Chapter 1521: The Silence Is Broken

The Netherworld Ship had the ability to travel to the relic, which became Nethery's death warrant at this moment. Even she did not know how dangerous the location where she appeared was.

She was summoned by a strange call, and she felt a familiar aura.

Nethery had never discovered the true circumstances of her birth. All she knew was that she was adopted by the old Nether King, just like You Ji.

However, she was very different from You Ji. Tian Cang once told her that she was accompanied by disaster—she had a curse in her, and her body contained an aura that was powerful enough to wipe out the whole world. So, at his wit's end, Tian Cang chose to banish her.

The air rang to the terrifying rumble of energy. On the side of the Netherworld Ship, a group of experts was attacking frantically. They were tempted by the Heavengod's treasure and had long lost their minds. Now, even if a high-grade God King stood in their way, they would also tear him to pieces, let alone Nethery.

At this moment, the surroundings seemed to become very quiet, and vaguely, someone seemed to be humming a sad ballad.

Nethery sat on the deck of the Netherworld Ship, dangling her long fair legs. Suddenly, she turned her head, and on her stunningly beautiful face was a trace of confusion. In her pupils, the attacks that filled the sky bloomed beautifully like fireworks...

Boom!

In a flash, the silence was broken. What rushed into her ears was the clamor and shrill hum of energy tearing the void apart. Horrible waves swept toward her, ruffling her long hair. Then, in just the blink of an eye, the monstrous energy engulfed her.

In the distance, Bu Fang's pupils constricted, and he clenched his fists tightly. He never expected Nethery to appear in the middle of the dead woman and the many experts at this moment. Even though the Netherworld Ship had the ability to travel to the relic, it should not have brought her there.

'Is it because of that dead woman?! She is also a Cursed Goddess with the aura of the same origin as Nethery...'

Bu Fang's eyes were cold, his face expressionless as he stared at Nethery, who was engulfed by the energy.

Under the attack of so many God Kings, the Netherworld Ship was instantly torn apart as if it was made of paper! The ragged decks were completely blown to powder! Even with Nethery's cultivation base, she would be reduced to ashes in an instant!

How did that happen?

Bu Fang had wanted to be a watcher, but he could not watch it anymore. Nethery was the friend who had been with him the longest besides Lord Dog. She had been by his side from the Hidden Dragon Continent to the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

He had never thought she would die, but now she might really be dead. The attack of just one God King would have been enough to kill her, and there were so many of them here, not to mention some of them were mighty experts ranked on the God King List.

In the sky, Lord Dog had already taken the Heavengod's bone down from his back, and his eyes were blazing with fury. However, he paused the next moment and looked into the distance. Perhaps there was no need for him to make a move anymore.

Rumble!

Bu Fang's aura suddenly exploded as he shoved a piece of Fortune Flatbread into his mouth and chewed hastily.

Luo Sanniang and Summer looked in shock at Bu Fang as he shot up into the sky. Was he crazy? They knew he was going to save Nethery, but she was dead! Besides, if he rushed there now, he'd be sending himself to his death. After all, there were too many God Kings and Blood Beast Kings there!

Summer tried to stop him, and so did Luo Sanniang. However, Bu Fang glanced back over his shoulder at them, and his indifferent gaze froze them in place. They could sense a terrible aura from him, which seemed to come from hell. It was... real anger.

Luo Sanniang was stunned. It was the first time she had ever seen Bu Fang angry, and it sent chills down her spine. It turned out that mister Bu was so terrifying when he was angry.

After eating the Fortune Flatbread, Bu Fang felt his blood and energy begin to boil. Then, with the power of the Law of Space swirling around him, he tore through the void and appeared instantly in the distance.

Rumble!

Dreadful attacks continued to rumble, and the explosion of energy had not stopped. The gatekeeper's aura was fluctuating when he saw Bu Fang. He paused slightly, and the expression on his face seemed a little puzzled.

Why was Bu Fang standing in their way? Was he going to stop so many experts alone? Was he out of his mind?

Yu Qiu's face was cold. Sword energy whirled around him at high speed as he slashed out his sword to cut down all who stood in his way to obtain the Heavengod's treasure. Xuan Kong, on the other hand, looked like a Fiend God as he kept throwing punches surrounded by the Power of Law.

At the same time, the Demon Mammoth let out a deafening roar and raised his trunk high, ready to lash it down and kill Bu Fang in an instant! To him, the Heavengod's treasure was his, and he would kill anyone who stood in his way with his hooves, whether his own kind or human!

Not far away, the Rainbow Butterfly flapped her wings and created a seven-colored storm, and every gust of wind blowing from it was like the sharpest knife. She wanted to cut Bu Fang into pieces!

No one expected Bu Fang to show up. Many people recognized him as the top genius who had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe. They would not have been surprised if he had joined them in the fight for the Heavengod's treasure. However, he chose to stand opposite to them, to confront them. This made them feel very surprised.

They even felt that he was a little silly. In front of the Heavengod's treasure, no one would care if he was a genius who had comprehended three supreme Laws! Anyone who dared to stand in their way would die! Even if he had comprehended five supreme Laws, if he stopped them from getting the treasure, he was their enemy!

The gatekeeper stood frozen for a moment, then his eyes turned red, and he unleashed a terrifying attack toward Bu Fang!

Bu Fang's eyes reddened slightly, his face expressionless. With a shake of his hand, he took out a revolving dried pot with hot steam rising from it. As his hair fluttered in the wind, three Wheels of Law emerged over his head, and the Power of Law kept pouring out of them into the dried pot. At the same time, a little world descended behind him!

The energy of the Fortune Flatbread flowed through his body, making his aura even more powerful. Facing the dreadful attack from many God Kings and Blood Beast Kings, Bu Fang finally let out a thunderous roar. He was going to pay homage to Nethery with this dried pot!

However, just as he was about to throw out the Perishing Pot, the terrifying attacks that filled the whole sky suddenly slowed down...

Bu Fang focused his eyes. At this moment, his divine sense was working at its highest capacity, so he could sense any movements around him. The God Kings and the Blood Beast Kings could also perceive everything that happened here.

The attack that had engulfed Nethery slowly split apart. The Netherworld Ship had completely disintegrated, but she was unharmed. A ghostly green light had enveloped everything, including her body.

At some point, the dead woman came in front of Nethery and blocked all the attacks for her with her back! The attacks that would have made any God King's heart beat faster bombarded her back, but they did not turn her into ashes.

'This is...' Bu Fang stopped his hand. 'I can't believe Nethery's fine... The dead woman saved her? Was Nethery here because of the call of this dead woman? What exactly does she want?'

There seemed to be some confusion in the dead woman's black eyes. Nethery stared blankly at her and felt a strange sense of familiarity. It was as if she had returned to her mother's embrace...

The dead woman looked at Nethery, and Nethery looked at her as well. For a moment, the atmosphere became very harmonious—of course, if not for the approaching God Kings and Blood Beast Kings.

Suddenly, the ghostly green light entwined together, and then the curse power, which was somewhat similar to the Power of Law, began to keep pouring into Nethery's body.

"This is... passing down an inheritance?" Bu Fang frowned. He seemed to have guessed something.

The dead woman must be the Cursed Goddess of the previous generation, and it was very likely that she was a matured one. But she was dead. Her body could have been sent by the Heavengod to guard the treasure, or it was simply locked here by the Heavengod.

In any case, at this moment... she was handing over her inheritance to Nethery.

Since Bu Fang was able to guess it, others naturally could as well.

Yu Qiu's face was cold. He did not mind them passing inheritance to one another, but they had stood in his way to obtain the Heavengod's treasure, so he was going to cut them apart!

He pointed out his finger. A beam of sword energy rose into the sky and slashed out toward the dead woman and Nethery.

Bu Fang took a deep breath, then he went up and stood in front of the dead woman and Nethery, his Vermilion Robe fluttering. Although he did not know whether the inheritance was good or bad for Nethery, he could not let them interrupt the process!

"A mere Demigod also wants to stop my sword?" Yu Qiu sneered when he saw Bu Fang rush to the forefront regardless of his own safety. He was ranked third on the God King List, and he had comprehended the Law of Destruction. He even dared to thrust his sword at the Divine Emperor.

Bu Fang glanced at the Perishing Pot in his hand. 'It feels quite uncomfortable not to throw out a major move that I've been holding back for so long. In that case...'

He took a deep breath. The next moment, his hair turned dark green. The Perishing Pot in his hand was instantly thrown out, arcing through the air and flying toward Yu Qiu's sword. Then, a green turtle shell suddenly appeared in the sky, covering Bu Fang, Nethery, and the dead woman together.

Bu Fang, with dark-green hair, yawned until tears filled his eyes. "Little Host is getting bolder... This makes my heart race a little bit faster..."

As soon as his voice rang out, the Perishing Pot collided with the sword.

Rumble!

With a shocking rumble, a huge ball of energy appeared in midair, covering the whole sky. Dreadful blasts swept through everything and kept ravaging the ground.

The movements of all the God Kings and Blood Beast Kings came to a halt. Hovering in midair, their forward momentum was finally slowed down.

The explosive energy soon dissipated into the void, revealing Yu Qiu. Looking at him, everyone sucked in a cold breath because he was really miserable now. His handsome appearance had become wretched, and his robe was torn, leaving only a few threads of cloth hanging about him. Several swords floated in front of him, all quivering slightly.

Yu Qiu's eyes were filled with disbelief. 'Is this... really a Demigod? The power of this move... almost killed me!'

The gatekeeper let out a breath and became much calmer. 'It seems that an existence who has comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe is still somewhat difficult to deal with...'

Xuan Kong's pupils constricted while the surrounding God Kings were taking deep breaths. The only way to learn the terror of a genius who had comprehended three supreme Laws was to actually face one. However, this was not enough to stop them!

The expressions of the God Kings changed again. No matter how talented Bu Fang was, no matter how horrible he was, could he hold off so many God Kings and Blood Beast Kings?! He was only a Demigod after all!

At this moment, the beasts and the men actually formed a united front. The sky was filled with attacks and brilliant energy once again, and they were all directed at the turtle shell that covered Bu Fang, Nethery, and the dead woman!

In the turtle shell, dark-green-haired Bu Fang yawned and looked very sleepy. “Go ahead, hit me...” he said, yawning again.

Meanwhile, a sudden change happened to the dead woman and Nethery behind him!

Chapter 1522: The Bitten Nethery

“Go ahead, hit me.”

Dark-green-haired Bu Fang floated in midair, supporting the earthy yellow turtle shell. The shield was so enormous that it seemed to contain a world inside, covering Nethery, the dead woman, and even the Heavengod’s treasure behind them.

It was fine for Bu Fang to save Nethery, but when the treasure was involved, he immediately attracted the attention of all and became their target, even though he did not intentionally cover it.

The power of the Perishing Pot was beyond everyone’s expectations. No one thought it could produce such terrible power. This might not seem like a big deal to a top-grade God King, but when such means came from a Demigod, it was terrifying!

Yu Qiu knew that very well. He had been a dominant figure within the relic for thousands of years, and no one except the Divine Emperor, Xuan Kong, and the mysterious existence who ranked top on the God King List could resist his sword more than once.

But now, he had actually suffered a defeat at the means of a Demigod. This was no longer just about the Heavengod’s treasure, but about his honor. He was the Sword God who ranked third on the God King List!

Bu Fang's talent was truly amazing, as evidenced by comprehending three supreme Laws of the Universe. However, Yu Qiu could not accept it as a reason for a Demigod to stop him from getting the treasure and make him look bad!

The sword energy behind him surged!

Xuan Kong was roaring, too. He had a fleshly body that was infinitely close to the Heavengod's body, and his physical strength was extremely fearsome. With it alone, he could shake a top-grade Blood Beast King. In short, his strength was incredibly terrifying.

Although his physical body was formidable, he was still far from reaching the supreme Heavengod Body realm, and it drove him crazy. He wanted to transcend his limits and become the man with the strongest fleshly body of all time, and anyone who stood in his way had to die!

At this moment, even if the existence ranked top on the God King List was here, he would not hesitate to throw his punch at him!

As for the two top-grade Blood Beast Kings, the Demon Mammoth and the Rainbow Butterfly, they did not think so much. Their only goal was to capture the Heavengod's treasure and become the true top existences standing at the top of the food chain within the relic!

Rumble!

Yu Qiu's sword was very scary. Countless sword lights turned into a huge torrent and poured down from the sky, looking like a falling galaxy. They ruthlessly smashed the turtle shell that covered Bu Fang, trying to shatter it completely. What was a turtle shell before his indestructible sword? His sword could even cut through stars!

Rumbling sounds rang out as the sword lights landed on the turtle shell. The surrounding God Kings all stopped in place, and every one of them wore a strange expression. To them, when a Demigod tried to fight the Sword God and the Fist Saint, he was just courting death.

