Chapter 1511: Am I Qualified to Enter the City Now?

Drops of fat spilled like a downpour from the huge phoenix to the ground, while a powerful aroma spread in all directions as if it were an exploding bomb, constantly burrowing into everyone's nose and intoxicating them.

The God Kings in the distance were all petrified. It was the first time they had seen this kind of cooking method. The huge beggar's phoenix was constantly emitting a brilliant light like a star in the night and emanating a great attraction from the inside out.

Holding a phoenix leg that was bigger than him underneath the beggar's phoenix, Bu Fang impatiently opened his mouth and bit into it. As his teeth sank through the skin, his tongue immediately touched the tender and juicy meat.

Despite the enormous size of the phoenix, its flesh was not tough at all. Instead, it was very tender. As he bit into it, the fat and juice of the meat spurted out at the same time, filling his mouth.

With a slurp, the whole piece of meat went into Bu Fang's mouth, slid down his throat, and fell into his stomach. Like a dried ground that was nourished by rainwater, his stomach, which was cramping because of hunger, began to wriggle.

Bu Fang lifted his head and let out a long breath. His lips were covered with oil, and his face was full of satisfaction. This was the taste he had been expecting, the taste of the food he wanted, the taste that slid down his throat and into his stomach while making him feel refreshed in an instant.

Like a giant grinder, his stomach began to work at high speed, digesting the food he had eaten in almost no time at all. It was really a wonderful feeling.

Bu Fang drooled so much that his saliva was about to flow out of his mouth. Grabbing the huge phoenix leg, he began to gnaw continuously. Even though it was as huge as a house, he wasn't afraid at all. He knew he could finish it.

The skin of the phoenix was soft and still somewhat elastic when it entered his mouth, while its flesh was filled with a special fatty fragrance. Bu Fang clenched his teeth and tore away the skin and meat. Its fat and juice spurted out again and filled his mouth.

He kept repeating the same movements, chewing continuously and noisily...

Summer and the many God Kings were stunned by what they saw. The way Bu Fang ate was no different from that of a hungry ghost. Still, they felt a pang of hunger as they watched him eat so heartily, and when they smelled the aroma in the air, they were even more convinced that this beggar's chicken must be very delicious.

They were all God Kings, and they were so full of divine power that they never felt hungry. But at this moment, they felt their stomachs wriggle because they were attracted by the delicious food.

Summer was already smacking her lips. She found that after following Bu Fang, she always had the opportunity to eat good food.

"Bu Fang... Can we eat it?" she asked, her eyes twinkling as she looked at Bu Fang, who was sitting on the ground and holding a phoenix leg as big as a house.

Bu Fang was too busy eating to answer her. He just waved his hand, signaling her to help herself.

Foxy was standing on Bu Fang's shoulder, her body straight. Her nose was sniffing while the nine tails behind her buttocks were wagging.

Bu Fang seemed to sense Foxy's desire. He twitched the corners of his mouth slightly, raised his hand, and made a slash with the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife at the huge beggar's phoenix. As the grease splashed, he chopped off one of the wings. Then, with a shake of his hand, he sent out his divine sense. A powerful mental force pulled the wing over and made it float before Foxy.

Foxy's eyes lit up. She opened her mouth, jumped forward, and began to eat happily.

Summer floated before the huge beggar's phoenix. It was glowing brilliantly like gold and looked very beautiful. Even though it was dead and had been made into a dish, the phoenix still held its head high and appeared as exquisite as if it were a work of art.

This made Summer reluctant to cut and eat it.

“Your Highness, let me do it!”

Women naturally like beautiful things, but the God Kings present did not have that mentality. They flew over, laughing, and they sniffed so hard that it was as if a gale was blowing in the sky.

One of them unleashed his divine power and turned it into a giant palm, then grabbed a phoenix leg and tore it off with great force. Although he was a God King, he held the leg without regard for his image and began to eat heartily.

It was very satisfying to eat meat with large mouthfuls!

Summer rolled her eyes. “Men... Hah!” Then, with a thought, her Law of Space turned into a sharp blade and sliced off the phoenix’s wing neatly. Holding it, she walked to the side and started eating.

Other God Kings also began to help themselves. Before too long, half of the huge phoenix was eaten. The people present were all God Kings, and their appetite was so great that they could finish the whole phoenix without a problem.

However, this was a Blood Beast King after all, and the energy contained in its flesh was enough to burst a mid-grade God King. So after a while, they just stopped eating, stood to one side, and smacked their lips to savor the intoxicating taste in their mouth.

Bam!

A huge phoenix bone fell to the ground, with some strings of meat still clinging to it. Bu Fang finally finished his phoenix leg. His hunger had abated a little, but he still needed plenty of food to replenish himself.

He took a step and came to the head of the huge phoenix. Soon, he started eating again from the head. His fearsome appetite frightened many people.

“No wonder his talent is so amazing... This is the flesh of a Blood Beast King, so an ordinary Demigod would probably be full after eating a few mouthfuls.”

“If I had been able to eat so well when I was a Demigod, I probably would have become a top genius as well!”

“Perhaps... This is what people call genius...”

The God Kings had all eaten their fill. With nothing to do, they were watching Bu Fang happily.

Summer could not eat anymore, too. She wiped the grease from the corners of her mouth. There was a strong burst of energy all over her, and she had a vague feeling that she was about to make a breakthrough. After all, she had just eaten the meat of a Blood Beast King who ranked in the top ten in the relic...

The crowd raised their heads and watched as Bu Fang gobbled up the beggar’s phoenix. Starting from the head, the meat was gradually reduced. He took one bite after another and kept ripping the skin and meat. Soon, the huge Blood Phoenix was reduced to a pile of bones, and they could see his stomach bulging slightly.

Bu Fang sat down on the ground. He was very satisfied, and he had recovered from the madness of being hungry. A man could become very scary when he was starving.

He stood up and let out a long breath, and the air was riddled with shimmering light. Although he felt somewhat full, his body was still very hungry. He could feel that he would soon be hungry again...

Could this be the after-effects of absorbing the Heavengod’s blood? Bu Fang narrowed his eyes.

The surrounding God Kings quickly approached and surrounded him.

“Little brother, I didn’t expect you could kill the Blood Phoenix...”

“It’s amazing that you have comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe while in the Demigod realm! Today’s juniors are indeed better than their predecessors!”

“Haha... I love kids who can eat!”

The God Kings greeted Bu Fang with smiles. They all thought that Bu Fang and Summer were doomed this time. After all, their opponent was the Blood Phoenix. Except for the few top experts in the relic, no one could escape from this fearsome Blood Beast King.

There was no doubt that Bu Fang must have what the Blood Phoenix craved, and the only things that she wanted were the Heavengod's bone and blood.

Bu Fang nodded to the God Kings around him. He rubbed his stomach, then turned his eyes to look into the distance. He could feel the aura of Blood Beasts and Blood Beast Kings in that direction...

'Hmm... There are a lot of ingredients in that direction...'

"The head area of this relic is the most dangerous place. However, after many explorations by generations of God Kings and Divine Emperors, a city was built there. You can go to that city, little brother. It is safe there," said a God King with a smile.

"Is it the legendary City of God Kings? Are all the experts in that city God Kings and top geniuses of the divine dynasty?" Summer asked curiously.

The God King smiled gently and replied, "That's right. To find the real treasures in this relic so that they can break through to the supreme Heavengod realm, almost all the top God Kings of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty stay there."

God Kings were always busy. After talking to Bu Fang and Summer for a while, they just left. They all had missions to complete, which came from the City of God Kings. Before they left, they told Bu Fang and Summer how to get to the city.

The surrounding area had turned into ruins. Bu Fang and Summer looked at each other, then Bu Fang carried Foxy, whose belly had grown as large as a ball from all the food she ate, and hurried off toward the city.

'There should be clues in the City of God Kings about the place where the ancient Heavengod died,' Bu Fang thought in his mind.

They didn't have a warship, so they had to rely on their feet. They ran through the woods, and their speed was not slow. In fact, moving like this in the woods was very risky. It would attract the attention of the other fearsome Blood Beasts.

But Bu Fang had just slaughtered a top Blood Beast King and eaten it, so he still had the fury and resentment of the Blood Phoenix left in his body. As a result, no other Blood Beast dared to come near him, save those Blood Beast Kings of the same level as the Blood Phoenix. That saved them a lot of trouble.

As they ran at high speed, Bu Fang felt another pang of hunger in his stomach. The feeling was painful, but compared with the hunger that went deep into his bones just now, this was still bearable.

Along the way, his eyes shone and kept glancing in every direction. He wanted to find some Blood Beasts and make dishes out of them. However, because of the Blood Phoenix's aura, no Blood Beasts dared to approach him.

They traveled through the night. As the day began to dawn, the sunlight swept down from the top of the head area down to the other areas, lighting up the whole world again. Bu Fang and Summer stopped.

In the distance, a towering city hovered in the sky. One after another, God Kings bursting with mighty aura could be seen flying out from it and speeding away in an instant.

"We have found the City of God Kings at last!"

Their eyes lit up. Then, they stepped into the sky and headed toward the hovering city.

At the entrance to the City of God Kings sat an old man in a black robe. When Bu Fang and Summer approached, he opened his eyes at once. A terrible aura immediately filled the air, while the surrounding seemed to be sealed off.

The Law of Space!

Their pupils constricted slightly. This was a very profound Law of Space. The old man in front of them turned out to be a high-grade God King who had comprehended the Law of Space!

“Who are you...” The old man looked at them indifferently with his cloudy eyes. “A mid-grade God King and a Demigod... Why did you come to the City of God Kings?” he said. “Not everyone can go into the city. Show me what qualifies you to enter...”

His aura was extremely powerful, and his voice was so strong that it caused the void to tremble continuously.

Summer sucked in a cold breath. There was no doubt that this was the gatekeeper those God Kings had mentioned.

“What qualifies us to enter?” She narrowed her eyes. Then, her hair began to flutter, and a Wheel of Law emerged over her head, emitting a powerful aura that shook the void.

“Oh? The Law of Space... plus the Power of Law close to that of a high-grade God King? You’re allowed to enter... You, little girl, barely reached the qualification to enter the City of God Kings,” the old man said indifferently. His eyes were calm and unsurprised.

Summer bowed to the old man. After that, she led Bu Fang toward the entrance.

Suddenly, the space in front of them froze. Both Summer and Bu Fang were stunned.

The black-robed old man sat on a brick and looked faintly at Bu Fang. “I said the girl can enter the city, but what qualifications do you, a Demigod, have to enter?”

He stared at Bu Fang with cloudy eyes as if he wanted to see him through. However, Bu Fang’s body seemed to be covered with a layer of mysterious power that prevented him from seeing his Laws. This was incredible, and it piqued the old man’s interest.

“The qualification to enter the city?”

Bu Fang glanced at Summer. Then, he let out a long breath. With a thought in his mind, a corner of the Heaven and Earth Farmland appeared, from where the Blood Phoenix’s bones poured out on the ground, piling up in front of the old man and emitting the Blood Phoenix’s unwilling aura.

He put his hands behind him and looked at the old man with a straight face. “So... Am I qualified to enter the city now?”

Chapter 1512: Who Killed the Blood Phoenix?!

‘What are these things?’

The clouded eyes of the black-robed man widened suddenly. Looking at the bones scattered on the ground, the corner of his mouth twitched violently. He could sense that the terrifying aura in these bones belonged to a Blood Beast King, so there was no doubt that they were the bones of a Blood Beast King.

Why would this Demigod possess the bones of a Blood Beast King? This meant that he probably killed one and even ate it, as there was still some meat left on the bones...

“Where did you find these bones?” asked the old man as he stared at Bu Fang, his aura suddenly changing. A dreadful pressure froze the surrounding space, turning it as hard as crystals. Everything was suppressed, and the frozen space seemed to crush Bu Fang’s body.

Summer’s expression changed dramatically. She did not expect that this gatekeeper would not believe Bu Fang. “I can vouch for it that Bu Fang killed this Blood Phoenix. I saw it with my own eyes,” she said hurriedly.

“Dark Blood Phoenix?” The gatekeeper’s eyes narrowed. “The Dark Blood Phoenix that ranks ninth on the Blood Beast King List? Even ordinary high-grade God Kings would suffer if they encounter this phoenix, not to mention a Demigod. One of you is a mid-grade God King, and the other is just a Demigod... How are you guys capable of killing her?”

The old man’s aura fluctuated.

“I don’t like falsehoods... So get out of here, both of you!”

His terrifying aura suddenly boiled up as if to shatter heaven and earth. At the same time, the Law of Space quickly gathered and materialized into a transparent palm in midair, slapping toward Summer and Bu Fang.

Summer's face turned unsightly. She never thought that the old man would make a move on them without giving them a chance to explain!

Bu Fang frowned and looked icily at the old man. As the palm continued to approach, he sighed lightly and shook his hand. His aura immediately emanated from his body while a Wheel of Law emerged over his head.

"Oh? You comprehended the Law of Space as well? Unfortunately, it can't be the reason for you to be arrogant..." The black-robed man's expression did not change, and he still slapped his palm down.

Bu Fang clasped his hands behind his back, his Vermilion Robe flapping noisily. With a rumble, another Wheel of Law appeared.

The old man's expression changed at last—he looked both stunned and in doubt. "A Demigod who comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe? There is actually an existence comparable to the Crown Prince in this world?"

He took a deep breath. At this moment, he began to waver a little. With the talent that Bu Fang had shown, he could enter the City of God Kings. He was in a tough spot right now. However, since he had said that he would expel them, he thought he might as well keep his word.

