

Chapter 2737 Heavenly Spirit Stone And The Beasts

“Greetings to you, Mr. Williams!”

“These three individuals, like me, are spies for Theos, Mr. Williams. They have agreed to form an alliance with me and to remain loyal to you.”

“Three of us promise to be at your beck and call from now on, Mr. Williams.”

Zeke nodded in affirmation. “All right, then. Get up.”

After the four men stood up, Scar Face carefully handed over twenty Heavenly Spirit Stones to Zeke. “Please accept the stones we have just discovered, Mr. Williams.”

When the Theos' Mark on Scar Face's wrist started to burn, he immediately changed his words. “Please hand it to Theos, Mr. Williams.”

The burning sensation indeed weakened drastically.

Zeke was a little surprised.

Scar Face had discovered ten pieces of Heavenly Spirit Stones earlier, which was quite a large number.

Unexpectedly, in such a short period of time, he had managed to find twice the amount of stones.

He felt that the Heavenly Spirit Stones were not as rare and precious as Scar Face had made it out to be.

Zeke took the stones and praised, “Well done. Keep it up. You'll be fairly rewarded for your efforts.”

Scar Face and the rest were overjoyed to receive Zeke's compliments.

Suddenly, Zeke thought of something and began to investigate the stones.

Sure enough, he detected a familiar energy on the stones. It was the same form of energy on the ten pieces of Heavenly Spirit Stones from the last time.

Moreover, these stones were also marked. Clearly, this batch of stones belonged to the same person as the previous ten stones.

Who is this mysterious person? Why did he leave the Heavenly Spirit Stones in Centuria? Is he secretly helping me? Something's wrong. In the dream world, the old beggar looked solemn and worried when he found that the Heavenly Spirit Stone had an owner. He thought the person who owned the stones had ill intentions. What exactly does the person want?

“Scar Face, do you know where these stones came from?” Zeke asked.

Scar Face and his companions looked at each other in confusion. “Isn't Heavenly Spirit Stone naturally formed from the earth and heaven? How else can they be created?”

It seems that Scar Face doesn't know that the stone has an owner.

Zeke decided to investigate the Heavenly Spirit Stone himself.

After keeping the stones, he asked, “Scar Face, do you guys know about fire seed?”

The four men shook their heads in confusion. “Fire seed? What's that? Is a matchstick considered a fire seed? How about a lighter?”

I guess there's no point in asking them. I'll have to investigate this matter myself.

Zeke waved his hand. “It's all right. You can leave now. Keep up the good work and strive for improvement. You can find Phoenix to get some meat. I'll inform her about it.”

Phoenix was now in charge of managing the supply.

On Theos Island, the most valuable reward was food.

Feeling immensely satisfied with the reward, Scar Face said excitedly, “Thank you, Mr. Williams.”

Before leaving, Scar Face suddenly remembered something and quickly said, “Mr. Williams, I just remembered something else. I don't know if I should say it or not.”

“Speak.”

“Judging from the noise just now, wild beasts came to attack, am I right?”

Zeke nodded. “That's right.”

“Mr. Williams, were there a total of ten wild beasts that attacked?”

While looking at Scar Face solemnly, Zeke replied, “That's right, ten wild beasts. How did you know?”

“To be honest, every time we found a Heavenly Spirit Stone, wild beasts would come to attack us. The number of wild beasts that come is exactly the same as the number of stones we find. It's incredibly accurate. I believe that the stones can attract wild beasts. This time we found more than twenty stones, so more than twenty wild beasts may be coming,” Scar Face explained.

Zeke looked at the man with a solemn expression. “Are you sure that wild beasts will attack every time you find the Heavenly Spirit Stone and the number of attacks is surprisingly consistent?”