The gatekeeper also sighed. A burst of force erupted from his hand, turned into a terrible attack, and smashed down toward Bu Fang in the turtle shell.

Bam! Bam! Bam! Bam!

Dreadful explosions broke out continuously, emitting light so bright that everyone was forced to look away. All the God Kings flew into the air.

In the distance, Luo Sanniang and Summer breathed deeply. There was even despair in Luo Sanniang's eyes. She could imagine that Bu Fang's situation at the moment must be absolutely hopeless. Summer felt helpless as well, and she could only sigh at his suicidal act.

Did he really think that he can act recklessly just because he had comprehended three supreme Laws of the Universe? He had not even broken through to become a God yet, so how could he be so arrogant?

BOOM!

Violent vibrations swept out in all directions. At this moment, the whole relic was shaking. The ground was constantly cracking, and many living beings were terrified. The power generated by the battle between high-grade God Kings was enough to shatter stars. If this was not the relic but other places, it would have been destroyed in a flash, even if it was the capital of the Xiayi Divine Dynasty.

As the smoke and dust gradually dispersed, Yu Qiu, hovering in midair with a sword in his hand, looked incredulous. Xuan Kong's face was flushed, and his eyes were wide with disbelief. Meanwhile, many other God Kings, including the gatekeeper, were sucking in cold breaths with an odd feeling.

The terrible energy of the explosion finally disappeared, and the earthy yellow turtle shell reemerged in front of the crowd, perfectly intact. There was not even a crack on its surface. It was so tough that it left everyone speechless.

The defense of a Demigod was actually able to resist the attack from four top-grade God Kings! Was this what a top genius was capable of? Was it true that one could do whatever one wanted after comprehending three supreme Laws of the Universe?

"Impossible! How could it block the attack..." Shock surged in Yu Qiu's eyes. He shook his head as if his mind had suffered a great impact. That turtle shell was f*cking hard! He could not believe it actually blocked his sword! The point was, it not only stopped his sword but also Xuan Kong's fist and the attack from the two Blood Beast Kings! What the hell was that turtle shell?

“Ah...”

In the turtle shell, Bu Fang was floating in midair, half lying down. His eyelids were struggling to stay open because he was too tired. People just like to sleep when they get old. “You didn’t eat? Is this all the strength you have?” he said lightly.

His words enraged everyone at once. How could he be so arrogant?

Meanwhile, behind Bu Fang, something strange was happening to Nethery and the dead woman. He glanced over his shoulder at them in confusion.

The dead woman’s body began to emit a ghostly green glow, which spread out and slowly wrapped around Nethery’s body like threads and chains. Nethery’s eyes were blank. The next moment, as the dead woman’s eyes burst into the same light, she opened her mouth and sank her teeth into Nethery’s fair neck.

In dark-green-haired Bu Fang’s eyes, the dead woman’s teeth became long and sharp in an instant, scary to be looked upon.

Nethery froze for a moment, then she felt a stabbing pain coming from her neck.

As the dead woman leaned on Nethery’s shoulder with her face buried in the latter’s neck, a terrible aura spread out from her. It was incomparably strong and very unstable.

Suddenly, in the eyes of all, the dead woman’s body began to disintegrate. That incredibly strong body, which could resist Xuan Kong’s physical strength, began to slowly burst like bubbles. It was a horrible scene to look at. No one had expected such a scene to occur. What happened to the dead woman?

Ghostly green energy slowly flowed out of the dead woman’s broken body and penetrated Nethery’s body along the bite mark on her neck. Her aura began to soar at a frightening speed!

That surprised dark-green-haired Bu Fang. In his eyes, Nethery’s aura soared from the Demigod realm and soon broke through the shackles. “Is the inheritance of the Cursed Goddess so incredible?” he muttered.

The next moment, his hair reverted to black, and the turtle shell was gone. Hovering in midair, Bu Fang frowned as he stared at Nethery in the distance.

Her aura was fluctuating and getting more and more terrifying. It felt as if a second dead woman was awakening. Was this really an inheritance? Bu Fang was not quite sure. Looking at the slowly healing bite marks on her neck, he felt a pang of weirdness. What exactly did the dead woman do to her?

As Nethery's aura continued to fluctuate, her black hair began to slowly change color, and in the end, it was completely ghostly green. Even then, ghostly green energy burst from her body. It was the curse power, a power that made Bu Fang's heart beat faster!

In the distance, the faces of Yu Qiu, Xuan Kong, and the others changed dramatically.

“What a terrifying curse power! Has that Cursed Goddess awakened?”

Could the dead woman have been revived with the flesh of the girl? If she did come back to life, the treasure would have nothing to do with them!

“Stop her!”

“Kill her!”

Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong thundered at the same time. They exchanged a glance, and both saw the determination in each other's eyes. The next moment, they sped forward. They had no Law of Space to travel through the void, but at their level, their speed was naturally not slow.

A sword was swept out, illuminating the world! A punch was thrown out, filling the skies with a rumbling sound! The two top existences on the God King List struck out in an instant!

Hovering in the distance, the gatekeeper and the others looked at each other. Soon, they seemed to think of something, and their eyes gleamed with determination. For a moment, battle cries filled the air as everyone rushed toward Nethery. They had to stop her from evolving.

‘Could it be that Nethery was really robbed of her body by the dead woman?’ The same thought also came to Bu Fang. It was quickly rejected by him, however, because her eyes were still clear.

Though there was a flash of pain in them at times, the familiar feeling coming from her assured him that she was still Nethery.

‘In that case, I’ll stop these people one more time!’

Bu Fang let out a breath. Facing the experts swarming toward him, he took out the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife. Since they wanted to fight him, he would fight them to the end! Although he was a chef, he also had the heart of an expert!

In the distant sky, Lord Dog held the Heavengod’s bone in one paw and made no move, his eyes flashing. Across from him stood an expert shrouded in a hazy mist.

Tai Fei’s eyes were fixed on Nethery, who was wrapped in a ghostly green glow. ‘It’s a Cursed Goddess! An awakened Cursed Goddess! And her body is evolving toward the body of a Soul Overlord!’

His eyes burst into an intense black light, and his heart was filled with desire. As an expert of the Soul Demon clan, he needed a strong body. Only in this way could he reach a higher realm and had a chance to access the true mysteries of this universe!

At this moment, the temptation of Nethery’s body to him surpassed that of Bu Fang’s body! He was very eager to get her! However, he was not in a hurry to make a move. Soul Demons never lacked patience. He needed to wait for the right opportunity to take what he wanted in one fell swoop!

There were too many God Kings here. Alone, he was not strong enough to deal with them. He must wait for the other Soul Demons to arrive. When that time comes, this relic would be the beginning of the Soul Demon clan’s rise!

Bu Fang held the Dragon Bone Kitchen Knife firmly, his aura soaring. With Black Turtle out of his body, he did not know if he could fend off these guys.

After all, he was only a Demigod. His base strength was too low, and he only relied on the three supreme Laws of the Universe to forcibly improve his fighting prowess. And he was fighting alone. However, he couldn’t retreat now. If worse came to worse, he would crush the last divine power liquid drop!

Bu Fang watched as the attacks came pouring toward him. Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong, who kept approaching, put great pressure on him.

“What are you without your turtle shell?!” Yu Qiu flew into a rage when he saw Bu Fang trying to stop them again. He slashed out his sword to cut Bu Fang, as well as Nethery, in half!

Xuan Kong did not want to be outdone. His blood and energy rumbled as he threw out a punch! The void was instantly shattered, and spatial turbulence poured out of it.

At the same time, various attacks from other God Kings rained down. Even the gatekeeper was bursting with monstrous killing intent at this moment. Yes, Bu Fang was a genius, but he had chosen to go against the majority. In that case, he deserved to be killed!

Everything seemed to become very quiet. Bu Fang took a deep breath and exhaled. His divine sense surged, then its true-form in his spirit sea opened its eyes, reached out a hand, and was about to crush the last divine power liquid drop.

However, just when it was about to crush the liquid drop, a hand wrapped in ghostly green light rested on Bu Fang’s shoulder.

“Let me handle this...”

Chapter 1523: What Are You Running For?

A familiar voice rang out behind Bu Fang. Then, a slim hand rested on his shoulder, stopping him in his attempt to crush the divine power liquid drop.

His brows furrowed as he glanced at the hand that was wrapped in ghostly green light. There was no doubt that the voice came from Nethery. Had she finished receiving the inheritance?

Bu Fang turned his head and met Nethery’s eyes. At that instant, he felt a bitter chill rise from the depths of his heart. She still gave him the same familiar feeling, but her aura was different.

In his eyes, the cursed snake inside her had completely awakened and was staring at him with its forked tongue sticking out. The feeling that sent shivers down his spine came from this very snake.

Nethery floated up in midair, her long ghostly green hair fluttering gently in the wind. She was more beautiful now, but it was a kind of beauty without any feelings and as cold as an iceberg. She came up to Bu Fang and stopped him. As her dress danced with the wind, her long fair legs were exposed, attracting eyeballs.

“Alright,” Bu Fang replied in a serious tone. He did not turn her down. The dead woman’s strength was obvious to all, and since she had fused her power with Nethery, the latter’s strength must have reached an astonishing level. So he did not want to argue with her about who should fight. Also, he could take this opportunity to see how strong she was now.

He was well aware of his own strength. If he did not crush the divine power liquid drop, he was actually very weak. After all, he was only a Demigod. To be honest, he was starting to feel that his current strength was not enough, and he even wanted to break through to the God realm sooner.

But there was a voice within him that kept telling him to be patient, to wait until he had comprehended five supreme Laws of the Universe before breaking through. If he was willing to wait patiently, his strength would reach a heaven-defying level when the time came!

Therefore... He decided to let Nethery deal with these people for now.

Nethery was slightly taken aback by his answer. She did not expect him to agree with her so readily. Pouting her red lips, she turned to face the experts who were swarming toward them.

She took a deep breath, her ample chest heaving. Then, she lifted an arm, which glittered like the finest jade, and gently pointed the air with her finger. A humming sound could be heard as ripples spread out and swept past the bodies of those approaching God Kings.

Yu Qiu’s eyes were cold. “She needs to be killed!”

He once read in the classics that when a Cursed Goddess unleashed her full power, she was capable of destroying a great world. This showed that once a Cursed Goddess awakened, she represented calamity. Although they were now in the relic, it was better to eliminate this kind of existence as soon as possible.

A sword light was unleashed, which split into a thousand swords in an instant, then ten thousand. In the blink of an eye, the whole sky was filled with swords. The next moment, they all shot down like crazy, engulfing Nethery in a flash!

‘Can she fend off this move?’ Bu Fang suddenly had some doubts. Looking at Nethery, who looked as fragile as a small flower swaying in a storm, he began to worry a little. ‘Or shall I crush the divine power liquid drop?’ However, his worries were obviously unnecessary, for Nethery soon showed her remarkable strength.

The ghostly green cursed snake was no longer blurry. It had taken on a physical form and was now slithering around Nethery. Its scales were emerald green, each glowing coldly.

Tian Cang once said that if the cursed snake broke out, Nethery would die. That was because her strength was still too weak. After fusing with the power of the dead woman, her physical body had now reached a level comparable to the body of a Heavengod, so the cursed snake was no longer a threat to her. Instead, it was now a great aid to her and her strongest means of attack!

Rumble!

The sword that descended from the sky cut into the cursed snake’s body, sank about an inch into it, and could go no further. Suddenly, a stream of dark green energy slowly gushed out of its body, wrapped the sword, and spread along the blade up to the hilt.

“This is... the curse power?!” Yu Qiu gasped. He felt as if an aura of death was surging toward him. The fact that even he, a top-grade God King, could feel the threat of death showed how terrifying this green energy was.

There were three thousand Laws in the Chaotic Universe. Of course, the so-called three thousand were just a vague concept. In fact, there were many Laws, more than three thousand. However, Yu Qiu had never seen the Law of Curse. It was as rare as the supreme Laws of the Universe.

The girl in front of him was naturally not using the Law of Curse, but it had a similar effect to the Power of Law, and it was just as terrifying. He was forced to give up his sword. Then, without hesitation, he turned around and sped away from the girl as fast as he could.

Boom!

Xuan Kong's fist plummeted and slammed hard on the cursed snake. He was glowing with a dazzling holy light from top to bottom, and his flesh burst with great physical strength. He wanted to tear the huge snake apart.

However, he soon retreated as well, as the curse power caught his fist and quickly spread to his arm. The holy light that enveloped him was eroded, and his mighty flesh began to rot.

"This curse power is too... terrifying!"

Xuan Kong's face fell. No wonder it was said that a mature Cursed Goddess could wipe out a whole great world alone. The curse power was indeed very dreadful. Desperately, he released a stronger holy light and used it to suppress the curse power on his arm.

