Chapter 1041

Chapter 1041 You Are Dog At that very moment, Sherry decided to fight for the position.

However, she knew it was made possible by Moses.

Even though she wanted the position, she could not voice it.

She maintained her coquettish voice and said, "Daddy, you want me to do it again? That's the mayor, not the men I used to sleep with. Are you really going to send me away just like that?" Even though Sherry was Moses' sugar baby, Moses would send her to entertain other men for his own benefit and it was not the first time.

"Sherry, I'm doing this for your own good and I want you to have a bright future. I will use all my resources to get a chance for you to show yourself in front of the mayor. You have to come up with something to capture the mayor's attention.

"If you have any ideas at all, just talk to me," said Moses.

Both of them were hypocrites, sleeping with each other for their sexual and selfish gains.

Moses knew Sherry was a greedy and ambitious woman and his TV station could not cage her forever.

Therefore, he decided to send her to the mayor so he could seize some benefits for himself.

He did not have any scruples sending Sherry away because he had more than just one sugar baby.

"Thank you, Daddy. I already have an idea," Sherry said sweetly. Ea Her eyes narrowed coldly and viciously.

She thought of Kaze.

She could use him to create a buzz to capture the mayor's attention. SEARCH THE WEBSITE to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

After the call with Moses, she made another call to a mysterious number.

A while later, knocks came on her door.

A man covered in scars and injuries came in.

"Zenny? What happened to you?" I Sherry was shocked.

She had known Zenny for a while now.

When Zenny's father was still in power, she slept with him for her own gains.

Now that their positions swapped, Sherry had nothing but contempt and disdain for the man.

"It's that bastard Kaze Lee! Sherry, I need your help! I need your influence in the news! I want revenge! I want Kaze Lee and Winnie dead!" Zenny shouted furiously.

Sherry crossed her arms and looked at the miserable man with disdain.

She sat on her bed and scoffed, "You want me to help you get revenge? Sure.

You can lick my foot clean."

Thump! Zenny knelt without a second thought and went over to lick Sherry's foot like a dog.

"You are just like a dog." Sherry grinned as Zenny licked her toe; seeing herself in Zenny when she pleased other men for her personal gains.

Meanwhile, a meeting was going on at the Otter family's mansion.

"Father, I suggest we let Agnes return." A man with a lock of white hair spoke to the head of the family, Caster Otter.

The man who spoke was Alex Otter, the second-generation head of the family and Darcy's eldest uncle.

"Why? No!" Adam voiced his disagreement angrily as he walked in suddenly.

His trip to Lilyrose was nothing short of embarrassment and frustration.

Alex glanced at his younger brother and said, "Adam, I don't care how you used to do things but this is it.

"Agnes' family isn't broke anymore.

Darcy owns Quartet Group and Sky Ocean Corporation. As for her husband, he's the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm and the chairman of Shangrila Group.

"Do you have any idea how big these companies are? They can catapult our status to the next level!"

Chapter 1042 A Helping Hand A wealthy family must be resourceful; it was not just about the money.

Having only money without corresponding foundations and resources would be dangerous as others could devour the family with ease.

Alex suggested this because he wanted the Otter family to take Agnes and Darcy's family seriously.

After all, Kaze and Darcy were barely thirty years old, yet they had achieved so much. They would certainly have a bright future.

"Because of Kaze, Darcy's family is being pressured by the Lee family, but if they can overcome this, no one can stop them in the future.

"Giving them a helping hand at their worst is always better than ~~ congratulating them when they succeed. We can start preparing, and once Darcy and her family rise to power, the Otter family will benefit from it," Alex said.

He was not biased toward Darcy and her family; he was simply considering the best path for the Otters.

Caster leaned back on his chair with his eyes closed as he listened and pondered his son's words.

A while later, he opened his eyes.

“Alex is right. We shall bring Agnes back, but... don’t make any announcements. Just tell Agnes alone.

want to see how Kaze and the Lee family react.” “Wise move, Father,” Alex praised.

