Chapter 1021

Chapter 1021 Three Shots “We are waiting for you to surprise us tonight, Noah.” The men were all from the same department under the Ministry of Health and Welfare. Noah was the center of the topic.

They flattered him with a hint of reverence as if he was naturally superior over them “Haha, I'm not just going to surprise all of you. I'll make that woman drink with us and you guys can enjoy her.” Noah sat back on the chair with his legs crossed, taking puffs from his cigarette.

Winnie and Kaze overheard Noah from outside the room and it made their expressions grim.

Winnie took a deep breath before knocking on the door and went inside.

“Hi, Mr. Lou, everyone. Sorry to keep you waiting.” “Ms. Souffle, you're late. You have to drink three shots first before we begin.” Noah put his leg down and smiled. He was neither nervous nor embarrassed even though Winnie and Kaze overheard him He then got up and introduced the others to Winnie.

«1,et me introduce them. Troy, deputy chief of the Ministry of Health and Welfare. This is Baskin, the third highest-ranking officer in the Traffic Department. This is...” Noah introduced the men in the room, who were all chiefs of the government department in the city council.

Te ‘Nice to meet you, gentlemen. I'm Winnie Souffle, CEO of Shangrila Group.” Winnie greeted them and then took a step to the side to introduce Kaze.

He had been scrutinizing Kaze from the moment he came in and due to Kaze’s young appearance, he assumed Kaze was no one of importance and did not take him seriously.

Noah was fixated on getting into Winnie's pants to flaunt his techniques to his colleagues. He did not have the time or mood to care who Kaze was.

Winnie shot a gloomy look at Kaze.

Kaze gestured at her, telling her to simply ignore Noah's rudeness. He then sat down.

Right before Winnie could sit down, Noah said, "Ms. Souffle, you are late and you made us wait. You have to drink three shots first, don't forget about that.

«we'll talk after you finish them." Kaze glanced at the whiskey with a high alcohol percentage.

He knew Winnie could drink and since it was just three shots, it could not do any harm, so he did not stop Noah.

"Alright. Three shots." Winnie finished three shots in just a moment and her face started to blush.

She was a mother and a married woman but the blush amplified her seductive charms. Other than Kaze, all the men in the room were captivated.

"Hahaha! Nice one, Ms. Souffle." Noah then allowed Winnie to sit down.

He then started to eat and drink and talk to his colleagues, completely ignoring Winnie and Kaze.

A while later, he finally switched his attention to her and asked, "Ms. SEAR*ch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Souffle, your company's factory is not operating, am I right?" "Yes, sir. Since you ordered us to modify and improve our factory's environment, we respect your decision and did not resume operation after we were done." Winnie seized the chance and got up with her glass. "Here's a toast, Mr.

Lou. Please give us further instructions so that we can get through this and resume operations." "Oh, I'm just asking. There's no rush in that." Noah took another shot and then pointed at his colleagues. "It's sO boring. I wish we had some company.

«Ms. Souffle, why don't you drink with us?"

Chapter 1022

Chapter 1022 One Versus All “If they are happy, and I'm satisfied, whether to modify the factory or not will be up to me.” Kaze frowned.

If modifying the factory was solely at Noah's discretion, then it meant that the man intentionally targeted Shangrila Group and gave the company a hard time.

Though it was already clear, Noah blatantly revealed his intention, which proved how arrogant he was.

Winnie suppressed the anger in her and bit the bullet, saying, “Alright.

Let's have a toast then.” She drank with everyone in the room and chatted with them.

It was already inappropriate to let a woman drink so much but Noah did not plan to stop just yet. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

He spat a cloud of smoke at Winnie and said with a grin, “Ms. Souffle, go on.” “Troy and Baskin are famous for drinkers. One drink isn't enough.” Winnie's hand shook, and her face turned slightly pale.

First three shots, then one shot with each of the chiefs. Her stomach was already feeling strange yet Noah insisted that she continued.

He was obviously trying to get her drunk.

“What's wrong? Can't drink?” Noah's grin faded. He took a sip and then said, “Then your factory will continue to cease operation...” “Noah Moor! You!” Winnie's eyes were burning with rage but she managed to keep her temper under control. She forced a smile on her face.

“Ms. Moor, if you like to drink that much, let me drink with you. I'm sure I can entertain you guys more than Winnie. Leave her alone.” Kaze then stood up. He put his hand on Winnie's shoulder to sit her down.

Annoyed by Kaze's words, Noah grunted.

He looked at Kaze and said, “Boy, we are pro drinkers. You alone won't make us drunk and you said you can entertain us? Are you looking down on us or are you overestimating yourself?” Noah had strong disdain in his words.

The others looked at Kaze with contempt as well.

They believed Kaze was being overconfident.

“We'll see about that.” Kaze smiled and then continued, “But I'm not drinking for free. If you guys got drunk before me, Mr. Moor, please give our factory clearance to resume operation.” Bang! Noah slammed on the table and glared at Kaze. “Punk, you speak bold words.

Do you know who you are talking to?”

Winnie looked at Kaze with deep concern.

Kaze gestured at her to calm her down.

He grinned and looked at Noah and the others.

“What's wrong now? Can't beat me in drinking and you're trying to pressure us with your authority?” “you! » Noah's boiling anger almost erupted.

It was then that Baskin from the Traffic Department said, “Noah, calm down. Since the kid wants to entertain us, why kill the mood?” “yeah. The kid is brave, like us when we were young. If he wants to drink with us, let him.” “If we can't beat him, we can't consider ourselves professionals anymore. How embarrassing would that be?” Kaze's provocation worked.

The others decided to defend their reputation and drink with Kaze.

Noah put his anger away and then glared at Kaze. “I have never seen such a foolish young man.”

Chapter 1023

Chapter 1023 Drink From Bowl “Fine, punk. You got yourself a deal. If you beat us in drinking, I'll resume your factory's operation!” Noah grinned and then continued, “But we have a rule. You can't just surrender verbally. You either knock us out, or you go out on a stretcher. Now you wouldn't be a pussy, would you?” His tone was colder than ice.

Kaze challenged him repeatedly, which to him was courting death.

If so, he did not mind knocking out Kaze on the spot with alcohol.

Even if Kaze did not die of alcohol poisoning, his stomach would implode on alcohol.

Winnie's expression shifted. She was scared.

They were no longer trying to compete in drinking, they were trying to get Kaze killed! Noah was shameless to make such a rule because he had the advantage of numbers on his side.

All of them were veteran drinkers and they were trying to drink Kaze to death.

“Don’t...” Winnie tried to stop Kaze from falling into Noah's trap but Kaze tapped on her shoulder to calm her down.

He then grinned at Noah, emitting a slightly terrifying aura, and said, “Fine. I wouldn't want to be a pussy, would I? Let's start with you, Noah Moor.” Kaze took the whiskey and poured it into a bowl.

He stopped when the bowl was filled and drank from it, draining it to the last drop.

He flipped the bowl upside down to show Noah that he had finished drinking.

