle, his Divine flame would undoubtedly become much stronger, and when he became a God, its power would definitely shock the world!

Crackle... Crackle...

Cracks began to appear on the barbaric text that sealed off the void. Black Armor focused his eyes, gave a roar, and smashed it with a punch. The solid barbaric text broke under the fist, dissolving into light dots and fading away.

However, as soon as the seal was broken, Black Armor's pupils constricted, and he sucked in a cold breath.

A strong smell of blood came blowing into his face as he saw countless Laws floating around the restaurant, and a silver flame was chasing and devouring them. He also saw several bodies, which belonged to low-grade God Kings and a few mid-grade God Kings, who were bleeding profusely!

Suddenly, a gaze swept over, making Black Armor's heart skip a beat.

In the distant sky, a violent three-headed black dog with the Heavengod's bone in hand was staring at him, grinning.

'This is... very scary!'

Black Armor felt his heart racing faster and faster!

BOOM!

At this moment, in the direction of the residence where the Titan Divine Dynasty's emissary resided, a horrible aura rose into the sky with towering anger!

"What a bold black dog! How dare you slaughter the Titan Divine Dynasty's God Kings?! You shall pay for this crime with your own life!"

Chapter 1496: The Man Behind Lord Dog

A peerless fierce dog! It's a really peerless fierce dog!

Black Armor was taken aback when he sensed the terrible aura of a savage monster that came slapping at his face. He shrunk a little and felt a great terror was surging. Although the black dog was just a high-grade God, it somehow filled his heart with fear.

And, perhaps because of the sight he was looking at right now, he felt a chill run down his back.

The sky was littered with the broken bodies of God Kings, and in the middle of them was the frightful black dog bathed in the blood of Gods. The black Earth Prison Flames and the bloody Heavengod's bone gave him the look of a soul reaper from hell.

The experts from the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were stunned. They had never thought that the Titan Divine Dynasty's experts would end up in such a miserable fate, with so many God Kings dying miserably here, even though a great number of them had struck out at the same time.

The guards behind Black Armor were gasping, and King Pingyang, King Tianlong, and the other experts felt chills ran through them. It was a horrible sight. The black dog bathed in the blood of Gods had completely changed their views. They couldn't believe that he dared to slaughter so wantonly.

However, they secretly praised him for killing these God Kings. The emissaries of the Titan Divine Dynasty were quite humble when they arrived, but a few days later, they grew wilder and wilder. Perhaps because they had learned the Divine Emperor's end was near, so they became so unbridled.

King Pingyang and the others had been holding back themselves because they did not want to bring trouble to the divine dynasty and give the Titan Divine Dynasty excuses to start a war. Therefore, when they saw what happened here, they felt great relief and a sense of pleasure.

Bu Fang was having a good time too. His Divine flame was devouring happily; countless Laws had merged into it, intensifying its silver glow. It now burned like melted silver, emitting a scorching heat that twisted the void. The crowd's attention was not on this flame, however, but on the black dog with the Heavengod's bone.

In the sky, a menacing aura was approaching. It came from a high-grade God King and was much stronger than that of the two old men, Black and White. This was a top expert of the Titan Divine Dynasty, whose duty was to protect the geniuses of this trip.

He was burning with rage, roaring as he flew across the sky with so much power that he seemed to rip the sky in half. Even the void around him was distorting. It proved that he truly was a terrible existence. At this moment, the air in the whole capital seemed to boil.

"That's Heaven King Tai Hang!"

"We're saved! Damn this black dog!"

"It's so horrible! The combination of the Law of Time and the Heavengod's bone is simply... invincible!"

The bloody God Kings of the Titan Divine Dynasty breathed sighs of relief and felt fortunate that they had escaped death. They were not dead, and they had survived the attack. Now that Heaven

King Tai Hang had arrived, he could definitely save them. After all, he was a high-grade God King who had comprehended over one thousand Laws! He was a mighty expert with fearsome prowess!

As for the Xiayi Divine Dynasty's accusation, these mid-grade God Kings did not care anymore. They would be afraid of the Divine Emperor if they seized the Heavengod's bone. He might be in his twilight years, but he was still the Divine Emperor...

However, they had not seized the bone, and that made all the difference. Since they did not have the bone, if the Divine Emperor accused them, Elder Tai Hang could certainly protect them. Besides, if the Divine Emperor insisted on killing them, it would definitely lead to conflicts between the two divine dynasties. That was more than he could afford now.

So they knew that when Elder Tai Hang showed up, they survived. A pity that they would not have a chance to get the Heavengod's bone again. The combination of the Law of Time and the bone was indeed terrifying, so much so that even a dog could stir up a storm.

The terrible voice with an interrogative tone made the void constantly tremble and crack. All three of Lord Dog's heads raised at the same time, staring at the sky with gleaming, bloodshot eyes.

There, a bare-chested expert with strange patterns drawn all over his body was walking over in the air. He was a burly man, his hair standing straight and hard like needles. His eyes flashed brightly, and his aura fluctuated violently.

"Oh? A high-grade God King?"

Lord Dog studied the man with a grave expression, but he was not too worried. He would still struggle a little now if he were to face a high-grade God King, but he was strong enough to fend for himself. Besides, he did not believe that this guy would dare to wantonly make a move in the capital and under the nose of the Divine Emperor.

Although the Divine Emperor was old, he had not died yet.

As Tai Hang approached, his every step rumbled like a drum, causing everyone's blood and energy to boil. At the same time, his aura swept out like waves, which pounded at everything and everyone like waves slamming at the rocks along the shores. A high-grade God King was indeed terrifying.

Unable to withstand the mighty aura, some Demigods watching in the dark grunted and coughed blood, while the heirs of aristocratic families and young masters all looked shocked.

As all the high-grade God Kings of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty had gone to the ancient Heavengod's relic, they did not have any chance to see them at other times. That explained why they were so surprised when they saw one now.

The Divine Emperor was, of course, stronger than any high-grade God King. However, his strength had reached a point where it was returning to its original nature. If he did not release his aura, he was no different from the average old man.

This high-grade God King of the Titan Divine Dynasty, on the other hand, was emanating an imposing aura that threatened everyone present.

Dom! Dom! Dom!

The void seemed to freeze. Heaven King Tai Hang's eyes shone like torches. Over his head, a Wheel of Law emerged, with one thousand Laws swirling inside. This was the foundation of a high-grade God King. As he glanced around, his gaze gave some Demigods so much pressure that it almost caused their bodies to crack.

Heaven King Tai Hang was a top expert of the Titan Divine Dynasty. There were four Heaven Kings in the Titan Divine Dynasty, and he was one of them. The Titan Divine Emperor attached great importance to this exchange, so he sent him over. Now, however, the God Kings who came with him were slaughtered by a dog.