With that, the Otters would be able to offer help without cutting off their escape route if things went south. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

If Darcy and her family were destroyed by the Lee family, the Otters would not end up opposing the Lee family either.

Adam hated Kaze to the bones but since his father had given the word, he was forced to accept it.

“Adam, go tell Agnes. Apologize to her.

We are family, just put the beef aside,” Caster said.

“Fine.” Adam reluctantly nodded.

The next morning at Horizon Mirror.

“Darcy! Darcy!” Agnes screamed excitedly with her phone in her hand.

When Darcy came over, she said, “Adam just called and apologized and he said your grandfather has agreed to let me return to the Otter family! It has been so many years! Father finally recognized me as one of his children...” Agnes was overjoyed. She hugged Darcy as tears rolled down her eyes.

Darcy barely felt anything because she had no good impression of the Otters, though she felt happy for her mother.

Agnes cried countless times over the years because she was disowned by her father and Darcy saw how tormenting it was.

When Agnes calmed down, she called Kaze over.

“Kaze, you’re my lucky star. What do you want to eat today? I’ll cook for you.” Agnes knew that it was all because of Kaze that her father agreed to let her return and her youngest brother called her just to apologize.

Shangrila Group had been expanding rapidly in the medical field.

The Otters' family business heavily invested in the medical field and several members of the family were doctors.

Due to that, they were forced to take Kaze seriously.

Agnes looked at Kaze in a different light now.

"I'm fine with anything," Kaze smiled.

Agnes finally stopped giving him a hard time.

Darcy and he were happy.

Agnes prepared a feast in the afternoon.

Agatha's family, including Nelson, were also there to dine with them.

Nelson treated Kaze better now and even drank with him.

The two families had a great lunch together and Kaze somehow became the topic of conversation.

Darcy suddenly asked, "Kaze, Miru said you represented Hudson Investment Firm and had an interview with the TV station's financial segment, am I right?"

Chapter 1043

Chapter 1043 Exclusive Interview Aired - "Yeah, I did it yesterday." Kaze nodded. Had Darcy not mentioned, he would have forgotten all about it.

Agnes smiled brightly and said, "Kaze, you are going to be on TV? Why didn't you tell me? "Sky, turn on the TV! Kaze is on TV!" Agnes nudged Sky, who was eating, to turn on the TV.

The interview segment during the financial primetime always had a high viewership rating.

Following the familiar introduction of the segment, Sherry the news anchor appeared on the screen.

“Good evening. Today’s interview guest is a young yet successful man. A person who has achieved many great things in different fields.” As a professional news anchor, Sherry was good at her job. She spoke fluently and started the segment in a clear and captivating manner.

She continued, “We would like to welcome a young entrepreneur in Lilyrose. He hasn’t hit thirty yet he is already the CEO of a billion-dollar investment firm. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“please welcome the new CEO of Hudson Investment Firm, Kaze Lee!” Following Sherry’s introduction, the scene switched and showed Kaze coming out in a handsome suit.

He shook hands with Sherry and then sat down on the couch confidently.

Everyone in the house glued their eyes to the screen.

“Kaze! You look so good!” “Kaze! I’ll tell everyone that you are my brother-in-law!” Rose and Sky were thrilled, more excited than Kaze himself.

“Kaze, you’re amazing! I’m twice your age but I have never been on TV!” Agnes was delighted as well.

Darcy held Kaze’s hand under the table. Her eyes teared up.

Kaze had been called useless for many years and now he finally made it.

After today, no one in Lilyrose would call him useless anymore. Ri “Welcome, Mr. Lee. Thank you for joining us in this exclusive interview.” Sherry smiled and asked, “Theard you married into your wife’s family, is that true?” Kaze nodded.

Everyone before the TV screen was slightly annoyed by the question.

Why would the interviewer ask such an unprofessional question? It was an interview segment about financial news, and knowing Kaze’s personal affairs contributed nothing to the segment.

“That’s right.” Kaze nodded nonchalantly.

Everyone was relieved.

They believed Kaze was confident enough to face anyone and he did not mind anyone learning his past.

Maybe because he was already successful, his bitter past became an encouraging story that he could share with the audience.