«What's wrong now? Scared?» Not only Noah, but even his colleagues were scared.

Not even them, veteran drinkers, would drink so much in one go.

Kaze drank a high percentage of whiskey as if it was water.

One bowl of whiskey was already too much yet it was just the beginning of their drinking competition.

Even the God of Whiskey would be knocked out at this pace.

“Hahaha. I'm not afraid of you!” Noah bit the bullet and poured himself a bowl of whiskey as well.

As he drank, his throat felt like it was burning.

He retched as he wiped his mouth after he was done. He glared at Kaze and said, “You think you can scare me?” Noah looked at Kaze as if he was already a dead person.

He believed Kaze's stomach was burning as well.

He drank a lot slower than Kaze, who finished the whiskey like water.

If Kaze continued to show off, he would literally drink himself to death.

Kaze did not say anything. He turned to Baskin and signaled him to drink.

After Baskin drank the same, Kaze turned to Troy.

Soon, everyone had a full bowl of whiskey.

Noah and the others were impressed that Kaze's face did not even turn red.

Though they strongly believed Kaze was just faking it and his stomach was boiling.

"punk, I look forward to seeing you throw up and piss yourself."

Noah then drank another bowl of whiskey. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Kaze turned to the others and signaled them to follow up.

After the second round, Noah, Troy, and Baskin were already in their seats.

Even though they could usually drink that much, they never drank that fast.

Their stomachs started to hurt.

To their surprise, Kaze, who had drunk the same amount as them, remained fine and his face did not redden at all.

He was able to stand still and firm.

He then picked up the bowl of whiskey.

"Mr. Moor, this is the third round." I -

Chapter 1024

Chapter 1024 Drunk At the start of the third round, Kaze drank even fiercer.

"This is getting boring." I He lost his patience in drinking one by one, so he asked the waiter for five bowls and filled them all up with whiskey.

Then, he drank all of them in succession.

Noah, Troy, and the others felt challenged by Kaze's contemptuous gaze.

Some punk from nowhere challenged them and looked down on them.

They were furious but they felt deterred when Kaze finished all five bowls of whiskey.

Including the previous rounds, Kaze had probably drunk more than three bottles of whiskey.

Yet he looked fine and his face did not even blush.

Was he immune to alcohol? "Guys, this punk must be on his last stretch. He's trying to scare us off by drinking that much in one go." "Yeah. We can't back off now!" Noah believed Kaze was playing mind games with them, so he bit the bullet and drank another bowl of whiskey.

Troy, Baskin, and the others did the same as well.

Troy, Baskin, and the others did the same as well.

"Let's continue." Kaze grinned. He did not need to play { mind games with Noah and his colleagues.

Then, he drank another five bowls, which shocked Noah and the others. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Had they not seen Kaze pour the whiskey into the bowls themselves, they might have assumed that he was cheating.

Kaze drank whiskey as if it was water.

The drinking competition continued for two more rounds.

Winnie's expression went through multiple shifts from the initial worry to shock and awe.

Kaze probably drank a barrel of whiskey by now and he looked just fine. — Noah and his colleagues were as red as apples. Their foreheads were covered in sweat and they could barely focus.

They felt like they were burning internally, yet they refused to surrender after being provoked and looked down on by Kaze.

Thump! After another bowl of whiskey, Baskin from the Traffic Department threw up and collapsed on the table.

The food he ate and the whiskey he drank splattered all across the table, causing a terrible stench in the room.

He was the one who instigated Noah to accept Kaze's challenge but he was the first one to pass out. = "Baskin! Baskin!" "call 911!" Baskin was out cold while the others nervously tried to save him.

Noah and the others were having a terrible burn internally as well.

They tried to help but their conditions forced them back onto their seats.

It was then they realized the drinking competition was taking their lives.

"Enough! It's over!" Troy looked at Kaze and conceded; the others nodded in agreement.

Gulp! Gulp!

Kaze drank another five bowls and then said with a grin, "Who allowed you to quit? What were our terms just now? You can't just surrender verbally.

You either go out cold like this guy here or go out of this room on a stretcher.

Don't be a pussy." Initially, Noah and the others wanted to punish Kaze because they had the advantage of numbers.

Now that one of them had gone out cold, they wanted to surrender but they could not.

Kaze did not accept their surrender, which put a bitter look on their red faces.

They did not want to drink themselves to death.

They did not want to lose their lives because of some stupid bet. Even if they survived this and ended up in the hospital, their bodies would be damaged.

It was not worth the risk.

Noah grunted coldly and said, "Punk, you better know when to step down."

Chapter 1025

Chapter 1025 Give Up \ «Know your place. It is your honor to be at this table. Usually, you won't even have the chance to drink with us! Don't push it, son!" Noah leaned on the table and glared at Kaze, condescendingly warning him.

He then grabbed his bowl and flipped it over on the table, refusing to drink no matter what Kaze said.

Kaze scoffed. "You can't drink but you won't accept defeat. Is this how people like you do things nowadays? If you don't want to drink, I'll make you!" He then went over to Noah with a bowl of whiskey Bang! Troy from the Ministry of Health and Welfare slammed the table and got up, stopping Kaze. "Punk, what are you doing? We are all important people in government offices. If you mess with us, you and your family will be erased from Lilyrose!" Kaze looked at the man and then grabbed him by the neck.

"What the f... W-What are you... Gulp!" Troy struggled but could not break free from Kaze's grip.

Kaze squeezed his mouth open and started to pour the whiskey into his throat.

Troy's expression turned into horror.

Bang! The moment Kaze released Troy, he flattered backward and fell to the ground.

He felt terrible. He was embarrassed and furious. He pointed at Kaze with his shaking hands and shouted, "Y- You punk! How dare you! You won't get away with... Ugh!" Before he could finish, he threw up, vomiting the food and the whiskey. He even wet his pants, adding another layer of stench to the already smelly room.

“Who else wants me to feed them?” Kaze looked at the others as he refilled the bowl with whiskey. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Noah and the others looked at Troy on the floor, soaking in puke and piss.

Their expressions turned grim. \ Troy and Baskin were defeated.

One would end up in the hospital soon and the other one wet his pants.

If this news got out, they would lose face.

Yet Noah and the rest were at their limits and if they continued drinking, they might end up like or worse than Troy and Baskin.

Noah’s head was as heavy as cement.

He forced a smile and said, “Fine, fine.

I give up.. Shangrila Group's factory can resume operation. I'll tell my men to send the approval over later. Let's stop drinking, we are dying here.” He spilled the words with utmost reluctance.

He was planning to use this chance to get into Winnie's pants but Kaze stepped in and intervened, foiling his evil plans.

His colleagues were knocked out and he was forced to surrender.

Noah stared at Kaze grimly.

Surrendering was just a temporary solution. When he got rid of Kaze, he would go after Winnie again and get revenge! Noah did not know that due to his condition, he could no longer hide his thoughts as they were all revealed through his expression.

Besides, Kaze was good at seeing through people's minds

He knew Noah was trying to brush him off. In fact, he knew very well what kind of person Noah was.

