Chapter 1501: Anorexia

Standing where he was, Bu Fang put his hands behind him and stared at the approaching figure in the distance. ‘This guy should be the genius of the Titan Divine Dynasty, Tai Fei.’ He remembered him. After all, they met before.

At this moment, the Titan’s emissary group was completely wiped out, but this guy before him was still alive. Bu Fang thought he could ask him about what happened.

“Save me...”

Tai Fei spoke from a distance. When his hoarse voice rang out, it made Bu Fang’s hair stand on end. It was as if a chill had risen from the bottom of his feet and enveloped his whole body.

‘Something terrible must have happened and wiped out the whole Titan’s emissary group...’ Bu Fang thought.

Tai Fei was shaking all over. Not from fear, though, but from excitement. He saw Bu Fang, but he didn’t expose the secret. Instead, he walked step by step toward Bu Fang, and soon he was right in front of him.

Bu Fang’s face grew grave as he looked at Tai Fei’s miserable appearance. He also noticed the black balls floating in the blood pool not far away. He was very familiar with them, for they were exactly the same as the terrifying black ball he encountered in the Great Netherworld, which had separated him and Lord Dog during the teleporting process.

‘The same dreadful and fearsome monsters who can imitate other people’s fighting styles and powers are probably in those black balls...’ Bu Fang had never seen any monster like this before.

Tai Fei came to Bu Fang’s side, his eyes fixing on him. He could feel a force spreading from Bu Fang, and it made his heart shiver. He desired this force, but at the same time, he was afraid of it.

“What happened?” Bu Fang asked, looking at Tai Fei. The latter’s chest was crushed and mangled, and he looked very miserable. Evidently, he had been through a tough battle.

“We’ve been ambushed... Everyone’s dead, and I’m the only survivor...” Tai Fei had a look of fear on his face.

Bu Fang grew more serious. ‘This place is indeed dangerous... so much so that the whole emissary group is wiped out. But this Tai Fei is a pretty amazing man. I can’t believe he managed to survive such peril.’

He sighed and said, “My condolence.” Then, he flipped his hand, produced a steaming oyster pancake, and handed it to Tai Fei. “Eat this. It will help you recover from your injury.”

It was rare for Bu Fang to be so kindhearted and give someone an oyster pancake. The main reason he did that was because of Tai Fei’s miserable encounter.

Tai Fei paused for a while, then he took the oyster pancake. Under Bu Fang’s gentle gaze, he swallowed.

“Eat it while it’s hot,” Bu Fang said.

Frowning, Tai Fei brought the oyster pancake to his nose and sniffed. To him, it seemed to give off a pungent... stench.

‘Should I eat it? This should be what humans call delicious food...’

To creatures like him, however, this delicious food tasted as awful as garbage, and he could hardly swallow it. Just by sniffing at it had already filled his nostrils with a foul smell. What they liked to eat were souls, especially the souls of experts, which had a taste that deeply intoxicated them.

Tai Fei hesitated. Staring at Bu Fang, he prepared to turn hostile. He would not eat the oyster pancake. He would rather die than eat such an awful thing.

Bu Fang paid Tai Fei no mind. Putting his hands behind his back, he turned and fixed his eyes on the black balls floating in the blood pool. As his face grew colder, he raised a hand, and the silver Divine flame emerged in his palm, surrounded in frightful Power of Law.

After absorbing countless Laws, the Divine flame now possessed the power of nearly one thousand Laws, which made it extremely fearsome. It appeared that its foundation was more solid than Bu Fang's. He couldn't wait to see what kind of power it would have after he became a God.

At this moment, however, its power was already strong enough to burn the black balls before him. With a flick of his fingers, his divine sense surged, and the silver Divine flame turned into a stream of light, falling into the blood pool.

As soon as the flame touched the blood, the whole pool began to boil and burn. The blood gurgled and churned, giving off wisps of hot steam as the silver flame spread and enveloped all those black balls, filling the air with a sizzling noise. Soon, the black balls seemed to let out eerie shrieks as black gases rose from them.

Tai Fei was stunned as he watched. 'His flame can actually burn off my seeds? They can't be destroyed by anyone but God Kings! This guy is just a Demigod, but why is he so fearsome?!' He had thought of killing Bu Fang and devouring his soul right here, but based on what he just saw, he decided to put the plan on hold.

"Eh? Why aren't you eating?" Bu Fang asked curiously when he turned and glanced at Tai Fei.

That gave Tai Fei pause. He looked at the oyster pancake, then shoved it into his mouth and chewed. A foul smell immediately spread in his mouth, and a disgusting feeling rose from the depths of his soul, making his whole body cramp.

Creatures like them could not eat human food! However, after witnessing Bu Fang's trick just now, Tai Fei dared not to act rashly before his strength recovered.

"Isn't it delicious?" Bu Fang couldn't help but ask when he saw the struggling look on Tai Fei's face.

No one should look like that after eating his oyster pancake. 'Perhaps he's still grieving over the tragic fate of his emissary group...' Bu Fang thought. However, grief like this should be turned into appetite. So Bu Fang shook his hand, produced another oyster pancake, and gave it to Tai Fei.

"Don't stand on ceremony with me. Here, have another one..." Bu Fang said.

Tai Fei was struck dumb. Looking at the steaming oyster pancake in his hand, he felt his stomach turn. He wished he could kill this fellow in front of him now, but he had a feeling that he was no match for him.

“En, it’s good...” Tai Fei managed a smile and pretended to be enjoying the food.

Only then did Bu Fang nod in satisfaction. A few moments later, he asked, “Do you know where the assembly point is in the relic?” This place was so large that it was difficult to search aimlessly for the place where the ancient Heavengod had fallen.

“Yes, I do!” Tai Fei replied as he choked down the disgusting taste in his mouth.

Of course, he knew where it was. He had planned to hide in the human assembly point, so when his cultivation base recovered, he would be able to kill everyone there. This body was enough to let him reach the level of a high-grade God King. If he could slaughter an entire city, his cultivation base would become even more fearsome.

At the thought of that, Tai Fei’s eyes flashed brightly.

“Great! Can you bring me there?” Bu Fang was excited when he heard that. He took out another oyster pancake, shoved it into Tai Fei’s hand, and said, “Show me the way. I still have plenty of oyster pancakes.”

Bu Fang was abundantly prepared this time. For food like oyster pancakes, he had made at least one basket.

Tai Fei hastily waved his hand and said he had enough, then began leading the way.

He choked back his nausea and finished the whole oyster pancake. At this moment, his desire to kill Bu Fang had reached its peak. However, he didn’t expose his intention. He wanted to wait until his strength fully recovered.

Moreover, he could use the identity of this body to hide in the human city. He would wait until Soul One and Soul Two joined him, then they would be able to slaughter all the humans in this relic...At that time, he would surely obtain another great evolution!

...

Flames were dancing and crackling. Sitting with a blank face before a campfire, Tai Fei didn't know what to say. In front of him, Bu Fang had built a roasting rack and was roasting a spirit bird on a wooden stick.

'Eat... Eat again... He has been eating all the way!' Tai Fei felt that he had made a big mistake by following Bu Fang. 'How much does this man love to eat? He had barely walked a few steps, and now he wants to eat again?'

Tai Fei was impressed by the variety of human food cooked with a myriad method, such as roasting, frying, barbecuing... However, these delicacies were awful things in his eyes, and he could hardly swallow. And yet, Bu Fang was so hospitable that he kept pushing them to him.

He was so disgusted that he felt death would be better than this, and there were a few times he almost failed to control himself and wanted to twist Bu Fang's head off!

'Stop f*cking cooking food for me!'

Despite his towering rage, Tai Fei was afraid of Bu Fang's strength, so he had no choice but to bear with it. All he could hope for now was to reach the human assembly point as soon as possible, and then he would be able to leave this glutton.

A delicious aroma filled the air. Bu Fang picked up the wooden stick and blew at it. Wisps of steam rose, giving off a unique fragrance. He took out many blue-and-white porcelain jars, which contained all the spices he made. They were the perfect match for roast meat.

When the spirit bird was cooked, he tore off its skin, exposing the juicy and tender white meat underneath. It was perfectly cooked, and it smelled excellent!

Bu Fang actually quite like this kind of delicacies that were cooked in the wilderness. Pure, less processed food could let one experience the purest happiness.

He tore off a leg and took a bite of it. The tender meat made him feel as if he was about to bite his own tongue.

Foxy was already looking at Bu Fang with an impatient look, her mouth drooling. He tore off a wing and gave it to her. She took it with her mouth, then went to the side and began eating happily.

Opposite them, Tai Fei stared in amazement. The aroma that came wafting over made him furrow his brows, and the nausea in his stomach grew stronger.

“Hmm... You want to taste it as well?” Bu Fang said in realization when he saw Tai Fei’s look. Without hesitation, he took out the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife and cut off the bird’s tail. After handing it to Tai Fei, he continued eating happily.

Tai Fei glanced at Bu Fang and felt that he was caught in a dilemma. He could not throw the tail away, but he did not want to eat it... He was certain that if he ate it, he would throw it back out immediately. For a moment, his hand was shaking...

Then, he opened his mouth and took a bite. Sure enough, his stomach cramped instantly, and he felt like he was going to throw up.

Blerghh...

Tai Fei’s reaction shocked Bu Fang. Although he gave him the bird’s tail, it tasted almost the same as the bird’s leg. He shouldn’t throw up after taking just one bite, should he?

“I’m sorry... I’m a little full. In fact, I’m anorexic,” Tai Fei said, wiping his mouth with the back of his hand. His eyes were flickering, for he feared that Bu Fang would suspect him. If Bu Fang really suspected him, he had no other choice but to unleash his power and kill this human!

Bu Fang took a bite of the bird and nodded thoughtfully. “Anorexia... Interesting. It’s a good thing you met me. I know how to cook all kinds of delicious food. Surely you will like one of them. Trust me, I’ll cure your anorexia. I will make you love the taste of food,” he said seriously while tearing another chunk of flesh from the bird.

‘What?’ Tai Fei froze. ‘What did he just say?’

The next moment, as he watched in horror, Bu Fang took out the Black Turtle Constellation Wok, the White Tiger Heaven Stove, the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife, and other kitchen utensils. There were even various food ingredients around him.

Bu Fang was ready to show his skills. As the man who wanted to become the God of Cooking and top the fantasy world's food chain, curing anorexia was a simple task.

Chapter 1502: A Mouthful of Intoxication

The emissary group of the Titan Divine Dynasty was wiped out. Not many people knew about the news, but it caused a minor commotion in the distant Titan Divine Dynasty.

Rumble!

Terrible air waves were blowing as a towering figure slowly walked past mountains and rivers. It was a giant of immense height with strange barbaric glyphs drawn all over the body.

Very soon, the figure arrived in front of a cluster of stone palaces. It shrank, landed on the broad street before the palaces, and ran into them.

A gentle-looking young man was reading a scroll over the palace.

“Your Majesty... The life lamps of the emissary group are extinguished!”

The visitor's aura was powerful, and as soon as he spoke, his booming voice shook the whole palace and caused dust to fall off from the roof.

“Calm down, calm down... You need to cultivate your mind and character, understand?” the Titan Divine Dynasty Emperor said coolly.

“This is not the time for that! Of the nearly one hundred emissaries, everyone's life lamp is extinguished save Tai Hang's! Even Tai Fei's lamp is no longer lit!” the visitor growled again. He simply couldn't calm down.

“Don't panic... Tai Hang should count himself lucky to stay alive after attacking the Xiayi Divine Emperor. He is now being kept in prison, and they want me to ransom him myself,” the Divine Emperor said calmly. He moved his head from side to side as he stared at the scroll in his hand, and that gave him a Buddha-like air.

“Your son, Tai Fei’s life lamp is... extinguished! Do you understand what I said at all?!” The expert had black lines on his forehead.

The Titan Divine Emperor finally frowned. He turned to look at the expert. “What did you say, Tai Shan?”

The expert, Tai Shan, was somewhat speechless about the Titan Divine Emperor’s slow reaction. He shook his hand. Barbaric glyphs flashed over his palm, and then an image emerged. In the image, one flickering life lamp after another went out in an instant, and then the souls in them howled and dissipated...

“The souls dissipated... The life lamps went out...”

Squinting, the Titan Divine Emperor put away the scroll. His air of a scholar vanished, and a savage monster seemed to have woken up in him!

“Tai Fei is my proud son, and yet he’s dead now?! I have to get to the bottom of this! If this is truly the Xiayi Divine Dynasty’s work, I’ll turn it into a ruin!” the Divine Emperor roared.

Tai Shan nodded. ‘Now this is the correct response,’ he thought, narrowing his eyes. He was also furious when he learned that their emissary group was wiped out in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

“Tai Shan, I want you to go to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty immediately and demand an answer from the Xiayi Divine Emperor! I’ve nothing to say about him imprisoning Tai Hang, but killing our emissaries and my son... I’ll not let this matter rest easily! Does he think my three-million-strong Titan Army is a mere decoration?!”

Rumble!