The cursed snake wheeled around Nethery, spitting its forked tongue. Corroded by the curse power, Yu Qiu's sword was soon reduced to a heap of rotten metal and disappeared into the void.

Nethery's long hair fluttered in the wind. Her red lips parted slightly, her eyes turned green, and the pattern on her neck that was the bite mark began to emit light. Then, her aura changed and became very lofty and indifferent, as if she was a deity overlooking the living things from the sky above!

The change of her aura was abrupt. It reminded Bu Fang of the dead woman, as Nethery's aura at the moment was very similar to her. If it wasn't for the fact that he could still sense her aura, he might have thought she was being possessed!

"What a familiar scene... Is this the destiny of the Cursed Goddess?" Nethery said sadly, her voice sounding like two people talking at the same time.

Facing the many God Kings and the top experts, she raised her hand and sighed. That sigh was full of stories. "It's really lonely when the whole world is your enemy... In that case, let all be wiped out," said Nethery.

As soon as those words left her mouth, she reached out her hand and lightly tapped the cursed snake's head. It immediately opened its mouth, hissed, and rose to the sky. When it came up to midair, it suddenly exploded and burst into a blinding light like the sun, illuminating the whole world. Then, thousands of little cursed snakes emerged and shot out in all directions!

Yu Qiu's expression changed dramatically, while Xuan Kong felt a wave of horror wash over him.

Soon, those little cursed snakes covered everything, turning into a huge ball that completely enveloped the bodies of all the terrifying beings present.

Roar!

The Rainbow Butterfly felt the threat of death. She flapped her wings desperately, flying frantically toward the distance. However, as she flew, her body turned ghostly green and began to rot, and holes appeared across her wings as a result of corrosion. Soon, her beautiful and charming figure went up in flames.

The Demon Mammoth was roaring. With his trunk raised high, his enormous body burst forth from the area where the cursed snakes gathered. However, his appearance had become very miserable. He was now covered with snakes, and as he ran, his flesh slowly fell off.

Everyone watched the scene in shock. In the process of fleeing, the huge Demon Mammoth gradually turned into a white skeleton, fell from the air, smashed onto the ground with a crash, and broke into pieces.

When Bu Fang saw the huge Demon Mammoth turn into a skeleton, he felt heartbroken. 'That's a very precious ingredient...' He did not care if that butterfly was killed. That thing was an insect and could not be eaten. But the mammoth was full of meat!

His stomach growled. He was hungry again, but the mammoth was gone.

Miserable shrieks filled the sky and sent shivers down the spines of those who watched from afar. They watched the horrible scene in disbelief. Those two were the mighty existences ranked on the Blood Beast King List, but they were turned into bones in an instant...

One after another, figures rushed out of the cursed field. However, the curses had already attached to their bodies. Like the Demon Mammoth and the Rainbow Butterfly before them, they soon turned to bones and completely disappeared from this world.

The gatekeeper was terrified. It never occurred to him that he would be confronted with such a crisis. It seemed to him that the curse power was more terrible than the supreme Law of the Universe. He kept slapping his body, but he just could not get them off him.

His body was constantly being corroded, but he could only watch helplessly as it happened. He did not want to die. He regretted it now. He should not have gotten involved in this mess. However, it was no use crying over spilled milk.

Soon, the mighty gatekeeper also turned into bones and fell to the ground...

Nethery's face was cold like a proud queen, looking as if life was just an ant in her hands. She raised her arm and waved. At the gesture, all the little cursed snakes came flying back to her and wheeled around her. These cursed snakes, which were powerful enough to kill even high-grade God Kings, did not affect her body at all. That was the strength of the cursed body!

Bu Fang was dumbfounded. Neither violent nor ferocious could describe Nethery at this moment. It was as if she had replaced her shotgun with a cannon and became extremely powerful in an instant!

The air became completely silent. No one dared to breathe too loudly. In just a flash, the battle array consisting of human God Kings and Blood Beast Kings was completely routed. There were countless casualties, and even the gatekeeper, who ranked on the God King List, had turned to bones.

Only Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong, who looked very miserable, were left hovering in the sky. They were still alive, but they were almost as good as dead. Their flesh had rotted away, exposing their bones.

"I..." Yu Qiu was a little horrified. Looking at the girl who was so beautiful that even heaven and earth became a little dim before her, he could not understand why she was so poisonous. The burning pain coming from his divine sense and flesh made him tremble. He turned to flee, but was terrified to find a hand had rested on his shoulder at some point.

"What are you... running for..."

A cold voice rang out behind him, sending chills down his spine.

"I..." Yu Qiu opened his mouth to say something, but strands of ghostly green hair had stretched over and wrapped his face and entire body...

Eventually, he burst like a bubble with a poof.

“Ahhh!” Xuan Kong screamed in terror. He was a big man weighing three hundred catties, but at this moment, he was scared like a little girl weighing only fifty catties! His fists had long since been corroded to nothing but bones. He turned his body and was about to flee...

“What are you... running for...”

When Xuan Kong heard those words, all his hair stood up at once. “No, I won’t run! I won’t!” he said in a trembling voice.

Nethery said lightly. Her voice, which sounded as if two people were talking at the same time, gave those who heard it goosebumps all over their bodies.

The next moment, her green hair stretched out again, wrapping Xuan Kong’s despairing face in an instant. Then, just like Yu Qiu, he burst like a bubble.

Just like that, two top-grade God Kings ranked on the God King List had fallen.

“So ferocious?!”

Luo Sanniang and Summer were dumbfounded. In the distance, Lord Dog twitched his mouth. Directly across from him, the existence shrouded in a hazy mist, who was actually the expert ranked top on the God King List, raised his hand and rubbed his chin. Meanwhile, Tai Fei’s eyes gleamed strongly with greed!

Looking at Nethery’s beautiful figure from behind, Bu Fang did not know what to say. He was having a hard time getting used to the fact that she had become so fearsome.

Suddenly, his body stiffened. He noticed that she had disappeared in the distance, and then he saw a hand wrapped in a ghostly green light resting on his shoulder.

Bu Fang was stunned.

Chapter 1524: Bu Fang Was Bitten by Nethery!

Bu Fang was somewhat dumbfounded when Nethery’s voice rang out behind him. What was she doing? “We’re on the same side... Stop messing around,” he said.

Despite what he said, Nethery’s ghostly green hair stretched over and began to slowly cover his Vermilion Robe. The feeling made his scalp go numb slightly. ‘Sister Nethery... you’re barking up the wrong tree...’

Luo Sanniang and the others did not know whether to cry or laugh as they watched the scene play out. They did not expect Nethery to attack Bu Fang. Were they not on the same side? Could it be that she was possessed by the dead woman and had forgotten all her friends, so she was ruthless enough to attack him? Many people were at a loss for what to say...

In the distance, Lord Dog’s mouth opened slightly, and his whole body was shaking as he struggled to suppress his laughter. He was not too worried about Bu Fang. After all, Bu Fang had a natural suppression of Nethery’s curse power. So, under normal circumstances, there should not be any problems.

Still, it was a funny scene. When he saw the stunned look on Bu Fang’s face, Lord Dog felt strangely amused. ‘Well done, Nethery!’

Even the number one on the God King List, whose face was obscured by a hazy mist, did not know whether to cry or laugh. His shoulders were shaking as if he was choking back his laughter.

The ghostly green hair slowly wound around Bu Fang’s body as if to strangle him. However, when it was halfway around, it stopped.

Bu Fang’s eyes narrowed slightly. There was no doubt that Nethery was not in charge of her physical body at this moment. He was confident that if it was her, she would never attack him. Otherwise, all the dishes he had cooked for her all these years would be wasted.

So, his face grew cold, and he said, "I didn't run."

"Good... saves me the trouble of having to chase you," Nethery said, her voice sounding like two people talking at the same time, sending chills down the spines of those who heard it.

"I mean, I don't need to run. Try touching me. You'll regret it," Bu Fang said with an expressionless face.

The ghostly green hair stopped moving. With a cold face, Nethery stared at Bu Fang and said, "Turn around and look at me..."

"Usually, when under such situations... we can't turn around." Bu Fang remained expressionless. Such a scene reminded him of the horror movies he had watched before. Turn around? How could he be so stupid as to turn around now? He would never turn around.

"Just turn around and look at me..." Nethery's double voice rang out again. At the same time, her ghostly green hair continued to extend and began to cover Bu Fang's body, while the ghostly green curse power crept over and corroded his Vermilion robe, causing it to emit smoke.

Bu Fang, however, remained indifferent.

The conversation between them was somewhat odd, and it caused those present to hold their breath. What had just happened proved that the Cursed Goddess was indeed extremely horrible. Even Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong were killed by her, and the way she killed them was so frightening.

Was Bu Fang, the ultimate genius, also going to die here? Many people felt sorry for him when they thought of how he had risked his life to fend off those formidable experts for her just now. It seemed that an old saying did hold some truth in it, that the most poisonous thing in the world was a woman's heart.

"Are you going to turn around or not?!" A shrill voice burst out suddenly, reverberating across the air.

Bu Fang turned his head at once and stared at Nethery's beautiful face. "Well, I've turned around now," he said, stone-faced.

“You should have done this earlier...” A sneer brushed Nethery’s lips. “You really are different from those other coquettish bitches...” she said with her double voice.

Bu Fang was slightly taken aback. They had only just met, but this woman had already recognized his outstanding qualities?

“You are... worse than them.”

Bu Fang was speechless. What the heck? He wished he could hit the woman in the face with his wok right now. Did she really think he was afraid to attack her? “You’re not Nethery. Are you trying to occupy her body?” He stared at Nethery, who seemed to have transformed into a fierce sorceress.

Her ghostly green hair seemed to be alive as it kept stretching over and winding around his body, soon to cover him completely.

“Occupy? No... I’m just helping her clear all the obstacles. In this Chaotic Universe, the Cursed Goddess is destined to be the enemy of the whole world,” Nethery’s double voice rang out, and her gaze was so cold and fierce that it made the hair of those who saw her stand on end.

‘Destined to be the enemy of the whole world? That sounds like something great...’ Bu Fang frowned.

Suddenly, Nethery’s eyes glowed green. From behind her, the cursed snake popped out its head, sticking out its tongue and staring at Bu Fang. It seemed to be intelligent, for it recognized him and kept hissing at him as if threatening him.

Bu Fang turned his head, twitched the corners of his mouth slightly, and glared at the cursed snake, causing the latter to hiss and hastily shrink back, hiding behind Nethery.

Nethery, or rather the dead woman, paused for a moment. She did not expect that the man would be able to scare the cursed snake. Slowly, the ghostly green hair continued to stretch out, forming a cocoon around Bu Fang and wrapping him completely inside.

Rumble!

Suddenly, a terrifying aura exploded out of her body. With eyes glowing green, her red lips parted, and blue veins began to surface across her fair and delicate skin. All this made her look ferocious. The next moment, her canine teeth grew longer and became very sharp. Just like how the dead woman bit Nethery, she was going to bite Bu Fang now!

The scene had frightened everyone. People were gasping, and some even turned deathly pale. Luo Sanniang covered her mouth with both hands as horror filled her eyes, while King Pingyang, King Tianlong, and some of the weaker God Kings shivered as they watched the scene play out in the sky.

The Heavengod's treasure was shining brightly in the distance, but no one paid attention to it at the moment.

Even Lord Dog's mouth was slightly agape. "Is Nethery... serious this time?"

The number one on the God King List, shrouded in a hazy mist, seemed very interested in the scene and was watching it with wide eyes. "Bite him! Bite him!" Vaguely, the man seemed to be cheering.

'Who is this guy?!' Lord Dog gave the fellow a sideways glance.

Tai Fei was watching it intently from a distance as well, his eyes bloodshot. He did not care whether Bu Fang would be bitten or not. All he cared about was how he could seize the Cursed Goddess's body!

Streams of black smoke gushed out from his body and burrowed into the ground. The Heavengod's treasure was of no use to the Soul Demons. What they wanted was the living, not the dead. To them, there was no difference between a dead Heavengod and waste.

Bu Fang frowned at Nethery, who opened her mouth and was about to bite into his neck with her sharp fangs. 'For real? This dead woman has gone too far!'

Nethery tightened her hair around Bu Fang so that he could not resist as she brought her fangs down toward his neck. However, just as she was about to touch his skin, the pattern left on her neck by the dead woman flashed and became boiling hot. She frowned immediately as a pained look appeared on her face.

Bu Fang's eyes flickered. It seemed that Nethery was trying to stop the dead woman. He was right that the inheritance of the dead woman was not so easy to obtain. Compared to her, Nethery's strength was too weak. Being at a disadvantage, her soul was probably suppressed, and it must be very difficult for her to suppress the dead woman.