If he believed Noah, his back would be stabbed the moment he turned around and he would find himself in a difficult spot.

Chapter 1026

Chapter 1026 Five Slaps, Five Bowls “Mr. Moor, that’s insincere of you. You can just tell your man to send us the approval now, why later? You can’t even drink as promised, I can’t trust you,” Kaze said with a faint grin on his face.

Noah did not know Kaze was teasing him. Annoyed, he said, “Punk, go ask anyone. I’m a man of my word! There are official procedures that we must go through, I can’t make the decisions alone. I have to get other people’s approval as well...” He was trying to stall and delay the decision. Since he was the one making the final decision, he could stall as long as he liked. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“Enough.”

Kaze stopped his nonsense and said coldly, “I am not demanding you to give us an approval now. Our game is still not yet finished. Let’s continue drinking!” He then went over to Noah with a bowl of whiskey.

“Stop it! You are going to get someone killed...” Winnie darted over and pulled Kaze back with a worried look.

“Punk, if something happens to me, you and your family will suffer!” Noah’s expression turned grim the moment he realized Kaze was unfazed by his threats.

He was barely conscious due to the excessive whiskey he consumed.

With what happened to Troy, he somehow gathered the confidence to threaten Kaze.

Little did he know that Kaze never succumbed to threats.

“You’re right. If he dies here, it does get a little troublesome.” Kaze nodded. He then dragged Noah over and said, “If you don’t want to drink, then why don’t you replace it with slaps? Five bowls, five slaps, sounds fair?” Kaze then raised his arm and swung a slap at Noah’s face.

Slap! Slap! Slap! Loud slaps echoed in the room, followed by Noah’s cries.

Soon enough, his face swollen terribly.

The other two colleagues of his were stunned.

They had always been the ones who slapped people by abusing their powers but it was their first time seeing one of them being slapped.

Clank! Kaze released Noah after five slaps.

The man collapsed on the table, looking half dead.

“If you can’t accept defeat, don’t bet with me. You lost but you are trying to threaten me with your authority. Is this how you do things?” Kaze then looked at the remaining two.

“We’ll drink! We’ll drink!” The two of them took their bowls and started drinking again.

Even if they would end up in the hospital, it would be better than getting slapped by Kaze.

“Who gave you permission to drink?” Kaze explained, “Five slaps for five bowls, that includes yours.” Noah was furious when he heard Kaze.

“You! I will not let this slip!” He tried his best to shout but his voice was muffled.

“I’ll be waiting for you.” “Winnie, let’s go.”

Kaze did not even care about Noah's threats. He then brought the tipsy Winnie out of the stinking room.

“Just you wait!” Noah pulled his phone out to make a call.

“Father, I was slapped! I’m at the city council’s lounge! You are coming here for dinner tonight, right? Avenge me!” Winnie overheard the call when she stepped out of the room and it frightened her.

The shock woke her up from her tipsy condition.

Worried, she asked Kaze, “I heard Noah's father is a powerful person here in Lilyrose. After what you did to

I him, will Shangrila Group be fine?”

Chapter 1027

Chapter 1027 Run Into My Wife Winnie was afraid of Noah, someone who was in the government office and had a certain level of authority.

Two years ago, Shangrila Group went bankrupt overnight. Although the top three families were behind it, the ex- mayor was more or less involved.

It was not that difficult to find out about it either.

Without someone powerful making it happen, it was impossible to destroy a company as big as Shangrila Group overnight. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“Someone powerful? Is he as powerful as the mayor?” Kaze did not take it seriously. He simply smiled it off and went out.

Then, he saw a group of people coming over in a hurry.

Kaze stopped, surprised to see that the leader of the group was his wife, Darcy.

“Darcy? What are you doing here?” Darcy, Agnes, Hector, and even Agatha were there.

Darcy and Agnes were holding gifts in their hands.

“Winnie, Kaze? What are you guys doing here? Kaze, are you drinking?” Darcy was surprised to see Kaze with Winnie as well.

Since Winnie was slightly tipsy and was leaning on Kaze, she quickly explained, “Shangrila Group's factory is having some problems and we are meeting with the person in charge here to discuss how to resume the factory operation.” Darcy nodded. She had never suspected Kaze and Winnie before.

Kaze was probably here to take shots for Winnie since he was Winnie's driver for a while.

Kaze asked, “Darcy, what are you guys doing here?” “It's Uncle Adam. Mom wants me to apologize to him so that he can let her return to the Otter family.” Darcy spoke with zero interest.

Even though Kaze and her had offended Adam last night, she believed they did nothing wrong.

Yet her mother insisted that she apologize and even asked Agatha to persuade her. Darcy was out of options.

“Kaze, you are here as well? Great! Come with us and apologize to Adam!” Agnes went over and glared at Kaze. “If you can't get his forgiveness, you will feel my wrath!” Kaze felt helpless as well.

Suddenly, Noah's voice came from the back.

“punk, don't you leave! It's either you or me today!” Noah came out as he covered his face.

When he saw Darcy next to Kaze, his eyes shone.

He did not expect to see another beautiful woman other than Winnie.

Though he was still consumed by anger and vengeance. He frowned and bellowed, “Who are you people?” “You are?” Darcy asked with furrowed brows.

Noah's face was red but Darcy could see a few slap marks on it. It made her think of Kaze for some reason.

Kaze must have slapped the man.

“This is Noah Moor from Lilyrose's Ministry of Health and Welfare,” Winnie said. She had a bad feeling when she saw Noah come after them.

“Mr. Moor, hi.”

Agnes went up with a big smile and said, “Kaze is my son-in-law. What is the matter?” - “What is the matter?” Noah touched his face and said coldly, “Can't you tell what happened? Your son-in-law almost slapped me to I I death! I {I “Punk, I said it before! You and your I I family will pay for what you've done! I Now that they are here, none of you I can escape!” Noah glared at Kaze viciously.

Chapter 1028

Chapter 1028 Make It up by Sex Darcy's expression shifted upon hearing Noah.

She was right. Kaze slapped the man.

This time, he slapped someone from the Ministry of Food and Welfare.

Noah must be a reputable man to hold a high position there. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

In other words, Kaze got into trouble again.

“Oh my god! Kaze you stupid idiot! Why did you slap him?!” Agnes’ smile froze and her face turned pale.

She turned around to glare at Kaze.

“Do you know who this is? How dare you hit him? Apologize immediately!” “Apologize? Hehe...” T Noah chuckled and said coldly, “You slapped me and you think you can get away with just an apology? Do you know what this place is? This is the city council’s lounge! The leaders in the city council’s office, including the mayor, welcome important guests here! If you hit me here, that means you show no respect for the city council!” Kaze was amused by Noah's claims, but Darcy and the others were terrified.

Darcy knew that an acting mayor had just sworn into office that day.

On his first day, Kaze slapped someone b&w I from the Ministry of Food and Welfare I in the city council lounge.

I If the acting mayor found out about this, things would snowball out of hand.