The Titan Divine Emperor was boiling with rage. His aura exploded out, causing the whole palace to tremble violently.

Tai Shan took the order and bolted out of the palace. Then, he turned back into a giant and began running wildly across the earth...

...

They soon reached the assembly point in the ancient Heavengod's relic. Bu Fang saw the city from a distance. It stretched hundreds of miles with towering walls, and experts from various powers could be seen walking on top of them.

Tai Fei followed at Bu Fang's side with a dull, hopeless look on his face. Around his neck was a string of fragrant biscuits, which was made by Bu Fang to help him cure his anorexia.

His anorexia was so serious that even Bu Fang was struggling. No matter what delicacy was placed in front of him, he didn't bat an eye, and he showed no appetite at all.

This was the first time Bu Fang had encountered such a peculiar condition. On their way here, he had tried his best to let Tai Fei feel the charm of delicious food. Unfortunately, he was unsuccessful after all.

"These biscuits are added with a spice I specially made, which can intensify the fragrance of food to the greatest extent. By hanging them around your neck for forty-nine days, it can definitely cure your anorexia!" Bu Fang said seriously to Tai Fei.

At first, Tai Fei refused. However, he could not resist Bu Fang and eventually chose to accept.

Tai Fei saw the city, and he narrowed his eyes. He could sense the terrifying presences in it.

In fact, the top experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty were all staying in the ancient Heavengod's relic. High-grade God Kings rarely appeared in the capital of the divine dynasty, and this was why Black and White were able to cause trouble in the capital.

When Bu Fang came before the city, the main gates swung open immediately. No one asked him any questions because those who came here were all experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

Foxy was lying on Bu Fang's shoulder with her tails wagging constantly and her big eyes darting from side to side.

As soon as Tai Fei, with the string of biscuits around his neck, stepped into the city, he said impatiently to Bu Fang, "Since we have arrived at the assembly point, let's part ways here..."

He could not wait to get rid of Bu Fang. ‘I was really stupid to approach this fellow in the first place...’ he thought. ‘This human being is as stinky and hard as the rock in a latrine pit. I can’t kill him, and yet he kept forcing me to eat those disgusting human food! The next time I meet him, I’ll twist his head off!’

“You want to leave already? Then you have to remember that the biscuits around your neck cannot be removed. You have to carry them for forty-nine days,” Bu Fang reminded him seriously.

People with anorexia need to be treated with care and compassion. After all, it was such a painful ordeal not to be able to enjoy the pleasures that come with good food.

Tai Fei turned and left.

Bu Fang’s face gradually became grave as he watched him leave, while Foxy put her arms around his head and squeaked.

“I know. That guy is not normal from the beginning...” Bu Fang stroked the little fox’s head and said lightly.

From the moment he laid his eyes on Tai Fei, he already felt an uneasiness that he could not explain. Then, when the true-form of his divine sense opened its eyes in his spirit sea, he felt a wave of disgust from deep inside. He had only felt that from the terrible creature in the Great Netherworld.

After that, when he saw those black balls, he knew that the emissary group must have been wiped out by that same creature. And Tai Fei was behaving strangely. If it wasn’t for that uneasy feeling keeping him from making a move rashly, he probably would have smashed Tai Fei with the Black Turtle Constellation Wok the moment they met.

In the end, he brought Tai Fei to the assembly point, hoping that the high-grade God Kings here would be able to deal with him.

When Tai Fei came around a corner, his face suddenly became grim and twisted. He yanked the string of biscuits off from his neck and threw them to the ground.

“Damn human... I won’t forget you! Once my cultivation base recovers, I will devour all your blood and flesh!”

Blerghh...

He jammed a few fingers into his mouth to force himself to throw out all the food in his stomach. It was only after a long time that he left gloomily. He was going to hibernate, and when his cultivation base was restored, he would turn this place into an ocean of his food!

...

The assembly point was considered a small city. It was not as large as the capital as it was just a temporary gathering place. The Xiayi experts didn’t build it as a place to live, but a resting site for those who came here to explore the relic.

Though a small city, it was guarded by high-grade God Kings. After all, there were some fearsome monsters in the relic that were very aggressive toward intruders.

Bu Fang walked slowly in the city. He did not meet anyone he knew here, such as Luo Sanniang and Hu Lu, who had come here before him. After all, the relic was a huge place, so the chances of bumping into someone he knew were quite low.

According to the System’s task requirements, Bu Fang needed to find the site where the ancient Heavengod had fallen, as that was the only place where the ancient Heavengod’s soul remained. Only the soul contained the Power of Law.

He spent some time walking around within the assembly point. It was a lively place and considered a city of adventurers. The strength of the experts here varied widely. There were low-grade, mid-grade, and high-grade Gods, as well as God Kings. However, most of them were just Gods.

These Gods all put down their usual proud attitude and kept yelling loudly, looking for people to join them in exploring the relic. It was a very comical situation, but it was happening for real. The relic was full of danger, and a person’s ability was limited after all. So, if one could form a team to explore it together, it would be much easier to find something good.

Bu Fang had thought about that and decided that it was not right for him to run aimlessly in the relic. Although Foxy said she knew the site where the ancient Heavengod had fallen, she had not been able to take him there. So, he didn't quite believe her.

Therefore, he made up his mind. He went over to a God yelling in the distance, who was a mid-grade God in a combat suit.

"A Demigod?" The mid-grade God narrowed his eyes slightly.

Bu Fang nodded and said, "I would like to ask how to travel to the fallen place of the ancient Heavengod."

"The fallen place of the ancient Heavengod? Are you out of your mind? Only God Kings would dare go to that place!"

The mid-grade God rolled his eyes when he heard Bu Fang's question. As someone who had been exploring the relic for a long time, he knew very well which place was dangerous and which was safe. Adventurers like them who lived on the edge of a knife had a very keen sense of danger.

"I'm just asking," Bu Fang said with a straight face.

"If you look down from the sky, you will find that the relic is shaped like a man. Some said the whole relic is the corpse of an ancient Heavengod, but it's not... In fact, at least three ancient Heavengods had fallen in this relic."

The mid-grade God rubbed his hands and glanced around. When he saw that no one wanted to join his team now, he began to chat with Bu Fang and told him some common knowledge of the relic.

"So we divide the relic into three areas, that is, the safe area, the dangerous area, and the death area..."

"Three thousand miles around this assembly point is a safe area. If you travel further up into the upper body, you will enter the dangerous area. The head is where the death area lies... It is said that the chances of finding Heavengod's bones and Heavengod's blood are the highest there. So, even though it's the death area, it's a land of treasures."

After he had finished, the mid-grade God took out a blade of grass, rolled it into a cylinder, held it between his lips, lit it with fire, and began smoking. He appeared like a veteran adventurer.

“This is soul-crunching grass, a unique plant that is abundant in the relic. You will be intoxicated with just one puff. Do you want one, little brother? I can sell you one for ten source stones...” said the mid-grade God.

Bu Fang had obtained the information he needed. He glanced at the soul-crunching grass and the mid-grade God, twitched the corner of his mouth, and shook his hand. A spicy strip appeared in his hand, then he held it between his lips like Er Ha and took a bite of it. Instantly, a spicy taste spread in his mouth, and that was what he called real intoxication.

“If I may be so bold to ask, which direction should I go if I want to go to the head area?” Bu Fang asked.

The mid-grade God froze in an instant. ‘Is this Demigod stupid or something? A mere Demigod like him also wants to go to the head area? That’s the playground of God Kings! Anyone who is weaker will only get himself killed there!’

Bu Fang shook his head when he realized that the mid-grade God wouldn’t tell him. He glanced around, then turned and walked toward a team recruited by a low-grade God King in the distance.

A disdainful look came over the mid-grade God’s face. ‘A mere Demigod also wants to join such a team? How laughable!’

However, the eyes of this God suddenly widened in the next moment.

Chapter 1503: Make Bu Fang the Scapegoat?

‘Are the teams of God Kings now so unconcerned about quality? It’s unbelievable that a Demigod can join that team...’

When the mid-grade God saw the usually proud low-grade God King grin from ear to ear and hold out a hand to the Demigod, his mouth dropped open and the soul-crunching grass between his lips fell to the ground.

‘Even if they’re looking for cannon fodder, they should at least find a better one, right?!’

However, the God was left with only shock. As for why Bu Fang was able to join that God King’s team, this might become a question that could never be solved in his mind.

...

Bu Fang saw an acquaintance. He didn’t expect to meet Summer here, who had left the Divine Chef Temple and come to the ancient Heavengod’s relic before him.

It was because of her that joining the team became so easy. Summer didn’t say much to the team about her reasons for letting him join. She just told them that he was a chef from the Divine Chef Temple and was very good at cooking supplementary food.

When the experts of the team heard that, their eyes lit up. The so-called supplementary chef was equivalent to the role of a nurse, who was very crucial to a team.

Summer used to cook them some supplementary food, but she was not a professional after all. Now that a professional chef wanted to join them, the God Kings naturally welcomed him. In the relic, chefs from the Divine Chef Temple had always been very popular, even if he was only a Demigod chef...

“Welcome aboard,” the leading God King said to Bu Fang with a gentle smile. He was a handsome mid-grade God King with a pair of gleaming eyes.

Bu Fang nodded and then glanced at Summer. He was surprised to meet her here.

“Let’s go, we’re in a hurry...”

Summer wasn’t surprised, though. Many things had happened in the relic recently, causing the probability of Heavengod’s bones and Heavengod’s blood appearing to become much higher. Given such an opportunity, Bu Fang’s presence here wasn’t surprising. After all, the surge in the probability also meant that more and more people would flock to the relic.

“Good. Little brother Bu, you will follow behind us. You don’t have to participate in battles and just need to provide us supplementary food. The chefs at the Divine Chef Temple are always reliable in their cooking,” the man said with a smile that was as warm as the spring breeze.

The group wasted no time and set off straight away, leaving the assembly point and heading toward the distance.

This was a group with five God Kings, and Bu Fang became the sixth member. The combination of five God Kings and a Demigod was somewhat... strange. Two of them were mid-grade God Kings, and the other three low-grade God Kings. Their overall strength was very strong, not weaker than the emissary group of the Titan Divine Dynasty.

There were many adventurers in the relic. Some experts spent their whole lives wandering here to become the strongest existences, so it led to quite a lot of God Kings here.

The main reason was that there were many resources in the relic. Many of the treasures left behind by the ancient Heavengods, such as Heavengod’s bones and Heavengod’s blood, were of great benefit to cultivation.

“Summer doesn’t need to be introduced since you already know each other. These three are brothers, each with the strength of a low-grade God King and possessing secret techniques. Together, they can fight a mid-grade God King,” the man said with a gentle smile.

“I’m Tian Qiu, a cultivator from the Tian Family. We are one of the top aristocratic families of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty,” the man said as they walked.

Bu Fang nodded.

When Tian Qiu had finished speaking, he turned to look at Summer and gave her a warm smile. “It’s rare for our team to be able to invite Your Highness to join us. I’m sure that the rewards of this trip will be bountiful.”

This man loved to smile. However, Summer wasn’t very interested in his smile. She turned her head away and was too lazy to pay him any mind.

Soon, they left the assembly point and came outside the city. Tian Qiu waved his hand. A rumble rang out immediately, and then a warship appeared in front of them.

The warship looked quite fierce when compared with those in the capital. Drawn with peculiar runes, its outer shell was full of sharp edges and muzzles.

“This is a combat-type warship, and my family made it just for me,” Tian Qiu introduced, smiling.

The Tian Family was a very powerful warship supplier in the divine dynasty’s capital, and its strength was not much weaker than that of the Zhao and Luo Families.

Rumble!

Bu Fang and the others climbed onto the warship. Under Tian Qiu’s control, the warship roared and sped away into the distance, its tail spurting a jet of hot air. In just the blink of an eye, it disappeared completely.

Bu Fang sat cross-legged in the warship without saying a word. He could feel the contempt of the others for him, including Tian Qiu, the man who kept smiling. He wasn’t surprised. After all, he was just a Demigod.

Of course, he didn’t feel that from Summer, who was aware of his background. He had thought that she had gone to look for Mu Hongzi, but it turned out that she was still in the relic.

Rumble!

The warship sped away, flying at high speed through the relic.

The location of the assembly point was at the navel of the Heavengod’s body. The higher you went up, the closer you were to the danger zone. From the heart to the neck was considered the danger zone.

This warship was of excellent quality. At the very least, it flew very fast. Everything around it was disappearing at a rapid pace. During the flight, Bu Fang saw many strange warships. Each of them was covered with marks left behind by the battles they had fought, the pride of a warship.

“We have now passed the safe zone and are entering the danger zone. Hold on tight. It’s not safe here even in a warship. Many sky spirit beasts will attack warships,” said Tian Qiu, his face becoming more serious.

Summer curled her lips and looked out of the window. She had always been so indifferent. Outside the warship, the gloomy sky was passing by at a constant speed, and white clouds could be seen floating in the sky.

