Chapter 1051

Chapter 1051 An Assertive Man With that in mind, Sherry approached Roland, a trace of her fragrance lingering in the air.

“Can you drop us a little hint about the mayor, sir? We don’t want to upset him without knowing it,” Sherry said coyly.

The sultry in her innocence was like a drug to men.

Roland gasped sharply and pulled himself together before uttering with a smile, “You’re right. I should at least give you the heads up.

“But I don’t know a lot about the mayor. I do know that he’s young. He hasn’t hit his 30s yet.

“He got things done the moment he S~earch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

took office.

“You must have heard about Noah Moor, Lou’s son, getting sacked from his job at the Ministry of Health and Welfare.

“The deputy mayors now have the utmost respect for him,” Roland said.

It was no secret that the new mayor was in his twenties.

However, Roland did reveal a key piece of information.

The termination of Noah and the other mid-level superiors rocked the community last night.

There was a new sheriff in town.

Following the appointment of the new mayor, the deputy mayor’s son was fired.

Besides, the two deputy mayors were glad to submit to him.

All signs suggested the new mayor was a well-connected and assertive leader.

Sherry's eyes sparkled.

She found men with strong personalities challenging.

Sherry believed only she had what it took to get close to the mayor.

She had the assets to get men wrapped around her little finger.

It was the chance of a lifetime, and she was hanging onto it.

The man was a mayor before he reached his thirties, and that fact alone proved he was destined for greatness.

It would only do her good by nailing that man.

Sherry took a deep breath before excusing herself to the washroom. She needed to powder her nose.

She decided to present her best side to the new mayor later.

Sherry soon walked out of the ladies' room and saw a young man, flanked by a group, coming from the corridor outside the reception area.

"Stop chatting. The mayor is here." Roland hushed the chatting candidates.

Was that the new mayor? Sherry stood outside the washroom from afar, unable to get a clear look at the new mayor's face. She could tell he was young and familiar.

With a smile on her face, she drew close to the crowd but kept a bit of distance from them.

The position would make her stand out without being too conspicuous.

Roland left the group and said from afar, "Hello there, Mr. Mayor. The candidates for the exemplary award are here." "Oh." Kaze stopped in his tracks and glanced in the direction of the reception area.

He beckoned Roland over. "Come here, Roland." The group standing at the entrance to the reception area watched while holding their breaths nervously and anticipatngly.

They had met a lot of VIPs in their lifetime. Yet for some reason, it was hard to look the new mayor in the eye.

The new mayor possessed a commanding presence.

Only Sherry kept a close eye on the corridor.

The figure looked familiar, so she wondered if she had met him before.

She had crossed paths with too many men to put a finger on who he was.

However, she believed she had a better chance of getting to know the mayor better.

Then, a shocking thing happened.

“What’s going on?”

Chapter 1052

Chapter 1052 Nasty Piece of Work The mayor was supposed to meet with the candidates. Yet, he took off.

Sherry and the others were dumbfounded.

With the mayor showing up and suddenly walking away, the group was left to wonder if they attended the meetup for nothing.

Nevertheless, they kept their thoughts to themselves, not showing their annoyance on their faces.

Sherry was disappointed.

Without the mayor in sight, she could not unleash her irresistible charms.

Roland returned on his own.

“Sir, does the mayor have an emergency?” Sherry hid her disappointment behind her smile and asked.

Roland scanned the group with a grimace and said curtly, "The mayor said that someone among you is a mean, indecent, nasty piece of work who would do anything to get a head start.

"He doesn't want to be pulled into a scandal with the individual, so he canceled the meetup.

"The mayor also said that this individual is a disgrace to be nominated for the award for exemplary work.

"In light of that, the commendation ceremony is suspended.

"The ceremony will happen after the said individual is removed from the lineup." Roland conveyed the mayor's message.

The male candidates turned to the women there.

It was clear that the mayor was referring to one of the female candidates.

Sherry looked at the other women and said peevishly, "Thanks for ruining it for the rest of us.

"Who is the mean, indecent, nasty piece of work here? Don't waste everybody's time." Sherry acted bossy, unaware that she was a nasty piece of work.

She was good at keeping things confidential. Most men who got together with her believed she was a woman of virtue.

The mayor could not possibly be talking about her.

Some female candidates were embarrassed and furious while others kept a blank face. However, no one stepped forward.

"Alright. Since none of you are admitting to it, you can return to your post and look into the matter yourself.

"The award will only be held when the truth comes to light." Roland stormed off furiously.

Sherry panicked.

Her intention was to get close to the new mayor. The award for exemplary journalism did not matter to her.

Sherry chased after Roland and stood in his way before saying with a smile, "I am the anchor of the financial channel, Sherry Zauer, sir. I lead the segment on interviewing business leaders.

"Can I meet the mayor? I have something important to tell him." Roland glanced at Sherry skeptically wondering if the mayor was talking about this woman.

He uttered coldly, "The mayor has a busy schedule. I doubt your talk is more important than his work.

"The mayor has made it clear that he won't meet any of you until the individual is caught.

"Please leave now. I don't want the indecency to spread in the mayor's office." Roland called the staff members over to kick the group out.