Of course, Tai Hang also knew that they were the ones at fault. But so what? As long as he was here, no one could touch them. Since they didn't get the Heavengod's bone, on what ground could the Xiayi Divine Emperor kill them all?

Moreover, as the Heaven King of the Titan Divine Dynasty, killing him would be equivalent to starting a war between the two divine dynasties! Would the Xiayi Divine Emperor, who was already in his twilight years, dare to do this?

Rumble!

As Tai Hang brazenly walked toward Lord Dog, his terrible aura soared into the sky, setting off a powerful storm.

“Damn dog! How dare you murder the Titan Divine Dynasty’s God Kings?! You will die with them!”

His words kicked up a strong wind that trembled and cracked the void. Spatial turbulence leaked from the fissures and lashed at him, but he was unharmed. His body was too tough. As a Heaven King, he not only possessed mighty Power of Laws, but also an incredibly fearsome fleshly body! In fact, those who could become Heaven Kings were also the top existences among high-grade God Kings!

Lord Dog’s three heads grinned disdainfully at the same time.

In midair, the mid-grade God Kings of the Titan Divine Dynasty fled frantically toward the distance.

“The moment you tried to rob my Heavengod’s bone, you must be prepared to die. They have brought it on themselves!” Lord Dog said gently.

“They have brought it on themselves? What an excuse! Now I’m going to kill you, and you have brought this on yourself!” Heaven King Tai Hang’s eyes burst into dazzling light as he roared and threw out his hand. As it went forward, his palm began to expand, growing bigger and bigger in midair. In just a flash, it was bigger than all the buildings in the city, and it slapped straight toward Lord Dog.

Earth Prison Flames were burning around Lord Dog. His eyes also burst into bright light. The next moment, he let out a bark that shook the whole sky! He was using the Law of Time!

BOOM!

The surrounding void seemed to freeze suddenly. It was a heaven-defying means, but...

“The Law of Time?! Break!”

Heaven King Tai Hang's blood and energy churned. Roaring, he forcefully broke away from the shackles of the Law of Time with his physical strength! This was the horrible strength of a Heaven King!

As the palm continued to fall, Black Armor's expression changed drastically. The Heaven King's attack was beyond his ability to contain.

The two high-grade God Kings who led the emissaries of the two divine dynasties this time were no ordinary God Kings. Each of them was fearsome enough to set off a storm in the divine dynasty.

Black Armor had never thought that these two God Kings would easily attack someone in the capital.

Rumble!

Barbaric glyphs were moving all over the frightening palm.

Although Heaven King Tai Hang had broken free of Lord Dog's Law of Time, the others could not. The few fleeing mid-grade God Kings felt as if they had sunk into muds and couldn't move at all. That greatly frightened them.

Suddenly, a three-headed black dog appeared in front of them, strutting elegant cat-like steps and smashing a bloody bone down toward them. With a bam, the body of a mid-grade God King cracked and shattered into pieces!

In the restaurant, Bu Fang's eyes were bright. His divine sense surged as he controlled the Divine flame, making it move toward the body of that mid-grade God King. Soon, the dissipating Laws were devoured by it. He felt a sense of pleasure.

"Both of you are dead!" Tai Hang's face grew cold as he fixed his eyes on Bu Fang and Lord Dog. The dog had killed Titan's God Kings, and the man had devoured these God King's Laws! This was a blasphemy against the Titan Divine Clan!

The palm that blotted out the sky slapped straight toward the restaurant to destroy everything! The black dog could not escape!

In midair, the experts from both the Xiayi Divine Dynasty and the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty felt a little scared, while Black Armor was even more worried.

‘Why hasn’t His Majesty made a move?! If His Majesty delays further, the whole capital would be turned upside down!’

Bu Fang stared with a straight face at the colossal palm. Its power frightened him, and he knew he could not resist it. He was just a Demigod, after all.

Being able to kill low-grade God Kings and fight mid-grade God Kings was already his limit. Besides, that was under the situation when those God Kings did not comprehend the supreme Laws of the Universe.

There was no way he could defeat a high-grade God King. He might be able to fight one if he crushed a divine power liquid drop, but he also did not know the limit of this liquid drop...

Lord Dog’s three heads turned around, and his eyes seemed to grow sharper. ‘Why hasn’t the Divine Emperor shown up? Is that old man trying to play a trick with me? Why is he so naughty? Unfortunately... that old man has forgotten that behind me stands an awesome chef!’

His body flickered, then he was blocking in front of the restaurant. “Bu Fang boy... The Fortune Flatbread!” Lord Dog’s gentle and magnetic voice rang out.

Standing on the top of the building with his Vermilion Robe flapping noisily, Bu Fang narrowed his eyes. ‘The Fortune Flatbread?’ He understood what Lord Dog was trying to do immediately. He twitched the corner of his mouth, then, with a thought in his mind, he raised a hand.

The silver Divine flame returned, floating and burning over his hand. Three Fortune Flatbreads emerged and were wrapped by the silver flame. The next moment, Bu Fang flicked his fingers.

The three Fortune Flatbreads turned into streams of light and shot toward Lord Dog, who was standing in the sky and shrouded in raging Earth Prison Flames...

As the man standing behind Lord Dog, Bu Fang consciously added an extra ingredient to the flatbreads! They were now called the Fortune Flatbreads baked with Divine flames!

‘Unleash your power, Lord Dog!’

With a whistle, three Fortune Flatbreads turned into three streams of silver light and sped away.

The bloody light in Lord Dog’s eyes swirled as he opened all three of his mouths and swallowed the Fortune Flatbreads. When he had swallowed them all, he looked up at the cold Tai Hang in the sky, the approaching palm, and the pair of eyes secretly watching the battle in the void...

He twitched the corners of his mouths and belched.

‘These people... have no idea what Bu Fang boy is really good at!’

Chapter 1497: The Divine Emperor Strikes

The effect of Fortune Flatbread depended on fortune. To put it bluntly, it depended on one’s luck.

Bu Fang’s use of the Divine flame to roast them did not fundamentally change them, but the power of over a thousand Laws contained in it had washed them and given them extraordinary power.

Lord Dog’s three heads each bit off a piece of Fortune Flatbread. He didn’t chew but just swallowed them. A steady of fortune energy immediately poured out of them and went into his body. The next moment, the Earth Prison Flames all over him grew more raging and hotter and seemed to blot out the sun. It was terrible.

In the sky, Heaven King Tai Hang sneered. He didn’t care at all about the black dog’s actions. Eating flatbread? What good could flatbread do? Could they make this dog into a heaven-defying being, not to mention that they were cooked by a chef who was merely a Demigod?