“Our destination this time is a forbidden land. According to the information I’ve received, there’s a good chance that a Heavengod’s bone can be found there...” Tian Qiu said to everyone while concentrating on steering the warship.

The warship rumbled through the air, flying past over a gigantic tree, from which a terrifying beast roar could be heard.

“That forbidden land is located at the top of the danger zone, near the head. The head area is very scary, and even with the strength of our team, entering it would risk total annihilation. So you have to cooperate with me later, especially little brother Bu. You don’t want to run around. Just stay at the back of the team and supply us,” Tian Qiu reminded.

Bu Fang nodded. He thought the man was very noisy.

Rumble!

Finally, the warship stopped flying and hovering in midair. With a clang, its cabin door opened. The team walked out from it, all fully armed.

Without saying a word, the three brothers jumped down after stepping out of the cabin and smashed into the ground like meteorites, kicking up a cloud of dust.

“Do not use divine power at high altitude because it will attract the attention of flying beasts. It’s common knowledge to use your physical body to land after getting out of the warship,” Tian Qiu said.

Summer and Bu Fang also landed without causing much of a shock.

Tian Qiu also descended to the ground after he had put away the warship. He walked in the forefront and led Bu Fang and the others into a dense forest according to the information he had received.

The spiritual energy in the forest was so dense that it almost condensed into water droplets. Bu Fang even saw crystals of spiritual energy on some of the leaves. The energy here was much stronger than in his Heaven and Earth Farmland.

Along the way, he would observe the plants around him. Whenever he saw some spirit fruits, he would put them into the farmland.

For such things that were not out of the ordinary, Tian Qiu naturally wouldn't say anything. He only took it as the habit of a chef.

They kept going until it was dark. The forest at night was beautiful, with all kinds of plants blooming into colorful light. But beneath this beautiful scenery lay a terrible crisis. No one dared to relax—all raised their guards to the highest level. Even Bu Fang was getting nervous.

“Let's camp here and rest. We will continue our march tomorrow. This place is not far from the forbidden land, but we're not in a hurry to get there. Let's adjust our forms first,” Tian Qiu said.

The others didn't say anything but sat down directly on the ground. For these experts, they did not need to set up tents or something like that. All they had to do was find a clean rock to rest.

It was Bu Fang's favorite time of day again. He glanced at the crowd, then turned and walked into the woods. He returned a short while later, holding a spirit beast in his hand.

He skillfully removed the fur and skinned the spirit beast, and then began to roast it. Various spices were sprinkled, and the fragrance filled the air.

At some point, Summer had come up to his side, staring at the fire and the barbecue.

Tian Qiu frowned, but he didn't say anything. He just looked at the sky and seemed to be worried about something.

When the dish was done, Summer impatiently grabbed half of it, squatted to one side, and began eating it. The meat was tender and juicy, and she ate it voraciously.

It was a long time since she had eaten such delicious food. Although she was the deputy of the Divine Chef Temple, her cooking skills were not very good. After all, she was not a chef. And ever since she ate the food Bu Fang cooked, she was completely captivated. This was probably one reason why she chose to bring him along.

The fragrance filled the air. Tian Qiu and the others looked embarrassed as their stomachs began to rumble uncontrollably. However, they didn't know Bu Fang very well and were too embarrassed to ask for food.

The three brothers' faces were cold, and they snorted. In their opinion, since Bu Fang accepted their protection, he should provide them food.

Bu Fang, of course, did not bother to pay attention to the three brothers. He grabbed the meat and ate it with great pleasure.

The spirit beast was a little bit like a rabbit. Because it had been living in the woods with rich spiritual energy, its meat was very tender, melting in his mouth like tofu. Its legs were a little chewier than the tender meat, which added to the deliciousness.

Bu Fang and Summer ate happily, throwing one bone after another on the ground.

The three brothers were boiling with rage, but they didn't say anything. After all, Summer was here. If she hadn't been here, they would have slapped Bu Fang. He was just a Demigod, and they had killed countless Demigods.

Suddenly, there was a rustling sound. Tian Qiu and the others frowned and got up to their feet.

"A savage monster is coming!" Tian Qiu shouted. The next moment, his aura began to surge, and it made the rustling sound grow even louder.

With a rumble, a dark shadow flew from afar at lightning speed!

“It’s a low-grade Blood Beast King!” Tian Qiu cried out as he raised his hand and threw out a punch, his bones making a popping sound.

Rumble!

Surrounded by the terrifying Power of Law, his fist struck the Blood Beast, causing it to collapse in the distance and break several large trees.

Rumble!

The three brothers also jumped up in an instant. They stared coldly at Bu Fang and said, “You damn thing! You’ve attracted the attention of the Blood Beast and exposed us! People like you don’t deserve to be on our team!”

Summer rose to her feet with a cold look on her stunning face.

‘They’re blaming Bu Fang? This is ridiculous. The scent of food will not attract a fierce beast like the Blood Beast. At best, its attention will be drawn by some ordinary spirit beasts.

‘Moreover, Blood Beast Kings already have their own will, and the only thing that will attract them is something related to the Heavengods. It’s too much for them to blame Bu Fang without properly assessing the situation.’

“It looks like we don’t have time to rest now,” Tian Qiu said after knocking the Blood Beast away with one move. “Let’s move on and enter the forbidden land tonight. I can feel that many Blood Beasts are coming toward us.”

He gave Bu Fang a deep, meaningful look, then continued, “I’ll let this one go. But if you cause conflict in the team next time, I’ll definitely kill you. Remember, you’re only a Demigod. If it weren’t for Summer, what are you?” His tone was somewhat grim and stern.

After saying that, he turned into a stream of light and sped into the depths of the woods.

The three brothers smiled coldly as they stared at Bu Fang, while Summer furrowed her brows.

Bu Fang spat out the bone in his mouth and twitched the corner of his mouth.

“He’s really skilled in the technique of shifting the blame... But I’m not that easy to make a scapegoat for,” Bu Fang said faintly.

He and Summer looked at each other, then they rushed out at the same time, heading deeper into the woods.

There was a price to pay for making Bu Fang a scapegoat.

Chapter 1504: Defeat Three Men With One Slash

The Blood Beast was a kind of mutated savage monster, who had become extremely ferocious and fearsome after being contaminated by the Heavengod’s blood. This creature mainly lived in the danger zone and the head area. There were even Blood Beast Kings in the head area, who were as strong as God Kings.

The likelihood of Bu Fang and his companions encountering a Blood Beast here was relatively rare. Was it attracted by the food Bu Fang cooked, just as the others had claimed? This was impossible. Blood Beasts had no interest in human food. They didn’t even know what human food was.

Bu Fang and Summer bolted forward, wiping the grease off the corners of their mouths and keeping pace with Tian Qiu. The high-grade God King was fast. Now that they were discovered by the Blood Beast, he didn’t cover his tracks anymore. He was dashing like a lightning bolt in the direction of the forbidden land. Once they were inside, they would be able to get rid of the Blood Beast.

Blood Beasts were actually somewhat similar to ordinary savage monsters. They also had a sense of territory, and the average Blood Beast would rarely act beyond its territory.

Rumble!

The Blood Beast opened its mouth and kept spewing blood-colored energy, which bombarded the ground and left behind one crater after another.

Bu Fang moved agilely. His Vermilion Robe flapped noisily as he ran at high speed like a blood-colored lightning bolt.

The trees around them were breaking and falling. Under the cover of the night, the loud noise caused by the tumbling trees caused numerous Blood Beasts that were sleeping to open their bloodshot eyes. Soon, they also joined the chasing army, speeding toward Bu Fang and his companions.

The terrifying aura of these Blood Beasts caused Tian Qiu's expression to change dramatically. He had never expected that there would be so many Blood Beasts chasing them. If they couldn't rush inside the forbidden land in time, they might all be torn apart!

Bu Fang and Summer were fast, and Tian Qiu was quite amazed that a Demigod could actually keep up with their speed. But it was all good. At least Bu Fang didn't hold them back. In fact, even if he did, they would not pay attention to him.

Rumble!

The Blood Beasts sped across the ground, leaving numerous afterimages behind them.

Soon, the entrance to the forbidden land was not far ahead. Tian Qiu couldn't help but get excited, and his breathing became rapid. He stomped on the ground, collapsing it and shooting himself into the entrance. The three brothers followed, and Summer and Bu Fang were not too far behind them.

It was as if there was an invisible wall separating these Blood Beasts. They were roaring as their eyes glowed with a blood-colored light, but they could not step inside the forbidden land because it was the territory of the other Blood Beasts.

Standing behind the invisible wall, the three brothers felt pins and needles in their scalps as they looked at the countless Blood Beasts. One of them walked up to Bu Fang. His face suddenly turned grim, then he threw a punch at Bu Fang's face.

Summer's eyes flickered. The space in front of that punch suddenly stacked up, causing the man's attack to fall on empty space.

Bu Fang put his hands behind his back and looked at the man indifferently.

“You damn Demigod! We almost died because of you, do you know that?!” the man hissed. “Don’t think I can’t kill you with Summer protecting you! If you dare cook again, I’ll definitely kill you here!” he said icily, lifting a finger and pointing it at Bu Fang’s face.

In the distance, Tian Qiu’s expression kept changing, but he didn’t come over to stop them. “Little brother Bu indeed did something wrong this time,” he said with emotion.

After getting Tian Qiu’s support, the three brothers became more and more threatening.

Summer twitched her lips. As for Bu Fang, he was calm, but the look in his eyes wasn’t very friendly. He was not a man anyone could point a finger at. “If you point at me one more time, I will definitely break your finger,” he said.

The three brothers didn’t expect that Bu Fang, being just a Demigod, would dare talk back to them. Their eyes narrowed slightly, and they all revealed a fierce and hostile aura.

“Are you looking for death?! We can and will point at you whenever we like!”

They released their energy at the same time, which joined together and turned into a terrifying torrent. They wanted to force Bu Fang to bow his head.

Bu Fang’s face grew colder. Summer, on the other hand, smiled coldly and stood behind him.

“That’s enough. We’re all teammates, and we should make peace with each other. We still need to complete the next task together.” Tian Qiu hurriedly came forward to smooth things over.

Bu Fang glanced at him, making him feel a little guilty.

“For Tian Qiu’s sake, we will spare you. If you do it again, I’ll definitely crush all your bones. We three brothers grew up in the relic and have never been afraid of anyone!” one of the three brothers said coldly.

Tian Qiu smiled and nodded. To him, these three ruthless brothers were good teammates.

Bu Fang twitched the corner of his mouth, raised his hand, and pointed at the three brothers' faces. "Who do you think you are? You are nothing to me!"

"How dare you, a guy who always hides behind women, point a finger at us? You're looking for death!"

The three brothers' fiery tempers were instantly ignited. They just didn't like Bu Fang. This guy only knew how to cook and eat, and most importantly, he didn't even give them the food!

Boom!

In an instant, their Power of Law erupted, joined together to form what looked like a storm, and smashed down at Bu Fang, trying to tear him apart. In their view, a mere Demigod was nothing at all, and they could kill him in seconds.

Bu Fang looked indifferently at the three brothers. He turned to look at Summer, and the latter only shrugged. Then, he turned back and raised his hand.

Accompanied by a deafening dragon roar, shafts of golden light burst out from his hand. The next moment, a golden dragon rose to the sky, and Bu Fang's aura began to soar. At the same time, the Law of Transmigration and the Law of Space surged above his head.

The scene caused Tian Qiu's pupils to shrink. "The supreme Laws of the Universe? Two f*cking supreme Laws?!" He took a deep breath, shocked. "Other than the Crown Prince, there's someone else in this world who can comprehend two supreme Laws of the Universe? This is unbelievable!"

The three brothers, too, were startled. However, their faces instantly turned fierce. So what if Bu Fang had comprehended two supreme Laws? He was just a Demigod! How could they, God Kings, possibly be afraid of a Demigod?

"Fight!"

The brothers roared and disappeared from where they were. They all took out their daggers, which tore the void apart as they charged toward Bu Fang with their Power of Law.

Bu Fang was only a Demigod, which meant that the supreme Laws of the Universe he comprehended were imperfect. Since that was the case, what did they have to fear? Yes, he was a genius, but they liked killing geniuses the most!

Bu Fang's hair waved around his head as he clutched the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife and looked at them indifferently. As the brothers drew nearer, he twitched the corner of his mouth and slowly thrust out the knife. A dazzling light burst out in an instant.

"The Kitchen Knife of Affliction!"

His voice sounded like the chanting of a Buddha, shocking the world. The void split as a knife light slashed forward, so bright that it turned night into day.

The brothers felt their energy fluctuate, and then they all spurted blood, flew backward, and landed on the ground, struggling to stand properly.

"Three low-grade God Kings were defeated with just a slash?!" Tian Qiu was stunned. "Could a Demigod be so strong?"

Summer was pleased that these men were shocked. 'Just because Bu Fang is a Demigod, you think you can underestimate him? Now you've finally learned your lesson! Let's see if you still dare to shift the blame to him. This Demigod before you is the Lord of the Divine Chef Temple, and he's super fierce when he's angry!'