The employees in the mayor's office did not give Sherry special treatment and denied her entry as well.

Sherry stomped her foot in rage, but there was nothing she could do about it. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

The new mayor was a strong character who did not play favorites.

No one was foolish enough to go against the new mayor's orders.

Chapter 1053

Chapter 1053 Leave Kaze With Nothing fo "Are we going for lunch later, Sherry?" Outside the mayor's office, a male candidate handed Sherry a bag ingratiatingly.

Sherry left her bag in the building when the group was kicked out.

"I'm in no mood for lunch." Sherry snatched her bag and walked away, unbothered to play the sweet and gracious woman.

She was beautiful and the headliner of the network, always the center of attention wherever she went.

Yet today, she was thrown out of the

I mayor's office.

Though a storm raged within her, Sherry dared not act on her anger.

It was the fault of the nasty piece of work who ruined things for her.

Sherry was determined to figure out a plan to meet with the new mayor. She had to win his heart.

"There you are, Sherry. Here, have a drink." Zenny scrubbed the floorboard in a residence.

He hobbled to get Sherry a glass of water when he saw her.

Afraid of Kaze's revenge, Zenny stayed put in Sherry's home and waited for the woman on hand and foot.

Kaze could never guess that he was taking cover in Sherry's home anyway.

"Get lost!" Livid, Sherry kicked Zenny away and slammed the door into the bedroom.

Zenny was penniless, so he needed Sherry's help to pay for the divorce lawyer.

He was less than human to her.

«Bitch! Once I get the shares to Shangrila Group, I will make you serve me on your knees!" Staring at the closed door of the bedroom, Zenny swore he would make her pay.

Sherry dumped her bag to the side and sprawled across the bed with a feeling of annoyance washing over her.

She needed some entertainment to feel better.

Kaze, the loser, was the perfect punching bag.

With that in mind, Sherry felt motivated to grab the phone and make several calls.

As the pillar of the network, she had extensive connections in the media.

She contacted her friends in the media.

Not long later, the video and pictures of Kaze's interview were shared by the local media.

The interview picked up some digital footprints in chat groups.

All dirt on Kaze as the Quints' son-in-law was exposed.

Even the rumors of how he relied on his wife to become the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm, and how he seduced Winnie to steal his buddy's inheritance were spread far and wide.

These rumors were not new.

However, Kaze's response on Sherry's show validated the facts and attracted mass attention.

The spread quickly gained momentum.

Shangrila Group and Hudson Investment Firm, directly linked to Kaze, bore the brunt of public criticism and boycott.

Hudson Investment Firm was able to hold up because not many investors would pull out their money due to a scandal.

Shangrila Group was a different story.

Kaze and Winnie's affair damaged the reputation of Shangrila Group.

Winnie was bombarded with calls, and many called her a shameless homewrecker. Furious, Winnie turned off her phone.

Meanwhile, it was tough for Darcy too.

She received many calls.

Most of the calls were courtesy calls.

The majority of the callers were Darcy's friends and partners of Quartet Group and Sky Ocean Corporation.

Only, these people persuaded her to take Kaze to court and leave him with nothing after the divorce. They wanted her to give the jerk what he deserved.

Darcy's explanation fell on deaf ears. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Her friends, in turn, persuaded Darcy not to be too kind as Kaze was unfaithful to her.

Chapter 1054

Chapter 1054 Loser with No Self- Respect Annoyed by her good-natured friends, Darcy turned off her phone.

«I thought Kaze said he could deal with the situation, but things are getting worse,” Darcy said with a pale face.

She was in Horizon Mirror Mansion, and the issue drained her.

«] told you a long time ago not to trust him.” Agnes was frustrated.

with the secret about Kaze's position in Shangrila Group out, Agnes planned to meet some old friends to brag about her good son-in-law.

Now, she was too ashamed to meet them. She could not bring herself to leave the house either.

The judging looks and backhanded comments seemed to follow her wherever she went.

«Kaze is the chairman of Shangrila Group and the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm. Yet, he can't handle a measly TV host. Is he incompetent or what, Darcy? «I think Kaze was scamming others under an alias associated with Shangrila Group.

«We all know how he got the position of CEO at Hudson Investment Firm.

“Hes just a loser with no self-respect.

«He's incompetent. Nothing has changed.” Although Agnes knew that Kaze was { vilified, she held resentment against him.

She could have returned to the arms of her family, but Kaze ruined it for her again.

Her renewed faith in Kaze was lost now.

«Now isn't the time to pick a bone with Kaze, Mom.» Not knowing how to defend Kaze, Darcy changed the subject. «I have thought it over. It's best to talk to Sherry to solve the issue.» She regretted letting Kaze snap back at Sherry the other night.

Darcy was angry at the time. With time to reflect on it, Darcy believed she could have just put up with Sherry's mean comments.

Sherry could be vicious when she wanted to.

Darcy believed she should just pay the price to stop Sherry from stirring up trouble.

Once enough time had passed, and everybody stopped talking about it, the family could just move on like nothing ever happened.

Darcy would not expect Sherry to get the interview retracted and make a public apology to clear the air. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Even so, Darcy knew that it would take a lot to make Sherry give up on making Kaze a fool.

with her mind made up, Darcy got Sherry's number from a friend and called her. } «Hello, am I speaking to Ms. Sherry Zauer from the local financial channel? I am Darcy Quint,» Darcy said courteously once the call connected.