Perhaps in the future, Nethery would no longer be herself, and she would become the dead woman. Bu Fang would not let that happen. He had a bad impression of the dead woman because she said he was worse than the other coquettish bitches...

"Nethery, let her bite me," Bu Fang said. His voice was flat as if he were just chatting with her.

Was Bu Fang out of his mind? No one expected him to say such a thing. This immediately made everyone gasp. If he really let her bite his neck, he would die instantly, right?

Nethery's eyes were flickering fiercely as if a struggle was taking place inside her. At last, the green glow prevailed. "What an interesting young man... I wonder who gave you the courage? In that case..." She sneered. Her double voice had disappeared and was replaced by an extremely cold voice, which was not Nethery's voice at all.

The voice annoyed Bu Fang. It sounded as if the whole world owed her something. "I've told you... You'll regret it if you bite me," he said seriously.

Nethery let out a peal of cold laughter. The way she behaved now reminded Bu Fang of the first time they met. She was also full of terror at that time. However, he was no longer what he used to be.

Without another word to Bu Fang, Nethery's sharp fangs fell and sank into his neck. Her warm and moist lips touched his skin...

Everyone exclaimed, and the sound of sucking in breaths could be heard from everywhere. Luo Sanniang screamed in horror, then covered her mouth as her whole body shivered violently.

"She... She really bit him..." Lord Dog's fat jiggled.

The number one on the God King List also sucked in a cold breath and murmured, "What the f*ck..."

There was no pain and no spatter of blood. Bu Fang even felt a pleasant sensation... He looked indifferently at Nethery, or rather the dead woman, and his gaze was as if he was looking at a mentally retarded person.

If he was right, after biting him, the dead woman would infiltrate his spirit sea with her soul. If not, she would not have been able to occupy Nethery's body. When it came to his spirit sea, he had never been afraid of anyone.

Nethery looked up and slowly loosened her ghostly green hair that had wrapped around Bu Fang's body. "Oh? Why are you..." she said, narrowing her eyes.

"Are you done biting me?" Bu Fang said. He could feel heat coming from his neck as the wound healed and turned into a pattern, just like Nethery's. However, his expression remained unchanged, and he was still staring at her.

Nethery opened her mouth and bared her fangs. The next moment, her eyes suddenly widened as Bu Fang took out a steaming Fortune Flatbread and shoved it right into her mouth. A strong fragrance pervaded the air.

"Is one enough? If not enough, here's another one..." Bu Fang said. Then, he took out another piece of Fortune Flatbread and was about to put it into her mouth. However, before he could do that, he felt a sharp pain coming from his neck!

Nethery's eyes glowed with a ghostly green light again. "You're courting death!"

Bu Fang's vision was instantly flooded with a boundless green glow. The next moment, the curse power began to sweep through his spirit sea like a tsunami. He gasped.

"It seems that... I've gone too far this time..."

Chapter 1525: The Cursed Snake vs. the Four Artifact Spirits

A huge warship was flying across the vast starry sky. Its speed was very fast, and as it moved forward, the void was constantly being crushed. Rivers of stars were flowing, and the light of the stars around the warship became very dim as they rapidly moved backward, forming a dream-like picture.

On the warship stood a bare-chested young man. His body was not very strong, but he looked handsome, and there was a sharpness in his eyes, which seemed powerful enough to destroy mountains and rivers. There seemed to be supreme power in his seemingly weak body as well.

“Tai Shan, how long before we arrive in the Xiayi Divine Dynasty?” asked the young man as he put his hands behind his back and watched the stars flashing by.

A figure stepped slowly out of the warship. It was a burly man with short-cropped hair. His bulging muscles and the dense tattoos all over his body showed his fierceness.

“At the speed of our Titan warship, we’ll arrive in about one day...” Tai Shan said. He looked much calmer without turning into a giant of ten thousand feet tall.

“Another day? I have no objection to the Xiayi Divine Emperor having Tai Hang arrested, but the members of our emissary group died one after another after that, and even my son Tai Fei died as well... I cannot let this matter go so easily. I need an explanation from Xia Yuhe,” said the young man.

“That old man Xia Yuhe is really an old sly fox. I can’t believe he actually conjured up a monstrous creature that could threaten the Chaotic Universe, lured many of our geniuses over, and ended up getting them all killed... Fortunately, we didn’t send Tai Hao...” Tai Shan breathed a sigh of relief and looked thankful.

Tai Hao was the crown prince of the Titan Divine Dynasty. Although Tai Fei’s talent was amazing, he was nowhere near as good as Tai Hao. Of the three divine dynasties’ crown princes, Tai Shan believed that their crown prince was definitely the strongest.

The warship rumbled as it flew at high speed. A jet of powerful energy kept spewing out from its tail, distorting the void.

Experts of the God Emperor realm could travel long distances through the void, but this would consume a lot of energy. Therefore, under normal circumstances, when God Emperors wanted to travel from one divine dynasty to another, they would choose to take warships. As a means of transportation in the Chaotic Universe, warships naturally had their reasons for existence.

Suddenly, the Titan Divine Emperor frowned and focused his eyes on the distant void. His gaze seemed to turn into a sword that was going to tear the sky apart. “Who on earth is spying on me? Get out of here, you sneaky things!” he snapped icily.

As soon as those words left his mouth, the Titan Divine Emperor moved. He raised his hand, in which countless Laws flickered, each one appeared to be perfect. Immediately, a terrible aura rushed into the sky and turned into a huge palm, slapping in that direction.

With a loud bang, the void exploded into a vast ruin filled with spatial turbulence. Wisps of black smoke flowed out of it and soon formed several figures in the sky. There were men and women among them, all of whom surrounded by dense rolling black smoke.

“Hmm?! Are you lying in ambush to attack me?” the Titan Divine Emperor said coldly as he narrowed his eyes. As the youngest of the three divine emperors, his strength was not the strongest, but he was in his prime, which made it difficult for him to be sneaked up on by these furtive fellows.

The figures in the spatial turbulence laughed coldly, sticking out their tongues and licking their lips.

“A big fish at last... I can already feel the powerful energy and blood in him! After devouring him, we may have a chance to break through to the Soul Overlord realm!” a handsome man said with a chuckle. He looked friendly, but what he said was creepy.

“Soul Three, haven’t you had enough? This fish is too big for you to swallow alone,” said a charming woman. She was wearing a very thin gauze dress, through which her long, fair legs could be vaguely seen.

“What’s there to be worried about, Soul Four? Aren’t you here to share with us? After devouring so many great worlds, our strength has finally reached this level... It’s time to start slaughtering!” said a figure who looked like a child.

The three strangers standing amid spatial turbulence laughed creepily at the same time.

One after another, the experts of the Titan Divine Dynasty came up to the warship’s deck, looking up at the sky with blazing eyes. “These three fellows are too... lawless! How could they call His Majesty a fish?!”

Tai Shan was the first to act. Roaring, he shot up into the sky, his body growing to ten thousand feet tall like a real Titan. Then, he raised a huge palm, which seemed strong enough to shatter the stars, and slapped it toward the three strangers.

The strangers, standing in the middle of the spatial turbulence and shrouded by black smoke, burst out laughing. All of a sudden, their appearances changed dramatically, transforming into three monstrous beasts wrapped in black smoke. The next moment, they bolted toward Tai Shan and the warship at the same time.

In the Xiayi Divine Dynasty's capital, dark clouds were gathering in the sky. It was as if a thunderstorm was about to descend and bring great terror.

In the palace, the Divine Emperor sat alone on his throne. He had dismissed all the eunuchs and maidservants. He did not move but breathed out a long sigh with a hint of a lonely look in his eyes.

"It's almost here... The calamity is coming soon... I wonder if my Xiayi Divine Dynasty could survive this great tribulation..."

He raised his hand and looked at it. There were black spots on the back of his hand, and a strong aura of death was spreading across his face.

"After living for so many years, I've already taken life and death lightly. It's time to throw all caution to the wind and try to break through to the Heavengod realm... As to whether I will live or die in the end, I'll leave it to fate."

Xia Yuhe rose to his feet and shook his golden imperial robe. A mighty aura exploded out of him, thrusting up like a spear as if it was going to pierce a hole in the sky. Step by step, he walked out of the great hall, put his hands behind his back, and stood outside the door, staring at the cloudy sky. At this moment, the world seemed to fall silent.

In the ancient Heavengod's relic, everyone was dumbfounded as they watched the scene that took place in the distance. Bu Fang was hovering in midair, and Nethery bit him in the neck.

That was right, he was bitten.

Why didn't he dodge? The girl was possessed by the dead woman, and she was no longer a living human. Was he going to become a puppet controlled by that dead woman as well?

Everyone knew the horror of that dead woman. Just a short while ago, she killed Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong, who were ranked on the God King List, with only a snap of her fingers. Such strength was simply astounding, and it filled everyone's heart with fear.

But Bu Fang, a mere Demigod, was bitten by her. No one knew what would happen.

Luo Sanniang covered her mouth with her hands, despairing. Summer, on the other hand, focused her eyes and watched intently. In the distance, Lord Dog smacked his mouth, no longer in surprise but in anticipation. 'Is Bu Fang boy going to die just like this? No, I don't think so...'

Directly across from him, the number one on the God King List was rubbing his hands excitedly.

Hovering in midair, Nethery's eyes flashed with a ghostly green light. This was the sign that the dead woman's consciousness was attacking Bu Fang's spirit sea.

The dead woman's consciousness was the most powerful one Bu Fang had ever seen. It was so horrible that it simply took one's breath away. As the tsunami-like green consciousness washed over him, his spirit sea rumbled under the overwhelming pressure.

In his spirit sea, monstrous waves rose up high, and a terrifying aura filled the air. Bu Fang's consciousness appeared in midair, staring at the green tsunami in the distance that was sweeping out in all directions like a wanton predator. The four Artifact Spirits had to release their aura to suppress the spirit sea—only then did the tsunami stopped its advance.

With a humming sound, a graceful figure emerged over the ghostly green tsunami. It was not Nethery, but the dead woman. She looked quite beautiful, and with her eyes open now, she appeared like a peerless beauty.

The corner of Bu Fang's mouth twitched as he looked at the dead woman. He really did not expect her mental force to be so fearsome, and because of that, he almost got himself killed this time. However, he was not afraid. His spirit sea was his biggest strength. In here, he should be able to fight her.

The dead woman wanted to take control of Nethery's body, which he could not allow to happen. To take over a person's body, one must erase the body's original consciousness. Only then could the body be flawlessly occupied.

This was especially true when the dead woman and Nethery were of the same origin. Otherwise, the repulsive force produced by Nethery would make the dead woman suffer greatly.

"What a powerful spirit sea... This... I've never seen anything like this before..." Hovering over the tsunami, the dead woman looked around in horror. Finally, she fixed her eyes on Bu Fang's consciousness in the distance.

This was a silent confrontation, extremely dangerous.

Outside, everything was frozen. No one dared to move. The horror of the dead woman was there for all to see. They were afraid that if they moved, they would attract her attention, and then a green cursed snake would fall and kill them. So, they could only wait for the outcome of the confrontation between her and Bu Fang before they could decide whether to move or not.

But could Bu Fang defeat her? The gap between their strength was simply too...huge. Bu Fang was very talented, but he was just a Demigod. The dead woman, on the other hand, could easily kill Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong! Judging by this, she might well have reached the level of a God Emperor!

God Emperor was the peak of the God King realm. They were supreme existences, so they were called emperors. They had comprehended at least three thousand Laws, and all these Laws were perfected, not some half-baked Laws.

He who reached the peak of the king would become the emperor. Moreover, the most basic requirement of becoming a Heavengod was to comprehend three thousand Laws. But this alone could not guarantee success, and that was why the Divine Emperor had not become a Heavengod after living for so many years.

It was too difficult to become a Heavengod. There were only five of them in today's Chaotic Universe, and they had relied on the five supreme Laws of the Universe to become Heavengods. For others who wished to do the same, it was as difficult as to scale the heavens!

Whether the dead woman had reached the God Emperor realm, Bu Fang did not know. However, he could feel that her spiritual pressure was no weaker than that of the Xiayi Divine Emperor. In fact, it was even stronger!

At this moment, Bu Fang was facing an unprecedented crisis.

The dead woman glanced around at Bu Fang's spirit sea with a touch of greed on her stunningly beautiful face. She found that his physical body was even better than Nethery's cursed body!

"Unbelievable... I can't believe there is such a fearsome spirit sea in this world! Could this be the legendary Heavengod's foundation?!" she said, her voice ringing through Bu Fang's spirit sea and pounding at his consciousness.

Suddenly, the dead woman moved. Her divine sense surged, and the ghostly green light was constantly spreading from her to invade Bu Fang's spirit sea. At the same time, a stream of ghostly green energy rose into the sky and turned into a huge cursed snake.

