

Chapter 2763 Official Migration

Zeke shook his head and said, “Please rest assured. My arrangement will only benefit everyone. It won't cause you any harm.”

Everyone began to respond.

“Commander Williams, of course we believe that you won't hurt us. Even so, those beasts will.”

“To be honest, we are the ones who will suffer the most casualties if we fight the beasts over territory.”

“We don't mind sacrificing our lives, but what about our children and elderly parents?”

To that, Zeke replied, “I promise all of you that there will be no casualties or accidents this time around. Everyone will arrive safely at the destination.”

“But...”

There were still some in the crowd who had their doubts.

Zeke could not be bothered with them. Instead, he waved his hand. “Let's go.”

Let's go!

Although they did not understand or support Zeke's decision, they had no other choice but to believe in him.

All of them packed up and set off for the Beast District.

The crowd was feeling uneasy. Every little hiccup along the way would cause them tension.

They had been on edge ever since the recent incident.

Zeke was leading the group while Sole Wolf and Killer Wolf were among the crowd so that they could protect the people easily.

Meanwhile, Scar Face, Dooragan, his brothers, and Alp were following closely behind Zeke. They were looking for any signs of Heavenly Spirit Stones.

After walking for more than an hour, Scar Face halted in his tracks all of a sudden and stopped the group as well. “Hold on. I think I can feel the aura of a Heavenly Spirit Stone. Alp, Dooragan, how about you guys?”

Yulagan exclaimed, “What a strong Spirit Stone aura! There must be quite a number of them ahead of us! Let's go and take a look!”

Yulagan and the others quickened their steps with Zeke following behind them.

After a short walk, they stumbled upon the Heavenly Spirit Stones in the midst of some bushes.

Scar Face said, “Keep watch on the surroundings while I go in and extract the Heavenly Spirit Stones. From the powerful aura, I'm sure there are quite a number of them!”

With that, he went into the large bushes and started searching for the Heavenly Spirit Stones.

After a while, Scar Face yelled all of a sudden, “Oh my God!”

“What is it?” Alp and the rest began to panic. “Scar Face, are you all right?”

Scar Face sounded excited, and his voice was shaking. “So many... So many Heavenly Spirit Stones. Oh my God. I have never seen so many Heavenly Spirit Stones in my life!”

How many are there exactly?

Everyone's curiosity was piqued.

Previously when they found fifty Heavenly Spirit Stones, it was already a record. That had been unbelievable for them.

Yet, right now, Scar Face was saying that he had never seen so many Heavenly Spirit Stones in his life. That must mean that there were more than fifty of them.

Scar Face said, “Come in and take a look for yourselves. Y-You won't believe me even if I tell you.”

The few of them exchanged glances before saying, “Let's go in and take a look.”

Dooragan and his brothers also went into the bushes.

The bushes there were so dense that they could hardly see anything once they were in there.

After a moment, Dooragan and the others could be heard exclaiming.

Meanwhile, Zeke also arrived with the party.

Zeke asked, “Have you located Heavenly Spirit Stones? How many are there?”

Scar Face took a deep breath before answering, “Mr. Williams, we can't know for sure right now, but a rough estimate tells me that there are more than a hundred of them.”

Over a hundred?

The news took Zeke by surprise indeed.

“Get all the Heavenly Spirit Stones out, and let's do a count.”

One by one, the Heavenly Spirit Stones were thrown out of the bushes and caught by Zeke using his energy.

After a round of counting, they realized there were more than a hundred and fifty of the stones.

That was two or three times more than what they had collected previously.