Not wanting to rile Sherry up, she made no mention that they met before.

«A busy businesswoman like yourself calling me? Ms. Quint, to what do I owe the pleasure?» In the living room, Sherry, wearing sexy teddy lingerie, leaned on the couch and took a sip of wine while chatting on the phone with a smile.

Her long legs set upon the coffee table.

Zenny hovered over the couch and kneaded her legs.

To Sherry's surprise, Darcy clearly called to beg and plead.

Sherry got the thrill from Darcy's submission because Darcy's arrogance the other day did not go unnoticed.

Darcy handled Sherry's aggression with poise, making Sherry look like a fool.

Finally, Sherry felt superior to Darcy.

She asked with a drawl, "What can I do for you, Ms. Quint?"

Chapter 1055

Chapter 1055 Darcy Yields Darcy was ticked off because Sherry was clearly playing with her.

still, Darcy held it together and replied, "Ms. Zauer, I want to apologize because Kaze and I upset you.

"Quartet Group is happy to fund your program.

"Kaze has gotten his punishment and recognized his mistake.

"I hope you will see it in your heart not to take your anger out on our family," Darcy pleaded humbly.

"He has recognized his mistake?" Sherry sneered. "Ms. Quint, your husband didn't recognize his mistake when he made me kneel in public and lick his shoes.

"Tsk, tsk. This is when karma claps back.

"Besides, you are an entrepreneur representing all the women in the city, Ms. Quint. You're young and beautiful.

Why care about a loser? "You should just get rid of him. I'll introduce young, eligible bachelors to you. I can promise that these men are much better than your loser husband," Sherry mocked.

Sherry was not serious about introducing fine men to Darcy.

She was simply using the opportunity to humiliate Darcy. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Darcy was the one begging on her knees.

Holding back her repulse, Darcy responded, "Thank you for the offer, Ms. Zauer, but either way, Kaze and I are married.

"I hope you can give us a chance to make amends. Name your price, and I will try my best to fulfill it." "Can I ask for anything at all?" Sherry taunted, "I want Kaze to lick my shoes outside the network."

"He should get a taste of the humiliation as well." After a brief silence on the phone, Darcy said, "Could you name a different term, Ms. Zauer?" "I believe you want more than just getting back at Kaze."

"The interview did not reflect well on Kaze. You have gotten your revenge, so now it's time to earn something more than your pride."

"Don't you think so, Ms. Zauer?" Sherry smiled. She had to admit that she was swayed.

Hence, she replied with a smile, "I heard that you're in the chairman of Perfect World Group's good graces."

"If you could set up a meeting with me and the chairman, I could consider sparing Kaze."

"This request is non-negotiable." Sherry longed to meet the chairman of Perfect World Group.

She believed the new mayor did not want to meet her because she did not make enough effort to catch his eye.

An interview with the chairman of Perfect World Group would stir a huge commotion.

She was not opposed to getting a little intimate with the chairman during the meetup too.

Sherry was greedy. She wanted the new mayor and the chairman of Perfect World Group.

"Oh, alright. I'll try my best to make it happen." Seeing that Sherry refused to give any leeway in the negotiations, Darcy ended the call.

Darcy was in a dilemma.

The rumor had been going around that the chairman of Perfect World Group favored her and got her out of trouble several times.

Only she knew that she had not even met the chairman before.

The chairman's occasional assistance was merely a passing favor.

Chapter 1056

Chapter 1056 She Won't Leave Him Alone “Lefteria Group merged with Perfect World Group recently, so Miru might know the chairman.

“I guess I'll need her help.” After much consideration, Darcy gave Miru a call.

Miru was speechless to receive the call from Darcy.

She was embarrassed to tell her best friend that she had never met the chairman either.

Her multiple requests to meet the chairman had been denied.

Nevertheless, the incident with Kaze had repercussions for Darcy and Hudson Investment Firm, which was under Miru's care.

Miru replied, “Alright. I plan to meet the chairman later to give him an update on the situation. I could bring Sherry along.

“Just tell her to come straight to me.” Relieved, Darcy gave Sherry the news right away.

“you work fast, Ms. Quint. Since you are eager to resolve the issue, I will spare your loser husband after I meet with the chairman.” Sherry's promise gave Darcy's family a breather.

Thank goodness Sherry wanted something out of the deal, and Darcy happened to have some connection with the mysterious chairman of Perfect World Group.

Otherwise, Darcy could never come to a resolution with Sherry.

Meanwhile, Sherry settled down and put on makeup before getting in touch with Miru.

The two women arrived at Perfect World Group.

“What brings you here, Ms. Scarlet?” As always, Snow was responsible for receiving Miru. She glanced at Sherry, who was behind Miru, and frowned without a word.

Miru answered, “Ms. Frost, Hudson Investment Firm's profits took a hit because of the incident with Kaze.

“I hired him, so I should answer to the chairman about it.

“If you could ask the chairman to give me a chance to give him an update in person.” Sherry knew Miru was the chairman of Lefteria Group and the underworld kingpin of Lilyrose and Melrose.