Bu Fang felt a threat. With a thought, the four Artifact Spirits roared furiously, unleashed their supreme power, and hovered behind him, facing the colossal cursed snake. The snake was so huge that it overshadowed the four Artifact Spirits!

For a moment, the atmosphere in Bu Fang's spirit sea became extremely tense!

Chapter 1526: Deep in the Spirit Sea...

Bu Fang was no stranger to the cursed snake. After all, it was the karma that haunted Nethery, and he had seen it often since Earth Prison. This time, however, it brought him an unprecedented pressure, which was so great that he could not help but inhale deeply.

The Vermilion Bird was singing loudly and flapping her wings. The whole spirit sea seemed to be covered by the terrifying flames she unleashed, which danced and spread into a sea of fire.

The Golden Divine Dragon twisted and turned in midair, his scales gleaming brightly, while the White Tiger raised his head and let out a deafening roar, closing in on the cursed snake step by step. The Black Turtle, on the other hand, did not move.

Soon, the four Artifact Spirits surrounded the cursed snake.

“What’s this? Interesting...” The dead woman glanced at them as the corners of her mouth curled up slightly. The fact that these mighty existences appeared in the spirit sea of a Demigod proved that he was different.

They put a lot of pressure on her, and they were very strong. But she was confident that they were no match for her cursed snake. After all, the curse power was far beyond the imagination of the people in this Chaotic Universe.

The cursed snake was hissing, its body flushed with green. Behind it, the dead woman floated with her hands clasped behind her, watching with an indifferent expression.

With a rumbling sound, the snake moved. In just a flash, it rushed forward like a dragon, setting off terrifying waves. At the same time, ghostly green curse power spread continuously from it and enveloped the whole area like an invisible force field.

Bu Fang had seen the cursed snake kill Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong with his own eyes, and many God Kings were unable to resist this move from the dead woman, even with their strength combined. This proved that the curse power was extremely terrible.

Looming in the waves, the Golden Dragon roared, “Little Host’s spirit sea is safe with Nicholas the Handsome Dragon watching over it! How dare you, little snake, come here to run wild!”

With that, he opened his mouth and let out a puff of breath, which ruthlessly blasted the cursed snake, causing its whole body to shake violently.

Boom!

With a flick of its tail, the cursed snake flooded its surroundings with a ghostly green light.

Even then, the Vermilion Bird moved. She stopped singing and spewed out a jet of crimson flame at the cursed snake's tail. The two of them collided with a rumble, and in almost no time at all, the snake was suppressed.

The White Tiger did not join the fight. He just prowled back and forth and watched from a distance, his eyes glittering with excitement. After staying in Bu Fang's spirit sea for so long, a heavyweight presence was finally here, who was unlike those shrimps in the past he had killed easily with a single stroke of his claw.

He was good at attacking, but he would not attack foolishly. He would look for the enemy's weak spot before landing a killing strike. So, he focused his eyes and fixed them on the cursed snake.

In another corner, the Black Turtle yawned, causing a great wave to rise in the spirit sea.

Bu Fang landed at the side of his divine sense's true form, watching the battle with an indifferent face. The Golden Dragon, the Vermilion Bird, and the others had been suppressed for too long, and they needed a good release. This was a good opportunity...

Rumble!

The cursed snake was colossal, powerful, and fierce. It opened its mouth, bared its sharp fangs, and kept darting, snapping, and hissing. The Golden Dragon and the Vermilion Bird fought it together, and for a moment, the fight was in full swing.

The dead woman watched indifferently. She did not expect the cursed snake to be stopped. However, even if they could stop it, so what? It did not mean that they were able to stop her as well.

Squinting at Bu Fang in the distance, the corners of her mouth curled up slightly. She could see that he was counting on these four fellows. In that case, she would completely crush his hope.

The dead woman moved. She took a step and instantly appeared in front of the Golden Dragon.

The Golden Dragon was stunned, then he raised his dragon claw and slapped it toward her. However, the dead woman only lifted a hand and collided it with his claw. A rumbling sound rang out, and the Golden Dragon was instantly knocked flying away.

The Vermilion Bird gave a cry, and immediately, a crimson flame began to gather in her mouth. Then, she spewed it out toward the dead woman.

“Ah, a Vermilion Bird... The supreme existence of the Phoenix clan who is extremely rare!” said the dead woman as she pinched her fingers together and pushed them out. Ghostly green energy turned into a wall and stopped the crimson flame.

Flapping her wings, the Vermilion Bird kept spewing flames, which burned the wall and made it sizzle, but she could not destroy it no matter how hard she tried.

The dead woman smiled faintly. “I could sense that your power relies on the strength of this body. Unfortunately... the strength of this body is just way too weak. Otherwise, it would have taken me more effort to deal with you,” she said.

Her eyes turned ghostly green once again as a terrifying aura exploded out of her. With her long hair fluttering in the wind, she flashed through the void at high speed like a phantom. In just the blink of an eye, she appeared in front of the Vermilion Bird, pointed out a finger, and tapped the bird on the head.

The seemingly gentle tap knocked the Vermilion Bird down from midair and smashed her into the spirit sea, causing monstrous waves to rise!

Bu Fang’s pupils constricted. ‘This woman is a little aggressive,’ he thought to himself. ‘She’s truly worthy of being the Cursed Goddess who only appears once in every age. Her strength is indeed fearsome.’

The Golden Dragon seemed a little angry from embarrassment. He could not believe that he was knocked flying away by a little girl. How could he swallow this humiliation?

The curse power spread and seemed to want to corrupt them. However, it failed to do so. This surprised the dead woman. In her opinion, these fellows might be the souls of some powerful beings who were seeking shelter in this young man’s spirit sea, just as she was in the Cursed Goddess’s consciousness.

But things were about to change, for she was going to become the master of this place, and all these fellows trying to stop her would soon die.

She focused her eyes, and blue veins began to appear and spread across her whole face. All Cursed Goddesses were used to having the entire world as their enemy, so everything she did was to build up her own strength. Once she occupied Bu Fang's body, her strength would certainly become stronger!

BOOM!

Ghostly green energy materialized into two green whips, which lashed out and coiled around the necks of the Golden Dragon and the Vermilion Bird like some pet collars.

Bu Fang took a deep breath. "At her prime, this dead woman was a... Heavengod?" he muttered, frowning.

She was definitely extraordinary for being able to suppress the Golden Dragon and the Vermilion Bird. From the fact that she was trapped by the Heavengod's treasure, Bu Fang could already tell that she was someone of unusual strength, but he never thought that she could be so aggressive.

Relying on Nethery's body, she was able to bring out the fighting prowess of a God Emperor, and when her consciousness awakened, she could even suppress the Golden Dragon and the Vermilion Bird. Bu Fang finally felt a little pressured now.

Suddenly, a tiger roar exploded out, and the whole spirit sea seemed to be rocking as rumbling sounds filled the air. The White Tiger, Howling, finally made his move. He approached in an instant like a tiger descending from the mountain, threw out a claw, and ruthlessly slapped the dead woman.

With a loud bang, the stroke knocked her flying away and almost turned her body into a puddle of blood and gore...

That had freed the Golden Dragon and the Vermilion Bird. They rose into the sky, settled down in different directions, and unleashed supreme pressure. Immediately, the spirit sea became extremely calm—the four Artifact Spirits had suppressed the dead woman's curse power.

"Interesting..." The dead woman stabilized herself. With a thought in her mind, the colossal cursed snake split into countless tiny green snakes and filled the sky.

Savage and aggressive, the White Tiger plunged into the sea of snakes and kept throwing out his claws, shattering and crushing numerous snakes with each stroke. The battle became white-hot in an instant, and the White Tiger had the upper hand.

In the distance, Bu Fang breathed out a sigh of relief. It seemed that the dead woman's consciousness had not reached the level of a Heavengod. Otherwise, the four Artifact Spirits would have been routed instantly.

But even if she had not reached that level, she was not far away from it. After all, she was an existence who came from the same age as the ancient Heavengod.

The repeated setbacks had somewhat enraged the dead woman. Her hair was disheveled, and she hissed savagely. Bu Fang could not help but twitch his mouth as he looked at her ferocious appearance, thinking that Nethery was much cuter than her. 'They are both Cursed Goddesses, but why is there such a huge difference between them?'

Suddenly, the dead woman's body grew larger and larger as it kept devouring the surrounding ghostly green energy. Soon, she seemed to reach the same height as the sky.

Staring at Bu Fang, she opened her mouth. A terrible suction burst out of it as she tried to devour him. Once she swallowed his consciousness, she would become the master of this spirit sea and acquire the body and power of someone with the foundation of a Heavengod!

Bu Fang frowned. Sure enough, the dead woman's target was him. The four Artifact Spirits rushed over, but they were intercepted by the cursed snakes.

Suddenly, the divine sense's true form sitting beside Bu Fang opened its eyes. Beneath it, the God of Cooking's Menu began to emit dazzling golden light while the round divine sense liquid drop spun rapidly. Then, a beam of energy shot out from the menu, converged in the void, and swayed like a bell.

Vaguely, a thumping sound could be heard, sounding like the evening drum in a monastery. The dead woman's expression changed drastically as she sensed a great terror. Soon, the water in the spirit sea began to boil...

The Golden Dragon, the Vermilion Bird, the White Tiger, and the Black Turtle all jerked their heads up and looked into the depths of the spirit sea in horror.

“Is it coming out?” they muttered.

Bu Fang was shocked as well. He turned around and looked curiously into the depths of the spirit sea. It was as though a terrible existence was about to rip the mist and come through it.

He suddenly thought of something. There was one last God of Cooking Set that he had not acquired yet, and it meant that there was one last Artifact Spirit who had not shown up.

A long time ago, the Golden Dragon, the Vermilion Bird, and the others had told him that there was a terrible existence in the depths of the spirit sea, and it would take him a very long time to make it show up. Judging by what was happening now... Was this terrible existence about to show up now because it was disturbed by the dead woman?

In fact, Bu Fang had other means to deal with the dead woman. After all, he still had the divine power liquid drop. However, since there was a better way, he thought it was best not to waste the divine power.

He had only a limited amount of liquid drops, and he did not know if he would get more from the next mission. That was why he was reluctant to use it.

A sonorous bestial roar seemed to echo out in the distance, causing the cursed snake to freeze as soon as it heard the sound. Even the Golden Dragon, the White Tiger, and the others were left speechless with wonder.

The dead woman focused her eyes and glanced coldly at the depths of the spirit sea. “What kind of monster is this boy?! There’s actually... another monster in his spirit sea?!”

She sucked in a cold breath. Even though she was an ancient Cursed Goddess with strength comparable to that of a Heavengod, she had never encountered a situation like this.

Rumble...

The spirit sea began to shake with ripples spreading out in all directions, while the God of Cooking’s Menu glowed dazzlingly, attracting the terrible existence in the depths of the spirit sea.

Finally, as the dead woman and Bu Fang stared intently, the mist in the depths of the spirit sea was ripped apart. A huge palm slowly reached out of it and slapped toward the giant dead woman!

Chapter 1527: Draw a Circle and Curse You

The atmosphere was somewhat quiet. In midair, Bu Fang and Nethery were staring at each other, while all the other people held their breath and watched from down below.

All the people present were knowledgeable. After all, the weakest among them were Gods, and they knew very well what Bu Fang was facing now. He and the dead woman were fighting with their divine sense.

Compared to the clash of strength, the clash of divine sense was more dangerous and had higher odds of ending with one side being completely crushed.

Bu Fang was just a Demigod. In these people's opinion, no matter how gifted he was, his divine sense would not be too strong. Perhaps, at this moment, his spirit sea had already been smashed to pieces.

The silent battle had gone on for too long, so much so that the experts down below were beginning to stir. After all, the Heavengod's treasure was not far away from them.

The Heavengod's bone, blood, Laws, and treasure were all there, waiting for them. Even the wisp of Chaotic Energy, the most precious treasure that could help one become a Heavengod, was there.

The Heavengod's treasure was constantly giving off temptation, which made people want to step forward and walk toward it. Almost all the people were tempted, including experts like King Pingyang and King Tianlong.

Many high-grade God Kings were breathing heavily as they stared at it, their eyes gleaming with greed. They knew that as long as they could acquire the treasure, their cultivation base would skyrocket, and they could even have the opportunity to break through to the Heavengod realm, becoming an immortal existence.

But the threat and oppression posed by the dead woman were too great. Yu Qiu and Xuan Kong were famous top experts in the ancient Heavengod's relic with mighty strength, yet she was able to kill both of them and turn them into bones that scattered the ground.

This, to the people present, was actually a piece of good news. Since the top experts were all eliminated, their chances were finally here. If they were to fight with the top experts, their chances of acquiring the Heavengod's treasure were slim. In fact, they might not even have a sliver of a chance to get anything.