Bu Fang's face was indifferent. Holding the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife, he walked step by step up the air. It wasn't a surprise that he could defeat three low-grade God Kings with the combination of the supreme Laws and his divine power. And that was when he had not unleashed his Divine flame. Otherwise, the three brothers would have been crippled now, if not dead.

Tian Qiu appeared in front of Bu Fang with a smile. He finally stepped in to stop Bu Fang. If he had let Bu Fang attack them, perhaps the three brothers would really die. Even if they didn't die, they would all still seriously injure each other. This was not the ending he wanted to see.

He had made so much preparation to enter the forbidden land to get that change. If his plans were ruined by a chef, he would die of depression.

Bu Fang looked icily at Tian Qiu, then put away the kitchen knife and slowly turned around.

“Birds of different feathers do not flock together. After you used me as a scapegoat, I’m even less likely to work with you. Farewell,” Bu Fang said. After saying that, he turned and left, disappearing into the darkness.

Summer smiled coldly and followed.

Tian Qiu didn’t care about Bu Fang’s departure, but he felt heartbroken when Summer also left. However, to keep the three brothers, he had no choice. Still, the look in his eyes became much more gloomy. He only hoped that the brothers could really bring him enough benefits.

“You actually chose to leave the team... Then you and I are now competitors... Once they find the chance first, they will become an obstacle for me. I have to find it as soon as possible! The chance left behind by the ancient Heavengod must be extraordinary, and those who stand in my way will die!” Tian Qiu said, sticking out his tongue and licking his lips. Then, he turned and sped away into the distance.

The brothers, who were coughing blood, were in a state of shock. If Tian Qiu hadn’t saved them, they would probably have been killed by that chef!

Were all Demigods nowadays so terrifying?

“Let’s go! We have to find the chance in the relic before they do!” Tian Qiu’s cold voice drifted over.

In any case, he was still very confident because he knew the exact location, while Bu Fang and Summer had no idea where that chance was.

...

Tian Qiu and the brothers rushed through the night and came to a huge hole in the ground. It was extremely dark, but there seemed to be a faint scarlet light flickering in the depths.

A strong sense of temptation greatly excited them, making their hair stand on end. It seemed that something was calling them from the hole. They were overjoyed, thinking that it must be the chance left behind by the Heavengod!

Together, they dashed into the hole and headed deeper. They couldn't wait to find the rare chance!

Just after Tian Qiu and the brothers entered the hole, the ground around it began to slowly crack open. Then, one black ball after another emerged, emitting an incomparably terrifying dark aura. It was as if a devil had revealed its sharp claws and teeth.

Soon after entering the hole, Tian Qiu and his companions no longer made any sound.

After a long time, Bu Fang and Summer slowly walked out from the depths of the woods and arrived before the hole in the ground.

They looked at each other and decided that this should be the place of chance left behind by the Heavengod that Tian Qiu had told them. There might be Heavengod's bones or Heavengod's blood inside...

Summer narrowed his eyes, intending to step into it. As she got closer, however, those black balls around the hole slowly cracked open. The air was instantly filled with a rapid crackling sound, making her flesh creep.

Bam!

Suddenly, a miserable howl rang out from the hole, accompanied by a spurt of a black light beam!

Chapter 1505: A Punch-seeking Request

The light beam shot out from the hole startled Summer. Without hesitation, she unleashed her Law of Space to stack up the void in front of her and quickly flew backward to Bu Fang's side.

Wherever the black beam passed, the void was breaking and crumbling. It was extremely terrifying!

"What is this?!" Summer's pupils constricted as she sucked in a cold breath. She sensed a great terror!

"This..." Bu Fang squinted at those familiar black balls.

They were breaking apart, and black creatures were crawling out of them. Perhaps because they had just been born, the strength and aura of these creatures were very weak, and the strongest was only at the level of a Demigod.

“They should be the strange creatures His Majesty was talking about,” Bu Fang said.

“So many of them?” Summer was taken aback. She had always thought that the Divine Emperor was just old, so he was making a fuss over little things. Now it seemed that wasn’t the case at all.

Bu Fang put his hands behind his back and furrowed his brows slightly. This was the Heavengod’s relic, but it was occupied by so many black creatures. This wasn’t good news.

Suddenly, those newly born black creatures began to devour each other. Even though they were of the same kind, they tore and bit each other without mercy. It was a brutal scene, like breeding a venomous bug, a process where they devour each other and leaving only the strongest one in the end.

“Where do these creatures come from? Why are they so strange?” Summer’s expression was somewhat grave. With a thought, she unleashed her divine sense. Then, she raised her hand and made a sweeping motion. The void began to explode continuously while her Law of Space crept toward those black creatures.

The newly born black creatures were not strong at all, barely reaching the level of a Demigod. Even after devouring their own kind, they were only as strong as a God, so Summer’s attack could easily kill them.

As a gust of black smoke spread and filled the air, the creatures born from the black balls all burst into pieces!

Rumble!

A terrible rumble echoed in the hole in the ground. The black beam of light that shot up into the sky just now showed that it definitely contained a great terror.

“This is the destination Tian Qiu was talking about, and supposedly, we can find things left behind by the Heavengod inside. He and the three brothers should have already entered it...” Summer said with a gloomy look in her eyes.

“Yes. If there is a big guy in there, the four of them shouldn’t be able to come out alive,” Bu Fang said in a low voice as he walked slowly forward.

The creatures that Summer had crushed looked like a pool of mud, but they were slowly recovering.

“Are they impossible to kill? Why are they so resilient?” Summer was shocked and a little confused. These creatures were not strong, and they should be easy to kill.

Bu Fang lifted a finger and flicked it. The silver Divine flame darted out immediately, illuminating everything in the dark as if it were a burning sun.

Rumble!

The flame spread, covering those black creatures completely and burning ragingly. Soon, they were all reduced to ashes.

Summer looked at Bu Fang in surprise. That flame frightened even her. ‘The power of his fire is getting stronger and stronger...’ she thought to herself.

“Come, let’s go in and have a look,” Bu Fang said.

Summer nodded. They couldn’t turn a blind eye to the secrets in the hole. If the strange creatures were allowed to devour each other, perhaps they would grow into something even more terrifying than the top Blood Beast Kings.

They stepped into the hole together and were soon swallowed up by the darkness. The moment they were inside, they began to fall. Wisps of black smoke kept swirling around them, but under the protection of Bu Fang’s Divine flame, the black smoke couldn’t get close to them.

Rumble!

They landed on the ground like meteorites. The black gas had disappeared, and they were able to see things in front of them again.

A strong bloody stench greeted them, making their flesh creep, and all they could see were blood, mutilated bodies, and pale bones. The scene was somewhat familiar to Bu Fang, like the Titan Divine Dynasty's emissary group that was wiped out not too long ago.

"Is that the Heavengod's bone?"

Summer squinted at the very center of the cave. A glittering small finger bone suspended there, surrounded by endless mysteries. There were also two drops of blood on its side.

"I can't believe the Heavengod's bone and blood are both in the same place! It seems that the information Tian Qiu got was correct..." said Summer.

She was a little puzzled, though. Tian Qiu and the three brothers were here before them, but where were they now? If they had seen the Heavengod's bone, they wouldn't have left it to hover there.

"I'm here."

Suddenly, a voice rang out and echoed in the cave. The next moment, Tian Qiu stepped slowly out of the darkness, followed by the three brothers with their heads bowed, making it impossible to see their faces clearly.

"Tian Qiu?"

Bu Fang and Summer both turned and rested their eyes on Tian Qiu. He looked the same as before and was staring at them with a warm smile.

"Is this what you are looking for? This is the real treasure hidden here, the Notes of the Heavengod." Tian Qiu said, lifting his hand. In his palm floated a broken piece of ancient parchment.

"The Notes of the Heavengod? The notes that are said to contain the divine powers of the Heavengod?" Summer froze for a moment, then she sucked in a cold breath. How could such a precious thing exist in the danger zone? It was the treasure that high-grade God Kings fought with each other for, and it could only be found in the head area. No wonder Tian Qiu took this operation so seriously and never told her the main purpose.

“Summer, do you want this treasure? You can come and get it if you want it... I can share this divine power with you.” Like a gentleman, Tian Qiu held the note in one hand and beckoned at Summer with the other.

Summer’s eyes suddenly became a little blurred, and she began to walk uncontrollably in his direction.

Tian Qiu’s eyes flickered, and his lips parted slightly. As Summer got closer and closer to him, he could even feel the aura emanating from her.

All of a sudden, a hand reached out and grabbed Summer’s shoulder, waking her with a start.

“I was charmed?! A divine sense temptation?!” cried Summer. Her eyes grew wary as she fixed them on Tian Qiu. “He’s up to no good!”

Bu Fang gave Tian Qiu an indifferent look.

Tian Qiu stared malevolently at Bu Fang and said, “You ruined my plan again...” He opened his mouth and breathed a puff of black smoke. “Well, you came at the right time, though. I happen to think this body is too weak for me. Your body will surely make me achieve the peak...”

His eyes turned completely black, and black stripes appeared on his face. Then, the corners of his mouth split, revealing a very exaggerated and horrible smile.

Rumble!

At his side, the three brothers with their heads bowed looked up sharply, their eyes filled with ferocity. It was only at this point that Bu Fang discovered that each of them had a hole in his chest, and their hearts had disappeared.

Rumble!

The brothers rushed frantically toward Bu Fang. Surrounded by black smoke, their strength actually became much stronger than before.

With a shake of her hand, Summer released her Law of Space, causing the space in front of the brothers to start stacking and collapsing.

The brothers ran at high speed like savage beasts, then leaped up high. While in midair, their bodies suddenly transformed. With a pop, the creatures hiding inside them broke out and transformed into ferocious black-armored beasts!

These beasts were the enhanced version of the beasts outside the cave, but in terms of fighting prowess, they were no less powerful than low-grade God Kings!

The three savage monsters held their bone knives and slashed down, cutting deep furrows in the ground and causing the whole cave to shake violently. Then, they rushed toward Summer at the same time, using the Laws and the techniques of the brothers against her!

Summer's hair stood on end. This was the first time she had encountered such creatures. She had no idea that they were really as terrifying as the Divine Emperor had said. If they were allowed to breed and grow, they would likely destroy the whole divine dynasty.

No wonder the Divine Emperor made such a big deal about exterminating these creatures!

“Spatial Slash!”

Summer's Power of Law erupted, and her divine sense surged. The next moment, the space in front of her cracked open and turned into a machete, which swept out forcefully and slashed a black-armored beast in half with a hiss.

The Spatial Slash was her extremely powerful means of attack and also her divine power. She wouldn't use it under normal circumstances because it carried too many stories. Of course, she couldn't care less at the moment.

Bu Fang stared at Tian Qiu with his hands clasped behind his back, while the latter was also looking at Bu Fang, his face gloomy and horrible as he walked step by step toward him, clutching the note in his hand.

“Although you’re only a Demigod, you smell so good, so attractive. Compared to this body I have now, yours is much better!” Tian Qiu said greedily.

Bu Fang was calm. He had no sympathy for these savage monsters. With a shake of his hand, he took out the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife.

“You made me the scapegoat, didn’t you? The Heavengod’s note was actually with you the whole time, which is why those Blood Beasts were attracted. You made them chase us, then purposely put the blame on me... Is it because I didn’t cook anything for you?” Bu Fang removed the velvet rope that tied his hair and said faintly.

The corners of Tian Qiu’s mouth twitched. His appearance became increasingly hideous and terrifying while a suit of armor that looked like a black bug emerged and covered his whole body.

“Well, you guessed it,” he answered. “But so what? Are you going to hit me?” As soon as he said that, his pupils constricted because he found that Bu Fang had disappeared in the distance.

When Bu Fang appeared again, he was already standing in front of Tian Qiu. The space around them trembled a little, and his Law of Space surged.

Pak!

Stone-faced, Bu Fang threw out a hand and slapped Tian Qiu across the face, sending him stumbling backward several steps.

“You...” Tian Qiu glared at him angrily.

“I’ve never heard a more punch-seeking request like yours...” Bu Fang said lightly. Then, with a shake of his hand, he took out an oyster pancake. As a strong aroma spread, he threw it toward Tian Qiu.

“You want the chef to replenish your blood, don’t you? Here, I’ll fill you up...”

Tian Qiu's pupils constricted, and his stomach began to churn at the smell of the food that filled the air. He felt that he was going to throw up the next moment.

"Huh? Are you anorexic, too? Then you're like a friend of mine. Don't worry, I'm a professional in treating anorexia," Bu Fang said in surprise.

BOOM!

Tian Qiu finally blew his top!

"Damn you, human! I'm going to rip you apart, bite your soul off inch by inch, and devour it!"

Chapter 1506: The Soul Demon

For Soul Demons, human food was an extremely disgusting thing that would make them vomit. Therefore, they had a deep aversion to the smell of human food.

Tian Qiu put away the Heavengod's note. It was a very good bait. Using it, he had attracted countless human experts along the way, from the weak to the strong, and then devoured all of them. As a result, his strength had been growing stronger and stronger.