The old man's eyes became cloudy again. As his divine sense surged, the palm materialized of the Law of Space continued to move forward to slap Bu Fang away. However, the power it contained did become much lesser. The old man was very appreciative of geniuses.

"For the sake that you have comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe, I will not punish you. Leave now, cultivate hard, and fight for the rise of our people," the gatekeeper said, his voice old.

In midair, the corners of Bu Fang's mouth twitched slightly. He made no attempt to dodge the approaching palm. Instead, he just stood where he was, watching the gatekeeper sitting in front of the city gate.

"A Demigod who comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe? I'm sorry... I've already gone beyond that," Bu Fang said.

As soon as he finished speaking, another Wheel of Law appeared above his head. A destructive aura spread out immediately, causing the surrounding void to tremble.

The gatekeeper's expression changed dramatically. He jumped to his feet and looked at Bu Fang in disbelief.

“One... two... three... My eyes didn't deceive me! These really are three supreme Laws of the Universe! Comprehending three supreme Laws at the Demigod realm... No one has ever done this before! This is someone who would most likely become a Heavengod!”

He was trembling with excitement. The next moment, the palm materialized by the Law of Space disappeared.

Bu Fang stood where he was. The Wheels of Law hovered around him, causing his aura to surge. He could feel that his aura had become even more powerful than before.

Because the turnover target had not been reached, Bu Fang had not been able to break through to the God realm. However, he reckoned that when he became a God, he would have few rivals in the whole divine dynasty. He could even fight against the Divine Emperor!

The old man stood in front of the floating city. “Rare, it's too rare... My eyes had failed me this time. Three supreme Laws of the Universe... This is unbelievable!” he said. “The gates of the City of God Kings are open for you!”

He no longer doubted whether the Blood Phoenix was killed by Bu Fang. Even if he had not killed it, he was still qualified to enter the city. The gatekeeper could not believe that such a genius had appeared in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty, and he did not know if it was a blessing or a curse.

The fortunes of a divine dynasty were fixed. When such a genius appeared, disaster was bound to follow. One could only wonder what this disaster would be.

‘Is it because the Divine Emperor has entered his twilight years that the fortunes of the dynasty have gathered on this young man? That's possible... Then I can't afford to offend him.’

Summer was dumbfounded. Looking at the black-robed old man, whose attitude had completely turned different, she realized for the first time Bu Fang's extraordinary status. After comprehending the three supreme Laws of the Universe, he was already in a very different position. Even the identity of the Lord of Divine Chef Temple was not comparable to his current status.

Bu Fang nodded to the gatekeeper and flew into the City of God Kings with Summer. As they stepped through the gate and entered the city, a figure standing at the other end of the wall was looking at them with a gentle smile.

“Hmm?” Bu Fang and Summer felt a sharp gaze shoot at them. They both turned their heads at the same time. Summer’s pupils constricted when she saw the man.

“Tian Qiu?!”

Her red lips parted slightly in disbelief. Yes, the figure standing under the wall waiting for them was none other than Tian Qiu, who was their teammate not too long ago, a gentleman who was as terrifying as a ferocious beast when his top was blown off.

No, this Tian Qiu was not a man. He was not even a human being!

There was a look of horror in Summer’s eyes.

Bu Fang looked indifferently at Tian Qiu and took a deep breath. Suddenly, his stomach growled. For a moment, the atmosphere became somewhat awkward.

“Eh? Mister Bu, Your Highness...”

A group of people walked out from behind Tian Qiu, their faces filled with surprise.

Bu Fang’s eyebrows pricked up a little when he saw them. These were all his acquaintances. Luo Sanniang was among them, and King Pingyang, King Tianlong, and the emissary group of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were all here. It turned out that they had already entered the City of God Kings.

Luo Sanniang fluttered like a butterfly to Bu Fang’s side, her eyes gleaming with excitement.

Bu Fang glanced at her and nodded before fixing his eyes on Tian Qiu again. Both he and Summer knew that this Tian Qiu was not a human being, but one that had been transformed by that terrible creature.

“That’s Tian Qiu, a mighty high-grade God King. He saved us in the relic and helped us kill a top Blood Beast King. Otherwise, we all would have died in the mouth of that beast.” Seeing that Bu Fang kept staring at Tian Qiu, King Pingyang laughed and briefly introduced him. He then added, “You know each other, Mister Bu?”

“Not only do we know each other, but we have also been through life and death together...” Bu Fang said.

Tian Qiu smiled gently and nodded at Bu Fang.

“Stay away from that guy... Or you will die without knowing what happened,” Bu Fang said faintly to Luo Sanniang. Then, he put his hands behind him and walked into the city.

That gave Luo Sanniang pause.

Summer glanced at Tian Qiu warily and followed Bu Fang without saying a word.

Why didn’t they expose Tian Qiu on the spot? It was impossible. His appearance was that of a human being. Unless he revealed his secret, Bu Fang’s one-sided story alone could not make a high-grade God King surrender. That was why he only reminded them and did not expose Tian Qiu.

Bu Fang walked over to Tian Qiu, gave him a look, and said, “What a chance that we have been through life and death together... Here, take this pancake. It’s delicious.”

With a shake of his hand, Bu Fang produced an oyster pancake and handed it to Tian Qiu. A strong aroma spread out in an instant.

Tian Qiu’s face froze.

“Haha... Mister Bu’s dishes are rare and delicious. Mister Tian, you’re in for a treat this time,” King Pingyang said with a smile as he patted Tian Qiu’s shoulder.

The corner of Tian Qiu's mouth twitched.

Luo Sanniang glanced suspiciously at Tian Qiu. Since Bu Fang warned her to be careful of this guy, he should have his reasons. So, she moved away from Tian Qiu and followed Bu Fang.

The Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty's experts all had mixed looks on their faces, especially Fang Wuji. His defeat to Bu Fang was an eternal pain in his heart. He swore that he would defeat this chef, but that was only possible until he became a God. In the Demigod realm, he had no chance of defeating Bu Fang.

The City of God Kings was practically empty. Of course, there were experts in the city, but the numbers were not many. There were no guards and no common people here, only top geniuses and fearsome high-grade God Kings. Most of the time, however, these high-grade God Kings were out looking for opportunities, and this city was just a place for them to rest.

In the sky over the city hung three black stone tables, which were flashing with divine light.

"Those three stone tablets are the iconic features of the City of God Kings. The first one is the Blood Beast King List, which records the ten most powerful Blood Beast Kings in the relic," Luo Sanniang said with a smile as she came to Bu Fang's side.

Bu Fang nodded.

"The second tablet is the God King List. Only high-grade God Kings are on the list, and they represented the ten strongest high-grade God Kings in this city. Of course, the Divine Emperor is not included in the list.

"The third one is the Genius List. Those on the list are all descendants of the high-grade God Kings in the relic, and the strongest of them could even fight against high-grade God Kings with the strength of a God! The Crown Prince probably can't even make it to the top three," Luo Sanniang said.

It was only when she came here that she realized there were so many geniuses in the relic, who were born and raised here. Because of the harsh living environment and frequent dealing with Blood Beasts, they had all developed amazing skills.

“Mister Bu, you can keep an eye on the Genius List. If you can get to the top of the list, the Divine Emperor will give you a Heavengod’s bone as a reward!” said Luo Sanniang, her eyes lighting up slightly.

In her opinion, Bu Fang should have a chance to get to the top of the list with his strength. After all, he was a genius who had comprehended two supreme Laws of the Universe!

“The Genius List?” Bu Fang paused for a moment, then glanced at Luo Sanniang and shook his head.

Summer, who was standing on the side, also twitched the corners of her mouth. She knew that even the top expert of the Genius List would most likely be killed by Bu Fang in seconds...

“That one is boring... I think this Blood Beast King List is more attractive... If I can eat all the Blood Beast Kings on the list, that would be great,” Bu Fang said, stroking his chin.

Luo Sanniang was struck dumb. “You... What did you say?”

BOOM!

All of a sudden, a scary rumble erupted outside the city. Bu Fang, Luo Sanniang, and the others were stunned, and they turned to look over. In that direction, several badly mutilated God Kings were being chased by a terrifying Blood Beast King, their blood spilling continuously.

“Who killed the Blood Phoenix?! Get out of here now! Otherwise, I will slaughter this city and kill all the humans in the relic!”

A horrible bestial roar echoed out and shook the entire relic.

Chapter 1513: A Sudden Change

A bestial roar, accompanied by a human voice, resounded throughout heaven and earth while a terrible rumble shook the air. It was as if a great terror was approaching at great speed from a distance.

In the City of God Kings, everyone's face turned unsightly, and they felt their hearts begin pounding quickly. In the face of this mighty pressure, experts like Luo Sanniang, whose strength was only in the God realm, were utterly terrified.

One after another, God Kings jerked up their heads and looked into the distant sky. A great beast was wheeling there, with thunderbolts constantly crackling and smiting at the void around it.

There were not many God Kings in the city, but they were all extraordinary in strength. With them guarding the city, it could be considered the toughest stronghold for humans. Even the Xiayi Divine Dynasty's capital might not have such a strong defense.

However, this hovering City of God Kings was now threatened by a fearsome Blood Beast King.

Rumble!

From inside the city, columns of scary aura erupted, spreading quickly and almost covering the entire sky. Then, one high-grade God King after another stepped through the air and made their appearance.

"Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon! This is the City of God Kings, not a place where you can run wild!" a high-grade God King roared.

The gatekeeper's black robe flapped noisily as he floated up into the air. With his hands clasped behind his back, he looked like an expert who had seen through the vicissitudes of life.

The four high-grade God Kings guarding the city flew into the sky. Their aura joined together and formed a huge net, protecting the whole city.

The sky was filled with a surging and scary aura of the Blood Beast.

As a top Blood Beast King ranked fourth on the Blood Beast King List, the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon was much more powerful than the Dark Blood Phoenix. Every time an existence of this level appeared, it would blow up a great storm in the relic. Could it be that he was going to attack the City of God Kings?

“You have killed the Blood Phoenix... She was my spouse, and you killed her! This is a deadly feud, and you all shall be buried with her!”

A dragon roar resounded through the skies. Suddenly, the void was torn apart, and a huge rift emerged, in which thunderbolts flashed and crackled. The next moment, a divine dragon flew out of it, its whole body bursting with lightning and looking as bright as the blazing sun.

This was the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon, a top Blood Beast King with extremely mighty strength!

As soon as he appeared, the divine dragon opened his mouth and spewed a jet of white flame at the City of God Kings to destroy it completely.

The four high-grade God Kings hovered in midair. The Power of Law over their heads spread, turning into a giant net to block the dragon fire.

The mighty Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon actually fought against four high-grade God Kings alone, and he even suppressed them in terms of strength.

At this moment, the gatekeeper snorted coldly, and the void exploded. His Law of Space gathered, and the void instantly materialized, transforming into a cage and moving toward the dragon.

In just the blink of an eye, the battle turned white-hot.

“Damn humans! You must all die!” the dragon growled, his massive body lashing at the void.

The next moment, the world changed. In the distant sky, one terrifying savage monster after another floated up, and four Blood Beast Kings were flying at high speed toward the city.

They were all top Blood Beast Kings. Although not as scary as the Dark Blood Phoenix and the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon, their aura was enough to obliterate the void.

Everyone's expression changed dramatically.

“So many Blood Beast Kings? Are they really planning to attack the City of God Kings?”

The scene caught everyone by surprise. No one expected so many Blood Beast Kings to show up at the same time. Although the Thunder Dragon was the only one among them who was ranked on the Blood Beast King List, the pressure brought by so many top monsters was still tremendous.

Down below, Bu Fang's eyes sparkled.

Summer leaned over to him with an odd expression on her face. “Bu Fang, I think this dragon is coming for you, right? After all, you killed the Dark Blood Phoenix,” she whispered.

No one heard her. In fact, no one was in the mood to pay attention to her whisper with Bu Fang at the moment.

A high-ranking Blood Beast King was attacking the City of God Kings. That frightened the experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty's emissary group. Wasn't this city the safest place in the relic?

These self-proclaimed geniuses all felt insignificant at this moment. The Blood Beast Kings outside the city, who were as colossal as mountains, let them feel what despair was.

“Too strong... These are all existences at the level of top-grade God Kings!”

Would they die? Would they be brutally slaughtered by these Blood Beast Kings? The head area of the ancient Heavengod's relic was known to be the most dangerous zone, and it really lived up to its name.

Every God King in the city flew up into the air, and every high-grade God King had joined the battle, including those from the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty.

Tian Qiu was among them as well as their aura joined into a large screen to protect the city. However, there was a hint of a smile on his lips, and he seemed to be waiting for something with that strange look in his eyes.

The Thunder Dragon roared, and the other Blood Beast Kings answered. For a moment, a terrible aura swept across this part of heaven and earth!

The Blood Beast Kings attacked, and the high-grade God Kings could only resist with all their might. A great battle broke out in the sky over the relic in an instant.

It was a violent battle, with scary rumbles reverberating continuously and all kinds of divine power and Laws colliding with each other. For a moment, the City of God Kings seemed to be on the verge of being destroyed, like a small boat in a giant storm.

Bu Fang stood in place and exhaled lightly, looking up at the sky. He really did not expect that the Dark Blood Phoenix's death would lead to the Thunder Dragon's frantic attack of the city.

'This doesn't make sense,' he thought. 'Could there be something good in the Blood Phoenix? Or... Was she just an excuse?'

If there was something good in the Blood Phoenix, Bu Fang could not have been unaware of it. So the first possibility could be ruled out. The only possibility then was the second one.