But it was different now. They finally had the chance to acquire the treasure. This filled the hearts of many people, who had chosen to wait and see, with hope. And when that was fueled by the overly long battle between the dead woman and Bu Fang...someone eventually lost patience and decided to make a move.

Rumble!

A high-grade God King made a move. His strength was very strong, but he did not make it to the God King List. If this were at ordinary times, he would not have any chance, but now... he finally got an opportunity to lay his hand on the treasure!

He sped forward, turning into a stream of light. His speed was simply too fast, so he did not attract anyone's attention until he had flown far away.

An uproar broke out in an instant, and then one figure after another rushed forward as well. Even King Tianlong could not resist and flew out.

Soon, a large group of people began heading for the Heavengod's treasure. They wanted to seize the treasure while the dead woman was locked up in a battle, and then run away immediately!

As they were getting closer and closer to the treasure, they found that the dead woman still... did not move. That made them breathe faster and faster, and their pupils were growing wider and wider.

In Bu Fang's spirit sea, the dead woman felt a little cold. She raised her head and looked at the palm that was slapping toward her from the depths of the spirit sea, where a thick fog hung in the air.

In fact, that was not a human hand, but a hoof. Yes, a hoof...

It broke through the thick fog at the depths of the spirit sea and thrust out, and in almost a flash, it had struck the dead woman's body.

"What is this?!" she screamed as the hoof left a large hole on her ghostly green body, in which energy seemed to flow. She had failed to fend off this hoof? How was that even possible?

The Golden Dragon, the Vermilion Bird, and the others were watching quietly as the terrible existence began his performance. "It had been a long time he didn't show up..." said the Vermilion Bird with emotion. Perhaps, in the near future, they would be neighbors to that terrible existence.

"I don't care what you are... Since you tried to stop me, I'm going to destroy you! My curse is... invincible!" the dead woman hissed.

The next moment, her palm was drawing in the air, and soon she drew a circle filled with the curse power. It was so strong that it almost took a physical form. A humming sound rang out as she pushed the ring forward, and it instantly caught the hoof. Like a venomous insect, the ghostly green curse began to crawl up the hoof.

"It's over," the Golden Dragon said when he saw that.

Sure enough, the curse ring that wound around the hoof broke in the next instant, and then it melted away like snow.

A bestial roar echoed out from the depths of the fog. Then, the fog broke apart, and a huge shadow could be seen looming inside. With a ripping sound, another palm stretched out of the fog, but this time, it was not a hoof but a paw with five claws, and it was covered with scales.

Rumble!

The paw descended and spread out abruptly, its sharp claws ripping through the air as it went straight to grab the dead woman. She tried to fight back, but no matter how she used her curses, she could not shake the paw at all.

Finally, the paw fell and caught her body. She struggled while the cursed snake hissed, joining the battlefield to help her out. However, the existence in the depths of the spirit sea let out a bestial roar, and it stunned the snake and froze it to the spot.

The dead woman kept on struggling as a look of horror came into her eyes. The paw raised and slowly retracted into the depths of the thick fog, bringing her along.

She could not believe this was happening. It was not easy for her to finally wake up again, and she did not want to die! She glared at Bu Fang, her eyes filled with a mad and venomous look. He was her prey, but somehow, in the end, she had become someone else's prey.

Her hands grew larger and kept lashing out at the void, trying to hold on to something. She did not want to be dragged into the fog. However, the existence in the depths of the fog kept putting in more force, and she could not resist it. Eventually, she was pulled over bit by bit.

"I'm not willing to accept this! This is not supposed to happen! I want to curse you! Curse you!" the dead woman growled, her face twisting and looking ferocious. Even then, the ghostly green energy around her turned into a strange wave and shot toward Bu Fang at top speed.

She laughed hideously as the paw dragged her into the depths of the fog, her voice sounding so creepy that it made the hair of those who heard it stand on end.

Soon, accompanied by her miserable shriek, the thick fog churned, and an eerie chewing sound echoed out of it. Finally, the mysterious existence belched, and everything fell silent.

Bu Fang twitched the corner of his mouth. It turned out that... there was such a mighty existence in his spirit sea. In the past, the Golden Dragon and the Vermilion Bird told him that this mighty existence was extremely fierce, but he did not take them seriously. After all, he had not seen it with his own eyes. Now that he had witnessed it, he couldn't agree more.

The soul of the ancient Cursed Goddess was... eaten just like that?

A humming sound could be heard as the curse, which the dead woman had unleashed before she was devoured, shot toward Bu Fang at top speed.

The Cursed Goddess's curse was extremely terrifying. Even Heavengods would not want to be stained by it because it would go deep into the souls and cause great harm to the cultivation base.

Even though the dead woman was significantly weaker than she was in the past, the curse she unleashed was still extremely venomous. If Bu Fang was caught by it, his life would be...destroyed. It would be very difficult for him to stay alive, and he could basically forget his goal of becoming the God of Cooking and top the fantasy world's food chain.

The curse formed a ring. The dead woman had drawn it to curse Bu Fang, and this ring was deadly. It was getting closer and closer to him, and he could not evade it because he was its target—it would definitely hit him.

Even in his soul form, Bu Fang felt his hair stand on end. Curses were a malevolent force, and they did not seem to belong to this world. At the thought that Nethery would become so fearsome in the future, he felt very excited!

Suddenly, just as the curse ring was closing in, the God of Cooking's Menu lit up. Its pages flipped, glowed, and then the curse power was absorbed by it... Then, after flashing for a brief moment, it dimmed down completely.

“Hiss?!”

Now, the only stranger that was left in the spirit sea was the colossal cursed snake. It was alone now, and it felt lonely and helpless. The death of the dead woman took it by surprise.

Without the dead woman's help, the cursed snake was soon surrounded by the Golden Dragon, the Vermilion Bird, the White Tiger, and the Black Turtle. It looked somewhat miserable. It tried to run, but very quickly, the four Artifact Spirits swooped down on it, tore it into pieces, and devoured it. Among them, the Golden Dragon ate the most.

Hovering in midair, Bu Fang breathed out a sigh of relief. He turned around and glanced at the depths of the spirit sea. ‘So that is the Artifact Spirit of the last God of Cooking Set? With such a fearsome Artifact Spirit, that God of Cooking Set must be... very strong, right?’ His heart was suddenly filled with anticipation.

With a thought, his consciousness returned to his body. He opened his eyes and immediately saw Nethery's beautiful face. She looked somewhat dazed at the moment as she had not yet figured out what just happened. Now that the dead woman's consciousness was destroyed, she had regained control over her body, and she was not used to the mighty strength that was left in her.

“Hey, wake up. It’s time to reap the harvest.” Bu Fang raised a hand and gently patted Nethery on the head.

That gave her pause. She turned and rested her eyes on Bu Fang.

The wound on Bu Fang’s neck had quickly disappeared like melted snow because the dead woman’s consciousness had vanished. However, the bite mark on Nethery’s shoulder was still there. Bu Fang could not help but give it a deep look.

“Time to reap the harvest?” Nethery did not understand. Then, she turned her head and looked at the group of people down below.

The experts, who were shouting and running wildly, suddenly froze in place. They could feel that Bu Fang and the dead woman, who were confronting each other above them, seemed to stop fighting and were looking at them.

“Oh? Is it over now?” They felt somewhat embarrassed and were in a dilemma. But soon, an uproar broke out. They had no other choice but to rush forward. For the sake of the Heavengod’s treasure, they could only go forward!

Nethery looked puzzled, and she did not move. After all, she was no longer the dead woman.

Bu Fang glanced indifferently at the group of people. ‘The Heavengod’s treasure... He felt his Taotie Arm become a little bit hot. It was the Heavengod’s bone calling to his arm. ‘I cannot let go of this treasure!’ he thought to himself.

Suddenly, he frowned. He felt a profound sense of uneasiness.

The next moment, humming sounds filled the air as wisps of black smoke gradually rose, spread across the ground, and caught the legs of those experts flying in midair. Then, the ground cracked, and one terrible and savage monster after another jumped out of the rifts!

In front of Bu Fang and Nethery, black smoke gathered and soon turned into a figure.

Chapter 1528: You Want to Kill Bu Fang? Did You Ask Me?

No one had expected a sudden turn of events like this to happen as they were closing in the Heavengod's treasure. Black energy seeped out of the ground, wrapped their bodies, and enveloped their legs. Then, a blade seemed to slash across the air, and many God Kings were cut in half by it, their blood spilling all over the place.

King Tianlong thought he was going to have the opportunity of a lifetime, and he was very excited. However, before he could step into that area, he felt a terrible aura intrude into his body, which caused his body to explode instantly. He was filled with despair. He never thought that he would... lose his life instead of getting the treasure.

A ripping sound could be heard as a long, narrow tongue shot out, pierced his fleeing soul, and tore it into pieces.

“What are these things?!”

“They’re those savage creatures! Dammit!”

“Run! Run for your life! These creatures are too horrible!”

Many God Kings hastily retreated with fear. Of course, some of the high-grade God Kings had no fear, and they pressed on with crushing momentum to scatter these creatures. However, a knife light shot over in the next moment, slashed through the black smoke, and cut a high-grade God King in half.

In midair, black smoke gathered and turned into a woman, whose arms were actually black scaled knives. “This is really interesting...” she said, smiling. Then, she stuck out her tongue and licked the blood on her knife with an intoxicated look on her face.

“Delicious... The blood and flesh of these creatures are so delicious.” Soul Nine took a deep breath. Even the insect scales on her knives were opening and closing as if they were breathing. She felt a surge of pleasure as she watched many experts die under their attacks. “Soul Thirteen is indeed clever. We all have meat to eat after following him.”

The attack of these creatures took everyone by surprise. However, not all God Kings were killed. Some of the experts had already retreated behind Bu Fang and the others.

Narrowing his eyes, Tai Fei revealed himself and stared at Bu Fang in the distance. He was no stranger to this human. They had met once when he was still very weak. Unfortunately, he lacked the confidence to kill him back then, and he was forcefully fed with many human dishes by this human chef.

Those disgusting things still left a shadow in his heart, and when he saw Bu Fang, he immediately thought of the unspeakable pain he had suffered.

Now that he has become stronger, he must turn this human into his food. He wanted to tear this chef into pieces! This was, of course, if he got the Cursed Goddess's body. That was the body that would make him a Soul Overlord! He would never give up on acquiring it!

"Oh, it's you?" Bu Fang recognized Tai Fei as well. After all, the guy's current look did not change much from before.

"It's been a long time since we met... and I quite miss you," said Tai Fei, grinning. His hair fluttered in the wind while streams of black smoke began to slowly emerge around him. He had little patience for Bu Fang because when he saw the latter, he would think of those disgusting human food.

"It seems that your appetite is better now... Are you still anorexic? I've food with me here," Bu Fang said expressionlessly.

Tai Fei's eyes turned red in an instant. "You are courting death! Soul Nine!" Tai Fei bellowed. The next moment, the woman in the distance, who had forced back several high-grade God Kings alone, sped over and hovered at his side.

"I see you guys are... eager to get that Heavengod's treasure... Unfortunately, that treasure is right behind me. If you want to get it, you'll have to defeat me first..." Tai Fei sneered. He made no effort to conceal his intention to kill Bu Fang.

The next moment, the red in his eyes spread while insect scales grew out from under his skin. In just a flash, he had transformed into a savage monster with four black bone spears on his back.

"I can already smell the delicious fragrance of this human..." said the woman, staring at Bu Fang as if he was a delicious meal.

Nethery was still a little confused at the moment, but she was much sober than before. Frowning, she looked at the woman and Tai Fei. She was disgusted by the presence of these creatures. Besides, they were trying to attack Bu Fang, which showed that they totally had no respect for her!

“Get him!” Tai Fei cried out. At his order, the countless creatures on the ground immediately shot up into the sky like springs. Terrible killing intent exploded out in an instant, closing in from around Bu Fang.

Some of the creatures actually rushed toward the Heavengod’s treasure. In their opinion, since those treasures could attract human experts, they would make good baits. And if they could acquire those baits, it would definitely be a great opportunity for them.

Rumble!

One savage monster after another shot out, roaring with a ferocious look in their eyes. Soon, they were closing in on the Heavengod’s treasure.

The God Kings in the distance all looked despaired. They never thought that the treasure would fall into the hands of those disgusting creatures. If these creatures were allowed to grow stronger, it would definitely be a disaster for humans...

Shrouded in black smoke, a creature reached out its hand. It was almost touching the edge of the Heavengod’s treasure when a humming sound echoed out, and the Chaotic Energy inside began to fluctuate. Suddenly, a thud rang out, and the approaching creature was squashed. In just the blink of an eye, it had turned into a puddle of blood and gore and fell to the ground.

