

Gu Lingfei 50

Gu Lingfei: Married At First Sight Chapter 50

Zachary threatened the lady coldly. The apple of the Stones' eye, Elisa was the princess of Stone Group's chairman and the twin sister of the CEO, Clive Stone. Elisa was the most eligible bachelorette.

"Hang on, Zachary."

Struck by a thought, Elisa turned around and ran back to the sports car to grab a huge bouquet of roses.

She returned with the bouquet and shoved it through Zachary's open window while saying, "These are for you, Zachary. I know you and my brother don't get along, but I love you. I feel the need to confess my love to you, so you know I'm your one true love."

Stone Group and York Corporation might be sworn enemies, but they were certainly business rivals due to clashing trades. Both groups were not on the best of terms, to say the least.

Yet, it was love at first sight for Clive's sister, Elisa, when she first laid her eyes on Zachary at an event many years ago. Due to the conflict of interest between both giants, Clive and her parents disapproved of Elisa's new-found love.

Although Elisa was pampered all her life, it did not mean

she was foolish. She thought about giving up on Zachary, but the passing of years failed to wipe him out of her mind. As a matter of fact, she found it harder to resist Zachary.

Elisa was really into Zachary's aloofness. He was cool in her eyes. Seeing that Zachary kept away from young women, Elisa took it as a challenge to win his heart. Since she could not get Zachary out of her head, Elisa decided to disregard her family and boldly confess her love to Zachary.

From today on, she, Elisa Stone, would openly go in pursuit of Zachary!

Zachary gave a black look.

Grabbing the bouquet, Zachary hurled it far and away.

He then wound the window up and callously instructed the driver, "Drive!"

"Zachary! Zachary! I love you! I want your heart!" Elisa shouted as she pounded on the car window. Zachary's driver started the engine and asked, "Sir, what about Ms. Stone's car?"

"Hit it!"

The driver did not floor the pedal, but one of Zachary's escorting vehicles raced ahead instead and smashed Elisa's million-dollar Ferrari out of the way.

Bang!

The security guards on duty watched with their jaws dropped.

With Elisa's car out of the way, Zachary's Rolls Royce entered the company's private parking lot.

Elisa was dumbfounded as she stared at the damage made to her new sports car. By the time she came to and ran after Zachary, the security guards had closed the gates.

“Zachary!”

Elisa shouted out loud, “You have to get me a new car since you crashed mine. You owe me one. I’ll bug you every day till you get me a new car.”

It pained her that her car was wrecked. However, on second thought, Elisa could use this as an excuse to pester Zachary. Elisa believed the crash presented her with opportunities. Anyway, she had made her stance clear to Zachary that she was seeking his hand!

No matter the outcome, she would have no regrets about going through with her decision.

Nevertheless, Elisa had to admit that Zachary’s stunt to smash her car was bad*ss. Of course, it would have been better if it was not her car.

The security guard was amazed by Ms. Stone’s courage. Not only did she come to York Corporation to kick up a fuss, but she also professed her love for Mr. York. That was definitely some nerves of steel!