'Could it be that the Thunder Dragon had been plotting to attack the City of God Kings for a long time, and what they coveted are the Heavengod's bones and blood in the city?'

This was quite possible. As the divine dynasty's base in the relic, the God Kings stored all the Heavengod's bones and blood they had acquired in this city, which was quite possibly the reason for the attack of the Blood Beast Kings.

The balance of the battle gradually tipped to one side. There were simply too few high-grade God Kings. Strong as the gatekeeper was, he was only able to hold off the Thunder Dragon. On the other hand, the rest of the Blood Beast Kings were incredibly strong. Under their attacks, the experts of the City of God Kings were losing ground.

This was not good news for the people in the city. The geniuses of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were already shaking. Even Fang Wuji was feeling a pang of powerlessness. This was a battle that they did not qualify to intervene in. Any attack leaked from a battle between high-grade God Kings could kill them.

Rumble!

One high-grade God King after another fell back into the city, their energy and blood boiling.

“Dammit! These beasts must have come prepared! They took advantage of the absence of most of the experts to attack us! They’re going to capture the City of God Kings at one fell swoop!” The gatekeeper’s face was livid, and his old face was filled with shock and anger. There were so many Blood Beast Kings acting at the same time, but they had not even received any news beforehand. This showed that the other side had plotted this a long time ago, and the Blood Phoenix was just an excuse.

If it was in other times, when the ranking God Kings were in the city, these beasts would never dare to launch an attack.

“Pull back and defend the city! Activate the Nine Revolutions Divine Emperor Array!” cried the gatekeeper.

The other high-grade God Kings answered him in loud voices. Then, they scattered and landed all over the city, performed incantation gestures with both hands, and released their Power of Law, activating the array.

Soon, a golden palace appeared above the floating city. That was the Nine Revolutions Divine Emperor Array, a powerful defensive array.

“Quick, contact the top-ranking God Kings and have them return at once to defend the city...” the gatekeeper said hurriedly. He was the person who controlled the array.

A God King nodded.

BOOM!

The thunderbolt roared, turned into a lightning whip, and viciously lashed on the palace, blowing it apart and turning it into ruins in an instant. It was a terrible sight to behold. However, it quickly recovered and continued to protect the city.

Countless Blood Beasts were constantly attacking the city, pounding on the gates and walls. It seemed that the City of God Kings would be breached at any moment. The situation had become very critical all of a sudden, and this exceeded everyone's expectations.

King Pingyang, King Tianlong, and the other God Kings who usually stood above the crowd were pale at this moment. They had fought countless battles, but this one was beyond their imagination.

Tian Qiu landed on the wall. He put his hands behind his back and squinted at everything. Then, the corners of his mouth curled up slightly as he turned to look at the black-robed old man sitting in midair. Suddenly, his lips parted, and a long tongue stuck out from between them, looking like a snake's tongue.

"That Thunder Dragon's right... It's time for the City of God Kings to be destroyed," he murmured. The next moment, black smoke emerged and spread around him, and then with a boom, he shot forward at great speed like a cannonball!

The gatekeeper's expression changed dramatically. Even many of the God Kings present were taken aback. Their divine sense surged and fixed on the figure that shot out in a black beam of light.

"What are you doing, mister Tian Qiu?!" a high-grade God King thundered.

Tian Qiu was a newly promoted high-grade God King, and many of them thought highly about him. However, no one expected him to attack one of their own at this critical moment!

A terrible rumble resounded through the air, and the black smoke spread. Tian Qiu did not slow down at all.

A look of disbelief emerged in the black-robed old man's eyes. There was actually a spy in their city?!

Tian Qiu landed at the gatekeeper's side. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly while his eyes took on a faint crimson color. Locking his gaze on the old man, he said, "Such strong flesh and blood... Old as it is, I can sense the intoxicating smell coming from your divine sense."

The black-robed old man's pupils constricted. Since he was in control of the Nine Revolutions Divine Emperor Array, he was completely immobilized at the moment.

A stream of blood suddenly spurled out. The gatekeeper felt a piercing pain in his divine sense. His eyes widened as he stared at Tian Qiu. Black smoke and tiny insect scales slowly emerged on the face of this gentle, promising young man.

“You...”

Tian Qiu took a deep breath with an intoxicated look.

The surrounding God Kings were stunned. They were totally unprepared for such a thing to happen!

BOOM!

Outside, the Thunder Dragon’s thunderbolts came crashing down. The defensive array that had lost the old man’s control was simply unable to withstand such an attack. With a deafening rumble, the entire array burst apart.

Bam!

The whole City of God Kings was completely shaken at this moment.

The Thunder Dragon threw his head back and roared, while the other huge Blood Beast Kings looked down on the city, their eyes filling with monstrous killing intent.

“Today is the day the City of God Kings will be destroyed!”

“Dammit!” The black-robed old man was boiling with rage. His Law of Space exploded and knocked Tian Qiu flying away. Then, he staggered back and sucked in a cold breath. He finally realized that Tian Qiu was not human.

‘The look in those eyes and those insect scales... What the hell is this guy?!’

Tian Qiu burst out laughing. He stuck out his tongue and licked his lips, eager and impatient. As he swept the city with his scarlet eyes, he said, “So much food... I’m so excited!”

Everyone was stunned, shocked by Tian Qiu's sudden betrayal.

Luo Sanniang, too, was dumbfounded and trembling. Suddenly, she remembered Bu Fang's warning. It turned out that what he said was true. Had he already known about Tian Qiu's true color?

She turned her head, wanting to see Bu Fang's expression at the moment. However, her face suddenly changed because she saw that Bu Fang was missing.

"Where has he gone? Oh? Mister Bu..."

As she glanced around, she saw Bu Fang walk step by step up into midair and came to Tian Qiu's side. She turned pale in an instant.

Tian Qiu was laughing, and he looked greedy and hungry. Suddenly, a strong smell of delicious food wafted toward him. His laughter stopped abruptly, his stomach began to turn, and a sickening feeling came over him.

The next moment, he saw a steaming oyster pancake swaying in front of him...

Chapter 1514: Bu Fang Is... Hungry Again

Luo Sanniang watched helplessly as Bu Fang stepped up into the air and came before Tian Qiu, the man who was gentle and easy going not too long ago but had become as terrifying as a fiend.

It was Tian Qiu who had wounded the gatekeeper! He was a traitor, a scary fiend who was going to get everyone in the City of God Kings killed!

"Why did Bu Fang go to that fiend? What is he trying to do? Does he want to save the world? Does he think he's a match for Tian Qiu, a high-grade God King? He's only a Demigod!

Many of the surrounding God Kings were also startled by the turn of events. The gatekeeper was badly wounded, which meant the Nine Revolution Divine Emperor Array was no longer working, and the Blood Beast Kings were now free to attack the city. This was a great disaster for all the people in the city!

The gatekeeper's aura fluctuated unsteadily. There was a large hole in his chest, and black smoke was growing in it. His face was pale, and his eyes were filled with shock and anger as he fixed them on Tian Qiu. At this moment, this guy was a bigger threat than those Blood Beast Kings.

Outside, the Thunder Dragon roared. He was very excited. He did not expect the defensive array would be broken so easily. Now the city was like a piece of tofu in his eyes, which he could destroy in a single blow. Soon, the Heavengod's bones and blood stored there would be his.

Rushing thunderbolts kept pouring down, pounding the ground and cracking it. The Thunder Dragon swung his tail and knocked back several high-grade God Kings with one move.

He was, after all, the fourth most powerful Blood Beast King, so the average high-grade God King was no match for him. The old man was barely able to stop him, but the other God Kings could not even resist one blow from him.

Tian Qiu covered his mouth with one hand. His stomach rumbled as a strong wave of nausea kept washing over him. As he sniffed the aroma in the air and looked at the oyster pancake floating in front of him, his eyes were filled with rage.

"You better not push me too far!" he said. His voice was as cold as thousand-year-old ice, sending a chill down the backs of those who heard it.

Bu Fang put his hands behind his back and looked indifferently at Tian Qiu. "Let me treat your anorexia for free..."

Rumble!

A plume of black smoke spewed out, hitting the oyster pancake and breaking it apart.

Tian Qiu's icy gaze locked onto Bu Fang. "Last time, I didn't kill you and let you get away. Let's see how you're going to escape now that I'm even stronger than before!" he said coldly.

With a rustling sound, black insect scales covered his body, making him look more like a fiend!

The people around broke out into an uproar. Obviously, they did not expect that Tian Qiu would turn from a mild-mannered gentleman into a horrible demon.

“This Tian Qiu is not... human! He is the terrible creature that His Majesty had spoken of, which had taken possession of Tian Qiu’s body...” said Summer.

The many God Kings present, including those from the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty, were taken aback by her words. The terrible creature the Xiayi Divine Emperor had spoken of? Did that creature really exist?

Tian Qiu’s appearance changed dramatically and once again transformed into that terrifying creature. At this moment, he had no intention of showing the slightest bit of mercy. As long as he took this opportunity to devour everyone in this city, his strength would definitely rise to even greater heights. At that time, he would be unrestrained in this world, and no one would be able to suppress him anymore, especially the chef in front of him, whose body was constantly emitting a deadly temptation.

Compared with the body he now occupied, the chef’s body was flawless. It would be great if he could possess it.

Rumble!

A God King spat blood and was knocked flying away by the Thunder Dragon, smashing hard to the ground and crumbling it. People in the city were terrified. The wounded gatekeeper was sitting cross-legged in midair, trying to heal himself. It looked like the City of God Kings might really be about to meet its doom.

Bu Fang frowned. He glanced at Tian Qiu and then at the Blood Beast Kings wheeling in the sky as if he was weighing something in his mind. Suddenly, his stomach growled. He was... hungry again. The feeling made him feel as if his body had been hollowed out.

Eventually, the desire for food overcame reason. Bu Fang fixed his eyes on the Thunder Dragon in midair. ‘It’s more important to fill my stomach first...’ he thought to himself.

With a thought, he turned into a stream of light and flew toward the Thunder Dragon in the sky.

The gatekeeper opened his eyes, and his expression changed slightly when he saw Bu Fang rushing toward the Blood Beast King. “What are you doing? Get back here now!” he cried out.

Bu Fang was a genius who had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe and had great hopes of becoming a Heavengod. He could not let someone with such potential die for nothing.

Everyone present was also astonished by Bu Fang’s behavior. “What’s that Demigod trying to do?”

Fang Wuji and the others looked at Bu Fang as if they were looking at an idiot. They all thought he was really stupid. That was the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon, a Blood Beast King who was equivalent to a top high-grade God King and ranked fourth on the Blood Beast King List.

Even ten Bu Fang might be smashed to death by just one swing of the Thunder Dragon’s tail, let alone one Bu Fang. Fang Wuji admitted that his talent was indeed genius, but he was only a Demigod after all.

Luo Sanniang’s face also turned pale. It never occurred to her that Bu Fang would be stupid enough to court his own death.

Perhaps the only optimistic person in the city was Summer. After all, she had seen Bu Fang’s real terror, though she had no idea why he was so strong. However, when she thought about the fact that he was the first Demigod to have comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe, it all made sense.

After all, no Demigod had ever comprehended three supreme Laws, so there was no reference to his strength. Since this was the case, it was normal for him to be a little more abnormal than the average Demigod.

Tian Qiu’s eyes were bloodshot. With his arms folded over his chest, he watched Bu Fang with a cold grin as the latter rushed toward the Thunder Dragon. “This Blood Beast King is a mutated creature in the relic with strength stronger than ordinary divine beasts and savage monsters. Is this Demigod trying to commit suicide?”

The Thunder Dragon never thought a Demigod would dare to challenge him. His whiskers fluttered, his eyes focused, and the thunderbolts around him crackled loudly.

“You’re courting death, human!”

He opened his mouth, revealing his sharp dragon teeth. The next moment, a dreadful aura rapidly gathered between his jaws, turned into dragon fire, and spurted out in a jet toward Bu Fang. He wanted to kill Bu Fang in an instant! In his eyes, a Demigod was as weak as an ant!

Suddenly, the Thunder Dragon's pupils constricted as his eyes met with Bu Fang's gaze, which somewhat startled him. 'What's that look in his eyes?'

"I heard you're looking for the Blood Phoenix..." Bu Fang said.

As he continued to rise into the sky, his aura was getting stronger. The next moment, one Wheel of Law after another appeared above his head. Soon, all three of them made their appearance, and the power of the three supreme Laws of the Universe exploded out at the same time!

Bu Fang's aura skyrocketed while a bestial roar rang out of his Taotie Arm. With a thought in his mind, a clanging sound of bones hitting with each other echoed throughout the skies. Then, many bones emerged and stacked in front of him in the form of a huge Blood Phoenix—only, it was just a skeleton!

"The bones of the Dark Blood Phoenix?!"

Almost everyone present was frozen, including the Thunder Dragon and Tian Qiu...

The gatekeeper was frowning. 'Even if he has the ability to kill the Dark Blood Phoenix, the Thunder Dragon is far more powerful than her,' he thought to himself. 'He's provoking the dragon by taking out the bones... Such behavior is too unwise! He is still too young!'

'All he has to do now is to run as far away as he can, wait until his cultivation base is stronger, and then come back for revenge...'

"You're the human who killed the Blood Phoenix!" The Thunder Dragon was furious, and his eyes widened as if they had turned into pools of thunder. As soon as he saw the Blood Phoenix's skeleton, he felt that he was engulfed by his rage!

"I will destroy you all!"

Crackle!

The terrifying thunderbolts grew brighter and brighter and constantly bombarded the surrounding void. Many God Kings were forced to retreat further.