Would Kaze be able to handle the consequences? I Darcy took a deep breath and stepped up to Noah. She forced a smile on her face and said, “Mr. Moor, I am sorry that my husband hit you. He used to suffer from mental illness and he’s been in a psych ward before. Maybe he’s triggered by something, that’s why he resorted to violence.

“I’m not trying to defend him. I’m just stating the facts here. If we must pay for his actions, we will. Other than your compensation, we would also like to make it up for your terrible experience.” Darcy immediately lowered herself and I apologized to Noah.

She was willing to pay ten million just to settle this dispute.

“This punk is your husband?” Noah looked at Darcy, or more precisely, her seductive neck that led down to her cleavage. He wished he could dive into that thin line of hopes and dreams.

“Yes.” Darcy nodded.

To affirm Noah that she had the capability to pay, she introduced herself, saying, “I’m Darcy Quint, the chairwoman of Quartet Group and Sky Ocean Corporation.” “So, you are Darcy Quint.”

Noah was delighted. He looked at Kaze and scoffed. "So this punk here is the infamous useless son-in-law?" A stranger called Kaze useless again. It made Darcy feel bad.

She forced a smile on her face and said, "Mr. Moor, how much should we compensate you?" "I did not expect to run into the famous Darcy Quint here. For you, I can spare you from the compensation." Darcy did not expect Noah to be so easygoing.

She smiled and said, "Mr. Moor, it's..." "Hold up. I'm not finished." Noah stopped her and said with a perverted grin, "You don't have to pay me but want you to sleep with me. Have sex with me for a few nights and we can call this even. How about that?" _

Chapter 1029

\ Chapter 1029 Noah's Dad | "Mr. Moor, you!" - The smile on Darcy's face froze and her expression spelled anger.

Agnes and the others were shocked and scared as well. They did not expect such a blatant request from Noah.

Noah grunted and said coldly, "What? You don't like me? If a stupid retard can fuck you, so can I..." Before he could finish, Kaze stepped forward and kicked him on his chest, sending him flying away.

Bang! Following an excruciating cry, Noah crashed onto the wall behind him, causing the structure itself to tremble Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality. upon impact.

| He continued to cry in pain after he fell on the floor and bled profusely.

| "Noah!" | The other two colleagues came out of the room and quickly went over to help Noah up.

"Kaze! Why?!" Darcy bellowed after she regained her composure.

"This is over! There's no way we can get out of this anymore..." Agnes and the others were horrified.

Kaze said, "Darcy, he got what he deserved. You can just stay out of this.

I'll get him." Based on what Noah said to Darcy, he should be grateful that he was still I alive after getting a kick from Kaze.

I o Kaze held back because he did not want to scare Darcy and her family, or else Noah's ribs would break and his chest would cave in.

Noah got up with the help of his colleagues. Blood was still dripping from his mouth and the pain distorted his expression, making him look like a ghost.

He heard Kaze. He was both amused and angry. "You piece of fuck! You said you're going to get me? Do you know who my father is?!" "I don't care who your daddy is. Even if the king of the world is your father, he won't stop me from beating you up," Kaze said.

I Noah's colleague then said, "Punk! Noah's father is the deputy mayor of the city council, Lou Moor! Deputy Mayor Moor!" "Noah has already called his father and he is on his way! Even if your wife is I the chairwoman of Quartet Group and Sky Ocean Corporation, you are nothing to Deputy Mayor Moor!" said the other colleague.

Darcy and her family were horrified.

Kaze beat up the son of the deputy mayor! He messed with the wrong person! Kaze was slightly surprised. He looked at Noah and said, "Oh? So, you are his son? That explains your arrogant ass.

Fine. When your daddy is here, I'll ask him if he will get rid of you from the Ministry of Health and Welfare or you I and him both are out of the city.

council's office." I Noah and his colleagues were stunned.

He chuckled and said, "Punk, who do you think you are? You think you are the mayor?" "Kaze, stop it!" Darcy quickly stopped Kaze before he made things worse.

"Agnes, Adam is here!" Agatha suddenly tugged at Agnes and informed her of Adam's arrival.

Despite her rising anxiety, Agnes turned around and saw Adam coming in from outside.

Behind Adam was a young man— Tao Segore.

el Nh taping? Agnes knew that Adam had a dinner meeting tonight, so they came to meet I him. .

"Agnes, Agatha," Adam greeted his sisters but ignored his brother-in-law, Hector.

He ignored Kaze and Darcy as well.

He spotted Noah and his colleagues and went over to them with a smile.

“Noah, you guys are here as well? I am going to have dinner with your father later... Wait, what happened to you? Why are you bleeding?” Adam finally spotted the blood on Noah’s swollen face.

Chapter 1030

Chapter 1030 Lawless “Noah, were you beaten? Who did it? Who beat you here at the city council’s lounge?” Adam was shocked to see the slap mark on Noah's face.

He knew Noah worked for the Ministry of Health and Welfare and his father was the deputy mayor.

The father and son held important positions in government offices, which granted their family fame and status.

vet someone hit Noah in the city council’s lounge.

«Him! That fuck!” Noah shouted and pointed at Kaze. He then looked at Adam with a curious gaze. ‘Adam, are you relatives with this punk here?’ He saw how close Adam was with Agnes and Agatha, which made him suspicious.

His expression turned bitter.

If Adam decided to defend Kaze, then he would be in trouble.

Adam was the vice chief of the Ministry of Health and Welfare from Sunrise City and was close with the Lees.

If Noah decided to go against him, he might be ata disadvantage.

Darcy sharply sensed the reverence Noah had for Adam and she immediately realized what was going on.

Only Adam could save Kaze now.

“Uncle Adam, Kaze and Mr. Moor here got into a misunderstanding. I have offered compensation but Mr. Moor doesn't seem to be happy with it...” Darcy looked at her uncle and begged.

“Uncle Adam, can you talk to Mr.

Moor?” Agnes was angry that Kaze got into trouble again but the only way out of the situation was to solve it peacefully rather than escalate it.

«Adam, please talk to Mr. Moor here. I know Kaze disrespected you yesterday and you are mad. I'll make him apologize to you. That's why we are here. You can scold him however you - n want, so please talk to Mr. Moor...

Agnes begged her brother to help. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Noah was worried that Adam would use his status against him, so he quickly said, “Adam, you are a government officer with a high position and also my senior. What do you think about the situation? I'm the chief of the Ministry of Health and Welfare here in Lilyrose and he slapped me! In the city council's lounge! A place where other chiefs of government offices gather! If this gets out, I will be embarrassed!” As a matter of fact, Noah did not need to worry at all.

Adam did not plan to accept Darcy's or Agnes' plea, he actually gloated at the situation.

He hated Kaze. There was no way he would help Kaze.

“Noah, you are right. Some people don't take the city council seriously. He made Consul Harrison Ford kneel and apologize yesterday and now he's causing problems at the city council's lounge. If he continues this, he might cause even more trouble.” Adam put the blame on Kaze.