Truth be told, Miru would not try to get even with a public figure like Sherry.

still, Sherry felt intimidated walking with her.

The last thing Sherry expected from Miru was total compliance with the chairman. Miru was even polite to the chairman’s assistant.

Unbeknownst to Sherry, Miru did not want to present herself in a subservient manner.

At first, Miru was confident. She thought about giving the chairman a chance to pursue her. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

However, the chairman would not even meet her during her multiple visits to Perfect World Group.

In other words, the chairman thought nothing of her.

Miru’s ego was bruised.

Snow knew the inside story. Holding back her laughter, she replied, “Alright, Ms. Scarlet. I’ll let the chairman know, but who is behind you?” She pretended to be oblivious to Sherry’s motive.

Miru responded, “She is Sherry Zauer, the anchor of the financial segment on a local network. She wants to meet the chairman to invite him to her show.” “Alright. I’ll ask the chairman.” Snow found Sherry hard to get rid of.

After the previous failed attempt to meet the chairman, Sherry somehow got through to Miru.

Snow turned away to make a phone call.

Sherry got on her tiptoes and peered into the fancy-looking chairman’s office while shaking with thrill.

If she could get together with the chairman even as a side piece, she would be showered with lots of wealth and privileges.

Snow soon returned.

“Did the chairman agree to meet me, Ms. Frost?” Sherry asked eagerly.

Without looking at Sherry, Snow turned to face Miru.

“The chairman said to kick her out.”

Chapter 1057

Chapter 1057 Unspeakable “The chairman said to kick her out.” Snow sounded harsh and repulsed.

She imitated Kaze’s tone on the phone.

Sherry was stunned, her face grimacing.

She could not believe the chairman would want her to leave.

That was impossible.

She was the pillar and star of the local network.

She was the woman of every man’s dream on screen.

The chairman could not possibly demand her to leave.

Snapping out of her trance, Sherry scoffed. “Ms. Frost, I bet the message didn’t come from the chairman. You must be jealous of me. You’re afraid of the chairman seeing me.” Sherry was convinced Snow was jealous of her.

Snow blew her off when she asked to see the chairman the last time.

Sherry believed she was denied access to the chairman because Snow came in the way.

“You are a sad woman, Ms. Frost. You stop every beautiful woman from seeing the chairman to safeguard your relationship with him.

“Tsk. You are so insecure.”

Believing her own story, Sherry looked at Snow pitifully.

Since the niceties were out the window, Sherry had nothing left to fear.

She wanted to stir a commotion huge enough to reach the chairman’s ears.

That way, the chairman would fire Snow.

“Sherry Zauer, right? The chairman said some pretty awful stuff about you.

“It’s so bad that as a woman, I can’t bring myself to say it.

“I’d advise you to leave Perfect World Group now. Don’t humiliate yourself.” Snow looked indifferently at Sherry like she was a fool.

Sherry did not believe Snow. Assuming Snow was gaslighting, she sneered.

“Why don’t you just tell me what the chairman said about me?” Snow furrowed her brows. The annoying woman was a handful.

Sherry said cockily, “What? Can’t make up a story? It’s okay. I’ll give you time to make one up.” “Why is it noisy out here, Snow?” A thick voice came from behind Snow.

“Mr. Forrester.” With Ray emerging from the office, Miru nodded at him as a greeting.

“Mr. Forrester!” Sherry gave a nod with a smile.

Ray, the richest man in Lilyrose, was the CEO of Perfect World Group.

Sherry was not surprised to see Ray there.

Snow replied emotionlessly, “Mr.

Forrester, the woman is causing a scene and refuses to leave. She wants me to convey what the chairman said exactly, but I can’t bring myself to say it) “Oh, so you’re the one the chairman was talking about.” Ray glanced at Sherry and said with a frown, “I was there when Snow gave the chairman a call. His choice of words could be better.

“Since Snow can’t say it, I’ll repeat what the chairman said.

“The chairman said that a dirty whore with too many body counts like you didn't deserve to see him.

"He told you to get lost. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"Do I need to repeat myself?" Miru furrowed her brows.

She finally realized why Snow was hesitant to recount the chairman's exact words.

The label was insulting to a woman.

Even though the whole thing had nothing to do with Miru, she did not feel comfortable with the language.

The elusive chairman would not even give Miru the time of the day.

Yet, he had such a low opinion of Sherry.

He must be disgusted by her.

Chapter 1058

Chapter 1058 Competence to Take Things Far Sherry stood there, dumbfounded.

She was in disbelief.

Sherry was the star of the local network, the woman of countless men's dreams. Yet, she was not worth the mention to the chairman of Perfect World Group.

That was not the only thing. She was trash who did not deserve to meet the chairman.

Sherry had no idea she was merely paying the price for her decision.

When she used her body as a weapon to climb her way to the top, she had cut off her path to join higher society.

No man was foolish.

Sherry was a woman to have fun with, not someone men would take home to make their wife.

Her future husband would not be better than a naive member of the nouveau riche.

As reality sunk in, Sherry said exasperatedly, "What's so great about your lame chairman anyway? "The nerve of him to make such a vile comment about me. I'll have my friends in the media to dig out dirt on him.