Suddenly, the erupting thunderbolts came to an abrupt halt. The Thunder Dragon froze in midair as his head was hit by a huge black wok...

For a moment, the atmosphere was a little awkward. Holding the enlarged Black Turtle Constellation Wok, Bu Fang looked indifferently at the Thunder Dragon. 'Hmm? This dragon seems to be a bit tougher than the Blood Phoenix...'

"Scram!" With a deafening dragon roar, the black wok was knocked flying away. The next moment, a dragon tail swept across the sky, shattering the void and causing a spatial storm!

Bu Fang activated the Vermilion Robe. The flaming wings on his back flapped and took him higher into the sky. At the same time, the three supreme Laws of the Universe converged on his Taotie Arm, and the Heavengod's bone in his palm gleamed.

When he reached high enough, he held out his thumb and pressed it down toward the Thunder Dragon. He was going to kill the Blood Beast King with one finger!

Rumble!

The Thunder Dragon was indeed very strong. Bu Fang's finger only managed to hurt him but did not kill him.

The battle between the man and the dragon turned out to be a close match! The result was a surprise to all!

Luo Sanniang and the experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty's emissary group were utterly dumbfounded, and all the God Kings gasped.

"This Demigod is... heaven-defying! I can't believe he's fighting against a ranking Blood Beast King with just the cultivation base of a Demigod!"

Even the gatekeeper was astonished.

Tian Qiu's eyes narrowed slightly, gleaming. As he looked at Bu Fang's body, the desire within him grew greater. 'This chef's fleshly body has become stronger!'

Suddenly, someone recognized the three Wheels of Law over Bu Fang's head. They were instantly petrified. It was even more shocking than when they saw him fight the Thunder Dragon.

"That... Are those three supreme Laws of the Universe?!"

"My goodness... Three supreme Laws?! Is there really someone in this world who can comprehend three supreme Laws of the Universe?!"

"This... This is a genius of the highest order! Now that I've seen an existence who has comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe, I've no more regrets in my life!"

Everyone was in awe.

Luo Sanniang took a deep breath. The shock in her heart was like the raging waves on the sea. She had watched Bu Fang grow up, witnessed him comprehend the first supreme Law, and now three supreme Laws. It was like a dream. Any genius would be dwarfed in front of him.

"Mister Bu is like the son of the Chaotic Universe... Comprehending the supreme Laws seems to be very easy for him."

The experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were horrified. They could not believe that the Xiayi Divine Dynasty possessed such a peerless genius. With such a gifted man, who else could rise to the top? Even their crown prince might not be able to match this scary chef!

Fang Wuji became distraught. He prided himself on being a genius. Even though he did not comprehend the supreme Law of the Universe, he was still able to suppress experts who did. However, he was nothing but a piece of trash in front of Bu Fang.

Was he jealous or envious? At this point, he was not even qualified to be jealous or envious.

Summer was smiling. At this moment, Bu Fang was so dazzling that he attracted everyone's attention. 'This is the Lord of Divine Chef Temple!'

Rumble!

Bu Fang kept moving at high speed in the sky. Even though he had used both the Law of Space and the Law of Destruction, he had not been able to defeat the dragon. The hunger in his stomach made him a little impatient.

Compared to phoenix meat, dragon meat might be even more delicious. If he were up against another Blood Beast King, he might find it tricky, but dragons... He had no fear of dragons.

"Goldie... It's your turn! Make it quick, I'm very hungry," said Bu Fang.

As soon as he finished speaking, his eyes burst into a golden light, and his black hair turned into a dazzling gold as well.

After comprehending three supreme Laws of the Universe, Bu Fang's fighting prowess was equivalent to an ordinary high-grade God King. It was probably not as good as the Thunder Dragon, but he was not fighting alone.

Down below, Tian Qiu's expression suddenly changed. His eyes became extremely sinister as he stuck out his tongue, licked his lips, and smiled coldly. Then, he rose into the sky and flew silently toward Bu Fang. He was going to severely injure Bu Fang while he was fighting the Thunder Dragon and take over his body!

However, just as Tian Qiu was moving, the gatekeeper's old face appeared in front of him.

"Little bastard... I was about to settle the scores with you! Where are you going?!"

The gatekeeper's aura fluctuated like the sea as he raised a palm, compressed the void before him, and struck at Tian Qiu.

A fierce battle broke out in midair. For a moment, the whole City of God Kings turned into a battlefield.

Suddenly, a shrill dragon roar rang out. Everyone turned to look at where the Thunder Dragon and Bu Fang were fighting. The battle there seemed to take a surprising turn!

Chapter 1515: Mass Vomiting

Inside one of the houses in the safe zone's assembly point...

Tai Fei sat cross-legged in a dark and damp room. There was an icy aura lingering in the air, and the ground was covered with bones that were emanating monstrous resentment. Black balls could be seen in every corner of the room, constantly expanding and contracting as if they were alive and breathing.

Tai Fei opened his eyes. A flash of scarlet flickered in them, and the corners of his mouth curved upward slightly as he turned to look at those black balls with a trace of tenderness on his face.

A moment later, the door opened with a creak. Sunlight poured through it. He looked up at the people stepping into the house. They were two young men and a girl, handsome and beautiful.

"You're all here..." Tai Fei said with a sinister smile as he rose to his feet and looked at the newcomers, whose eyes were also gleaming coldly.

"It's time. This safe zone shall turn into the paradise of the Soul Demons," said the girl in a shrill voice.

The others laughed, and then they walked out of the house together. Suddenly, the black balls began to burst open, and one monster after another crawled out of them. A terrifying aura spread and filled the air.

Rumble!

At this moment, the appearances of Tai Fei and his three companions changed. Black insect scales covered their faces, and their aura became extremely fearsome. They exchanged glances and saw the greed and ferociousness in each other's eyes.

Without a word, they all transformed into black shadows and sped away, heading in different directions within the safe zone. Soon, miserable shrieks rang out across the whole safe zone!

A terrible rumble echoed out. Laughing, a blond Bu Fang moved across the air and landed on the Thunder Dragon's head. The formidable Blood Beast King, who ranked fourth on the list, was shivering at this moment as if he was struck by something extremely horrible.

The aura coming from blond Bu Fang terrified him. It seemed to work on the depths of his soul, making him want to get down on his knees.

'Why is this man so scary?! That is a dragon's aura! Why would a human possess such an aura?! Besides, this must be the aura of a supreme dragon since it has suppressed me until even my blood has stopped flowing!'

Bu Fang, laughing and standing on top of the Thunder Dragon's head, reached out a hand and patted the Blood Beast King. "Be a good dragon and surrender under the feet of your noble Nicholas the Handsome Dragon!"

With a shake of his hand, the golden Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife fell into his grip, bursting with a thousand shafts of bright light and giving out a sonorous dragon roar.

A fear that came from the depths of his soul made the Thunder Dragon's body fall and smash onto the ground with a crash, shaking the whole City of God Kings.

All the people in the city were petrified. The development of the battle had taken them by surprise.

Shouldn't Bu Fang be crushed? Shouldn't a Demigod be killed in seconds by a top Blood Beast King? Even though he had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe and possessed mighty power, he should not be strong enough to suppress the Thunder Dragon in a flash, should he?

Could this be a fake dragon? Perhaps... he really was a fake dragon!

Rumble!

Meanwhile, the battle between the gatekeeper and Tian Qiu was a close match. Tian Qiu had just stepped into the high-grade God King realm, so even with his extraordinary means, he could hardly defeat the old man, who had been in the same realm for many years.

The gatekeeper was ranked fifth on the God King List, so his strength was naturally amazing. If he hadn't been sneaked up on and seriously injured, Tian Qiu might have been defeated.

After all, the Law of Space was incomparably profound. Coupled with the gatekeeper's divine abilities, Tian Qiu should be suppressed in seconds. However, because the old man was injured, Tian Qiu managed to fight a close match with him.

The surrounding Blood Beast Kings and the God Kings were also fighting. Terrible rumbles and divine power swept through the air, and the world seemed to be on the verge of collapsing.

The relic had rarely seen such a fierce battle, one that was between the Blood Beast Kings and humans. However, the intense battle did not attract anyone's attention. All the people were staring somewhere in the distance, where a blond young man was beating the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon.

The impact of this scene on everyone was enormous, especially those Demigods. They were at the same level, but why was the gap between them so huge? If they were to face a Blood Beast King, the latter could easily kill them with a finger.

Fang Wuji was shaking all over with excitement, his eyes gleaming. His sword was already very hungry. He seemed to have found his goal, which was Bu Fang. However, he soon became somewhat dejected because he realized that there was a long way for him to go before he could catch up with Bu Fang.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Bu Fang punched the Thunder Dragon on the head over and over again, but the domineering dragon did not even dare to resist. He just crouched on the ground, unmoving. It was a bizarre scene.

Luo Sanniang, Summer, and the others were astonished. Was the Thunder Dragon really so weak? Or was Bu Fang, who had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe, too strong?

A miserable dragon roar rang out. The Thunder Dragon tried to escape. He struggled and soared into the air, his long body slithering. He wanted to free himself from Bu Fang and flee this place, this nightmarish place.

The dragon was a clan that attached great importance to hierarchy. The dragon's might emanating from this human before him did not make sense at all—it was too supreme. Facing this human, he could not even use up to one-tenth of his cultivation base.

How could he fight with that? If he continued to fight, he might be forcefully smashed to death! He, the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon, could not bear the shame of being smashed to death by a human who was as weak as an ant! So he wanted to run away!

'The Heavengod's bones and blood, as well as Dark Blood Phoenix's death... they can all go to hell!' he thought.

"Hey... How dare you try to run away from this handsome dragon?!" Blond Bu Fang grinned. He rarely had the opportunity to shine. Clutching the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife firmly, he thrust it down hard and stabbed it into the Thunder Dragon's neck.

Roar!

The dragon soul in the kitchen knife roared. The Thunder Dragon trembled and fell back to the ground, crumbling it.

'Dammit!' The Thunder Dragon's body and soul were shaking. The dragon's might had immobilized him. 'No, I must fight back!' he growled in his head.

The next moment, his aura fluctuated as he leaped forward and fell on the ground with a crash, causing it to explode. Then, his body began to slither upward and shot toward the clouds, heading into the sky as fast as he could...

All the people lifted their heads and watched as the dragon made its ascent.

Like a column of light, the Thunder Dragon rushed to the top, and then he reached his limit... Eventually, he slowly fell back down toward the ground and landed with a thunderous thump, creating a large pit. Blood flowed out of him in streams, and he was no longer breathing.

Blond Bu Fang walked out of the pit, flipped his hair, and pulled out the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife. A dragon soul shrieked, and then it was sucked away by the knife.

“Remember my name. I am... Nicholas the Handsome Dragon!” he threw his head back and burst out laughing.

However, his laughter soon came to an abrupt halt, and his golden hair changed back to black hair. With an indifferent expression, Bu Fang rubbed his face, which was a little stiff from the laughing...

Looking at the colossal dragon body, the corner of his mouth twitched a little, and he stuck out his tongue to lick his lips. Now he got something to eat. He put the Thunder Dragon's body into the System's storage space, leaving only one leg behind.

Bu Fang had his unique take on cooking the dragon meat, and he would surely make a delicious meal out of it.

The dragon's leg was huge, larger than the Blood Phoenix's leg. He sent the Power of Law into his Taotie Arm and began to press it. With every press of his finger, the dragon scales trembled slightly.

After pressing for hundreds of times, he landed on the ground and flicked the leg with his finger. The scales fell off one after another, revealing the tender and pink dragon meat underneath.

The crowd was stupefied. Just like that, the Thunder Dragon was dead? Why did he not even struggle a little? He was a top Blood Beast King!

In the distance, the Blood Beast Kings fighting with the God Kings all looked terrified. Without hesitation, they turned and fled. Now that the Thunder Dragon was dead, no one was there to lead them, so they naturally would not continue fighting the humans.

Bu Fang put his thumb and forefinger together and rubbed them. A silver flame immediately appeared over his finger. With a thought in his mind, the flame grew larger, turned into a towering wall of flames, and blanketed the huge dragon leg.

The pink leg began to slowly change color in the flames, from pink to red-brown, then to golden...

Luo Sanniang, Summer, and the others did not know whether to cry or laugh, while the experts and geniuses of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty felt their flesh creep.

“Is this chef... always so ferocious? Without even batting an eye, he had killed a Blood Beast King as strong as a high-grade God King!”

A rich aroma rose and filled the air. It was a meaty fragrance that seemed to work on one's soul. The Thunder Dragon was considered a super-top food ingredient, and the cuisine cooked with it must be... matchless!

Bu Fang could hardly hold down his hunger, and his stomach kept growling. He thought the dragon leg was more to his taste than the Blood Phoenix leg.

As the strong aroma wafted further, the face of Tian Qiu, who was fighting the gatekeeper in the distance, changed dramatically. He smelled the fragrance, and he immediately felt his stomach turn. Glancing over his shoulder, he saw Bu Fang was rubbing his hands and waiting for the huge dragon leg to be cooked.

‘This f*cking...’ Tian Qiu swore in his mind. ‘This Thunder Dragon is a piece of crap! How could he let someone kill him so easily? He’s an existence who ranked fourth on the Blood Beast King List! Not only was he murdered by a mere Demigod, but he was also even made into a dish! He has brought shame to all the other Blood Beast Kings!’

The gatekeeper focused his eyes. Taking the opportunity that Tian Qiu was in a daze, he unleashed his Law of Space, which turned into nine squares and shattered the void in a flash!