The black bug armor made him look even more menacing. His aura fluctuated, emitting violent and frightening energy that constantly bombarded and cracked the void.

Suddenly, he swept out his palm, slicing the oyster pancake in two. However, as soon as it was sliced open, a strong fragrance spread out, lingering in his nose and mouth and causing his stomach to turn once again!

"How can it be so disgusting?!"

At this moment, Bu Fang focused his eyes, gripped the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife, and slashed it out. Thousands of knife lights burst out at once and soared up to the sky, colliding with Tian Qiu.

Rumble!

The attack did nothing to Tian Qiu, though. He remained still while his aura fluctuated more violently, almost breaking through the shackle of a mid-grade God King. His breakthrough was different from a human's breakthrough, which relied on the Power of Law.

“Die!”

Tian Qiu moved rapidly through the dark cave. His speed was simply too fast. After closing in on Bu Fang, he thrust out his claw. The void screamed and was torn apart as the sharp claw moved through it.

Bu Fang held the kitchen knife with his Taotie Arm and then jerked it up, colliding it with the claw. Sparks flew in the darkness, and a deafening rumble erupted half a second later. The force of this move was so great that Bu Fang couldn't resist, and he was knocked flying backward.

In the distance, Summer was locked in a fierce battle by the three brothers. They were already dead. However, controlled by Tian Qiu, they were constantly attacking her like savage beasts. If not for her comprehension of the Law of Space, she would have been killed instantly.

She had cut one of the beasts in half with her Spatial Slash, but its body had just wriggled for a while, and then it fully recovered. This situation caused her to feel an overwhelming sense of panic.

The vitality of these monsters was way too strong! Or rather, they were so weird, and they seemed to have no weakness at all! Although they only had the strength of low-grade God Kings, because they were not afraid of getting hurt, they managed to suppress Summer!

“Where did these creatures come from?!” Summer sucked in a cold breath.

The whole cave was shaking, and the walls were covered with cracks as if they were about to collapse at any moment. Meanwhile, the Heavengod's bone and Heavengod's blood were bobbing in midair. These things that would normally become the focus of everyone whenever they showed up were now being ignored.

Bu Fang jumped to his feet and turned to run off into the distance, shattering the ground with every step.

Tian Qiu came after him, wrapped in black armor with scales that opened and closed as if they were breathing.

“Rubbish! Now you want to run away? Where’s that arrogant attitude you had earlier?”

His face was ferocious, and he kept roaring fiercely, chasing Bu Fang at high speed. His eyes sparkled as one burst of divine sense after another shot out of him to destroy Bu Fang’s divine sense.

For Soul Demons, soul attacks were what they were best at. They were capable of imitating all human attacks, including the divine abilities that humans were most proud of. However, they could not imitate the Laws because that required comprehension. Without comprehension, they naturally could not use the Laws.

However, Tian Qiu was devoured, so this Soul Demon was able to use his Laws. This made him even stronger. He now had an immortal body as well as strong fighting prowess that was not much weaker than a high-grade God King.

Boom!

Tian Qiu threw out a punch, and the whole cave collapsed in an instant.

With three explosive sounds, the three brothers who were oppressing Summer rushed out of the ground, threw their heads back, and let out terrifying bestial roars. Their voices spread out through the night, chilling many of the fierce beasts in the relic.

Countless Blood Beasts were rushing toward them like crazy at this moment. The Heavengod’s Note, bone, blood—almost all the most precious treasures in the relic—were gathered here, which would naturally attract countless experts.

Meanwhile, because of the violent fluctuations of the battle, many experts who were exploring the danger zone also noticed the anomaly. They looked at each other, then flew toward it.

Summer looked somewhat bedraggled. She was panting hard, and her beautiful face had been wounded. Beads of glittering blood were oozing out from the wound and dripping on the ground.

It was the first time she had been pushed to this extent. As a God King who had comprehended the supreme Law of the Universe, she had been heaven's favored one from birth. Situations like this really rarely happened to her.

The three savage monsters had grown even bigger, almost covering the entire sky and looking very scary.

Summer turned her head to look at the ground that had turned into ruins. There, Bu Fang was being oppressed by the scarier Tian Qiu. She wasn't sure if he was still alive, but she knew he wouldn't be able to escape.

"Tian Qiu himself is already a mid-grade God King, and coupled with that weird power... No matter how talented Bu Fang is, it won't be possible for him to resist his attack... After all, Bu Fang is just a Demigod. How can a Demigod resist an existence who is so close to a high-grade God King?"

Boom!

The ground exploded. Bu Fang flew out of it, his face as cold as ice. When he saw the Heavengod's bone and blood, he grabbed them and put them away.

Tian Qiu was chasing after him, showering him with attacks that blew up the void. If he had not comprehended the Law of Space, he might not have been able to avoid these attacks.

Loud explosions kept ringing out as trees were breaking and falling. At the same time, one savage monster after another sped over and surrounded the battlefield. These Blood Beasts roared and hissed, stirring heaven and earth with their terrifying voices.

Not only had the Blood Beasts arrived, but even the human experts were here as well. The battle shocked many people. They couldn't believe that someone would dare to fight so violently in the relic. If the fluctuations of the battle attracted a top Blood Beast King, none of them would be able to escape!

These experts did not dare to get too close. After all, the Blood Beasts around the battlefield were too scary. Even mid-grade God Kings could only watch from a distance.

"That seems to be Princess Summer!"

“Is she under attack? What are those three things?”

“They look like the savage monsters many people are talking about recently, the ones that have the ability to imitate human power!”

In the distance, several experts watching the battle in midair gasped. The strength of the three huge monsters frightened them. What else could they say when even Summer was suppressed by them?

Rumble!

Bu Fang landed on the ground and moved at high speed through the woods. The Law of Space opened the way for him, allowing him to travel hundreds of meters with every step. That was why Tian Qiu had not been able to catch up with him.

Tian Qiu’s face became increasingly cold. Staring intently at Bu Fang, his eyes burst into a blood-colored light, and then he let out a hiss.

This was Soul Shock, a unique attack of the Soul Demon. Once hit, it could completely wipe out the soul of a Demigod. Even if he missed, the shock would still be enough to turn Bu Fang into a fool!

Like an awl, the attack kept closing in on Bu Fang. Soon, it hit him on the back of his head with a thump.

Bu Fang felt as if he had been pricked by a small stone. He turned his head suspiciously, glanced around, but saw nothing unusual. This puzzled him.

Tian Qiu’s eyes widened in disbelief. “How can he be unscathed?! Even a mid-grade God King can’t block my soul attack! Why does this chef look completely fine? Dammit!”

The next moment, the scales on his armor opened up, and jets of hot air spurted out of them, causing him to move faster. Roaring, he rushed into the distance, closing in on Bu Fang while pulling out a scaly knife, which seemed to be breathing. Without hesitation, he jerked the knife up and slashed it down viciously.

“Die!” Tian Qiu growled at the top of his lungs.

Bu Fang swept out his kitchen knife and unleashed his divine power, the Kitchen Knife of Affliction. Ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine slashes quickly joined into a single slash and collided with Tian Qiu’s attack.

RUMBLE!

He immediately felt a mighty force coming from the kitchen knife. He managed to fend off the attack, but he had barely done that with his divine power.

“I saw it! I saw it! You’re dead...” Tian Qiu’s eyes lit up as he let out a cold laugh. Then, with a shake of his hand, he slashed out his scaly knife once again. Suddenly, countless knife lights spread and turned into a colossal knife, which cut through the sky and left behind a huge gash!

Bu Fang sucked in a cold breath when he sensed the oppressive aura emanating from that knife.

Rumble!

The knife struck him, but the invincibility of the Vermilion Robe was triggered, and it blocked the blow for him. Still, he was knocked to the ground, and he had to take several steps back to stabilize himself.

Tian Qiu also landed on the ground. With bloodshot eyes, he was panting excitedly, and black smoke could be seen gushing out of his nostrils and mouth.

‘He was able to imitate my divine power?!’ Bu Fang narrowed his eyes. Tian Qiu was even stronger than the strange creature he had met in the Great Netherworld. However, he had also become stronger now. With a thought in his mind, Foxy suddenly appeared and fell onto his shoulder.

As soon as she sensed Tian Qiu’s aura, she bared her teeth, and her fur bristled.

Bu Fang raised his hand and slapped her lightly on the buttock. She spat out an Explosive Meatball, and a delicious aroma filled the air instantly.

Tian Qiu's stomach turned again. He slashed out his knife and collided it with the meatball. An explosion broke out in an instant, and he quickly looked away.

Bu Fang's eyes lit up at once. 'This seems to work! So I can use the aroma of food to suppress this kind of creature?' Nodding, he patted Foxy again and told her to continue shooting. Then, he took out a Perishing Pot and shoved it into her mouth.

Foxy's eyes went wide as the Heavengod's blood spread rapidly throughout her body. The next moment, she opened her mouth and screamed.

BOOM!

With a tremendous counterforce, the Perishing Pot shot out of Foxy's mouth and flew spinning toward Tian Qiu, glowing blindingly like the blazing sun in the night. The entire relic seemed to be lit up by the light at this moment.

Tian Qiu's face fell, and he caught a whiff of the delicious smell.

"I can't believe someone actually uses food as a weapon! Dammit! Chefs among human beings should be annihilated!"

As Tian Qiu roared, the Perishing Pot fell and exploded with a loud bang. A vast amount of explosive energy swept through the battlefield, completely engulfing him.

Chapter 1507: The Sea of Laws Reappears

The air was filled with a rich aroma of food, but to Tian Qiu, it was the ultimate stench, which was so foul that the scales of his armor didn't dare to open up and breathe.

Rumble!

The terrible explosion swept across the battlefield, causing all those watching the battle nearby to suck in cold breaths.

This was the Perishing Pot, Bu Fang's most powerful attack. After being buffed by Foxy, it exploded with power several times greater than the original version. In just a split second, the destructive energy completely engulfed Tian Qiu.

In fact, Bu Fang wasn't sure if the Perishing Pot was powerful enough to kill Tian Qiu. Under normal circumstances, this should not be possible.

Rumble!

Soon, the dreadful destructive energy turned into a blazing hemisphere, which was growing larger and larger, breaking and falling the surrounding trees and burning them down to ashes.

In the sky, Summer turned around gracefully. As the Law of Space emerged above her head, she pointed out a finger, piercing the head of one of the monsters. The head exploded with a pop. However, the monster wasn't dead yet, and the mangled head was slowly recovering.

The surrounding experts landed on the ground and watched the battle intently.

All of a sudden, the three monsters' steps became a little unsteady in midair. Summer was somewhat confused. At this moment, she felt the pressure that enveloped her weakened a little. It was a strange feeling.

'Why has the pressure become weaker? Under normal circumstances, it should be getting stronger and stronger, right?'

Blergh!

As Summer watched, the three monsters fell to their knees, opened their mouths, and began to retch. Their eyes were wide open as if they were being tortured.

'What's going on here?' She was confused.

With a whistle, Bu Fang flew over and hovered at Summer's side. Narrowing his eyes, he flicked his fingers. The Divine flame darted out immediately, burrowed into the heads of the three monsters, and began to burn ragingly.

Under the burning of the Divine flame, the bodies of the three monsters soon twisted and exploded. The flame was able to kill these Soul Demons because it contained so many Laws that its damage far exceeded their ability to repair themselves.

The three monsters were truly dead this time, breaking into pieces of flesh and scattering all over the ground.

The blinding light finally faded away, and so did the food aroma. Tian Qiu looked very miserable, with his scales all tattered and torn. At this moment, he was lying on the ground vomiting, as if he was going to throw up everything in his stomach.

“You...” Hovering by Bu Fang’s side, Summer looked at him in wonder and asked, “How did you do that?”

She couldn’t understand why Tian Qiu was lying on the ground vomiting and no longer attacking Bu Fang.

“To these creatures, delicious human food stinks. They will feel really sick and want to throw up just by smelling it,” Bu Fang explained. “We just have to attack them while they’re vomiting. I thought I could suffocate them, but it seems my food doesn’t smell good enough...” He felt a little disappointed at that.

“Roar!”

The surrounding Blood Beasts roared, pouncing madly toward Tian Qiu to bite him to death. However, as they approached him, he jerked his head up, and his gaze was as fierce as if he were a real savage monster. With a flip of his hand, he slashed out his knife. Countless knife lights rushed forward and cut all these beasts in half.

Tian Qiu rolled over and stood up. He would not let Bu Fang go easily. If he did not kill this chef, who had made him feel so sick, he could not vent the anger in him.

However, because he had the Heavengod’s Note, the Blood Beasts still kept coming at him, holding him back and making it difficult for him to move on. Glancing at the beasts around him, his eyes turned icy cold. He licked his lips, and then he released his ferocious aura, causing the Blood Beasts that were pouring toward him to halt in place.

Meanwhile, the eyes of the surrounding experts lit up. To them, it was unusual that these Blood Beasts would be attracted to Tian Qiu, unless he possessed a large piece of Heavengod's bone or a dozen drops of Heavengod's blood. Otherwise, the ordinary Blood Beast would not be so crazy at all.