Everyone continued watching, but the more they watched, the stranger the interview got.

Sherry's questions strayed from the main subject.

"your wife, Darcy Quint, is the chairwoman of Quartet Group and Sky Ocean Corporation, am I right?"

"That's right." "You have no status in your family.

Your mother-in-law urged your wife to divorce you." "Correct." "You have another identity, which is the chairman of Shangrila Group. The late chairman of Shangrila Group, James White, was your best friend, am I right?" "That's true." "But you got too close with his widow, Winnie Souffle, and someone said you were having an affair with her. Is that true?" "Yes » "you became the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm through nepotism. It was your wife who made it happen, yet you cheated on her behind her back?"

Chapter 1044

Chapter 1044 Pity Zenny The interview became a question-and- answer segment.

Everyone in Horizon Mirror was shocked and speechless as the interview progressed.

"This is the end of our interview. I believe it's clear what kind of person Kaze Lee is. He is a disgusting and filthy liar.

"We also have a witness here with us who can verify everything Kaze Lee said, so the audience doesn't question the authenticity of the interview.

Please, Mr. Zenny Soup, what do you have to say about Kaze Lee?" Sherry spoke righteously in front of the camera as she cued Zenny.

The scene switched to Zenny immediately, showing his miserable and injured state. = “Shangrila Group was originally James and Winnie’s company. Winnie is also my wife, yet Kaze Lee had an affair with her to get the company and ruined our marriage.

“Winnie is trying to divorce me and take everything I have. I went to reason with them but Kaze Lee beat me up.

This is unfair! Kaze Lee is a monster! A cancer to society!” Zenny pretended to be the victim to win people’s sympathy.

The TV program continued but the dining table was dead silent. Everyone was frozen by the news.

Agnes grabbed the remote control and switched the TV off. She could not bear watching anymore.

After a few deep breaths, she glared at Kaze and bellowed, “Kaze, is it true? Are you having an... with Winnie?” She could not bear using the word “affair” in front of her daughter.

Kaze sighed helplessly. He did not expect Sherry to backstab him so blatantly.

He did not care what people said about him but Darcy and her family cared.

If it was verified, Darcy and her family would lose face and they would be humiliated publicly.

Agnes almost broke down in tears.

She slammed the table and bellowed, Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“Kaze, if this is true, I don’t care whether you are some CEO or chairman, you are leaving this house! “Darcy is kind to you. She defied all odds and protected you. If you betray her, I will strangle you with my bare hands.” Even though Agnes was happy with Kaze’s current achievements, if Kaze cheated on Darcy, she would never accept him.

“Mother, it’s not real. That woman framed me,” Kaze said seriously.

“Don’t you dare lie to me! When the news anchor questioned you about the affair, you admitted it!” “Darcy, please believe me.” Kaze knew he could not reason with A/G

Agnes now that she was swooped by rage, so he looked to Darcy.

Darcy was surprisingly calm. She said to her mother, "Mom, calm down. This interview is pre-recorded and they might have edited Kaze's answers to frame him." Kaze nodded happily.

Darcy never let him down at critical moments.

She was smart enough to see through Sherry's tricks.

The interview was recorded yesterday.

Kaze clearly remembered Sherry asking him some questions but he never really answered them and simply brushed her off.

Some of the questions she asked on T'V were never posed during the interview.

It was recorded after the interview just to frame Kaze and damage his reputation.

Chapter 1045

Chapter 1045 Darcy's Support Agnes was still skeptical. "Darcy, you trust him? What if it's real? We saw him and Winnie together at the city council lounge yesterday and he was holding her. They looked intimate." Now that she recalled what happened, Agnes realized what was going on.

She strongly believed Kaze was having an affair with Winnie and she felt bad for her daughter.

"Mom, Winnie was drunk. Kaze was just being nice." Darcy trusted Kaze without a doubt.

"And, I believe Kaze because that news anchor, Sherry Zauer, got into a huge argument with us at Nobel Hotel two days ago." A hint of disgust appeared on Darcy's face. She said, "Given her character, it's not surprising that he would try to get back at us in such a filthy way." Darcy was disgusted by Sherry's attitude and personality, therefore she believed Kaze from the very start.