As the Heaven King of the Titan Divine Dynasty, he believed in nothing but strength. In this Chaotic Universe, power reigns might. If it weren’t for the Divine Emperor’s strength, he would even dare to beat that old man down from the pedestal. However, the Divine Emperor was able to sit on his throne today because of his mighty strength. Tai Hang couldn’t argue with that.

The colossal palm descended with the power to shatter everything.

Lord Dog roared. His voice was so deafening that it seemed to destroy heaven and earth. After swallowing the Fortune Flatbread, the fortune energy flowed in him and made his aura much more vigorous. However, that was not the focus.

Rumble!

Tai Hang's palm contained mysterious barbaric glyphs, which had the power to restrict the power of the Heavengod's bone. Therefore, if the black dog tried to counter this move with the bone, he would definitely be smashed into a meat paste. Even this building would be wiped out by the palm!

He was the Heaven King. Who dared to fight against the might of a Heaven King? Anyone who tried to do that would have to pay a serious price!

Rumble!

Lord Dog's three heads barked. Accompanied by powerful sound waves, an invisible force collided with the colossal palm. A dreadful rumble broke out in an instant and swept out in all directions.

In the sky, Heaven King Tai Hang's pupils constricted. From where the black dog stood, he sensed an incomparable aura. It was the aura of Laws.

With a loud bang, the palm disappeared, and the black dog appeared in front of everyone once again. But this time, he seemed to become even more strange.

He had three heads, and there was a restless force in the mouth of each of the three heads. The first head was surrounded by a gray Power of Law, which was the Law of Space. The second head possessed the Law he comprehended, the Law of Time. And the third head contained the Law of Destruction.

Three heads, three Laws, three supreme Laws of the Universe!

At this moment, not only Heaven King Tai Hang, but everyone present sucked in a cold breath. Even the mysterious figure hidden in the void couldn't help exclaiming.

Three supreme Laws of the Universe? How was that possible?! How could this black dog have changed so much in the blink of an eye?

Experts like Bu Fang and the Crown Prince, who had comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe, were already considered the top geniuses, but this black dog had actually comprehended three supreme Laws at this very moment!

‘No, he didn’t...’ Heaven King Tai Hang’s eyes narrowed suddenly, gleaming. ‘There’s something odd about it. Even the strongest genius of the Chaotic Universe cannot comprehend two more supreme Laws of the Universe in an instant. Is it because of the flatbread just now?’

Heaven King Tai Hang was not stupid. He found something odd in it just by thinking it over. ‘Probably because of that flatbread...’

The onlookers were not stupid either. When they also thought of this possibility, they gasped and looked incredulous.

Three supreme Laws of the Universe...

‘This black dog comprehended two more supreme Laws of the Universe just by eating flatbread?’

“Many people had failed to comprehend even just one supreme Law! This black dog is actually so... terrifying?!”

“Are men inferior to dogs?!”

Rumble!

Lord Dog felt the swelling power in him, which made the corners of his mouth curl upward. The next moment, he raised his head, and his eyes burst into bright light.

‘Three supreme Laws of the Universe... This is what Bu Fang boy is really good at!’

Clutching the Heavengod’s bone, Lord Dog suddenly rushed forward and turned into a stream of black light, streaking across the sky and shaking the void. As he drew nearer, he raised the bone and smashed it at Heaven King Tai Hang.

Everyone's breathing stopped for a moment.

"The black dog finally fights back!"

Heaven King Tai Hang's muscles tensed up, and a mighty surge of force burst out of him. "How presumptuous! I don't know where your three supreme Laws of the Universe came from, but... you have no idea what the might of a Heaven King really means!"

He roared. The next moment, his body burst into innumerable shafts of light, and above his head, a Disk of Law emerged with Runes of Law dancing around it.

"Heaven King Tai Hang has also comprehended a supreme Law of the Universe... Even if this black dog possesses three supreme Laws now, he may not win. The huge gap between them is not so easily bridged!" an expert of the Titan Divine Clan said excitedly.

The power of the Law of Destruction erupted. Heaven King Tai Hang's body began to expand like the palm he had thrown out just now, and at the same time, terrible barbaric glyphs danced on his body. Soon, the whole capital seemed to become very small in front of him. He had turned into a giant of immense height and was looking down from the sky!

The whole city was in shock! The common people all stared in horror at the huge figure. There was a frightful aura in the air that made them want to kneel, and some experts shivered under the pressure.

It was simply too strong! This was the might of a Heaven King!

Rumble!

Now a Titan towering into the sky, Heaven King Tai Hang's eyes shone like torches as he pointed a finger at Lord Dog, who was flying toward him. It caused the void to rumble and crack.

Lord Dog clutched the Heavengod's bone tightly, and the bloody lines on it seemed to have come alive and were twitching restlessly.

In the next instant, an astonishing explosion broke out. A vast amount of Power of Law pervaded the air. The combined power of the three supreme Laws was indeed top-notch!

However, Heaven King Tai Hang's Laws were stronger. The power of one supreme Law coupled with a thousand ordinary Laws was enough to make up for the lack of two supreme Laws.

Bloody light and earthy yellow light swirled in the sky.

BOOM!

The sky was torn apart. At this moment, the Chaotic Universe seemed to have descended. Suddenly, a Wheel of Law appeared over the sky as if to tear everything apart, making the void tremble continuously. This was the Law Punishment from the Chaotic Universe. The collision of their Laws had exceeded the limit that this world could bear.

Rumble!

A thunderbolt fell from the sky. Lord Dog flew backward, his body tumbling in the air before crashing into the top floor of the building. The whole skyscraper trembled.

Bu Fang put his hands behind him and looked at Lord Dog. With a shake of his hand, a blue-and-white porcelain plate flew out. "A serving of Sweet 'n' Sour Dragon Ribs," he said.

Lord Dog took the plate, opened his mouth, and inhaled. All the ribs rushed into his mouth immediately. When he had finished, he stuck out his tongue, licked his lips, and grinned. In just the blink of an eye, his energy was fully recovered.

Heaven King Tai Hang was still standing tall, and his terrible aura seemed to blow this part of the world apart!

"I can't believe you were able to block my finger... I have transformed into a Titan, and my power is incomparably horrible! How could you withstand my attack when you are just a mere high-grade God?!"

His pupils constricted slightly. The talent of this black dog and that chef was somewhat scary. If these two fellows were allowed to stay in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, it was not a piece of good news for the Titan Divine Dynasty. This made the killing intent in his heart grow stronger and stronger.

“That’s why... they must die!”

Heaven King Tai Hang focused his eyes. The next moment, he took a step and clenched his fist, which radiated the power of a thousand Laws.