Foxy was lying on Bu Fang's shoulder, her tails wagging. Like a shooting star, Bu Fang streaked across the air and landed on the ground. Much to his and Summer's relief, Tian Qiu did not catch up.

It was unlikely that Bu Fang would be able to kill Tian Qiu unless he used the God of Cooking's liquid drop. After all, that guy's strength was already infinitely close to that of a high-grade God King.

Although the Perishing Pot was powerful, Bu Fang could only rely on its fragrance to disgust Tian Qiu. As for blowing him up, it was basically impossible...unless Bu Fang could make another breakthrough.

Roar!

One Blood Beast after another jumped on Tian Qiu, drowning him completely. Meanwhile, the eyes of some experts lit up. The strange behavior of these Blood Beasts told them that there was definitely something good on Tian Qiu. Since there was something good, they were naturally a little tempted.

Suddenly, a towering plume of black smoke burst out with a rumble, and in just the blink of an eye, all the Blood Beasts that pounced on Tian Qiu were killed by him.

His body was surging with a menacing aura, and the scales on his armor were rising and falling as if they were panting for breath. After finding no trace of Bu Fang, Tian Qiu locked his bloodshot gaze on the experts around him.

"Did you all... enjoy the show?"

As soon as he said that, he turned into a stream of light and rushed toward these experts. A brutal slaughter took place immediately.

...

Summer took Bu Fang flying at high speed, constantly using the Law of Space to fold the void. In just a flash, they had traveled tens of thousands of miles. When they landed again, her face was somewhat pale. Using this kind of technique to flee was a great burden even for her.

Looking at her pale face, Bu Fang shook his hand, produced an oyster pancake, and handed it to her.

Summer, of course, would not refuse that. Eyes lighting up, she grabbed the oyster pancake, stuffed it into her mouth, and enjoyed it happily.

They were still in the middle of a dense forest with tall trees all around. Bu Fang found a random spot and sat down. The lush trees and the canopy-like leaves shaded everything.

“We are now considered to have entered the head area... It’s very dangerous here. Even high-grade God Kings may die here,” Summer said as she ate the oyster pancake. Despite what she said, she did not look alert at all. It was as though she was not in a dangerous place.

With a thought in his mind, a glittering Heavengod’s finger bone appeared in Bu Fang’s hand. It was not very big, but it seemed to possess supreme power. And it was constantly attracting his spirit as if it was going to make him sink deep into it.

“Ugh... The Heavengod’s bone? You actually acquired it?”

The moment the bone appeared, it stood out like a fire in the darkness.

Summer was amazed. She had not thought that Bu Fang would be able to get this finger bone during his fight with Tian Qiu.

Looking at the finger bone suspended over his palm, Bu Fang sent his mind into it. Suddenly, his eyes became focused, as he saw the bone burst into a thousand rays and dart toward his Taotie Arm. It then stuck in the palm and melted into it, like snow melting under the sun.

Both Summer and Bu Fang were shocked by the scene.

Bu Fang felt the Heavengod's bone melt slowly into his Taotie Arm, giving it incredible strength. It was a very strange feeling. Although his cultivation base had not increased, he felt that any punch he casually threw out now would be far more powerful than before.

The power of the Heavengod's bone seemed to have been absorbed by him.

After watching this strange scene unfolded, Summer's expression changed drastically. She hurriedly sent out waves of space-folding power, which spread out and enveloped the surroundings, isolating Bu Fang from everything around him.

"This is the head area! How could he be so careless as to take out the Heavengod's bone? It will be a nightmare if a top Blood Beast King is attracted!" Summer murmured in a low voice. She didn't know if it was already too late to cover everything up now. She only hoped that those Blood Beasts' sense of smell was not that good.

With a buzzing sound, a round drop of blood appeared in Bu Fang's palm. It was the Heavengod's blood, a treasure equally powerful as the bone and madly desired by God Kings.

Summer was stunned. It turned out that Bu Fang had not only brought out the Heavengod's bone, he had also taken the Heavengod's blood. So it seemed that their trip was quite fruitful. They had gotten all the precious treasures except the Heavengod's Note in Tian Qiu's hand.

Bu Fang flicked his finger, and the drop of Heavengod's blood flew toward Summer. She raised her hand, caught the drop of blood, and gave him a deep look. Then, both of them closed their eyes at the same time and enveloped the blood with their divine sense. The Heavengod's blood immediately flew into their mouths.

BOOM!

Invisible waves of air spread in all directions, surging violently, while Wheels of Law appeared above their heads, which seemed to be wrapped in blood.

Bu Fang calmed his mind. As the blood entered his stomach, it seemed as if it was about to begin cleansing his body and replacing his blood. However, a supreme power suppressed it, making it fail to change his blood.

Drawn by the Heavengod's blood, Bu Fang's mind slid down to the bottom as if it was riding on a roller coaster. He heard a loud bang as if everything had exploded, and then he rushed into a sea of misty stars.

He opened his eyes. When he saw where he was, he took a deep breath.

"This is... the Sea of Laws?!"

...

Ka... Ka... Ka...

The shield covering Bu Fang and Summer had burst, and the aura of the Heavengod's bone and blood immediately attracted the attention of fearsome Blood Beasts and experts nearby. Soon, some experts flew over at high speed while Blood Beasts began to wheel in the sky.

Suddenly, a sonorous phoenix cry rang through the entire relic. A blood-colored phoenix flapped its wings and flew in Bu Fang's direction. There was a fire burning in its eyes, and its scary aura was spreading like a storm in every direction.

Summer, sitting cross-legged on the ground, opened her eyes in excitement. The power of the Heavengod's blood had been completely absorbed by her. She felt that her strength had increased by a great deal, and she had comprehended a hundred more Laws in an instant, making her cultivation base infinitely close to that of a high-grade God King!

The single drop of Heavengod's blood was worth hundreds of years of cultivation, and it didn't have any side effects. The blood of Heavengods was the essence accumulated after their fall and could help improve one's cultivation base and transform one's body. That was why countless people wanted it. Summer didn't expect that she would become such a lucky person.

However, when she sensed the terrifying aura around her, her expression changed dramatically.

"The Dark Blood Phoenix! That's a top Blood Beast King who is as strong as a high-grade God King!" Summer gasped with panic in her eyes. Even with her strength now, she might not be able to fight a high-grade God King. She did not expect that they would be targeted by a top Blood Beast King.

Not only this Dark Blood Phoenix, but they were also targeted by several hidden auras around them. Without a doubt, there were several other Blood Beast Kings eyeing them in the surrounding void.

The Heavengod's bone and blood in Bu Fang had attracted too many Blood Beast Kings.

Both of them had escaped Tian Qiu's pursuit, but they were about to die in the mouths of these Blood Beast Kings. Summer's face became very pale and bloodless.

Chapter 1508: Comprehend the Third Supreme Law of the Universe

This was a real phoenix. Black flames burned around her, turning her path into a sea of fire, while a terrible aura constantly emanated from her body as if to turn into a raging storm.

Summer was trembling all over. To her, the pressure of facing a top Blood Beast King was enormous. With her current strength, it was already very hard to fight a high-grade God King, let alone an existence such as this.

The Dark Blood Phoenix's feathers were as red as blood, and the crown on top of her head was twisting and swaying like a flame. Every time she flapped her wings, she would cause the void to tremble. Her eyes looked like precious stones, blooming with radiant light. She just looked at Bu Fang and Summer, and a terrifying pressure immediately descended upon them.

There were also many different auras in the surrounding void. No doubt other Blood Beast Kings had descended. However, they did not get too close, perhaps because they were afraid of the Dark Blood Phoenix. After all, the pressure she brought was too great.

Rumble!

The void trembled as vague figures suddenly appeared in the distance. These were the high-grade God Kings who stayed at the head area of the ancient Heavengod's relic. Hidden in the void, they looked at Summer. They wanted to save her, but the area around her had already turned into a playground of the Blood Beast Kings.

Summer looked in their direction with a pale face.

Eventually, those high-grade God Kings retracted their aura and then left the place one after another. It was obvious that they chose to give up on Summer and Bu Fang. They weren't stupid. It was completely not worth it to provoke a group of Blood Beast Kings for the sake of a mid-grade God King and a Demigod.

The departure of these experts despaired Summer further.

The Dark Blood Phoenix opened her mouth and let out a sonorous cry that resounded through the clouds. After hearing her voice, the other Blood Beast Kings left one after another.

The goal of these Blood Beast Kings was to get the Heavengod's bone and blood. Of course, competition existed between them. But now that the Dark Blood Phoenix was here, they could only leave helplessly.

This kind of Heavengod's bone and blood that fell from the sky made these Blood Beast Kings jealous because they could get it without any effort. Usually, other bones and blood in the relic were acquired through deadly battles and slaughter.

The Dark Blood Phoenix seemed to be smirking in triumph. She flapped her wings, isolating this part of the world, then kept closing in on Summer and Bu Fang. She wanted to devour Bu Fang to obtain the Heavengod's bone and blood inside him.

Summer was so frightened that her whole body was shaking, but she stood up anyway. The Power of Law surged around her, and the Law of Space spread out and surrounded her. She bent forward slightly and then catapulted herself forward.

She did not hesitate to launch an attack. Even though she was facing a Blood Beast King, she still wanted to put up a fight. She did not want to die here without doing anything!

Inside the Dark Blood Phoenix was the Law of Darkness. She opened her mouth and let out a cry, which was accompanied by a jet of black flame. The incredibly powerful flame almost twisted Summer's Law of Space. Immediately, a violent collision erupted in midair, causing a deafening rumble to keep ringing out.

Summer stood straight like a spear on the ground and kept flinging streams of Law into the sky, but all her attacks were losing ground in the face of the blazing flames.

When the Dark Blood Phoenix saw the weak human God King trying to resist her, a look of disdain appeared on her face.

Although she was not a pure-blood phoenix, she was not weak at all. Even in the Phoenix Nest, she was considered to be a top existence. Combined with the fact that she was imbued with the aura of the Heavengod because she had lived in the relic for a long time, she was far more powerful than the average phoenix in the Phoenix Nest.

Boom!

Summer's face became very pale. Her Law of Space was blown off, and the impact was so great that she was pushed back. As she staggered backward, she opened her mouth and coughed blood, and her aura was significantly weakened.

Even though she had comprehended the supreme Law of the Universe, she was still at a disadvantage in the confrontation of Laws. A Blood Beast King who was at the high-grade God King level was just too strong. They were not only physically strong, but their Laws were incredibly mighty as well!

“Am I really going to die here?”

Summer's eyes flashed with unwillingness. She glanced over her shoulder at Bu Fang, who was sitting cross-legged in the distance. When she saw that he was still calmly cultivating, she did not know whether to laugh or cry.

“He probably doesn't know he's going to die.”

At this moment, Bu Fang's mind was in a magical place. He had come to the Sea of Laws, where he had comprehended his supreme Laws of the Universe. He was even beginning to become very familiar with this place.

However, what he could not understand was why he was here. He did not eat the Fruit of Law. Could it be that the Heavengod's blood also had a similar effect? He frowned slightly.

Walking in the Sea of Laws and surrounded by the Origin Laws that floated around him like stars, Bu Fang could feel their friendliness toward him. It was a wonderful feeling.

Following the path he remembered, he went all the way to the depths of the Sea of Laws. Five Origin Laws were floating here, which glowed so bright that, when compared with those Origin Laws outside, the difference between them was like between a star and the moon.

Bu Fang was in a familiar place again. Before this, he had comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe, which were the Law of Transmigration and the Law of Space. What Law could he comprehend this time? His heart was suddenly filled with anticipation.

Suddenly, Bu Fang noticed that everything in front of him was beginning to get a little blurry. That took him by surprise. It seemed that the effect of the Heavengod's blood was not as good as the Fruit of Law, so he could not stay in here for too long. He knew he had to make a quick decision and choose a Law as soon as possible.

However, since he had already comprehended two supreme Laws, it became more difficult for him to gain the recognition of the other supreme Laws. This could be seen from the fact that those Origin Laws were just floating ahead and without the same enthusiasm as before.

No wonder it was so difficult to comprehend more supreme Laws.

Bu Fang released his divine sense and mixed it with the aura of the God of Cooking's Menu. As soon as the aura appeared, those Origin Laws immediately swarmed toward him. The corners of his mouth twitched slightly.

With a boom, everything in front of him became even more blurred, and then they completely shattered. As for which Origin Law's approval he had gained, Bu Fang was not sure.

...

Bu Fang slowly opened his eyes. A golden Wheel of Law appeared above his head.

"Oh?" Summer, who was already close to giving up, froze for a moment.

Even the approaching Dark Blood Phoenix stopped, feeling a little puzzled.

The next moment, the sky over the relic suddenly changed. Dark clouds began to roll in from all directions, and among them, purple thunder was stirring violently. At the same time, a huge Wheel of Law appeared in midair, tearing the void apart and causing countless thunderbolts to explode!

