

Chapter 2770 An All Out Fight

The big buffalo hesitated for a long time before it yawned. Forget it. I'll sleep first. I'll save the people when I wake up.

The big buffalo then lay down again and turned into a swamp. People wouldn't be able to find it if they didn't look carefully.

As night fell, humans rarely set foot in the Beast District because it was unsettling and terrifying. The darkness shrouded everyone's hearts with fear.

The people in Zeke's camp all huddled together, encouraging one another.

Rumble! Rumble!

The sound of thunder reverberated in the distance, and it was rapidly approaching the camp.

Everyone was well aware that the sound was not that of thunder but of wild beasts!

Zeke immediately called out, "Sole Wolf, move out."

The team sprang into action immediately.

The young and powerful man held a weapon and stood at the outermost edge of the circle.

The elderly, women, and children were seated inside the circle.

Sole Wolf, Killer Wolf, Ares, Nameless, Alfred, and Tyler dispersed in four directions, each holding a jug of wine in their left hand and a piece of meat in their right. They ate and drank freely and unrestrainedly.

Northern King cautiously advised, "Master Sole Wolf, why don't you wait until the wild beasts are dealt with before you continue to drink? The tables have turned. There are more wild beasts coming this time, and we no longer have city walls to protect us. Wild beasts will undoubtedly attack ordinary people like us. The more beasts you slaughter, the more lives you save."

Sole Wolf smiled in response. "How many times have I told you that you don't have to be concerned about the wild beasts, Nory? You guys can continue to sleep. If you can't sleep, you can watch us slaughter the wild beasts. Haha."

Everyone did not know how to respond to that.

How could he expect us to watch from aside now? Are we supposed to watch how the wild beasts skin us alive? No matter how strong you guys are, you can't protect every direction, and there is no city wall here. Wild beasts will undoubtedly slip through and attack us. Forget it. He's keeping most of the wild beasts at bay for us. We should be grateful.

The rumbling sound was getting closer.

There were endless exclamations at the camp after the group of beasts could be clearly seen.

"Oh my goodness. Oh my gosh. Are my eyes playing tricks on me?"

"Is that huge bright area where stars have fallen from the sky? No, even if all the stars had fallen from the sky, there would never be so many."

"Open your eyes and look closely. Those are the eyes of the freaking wild beasts! There's a group of wild beasts incoming!"

"Nonsense. We know that the wild beasts are coming."

"Everyone, take up their respective positions and defend them. Our family members will be injured if we fall."

"Do not back down unless you die. Do not, I repeat, do not back down, even if it means death!"

The group of wild beasts finally arrived.

Although everyone was mentally prepared, they were still shocked when they saw the group of wild beasts.

There were far too many wild beasts, too many to count.

The herd of wild beasts seemed endless, and they couldn't see the end. It was impossible to tell how many there were.

Some were so terrified by the sheer number of wild beasts that their legs trembled uncontrollably, but they refused to back down because their wives, children, and lovers were behind them.

Rumble!

A lion charged at Sole Wolf, its razor-sharp teeth gleaming coldly.

However, Sole Wolf was not only unafraid but also excited.

He drank the entire bottle of wine in one gulp, then threw the bottle on the ground and charged at the lion.

Boom!

The two collided, and the lion exploded on the spot after Sole Wolf was knocked into the air.

"Hahaha! That was amazing!" Sole Wolf shouted excitedly and charged into the pack of wild beasts.

Killer Wolf and the others also jumped into the pack of wild beasts one by one and began fighting.

What everyone was worried most about still happened.

Although Sole Wolf and the others were strong, it was impossible for them to be flawless. A lot of wild beasts still managed to break through their encirclement and rushed toward the crowd.

The men in the outermost circle raised their weapons and yelled, "Charge!"