BOOM!

All of a sudden, a mighty aura descended, accompanied by a deafening rumble. Then, everyone saw a figure with its hands clasped behind its back, coming slowly through the air from the direction of the palace.

It was an old man with waving white hair. He was old, very old, and his aura was almost decaying. His eyes were cloudy, but they were full of brilliance.

When Black Armor saw the old man, he immediately cried out in surprise, “Your Majesty!”

The expressions of the experts from the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty and the Titan Divine Dynasty all changed dramatically! The Xiayi Divine Emperor finally chose to strike!

Heaven King Tai Hang jerked his head around and looked at the old man.

Even though the old man looked weak and old, he still became the focus of the world when he appeared!

“That’s enough... You are making trouble in the capital, and I should kill you for that. But for the Titan Divine Emperor’s sake, I’ll spare your life. Although you have escaped death, you cannot be spared punishment. I’m going to cut off your arm to make an example of you.”

The Divine Emperor’s majestic voice rang out, shaking the world. Everyone gasped.

“Cut off his arm? His Majesty is going to cut off Heaven King Tai Hang’s arm! Will this lead to war between the two divine dynasties?!”

“You want to cut off my arm?!” Heaven King Tai Hang’s eyes narrowed. “I respect you as the Divine Emperor... But do you really think you’re still the Divine Emperor at his peak?” he said coldly. All of a sudden, he moved, throwing a powerful punch at the Divine Emperor.

Everyone’s face fell.

“Is he out of his mind? What is wrong with him? That’s the Divine Emperor, a top expert representing a divine dynasty! How did Heaven King Tai Hang have the courage to raise a hand against him?!”

Lord Dog and Bu Fang also narrowed their eyes.

“This old man’s force seems... a little too weak,” said Lord Dog, chewing the ribs. He had transformed back to his plump body.

Bu Fang, on the other hand, was expressionless.

“How presumptuous!”

Black Armor was furious, while King Pingyang, King Tianlong, and the heads of all the aristocratic families looked angry!

Inside the palace, the Crown Prince stared angrily at the scene. “How dare he go against Father’s divine might? This Heaven King from the Titan Divine Dynasty is courting death!” He had absolute confidence in his father.

The Divine Emperor’s face remained cool. Tai Hang’s counterattack surprised everyone. In fact, even he was a little surprised. However, he was only a little surprised.

“You have committed further crimes by offending and attacking a senior... I will cut off all your limbs for that!” the Divine Emperor said faintly. His voice seemed a little weak.

Heaven King Tai Hang’s eyes sparkled. He wanted to fight the Divine Emperor now!

BOOM!

The towering Titan slapped his chest with both fists like a great ape, then he smashed both fists down hard.

The Divine Emperor cleared his throat. Facing Heaven King Tai Hang's punch, he slowly reached out his hand and threw out a slap!

Chapter 1498: The System With a Swagger of Confidence

Only a madman would provoke the Divine Emperor! Even in his twilight years, he was still the Divine Emperor with fearsome strength!

Yes, Heaven King Tai Hang had transformed into a towering Titan, but his strength did not change much at all. He was still a high-grade God King. Still, he had the audacity to provoke the Divine Emperor, making everyone present suck in a cold breath.

However...

Everyone's heart skipped a beat, and some people even tensed up when they thought of a possibility. If the Divine Emperor did lose, it would be a major event that would shake the Chaotic Universe. The Divine Emperor of the Xia Yi Divine Dynasty was defeated by the Heaven King of the Titan Divine Dynasty—such news would be enough to stun everyone.

Heaven King Tai Hang's eyes burst into bright light as he threw out a punch with the power to shatter mountains. It was a terrifying punch that perfectly demonstrated the might of a high-grade God King.

The Divine Emperor, who looked like an old man in his twilight years, stood in midair, calmly facing Heaven God Tai Hang's punch and responding to it with a slap.

He said he would take Tai Hang's limbs. Since he had said that, he must do it. The words of an emperor spoke for an entire dynasty. If he failed to fulfill his words, it would certainly disgrace the entire dynasty.

As the crowd watched, the Divine Emperor's slap went out and collided with Heaven King Tai Hang's punch.

A deafening rumble rang out, followed by a crisp crackling sound. The next moment, fine lines began to appear and spread all over Heaven King Tai Hang's fist, making it look as miserable as a broken porcelain doll. The next moment, a vast amount of blood and energy spewed out from those cracked lines.

Tai Hang's pupils constricted as his huge arm crumbled into pieces, then crashed to the ground with a loud bang, kicking up a cloud of smoke and dust. One of his arms was broken!

An uproar broke out instantly. The whole capital became extremely noisy at this moment, and everyone's eyes were filled with fanaticism and reverence! This was their Divine Emperor who could hold up a world for them!

"His Majesty is... mighty!"

Black Armor, King Pingyang, and the others all looked thrilled, and they clenched their fists excitedly with their auras fluctuating violently.

The experts of the Titan Divine Dynasty, on the other hand, turned pale. Tai Hang had failed, just as they had expected. He was really crazy to provoke the Divine Emperor.

The experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were also gasping. The Divine Emperor's might had shocked them all. "Heaven King Tai Hang has brought this on himself!"

The Divine Emperor put his hands behind him, his face indifferent and his white hair waving around him. Clad in a dragon robe, he walked forward step by step.

One of Heaven King Tai Hang's arms was broken, and his blood spilled all over the sky. He took a step back, but then the Divine Emperor raised a hand at him again.

Rumble!

A myriad of Laws spread and filled the air. Their power gathered and formed a hand in the sky, which then grabbed Heaven King Tai Hang's other arm and yanked it. With a ripping sound, the arm was torn off, and a jet of blood spurted out from the shoulder.

Heaven King Tai Hang howled miserably, and his voice spread far and wide. The Divine Emperor, however, showed no sign of being moved or wanting to stop. His face was as stern and indifferent as ever.

Rumble!

The Divine Emperor threw out another palm, then another, and another. He kept slapping Heaven King Tai Hang as if he were teaching a child a lesson, and whenever the palm struck, the latter screamed.

All of a sudden, one of Tai Hang's legs, which was as huge and tall as a pillar that supported the sky, cracked, and then it shattered into pieces. He lost his balance immediately and fell to the ground with a loud boom.

The next moment, his towering Titan body shrank and finally became the size of an ordinary man, but he looked very miserable now, with blood pouring out of him like fountains. His eyes widened, and at last, he showed a look of fear. "This is impossible... Why do you still dare to make such crazy moves when you have stepped into your twilight years? Aren't you afraid of the suppression of the Universe's Will? Aren't you afraid of the catastrophe?"