Despite her clarity about the incident, she was still worried. "But now we have a big problem at hand. The TV station is influential, especially the financial news segment. The content they release is rarely doubted.

“As the news spreads, if we aren’t able to clarify this matter, it will affect our reputation. Kaze is okay but I’m worried about Winnie since she’s alone with her daughter now.”

Darcy sighed. After experiencing similar incidents multiple times, her mentality has grown stronger.

She was afraid that Winnie might be affected and decided to take extreme measures.

Agnes pouted. “Why are you worried about Winnie now?” Kaze then called Winnie. “Winnie, did you see the interview?” Winnie calmly answered, “I did. Don’t worry, Mr. Chairman. I’ve endured a lot back when James took his own life due to the pressure and comments. I won’t do anything stupid. They expect me to fail, but I won’t. I still have Brenda. I will try to contact Zenny and find out what is going on.” Kaze breathed a sigh of relief.

However, he was not optimistic about Zenny revealing the truth.

The man worked with Sherry to frame him on TV, he was obviously hellbent about getting revenge.

“Do your best in finding him but don’t put too much hope in it. I’ll do what I can.” Kaze then hung up the call.

Rose then said hurriedly, “Kaze, hurry up and think of a solution. You are resourceful and capable, you can do anything! You can do this.” The girl was furious knowing that Sherry framed him.

Darcy frowned and said, “I’ll try to use my connections to contact the TV station’s director and tell them to clarify the situation. Only they have the S~earch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

power to make things clear now.

“If that won’t work, we can sponsor the TV station and get ourselves a slot to clarify things.” It was the only solution Darcy could think of now.

“Darcy, don’t worry. You carry on with work as usual. Don’t fret it. I’ll deal with them. They are just ants. They won’t do anything crazy,” Kaze said.

Everyone was surprised by Kaze’s unusual confidence.

Even Hector, who rarely talked, spoke and said, “Kaze, don’t underestimate Sherry Zauer. She’s beautiful and also capable. In just two short years, she became the primetime news anchor.

She must have a strong background.

“She might be the news anchor now but she might have connections to £ stronger and more powerful people behind her.”

Chapter 1046

Chapter 1046 The Otters Exploit Darcy warned Kaze not to drop his guard. “Dad is right, Kaze. Don’t underestimate Sherry.

- “She has the looks and finesse to get men to help her when it comes down to it.” Darcy was worried that Kaze’s position as the chairman of Shangrila Group and CEO of Hudson Investment would inflate Kaze’s ego.

If only Kaze had the influence to make the network cancel the show from airing and announce a public apology.

However, the matter would not be an easy fix.

Darcy contacted some of her friends in the media.

“Ms. Quint, I could’ve helped you if the episode hadn’t been aired, but your issue isn’t Sherry now that the interview is out.

. “The network would be discrediting itself by admitting to defamation. Plus, if it is verified that they have published fake news, the producers, distributors, and network leaders will have to pay I for their mistakes.

“Even if the higher-ups in the network aren’t pleased with Sherry’s approach, they will never step forward and take the blame.

“These people are willing to pay a huge price to protect their honor. They will never yield.” Darcy’s friends in the media all shook their heads.

Even the network bosses Darcy engaged with during the publicity of Mountain Dew Estate expressed that their hands were tied.

. Darcy sighed helplessly. She had run out of options.

“Let’s try and figure something out, Kaze.” She pinned her hope on Kaze as he always made a breakthrough when it mattered the most.

He might have a solution.

Nevertheless, the negative consequence of the broadcast came before they could reach a workaround.

Agnes got a call from Adam.

“You have a loser son-in-law, Agnes.

“You try everything to make him look good, but he’s a hopeless case.

“He lives off Darcy and cheated on her . with another woman. Can you believe his affair makes the news? “Haha. You will be a disgrace to the family if you ever come back to us.” Adam then hung up.