Everyone looked at Kaze with shock, especially Agnes and Agatha. They just found out that Kaze made the consul of paladia kneel and apologize, which sounded insane.

Shocked, Noah said, “I was wondering why Danny Tulip was going back. He said he was here to fund his project.

Now I see what happened. This punk here made him mad! “you piece of shit! Do you know how much the city will lose because of this? You are the sinner that will drag the city's development behind!” Noah bellowed and scolded Kaze as if he was on the side of justice. N

Chapter 1031

Chapter 1031 Surrender Noah's expression put Adam in an embarrassing situation.

Harrison verified that Danny was just a con man from Paladia, trying to scam people's money.

Therefore, it was embarrassing for Adam to agree with Noah's words.

"Noah, let's just forget about Danny.

Focus on the current situation first." He continued, "Kaze and I are relatives but beating you up is a crime and it's a fact. He did wrong and I won't defend him because he's related to me. You have my support to sue him!" Adam spoke righteously, voicing his support to Noah.

Noah laughed. "Thank you for your understanding, Adam. You are a righteous man indeed and a role model tous all." As Noah flattered Adam, Darcy's and Agnes' hearts plunged into the abyss.

Adam would not help, so how would they deal with Noah's retaliation? Noah alone was troublesome enough and now they had to deal with Noah's father, the deputy mayor.

"Adam, I don't want to put you in a difficult situation. Please go upstairs first. My father will be with you after he helps me with this situation." "Very well." Adam nodded and then went upstairs SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality. without looking back.

Tao followed him upstairs. When he walked past Kaze, he shot a contemptuous gaze to mock him.

"You can't settle your own problem and you can't control your fists. In the end, your wife and your in-laws have to clean up your mess. Useless trash." Agnes was embarrassed. She glared at Kaze.

She was disappointed in Kaze and wished Darcy would divorce him.

However, it was not the time to urge Darcy to get a divorce with Kaze as she was being pressured by Noah.

Darcy was anxious as well. She was trying to figure out a way out of this situation.

“Agnes, why don’t I go up and see if I can talk to Adam again. We can’t just watch them beat up Kaze.” = Agatha suddenly spoke. Even though she had always disliked Kaze, she started to look at Kaze differently last night.

She interrogated her children over and over again and the brother and sister told her what happened at Bay Club.

If not for Kaze, Rose and Landon would have been bullied, especially Rose. She would not want her beautiful daughter to fall into the hands of Taz or Billy.

Therefore, she decided to step up and try to defend Kaze.

“Really? Okay.”

Agnes was delighted to see Agatha's initiative.

Agatha was still part of the Otters and she was on good terms with her brother, Adam. Her words held much more weight than Agnes’.

Darcy’s hope was reignited. She tugged Kaze and said, “Kaze, go up and apologize to Uncle Adam. We need his help right now! Apologize to him because he’s the only one who can save you now!” Kaze felt helpless. Adam was not someone that he had to beg or apologize to.

Then, Noah said coldly, “He can’t leave! He's going nowhere until we settle this! As for you people, since you people are Adam's family, you can do whatever you want.”

He wisely discarded the thought of sleeping with Darcy after learning that she was Adam’s niece. — It would be inappropriate for him to put them in a difficult situation.

However, he would not let Kaze go that easily.

Chapter 1032

Chapter 1032 I'm From Shangrila Kaze agreed with Noah's words for the first time.

He said, “Darcy, why don’t you guys go up first. I’ll deal with this and meet you guys upstairs.” “Hehe, let’s hope you still can go up to them after we are done here,” Noah said coldly.

He assumed Kaze was just trying to act cool in front of his wife.

Darcy shot a worried glance at Noah and then at Kaze. She knew there was no way she could talk him out of it, so she reluctantly nodded.

“Okay. Don’t do anything rash. Just try to apologize and do what you must.

“Winnie, you should come up with us as well.” Darcy was also afraid that Noah would give Winnie a hard time.

Winnie shook her head. “It’s okay.

Kaze got into conflict with Mr. Moor because of me. I must stay here and reason with the deputy mayor when he gets here.” She was prepared for the worst. No matter what she had to do, she must ensure Kaze’s safety.

“Okay.” Darcy nodded and then went upstairs with Agnes and the others.

She wanted to beg Adam to save Kaze. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality. “Hahaha, Kaze Lee. Your wife ; abandoned you,” Noah teased.

Kaze did not take his words seriously.

He trusted Darcy with his heart.

He said coldly, “Where is your father? How long am I supposed to wait for him?” “So eager to die now?” Noah said angrily.

“Don’t worry. The deputy mayor will be here soon and you will be dead!” “you are full of yourself. You should be honored that you can wait for the deputy mayor!” Noah’s colleagues continued to mock him.

Kaze had a glance at the two of them and said, “It seems like Lou Moor isn’t enough. I should call your boss here as well.” He then called Caleb, another powerful § person in the city council.

“Tell the highest ranked officers of the Traffic, Health and Welfare, and Finance to come to the city council lounge in ten minutes. I’ll be here waiting for them.” Kaze then hung up the phone.

He had decided to rectify how these government officers behave and work.

Noah and the others were surprised by Kaze's phone call but they quickly found it amusing.

“Who do you think you are, punk?! The mayor?” “You pretentious shit!”

While they were mocking Kaze, an elderly man with a strict face, carrying a stern aura, came over while being surrounded by several other suited men.

“Father, you are here!” Noah cried happily.

He then grinned at Kaze. “You punk, my father is here. I'll look forward to seeing you die!” “you useless shit! You are beaten up in the city council lounge?!” Despite his age, Lou Moor's temper remained feisty. He scolded his son for being weak.

He then strode over fiercely and bellowed, “Where is the person in charge of Shangrila Group? Come forward and explain why you hit my son!” His voice was as loud as a lion's roar.

It was understandable since his son was beaten up in his own turf.

Winnie's expression turned pale.

She knew negotiation was off the table when she saw Lou's anger.

Then, Kaze tapped on her shoulder and said, “I am the person in charge of Shangrila Group.”

Chapter 1033

Chapter 1033 Like Father, Like Son Compared to Lou, Kaze sounded a lot calmer.

Since Kaze was showing his back, Lou was not able to see his face at first glance.

“You? Who the hell are you?” Lou's fierce gaze landed on Kaze and he bellowed, “Turn around. Show yourself! I want to have a look at the person who slapped my son!”

“Father is indeed fierce for being one of the deputy mayors. I bet Kaze Lee is horrified right now!” Noah was impressed by his father's fierce and loud voice, Kaze casually and calmly turned around to Lou and said, "I am the chairman of Shangrila Group. What is the matter here, Deputy Mayor Moor?" SY=Yout The moment he got a clear look at Kaze, Lou's mind went black as if he was struck by lightning.

How could it be Kaze?! Kaze was also the chairman of Shangrila Group? He just had lunch with the young man in the afternoon and even proposed a toast. How could he forget his face? Lou's mind went blank. He could not wrap his head around the situation.

He only recovered his composure after a while.

He then strode over to Kaze and under everyone's surprised gaze, he bowed at Kaze.