Heaven King Tai Hang growled in a hoarse voice. He rolled over and stomped on the void with his last remaining foot, making a hole in it. With a boom, he soared into the sky.

"It's none of your business." The Divine Emperor rolled his eyes and threw out one last slap, shattering Heaven King Tai Hang's remaining leg and sending him tumbling down from the sky.

"You..."

"Black Armor, Gold Armor, where are you?" The Divine Emperor clasped his hands behind him, his dragon robes flapping in the wind.

Black Armor and Gold Armor turned into beams of black and golden light, flew over, and knelt respectfully in front of the Divine Emperor.

"Lock Heaven King Tai Hang's body and put him in prison. If the Titan Divine Dynasty wants to ransom him, let their Divine Emperor come himself," the Divine Emperor said. He gave a little cough, then added, “This is the end of the matter. If you continue to make trouble, I’ll not hesitate to kill you all.”

After that, he turned and disappeared into the void again.

Everyone was silent and did not dare to say anything. The Divine Emperor’s prowess was indeed very terrifying.

Lord Dog and Bu Fang stood on top of the building, watching calmly.

“This old man is really strong,” Lord Dog said, sticking out his tongue.

Bu Fang also nodded. The Divine Emperor’s strength was by far the strongest he had ever encountered. ‘But...’ He frowned slightly as he felt a little strange. Yes, the Divine Emperor was strong, but it seemed to him that he lacked energy. Under that monstrous pressure, Bu Fang sensed emptiness.

He shook his head. These things had little to do with him. Twitching the corner of his mouth, he put his hands behind him and glanced indifferently at the experts in the distant sky.

The experts from both the Titan Divine Dynasty and the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were silent. Sure enough, the Divine Emperor’s might was still there. A high-grade God King’s limbs were torn off, which was a terrible sight to behold. The air was filled with the smell of blood, and the rich energy of a God King was boiling everywhere.

The Divine Emperor had left, and so did the surrounding experts. Bu Fang and Lord Dog returned to the restaurant and closed the door. This was how the storm ended.

...

Inside the palace, the Divine Emperor had returned with his hands behind him. He dismissed all the eunuchs and maids, then went and sat down on his throne.

Cough, cough...

He opened his mouth and began to cough violently. There seemed to be a slightly dark shadow floating on his face, while the power of a unique, profound Law swirled around his body. It made him feel that death was around him.

“Great trial... Catastrophe...”

His crown fell off, and his white hair spread messily around his face. An excruciating pain washed over him. He endured it, and after a long time, he finally opened his eyes. His forehead was dotted with cold sweat.

The Divine Emperor’s face was unsightly. Whenever he made a move, he hastened the arrival of his great trial and worsened the catastrophe. Even if Bu Fang’s fried oyster pancake could temporarily suppress it, the effect would not last for too long.

He had spent a very long time in recuperation, but all the effort was gone after he made a move today. Worst of all, his great trial had grown much stronger than before.

Whenever a divine emperor stepped into his twilight years, he would be greeted by a great trial. It was because their power was too strong and had gone beyond the limit. This was their punishment.

The Divine Emperor sat on his throne, gasping for breath. After a long time, he got up shakily and put on plain clothes to disguise himself as a simple old man. He then left the palace, heading toward Bu Fang’s restaurant.

The night was over, and the sky was beginning to turn bright with the first ray of the sun.

...

The battle came as a shock for the whole situation in the divine dynasty. The Divine Emperor’s thunderous strike had killed off the malicious thoughts of many people in the court. He had shown them his fearsome prowess by taking away Heaven King Tai Hang’s limbs and putting the mighty expert in prison, which changed the mind of all those who thought he was old and weak.

The next day was the day of opening the passage to the ancient Heavengod’s relic. The experts of the emissaries were all going to enter the relic, which was the main purpose of their trip here.

It was late in the morning when the Divine Emperor finally showed up. He was still as mysterious and dignified as ever. He gave a long speech. After that, he raised his hand and unleashed a seal, which flew up into the sky and caused the sky to shake.

The void began to twist and spin. Soon, a huge opening emerged in the sky, which was the entrance to the relic. Without saying anything, the experts of the emissaries rushed into it. When all of them had entered, a black dog carrying a bone on his back followed as well.

For a moment, the whole world fell silent. It was only a long time later that the crowd broke out into an uproar.

“That black dog will also go to the relic?!”

Bu Fang knew that Lord Dog was going to the relic. The latter had told him that. However, he didn't choose to follow.

The restaurant door opened with a creak, and the sunlight came through it to pool on the floor. Bu Fang was cooking in the kitchen. Just when he was practicing new dishes, the long-awaited serious voice of the System rang in his head. He paused.

‘Temporary task: Please go to the ancient Heavengod's relic and help the Divine flame devour ancient Heavengod's Laws. Task reward: One Fruit of Law.’

Bu Fang's movements stopped, and his brows furrowed. It had been a long time since the last task. It never occurred to him that the System would give him a temporary task now, and the task was to help the Divine flame devour the ancient Heavengod's Laws.

‘This System is swelling with confidence, isn't it? Does it think that a Heavengod's Laws are so easy to devour? How many Laws did an ancient Heavengod have, when a high-grade God King already comprehended one thousand Laws? Letting the Divine flame devour a Heavengod's Laws is like an idiot's daydream! Besides, with the Heavengod dead for so long, those Laws are no longer as clear as before...’

However, the System's reward for the task made his eyes narrow slightly.

‘A Fruit of Law! Another Fruit of Law! What is the System trying to achieve?’

Bu Fang had no idea if he would comprehend another supreme Law of the Universe after eating another Fruit of Law. If he did, he would be the first existence in the entire Chaotic Universe to comprehend three supreme Laws of the Universe! It would be an honor and something to be proud of!

He found that the System's reward for the task was irresistible, so he became lost in thought. It did not take too long for him to consider, though. He decided to enter the relic, and he did that for nothing else but the Fruit of Law!

As the System was telling him about the temporary task, Bu Fang's heart began to race faster and faster... If he could get a few more Fruits of Law, could he become the first Demigod who comprehended all the supreme Laws of the Universe? If he did, how strong would he become?

Chapter 1499: The Relic of the Ancient Heavengod

The five supreme Laws of the Universe on one person at the Demigod level was something that had never happened before. A genius like this should not exist in the Chaotic Universe.

However, Bu Fang found that he seemed to have the potential to achieve that. If he had enough Fruits of Law, he might be able to comprehend five supreme Laws of the Universe while he was in the Demigod realm.

Of course, the difficulty was enormous. At the very least, he could feel that the Fruits of Law would become rarer and rarer in future tasks. But as long as he kept the thought, he would not be thinking about becoming a God in a short time to come.