“F*ck! Dammit!” Tian Qiu’s eyes flickered with a blood-colored gleam. He could wait no longer. If this were to continue, his plan would fail. It never occurred to him that the human, who he almost killed, would become someone who ruined the most important part of his plan.

Insect scales covered his body, and his appearance changed tremendously.

BOOM!

At this moment, Tian Qiu no longer looked like a human being. He had transformed into a huge monster with sharp scales that were reflecting light. A terrifying black aura lingered between heaven and earth as he opened his mouth and hissed.

The gatekeeper's expression suddenly changed. He clutched his chest with one hand, his face twisting. As he looked down, he saw a black ball emerge from the wound on his chest, expanding and contracting rapidly as if it was about to burst open. His hair stood on end. He never sensed this black ball before.

Rumble!

Outside the City of God Kings, the trees broke and fell as one black savage beast after another sped through them. A scary black aura poured over, blotting out the sky.

Meanwhile, many houses inside the city were collapsing. Soon, black savage monsters rushed out of them, all swooping down toward the surrounding experts. At this moment, the whole city seemed to turn into a terrifying place with death everywhere!

Tian Qiu was behind all this. At last, he could not help but make his move. He wanted to turn the City of God Kings into a land of death, and all the experts in the city would become his food and nourishment. It was for this moment that he had paid a great price to lure all the top God Kings out of the city!

Boom!

The black aura fluctuated, and the void seemed to be collapsing. The gatekeeper's chest had burst apart, and at least half of the energy in him was sucked away by the black ball. To him, this was like a nightmare. His eyes were filled with horror as he looked at the black ball. He had finally experienced the terror mentioned by the Divine Emperor.

Not only him, but the experts of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty also felt the same terror. They were now surrounded by countless ferocious creatures, which made them feel that they had fallen into a hopeless situation.

Click.

A drop of grease fell to the ground, accompanied by the sound of someone sucking saliva. With one hand, Bu Fang grabbed the dragon leg, which seemed as large as a house, took a deep breath, and said, “The roasted dragon leg with secret sauce is done!”

His stomach growled like thunder. Holding the dragon leg, he rose into the sky and hovered in front of Tian Qiu, who had transformed into a ferocious savage monster. Then, he opened his mouth and took a bite of the dragon leg, tearing off a piece of meat.

Thick grease slowly flowed down from the meat, and the aroma contained in it exploded out and swept across the whole area like a storm! For a moment, the whole City of God King was shrouded in a delicious fragrance!

Tian Qiu, who was now a ferocious monster, widened his eyes, fixed them on Bu Fang, and hissed savagely. He sounded as if he was swearing. However, he had not finished when he fell to the ground and began vomiting...

The aroma almost choked him to death!

Around the City of God Kings, the countless savage monsters all stopped in place suddenly, then fell to the ground and began vomiting as well.

The group of people, who thought they were in a hopeless situation and would soon die, were dumbfounded. Everyone was speechless, including the gatekeeper, Luo Sanniang, and the experts and geniuses of the emissary group.

Were these creatures here to make them laugh?

Chapter 1516: In Howling’s Eyes...

Blaargh...

The terrifying attack of the savage monsters stopped at this moment as they all fell to the ground and began to throw up noisily.

The many experts in the City of God Kings were dumbfounded. Luo Sanniang and the others did not know whether to cry or laugh, and the corners of their mouths twitched violently as they looked at Bu Fang in midair.

So chefs were the nemesis of these creatures? Why did such a dangerous situation become so comical and ridiculous?

The surrounding God Kings all landed and breathed out long sighs. The sudden change was a temporary relief to them.

Holding the dragon leg that was as huge as a house, Bu Fang opened his mouth, revealed his white teeth, and took a bite of it. The aroma, spirit essence, and spiritual energy kept rushing out of it, lingering in the air and enveloping the whole city in a flash.

He was hovering in midair, happily eating the dragon meat by large mouthfuls while facing Tian Qiu, who had transformed into a scary monster. Large drops of grease trickled down the leg and fell to the ground, producing deafening rumbles as they landed.

Bu Fang ate very fast as he was too hungry. It was a type of hunger that felt like his whole body had been hollowed out. The huge dragon was disappearing at a rate visible to the naked eyes. Before long, it was finished, leaving only a glinting bone that he casually threw to the ground.

Burp!

He belched and felt the pores all over his body had opened. It was a very comfortable feeling. The feeling of being full was just too wonderful.

Many people could not believe that Bu Fang was eating meat in the middle of a battle, and what shocked them even more was that he had killed a top Blood Beast King!

Only Summer remained calm. After all, she had seen Bu Fang kill the Blood Phoenix. She was not shocked, and she knew that this was all normal.

The geniuses of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty, on the other hand, were staring with their mouths wide open, their jaws almost dropping to the ground. They were utterly terrified. Why was there such a huge gap between them when they were all Demigods?

That was a top Blood Beast King, a supreme existence who could crush most of the high-grade God Kings! Even the high-grade God King who led them here would flee in the face of such an existence, let alone them.

But... That Thunder Dragon was f*cking slain by Bu Fang, and his thick dragon leg was roasted and eaten in front of everyone! This was simply too... savage and cruel!

Even the top genius of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty, their crown prince, would be dwarfed in front of Bu Fang!

Boom!

Tian Qiu stopped throwing up and managed to suppress the sick feeling in his stomach. His eyes immediately burst with a dazzling, menacing light.

“You damn chef... I hate chefs!”

He opened his mouth, screaming and hissing. The next moment, the insect scales on his body flipped open, and as they shook slightly, he ripped through the void and shot toward Bu Fang.

Bu Fang had just finished the dragon leg and was exhaling comfortably when Tian Qiu approached. A brutal aura filled the sky.

With a humming sound, a bone knife appeared in Tian Qiu’s hand, which looked somewhat unusual. It was segmented like the vertebrae of some fierce monster, and the bones were carved with strange patterns.

A rumbling sound rang out as the bone knife slashed out, causing the void to explode as it moved across the sky. Bu Fang’s pupils suddenly constricted.

“That is... Mister Bu’s divine power?!”

Down below, Luo Sanniang sucked in a cold breath. Fang Wuji, on the other hand, felt all his hair stand on end. He was very familiar with Bu Fang's divine power. After all, he was defeated by Bu Fang.

Summer was frowning as she watched. These creatures possessed the ability to imitate others. Except for the Laws, they could imitate everything an expert had mastered, including divine power and divine abilities. That made them very tricky to deal with.

Besides, it seemed that they were still evolving and growing. Tian Qiu was not this strong when she last saw him!

Tian Qiu's eyes were filled with madness. He was an expert of the Soul Demon clan. As one of the Soul Demons who descended into this Chaotic Universe, he desperately wanted to grow up and become the first existence to break through to the Soul Overlord realm.

As long as he became a Soul Overlord, he would be able to communicate with the Soul Realm, obtain the Soul God's reward, and become the ultimate ruler of this Chaotic Universe.

A Chaotic Universe could only support five Soul Overlords, so he had to become one as soon as possible. After all, competition did exist between Soul Demons!

Though the chef before him was despicable and kept making delicious food to disgust him, that chef's body was emitting the light of a treasure in his eyes. It was a true treasured body, and as long as he occupied it, he would have no trouble in becoming a Soul Overlord!

"The Soul Knife of Affliction!"

Tian Qiu slashed his bone knife toward Bu Fang. A vast amount of knife energy immediately converged into a knife. It was as though he had made ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine slashes in a flash. The attack was extremely scary and powerful!

'This is that chef's divine power,' Tian Qiu sneered. 'It cannot be more perfect than attacking him with his own divine power!'

Bu Fang floated in midair. Now that he was full, he finally had the strength to do something. 'These strange creatures are indeed disgusting... It's time to deal with them. Shall I choke them to death with delicious food? This is not practical... Food can at most make them sick but not kill them. After all, these creatures are not fools...'

He produced the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife and focused his eyes, staring at Tian Qiu's Soul Knife of Affliction, which was an attack the creature created after imitating his divine power. Then, he took a deep breath. His aura skyrocketed while three Wheels of Law glowed at the same time, their auras joining and turning into shocking waves.

Even then, a supreme existence emerged behind him. It was the shadow of a chef with a kitchen knife in hand and a scary aura. In fact, this was the shadow of the ancient Heavengod who created the Kitchen Knife of Affliction.

Now that Bu Fang had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe, he was finally able to unleash part of the divine power's true power!

He held the knife with one hand. Wisps of knife energy swirled around his arm, accompanied by the Taotie's roar. The next moment, he made an upward slash with the knife.

Rumble!

A knife tore the sky and slashed the firmament!

"This is the real Kitchen Knife of Affliction!" Bu Fang said coldly.

A knife light streaked across the sky and collided with the knife light slashed out with the bone knife. It was as though two high-grade God Kings were fighting. A terrible rumble rang out as the void where the knife lights collided exploded, causing a tremendous amount of spatial turbulence to keep spewing out.

All the people sucked in their breaths and looked up at the scary scene in the sky. At this moment, the geniuses of the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty were completely smitten by Bu Fang. Luo Sanniang's eyes were gleaming as she thought, 'Mister Bu is indeed a man of miracles!'

As for Summer, she breathed out a long sigh of relief.

Rumble!

Two figures separated in the sky and landed on the ground with a crash. Black smoke kept spreading out from Tian Qiu's body, and his eyes were overflowing with monstrous killing intent.

Bu Fang, on the other hand, stepped on the ground in the City of God Kings, staring indifferently at his opponent with the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife spinning in his hand.

The gatekeeper's aura was fluctuating unsteadily. He was taken aback when he saw the black ball in his wound. Fortunately, he had discovered it soon enough and had suppressed it with his Power of Law, so the black ball did not suck away all his energy.

Bu Fang glanced over his shoulder at the gatekeeper. With a flick of his finger, a silver flame shot out, turned into a silver ray, and went straight into the black ball. As the flame began to burn, a shrill howl burst out of it.

That shocked and puzzled the gatekeeper. Even he could not destroy the black ball, and yet Bu Fang was able to kill it so effortlessly? What kind of flame was this?

His pupils constricted. The flame frightened even him. He could sense the aura of countless Laws in it, which made him feel as though he was facing a top-grade God King.

Anyone who had comprehended five hundred Laws could be called a high-grade God King, and when one comprehended over a thousand Laws, one would be a top-grade God King.

The gatekeeper was a top-grade God King because he had comprehended almost one thousand Laws. This was also the reason why he was ranked on the God King List.

Bu Fang retracted the Divine flame and nodded at the gatekeeper. With the black ball gone, the old man's aura began to recover rapidly. Bu Fang shook his hand, and an oyster pancake immediately flew toward the gatekeeper.

"This is..." The gatekeeper focused his eyes as a look of doubt came over his face. However, because of his trust in Bu Fang, he ate the oyster pancake. As soon as the pancake entered his mouth, he was intoxicated by its delicious taste.

Boom!

The oyster pancake's energy exploded in his body, and he felt that his wound was rapidly healing. "This thing is... so amazing?!" He sucked in a cold breath.

In the distance, Tian Qiu's eyes grew redder when he saw the black ball he had meticulously planted in the gatekeeper's body was destroyed by Bu Fang. If it could absorb the energy of a top-grade God King, the black ball would produce a fearsome Soul Demon. However, everything was ruined by the chef. Was this chef really his nemesis?!

"Damn chef... Why do you keep ruining my plan?!"

Tian Qiu was boiling with rage. All the insect scales on him opened up, and a dark aura spread, which seemed to turn into flowing fluid and covered his entire body, making him look even more ferocious. His aura was soaring, and he no longer looked like a human.

Boom!

Like teleporting, he appeared in front of Bu Fang in a flash and slashed out his bone knife, tearing the void apart with a terrifying force.

Meanwhile, the savage creatures in the surroundings attacked again, all rushing madly toward the city. The God Kings immediately sped forward to fight them. A violent battle broke out in an instant!

The gatekeeper had recovered his cultivation base. He had thought of helping Bu Fang, but when he saw the other God Kings were on the verge of being defeated by those strange creatures, he turned to help them and to protect the city.

The gatekeeper was, after all, a top-grade God King. With his help, the situation was instantly stabilized. Numerous creatures were blown apart as his terrifying Power of Law swept past them. The mighty offensive power of the Law of Space was on full display at this moment.

In the distance, however, Bu Fang was being suppressed by Tian Qiu. He was just a Demigod, and it was only because of his three supreme Laws of the Universe that he could fight a high-grade God King.

“A piece of crap! Why don’t you fight back? I thought you’re very strong? Is that all you got? In that case, you better become my food! You smell much nicer than the human food you always cooked!”

Tian Qiu’s eyes were bloodshot, and he looked like a lunatic as he kept forcing Bu Fang back with powerful moves.

“In the eyes of the Soul Demons, you human beings are all rubbish! You should be weeded out and become our food!”

Tian Qiu laughed wildly with a cocky and mad look.

Bu Fang focused his eyes, his aura fluctuating. “Oh, so you want to see who is cockier?” he said with a straight face. The next moment, his pupils became sharp, turning into sword pupils.

“White Tiger... Smash him to death!”

With a rumble, Bu Fang’s figure flickered, and his black hair turned white instantly.

Tian Qiu threw down a punch, but it was caught by white-haired Bu Fang’s hand.

Looking up with an indifferent face and slowly raising his chin, white-haired Bu Fang said, “Who did you say is food? In Howling’s eyes... you are nothing!”

Chapter 1517: Smash Tian Qiu to Death!

