

Chapter 2783 Decision

Sole Wolf's anger flared at Camp South Master's taunt. His urge to storm up to the insolent b*stard to silence him surged.

Yet Zeke stopped him before he could. "Ignore him, Sole Wolf. Focus on the battle with Minotaur. There isn't much time left for Camp South Master anyway."

They already had a hard time dealing with Minotaur. If they needed to split their attention to focus on Camp South Master as well, they would likely lose.

Even though Sole Wolf didn't understand what Zeke meant by Camp South Master not having much time left, he still obeyed Zeke.

Nameless advised, "Mr. Williams, Minotaur is too powerful. It'll be difficult to defeat it by facing it head-on. We have to come up with a plan."

Zeke ordered, "Lend me all of your energy. I'll see whether the explosive power of an elite Celestial Class warrior can slaughter a primordial beast!"

Sole Wolf's and the others' eyes sparkled with anticipation.

Great Marshal is planning to unleash all his power! We haven't seen him do so before. It looks like we're lucky today!

Everyone's gaze was pinned on Zeke.

Zeke leaped into the air, and with a fierce shake of his body, an immediate burst of Invincible Wave Energy radiated from him.

The energy was like the boundless ocean. It spread rapidly and shot to the sky until forming a sea of energy that stretched for hundreds of miles, shrouding the sky and the sun.

Zeke could sense every being within a hundred-mile radius with his eyes closed.

At that moment, he was the ruler of every creature in the land within his boundary, regardless of whether human or animal. All of them had to obey his orders as their king.

Sole Wolf and the rest were stunned by the magnitude of his power. They were so excited that they were close to crying.

Powerful! He's so powerful! This is our Great Marshal, our Boss! His power is enough to go to war with the heavens and earth.

Their hearts swelled with pride as they put themselves in Zeke's shoes.

Zeke dropped his gaze to Sole Wolf and the others. "Lend me your powers!"

Sole Wolf and the rest finally snapped out of their excitement, unleashed all their energy, and imbued them into Zeke.

Zeke's sea of energy extended another fifty miles.

The crowd strongly suspected that was the maximum limit Zeke's sea of energy could reach. There was no way it could get more powerful than that.

Boom!

The sea of energy was so potent that it courted divine punishment. A storm brewed overhead as one lightning strike after another struck Zeke.

Zeke easily dodged the fearsome heavenly attacks.

"Ha!"

Zeke let out a roar as he withdrew the sea of energy, condensed all its powers into the shape of a house, and kept it elevated above Minotaur.

The energy that fanned over a hundred fifty miles was compressed into the size of a house. One could imagine the density and explosive power the house possessed.

Zeke pressed his palm down heavily, dropping the energy house onto Minotaur and engulfing it.

Moo!

With a pained cry, Minotaur finally tumbled to the ground, unable to withstand the tremendous pressure.

Upon closer inspection of the ground around Minotaur, the flat surface had sunk at least tens of meters.

The crushing weight filled Minotaur's eyes with blood and caused its nose to bleed. It was a horrifying sight.

Webs of tiny cracks coursed along its skin, and its internal organs threatened to spill out.

The pain Minotaur felt was excruciating. It dropped its jaw to roar, but immediately an overwhelming force snapped its mouth shut.

The grueling pressure immobilized it, forcing it to be still as a statue.

Minotaur tried to push itself up to its feet but to no avail.

Its actions only led to the increased pace of its skin deteriorating. It achieved nothing.

Camp South Master watched with shock.

Powerful! He's too powerful! This newcomer is much stronger than I expected. I'm glad I chose Minotaur to fight him. Otherwise, I would've been beaten to death if I was the one who went up against him head-on. However, it seems Minotaur is not his match. What should I do? Should I submit to Zeke after Minotaur loses? No! I caused Zeke much suffering. I'm sure he'll never forgive me.

After mulling things over, Camp South Master decided to help Minotaur.