Agnes stood there in silence with the phone in hand for a moment before returning to her seat on the sofa. Tears streamed down her cheeks. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

As Darcy stood by Kaze unwaveringly, Agnes got over the initial shock, put her grudge aside, and resolved to

While nothing concrete came up, Kaze was relieved. » He felt angry and bad for Agnes.

“Don’t worry, Agnes. I will make the Otters invite you back to the family with open arms soon.” Another phone call came in.

The call was from an unknown number, so Kaze did not want to pick it up. However, the caller was insistent, making several calls continuously. In the end, Kaze took the call.

Once the line was connected, he realized the caller was Sherry.

“Did you watch the broadcast, Kaze? Were you taken aback by your cowardice?

“Do you know that you are public enemy No. 1 now? “We were bombarded by calls just minutes into the interview. The viewers want me to follow up on a news report and uphold justice.

“Haha. I bet you didn’t see this coming, Mr. CEO of Hudson Investment Firm and Mr. Chairman of Shangrila Group.” On the other end of the line, Sherry snickered with delight.

It turned out she hounded Kaze on the phone to take digs at him.

“Sherry, aren’t you thinking too highly of yourself?” Kaze asked indifferently.

Chapter 1047

Chapter 1047 Impact “I’m still the CEO of Hudson ~~ Investment Firm and the chairman of Shangrila Group. My wife still has the utmost trust in me, and she’s helping me to come up with solutions. My life is unaffected.” “Haha...” Sherry sneered, “Hang on tight, Lee.

This is just the beginning.” “Now, your wife will be the subject of mockery because of you.

“Winnie will be condemned for being a homewrecker too.

“As for you, it won’t take long before you become internet famous.

“Once your wife’s and your companies go bust, you can take a job as an influencer with your newfound fame and sell products online. Shouldn’t you thank me? “If you want to fix things, the solution is simple, really. Just kneel outside the network and lick my shoes clean in public.

“Otherwise, I will make you the biggest joke on the internet.” While talking, Sherry giggled uncontrollably.

Intelligence was just as effective as brute force to take down the enemy.

The power to sway public opinion and destroy an individual’s reputation was a drug that was hard to quit.

Besides, Sherry wanted to ruin Kaze, the man who once made her kneel and lick his shoes.

The thrill of revenge made Sherry shudder to the core with excitement.

However, Kaze remained unfazed.

“Here’s a word of advice, Sherry. Don’t count your chickens before they hatch.” Kaze added with a faint smile, “You never know. You could be the one licking my shoes.” “Are you in dreamland, Lee?" Sherry said contemptuously, "Since you're too stubborn to see your errors, I will show you the power of the media.

"I will expose every dirty secret your D4 aria Abad family has.

"I can talk about the Sunrise Lees disowning you or your mother-in-law's medical mishap.

"I will make your family the scum of the earth! "Your mother-in-law won't be able to get groceries without getting rotten eggs thrown at her.

"Just you wait, Kaze. I will make your family grovel at my feet for forgiveness.

"Hahaha!" Click! As the woman laughed hysterically on the phone, Kaze hung up on her.

Sherry had crossed the line.

Now, she must pay.

Kaze had nothing to say to the woman.

That afternoon, Kaze went to work at Hudson Investment Firm like nothing ever happened.

Kaze noticed something amiss when he arrived at the office.

The senior executives gave Kaze strange looks, no longer nodding at him with respect like before.

"What's up?" Kaze asked with a frown.

However, he had an idea of what was going on.

"Nothing, Mr. Lee. You should pay attention to the bad press. Someone has made a false claim about you, so I

They heard that Kaze became the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm through his wife's connections and even seized control of Shangrila Group.

Their attitude toward Kaze shifted.

However, they did not rush to insult Kaze.

They had learned their lesson after the incident with Jem.

However, some other regular employees had no clue what Kaze did to Jem.

Several employees came in Kaze's way when he was on his way up the stairs.

"The firm's reputation is damaged because of you, Kaze. I can't believe you have the nerve to show your face at work."