"I-It's nothing of importance!" What happened?! The jaw-dropping scene left Noah and the others speechless.

They were completely stunned.

The fierce and stern deputy mayor of the city bowed to Kaze?! Noah could not even form a complete sentence.

Kaze looked at Lou condescendingly and casually said, "Deputy Mayor Moor, at first I thought your son was so arrogant because you spoiled him, but now it seemed like he got it from you. Like father, like son." Arrogance was a terrible trait for people working in government offices.

Lou bowed even lower and said timidly, "I-It's my mistake for not teaching him well! I wonder what did my son do?" Kaze scoffed.

Lou did not even know what his son had done, yet he came here on a phone call, asking for trouble.

Like father, like son. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"Why don't you ask him yourself?" Kaze turned to Noah.

Lou glared at his son and bellowed, "Speak!" Noah was frightened by his father's fierce gaze.

"I took Zenny's words and ordered a I cease operation on Shangrila Group's factory. He wanted me to harass Winnie Souffle and force her to drink with us. I had a drinking competition with Mr. Lee, but we lost. Then I tried to oppress him with my authority..." Noah explained as tears rolled down his face.

"Your son missed out on one thing." Kaze looked at Lou and said, "He wanted my wife to sleep with him." Lou darted over and kicked Noah to the ground, stomping on his face "You stupid bastard! I'll kill you! How BE 2 dare you! Do you even know who he is? You are playing with fire!" Lou was truly mad.

What Noah did could practically drag the entire Moor family to hell.

"I'm sorry, Father! I'm sorry!" Noah cried as he was being beaten by his father.

"You piece of shit! Get up on your knees!" Lou gasped heavily after a final kick to Noah's face.

Chapter 1034

Chapter 1034 Mayor Lee Thump! Noah knelt before Kaze, tearing and snorting.

"M-Mr. Lee, I am so sorry! Please forgive me..." As he cried and apologized, he had a peek at Kaze's expression.

Noah's colleagues were also looking at Kaze carefully.

At this point, even if they were idiots, they would have figured out that Kaze was more than just the chairman of Shangrila Group.

Otherwise, given Lou's status as deputy mayor of the city, he would never hit his son just because of a few words from Kaze. He even bowed and lowered his tone the moment he saw Kaze.

Who exactly was Kaze Lee? "That's not what I want to hear." Kaze stood in front of Noah and peered down at him. "Where is Zenny Soup?" Noah was surprised. He quickly shook his head and said, "Mr. Lee, I don't know. [haven't seen that bastard for a long time. When his father, Benedict Soup, was taken down, he had gone into hiding.

"I only know that he is still in Lilyrose!" Kaze had already forgotten about Benedict if not for Noah mentioning him.

Benedict hired hitmen to go after Kaze but was secretly arrested by Don.

Zenny must be avoiding Kaze and it was not because his father was arrested.

Kaze did not need to tell Noah about it.

He said coldly, "Call him, tell him to come here. Tell him that I'm in your hands." He grinned meaningfully.

Zenny used the same trick to lure Winnie into the trap and now Kaze wanted to return the favor.

"yes! Right away!" Noah pulled his phone out immediately and called Zenny while he remained kneeling.

"Noah?" Zenny answered the phone almost immediately.

"Noah, you are really quick. I just heard about Shangrila Group's factory being forced to cease operation. Did Winnie beg you to lift the order?" Noah wisely turned on speaker mode.

Listening to Zenny's words, Winnie got so angry that she was shaking.

She used to be married to the man.

"s-She did..." Noah sweated profusely and simply switched the topic, saying, "Zenny, you have to come to the city council lounge right now. That man is in my hands now!"

"Are you talking about Kaze Lee? You got him? For real?" Zenny was thrilled. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Noah carefully glanced at Kaze but saw no expression on his face.

He nodded and said, "Yeah. Come over here right now." "Alright. I'm on my way. Wait for me, Noah!" Zenny did not once suspect Noah. He hung up the phone and went straight out.

"Stay on your knees before he arrives," Kaze said after Noah hung up the phone.

After the call, another group of men came in.

IW +15 aONUS Noah's colleagues were shocked when they saw the men at the entrance.

“Deputy Mayor Leed?! What is he doing here?” “That’s Director Fern!” “And Director Stark!” Five other men followed Caleb into the lounge.

Noah recognized one of them, which was Nathan Filet, the chief of the Ministry of Health and Welfare.

When the group saw Noah kneeling on the ground and Lou bowing at Kaze, their eyes widened in disbelief and were stunned on the spot.

“Keep up! Don’t just stand there!” Caleb bellowed.

He dashed over to Kaze and bowed, “Mayor Lee, the directors of the Traffic, Health and Welfare, Food and Drug Administration, and other departments are here!”

Chapter 1035

Chapter 1035 Earthquake “M-Mayor?!” Other than Lou, Noah, and his colleagues, the directors that Caleb brought over were stunned.

The young man before their eyes was the new mayor of Lilyrose?! Winnie was stunned as well.

Since when did Kaze become the mayor? It was unbelievable but based on Lou’s and Caleb’s reaction, no one dared to doubt Kaze’s identity.

“Mayor Lee!” The directors behind Caleb bowed immediately.

Despite the shock that stunned them, they had to perform well before the new mayor. - Thump! Noah's colleagues who mocked Kaz: earlier fell on their knees immediately.

“Mayor! We're sorry!” Knowing what they had just done to the new mayor, the two of them slapped themselves repeatedly to show their apology.

Noah also did the same out of fear.

“Mayor, we really have no idea that you are the new mayor!” “Enough!” Kaze bellowed.

He disliked seeing men crying like babies. He said coldly, "You people are government officers, look at yourselves!" = He then looked at the department directors and said, "There are three here and two inside the room. You guys decide what to do with them." The chief of the Ministry of Health and Welfare glanced at Lou.

Due to Lou's presence, Noah barely took Nathan seriously at the department.

"Why are you looking at me? Do what you must!" Lou was deeply pressured. He knew the only thing he could do was sacrifice his son or else even he would suffer the consequences.

With that, Lou said to Kaze, "Mayor

Lee, I must apologize for what my son has done. I failed to teach him well, which is the direct cause of his arrogance. The only right thing to do now is to punish him accordingly. I will accept whatever sentence is given." Noah's face turned pale upon hearing his father.

He knew his life and career would be over. He could no longer abuse his status and authority anymore. This was the best outcome for him.

If not for his father, given how fierce and brutal Kaze was with his fists and kicks, he would be dead already.

"You guys know what to do." Kaze waved at them.

"Noah Moor will be relieved of duty and investigated!" After learning what Noah did, Nathan quickly came up with the decision to charge him.

The other directors agreed as well.

Removing five chiefs from different departments under the city council, albeit not the director, was a massive earthquake to the hierarchy of power. SEARCH THE WEBSITE TO ACCESS CHAPTERS OF NOVELS EARLY AND IN THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

After today, Kaze's name would strike fear in people's minds.

