

Chapter 2767 Are You Lying To Me

Fine.

Everyone was disappointed, but no one dared to refute Zeke.

The group continued forward.

Zeke's guess was correct. After traveling for about two hours, Scar Face and the others found a hundred and fifty Heavenly Spirit Stones again.

More than three hundred wild beasts were expected to be attracted this time.

Zeke kept moving forward calmly. The possibility of being attacked by three hundred wild beasts did not affect his mood.

To Zeke, three hundred wild beasts were no different from three hundred ants.

The crowd was less tense than it had been previously.

What was there to be concerned about with Zeke taking the lead and Sole Wolf protecting them?

The second wave of wild beasts arrived not long after.

Sole Wolf charged into the battlefield again, while the Northern and Southern Kings could only assist him by backing him up, and so on.

This time, the battle was over in under three minutes.

There was no doubt about the outcome of the battle; Sole Wolf and the others had triumphed, and all of the wild beasts had been slaughtered.

Sole Wolf made some unexpected gains this time. He found three black bears as well as twelve bear paws.

Zeke checked the time and realized it was almost lunchtime.

He waved his hand and said, "Let's dine on the spot. Make it quick."

Hopefully, the wild beasts' blood will attract more wild beasts.

The crowd cheered and got to work right away.

Nature's bounty was abundant in this location, and there were numerous delicacies to choose from.

The wild beast's meat that used to be regarded as top-grade was now everywhere, yet everyone was still picky.

The delicious smell of barbecue wafted from the spot not long after, and everyone was laughing and chatting happily.

Zeke's prediction was correct. The smell of blood and the commotion attracted hundreds of wild beasts, all of which were easily dealt with by Sole Wolf.

The group continued forward after they had eaten to their hearts' content.

It was unfortunate that they didn't come across any more Heavenly Spirit Stones along the way, and there were no more wild beasts that obstructed their path.

After doing the math, they had killed a total of eight hundred wild beasts.

There were only less than two hundred wild beasts to kill before they reached a thousand kills.

It should be relatively easy to kill two hundred wild beasts in the Beast District.

They encountered ten wild boars when they first entered the Beast District.

The wild boars became enraged that they trespassed their territory and began to attack them.

The wild beasts in the Beast District were far more ferocious than those outside.

However, Sole Wolf killed them all with ease.

Zeke surveyed the surrounding terrain, which was easy to defend but difficult to attack, and declared, "This will serve as our base. Everyone, help to clean it up."

Everyone got right to work on building a new house.

Zeke summoned Maulwurf to his room.

Maulwurf bowed and said obsequiously, "What can I do for you, Mr. Williams?"

Zeke instructed, "Find Camp South Master and inform him that we've only killed four hundred wild beasts along the way, and there is still a significant gap to cover before we reach a thousand wild beasts."

Huh?

Maulwurf looked at Zeke in puzzlement. "Mr. Williams, why do we have to lie? We've killed over seven hundred beasts along the way."

Zeke elaborated, "Let him throw his Heavenly Spirit Stone to attract more wild beasts. I desperately need the Heavenly Spirit Stone right now."

Maulwurf nodded in acknowledgment. "Understood!"

He sneaked away, and not long after, he arrived at Camp South Masters' military camp and met with him.

Camp South Master hurriedly said, "Maulwurf, what's the situation at Zeke's side?"

"Camp South Master, Zeke has successfully entered the Beast District," Maulwurf replied.

Camp South Master exclaimed, "I don't care about that. How many wild beasts did Zeke manage to kill?"

Maulwurf sighed deeply. "We've only killed a little over four hundred wild beasts."

How is that possible?

Camp South Master was doubtful. "Sunshade told me that he threw about three hundred Heavenly Spirit Stones on the path Zeke would undoubtedly have to take. Even if it didn't attract six hundred wild beasts, it should have attracted at least five hundred of them. How could there be less than four hundred wild beasts? Are you lying to me, Maulwurf?"