The Demigod realm was a stage when one laid the foundation. Geniuses like Fang Wuji and Tai Fei had built themselves perfect foundations when they were in the Demigod realm. They had even comprehended nearly one hundred Laws.

Such a foundation was extremely solid. Therefore, even though Fang Wuji had not comprehended any supreme Law of the Universe, in terms of fighting prowess, he could suppress countless young masters who had comprehended the supreme Laws.

Perhaps this was the legendary qualitative change triggered by a quantitative change. Of course, when the degree of quality went beyond everything, no amount of quantity could overcome it.

If Bu Fang comprehended five supreme Laws of the Universe in the Demigod realm, he could kill ten Fang Wuji within seconds, not to mention just one. It was because the combined power of five supreme Laws was simply too horrifying.

Lord Dog was just a high-grade God, but with the help of the Fortune Flatbread, he managed to temporarily possess three supreme Laws. And even though he was not familiar with the other two supreme Laws, he could still unleash unmatched strength and fight a high-grade God King.

One could only imagine what a terrifying existence Bu Fang would be if he really comprehended the five supreme Laws of the Universe. Perhaps even heaven and earth would envy him and punish him with lightning.

Sitting on a chair, the corners of Bu Fang's mouth curled upward as he thought of that. Er Ha widened his eyes and stared at him. He thought that smile was kind of bizarre.

Bu Fang had decided that his current goal was to collect as many Fruits of Law as possible. 'This fruit is so amazing that it can actually help me comprehend the supreme Laws of the Universe. This shows how rare it is.'

Because of that reason, he could not give up the temporary task. He knew it would not be easy to complete the task, and in fact, none of the tasks given by the System now was easy. However, the System had cast a bait that he could not resist swallowing. He must go to the ancient Heavengod's relic.

Bu Fang went into the kitchen to process food ingredients and prepare various dishes, which would become his trump cards in the relic. It was like when a player was going to kill monsters in a game, he would have to prepare enough health potions.

Oyster pancakes, fried oyster pancakes, fortune flatbread, the Great Path tea... All kinds of supplementary dishes were prepared. Carefully, he placed them into the System's storage space. In addition to these, he also prepared many other dishes such as Perishing Pots and Crazy Sword Pots.

Coupled with Foxy, who was familiar with the relic, Bu Fang thought that he could do well in the relic. Foxy didn't enter the relic with Lord Dog, and the main reason was that she was too weak. However, she was not weak at all if she was with Bu Fang. With the Heavengod's blood in her, the projectiles she spewed out was strong enough to crush everything.

Nethery also expressed her intention to go to the relic, but Bu Fang didn't agree this time. Er Ha, on the other hand, was too lazy to go. He was having a good time with Luo Sanniang's girl friends, and he didn't want to waste his time in the relic. Besides, he was only a Demigod, so he would not be able to get anything good there.

Luo Sanniang had already bid farewell to Bu Fang. The emissaries of both the Titan Divine Dynasty and the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty had entered the relic, and among them were their younger generations. Not to be outdone, the younger generation of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty also assembled a team and stepped into the relic. Luo Sanniang was part of the team.

The preparations were soon completed. When Bu Fang brought Foxy out of the Heaven and Earth Farmland, she was happily eating a spirit fruit.

As someone with the Heavengod's blood flowing in her body, Foxy had already possessed an ability to influence a part of the world. She was like a mascot, and when she stayed in the farmland, she kept strengthening the living things there.

Therefore, Niu Hansan and the others treated her as if she was their ancestor. This was unimaginable in the past, when she would be chased by Niu Hansan with a hoe in hand if she had dared to steal and eat a spirit fruit.

...

Bu Fang looked at the transporting passage that emerged before him. It appeared the same as the one he used to travel from the Great Netherworld to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty. Powerful runes circled it, which proved that it was also set up by an expert.

The head of the Luo Family looked smilingly at Bu Fang with a gentle expression. He couldn't wait to be friends with this young man, who was the Lord of the Divine Chef Temple.

Moreover, the black dog and the fox in that restaurant had saved the Divine Emperor's life. So as long as the Divine Emperor was alive, everyone in the divine dynasty would show Bu Fang respect. Of course, that did not include the people from other divine dynasties.

"Thank you for the help, my lord," Bu Fang said, cupping his fist to the Luo Family's head.

He needed a passage to enter the ancient Heavengod's relic. He had thought of looking for the Divine Emperor, but while he was on his way, he bumped into the Luo Family's head. Every family had its own means to enter the relic, so the family head opened a passage for Bu Fang without asking for anything in return.

Doing Bu Fang a favor was a safe bet.

"Lord Bu, this is what I should do, and it's not something very difficult. Besides, Lord Bu's cooking alone is enough for me to help, not to mention that you're Luo Luo's friend. I hope I can enjoy something delicious when I visit your restaurant next time." The head of the Luo Family burst out laughing.

Bu Fang slightly twitched the corner of his mouth and nodded. Those who could become the heads of aristocratic families were all wily old foxes, and their words were always pleasing to the ear. Bu Fang was comfortable with it anyway.

After having a few courteous words with the family head, Bu Fang stepped into the passage. Before he was about to leave, the family head asked him to take care of Luo Sanniang. He nodded and agreed. Then, with his hands clasped behind his back, he disappeared into the transporting energy.

The head of the Luo Family watched as Bu Fang disappeared. After that, he took a deep breath. "Now that this chef has entered the ancient Heavengod's relic, I fear something major is about to happen..."

...

Every divine dynasty had an ancient Heavengod's relic, which was formed after Heavengods had fallen. One or more Heavengods had died in every relic. In ancient times, it was much easier to become Heavengods. According to legend, there were many supreme Laws of the Universe in ancient times, not just the five all the people in the Chaotic Universe today knew.

The void hummed and trembled. The next moment, a tiny black hole appeared, which kept expanding and turned into a huge entrance of a passage. A lean figure walked out of this passage.

A gust of wind blew past, bringing with it a strong smell of blood. With his Vermilion Robe flapping noisily, Bu Fang stepped onto the solid ground, narrowing his eyes. This was where Lord Dog and Foxy had roamed not too long ago.

Foxy was lying on Bu Fang's shoulder. Now that she was back to the familiar place, she didn't feel happy. There was no spirit fruit, no Eighty, and no Shrimpy here... She felt very lonely. In a fit of pique, she turned her back on Bu Fang, angry that he had taken her back to this wretched place.

Bu Fang didn't know whether to laugh or cry. It seemed to him that this little fox had become somewhat sassy after she acquired the Heavengod's blood. He rubbed her head and then shook his hand. Immediately, an enhanced Explosive Meatball appeared, and he gave it to her.