Chapter 1048

Chapter 1048 Suspension "You stole your buddy's inheritance and had an affair with his wife. You sure have no shame, Kaze!" "You're just a loser who became the CEO because your wife pulled some strings. You're a scumbag. You make the company look bad." "That's right. Hudson Investment Firm is a multibillion-dollar business.

We are about to make a splash in the market, and the last thing we need is for you to ruin things for us." The group of employees yelled at Kaze with their fingers up his nose.

Some were jealous of Kaze's good fortune while others could not stand to watch him ruin the company.

Lo MAG Ad Given that they were elites in the financial world, the employees would not have a hard time finding another job.

They were more concerned about the company's development because the profits were lucrative if they could manage just one investment proposal.

As Kaze destroyed the company's reputation, the employees lashed out at him, even though he was the CEO.

They had experience under their belt, so they would be successful either way.

Kaze stood there calmly, knowing his explanation would not go anywhere.

The door to the elevator opened.

Jennifer, the deputy manager, walked out with several senior executives. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

She frowned helplessly before pulling a straight face. She said curtly, "Mr. Lee, Ms. Scarlet got word from the headquarters to suspend you from your duties as the CEO.

"Before the dust settles, you can stay put in the company as a regular employee." Kaze kept his cool, but the employees were not having it.

"Why? The jerk is only suspended from his CEO duties, but he gets to stay in the company. What is Ms. Scarlet thinking?" "It's just a slap on the wrist. Why isn't there consideration for the betterment of the company?" The employees objected.

Jennifer glanced around and uttered coldly, "Get back to work. Don't just believe everything you hear." \ In just two days, Jennifer built prestige in the company.

Despite their reluctance, the employees dispersed.

Jennifer approached Kaze with a frown and said, "Ms. Scarlet wanted me to pass a message. She knows that you were framed. She suspended you temporarily to appease the employees.

"She has her own stress. She needs to show the boss at Perfect World Group that the company is profitable."

The boss referred to the chairman of Perfect World Group, a.k.a him.

Kaze did not know how to react.

He himself was the reason he was suspended.

"Alright. Got it." Kaze nodded.

Jennifer added, "Ms. Scarlet mentioned that we can figure out a way to let the matter rest. You will be reinstated as CEO once that happens.

"Now tell me. What on earth happened between you and Sherry?" Kaze shook his head. "Nothing much. I crossed a bitch. That's all.

"Stay out of this. I will handle the matter."

Kaze then walked off.

He was better off leaving the place as if everybody at Hudson Investment Firm was against him.

“Where are you going?” Jennifer exclaimed in surprise behind him.

“To the mayor’s office.” Kaze disappeared at the door.

Jennifer furrowed her brows and shook her head. “You’re hopeless. What’s the point of counting on those people at the mayor’s office? They are only with you through thick and not thin.

“I doubt they will help you.” Jennifer was baffled by Miru’s tolerance toward Kaze.

Kaze was incompetent, making a fool of himself at an interview. He had BRE a damaged the firm’s reputation.

Even though Kaze was the husband of Miru’s best friend, she did not have to put up with his shit.

Chapter 1049

Chapter 1049 A Small Meetup Kaze walked out of Hudson Investment Firm and arrived at the mayor’s office.

As soon as he sat himself down on a chair, Lou knocked on the door and entered the office.

“Mr. Mayor, each unit sent its representatives to the commendation conference for journalists.

“Before that, the mayor’s office will organize a small meetup.

“Take a look at the list, Mr. Mayor. Do you want to meet with them? Are you pleased or unhappy with any of them?” Lou asked with respect. SEARCH the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Kaze took a sip of water and looked at Lou with a pretentious smile. “Don’t tell me the meetup is set up, especially for me, Lou.” The selection of candidates for outstanding journalism was done before Johnson left.

By right, Kaze only needed to attend \ the ceremony on the day and make a speech.

Kaze had flipped through the report before, and there was no mention of a meetup as part of the procedures.

He knew that Lou only organized the meetup to suck up to him.

Lou was handing over the power to select candidates to Kaze so Kaze would decide the ones to his liking.

Kaze always had leeway in making decisions.