“In my eyes, you are nothing!” white-haired Bu Fang said lightly. His voice was powerful, and together with his raised chin, he looked cocky and overbearing.

All the people watching the battle from down below gasped. Domineering and haughty, those were the only words they could think of to describe the current Bu Fang.

He was being suppressed, but he looked as confident as if he was rubbing Tian Qiu against the ground. Just where did he get his confidence? Many people were confused.

Tian Qiu's face, twisted and no longer looked like a human, was blank. The next moment, his scarlet eyes burst into a menacing light!

“Are all humans so... ignorant?!”

He lifted his bone knife. A mighty force erupted immediately and knocked white-haired Bu Fang flying away. Then, he made a slash, sealing off the void around Bu Fang with countless knife lights. A black aura shrouded these knife lights, making their destructive power even more terrifying.

Boom!

An explosion broke out, spreading over three hundred miles, and a long river of spatial turbulence was slashed out in the sky.

Like a spring, white-haired Bu Fang sprung up abruptly and landed on the ground in the distance. Standing straight like a spear, he raised a palm as if he was sensing the power flowing in him.

“Three supreme Laws of the Universe... So Little Host has finally grown up to this level?”

Eyes flashing, he seemed to be lamenting about something. Then, he breathed a soft sigh, focused his eyes, and said, “But... It's still not enough. The power of three supreme Laws is still...too weak.”

All the people present, including Fang Wuji and Luo Sanniang, were speechless. White-haired Bu Fang's muttering seemed soft, but their hearing was sharp.

After comprehending the three supreme Laws of the Universe, he had already surpassed all the top geniuses in this world. No one could be more gifted than him, yet he still complained that he was too weak?

Clenching his fist, white-haired Bu Fang looked up at Tian Qiu in the distance and slowly raised his chin.

“However... The energy supplied by the three supreme Laws is enough for me to smash you ugly thing to death.” Bu Fang grinned, his whole body bursting with unparalleled confidence.

Suddenly, a white tiger appeared behind him, then the Law of Space spread and swirled around his fist as he threw out a slow punch at the void before him. When the punch was about to reach its maximum distance, the void shattered, and the fist smashed Tian Qiu on the chest.

The gatekeeper, who was fighting other creatures in the distance, had been watching Bu Fang's battle. When he saw Bu Fang use that trick, he sucked in a cold breath. The use of the Law of Space was not weaker than him. Was this really a Demigod's understanding of the Law of Space?

"Sure enough, a genius can never be judged by common sense."

Bam!

Tian Qiu did not think that he would be hit by Bu Fang. His aura fluctuated as he moved back several steps.

Silver flames emerged, swirling around Bu Fang. At this moment, he looked like a real Heavengod from above the skies.

All eyes were filled with awe.

"Little Host asked me to smash you to death, so I naturally have to do as he bid..." white-haired Bu Fang said, raising his smooth chin.

The next moment, he took a step. The Law of Space lingered around his feet, then he seemed to have darted out of space and appeared over Tian Qiu's head.

Tian Qiu, who had transformed into a savage monster, roared. His black aura turned into one sharp knife energy after another and slashed toward white-haired Bu Fang. He tried to imitate Bu Fang's trick, but since it was based on the Power of Law, he failed.

Rumble!

White-haired Bu Fang planted a foot on Tian Qiu's head, and the savage monster who was as strong as a high-grade God King felt a terrible aura erupt over his head. His armor of insect scales shattered.

The foot actually contained the Law of Destruction! As soon as the power spread, it struck Tian Qiu like a cannonball, and an explosion broke out in an instant. The aura of destruction vibrated, knocking Tian Qiu flying away.

White-haired Bu Fang stepped into the void again, and when he reappeared, he wrapped his fist with the Law of Destruction and threw out another punch. The Taotie Arm gave him near-invincible power!

Tian Qiu's pupils constricted, and his face was somewhat twisted. With a look of disbelief, he was repeatedly knocked flying away in the sky, and his armor was constantly breaking and falling.

With all eyes on him, he was powerless to fight back and kept bouncing back and forth like a ball.

"So this is a genius who has comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe? Does that really make him so fearsome?" Fang Wuji muttered, the sword behind his back shivering with fear.

It was indeed a bit shocking to know that a Demigod who comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe could fight a high-grade God King, but it should not be in such a crushing manner, shouldn't it?

After all, a Demigod had just started to comprehend the Laws. Yet, at this moment, Bu Fang appeared like a veteran of Laws who had mastered the usage of the supreme Laws of the Universe!

"The third Law... The Law of Transmigration."

White-haired Bu Fang had a deep look in his eyes as a stream of gray air hung over his fist. The next moment, he stepped through the void, came behind Tian Qiu, and threw a punch with the Law of Transmigration onto his back.

Tian Qiu immediately let out a miserable howl. His armor was completely shattered, and he was forcefully thrown to the ground in the City of God Kings like a cannonball. A large pit immediately emerged in the city.

Bu Fang hovered in midair, his white hair fluttering in the wind as he raised his chin cockily.

Down below, Tian Qiu struggled to his feet. He had the power of a high-grade God King, but he could not use it. He was suppressed by Bu Fang the whole time, and he could not even touch Bu Fang's sleeve. This was unbelievable!

“You...”

His scaled armor was completely destroyed, revealing the look of a human inside. However, he appeared very miserable at this moment. He wanted to fight back, but his heart was filled with fear because Bu Fang seemed invincible to him at this moment...

‘That damn Power of Law!’

The Soul Demons were born with the ability to imitate, but they could not imitate the Power of Law. This was their only weakness. If he could imitate it, he would not be afraid of this human before him!

Suddenly, the void was torn apart. White-haired Bu Fang reached out his Taotie Arm and slowly raised a finger.

Tian Qiu's pupils constricted. The void before him slowly tore apart, then a finger came out of it and pressed against his forehead. Sharp energy cut his skin, causing black blood to rush out...

At this moment, a silver flame swirled over white-haired Bu Fang's finger. With a flick of his finger, the flame darted forward and burrowed into Tian Qiu's head.

A rumbling sound rang out as Tian Qiu's eyes grew dim in an instant. Then, a plume of black smoke rose from his head, hissing and speeding madly toward the sky as if to flee.

“I can't die here... I am an existence who will become the Soul Overlord! I can't die here!

“Run! I must run as fast as possible!

“My flesh is too weak. If it’s stronger, I wouldn’t be afraid of this human! Dammit...”

The black figure was twisting like a spirit.

White-haired Bu Fang focused his eyes, his sword pupils constricted as if they had locked onto the black figure. Then, he raised his hand. The Law of Space spread, and he performed a grabbing gesture at the void.

Much to his despair, the black figure discovered that the void around him was cut open. Now, if he continued to move, he would be ripped into pieces by the sharp Law of Space! As a result, he could only stay there and hiss desperately!

Rumble!

White-haired Bu Fang appeared, glancing indifferently at the black figure in the sky, which seemed to be the condensation of the world’s dirtiest energy.

His white hair turned back to black. With a straight face, Bu Fang looked at the dirty energy and breathed out a soft sigh. Then, he flicked his finger, and the silver flame emerged again. He wanted to burn the black figure.

The black figure let out a miserable howl. Suddenly, the struggling figure burst into light, turned into a tiny beam of black light, and shot toward Bu Fang’s forehead, paying no heed to the terrible silver Divine flame. He was trying to burrow into Bu Fang’s spirit sea.

Bu Fang furrowed his brows and raised his Taotie Arm. However, the black figure, who was being burned by the Divine flame and seemed to be on the verge of turning into ashes, moved as slippery as a catfish and burrowed into his forehead, entering his spirit sea.

“Well...” Bu Fang sighed and observed a moment of silence for the black figure. His spirit sea was the most terrifying part of him.

The black figure was extremely weak, but when he burrowed into Bu Fang’s spirit sea, he jumped up in wild joy. He never thought that he would succeed! The human being’s spirit sea was very weak. As long as he occupied it, he would occupy this fleshly body, and becoming a Soul Overlord would no longer be a dream!

Like a tadpole, he slowly swam forward. Suddenly, the spirit sea opened up before him. A world that was as fast as a sea emerged in front of him. In this vast sea, he saw spinning whirlpools, a divine dragon and a vermilion bird wheeling in the sky, a black turtle swimming in the sea, and a white tiger crouching in the distant sky...

Their terrible auras joined as one and suppressed the void. He also saw a golden book floating quietly at the top of the sea, looking extremely profound and mysterious.

“This... This is...”

The black figure froze. He looked at the golden book, which was emanating a supreme aura like a terrible being born in the chaos. It made him unable to move. From it, he seemed to sense an aura comparable to that of the Soul God...

“This... This human...”

The God of Cooking’s Menu flashed, and a beam of golden light projected out of it, falling onto the black figure.

Accompanied by a miserable howl, the black figure was pulled into the God of Cooking’s Menu and digested in an instant...

The true-form of Bu Fang’s divine sense, who sat cross-legged over the God of Cooking’s Menu, opened its eyes, its aura fluctuating.

...

Bu Fang landed. Tian Qiu’s corpse laid on the ground. He was already dead. After he was possessed by the terrible creature, he no longer had consciousness, and all that remained of him now was a soulless body.

“Oh?”

Suddenly, Bu Fang shook his hand. A beam of light shot out of Tian Qiu's body and was caught by him. It was a small notebook with blood-colored energy swirling over it and filled with monstrous blood and energy, which seemed to represent the blood countless people had shed when fighting for it.

"The ancient Heavengod's Note..." Bu Fang was a little stunned.

The people in the distance and surroundings saw that as well, and their breathing became faster and faster.

With the death of Tian Qiu, the remaining terrifying creatures immediately retreated and disappeared into the woods. They had appeared like spirits, and now they vanished in the same way.

While the people present breathed sighs of relief, they also felt a dark cloud hanging over their heads.

"The Heavengod's Note!"

The beard on the gatekeeper's face was twitching. If it wasn't for the fact that the Note was in Bu Fang's hand, he would have been tempted to snatch it.

"No wonder the Bright Heavenly Thunder Dragon attacked the City of God Kings. He must have sensed the aura of the Heavengod's Note... Otherwise, no existences on the Blood Beast King List would dare to attack this city. After all, this is a stronghold of humans. Those cunning Blood Beast Kings would not attack here without rich enough reward. The death of Blood Phoenix is just an excuse. Even among Blood Beast Kings, competitions exist."

Bu Fang's eyes narrowed slightly. With a thought in his mind, the Heavengod's Note immediately soared into the air as if it was being provoked. Then, it grew larger and larger, covering the whole sky. A sea of blood seemed to appear, with strong blood-colored energy churning in it.

As the crowd watched in bewilderment, the Heavengod's Note slowly opened and turned into a huge painting...

'Attention, Host. Congratulations for successfully absorbing the energy of an alien race. Host is now qualified to take the test of cooking a new dish from the God of Cooking's Menu...

‘Are you willing to accept the test?’

Just as the huge painting was slowly unfolding, the System’s serious voice rang in Bu Fang’s head.

Chapter 1518: The Cursed Goddess... Awakened?

‘Are you willing to accept the test?’ The System’s serious voice rang in Bu Fang’s head, rumbling like thunder.

Bu Fang frowned. ‘I’ve absorbed the energy of an alien race? Could it be the black figure that went into my spirit sea just now?’

After thinking for a moment, he replied seriously, ‘No.’

The System seemed speechless. After that, Bu Fang paid no more attention to its voice. He raised his head and rested his eyes on the huge painting that was unrolling in the sky.

Compared to the task of cooking a dish from the God of Cooking’s Menu, he felt the painting was more important. If he was right, the location where the ancient Heavengod died would be revealed when it was fully unrolled. Then, this trip’s task would be almost completed.

Rumble!

A huge amount of blood churned in the sky like a sea, and in the middle of that was an unrolled painting, which presented a vivid image.

Bu Fang focused his eyes and saw a large map on the painting. A red line was drawn across it, leading to a location, which attracted everyone’s eyes as if it possessed some magic power. He frowned.

The gatekeeper was also staring at the map, his wrinkled cheeks shivering. “‘That’s... Is that the lair of the existence ranked top on the Blood Beast King List?!’” he said in a trembling voice.

As a famous figure on the God King List who had explored the ancient Heavengod's relic for nearly ten thousand years, the old man was very familiar with everything here. He knew every place like the back of his hand, and he could find the right ways even with his eyes closed.

However, the place pointed out on the Heavengod's Note was where he dared not to explore. That was the lair of the existence ranked number one on the Blood Beast King List, a forbidden zone for all living things. Even the average Blood Beast King would not dare to get too close there because once they accidentally intruded, they would be greeted by death.

"Why is the Note marked out at that location?" Bu Fang was puzzled.

The gatekeeper's cheeks trembled, and he stared at Bu Fang as if he was looking at an idiot.

"The Note contains the location of the Heavengod's treasure in this relic. Surely you're here for the Heavengod's treasures, such as the Heavengod's divine power, Laws, and equipment," the old man said as he pointed at the painting in the sky.

"Now, the Note has told you everything. The place the red line leads to is where blood once shed and the location of the Heavengod's treasure... Do you have any idea how many people are searching for this Note? It never occurred to me that the real Note is with this fellow..."

The gatekeeper's face was slightly flushed with excitement.

"There are seven Heavengod's Notes. Six are fake, and only one is real... I can't believe the real one is here! Now, with the location of the Heavengod's treasure revealed, a bloody storm will soon descend upon the relic!"

His words shocked everyone, but soon, all eyes were gleaming with passion and excitement.