When there was something to eat, Foxy's sassy attitude was gone in an instant. She opened her mouth, took the meatball, and swallowed it without even chewing. Now that she got something to eat, she became much happier.

"Foxy, do you know the location where the ancient Heavengod died? Lead the way. I have plenty of Explosive Meatballs, and I also have Perishing Pots and Crazy Sword Pots," Bu Fang said, rubbing the little fox's head. Food was the best thing to move this little glutton.

If Bu Fang wished to acquire the Heavengod's Laws, perhaps he could only find them at the site where the Heavengod had fallen.

When Foxy heard he had plenty of Explosive Meatballs and Perishing Pots, her little eyes lit up immediately. She would never be angry with the boss who would provide her with food!

"Come!" the little fox said. Then, as her nine tails wagged, she bolted forward in a beam of white light, landed on the ground, and kept moving her four legs, kicking up a cloud of dust and smoke.

Bu Fang twitched the corner of his mouth, put his hands behind his back, and followed after Foxy. Having comprehended the Law of Space, he could shorten the distance greatly with every step, which increased his speed significantly. Foxy was fast as well. Like a chariot, she moved rumbling across the ground.

The man and the fox kept this strange marching pattern and moved at high speed in the ancient Heavengod's relic.

...

The emissary group of the Titan Divine Dynasty was shrouded in sadness, and everyone in the group was low in spirit. Their leader, a high-grade God King, was put into the Xiayi Divine Dynasty's prison with his limbs broken. This was a massive blow to the whole group.

Now, they were only left with a few mid-grade and low-grade God Kings, as well as the geniuses from the Titan Divine Dynasty, who were the most important part of the emissary group.

They didn't move together with the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty. Since they were rivals, the two divine dynasties didn't even communicate with each other.

The Titan Divine Dynasty's team moved slowly, walking in the desolate relic. In fact, these people were not unfamiliar with the relic. Their dynasty also had one ancient Heavengod's relic, so they were not too nervous.

A God King once flew over the relic and looked down from the top. He found that it looked like the shape of a man. It was as if the whole place was actually the corpse of an ancient Heavengod. This frightened many people.

However, there were treasures everywhere in the relic. If one was lucky enough to acquire some Heavengod's blood or a Heavengod's bone, they would be rich! To cultivators, both the Heavengod's blood and bone were so precious that they would buy them at any price.

A mid-grade God King led the group with a gloomy face. Suddenly, he focused his eyes and looked into the distance. There, a figure was approaching from the horizon with swaggering steps.

"Who goes there?" The God King straightened up abruptly, and his eyes burst into bright light. At the same time, he sent out his divine sense to deter and force the stranger away.

However, to everyone's astonishment, the stranger showed no sign of backing down. He still approached slowly, taking one step at a time. Soon, he came in front of the emissary group, standing there quietly with his head bowed.

For a moment, the atmosphere became a little awkward.

The mid-grade God King narrowed his eyes. The next moment, he bolted forward and landed in front of the figure with a rumble.

“Sir, we are the Titan Divine Dynasty’s emissaries. Why are you standing in our way?” he said coolly.

However, as soon as he said that, the expression on his face froze, for he saw that the figure’s bowed head slowly raised...

The figure didn’t have facial features! There was only a gaping hole, from which came a burst of laughter that made the hair of those who heard it stand!

Chapter 1500: Save Me...

There are many types of laughter, such as gentle laughter and cold laughter. There’s also a type of laughter, which, even without expression, makes one feel cold all over as if death is closing in.

At that moment, the mid-grade God King of the Titan Divine Dynasty was facing this feeling. It was as though he would die in the next moment. Such a feeling was extremely terrifying.

Rumble!

The figure moved, leaping forward with an explosive force and releasing all its accumulated power in an instant like a nuclear warhead...

With a loud bang, the mid-grade God King flew backward immediately, streaked across the air like a cannonball, and smashed hard into the void, causing it to collapse.

“What happened?!”

The emissary group of the Titan Divine Dynasty broke out in an uproar. They never imagined that such a thing could happen. They were... attacked! Since this relic belonged to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, could the attacker be a Xiayi expert?

But... that didn’t seem right. They had just stepped into this relic, and they had not acquired any treasure related to the Heavengod. Why would they become the target, and why would a Xiayi expert want to attack them? That was what puzzled them.

The remaining few God Kings all narrowed their eyes, unleashed their formidable auras, and charged toward where the battle broke out like bolts of lightning.

“Everyone move back!”

A low-grade God King stayed back with the group. All tensed up, he ordered the geniuses behind him to retreat.

Those geniuses seemed to sense the danger as well, so they followed after the low-grade God King and quickly retreated into the distance.

Tai Fei narrowed his eyes. ‘We were attacked as soon as we entered the relic... Do the experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty want to kill us because Heaven King Tai Hang had wantonly attacked their Divine Emperor? That’s very likely!’

‘But... When did the Xiayi Divine Dynasty become so crazy? If this news were exposed, it would definitely start a war between the two divine dynasties. It will be a war between great worlds, and the whole Chaotic Universe will bleed!’

Boom!

An explosion broke out in an instant, and the ground shattered. A mid-grade God King, with the barbaric glyphs on his body glowing dazzlingly, was knocked flying backward.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Several God Kings jumped up into the air and then landed forcefully. They all looked up in horror, staring at the figure in the distance.

That was a figure without eyes, and there was only a slit on its face, which split open and was dripping with slime, making it look particularly disgusting. This thing... was not a human being, but it pretended to be one! Even so, the mid-grade God King actually didn’t discover that!

With a crack and a pop, the leading mid-grade God King's head was crushed. His blood spilled and puddled on the ground, boiling and steaming. His soul crazily bolted out of the body to flee. As long as his soul was intact, he could always make a comeback. However, he soon despaired because the creature was even better at dealing with souls.

Even as the God King's soul was about to flee, the figure dashed forward like a savage beast, raised a hand, and thrust it into his chest. Then, with a slash, it ripped the soul in half and shoved them into its splitting mouth...

Everyone watched in horror as the God King's soul was ripped apart and devoured... And the thing that ate it looked as if it was eating a hot and delicious bun!

As if the taste of the soul had stimulated it, the creature roared and charged toward the other God Kings of the Titan Divine Dynasty.

"May we know which King of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty are you? We are the emissaries from the Titan Divine Dynasty! Do you know the consequences of hurting us?!" a mid-grade God King growled.

Unfortunately, the figure simply ignored him. With a boom, it appeared in front of him like a storm and threw out a fist. The punch didn't contain the Power of Law but spinning black energy...