"Perfect World Group will have to pay for his crimes.

"Karma"s a bitch!" Losing her cool, Sherry shouted

Att dh hysterically.

The trio present gave Sherry sympathetic looks. ie Ray looked at Sherry and said with a smile, "You sure have a nasty personality, Ms. Zauer. Even the chairman is no threat to you.

"As an experienced old man, I thought I should give you a piece of advice.

"Before you take things too far, you should consider whether you have the competence to go there.

"Otherwise, you are just digging your own grave.

"Bye now. Don't let the door hit you on your way out." Ray did not take another look at Sherry.

ot wy TY OVUNUS He nodded at Miru and returned to his office.

Miru and Snow walked inside without sparing another glance at Sherry.

"Ms. Scarlet, the chairman isn't in his office today. You won't see him today," Snow told Miru.

"The chairman is a busy man. I understand." After the chairman's negative response to Sherry's presence, Miru knew better than to bring up meeting the chairman in person.

She inquired, "But Ms. Frost, did the chairman mention what to do with the woman?"

"Her segment has impacted the operation of Hudson Investment Firm.

"We are talking about funds close to 10 billion dollars at stake." She worried the incident with Sherry would cast a poor reflection on her in the chairman's eyes.

Snow replied, "The chairman said not to bother about it. The matter will be taken care of.

“The adverse publicity will blow over soon enough. It will take a bit of time because the incident is a good opportunity to resolve other issues.

“Sherry Zauer is just a nobody, so just let her be.” Miru nodded in a daze even though she had no idea who and what was involved. .

Outside the office, Sherry stood dumbfounded for a while. SEAR\*ch the FIndNØvel.NET website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Ray had given her a warning.

Perfect World Group was a giant she could not afford to mess with.

Hence, she focused her resentment on Darcy.

“How dare you play me a fool, bitch! I will ruin your family for the humiliation I faced. I will make you beg me on your knees!” Sherry pulled out her phone and called her friends in the media.

This time, her game was not limited to Lilyrose. She contacted all her connections in the South River State,

Chapter 1059

Chapter 1059 Sussed Soon, the media in the South River State reported on Kaze in great detail.

After the warning from Ray, Sherry did not target Hudson Investment Firm, a subsidiary of Perfect World Group.

The news report downplayed Kaze’s relationship with Hudson Investment Firm and focused on his affair with Winnie and his usurpation of Shangrila Group.

To capture the readers’ attention, Sherry revealed another dirt.

Agnes’ medical mishap which led to a girl’s fatal death was rolled out once more For that reason, Agnes would not even leave the house. A crowd stalked outside Skylar View District, demanding justice for the victim's family.

Agatha had been in touch with the Otters to put in the good word for Agnes.

She hoped the Otters would accept Agnes back into their lives again.

Following the news report, the Otters would not even take calls from Agatha anymore. It was as if they disappeared off the face of the earth.

Various media outlets even wrote that Agnes was disowned by the Otters after the medical mishap.

It was uncertain whether the source came directly from the Otters so as not to be linked to Agnes,

Agnes holed up at home all day in tears, treating Kaze worse by the day.

Darcy was upset to see Sherry destroying her family.

However, there was nothing she could do about it.

She had been trying to call Sherry, but the latter would not take her calls anymore.

The next day, Kaze had to escape to the mayor's office after the harsh berating from Agnes all morning.

"Mr. Mayor, we have some findings after you instructed the candidates to reflect on their behavior.

"A candidate for the exemplary award has been having an improper relationship with a senior officer. Both individuals have been terminated.

"Your words carry weight, Mr. Mayor.

We have gotten rid of the rotten apple in our system. It's a cause for celebration," Roland, the chief secretary, said gleefully.

Roland had been restless all night after Kaze canceled the meetup that he organized yesterday.

Equipped with good news, Roland wanted to share it with Kaze right away.

Kaze asked, "Oh? Which company are we talking about? Who are these people in question?" "It's Lilyrose Evening News. The journalist is Kristen Vincent and the government officer is Weslie Yves." Kaze raised a brow, not expecting more to be caught.

The nasty piece of work he talked about yesterday was not Kristen. At least, Kristen had been found out, though.

It was a good thing.

Nevertheless, Kaze asked with a frown, "Is that the only media outlet? What about Lilyrose TV Station?" "Mr. Mayor, the other media outlets, including the local network, have launched an investigation into their human resources and have found nothing wrong." Roland observed Kaze's expression,

He wondered if Kaze mentioned the local network because the name was easy to remember or because of other reasons.

"Oh." Kaze nodded emotionlessly.

The leaders of the local network had not given Sherry up.

A staff member knocked on the door and told Kaze, "Mr. Mayor, the candidates for the award have arrived. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

They requested to meet with you." Kaze grinned.

The group must have discovered Lilyrose Evening News' recent finding and thought that was the end of the matter.

They came to seek his audience.

He asked the employee, "Is Sherry from the local network here too?"

Chapter 1060

Chapter 1060 A Private Meeting Roland and the employee were taken aback.

The mayor mentioning Sherry suggested the mayor must have a strong impression of her.

Maybe the mayor was interested in her.