A Heavengod's treasure! Heavengods were the supreme existences of the Chaotic Universe. There were only five of them now, each corresponding to one supreme Law of the Universe. Of course, there were many more Heavengods in ancient times.

The Note did not stay in the sky for long. Soon, it began to gradually crumble. Perhaps Tian Qiu had acquired it to attract humans, so he did not open it. Now that it was opened, it quickly vanished, together with all the blood that filled the sky.

Eventually, everything was gone, and the sky was bright and clear once again. The people looked at each other, and then their eyes turned red. Even the geniuses from the Immortal Spirit Divine Dynasty looked excited.

The location of the ancient Heavengod's treasure was exposed. It was an opportunity for everyone. Even though they were weak, if they could acquire just a little bit of the treasure, it should still benefit them greatly! They exchanged glances and saw the excitement in each other's eyes.

The high-grade God Kings were the most excited group, as they were the ones most likely to get the treasure.

An uproar broke out in an instant as all the experts sped away toward the distance, rushing to the location that was marked on the Heavengod's Note.

Even the gatekeeper was tempted, but when he thought of that place, the heat in his heart died down as if a bucket of water was poured onto it. The place was just too... dangerous!

However, when he gave it a second thought, he realized that it was for that tiny chance that he had come to this relic. It just did not make sense for him to back away now when the chance had finally appeared.

He breathed out a long sigh, gave Bu Fang a deep look, turned, and flew away. He was going to chase his dream.

Bu Fang stood where he was. The City of God Kings was in ruins after the battle, and all the people had left after learning the location of the treasure from the Heavengod's Note. Only Luo Sanniang and Summer stayed behind.

Foxy jumped up to his shoulder, stuck out her tongue, and licked his face. Then Luo Sanniang and Summer walked over and looked at him.

"Why don't you go to the place marked on the Heavengod's Note?" Bu Fang glanced at them and asked.

Summer smiled nonchalantly. “So what if I go? With my strength, I won’t be able to get anything.” She did not bother herself with things beyond her control. She knew her limit.

Luo Sanniang had the same attitude. She could have a fantasy like others, but... could fantasy feed her? Besides, she had a feeling that something major was about to happen in the relic.

The storm caused by those fearsome creatures and the Heavengod’s Note would bring about a terrible purge in the relic, and countless experts would fall. She felt she was safest to stay by Bu Fang’s side. It was her intuition. After all, Bu Fang had brought her too many surprises.

Bu Fang nodded. He could understand their thoughts. However, he had to go there. That could be the key to his completion of the System’s task, which required him to devour the Laws left behind by the Heavengod with his Divine flame. He wondered how strong the flame would become when he completed the task?

Suddenly, his stomach growled again. The corner of his mouth twitched. With a thought in his mind, he took out another dragon leg. Like before, he roasted it with the Divine flame until it was charred on the outside but still tender and juicy inside.

The three of them sat cross-legged down in the city while waiting for the dragon meat to cook. Summer and Luo Sanniang were drooling with the aroma in the air. There would always be delicious food to enjoy when they followed Bu Fang. Summer knew this very well because she had tasted the Blood Phoenix, and now, she was about to enjoy the Thunder Dragon’s leg!

Luo Sanniang’s cultivation base was too weak, and she was full after eating just a little bit. The meat came from a top-grade Blood Beast King, after all, so the energy contained in it was extremely terrifying. Summer ate slightly more than her, but Foxy alone devoured more meat than the two of them combined.

As for the remaining dragon meat, they were all finished by Bu Fang. The fact that he was a Demigod but could eat so much without being blown into pieces by the energy was nothing less than a miracle.

After eating to their hearts’ content, the three people and a fox left the City of God Kings, joining the rest in heading toward the place marked on the Note.

The news of the real Heavengod's Note was found soon spread. Before too long, most of the God Kings in the relic had learned about it. Everyone was rushing madly toward the location in hope of acquiring the chance left behind by the Heavengod. They did not attach any extravagant hope to getting the treasure, but... what if luck struck? Fate was a thing that no one could predict!

Of course, there were also sensible people who recognized that their cultivation base was weak and choose not to go there. Instead, they seized the opportunity of having less competition to obtain more good things in the relic.

With almost all the experts heading to that place, the competitors in other places would be fewer. So the treasures and herbs left behind had become the possessions of these experts.

It was not exaggerated to say that a major storm was imminent.

...

At the dangerous zone of the relic...

A black hole emerged, and a man carrying a long sword on his back stepped out of it. He had a graceful air of a deity. With a thought in his mind, the sword rose into the sky, then he jumped up on it and began flying toward the place marked on the Note.

He was Yu Qiu, the top Sword God of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty and the one who ranked third on the God King List.

Meanwhile, at the head area...

A mountain was blown apart from inside and turned into a huge pit. A bald man walked out of it with gleaming eyes, leaving behind a deep footprint on the ground with every step. He was Xuan Kong, an expert with an incredibly tough fleshly body who ranked second on the God King List.

Loud whistles rang without end in the relic as one expert after another sped toward the location marked on the Heavengod's Note.

In an icy cold pool surrounded by bones...

A few bubbles emerged on the smooth surface of the pool. Then, a black dog floated up, left the pool, and shook the water off his body. Holding a glinting Heavengod bone, the dog belched and strode away with cat-like steps.

In addition to human experts, many Blood Beast Kings were stirring as well. These fearsome beings ripped through the air and blotted the sky with their colossal bodies as they headed toward the same location. Even though that was the lair of the existence ranked number one on the Blood Beast King List, they were fearless when it came to seizing the rare chance.

...

In the assembly point of the safe zone...

The beacon fire was swaying. Tai Fei stood over the city, covered in blood. A cold look came over his face as he stuck out his tongue and licked his lips.

“Of the five Soul Overlords’ thrones, I, Soul Thirteen, have taken one right now!”

A hint of a smile brushed his lips. Behind him, corpses littered the safe zone, and numerous Soul Demons slowly raised their heads, their eyes flashing red...

...

In the capital of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty...

The door of the Divine Chef Temple opened, and Nethery walked slowly out of it. She wore no shoes, and her fair feet glowed with turquoise light. Over her head, a strange power similar to that of the Laws was moving slowly. Her cultivation base had grown stronger again.

Inside the palace, the old Divine Emperor opened his cloudy eyes. His gaze focused and seemed to have looked through the void at Nethery, who was shrouded in a turquoise light from top to bottom.

“The Cursed Goddess... awakened?”

Chapter 1519: A Familiar Aura

There was a Cursed Goddess in every age. This was found in the ancient records of the Divine Dynasty.

Once, there was a matured Cursed Goddess with fearsome strength. For some reason, her curse power broke out, leaving a great world in ruins and death overnight.

Many people had no idea about the horror of a Cursed Goddess, and that was because the records were rather fuzzy. But as the ruler of the divine dynasty, the Divine Emperor was very clear about what was written in the records.

The great world wiped out by that Cursed Goddess was a first-class great world guarded by a top-grade God King. Even so, the God King died that night, and all the living beings in that world were cursed and died on the same night.

Just like the Power of Law, the curse power was a peculiar and mysterious force born in the Chaotic Universe.

The Divine Emperor had been keeping an eye on Nethery. Even though Bu Fang surprised him greatly, he had begun to pay attention to the Cursed Goddess after he first met her.

Now, with her coming out of seclusion, the curse power lingering around her worried him further. Of course, she was still nowhere near as fearsome as a matured Cursed Goddess.

...

Meanwhile, in the ancient Heavengod's relic...

Numerous figures flew across the sky at high speed, causing the void to tremble. Too many people had gathered in the head area, and their auras had joined and turned into thick rolling clouds.

The Note had marked the location of the Heavengod's treasure, and it was where the chance could be found. This news spread at once to almost the entire relic. Countless God Kings rushed madly toward the place, even though great terrors and dangers awaited them there.

The reason was simple. They had come here for the treasure, for a sliver of the chance to become a Heavengod. Only by becoming a Heavengod could they stay immortal forever. Otherwise, even men as strong as the Divine Emperor would fall as the result of old age.

The stronger the man, the more he fears death. They did not want to die, so they had to keep climbing toward higher realms.

The wind was rising, and a storm was coming.

...

There was a mountain with beautiful scenery in the head area. Surrounded by immortal energy, it was full of spirit trees, spirit flowers, and spirit grass, and it was spring all year round here. However, beneath that incredible scenery lurked a monstrous terror.

This was the location marked on the Note, the lair of the existence ranked number one on the Blood Beast King List. This was a forbidden land, a place in the relic where many God Kings and Blood Beast Kings did not want to mess with.

Now, the peace of this place was broken. Numerous figures flew over, landed outside the mountain, and surrounded it. Almost all the top experts in the relic had gathered here.

A God King, a little breathless, asked his companion, "Is this where the Heavengod's treasure lies?"

The sky and the ground were both packed with experts. Many people knew this was a dangerous place, so they did not rashly step into it. Instead, they waited outside, observing.

The gatekeeper had arrived. As an existence ranked high on the God King List, he was one of the strong contenders for the treasure. He was very old, and after waiting for ten thousand years in the relic, he finally got this chance.

Just then, bestial roars could be heard from a distance, and soon, many fearsome beasts loomed in the sky, including one rainbow butterfly who blew up a rainbow storm with every flap of its wings.

Many God Kings were shocked. “That’s... the Rainbow Butterfly of Doom who ranked third on the Blood Beast King List!” said a high-grade God King in horror as his pupils constricted.

Almost at the same time, someone else cried out in shock while staring at the other side of the sky. There, the world was shaking as a colossal mammoth emerged from the void, emanating a terrible aura while its trunk was lashing about like a divine whip.

“That’s the Primeval Demon Mammoth who ranked fourth on the Blood Beast King List!”

The God Kings were terrified, and the gatekeeper was also on alert.

Sure enough, this place had become the target of all. Human God Kings wanted to fight for the treasure and the chance, and those Blood Beast Kings also did not want to let this opportunity slip away.

Once a battle broke out between them, the whole relic could be destroyed!

While the Blood Beast Kings’ mighty presence suppressed everything, the human God Kings were showing off their fearsome prowess as well.

Yu Qiu, the Sword God, came on a sword, followed by countless swords that blotted out the sky. As an expert who comprehended over two thousand Laws, he was strong enough to shake the skies. Ranked third on the God King List, he was one of the strongest experts in the relic. Even the gatekeeper would be dwarfed in front of him.

His appearance immediately caused the whole crowd to exclaim. Some people had a feverish look on their faces, while others were horrified.

The next moment, accompanied by a burst of loud laughter that shook heaven and earth, a bald, topless man arrived, emitting powerful energy fluctuations. He was none other than Xuan Kong, the existence ranked second on the God King List!

The little mountain seemed to have become the center of a great storm.

Bu Fang landed somewhere far away from it with Luo Sanniang and the others. To them, the mountain was very beautiful and did not look like a place fraught with danger.

Summer and Luo Sanniang were shocked as it was the first time they saw so many experts gathered in one place. They reckoned that almost all the top experts of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty were here.

Bu Fang, on the other hand, was calm. Frowning, he glanced at those experts. ‘Lord Dog should be here as well, shouldn’t he? If we join hands, we can try to fight for the treasure...’

He spent some time searching, but he found no sign of Lord Dog. Since he entered the relic, Lord Dog had been acting mysteriously.

In the sky, the Demon Mammoth stomped on the void, causing it to crack and filling the air with a rumbling sound. This savage beast could not wait to make a move.

“What a huge elephant...” Bu Fang had just eaten a dragon leg, so he was not hungry. However, his appetite was aroused when he saw this Blood Beast King.

Luo Sanniang and Summer both gave him sideways glances. This guy wasn’t addicted to Blood Beast King meat, was he? He had eaten the Blood Phoenix and the Thunder Dragon, and now he was fixing his eyes on the Demon Mammoth? Others were here for a chance, but this guy seemed to come here for... tasting Blood Beast King meat?

Suddenly, the mammoth lifted its trunk and trumpeted. Then, it raised its front legs and stomped them hard toward the mountain down below.

All the people focused their eyes, while the Blood Beast Kings hiding in the void tensed up.

Had it started?! Had it finally lost its patience?

The mountain was peaceful with birds singing and flowers giving forth their fragrance, but soon, it would turn into ruins under the giant mammoth’s hooves. Standing almost ten thousand feet tall, the Primeval Demon Mammoth was the real dominator in the relic.

The existence ranked top on the Blood Beast King List was very mysterious, and many people wanted to see what it really was.

Rumble!

The hooves smashed down and struck the mountain hard. Accompanied by a rumbling sound, rings of energy spread like ripples, and then an invisible shield was formed around the mountain. It was a defensive array, and it had stopped the trample of a top-grade Blood Beast King!

Those who saw this sucked in their breaths.

The shield rippled while energy kept being released from it, causing everything in the surrounding to crumble and explode!

Yu Qiu focused his eyes, drove his sword up to the sky, and watched as the scene played out. “An array? The existence in the mountain knows how to use an array?”

He was somewhat shocked. In his opinion, Blood Beast Kings were all wild beasts, so the fact that they knew how to use arrays shocked him.

“Hehe... This might be an array left behind by the ancient Heavengod... There’s nothing to be surprised at! Let’s see if the mammoth can destroy it! These beasts’ desire for the Heavengod’s treasure is far greater than ours!” Xuan Kong said as he stroked his bald head.

Yu Qiu nodded. “No wonder that existence can remain at the top of the Blood Beast King List. With its lair sitting on top of the treasure, it would be tough not to become stronger.”

“To be honest, I’m very curious about this beast!” Xuan Kong said. His muscles were twitching, and his bones were colliding with each other, filling the air with a rumbling sound.