Bu Fang breathed out a puff of turbid air. He could feel a mighty power rising inside him. How strong was he after he had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe? He did not know. Maybe Lord Dog would know.

Suddenly, a purple thunderbolt crashed down. It was a lightning punishment from the depths of the Chaotic Universe, which crossed the boundaries of countless realms and came striking down violently, causing the void to burst continuously.

Summer was horrified. "What's going on? Why is there a lightning punishment all of a sudden?"

The Dark Blood Phoenix, on the other hand, was so frightened by the lightning punishment that she quickly flew backward. This kind of lightning punishment worked on the divine sense, so it was a great terror to the Blood Beast Kings!

Slowly, Bu Fang got up from the ground. The aura around him seemed to be on the verge of boiling over. The feeling of being in control of great power was very wonderful. However, no matter how his power boiled, his aura remained at the level of a Demigod and did not break through to the level of a God.

The purple thunderbolts smashed down. Bu Fang raised his Taotie Arm and threw out a punch. Vaguely, a Taotie emerged in front of him and let out an earth-shattering beastly roar into the sky, causing the void to burst open and swallow the thunderbolts.

Bu Fang's aura fluctuated, and the look in his eyes grew deeper. At the same time, purple thunderbolts splashed all around him, blasting holes in the ground. Summer hurriedly dodged them as she looked at him with astonishment and uncertainty.

It was a long time before the thunder in the sky was completely gone, and Bu Fang's aura was gradually stabilized. He lifted his head and saw Summer. The mixed expression on her face made him slightly twitch the corner of his mouth.

In the distance, the Dark Blood Phoenix let out a cry, and her terrible Blood Beast King aura spread in an instant.

“Oh? What a big bird,” Bu Fang said.

Summer finally collected her wits. When she heard Bu Fang’s words, her expression changed at once. “This is a top Blood Beast King...”

“A Blood Beast King?” Bu Fang narrowed his eyes. The next moment, his stomach gave a rumbling sound. Touching it, he lifted his head, stared at the huge Dark Blood Phoenix in the sky, and grinned.

“I’m a little hungry. I wonder if this... bird is qualified as an ingredient. I really want to taste a Blood Beast King...”

As soon as Bu Fang’s words came out, Summer’s hair stood on end.

‘Is he mad? This is a Blood Beast King as strong as a high-grade God King! He actually wants to eat her? Whether we could survive her attack is still a question, and yet he’s thinking about eating... Could it be that eating the Heavengod’s blood would make one retarded?’

Summer was very anxious. Her figure flickered, and then she appeared beside Bu Fang in a flash—she was going to tear the void and take him away. She had just made a breakthrough, so she thought she could give it a try. She just did not know how fast this Dark Blood Phoenix was.

However, she soon despaired as the phoenix attacked.

One after another, striped black-and-red feathers shot down like arrows, completely blocking the surrounding void and making it impossible for her Law of Space to tear it. In desperation, she raised her hands and slapped them in the air continuously, causing the void to tremble. Soon, the Law of Space formed a barrier in front of them, blocking those phoenix feathers.

However, after the first wave of attacks, the phoenix feathers suddenly exploded, shattering the Law of Space! Summer turned pale once again, and blood oozed from the corners of her mouth.

Boom!

One phoenix feather after another shot toward them. As the feathers kept growing larger and larger in her pupils, Summer despaired. 'I'm really going to die...'

"Let me think... What shall I cook? Well, since it's a big, fat bird, I'll just cook a... beggar's phoenix!"

Just when Summer was despairing, from her side came the sound of swallowing.

Bu Fang was hungry like never before. At this moment, all that remained in his eyes was the huge Dark Blood Phoenix. With a rumble, he unleashed his aura. Three golden Wheels of Law emerged above his head, spinning and exploding with a mighty aura!

Bu Fang's aura was rising rapidly, and when it reached its peak, even Summer felt a sense of terror...

'This...' Her pupils constricted as she stared at Bu Fang, and she felt her flesh creep as she sensed the overwhelming aura that emanated from him.

Three golden Wheels of Law... What did that mean? It meant that Bu Fang had just comprehended his third supreme Law of the Universe!

Summer was stunned and confused. They ate the Heavengod's blood at the same time, but why did the benefits they got differ so much?!

Chapter 1509: Is He Really Going to Make a Dish Out of This Phoenix?

Three supreme Laws of the Universe...

A Demigod?

Summer looked at Bu Fang in a daze. She was dumbfounded and did not know what to say when she saw the three golden wheels floating above his head.

A Demigod who comprehended one supreme Law of the Universe could already be called a rare genius. However, Bu Fang had comprehended three. His achievement was even more genius than the rare geniuses, putting them to shame.

Even the Crown Prince had only comprehended two supreme Laws, and that had made him known as the top genius with the best chance of becoming a Heavengod.

So, did this mean that Bu Fang was sure to become a Heavengod? It was very likely the case. As long as he was allowed to grow up, the Heavengod realm might not even be the end for him. The reason was simple: no Heavengod had ever comprehended three supreme Laws at the Demigod realm.

Bu Fang simply broke the norm of the Chaotic Universe!

The three golden Wheels of Law rotated and whipped up a gust of wind, blowing at Bu Fang's hair. Phoenix feathers kept falling from the sky, poking into the ground like steel needles and leaving countless holes. However, they were all pushed away by an invisible force, unable to get close to Bu Fang.

He reached up and grabbed one of the feathers, which was still burning with flames. Looking at it indifferently, Bu Fang slightly twitched the corner of his mouth. Then, he stuck out his tongue and licked his lips. A silver flame appeared, turned into a blazing fire, and burned off the feather.

Suddenly, his Vermilion Robe blazed with fire, and a pair of flaming wings unfolded on his back. With a shrill bird cry, he shot up into the sky, jumping through the air at high speed.

The Dark Blood Phoenix was shocked. She did not expect that a mere human Demigod could withstand her fiery feathers. At the same time, her eyes lit up. What Summer could feel, she could naturally feel as well.

The aura of the three supreme Laws of the Universe emanating from Bu Fang filled her with desire, and the mere thought that the Heavengod's blood in him had fused with these Laws made her shiver with excitement.

She knew that as long as she ate this human, her strength would be able to go to a higher level! And after devouring the three supreme Laws, she might even be able to break through to the Blood Beast Emperor realm!

The Dark Blood Phoenix opened her mouth and let out a sonorous cry as her aura became even more exuberant.

With a cold look, Bu Fang jumped step by step toward the Blood Phoenix in midair.

Summer, recovering from her shock, was taken aback.

“Don’t...”

Even if Bu Fang had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe, he was still only a Demigod. How could he possibly have the ability to fight against an existence who was as mighty as a high-grade God King? The gap between them was simply too great. In doing so, he was courting death—no, he was giving away his talent to his opponent!

Summer’s face was pale. She was clutching her chest with one hand, and blood was running down from the corners of her mouth. She wanted to save Bu Fang, but she was too weak to do that.

Bu Fang soared into the air and appeared before the Dark Blood Phoenix, his indifferent gaze meeting with her proud glance.

“I’m calling you a beggar’s phoenix... Do you dare disagree with me?” Bu Fang said.

The Blood Phoenix roared furiously. A fine thread suddenly shot out of her mouth, piercing through the void like an arrow. Because the distance between them was very close, as soon as the thread appeared, it almost hit Bu Fang in the face.

Bu Fang slightly moved his upper body to the side, raised his hand, and caught the thread between two fingers. It turned out to be a tiny phoenix bone, which looked like glass and appeared to be something very precious.

A luminous light surged on his Taotie Arm, which was the power of the Heavengod’s bone. Then, he squeezed his fingers together and crushed the phoenix bone.

With the three golden wheels of the supreme Laws on his head, Bu Fang's aura rose steadily. He sprang to his feet, turned in the air, landed behind the Blood Phoenix, and grabbed her slender neck!

"The first step in cooking the beggar's phoenix is... to remove the feathers!" Bu Fang said indifferently.

As the Taotie Arm glowed, he reached out his palm, grabbed a handful of phoenix feathers, and pulled them off with great force! For a moment, the entire sky was filled with falling feathers...

Some of the Blood Beast Kings watching from a distance widened their eyes in disbelief. The Dark Blood Phoenix was actually being suppressed and beaten by a human? How was that even possible? Her strength was considered fearsome even among the Blood Beast Kings!

Summer was in a daze. She couldn't believe that not only was Bu Fang not killed in seconds, but he even started plucking the Dark Blood Phoenix's feathers!

'This is a Blood Phoenix! All phoenix feathers are very precious and rare material, and each one is worth more than a thousand gold!'

A thought suddenly struck her. She quickly reached out her hand and gently slapped the air, pulling those falling phoenix feathers toward her. Then, she put them all into her storage bag.

'Such a good thing can't go to waste... Even the queen's robes are made of phoenix feathers, and this shows how precious they are...'

The Dark Blood Phoenix flew into a rage, and her jewel-like eyes blazed with menace. 'How dare this damned human... this human being I regarded as food, pluck my noble feathers?! This is unforgivable!'

She bent her long neck and let out a deafening cry. The next moment, she flapped her wings and soared through the clouds into the sky. A strong wind immediately blew toward them, messing Bu Fang's hair.

At this moment, all the people in the area saw the battle. The God Kings who had left were all paying attention again. They did not expect that Bu Fang, who should have been dead, was still holding on. This was really incredible.

What surprised them even more was that Bu Fang was clearly only a Demigod, yet he was able to fight against a high-grade God King! The realms he had crossed were just way too many.

Gifted geniuses like the Crown Prince were able to fight someone at the higher realms with the strength of a Demigod. For example, they could fight low-grade God Kings or even mid-grade God Kings, and that was as far as they could go. However, Bu Fang had gone way beyond the norm—he was actually fighting against a top-grade God King!

The Blood Phoenix's aura grew more and more terrifying. Bursting with fury from the pain and humiliation of having her feathers plucked, her energy fluctuated, and her wings flapped violently, throwing Bu Fang off her back.

Bu Fang tumbled in the air with a growl coming from his stomach. Soon, he was standing in midair and walking forward step by step. As the Laws of Space and Transmigration swirled around him, the last golden wheel above his head cast a ray of light that enveloped his fist.

He felt as if a tremendous force was gathering on his Taotie Arm, and the Taotie souls inside were on the verge of exploding because they could not take it. Even then, a destructive aura spread from him and filled the sky, so powerful that the void seemed about to explode.

The Law of Destruction, this was the supreme Law of the Universe Bu Fang had just comprehended! It was relatively common, but the fact that he was able to comprehend it when he had already comprehended two supreme Laws was proof of his divine luck!

Buzz...

The power of the Law of Destruction, the Law of Transmigration, and the Law of Space transformed into three gray streams and burrowed into his Taotie Arm. He felt as if his whole arm was about to burst.

Bu Fang frowned. Suddenly, the true-form of the divine sense in his spirit sea opened its eyes and sent out a surge of divine sense. Led by it, the three gray streams flowed down the Taotie Arm and into his palm, and finally into his thumb. There, his finger bone was glowing. That was where the Heavengod's bone was located, and it could withstand the power of the three Laws.

He immediately felt a mighty force was about to spurt from his thumb. Hovering in midair, he pressed the thumb toward the huge Dark Blood Phoenix without hesitation!

The Blood Phoenix's jewel-like eyes focused...

"The thumbs-up of Law... Ugh, the Taotie Finger of Law!" Bu Fang cried out.

The moment his voice rang out, a supreme aura exploded out from the golden wheels above his head, spreading for tens of thousands of miles and attracting the attention of countless experts.

Flapping her wings, the Dark Blood Phoenix turned the black flames around her into a large wheel and wrapped herself inside. That was the supreme aura of a high-grade God King. Then, she rushed toward the thumb that Bu Fang had pressed down on her.

As the crowd watched intently, a thumb and a fiery wheel collided violently in the sky.

BOOM!

A terrible rumble swept out in all directions.

On the ground, Summer's injuries became more serious. She hastily used the Law of Space to create a shield, blocking the powerful energy impact. Meanwhile, the Blood Beast Kings in the surroundings were frightened, and some of the God Kings who were watching the battle also gasped in horror.

All of a sudden, a figure fell from the sky and smashed hard into the ground. Countless trees turned into ashes in an instant, and a huge deep pit was created, filled with the terrifying energy of the collision!

The thumb in the sky slowly faded away.

In the pit, the Blood Phoenix's head was smashed and blown apart. The thumb had blown her head off! Summer was utterly stunned. Even the surrounding God Kings could not believe what they saw.

This was the Dark Blood Phoenix, one of the top ten Blood Beast Kings in the ancient Heavengod's relic! In the entire relic, there were no more than five God Kings who could defeat her. But... a Demigod was able to beat her down to the ground?

However, a Blood Beast King might not die even with the head blown off, so it was too early to say that Bu Fang had killed the Blood Phoenix. But one thing for sure was that he had completely angered her!