Mindful of the mayor's needs, Roland tipped the employee the wink.

The employee asked probingly, "Do you want to meet with her personally? Should we arrange a meeting?" "Take the candidates to the reception area. I will meet with them later." Kaze waved his arm. "Let Sherry from the local network wait." Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"So the mayor wants to meet me alone later?" When Roland conveyed the message to Sherry, she made a sultry expression.

She got the wrong idea, thinking she was different from others to secure a private meeting with Kaze.

"Maybe the interview broadcast on a bigger platform made the mayor notice me. He might like what he saw.

"That would explain why he wants to meet me alone while the others have to meet him altogether." When one door closed, a window opened.

She might have encountered a dead end with the chairman of Perfect World Group, but she scored with the mayor.

Excited, Sherry could barely close her legs.

She got a grip on herself and asked reservedly, "Has the mayor been leaving work on time lately, sir?" Sherry's attitude toward Roland shifted.

She was respectful with the aim to please before, but now she spoke to Roland like they were equals.

Sherry saw herself as the mayor's woman, and her social class just skyrocketed.

"No. The mayor has been staying late in the past two days," Roland replied, assuming Kaze took fancy to Sherry.

He had no idea that Kaze had been taking cover in the mayor's office for as long as he could to avoid another scolding from Agnes.

Sherry got the message.

The mayor must be hinting at her through Roland to come to the office at night.

After a busy day at work, Sherry could use a nice workout at night.

She had not gotten sweaty in a solemn mayor's office before.

Sherry left with a blushing face.

Upon learning the mayor's thoughts about her, Sherry did not want to give in to his demands so easily.

It was best to play hard to get with men.

Hence, she decided to just talk about { work when meeting with the mayor later.

She needed to play the long game to win the prize.

To make sure things would happen as planned, Sherry intended to enlist the help of the director of the network.

Back at the TV station, she barged into Moses' office.

"Oh, do you miss me already? It might not be a good idea since we are supposed to be working." Moses merrily put his arms around Sherry when she showed up.

"Smack!" Sherry slapped away his offending hand and said with a smug, "Keep your hands to yourself. I'm meeting with the mayor tonight. He might sniff out if you leave your smell on me." She was no stranger to the mayor's keen senses.

"What? You're meeting with the mayor alone?" Moses was taken aback at first, but the joy quickly washed over him. "Really? What happened?" Sherry voiced her assumptions while Moses listened with amazement.

"Tsk. You're amazing, Sherry.

'Seize this opportunity and impress the mayor. Fame and fortune could be yours.'

Chapter 1061

Chapter 1061 Ambitious Sherry was delighted because she knew Moses was right.

She said, "But I don't want to let the mayor win me so easily.

: " "He won't appreciate me if I am easy.

"I want to be his secretary to build a bond.

"You need to help me, Daddy. Come with me to meet the mayor and recommend me to be his secretary." It had always been Sherry's dream to marry for money.

She could get what she wanted with her body, but the benefits were only temporary.

Sherry would fight for any chance to become the new mayor's wife instead of some shameful lover who could not be shown in public. «» "You must help me, Daddy. I will return the favor," Sherry uttered coyly.

Moses had been the director of the local network for more than a decade.

He was a veteran with extensive connections in the system.

Sherry believed the mayor would take Moses' advice and bring her on board as a secretary.

Moses fell into contemplation.

Truth be told, Sherry was beautiful, but Moses had enough fun with her as it had been a few years.

Since a few young and beautiful interns joined the TV station recently, Moses intended to make one of them a new star of the network just like how he built Sherry up.

However, Sherry was a shrewd woman.

Moses had not come across an opportunity to break things off with her. SEARCH the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Here an opportunity presented itself.

Not only could Moses get rid of Sherry, but he would be getting a new ally in the mayor's office if Sherry became the new mayor's secretary.

The best-case scenario was if Sherry could become the new mayor's woman.

With Sherry's reputation and lifestyle, a public figure like the mayor would not want to get involved with her.

However, this mayor was new, so he did not know much about Sherry.

Sherry might have had him fooled.

Hence, Moses patted his chest and said, "Don't worry, Sherry. I am friends with several higher-ups. I will do everything I can to recommend you for the job.

"I'll go with you to meet the mayor tonight and ask him to choose you to be his secretary." "Thank you, Daddy." Sherry beamed.

Moses' help would boost her chances.

Even though she told Moses not to touch her, Sherry cozied up to him in the office for a while before leaving looking rather rosy.

Back in her independent office, she received a call.

Sherry grimaced and stood up when she saw who the caller was.

"Mr. Hobbs, to what do I owe this call?" Sherry asked in a frisky voice while bending over.

Samson from Lee Investment was on the other end of the line.

While Sherry was fooling around with Danny back then, Samson had visited Danny before.

Danny was royalty in Sherry's eyes then, but he groveled at Samson's feet.

Since then, Samson's presence struck fear in Sherry.

Sherry gave Samson her business card because there was no harm in trying to expand her connections. She thought Samson would dump the business card or forget about her soon enough.

However, Samson's sudden call got her excited.

Samson said indifferently, "I've seen the recent reporting after your interview, Ms. Zauer. You sure have a lot of sway in the media." Sherry was taken aback.