With a boom, the Demon Mammoth’s hooves were knocked back. The scene startled many people, and they all cried out in shock. The Demon Mammoth’s hooves were its strongest attack besides its trunk. Yet, it could not even break the array.

On the mountain, birds were still singing, flowers were still giving forth their fragrance, and rivers were still gurgling. It looked as beautiful as a fairyland.

Bu Fang, too, kept his eyes on the mountain.

The failure of the attack seemed to have irritated the Demon Mammoth. As it roared to vent its wrath, a squeaking sound rang out—the Rainbow Butterfly flapped its wings and blew up a violent tornado.

Rumble!

A trunk then lashed out like the divine whip that could break the galaxy, rushing toward the array with the Rainbow Butterfly's tornado.

Many Blood Beasts were growling.

Chuckling, Yu Qiu put his forefinger and middle finger together, raised them over his shoulder, and pointed them out. "It's time for us to move as well!"

With a slash, a huge sword shot out in an instant and smashed down! The Power of Law fluctuated in it, joining the Demon Mammoth and the Rainbow Butterfly's attack as they rushed toward the array.

Xuan Kong slapped his bald head and grinned, revealing his white teeth. Then, he raised a fist and punched himself on the chest. As a thump rang out like the clap of thunder, he opened his mouth and spat out a puff of yellow smoke!

The smoke looked like a cannonball, and with power not weaker than a sword, it joined the other attack and smashed toward the array.

The energy generated by the four top-grade existences turned the entire area into ruins, filling it with surging turbulence. In the blink of an eye, four bright streams of light fell and ruthlessly struck the shield.

The shield shook violently. Eventually, unable to withstand such a powerful combined attack, it began to crack!

“It broke!”

“The shield is broken! The existence inside is finally going to reveal itself!”

“The Heavengod’s chance and treasure are finally showing up!”

The eyes of all the experts lit up as they stared intently at the shield that was cracking.

Soon, the shield burst like a bubble. After destroying it, the attack of the four mighty experts continued to fall toward the mountain. They wanted to destroy it completely.

However, just as the attack was about to hit its target, the void suddenly froze.

At some point, a stone coffin appeared on top of the mountain. With a creak, its lid slowly moved to the side, and then a pale hand reached out of it, flashing with a ghostly green light.

The existence ranked first on the Blood Beast King List had finally appeared!

Although it only reached out a hand, it immediately attracted the attention of the entire crowd.

In the distance, Bu Fang’s eyes narrowed. “This aura... So familiar... Nethery?!”

Chapter 1520: A Lost Nethery?

The ghostly green energy, the familiar feeling...

It really looked like Nethery.

Bu Fang’s eyes fixed on the stone coffin on the scenic mountain. The hand stretched out from it was pale and bloodless, but it was shrouded by ghostly green energy.

He was sure, however, that it was not Nethery. Although their energy seemed to be of the same origin, its aura was a bit odd and much stronger than Nethery's. Most important of all, Nethery should be cultivating in the Divine Chef Temple now.

If it wasn't Nethery, then who was the woman in this coffin? Was she the Cursed Goddess of the previous generation?

Bu Fang took a deep breath, thinking.

"At last, it showed up! The existence that ranks top on the Blood Beast King List... I can finally get a good look at it!" Yu Qiu, the Sword God, chuckled. He put his forefinger and middle finger together to form what looked like the tip of a sword. Countless swords hovered around him, each one condensed by the Power of Law, and his aura fluctuated, extremely terrible and sharp.

Xuan Kong was also watching curiously.

The space around the mountain seemed to freeze as the attack from the four top experts all stopped in midair, unable to advance any further. This trick seemed somewhat magical.

Slowly, the existence in the coffin sat up, looking as if it had finally awakened from a long sleep. As her long hair tumbled down, the crowd was shocked to find that it was not some peerless monster but a weak, lifeless woman...

Everyone was stunned. The existence ranked top on the Blood Beast King List was actually... a woman?

Yu Qiu paused, and the swords around him stopped moving. On the other hand, Xuan Kong's jaw dropped open, and his expression became a little odd. How could it be a woman?

The Demon Mammoth did not care if the existence in the coffin was a woman or not. To him, there was no difference between a woman and a man—they were both human! He could not believe that the strongest of their Blood Beast Kings was actually a human being! It was a disgrace, and he was going to wash it away!

Rumble!

He lifted his trunk and, with a burst of terrible force, lashed it out at the weak woman sitting in the coffin down below!

A ghostly green glow surrounded the woman, and her energy was countless times more powerful than Nethery's. With a rumble, the ghostly green energy turned into a stream of light and lashed out, smashing the void and instantly shattering the attack from the four top experts! Then, without losing any of its speed or power, it continued rushing toward the trunk.

Boom!

A terrible explosion erupted. The Demon Mammoth felt as though his trunk was about to burst apart as a large amount of blood kept pouring out from his nostrils. With just one move, the woman had injured his trunk! A look of horror finally came over his face.

With a creak, the lid of the coffin opened completely, and the woman sitting inside stood up. She was clad in a white dress, and together with her long black hair and blue face, she looked like a corpse.

"It's a corpse!" Yu Qiu's face became very grave. "It has developed its own sentience and turned into a beast, so it's not too much to say that it's a Blood Beast King..."

"Since it's a beast... I don't need to pull my punches any more!" Xuan Kong said. His gaze focused, and the next moment, rumbling sounds burst out of his body as if there were thunder raging inside him. Then, he sped down like a falling star, tearing through the sky toward the woman at lightning speed.

Rumbling sounds rang out as Xuan Kong's body smashed on the top of the mountain. Violent waves of air rushed out in every direction, and the entire mountaintop was completely blown away. For a moment, countless trees were uprooted, and a great amount of earth was thrown into the sky.

Focusing his eyes, Xuan Kong put the terrifying power of the Law of Destruction into his fist and threw it at the dead woman!

"Holy Body Punch!" he thundered.

The dead woman turned to Xuan Kong. She did not speak but raised her hand stiffly. With a thud, her palm collided with Xuan Kong's fist, and suddenly, a ring of ghostly green light spread out of it.

Xuan Kong's blood ran cold, and a surge of fear rose from the bottom of his heart, washing him over. "This is..." Without a moment's hesitation, he shot up to the sky with a wary look on his face. Then, he looked down at his fist and saw ghostly green energy spread over it.

"This is the curse power! This dead woman is a Cursed Goddess! Dammit!"

To his horror, Xuan Kong noticed that his arm was being corroded. A humming sound could be heard as a Wheel of Law appeared over his head, pressing down on his arm to force the curse power out of it.

Cursed Goddess?

That useless Cursed Goddess?

Many people gasped. Of course, they knew the legend about Cursed Goddesses. They were rare, as only one was born every age, but they were not very powerful. So, a lot of people actually did not pay much attention to this legend.

However, the Cursed Goddess before them had just repelled a top-grade God King. Didn't she seem too powerful?

In the sky, the Rainbow Butterfly moved. As her wings flapped, seven-colored light drifted out from under them, turning into a colorful mist to envelop the dead woman.

Down below, the dead woman looked up, her hair whipping in the wind. She raised a hand, spread her fingers, and her black nails began to grow longer. Then, she threw the palm out at the sky. A stream of ghostly green light shot out in an instant and stained the Rainbow Butterfly's mist ghostly green.

Buzz...

Suddenly, the Rainbow Butterfly's body also turned ghostly green. It took only a moment for her to get used to the dead woman's energy. She was best at assimilating different energies.

She sped forward, her colossal body filled with terrifying power. Then, in just the blink of an eye, she closed in on the dead woman, her wings flapping down like the sharpest knives. She wanted to cut the woman into pieces!

Clang!

The dead woman reached out her hand and caught the butterfly's wings, producing the clanging noise of metal on metal.

At this moment, the Demon Mammoth came stepping through the void, avoided the Rainbow Butterfly, and slammed his feet down toward the dead woman.

Even Yu Qiu did not dare to be careless when facing the attack of the two top-grade Blood Beast Kings, but the dead woman was incomparably violent. She blocked the butterfly with one hand, then threw out the other to slap the Demon Mammoth.

Rumble!

A terrible collision erupted. The whole mountain was shaking, but what amazed the crowd was that even after being hit by such a powerful explosion, it was not destroyed or razed to the ground!

Something was wrong! There was definitely something very wrong here! Many people looked astonished, their eyes gleaming brightly.

Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong joined the attack too. Soon, four top-grade God Kings were fighting the dead woman in the sky. Terrible turbulence swept through the entire area as rumbling sounds rang without end. It was a terrifying battle, and most people could only watch from afar.

Suddenly, some people's expressions changed dramatically as they saw the four top experts retreat at top speed in the sky!

Yu Qiu's face became very unsightly. All the swords around him were tainted with a ghostly green color, which was the curse power, and it was eroding his swords. Xuan Kong's fists were also covered in green.

On the other hand, the Rainbow Butterfly's aura was fluctuating violently, while the Demon Mammoth's entire body was covered with green patches.

Sure enough, there was a great terror in that dead woman. Her eyes were tightly shut, and she never opened them even when she was attacked by the four top-grade experts.

"She's... so fearsome!" Summer swallowed and said in horror.

"This dead woman... Is she really just a corpse? She's so strong even when she's dead, so how terrifying should she be when she's alive?" Luo Sanniang felt a chill run through her body.

Bu Fang's eyes narrowed slightly as he took a deep breath. He recognized that ghostly green light, which was the same origin as Nethery's power.

'She's indeed a Cursed Goddess... Why is the body of a Cursed Goddess here? What secrets lie in this relic?'

"Fight!"

Xuan Kong was very angry. He roared, and his body burst into dazzling golden light. Then, he began to grow larger and larger, and in just an instant, he was ten thousand feet tall. Standing proudly in the sky, his whole body radiated a fiery aura like a colossal oven.

The next moment, he threw a punch at the dead woman. Filled with the Power of Law, the fist was condensed by more than two thousand Laws. A dreadful aura spread instantly as if to destroy heaven and earth!

As an existence ranked second on the God King List, Xuan Kong's strength was incredibly mighty. Even Yu Qiu would tremble when he unleashed his full power.

The dead woman raised her hand, her black nails growing longer and longer, and collided it with Xuan Kong's punch. The power of more than two thousand Laws came crashing down from the sky and burst the mountain beneath her feet! Rumbling sounds filled the air as a large amount of earth was thrown into the sky, while countless boulders rolled down the foot of the mountain.

Everyone gasped the moment the mountain exploded. They were horrified to find that the treasures and secrets of the Heavengod... were all hidden beneath it!

The mountain, which had lost all its soil, finally revealed its true nature. It was actually two complete skeletons of the Heavengods! Above them were two mini oceans, filled with the power of countless Laws, while at their center was a wisp of milky white gas.

Those were the Seas of Laws belonging to the Heavengods, and the wisp of gas was... the Chaotic Energy!

“This is the Heavengod’s treasure!”

The gatekeeper’s eyes suddenly burst with burning desire and greed! He had been searching for ten thousand years for this Heavengod’s treasure, for the sliver of a chance to become a Heavengod!

“The treasure is mine!”

The Heavengod’s treasure finally appeared, and everyone could no longer hold themselves back. Even though the dead woman’s strength was overwhelming, they were fearless in the face of this great temptation!

Shrill whistles filled the air as Blood Beast Kings and human God Kings all rushed madly toward the two complete skeletons of the Heavengods! Anyone who fused with the Heavengod’s skeleton could have the body of a Heavengod, and the wisp of Chaotic Energy was the only chance for a person to become a Heavengod!

There was a great temptation in all this. Even Yu Qiu’s eyes were shot with blood! In front of such a precious treasure, no one could control their emotions.

Meanwhile, in the unknown distance, the ground slowly cracked open, and wisps of black smoke slowly leaked out from the rifts. Then, one after another, the heads of mysterious creatures emerged, their crimson eyes locked on the shocking scene.

A rumble rang out, and the void was torn. Lord Dog walked out of it with his cat-like steps, narrowing his eyes and watching as the scene played out before him. Directly across from him, an arm stretched out from the void. Then, a figure shrouded in mist hovered in midair, his gaze flickering as he stared into the distance.

The competition had become hotter and hotter. Countless experts scrambled toward the Heavengod's treasure. Even the gatekeeper, strong as he was, was in a frenzy. At this moment, the dead woman hovering over the Heavengod's skeletons looked rather lonely and desolate, and it seemed that she would be drowned by many experts at any moment.

Crack... Crack...

She raised her arm and slowly opened her eyes, which were as black as ink without the whites. They looked exactly the same as Nethery's when Bu Fang first met her.

Rumble!

All kinds of terrible attacks from both Blood Beast Kings and human God Kings filled the sky and came crashing down instantly.

Suddenly, the void in front of the dead woman trembled, slowly cracked open, and then a black ship sailed out of it. A young girl in a black dress was sitting at the bow, swinging her long fair legs.

That took everyone by surprise, but no one cared. In the face of their terrifying attack, the girl was like a tiny boat in an ocean, and she could be wiped out at any moment.

The dead woman, the young girl on the ship, and the wild beasts and people all over the sky formed a rather strange picture.

Luo Sanniang and Summer were dumbfounded. They naturally recognized the young girl on the ship.

Far away in the sky, Lord Dog bared his teeth and looked confused.

"Is Nethery... lost?"

Bu Fang's aura suddenly surged, and even the velvet rope that bound his hair broke apart. Fixing his eyes on the girl who came through the void on a ship, his face grew extremely serious.

“Nethery?!”