Soon, all the creatures who got close enough to the treasure were squashed and killed, falling to the ground. It was a horrible scene!

Bam! Bam! Bam!

No one expected that there were great dangers around the Heavengod’s treasure. However, the crowd soon realized that this was just normal. A great opportunity was always accompanied by great dangers. There was simply no free opportunity in the world.

The human God Kings were even a little thankful, for if they were the ones who approached the treasure now, they would be crushed by the terrible force as well.

These creatures were not stupid, so they soon figured out the dangers. Hastily, they all retreated and stared warily at the treasure.

“A pity that King Tianlong was blinded by the opportunity... How could it be so easily acquired when even His Majesty could not get it? It just didn’t make sense that the Heavengod’s treasure is not guarded by some kind of defense mechanism...” King Pingyang sighed.

He and King Tianlong were good friends, but he had failed to help and could only watch as the latter got himself killed. He knew that even if King Tianlong survived those disgusting creatures, he would eventually be killed by the Heavengod’s trap.

Just like the ancient Heavengod’s inheritance the Divine Chef Temple had acquired, this treasure was also protected by seals, and the Chaotic Energy that burned like fire in it should be the key to break the array. If no one could win the Chaotic Energy’s acknowledgment, the array would probably never open!

Tai Fei and Soul Nine glanced over their shoulders. The Heavengod’s treasure was not essential for them. What they cared about was good bait. Now that they could not get it, they would just kill this guy before them with their own strength!

Tai Fei stepped across the void at great speed. Before long, he was looking down at Bu Fang from high up, his eyes shining with a red glow.

Soul Nine also moved. She was brandishing an extremely sharp knife, which grew in her and was her best companion. She wanted to kill Bu Fang with one slash!

With a ripping sound, she appeared in front of Bu Fang and swept out the scaled knife. A sharp whistle echoed out as she managed to cut a strand of his hair, which drifted through the air and fell to the ground.

Tai Fei sneered. The next moment, a black aura spread out from his body and enveloped the whole area. Countless experts looked horrified as they found that the space was sealed up and they could no longer flee.

Even though Bu Fang had comprehended the Law of Space, he also felt it difficult to bypass the black aura and leave this area. He could do it, but the time it would take him would be enough for Soul Nine to kill him one hundred times.

Suddenly, the spears on Tai Fei's back rose into the sky, ripped the void, and shot straight toward Bu Fang's head. Their current target was... Bu Fang! As for Nethery and her cursed body, those were what they desired to get!

Nethery hovered at Bu Fang's side. When she saw that he had become the target of Tai Fei and Soul Nine, her eyes flashed with a ghostly green light.

In the past, she did not have enough fighting prowess, but now, she could feel the explosive power in her body. Since she had enough fighting prowess, she naturally had to help!

The bone spear and Soul Nine arrived in front of Bu Fang almost at the same time. Soul Nine had the appearance of a woman, but she was full of madness. Her knife was her hand, and she ruthlessly swept it out at Bu Fang! "Die now and become my food!" she hissed, her face almost twisting. With a slash, the bone knife slashed down, closing in on Bu Fang's face.

Suddenly, a fair hand reached over from the side and grabbed Soul Nine's bone knife. That gave her pause, and she turned to look at Nethery.

'She truly is the Curse Goddess... Even a serious wound like this can heal...' Bu Fang looked expressionlessly at Nethery as she made a move. He was a little curious about her current strength. If he was right, the dead woman should have helped Nethery awaken her strength, and she was a genuine Cursed Goddess now.

"Scram!" Soul Nine said coldly. The bone knife disappeared from her hand, and when it reappeared, it was in the other hand. With a slash, the knife bypassed Nethery and hacked down toward Bu Fang's head. Unfortunately, she did not have a chance to succeed because Nethery, hovering in midair, caught her knife again.

The next moment, the ghostly green curse power slowly spread, seeping out through the palm. Soul Nine's bone knife began to give off wisps of white smoke as it was being corrupted. The Cursed Goddess's strength was still so terrifying!

“You want to kill Bu Fang? Did you ask me?” Nethery said indifferently. As soon as those words left her mouth, her eyes glowed with a green light. Then, the cursed snake gradually emerged behind her, hissing.

Soul Nine’s pupils constricted.

Nethery gently waved her fair arm. The next moment, the cursed snake darted forward, opened its mouth to reveal its sharp fangs, and swallowed Soul Nine with one gulp.

No matter what tricks Soul Nine used, she could not escape. She could not even transform into a savage monster. Soon, her body slowly melted in the cursed snake’s stomach, became flat, and eventually disappeared completely.

The cursed snake’s ferocity, or rather, Nethery’s ferocity was beyond everyone’s expectation. Tai Fei’s eyes were shot with blood. The death of Soul Nine had infuriated him. He never thought that... after losing the dead woman, Nethery could still explode with such strength!

Nethery flew up and landed on the cursed snake’s giant head, glancing around with indifferent eyes. “Who dares to touch Bu Fang when I am here?”

Chapter 1529: A Ferocious Lord Dog!

Nethery was not the dead woman, so she could not fully unleash the Cursed Goddess’s power. Even so, she could still kill Soul Nine instantly. Such strength was truly astonishing.

Soul Nine was not as strong as Tai Fei, but she had slaughtered a great world before she managed to promote to her current level.

Tai Fei was actually called Soul Thirteen. In the Soul Demon clan, he was now a Numbered Soul Demon, and the existences one level higher than him were called Soul Overlords.

According to his calculation, Numbered Soul Demons were about the same as human God Kings. However, Soul Demons had a great advantage, that was, they could imitate human divine power and abilities. Of course, they could not imitate the Power of Law, but that did not matter.

Soul Demons came from the Soul Realm, which was also called the Soul Demon Universe. They were the supreme existences in that universe, and they also possessed unique talents. Human beings had Laws, and the Soul Demons also had fearsome means that could fight against human Laws.

In fact, there was a time when humans also existed in the Soul Demon Universe. They had even started a war to resist the Soul Demon's rule. Unfortunately, they were all turned into the Soul Demons' food in the end.

Human beings were originally the food they kept in captivity. When the food dared to fight back, it was only natural for them to be wiped out. So, from then on, Soul Demons were the only ones left in the Soul Demon Universe.

Nethery hovered in the sky. The cursed snake was at her side, sticking out its tongue from time to time, its scales glinting beautifully.

She was very domineering now. After fusing with the dead woman's power, she had become one of the supreme experts in this world. Even Bu Fang might be weaker than her in terms of hard power.

The Cursed Goddess did not need to comprehend Laws. A Demigod now, what Nethery comprehended was not Laws but her own curse power. Perhaps, to the Cursed Goddess, the curse power and Laws were the same things.

"Sister Nethery is so mighty!" Bu Fang could not help but clench his fists as he looked at the domineering side of Nethery. He was fond of lying down. With Nethery here, he could finally lie down in peace.

The crowd down below was also awed by Nethery's domineering air. Among them, the pupils of Summer and Luo Sanniang constricted when they saw her transformation, and the latter's eyes even grew slightly darker as she felt a sense of failure. When compared with Nethery, she was really... too weak.

Tai Fei, or rather, Soul Thirteen was very angry at the moment. He had gone through countless hardships to grow into a Numbered Soul Demon. How could he be defeated just like that? He had to seize the Cursed Goddess's body, as that was the key for him to become a Soul Overlord. He could not fail.

Tai Fei moved. His body was covered with insect scales in an instant, which made his aura grow even stronger. Then, his eyes glowed with a scarlet light as he fixed them on Nethery.

Frowning and pursing her red lips, Nethery raised a hand and slapped it out in Tai Fei's direction. A rumbling sound filled the air as the sky began to shake. At the same time, the cursed snake grew larger and larger until it covered the whole sky, opened its mouth, and swooped down toward Tai Fei.

"It's useless. I'm much stronger than Soul Nine," Tai Fei said coldly. His scarlet eyes were fixed on the cursed snake, and arrays seemed to spin in them. Suddenly, a plume of black smoke spread out of his body and kept gathering behind him, and soon, it turned into a huge black python that looked somewhat similar to the cursed snake. This is the imitative power of the Soul Demons!

'Oh? He can also imitate Nethery's cursed snake?' Bu Fang's eyes flashed.

Down below, many people were exclaiming. "No wonder His Majesty said that these are terrible creatures. Their abilities are truly creepy!"

Rumble!

The two huge serpents collided in midair, each representing ultimate power as they pounded each other. Scary rumbling sounds rang continuously while the whole sky was shaking violently. At this moment, the whole world seemed to fall silent as they watched the fierce battle!

Bu Fang landed on the ground and watched as Nethery fought. He thought that she should fight this battle herself. This was the first battle after she had awakened, and she really needed it.

Tai Fei's eyes were full of madness. "The Cursed Goddess is mine! She will be my perfect vessel!"

In the distant sky, Lord Dog, holding the Heavengod's bone, watched calmly. He did not make a move, and he was too lazy to do anything. Tai Fei posed no threat to Nethery now.

With a humming sound, he walked forward with graceful cat-like steps and disappeared. When he appeared again, he was at Bu Fang's side.

That gave Bu Fang pause. He turned his head and glanced at Lord Dog, whose aura had grown stronger. Apparently, Lord Dog's strength had improved significantly again.

The next moment, the void was torn apart, and a figure wrapped in a hazy fog emerged out of it. He was none other than the mysterious number one on the God King List.

When Bu Fang looked at this newcomer, he felt he was somewhat familiar, but the guy's aura frightened even him.

“Let Nethery fight that fellow. We can touch the Heavengod's treasure now...” said Lord Dog. Then, he stuck out his tongue and licked his lips with excitement in his eyes. Apparently, there was something that excited him in that treasure.

The number one on the God King List, however, did not look too excited. “There are Heavengod's seals outside the treasure, and they will not be so easy to break...” he said.

“Who are you?” Lord Dog gave this guy a sidelong glance.

“It doesn't matter who I am. What matters is the trust that you and I have developed and the bond that we have shared... You can call me Lord Bird,” the guy said.

‘Lord Bird? The number one on the God King List actually gave himself such an odd name? He must be a weirdo...’ After thinking for a while, Bu Fang paid the strange guy no more mind. Eyes glowing brightly, he stared at the arrays around the Heavengod's treasure.

“Let me handle this,” said Lord Dog. The next moment, he walked out with elegant cat-like steps, holding the Heavengod's bone in one paw.

In the distance, Tai Fei and Nethery were fighting each other fiercely. Here, Bu Fang and Lord Dog were getting ready to breach into the Heavengod's treasure.

The closer they got, the more they could sense a powerful aura hanging around the treasure. It was a destructive aura surrounded by all kinds of Laws.

Lord Dog was holding the Heavengod's bone. The next moment, his body suddenly transformed from a chubby little dog to a colossal monster, and the Heavengod's bone had merged with his paw. Three dog's heads appeared next, their eyes glowing with blinding light. Then, he threw out a paw, smashing it down toward the seals.

“So violent?” The corner of Bu Fang’s mouth twitched. So this was the method of breaking the arrays Lord Dog mentioned? Breaking the arrays with force... might not work.

Lord Bird was somewhat speechless as well. Bu Fang could even feel his disgust through the fog.

Lord Dog, in his three-headed Earth Prison Dog form, was extremely huge, and his whole body was surrounded by blazing Earth Prison Flames, which seemed to burn the void into nothing. In the blink of an eye, his paw fell and smashed the array, and energy exploded out of it in an instant.

Lord Dog’s paw had merged with the Heavengod’s bone, and it even showed a bit of natural power. Struck by it, the array immediately rumbled and seemed ready to be blown apart at any moment!

“So he’s trying to break the array with the Heavengod’s bone?” After thinking for a moment, Bu Fang’s eyes lit up. Then, he took a step forward and raised his Taotie Arm. The three supreme Laws of the Universe rotated over his head and soon gathered on his finger. His thumb began to glow, then he thrust it out and pressed it down toward the array!

In the distance, many people were taking deep breaths.

Bu Fang and Lord Dog were starting to break the array! Could they really break it? It was a Heavengod’s array, and it had squashed and killed many God Kings just now. Evidently, its power was no weaker than that of a Heavengod. In that case, was it good to break it with brute force?

Many people did not think they would succeed. After all, all seals came with great dangers, and they seemed to deal with this one casually. That might get them killed.

Meanwhile, the battle between Tai Fei and Nethery had become white-hot. It was a terrible fight with rumbling sounds that kept ringing out.

Suddenly, Tai Fei glanced over his shoulder, and when he saw Bu Fang and Lord Dog were breaking the array, his eyes burst into a fierce light. “Don’t think I will let you do that!” he growled. Then, with a wave of his hand, the last three bone spears on his back rose into the sky and shot toward Bu Fang, Lord Dog, and Lord Bird. He wanted to stop the three of them.