The God King raised his palm and collided with the fist. However, in just a flash, his palm was smashed into a pulp! His pupils constricted, but then his head was crushed...

A God King was dead, and he didn't even know how that happened!

After killing the God King and devouring his soul, the figure threw its head back and roared. The next moment, barbaric glyphs appeared and flickered all over its body. At the sight, the hair of the Titan experts stood on end.

What monster did they run into? Why did it possess the Titan's barbaric glyphs?!

After being enhanced by the barbaric glyphs, the corners of the creature's mouth curled upward, revealing a disdainful smile. Then, it charged again with an even more fearsome fighting prowess. A God King was instantly pushed to the ground and killed with his body torn into pieces...

The faces of the geniuses and experts of the emissary group all turned ghastly pale, bloodless. They never thought something like this would happen. All their mid-grade God Kings had fallen!

Without hesitation, the remaining low-grade God King turned his head and bellowed at the geniuses including Tai Fei, “Run! Don’t think about anything, just run! Run to the defensive city the Xiayi Divine Dynasty had built in the relic! Hurry up!”

The geniuses were still in a trance, as death had descended too quickly.

“Run! Run for your life!”

When they finally recovered their wits, they realized that if they didn’t run, they would all be dead!

Rumble!

Tai Fei did not hesitate. His strength was the strongest, so he was the first one to speed away like a cannonball into the distance. The other geniuses followed in panic.

The figure was still showing that blood-curdling smile. The low-grade God King tried to stop it, but he was killed instantly. His body blew apart with a boom, and then his soul was devoured...

Several God Kings were brutally killed here, and they died without knowing what kind of monster had shown up in the relic. Blood flowed in streams, and the ground was littered with broken bodies.

A small pit in the ground had turned into a pool of blood, and numerous glinting black balls could be seen inside. The resentful souls of the God Kings wandered and howled, filling the air with an aura of death.

...

Tai Fei ran in panic. He was the top genius of the Titan Divine Clan, but his heart beat so fast now that it almost jumped out of his throat. It was too horrible. Everyone was dead. His companions and the God Kings who brought them here... They were all dead!

With his own eyes, he saw that ferocious figure use a finger to rip apart the body of a top genius, who was a Demigod with a great hope to become a high-grade God King. Titans prided themselves on their tough fleshly bodies, but that genius could not even resist the attack for a brief moment, because the stranger also possessed barbaric glyphs!

“No, it doesn’t possess but imitates! It had learned and imitated the barbaric glyphs of the God Kings it killed! That’s the most frightening thing! Just what monster is that?!”

Suddenly, Tai Fei’s pupils constricted as he recalled something. Didn’t they come to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty to find out the truth of the creature described by the Xiayi Divine Emperor? Could it be that he didn’t lie and that the creature actually existed?!

Tai Fei sucked in a cold breath. When the Titan Divine Emperor learned about the news, he thought it was just a smokescreen released by the Xiayi Divine Emperor to deter the other two divine dynasties from doing anything, since his end was near. Now, by the looks of it, the Xiayi Divine Dynasty didn’t lie to them!

Tai Fei regretted it very much now. Had he known this, he would not have come to this relic! How was he going to escape, now that he was trapped here in this dangerous place? He might soon die here.

Perhaps, the only chance for him to survive was to run to the assembly point established in the relic by the Xiayi Divine Dynasty. An assembly point like that must be guarded by a high-grade God King. Although the creature did not fear mid-grade God Kings, it should be afraid of a high-grade God King. Otherwise, it would have killed all the living things in the assembly point.

“Run!”

Tai Fei fled at top speed.

Rumble!

A rumble suddenly rang out. Tai Fei paused. He felt as though his whole body was frozen, and the void around him was sealed off... He knew he could no longer escape.

In the distance, the figure slowly turned around and opened its mouth, revealing sharp teeth. Then, it moved, speeding across the great distance in a flash and leaving countless afterimages behind. In just the blink of an eye, it appeared in front of Tai Fei, breathing puffs of black air in his face.

Tai Fei felt as though he was plunged into an icy cellar. “You...” He took a deep breath. “I’m the Crown Prince of the Titan Divine Dynasty... If you kill me...”

However, before he could finish, some blood splashed onto his face. His pupils constricted. “I... I...” He tried to say something, but he could not get the words out. Then, he began to cough blood, again and again, until only black blood came out of his mouth.

Meanwhile, the figure in front of him began to shrink like a leaking balloon. Soon, it collapsed to the ground.

A long time later, Tai Fei’s eyes returned to normal. He curled the corners of his mouth upward, belched, and wiped the black blood away from his lips with the back of a hand.

“Well... I’ve finally found a decent body, and I’ve finally... evolved to this stage...”

Tai Fei, or whatever thing that had possessed him, smiled faintly. As he sensed the great power in him, he narrowed his eyes, and black energy flowed out of his body.

“This body could only be considered decent. After possessing it, I have only the original power of this body. However, with my realm, I can exert so much more power than this native...”

Tai Fei narrowed his eyes. Barbaric glyphs could be seen floating over his palms, then the Law of Destruction appeared, surrounded by many other Laws. A storm seemed to be forming!

...

“Zi zi zi?”

Foxy stopped suddenly, and her hair bristled as she looked into the distance, where blood flowed in streams and souls wandered in the air.

Bu Fang arrived in the next instant, and he furrowed his brows. “Why is this place so full of death aura? What happened here? This is... broken barbaric glyphs...”

With his keen eyes, Bu Fang saw a broken but glinting glyph drifting in the pool of blood. He was familiar with it. “Isn’t that the barbaric glyph drawn on the Titan expert’s body? Did their God Kings die here? With so much blood and such a strong death aura... Could it be that the whole emissary group of the Titan Divine Dynasty died here?”

Bu Fang sucked in a cold breath.

“Is this place really so dangerous? I’d better go back and open my restaurant... No wonder the System gave me this temporary task. There’s indeed something strange in this relic.”

Suddenly, Bu Fang turned and looked into the distance, where a rustling sound rang out. He saw a figure crawling toward him, covered in blood and severely injured in the chest.

Bu Fang frowned, while Foxy’s fur bristled.

It was only when the figure came close enough that Bu Fang saw who he was. “The genius of the Titan Divine Dynasty... I think his name is Tai something Fei?”

He breathed a sigh of relief when he saw Tai Fei. “It seems some of them had survived. That’s good. I can learn from him about what happened. This place is really dangerous. In the worst-case scenario, I’ll go back to the restaurant and sell oyster pancakes.”

Tai Fei was shivering all over. His body shook with every step, and even his shoulders were twitching. He looked as though he had just gone through something terrible. Step by step, he walked toward Bu Fang...