After Noah and his colleagues received their punishments, Zenny arrived.

"Noah, I'm here! Where are Kaze Lee and Winnie? I'll teach him not to mess with me!" Zenny came in shouting excitedly, looking thrilled to get back at Kaze.

The people around Kaze heard his voice and quickly turned around, looking at him strangely.

“Huh? Noah, what happened to you?” Zenny spotted Noah kneeling on the ground. Then, he saw the man standing in front of Noah.

“K-Kaze Lee?!” Zenny was frightened. A bad feeling rose from his heart and his first instinct was to flee the place.

Kaze would not let him leave now that he had shown up. He darted over and swung a kick at Zenny’s chest.

Bang! The kick sent Zenny flying away, crashing onto the wooden door of the lounge.

Chapter 1036

Chapter 1036 Got It Coming Slap! b Kaze grabbed Zenny and slapped him in the face.

Zenny cried in pain. He tried to run but was unable to break free.

Pow! Kaze punched him a few times, making him bleed.

After one final blow that made the loudest thump, Kaze tossed Zenny on the floor like a pile of meat.

Zenny tried to crawl away from Kaze.

“Deputy Mayor Leed, Deputy Mayor Moor, directors, I’m Zenny Soup! Benedict Soup’s son! This retard hit me! Help me! Arrest him and put him behind bars!” He crawled toward Lou, Caleb, and the others, requesting help.

However, everyone looked at him coldly, saying nothing.

Zenny did not understand why they would not help.

He then cried at Winnie, “Winnie, I was wrong! I was blinded! I am sorry! Tell him to stop! He’s going to kill me! Winnie, we used to be married, please! Help me!” Winnie looked as cold as ice and was unfazed by Zenny’s plea.

She lost all hope for Zenny. She gave him a lot of chances to make it right but he wasted them all and got worse.

“Zenny, you had it coming,” Winnie I said coldly. = She no longer held any hope for the man.

If not for Kaze, she would be devoured by Noah today.

Bump! Kaze kicked Zenny in the stomach, turning him around. I Zenny was devastated. He shouted at Kaze, “You fuck! Beat me to death if you have the balls!” Kaze peered down at him, saying, “After what you did, putting a bullet in your head is considered mercy. But since you helped Brenda before, I won't do it. “You have three days. Get yourself) together and sign the papers to divorce Winnie. Now get out of my face!” Zenny was relieved. He struggled to get up on his feet and wobbled away.

“Thanks.” Kaze took the warm towel given to him by Lou and then looked at Noah.

“Put some bandage over your stupid face and go upstairs to apologize to my wife. I don't want her to see your ugly face.” He then went upstairs, leaving Caleb and Lou to take care of the rest.

Winnie followed Nathan away to settle the matters with the factory.

Meanwhile, inside the VIP room, i

Agnes, Agatha and the others continued to persuade Adam to help Kaze.

“Adam, please. For my sake, help Kaze this time. You are having dinner with Deputy Mayor Moor later, please just talk to him...” Agatha was trying her best to persuade Adam.

Agnes and Darcy were also looking at Adam with pleading eyes, but Adam remained unfazed.

“Agatha, I respect you as my sister, but has Kaze ever respected me? Ask your niece. Ask her to tell you how Kaze humiliated me in front of everyone last night.” No matter what his sisters said, Adam refused to help.

He was the favorite child growing up and not even both of his elder sisters dared to mess with him. = “Mom, Aunt Agatha, if Uncle Adam refuses to help, let's just go. I believe we can find a way.” Darcy was disappointed. She did not want to waste her time anymore, so she suggested leaving.

It was then Tao spoke, saying, “Ms.

Quint, I'm quite close with Deputy Mayor Moor. I think I can put in a good word for your useless husband.”

Chapter 1037

Chapter 1037 Distribution Rights Outside the State 5 Darcy stopped when she heard Tao.

Tao's Segore Pharmaceutical had been in operation for two years and underwent rapid expansion. Surely he was not alone.

If Tao could share a dinner table with Adam and the deputy mayor, he must have more resources other than Adam's support.

“What are the terms?” Darcy asked coldly.

Tao smiled. He did not mind Darcy's tone.

He believed after tonight, Darcy would be deeply disappointed in Kaze.

Therefore, even though he had thoughts for Darcy, he was in no hurry.

“Then let's talk business.” He explained, “I heard you were classmates with the late James White of Shangrila Group. Now that Shangrila is back, they are releasing a new medicine to expand their market influence. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“Segore Pharmaceutical is looking to get the distribution rights beyond Lilyrose City. Therefore, I would like Ms. Quint to help arrange a meeting with the current chairman of Shangrila.

“If you can help me with this matter, I will do more than just say something nice about your husband. I can ask the deputy mayor to release him completely.” Darcy's expression shifted.

Last night, Tao boasted about his billion-dollar investment in front of Kaze but it turned out that Kaze was the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm.

Now, he was aiming to get distribution rights for Shangrila Group's new medicine beyond Lilyrose City.

Did he not know that Kaze used to work for Shangrila Group? Darcy said, "Mr. Segore, didn't you know that the woman beside Kaze just now was the CEO of Shangrila Group?" She was certain that Tao was not as capable as he looked.

If he truly wanted to work with Shangrila Group, he would at least do some research.

What could he have achieved if not for his family? "That woman was the CEO?" Tao raised his brows.

He was not familiar with Shangrila Group.

He only knew that when the company released its new medicine to the market, it triggered the ban from the Four Ocean Commerce Guild.

However, Shangrila Group was able to lift the ban and successfully release the medicine to the market, which allowed them to seize a big slice of the pie.

Therefore, he believed Shangrila Group had a strong background and he wanted exclusive distribution rights.

It was the reason he decided to lower himself and ask Darcy for help.

If he knew that Noah was powerful enough to shut down Shangrila Group's factory, he would have just talked to him and had him demand Winnie for the exclusive distribution rights.

"I guess I won't have to trouble you.

I'll just go talk to the CEO directly." Tao stood up with a hint of embarrassment on his face.

Now would be the chance for him to secure the deal.

It was then Kaze came into the room.

"Huh? Why are you here? I thought Noah wasn't finished with you." Tao was surprised to see Kaze.

"Kaze? You're fine! Is it over?" Darcy and the others were surprised as well.

"I'm fine. Darcy, I said I could handle it. I don't need anyone's help. Let's go » Kaze held Darcy's hand and was about to leave. He did not even look at Adam, who was furious.

When he walked past Tao, he stopped and said, "I heard you were looking for the distribution rights to Shangrila's new medicine."

"Yeah, so?" Tao scoffed.

Kaze chuckled. "Nothing in particular, but I would like to tell you that you don't have to waste your time. You won't get it."

Chapter 1038

Chapter 1038 Embarrassed "What are you talking about? Are you cursing me??" Tao's expression turned grim.

Kaze ruined his chance of getting a billion-dollar investment from Hudson Investment Firm.

Now, Kaze cursed him when he tried to get the distribution rights from Shangrila Group. \ Together with the previous grudges, they fueled Tao's anger.