Nothing could escape Kaze's eye. Lou smiled embarrassedly.

"Mr. Mayor, since you're new to the position, I wanted you to review this list in case there are any outstanding issues," he replied.

"It's okay, Lou. Just go with what was decided before. You don't need to do anything for me.

"Just do your job. I'm not a petty man," Kaze said with a grin while flipping through the name list.

Soon, a familiar name entered Kaze's sight.

"Oh, Sherry Zauer. Is she up for the award for journalism?" Lou's mind was put at ease, only to feel unrest again.

Sherry was a well-known pretty face in the media. Lou wondered if Kaze was interested in her, or if they were having an affair already.

"Do you know her, Mr. Mayor?" he asked.

Lou added, "Sherry has been the anchor of the local financial news for years. She's an outstanding journalist, and her segments have always been high in TV ratings.

"She is attending the meetup as a candidate. She's waiting outside in the lobby. Should I call her in?" Lou asked.

Kaze grinned without a word.

Sherry sure had powerful connections to be awarded for her outstanding work in journalism for many years.

Out in the lobby of the city council, the candidates for excellent journalism waited to meet the mayor.

Those who worked in the media were young and beautiful.

As a steady anchor of the local network, Sherry stood out in the crowd.

A group of men hovered around Sherry, paying her lots of attention and compliments.

The women watched with jealousy as Sherry stood arrogantly, not giving any man the time of day.

Sherry set her sights on fine men like the chairman of Perfect World Group and the new mayor. These mediocre men did not deserve her attention.

She was excited at the prospect of meeting the new mayor.

Just then, she received a text message from a friend.

Kaze was suspended from his job at Hudson Investment Firm. I

Chapter 1050

Chapter 1050 Secretary to the Mayor's Office - "Hahaha!" Sherry burst out laughing when she read the message.

She could not believe that Kaze was suspended from his job.

It had only been three hours since the interview was aired. The effects came quickly.

"Kaze, a suspension isn't enough.

"This is just the beginning. Your wife and parents-in-law are next.

"I will show you what hell is.

"This is the price you pay for crossing me."

A fulfilling feeling washed over her.

Sherry was thrilled, to say the least.

Her face beamed with joy.

“Did something good happen, Sherry? You look happy.” “Share the news with us.” Seeing an opportunity to chat her up, the men surrounding her asked curiously.

Back to her reserved persona, Sherry said indifferently, “Did you watch the interview I hosted? “I just received a text message that the guy I exposed on the show, Kaze, has been suspended from his work.

“I feel like I have done my part in the media to get the scumbag what he deserves.

“I feel so happy.” Sherry would not admit that she was glad to get her revenge on Kaze.

She switched to a high-sounding tone, making herself look justified. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“T watched the segment. It’s satisfying to see the scumbag’s true colors revealed in public.” “Since Kaze has power and connections, it must take you a lot of courage to expose him, Sherry. We should all learn from you.” “We’re living in an era where money takes precedence. You don’t see many people fighting for justice like Sherry anymore.” “We should buy you dinner, Sherry.

I’m sure there’s a lot we can learn from you.” A few men sucked up to Sherry, even proposing a dinner plan.

They tried to get close to Sherry. For all they knew, they could even get intimate with her.

ump M q I’m buying everybody meals after meeting the mayor,” Sherry said generously as she was in a good mood.

Roland West, the chief secretary of the local council, drew close.

“Is the mayor coming to meet us, sir?” The group encircled him. Even Sherry asked ingratiatingly.

Roland was a fairly high-ranking officer in Lilyrose and the organizer of the meetup. No one would want to upset him.

The people might miss the chance to meet the mayor if they got on Roland’s bad books.

Roland said with a smile, “The mayor has arrived, but he must be busy at work. He might make time to meet you later.

“But he is a busy man, so he doesn’t have a lot of time. Seize the opportunity when you can.

“Maybe one of you will become the future secretary to the mayor’s office.” Roland courteously gave guidance to the group.

He knew Caleb had been searching for a suitable secretary for Kaze.

The group of people were pillars in their field.

They had the right image and competence.