Lord Dog gave the approaching bone spear a sideways glance, opened his mouth, and barked. The deafening voice immediately knocked the spear flying away. He then threw out a paw, slapping it toward Tai Fei.

“I’ve left you alone, yet you dared provoke me?!” Terrible Earth Prison Flames swept out and burned ragingly as the paw moved across the sky. For a moment, the whole world seemed to be on the verge of being destroyed.

Tai Fei’s face fell in an instant. Without hesitation, he raised his scale-covered arms to block the paw.

Rumble!

The paw fell with a loud banging noise. Tai Fei felt a great force exploding in front of him, which filled him with despair. In the blink of an eye, all the insect scales on his arms shattered. He felt as though his body was crushed as black blood flowed out of his mouth and nose.

“This...” Tai Fei’s pupils constricted. “What kind of dog is this?!”

The next moment, Lord Dog’s paw descended, closed around Tai Fei’s body, and ruthlessly slammed him to the ground.

Boom!

The whole ancient Heavengod’s relic shook violently, and the ground cracked into a huge rift that stretched as far as the eye could see. Rumbling filled the air as Lord Dog repeatedly slammed Tai Fei to the ground.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Nethery stopped attacking and hovered in midair. The cursed snake wound around her with its forked tongue sticking out. She looked strangely at Tai Fei, who was being savaged by Lord Dog’s paw, and thought, ‘This guy has really underestimated Lord Dog... Does he think Lord Dog is just an ordinary dog?’

The power of Lord Dog’s paw, which had fused with the Heavengod’s bone, was unprecedentedly powerful. It looked like she would not be needed now.

Tai Fei flew tumbling away and smashed to the ground. He looked extremely miserable. All his insect scales were shattered, and his fleshly body was severely battered... Lying listlessly on the ground, he could not even move a finger. He was boiling with rage. He could not believe that he was beaten by a dog. However, he was filled with helplessness...

Lord Dog snorted with disdain. The next moment, he threw out his paw again, slapping Tai Fei, who seemed to have turned into meat paste, deeper into the ground...

Rumble!

The ground shook, and so did the hearts of those who witnessed this.

Just then, Bu Fang's eyes lit up as he was breaking the ancient Heavengod's seal. "The seal is... broken!" he said.

His words shocked the people in the relic who were attracted by Lord Dog's brutal attack, and they all turned to look at him. Lord Dog also twitched his nose.

In that brief moment when everyone was distracted, a plume of black smoke squeezed out from under Lord Dog's paw and fled crazily toward the distance. Of course, Lord Dog did not bother to pay attention to it at the moment.

Soul Thirteen's heart filled with grievance. He was a Numbered Soul Demon, yet Lord Dog had smashed him back to his primal form with just a paw. It never occurred to him that a dog could be so... ferocious!

Rumbling filled the air as the ground began to shake violently. Bu Fang backed away quickly and landed in the distance, staring at the Heavengod's treasure. There, the array slowly bloomed like a lotus flower, exposing the true Heavengod's treasure!

Chapter 1530: The Heavengod's Treasure

Rumbling filled the air as the entire ancient Heavengod's relic began to shake. Not long after, a dazzling light exploded and became the focus of countless people, their eyes fixed on the location of the Heavengod's treasure.

The array had been broken, and the secrets were now exposed. A buzzing sound could be heard as strange waves spread, which came from the Heavengod's Power of Law and the complete Heavengod's skeleton.

Tai Fei was forcefully blown apart by Lord Dog with a paw. This was out of everyone's expectation, and many people were surprised by Lord Dog's current strength. They wondered what level this dog had reached.

Of course, Tai Fei was not dead yet. He had turned into a plume of black smoke, burrowed into the ground, and fled. Some people noticed that, but they did not have the time to chase him—they had set their sights on the Heavengod's treasure.

More attention was paid to the treasure than to Tai Fei because this was the reason that brought them here, and now, they were finally going to touch the secrets of this place.

Shafts of light thrust into the sky from the treasure, forming what looked like a dazzling lotus flower. At the same time, the Heavengod's aura spread, attracting everyone.

The Heavengod realm was a very powerful level, and that level was very frightening and awe-inspiring. What was buried in this relic were all Heavengods who died in battles.

Moreover, they were known as immortal, so a lot of people were wondering about the origin of these bones. Someone thought they came from the battle of Heavengods that happened in ancient times. Although Heavengods were immortal, that was because they would not die of old age. Battles would still cause them to fall.

In any case, these had nothing to do with Bu Fang. He was breathing somewhat rapidly now. What he was about to do was to devour those Heavengod's Laws with his Divine flame. Once he succeeded, his temporary task would be completed. Then, he would receive a Fruit of Law and comprehend another supreme Law of the Universe!

Shrouded in the hazy fog, Lord Bird's eyes also lit up slightly. Obviously, he was very interested in the Heavengod's treasure as well. Of course, no one was not interested in the treasure, especially when there was a wisp of powerful Chaotic Energy inside, which was the foundation to become a Heavengod!

Lord Dog sped forward at top speed, heading toward the treasure the moment the array was broken. His target was... the Chaotic Energy. He did not care about those Laws.

The Heavengods had fallen, so the Laws were useless to him. But the Chaotic Energy was different. It was the key to become a Heavengod. Only those who acquired it had the chance to break through to the Heavengod realm. If he missed this opportunity, he would have to spend countless years searching for another wisp.

The Chaotic Universe would produce a wisp of Chaotic Energy in every age. However, it vanished as soon as it appeared, so it was very difficult to acquire—nowhere near as convenient as this one right before his eyes.

Besides, the Chaotic Energy that appeared once in every age was the object of contention among the divine dynasties. It would be too difficult for him to seize it from the Divine Emperors and God Kings of these divine dynasties.

Eyes flashing, Bu Fang followed after Lord Dog. His target was different from Lord Dog's, so there was no conflict.

As for Lord Bird, no one knew what his target was. Bu Fang and Lord Dog did not bother to pay attention to him. If he also wanted the Chaotic Energy, he would have to fight Lord Dog. But if he wanted those Laws... What did ordinary people want the Laws of these fallen Heavengods for? Bu Fang would never let him have them.

Bu Fang's speed was very fast. He shot out in a flash, flying through the air like a bolt of lightning.

In the distance, the God Kings' hearts began to burn again as they saw all those Heavengod's treasures. Many people exchanged glances and saw the excitement in each other's eyes. In the next instant, an uproar broke out as they shot out to join the fight for the treasures.

Countless experts sped through the air and rushed into the area where the Heavengod's treasures were hidden. Their targets were not the Laws or the Chaotic Energy, but...the Heavengod's bones and blood! These were the real treasures for them!

Bu Fang hovered in the sky, frowning at the two blood-colored skeletons. Those were Heavengod skeletons. If he fused with them, he could even develop a Heavengod body with his fighting prowess skyrocketed.

However, Bu Fang felt that the Heavengod skeletons were giving off a bizarre aura, which was very different from the Heavengod's finger bone he had acquired not long ago.

'Whatever... I need to devour the Heavengods' Laws first! There are so many Laws here... This should give the Divine flame a full meal,' he thought to himself. Then, he raised his hand and lightly rubbed his forefinger and thumb together. With a popping sound, a silver fireball immediately burst out, burning in his palm.

With a flick of his fingers, Bu Fang threw out the flame, which immediately flew toward the countless Laws down below.

Owned by no one, these Laws drifted aimlessly in the air, emitting all kinds of mysterious colors to dazzle all eyes. However, besides looking beautiful, they were of no use to anyone. This kind of Law could not be absorbed by the body and could not be comprehended, so they were not as beneficial as the Heavengod's blood and bones.

A strong wind was blowing as the silver Divine flame grew brighter and began to devour the Laws. One Law after another flew into it, burning and purifying them before they turned into the purest energy and rushed into the Divine flame.

The Divine flame had devoured many Laws, and as it devoured more and more Laws now, its power became stronger and stronger. Of course, limited by Bu Fang's strength, the power of the Divine flame could not achieve a qualitative leap, but it was already extremely fearsome.

'Two thousand five hundred Laws already...' Bu Fang thought. The Divine flame actually would not devour the laws it had already absorbed, and since many of them had been absorbed now, it had become quite difficult for it to grow.

'Two thousand nine hundred...'

'Three thousand!'

'Hmm... It's still growing!'

Bu Fang's eyes flashed, and he was breathing somewhat fast. He felt very excited. He could sense that the Divine flame's power was rapidly improving.

In addition to Bu Fang's harvest, others were also plundering resources frantically in the distance. Lord Dog was heading toward the Chaotic Energy. He needed it as it had been his target since the beginning.

Down below, the God Kings had closed in on the Heavengods' skeletons and were fighting each other. After all, no one would give up such precious treasures, so a fight was inevitable. Both the Heavengods' blood and bones had become the focus of their fights.

Crack!

A God King pulled out a Heavengod's bone and burst out laughing right away. At the same time, someone else found a jar of Heavengod's blood. Without hesitation, he slapped open the lid and began to drink it...

Different people reacted differently to the treasures they found, but their faces all looked somewhat twisted and ugly. Soon, the treasures were all split by the God Kings...

The Heavengod's bones scattered all over the place. Every God King hugged one of the bones and knelt on the ground, surrounded in a very strange atmosphere.

Sizzle...

Meanwhile, the Divine flame was burning as it absorbed countless Laws. Bu Fang had no idea how many Laws it had absorbed now. Finally, it was full and stopped absorbing. It had turned completely silver-white and returned to Bu Fang's palm, hovering there motionlessly like a child who had eaten and drunk enough.

'Congratulations on completing the temporary task, Host. The reward will be issued now...' The System's serious voice rang in Bu Fang's head.

The corners of his mouth twitched slightly. He had finally completed the task without facing too many dangers. However, he was not in a hurry to check on the reward. Instead, he descended and landed on the ground.

The beautiful Laws were absorbed by Bu Fang, and they were all gone now. What remained in the field were the experts kneeling on the ground, who either held the Heavengod's bones or had drunk the Heavengod's blood. The scene made everyone's hair stand on end.

In the distance, Nethery hovered in midair. Summer, Luo Sanniang, King Pingyang, and the other experts who did not join the fight all looked pale. No matter how stupid they were, they knew there must be something wrong with the Heavengod's bones and blood.

Lord Dog was closing in on the Chaotic Energy. The closer he got to it, the more he felt its terrible power. It was an aura that originated from the Chaos.

His eyes flickered, and divine light burst out from all three of his heads. Then, he opened his mouths, bared his teeth, and barked. He pressed on with great speed.

The wisp of Chaotic Energy fluctuated as if it was going to crush the void, but Lord Dog had no fear. With his mouths opened, he swooped down on the Chaotic Energy, closed his jaws around it, and devoured it in an instant.

Rumble!

The void around the Chaotic Energy kept crumbling, but Lord Bird paid it no mind. He was walking slowly across the field. He did not care about the Laws, did not covet the Heavengod's bones, and did not even care about the Chaotic Energy. He just walked slowly as if he was searching for something. No one knew what he was looking for.

Finally, Lord Bird stopped. He stood on a patch of sand, squatted down, reached out a hand, and began to dig. Before long, a small pit was dug out, and he slowly pulled an object out of it. A splashing sound of liquid could be heard ringing out of the object.

Bu Fang's face froze suddenly. He looked over his shoulder to where Lord Bird was and saw the latter pull a wine jar out of the small pit in the ground. It was a wine jar made of jade with wine splashing inside.

"Oh, here it is!" Lord Bird said happily. One could imagine how happy his face was, enveloped in the fog. He had waited so long for this wine jar. As if he could sense Bu Fang's gaze, Lord Bird raised the wine jar and waved it at him. "Would you like a drink?" he asked.

Bu Fang glanced around. The bizarre atmosphere made him somewhat hesitate. It did not seem right to drink in this kind of situation. Besides, the wine was dug out from the field where the ancient Heavengods were buried. Could they drink such a wine?

“Don’t worry, this wine is perfectly fine...” Lord Bird burst out laughing as if he could sense Bu Fang’s hesitation. With a wave of his hand, a table and two chairs immediately appeared before him. Two wine cups were placed on the table. Lord Bird grabbed the wine jar, reached out a hand, and slapped it. A rumble that sounded like waves slapping on the shores rang out in an instant.

Bu Fang said nothing. Stone-faced, he clasped his hands behind his back and came before the table. The surrounding atmosphere was strange, but he pulled out a chair, sat down on it, and pushed a wine cup forward.

Lord Bird laughed and gave him a meaningful glance. Then, he poured the cloudy yellow wine from the jar into Bu Fang’s cup. The wine swirled in the cup.

Lord Bird smacked his lips and said, “A cup of this wine will bring you more joy than being a deity!”