"I'm not cursing you. I'm just stating a fact." Kaze scoffed and wanted to walk away.

He did not want to waste time on Tao.

"Stop right there! Explain yourself!" Tao shouted, stopping Kaze.

Adam saw how fierce Kaze could fight last night and he was afraid that Tao might get hurt. He quickly said, "Tao, enough. Don't waste your time on useless trash. If cursing works, your company would have been bankrupted a hundred times.

"Don't stoop to his level, widen your vision. He and you are not from the same world." \ He did not hold back in insulting Kaze. search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Or rather, he was venting his grievance at Kaze over helping Tao.

"Uncle Adam, you're right. I do not need to waste my energy on this useless trash."

TE a Tao looked at Kaze coldly and scoffed, "But why are you leaving in such a hurry? Are you afraid of something? I should tell Noah that you are leaving." He then pulled his phone out to call Noah.

Darcy bellowed, "Tao Segore, stop poking your nose into our business!" She too believed Kaze was trying to flee and was afraid things might get worse once Tao intervened.

Adam grunted and said, "Darcy, you can't protect him forever. Deputy Mayor Moor is a feisty person. Kaze can't run forever." It was then that a man covered in bandages came up from the stairs.

Tao recognized him despite the mummified look. He scoffed, "See! Kaze is trying to run away when Noah is getting his wounds treated!" Behind Noah was Lou, his father, and the man looked furious.

Surprised, Adam got up from his chair.

"Lou, you're here. I have to say, Kaze and I are relatives but I am a righteous person who can tell right and wrong.

You do what you need to do, I won't intervene." X Darcy was disappointed by her uncle's heartless words.

However, Lou simply glanced at Adam before he kicked Noah's butt, saying, "Don't just stand there!" Noah fell onto his knees.

Thump! He knelt in front of Darcy and said in a regretful tone, "Ms. Quint, I shouldn't have said what I said. I know I have insulted you and I hereby apologize to you. I'll slap myself!" He then started to slap himself.

"Ms. Quint, it is my fault that I didn't teach my son properly. I apologize as well. Please forgive us." Lou went up to Darcy and bowed: Darcy was stunned when the deputy mayor bowed and apologized to her.

Adam, Tao, and everyone else was astonished.

Noah was beaten up by Kaze yet Lou apologized to Darcy?

Nothing made sense! "Deputy Mayor Moor, this is too much.

Please get up! I'll forgive Noah!" Darcy was overwhelmed and quickly stopped Noah from slapping himself.

She felt surreal.

The father and son glanced at Kaze.

Kaze said, "Get up. Consider this over.

And I do not wish to hear anything about Shangrila Group being targeted, understand?"

Otherwise, if anything went wrong, he and his son would be the primary suspects. 3 Everyone was shocked by the unusual attitude Lou and Noah showed.

Baffled, Adam asked, "Lou, what does Kaze have to do with Shangrila?" "Mr. Lee is the chairman of Shangrila," Lou said after a careful glance at Kaze.

What?! Kaze was the chairman of Shangrila Group? Adam's expression froze.

Kaze could have become the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm through nepotism, but was he also the chairman of Shangrila Group? Adam felt embarrassed for what he said to Kaze earlier.

Tao was also stunned on the spot.

He tried his best not to break down in tears.

It seemed like whatever companies he wanted to work with belonged to Kaze.

"Kaze, since when are you the chairman of Shangrila? What about Jesse White..." Darcy and her family looked at Kaze in disbelief. on What happened? Kaze sighed and said, "Darcy, I've been telling you. I am the chairman of Shangrila but none of you believed me and assumed I was Winnie's driver. As for Jesse White, it's just an alias I used to fend off the top three families a while ago." Agnes and the others were baffled and shocked.

Kaze did say he was the chairman many times but none of them believed him.

Now, the deputy mayor finally verified it.

Everyone looked at Kaze differently, especially Agnes.

Kaze suddenly became the golden child in her eyes. @» Her son-in-law made her proud! “Adam, see! My son-in-law is not useless! He’s the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm and the chairman of Shangrila Group!” Adam’s expression shifted multiple times listening to what his sister just said.

Tao wished there was a hole he could bury himself in to avoid the embarrassment.

Darcy went up to Kaze and stroked his cheek with her fair hands. “Kaze, I’m sorry. I’m sorry that I didn’t believe you. It must be hard trying to bring back Shangrila.” &» Shangrila Group was rebuilt during the top three families’ reign and it was able to expand rapidly despite the pressure.

Now, it had grown into a conglomerate that had business in many fields.

It was as difficult as starting a company from scratch.

Darcy saw the bitterness behind it.

Kaze had achieved a lot with his hard work yet his efforts were never recognized by his family. He must be depressed.

Kaze held her hand and said with a smile, “Darcy, you overestimate me.

I’m just the chairman. The one running the company is Winnie.

Otherwise, I won’t have the time to accompany you every day.” Darcy felt relief and amused seeing his smile. She believed her worries were unnecessary.

In fact, she was jealous of him having so much time despite being the chairman of a company.

Leaving Adam and Tao behind, Kaze brought his family downstairs, where Deputy Mayor Caleb Leed was waiting for him.

“Darcy, hold on. I need to talk to him.” Kaze then went over to Caleb.

«Kaze made us all proud today! He’s Shangrila Group’s chairman! The son of the deputy mayor apologized and the other deputy mayor chatted with him as if he’s the new mayor.”

Agnes could barely control her grin.

Chapter 1040

Chapter 1040 Looking for A Secretary Agnes could not stop praising Kaze from the moment she found out that he was the chairman of Shangrila Group.

“New mayor? Stop dreaming. I heard from Nelson that the new mayor might also be a young man and he might be a chief commander, or even a regional commander. It’s not something Kaze can become,” Agatha said, trying to diminish her sister’s confidence.

“Hmph. We’ll see about that,” Agnes said with an annoyed grunt.

“Mayor Lee, the city council is holding a city-wide press conference to commemorate distinctive media outlets, do you have the time to attend?” Caleb asked Kaze It was one of the bigger events in recent days, so he had to ask Kaze for instructions. Usually, trivial matters did not need to go through Kaze.

“I’ll check my schedule. If I have the time, I’ll attend. What else?” Kaze said.

“There’s also the matter about your new secretary.” Caleb explained, “What requirements do you have for a secretary? We dared not decide on our own.” Johnson’s secretary left before he even stepped down.

Since the secretary had to work closely with the mayor, Caleb and the others dared not simply intervene, hence asking Kaze’s opinion.

«Oh, just don’t get one of the guys from the office. You can decide for me I’m okay with it. I’m just the acting mayor for now,” Kaze said casually.

«I understand. That’s all for now, mayor.” Caleb believed he understood Kaze’s meaning.

If Kaze did not want someone from the city council’s office, then he must be looking at someone from outside the hierarchy.

Soon, the news of the mayor attending the commemoration event for distinctive media outlets and him looking for a new secretary spread across the city.