She wondered if Samson called just to compliment her.

Chapter 1062 Make Darcy a Star “You give me a lot of credit, Mr. Hobbs.

You run Lee Investment and have the Lees as your ally. Even the media outlets are subservient to you.

“T can’t compare to you.” Sherry doubted the phone call from Samson was just to pay her compliments. She asked coyly, “What can I do for you, Mr. Hobbs?” “I was intrigued to learn that you were going after Kaze and his wife,” Samson said with a smile.

Sherry was relieved.

She knew Samson, representing the Lees, was feuding with Kaze.

Danny was somehow linked to Samson too, but Kaze became Danny's downfall.

It was highly likely Samson would take Kaze’s side.

With that in mind, Sherry played the victim. “You have no idea what Kaze and his wife did to me, Mr. Hobbs. They made me kneel and lick the soles of their shoes.

“I’m at war with this couple.

“But they are too powerful for me to handle. Even at my best, I can’t destroy them. I hope to get your support, Mr.

Hobbs.” Sherry knew Samson had his hands deep in the media.

Samson had the ability to ruin Kaze’s family once and for all.

He said coldly, “Kaze destroyed my son. I’m dying to kill the son of a bitch, but the man doesn’t seem to care about his reputation anymore.

“Public condemnation won’t kill him.

“I have a lot of ways to finish him off if he and his wife could leave the city.” Samson had been in a dilemma in the last two days after the Lees tasked him with sorting Kaze out again.

Fearing the governor's wrath, the Lees could not do away with Kaze out in the open.

samson did not want to take the fall either.

Upon learning of Sherry's agenda with Kaze's family, Samson went to probe the woman. The saying 'hell hath no fury like a woman scorned' perfectly described Sherry. She must have a plan.

The wheels in Sherry's head started spinning. "I have an idea that will push Kaze's family to leave the city in shame, Mr. Hobbs." "What's your plan?" Samson asked.

"Maybe we can make Darcy a starina romantic film," Sherry said wickedly.

She blamed Darcy for her abrupt exit from Perfect World Group.

"Hahaha! No wonder you work in the news department. You are creative, Ms.

Zauer."

? BRR FS 2 Samson burst out laughing and ended the call.

Sherry got a call from Moses at 8:00 PM.

"Sherry, I've arrived at the mayor's office. The mayor hasn't left yet. I have talked to Mr. Leed to introduce us.

"You should get ready and wait at the mayor's office.

"Once I meet the mayor, I'll ask him to see you." Thrilled, Sherry went to powder her nose.

Zenny entered the room and said enviously, "You're about to become the mayor's woman, Sherry. You must ruin the cheating couple, Kaze and Winnie!

"Enough talk. After tonight, Kaze and Winnie won't mean squat!" Sherry brushed Zenny off annoyedly and left home.

Meanwhile, Kaze gamed on his mobile phone in his office. Agnes would chew him out if he got home early anyway, so he was better off hiding in the mayor's office.

Chapter 1063 A Strong Asset “Moses has been around the scene for quite some time, and he has worked in the network for many years. He is pretty reputable in the city. Do you want to see him?” Caleb asked with respect.

“The director of Lilyrose TV Station?” Without looking up, Kaze replied, “He can enter.” Soon, a middle-aged man with a balding spot cautiously followed Caleb into the office.

“Mr. Mayor, this is Mr. McKentucky from Lilyrose TV Station,” Caleb said. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Moses realized the new mayor was exactly as rumored when he laid eyes on Kaze.

The mayor was younger than he imagined.

“Hello, Mr. Mayor. Just call me Moses,” Moses said while drawing close with a nod.

Kaze greeted back aloofly and asked, “Caleb said you are briefing me on a business report. Is it related to the award for exemplary journalism?” “Huh?” Though taken aback, Moses quickly replied, “That’s right, Mr. Mayor.

Sherry Zauer is the candidate we chose to represent Lilyrose TV Station. She’s the host of the financial channel.

“After your instruction yesterday, we started an internal investigation on her.” Kaze asked indifferently, “Oh? And what did you find out?” Moses stole a glance at Kaze, but he could not read his expression.

Since Sherry mentioned that the mayor wanted to meet her alone, Moses figured the mayor meant Sherry no harm.

Kaze was probably hinting at him to say good things about Shelly.

Moses responded, “We have conducted a review of Sherry’s work and found her to be a conscientious and responsible employee with strong business skills. Her colleagues and peers have nothing bad to say about her work ethic and character.

“Her nomination for the award year after year is the network's approval toward her." Moses showered Sherry with compliments.

Furrowing his brows, Kaze glanced at Moses and said pensively, "So Sherry must be a strong asset." Moses was filled with glee, thinking his praises did the work.

"Mr. Mayor, Sherry has come with me to the mayor's office.

"If you're interested, she can come in and give you an update on the business report." Prior to meeting Kaze, Moses got a text message from Sherry that she had arrived.

Kaze grinned amusedly.

He got up, grabbed his mug, and walked to the water dispenser. Without looking back, Kaze replied, "Okay. She can enter." "I'll head out to bring her in now." Pleased, Moses went out to lead her into the office.