Sure enough, flames began to spurt out of the pit. The next moment, the Blood Phoenix rose to the sky. She was reborn in the fire. In just a flash, her head was completely restored, and her sharp, jewel-like eyes were bursting with bright light.

Bu Fang stood in midair. The intense hunger coming from his stomach made him feel irritable and furious. Meanwhile, the power of the Law of Destruction was boiling, and his Taotie Arm grew even more terrifying. He moved across the air, his aura fluctuating, took out the Black Turtle Constellation Wok, and smashed it toward the Blood Phoenix over and over again.

The scene shocked everyone.

With a bang, the Black Turtle Constellation Wok turned into a colossal black wok and smashed violently on the ground, causing countless soil to rise to the sky. Bu Fang then threw out a palm with his backhand. Immediately, a river appeared, its rushing water pouring onto those soil and turning them into a massive lump of clay.

He put away the Black Turtle Constellation Wok, and with a shake of his hand, he took out the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife. A dragon roar immediately resounded through the skies. Focusing his eyes, he unleashed the Law of Space, jumped rapidly through the air, and slashed out the knife. In just the blink of an eye, the Blood Phoenix's tail disappeared.

Once again, the three golden wheels fell and gathered in his thumb. He pressed it on the Blood Phoenix's head and pushed her to the ground. Then, no matter how hard she struggled, he plucked off her feathers one by one.

When he was done, the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife rose to the sky and then chopped down, cutting a large gash in the phoenix's neck. A stream of blood immediately poured out of it, flowing like a river!

Standing at a distance and watching all of Bu Fang's movements, Summer was utterly struck dumb.

‘Plucking feathers, bleeding, opening the belly, mixing mud... He’s really going to treat the Blood Phoenix like an ingredient! Where did this guy get his confidence?! This is a top Blood Beast King! I can’t believe he actually wanted to eat a Blood Beast King! Crazy! He’s really a complete lunatic!’

Both Summer and the surrounding God Kings thought Bu Fang was crazy. No one thought he would succeed. The Blood Phoenix would eventually show him the power of a true top Blood Beast King!

Some of the high-grade God Kings released their aura and prepared to save Bu Fang. After all, he was a genius who had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe, so they could not let him die under the claws of the Blood Phoenix.

“Hmm? Wait...”

The God Kings suddenly froze for a moment. They were stunned by Bu Fang’s movements in the distance.

The soil added with water was mixed into soft mud. Bu Fang kept hitting them with his wok, sending one lump after another down from the sky and smashing the Blood Phoenix to the ground.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

One after another, the lumps of soft mud fell, and soon, the huge Blood Phoenix was completely wrapped into a huge ball of mud.

At this moment, everyone was horrified, and the corners of Summer’s mouth were twitching violently.

‘Dammit... Is this guy for real?! He really wants to make a dish out of the Blood Phoenix?!’

Chapter 1510: The Beggar’s Phoenix Is... Ready!

A sad and shrill phoenix cry echoed through the skies, sounding unusually eerie in the darkness of the night. After being covered with water-soaked mud, the black flames were completely extinguished.

The surrounding experts all looked shocked. They were the top experts of the divine dynasty, each possessing mighty abilities. None of them was weak, and the weakest among them were elite mid-grade God Kings who could fight high-grade God Kings.

However, even they did not expect that such a freakishly gifted genius would exist in this world, one who was able to suppress a top Blood Beast King with the strength of a Demigod. Moreover, judging by the way he acted, he seemed to want to make a dish out of the Dark Blood Phoenix...

The phoenix was a very beautiful creature. Even the Blood Phoenix was exhibiting an unusual beauty, with her blood-colored feathers always neatly combed. However, she looked very miserable now. All her feathers were plucked, and mud mixed with water was being constantly slapped onto her body, making her look naked and dirty.

As blood continued to gurgle from the gash on her neck, her aura grew weaker and weaker. As one of the top experts in this relic, this was the first time she felt fear. She felt that she was probably going to die soon...

The Blood Phoenix opened her mouth and spewed out a jet of black flame, wanting to burn everything. The moisture in the mud around her began to evaporate.

In midair, Bu Fang rubbed his stomach with one hand and kept repeating a slapping motion with the other, throwing mud at the Blood Phoenix. His stomach was growling, and it was a somewhat uncomfortable feeling. He had never felt so hungry before.

As a chef, he kept himself full at all times because he thought it was shameful for a chef to starve himself. But this time, he was so hungry that he could not control himself. Why was he so hungry? Bu Fang was also puzzled. Was it because he had comprehended a supreme Law of the Universe?

But it shouldn't be. He had eaten two Fruits of Law and had comprehended two supreme Laws before, but he had never felt such hunger.

Could it be because of the fusion of the Heavengod's bone and blood? That was possible. After all, his body was only at the level of a Demigod, and fusing the bone and blood was a huge drain on his physical strength. This was probably the main cause of his hunger.

Since he was hungry, he should eat!

At this moment, the Blood Phoenix seemed to have turned into a steaming beggar's phoenix in his eyes.

“Oh? You still want to struggle?”

Looking at the black flames that kept spewing out of the phoenix's mouth, Bu Fang stuck out his tongue, licked his lips, and then the corners of his mouth curved up slightly, revealing a gentle smile.

A phoenix could rise from the ashes and be reborn. Perhaps this Blood Phoenix was trying to do just that. However, no matter what she did, she could never change the nature of her being a food ingredient in front of a chef.

Bu Fang raised his hand. A silver flame immediately emerged in his palm, emitting a scorching heat. Mighty Power of Law swirled and surged over it, while scary fluctuations spread out of it to distort the nearby void. With a shake of the hand, the silver flame turned into a tiny sparrow, flapping its wings and flying toward the Blood Phoenix below.

The Blood Phoenix's pupils constricted. She felt her flames shrink back abruptly. She had wanted to be reborn from the fire, but the flames had now retreated into her body. What happened? She was a little frightened and did not know what to do.

The next moment, she saw a silver sparrow fly slowly toward her and then land on top of her head...

Boom!

The Blood Phoenix's shrill cry rang out immediately as her whole body was completely enveloped in silver flames. At the same time, Runes of Law were constantly emerging and circulating between heaven and earth.

In the sky, Bu Fang's eyes lit up.

“Now!”

Like a cannonball, he smashed down on the ground and slapped out his palm. A large amount of mud immediately shot up into the sky and turned into a huge mud ball, completely wrapping the Blood Phoenix.

The water in the mud ball evaporated instantly, and some of the mud even turned red hot from being scorched.

In the beginning, the Blood Phoenix was struggling violently, but as time went by, her struggle became more and more feeble.

Summer covered her mouth in disbelief, and her head was left with nothing but shock. ‘What the hell am I seeing?!’ Looking at the Blood Phoenix that was being wrapped in a mud ball, she felt that she could no longer think properly.

‘That’s a top Blood Beast King!’

Even the high-grade God Kings in the distance were wearing odd expressions on their faces and did not know what to say. They could not believe that the Dark Blood Phoenix, who was a top existence among Blood Beast Kings and had terrified countless God Kings in the relic with her almost invincible strength, was being made into a dish!

Suddenly, the sky exploded with a bang as the Blood Beast Kings who were hiding nearby all rushed over. They wanted to save the Blood Phoenix. The fall of a top Blood Beast King had a huge impact on the situation in the relic, so they naturally could not just watch as she was being cooked.

Bu Fang looked up, stuck out his tongue, and licked his lips. “So many ingredients...” he murmured in a low voice while controlling the fire.

His stomach gave a deafening rumble that sounded like thunder. Hunger had driven him mad. At this moment, the Blood Beast Kings flying toward him in the sky all looked like delicious meals in his eyes. He saw a flying roasted duck, a running roasted suckling pig, and a bowl of steaming tiger meat soup...

“Haha!”

“It’s rare that such a genius is born in our divine dynasty. Scram now, you foul beasts!”

A burst of laughter suddenly came from all around.

“I really want to taste the flesh of the Blood Phoenix! Haha!”

With a ripping sound, the void in the sky was suddenly torn open. Accompanied by terrifying auras, one high-grade God King after another came walking out from it. Each of them was holding a different weapon; some held a halberd, some a spear, some a sword, and some a knife.

Standing in midair, these God Kings with heaven-shattering aura blocked in front of those Blood Beast Kings.

A battle broke out in an instant. The Blood Beast Kings and the God Kings dragged each other into a fierce fight. Their Power of Law clashed with each other, and their divine power and beast blood were boiling at the same time.

Because of the numerical advantage and the fact that the Blood Beast Kings were all a bit depressed because the Blood Phoenix was killed, the final victor of the battle was the human God Kings.

The Blood Beast Kings fled into the void. To them, the loss of a top Blood Beast King was simply devastating news!

The void was continuously torn apart as the Blood Beast Kings fled. Soon, only the God Kings were left in the sky, and they all looked very happy. This battle was the most pleasant one they had fought so far, for they managed to drive those Blood Beast Kings into fleeing. With a strange look in their eyes, these God Kings looked down at Bu Fang.

There, Bu Fang stood in front of a huge ball of mud that was almost as large as a hill, with silver flames flickering inside.

He kept burning it with the Divine flame, both from inside and outside. By cooking it with two layers of flames, the meat would definitely become a superb delicacy. Of course, the quality of the Blood Phoenix’s flesh was already excellent in the first place.

Rumble!

Black clouds once again appeared in the sky. It was not the purple thunderbolt this time. Since this was just a normal lightning punishment for the dish, it was the blue thunderbolt. For Bu Fang, it was very easy to resist this kind of lightning punishment. After being blasted wildly by the thunderbolts, his eyes blazed a little as he stared at the huge mud ball in front of him.

The God Kings all landed on the ground and curiously gathered around Bu Fang.

“Little brother, are you really cooking the Blood Phoenix?” a God King asked, glancing at Bu Fang and swallowing subconsciously.

Bu Fang, however, did not answer him.

At this moment, Summer walked over. ‘I can’t believe he managed to make a dish out of a Blood Beast King!’ she thought. ‘What level of cooking skill has he reached now? Has he reached the level of a Heaven Divine Chef like Mu Hongzi? If that’s really the case, that’s a bit scary...’

“Can you really turn the Blood Phoenix into a delicacy by wrapping it in a mud ball?”

“What a strange way to cook it...”

“It should be edible, shouldn’t it? Otherwise, such a top ingredient would be wasted!”

The surrounding God Kings were muttering. They were not really top God Kings. It just happened that they were nearby, so they rushed over to help. However, they did not expect that they would encounter such a feast and were able to witness the heaven-defying cooking of a Blood Beast King.

Looking at the huge ball of mud, Summer could not help but feel curious and tempted. “Is it ready?” she asked Bu Fang.

Bu Fang glanced at her and twitched the corner of his mouth slightly. “It’s ready!”

As his voice rang out, he shot up into the sky. With the Black Constellation Wok in hand, he stepped on the air and flew straight up to the top of the huge mud ball. Then, he grabbed the wok with both hands, raised it over his shoulders, and smashed it down hard toward the mud ball.

Dong!

With a crunching sound, the solid mud ball cracked. The next moment, numerous tiny lines immediately appeared and spread across its surface.

Standing over the mud ball, Bu Fang crooked his forefinger and middle finger and lightly tapped it. The mud broke with a crackle, and a small piece fell off. Silver flames spewed out from the opening, turned into a silver phoenix, and wheeled around him. Then, it turned into a wisp of silver flame and burrowed into his palm.

Gradually, a rich meaty aroma emanated from the mud ball, whetting everyone's appetite and making their mouths water! The smell was simply too delicious!

The God Kings, Summer, and Bu Fang were all inhaling deeply, intoxicated by the aroma! This was the charm of food, the charm of a superb cuisine!

It had been a long time since the God Kings in the relic had smelled such an aroma. They were very hungry at this moment!

Bu Fang felt like he was about to get cramps from hunger. The smell was just too tantalizing. With a shake of his hand, he took out the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife and slashed it down hard.

With a crackle, the whole mud ball split in two. He put his fingers into the crack, roared, and forcefully pulled it apart. As the ball broke open, shafts of golden light burst out of it and shot into the sky, illuminating the whole world. Then, an even stronger aroma spread and filled the air.

Both the God Kings and Summer could not help but look amazed. How delicious was the dish cooked with the Blood Phoenix, a top Blood Beast King? Everyone was looking forward to trying it!

As the shells of the mud ball fell to the ground, they immediately broke apart and crumbled. However, no one was paying that much attention. Instead, everyone was looking straight ahead.

There, suspended in midair, was a Blood Phoenix as huge as a hill. It no longer had feathers, and its flesh had turned golden brown, with beads of grease dripping from the surface. Wisps of hot steam were constantly rising from it, and the air was full of a tasty fragrance.

The golden phoenix was so beautiful that it made people's mouths... water.

Bu Fang could not stand it anymore. He took a step forward, reached out a hand, grabbed the Blood Phoenix's leg, and then pulled it violently! As hot grease spat and dripped, the skin and flesh separated at once!

Grabbing the huge leg of the beggar's phoenix, Bu Fang opened his mouth and took a bite without hesitation!