Moses soon returned with Sherry, dressed in professional and well-fitted attire, behind him.

Sherry was beyond excited.

The mayor was highly fascinated by her.

Moses mentioned that the mayor actively asked about her.

In that case, Sherry was likely to become the mayor's secretary.

Kaze and Darcy would no longer be a threat once she secured a position in the mayor's office.

This was because the mayor would stand behind her.

"Here is Sherry, Mr. Mayor," Moses said with a chuckle.

"I see." Kaze sipped his drink and turned around.

The voice sounded familiar to Sherry.

Sherry was suspicious, but before she could wrap her head around the voice, she lifted her head and flashed a sophisticated smile.

"Hello there, Mr. Mayor... Huh?"

The smile on Sherry's face froze. I

Chapter 1064

Chapter 1064 The Backbone of the Media “K-Kaze?” Sherry suspected that she was seeing things.

She was hallucinating from either overindulgence or fatigue.

Sherry did not expect to see Kaze there.

The mayor’s office held the core power in the city, and it was also the most prestigious place.

Kaze was a loser. The last place he belonged was the mayor’s office.

Sherry shook his head and took a couple of steps for a closer look. She was shocked.

The man standing behind the desk was indeed Kaze.

Sherry was stunned.

Thanks to Sherry’s great effort to spread rumors for the past two days, Kaze had become the subject of ridicule and criticism in the city.

The way Sherry saw it, Kaze should be holing up at home or considering leaving the city.

However, the man stood overtly in the mayor's office.

With her head spinning, Sherry pointed at Kaze and yelled angrily, “What are you doing here, loser? “This is not a place for a vile scumbag like you.” Sherry’s words echoed in the office.

Caleb, Moses, and other employees lifted their heads and looked at Sherry in disbelief.

Sensing all eyes on her, Sherry started feeling diffident.

She glanced around.

Apart from Kaze, Caleb and employees in the mayor’s office were present too.

Where was the mayor? A possibility struck Sherry.

Caleb was not opposed to Kaze's presence in the office. In fact, Caleb stood humbly next to him.

Maybe...

Caleb was the first to reel in from the shock.

Pulling a scowl, Caleb approached Sherry and rebuked, "Who do you think you are to talk smack in front of the mayor? "Moses, is this the caliber of the outstanding candidate your network selected?" Moses shuddered in fear.

He was thrown off by the whole situation.

"What has gotten into you, Sherry? "you're standing right in front of the mayor. How dare you insult him!" Snapping out of his thoughts, Moses tore into Sherry.

Sherry stared at Kaze blankly and murmured, "How did he become the mayor? He's the son-in-law of the Quints. He's just a loser." Ballistic, Moses pounced and slapped Sherry in the face. @ Smack! Sherry turned flushed.

"You can go to hell if you want, Sherry, but don't drag me down with you," Moses shouted through gritted teeth.

Caleb uttered harshly, "The fact that your subordinate insulted the mayor isn't something we can overlook, Moses.

"It's too late to try and remove yourself from the situation."

Since Caleb introduced Moses to Kaze, he was in trouble too.

Kaze said with a pretentious smile, "I thought you said her colleagues and peers have nothing bad to say about her work ethic and character, Mr.

McKentucky.

"So, she was nominated for the award? "I guess she is bold enough not to give me any respect. She sure is the backbone of the media to run her mouth."

Chapter 1065

I Chapter 1065 Don't Act Like We're Close I Moses was frightened.

\ I Sherry was an idiot to land them both in hot water.

It was clear that the mayor was not pleased with the local network.

Moses wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and said awkwardly, "M-Mr.

Mayor, I don't understand Sherry's sudden outburst.

"Our network has the utmost respect for you. We don't mean to offend you." While talking, he glanced at Kaze, who carried a blank face, and kicked Sherry to the ground.

Sherry fell on her bottom, her hair ruffled.

Moses gave her a couple of boots.

I "Argh! It hurts, Daddy! Don't hit me!" \ Sherry cried out in pain while rolling on 4 I the ground. = I "What are you talking about? I'm not I your daddy." I Moses nearly wet his pants.

He grabbed a chunk of Sherry's hair and pulled her up to slap her face repeatedly.

"I'm not related to you at all. Don't act like we're close.

"P11 kill you if you continue to make false claims." Moses did not hold back from hitting Sherry.

The bad blood between Kaze and Sherry was apparent to Moses.

Sherry must be on the mayor's kill list.

Kaze would get even with Moses if the former were to find out Sherry was his Resentment washed over her.

If she had known Kaze was the mayor, she would never have tried to put him to shame.

Sherry thought her looks would earn her a strong backer like Kaze.

She dug her grave. If she could survive the ordeal, it would only be because Kaze showed her mercy.

Moses panted heavily and approached Kaze with an apologetic smile. He said, "Mr. Mayor, I have nothing to do with this woman whatsoever. We are just colleagues.

"You are free to punish the woman ) however you deem fit." i He looked at Kaze uneasily, hoping the I latter would not hold the matter against him.

d However, Kaze was grossed out by Moses.

He said curtly, "Mr. McKentucky, do you think I'm dumb? "She couldn't be nominated for exemplary journalism for years and become the main star of your network without your support, 'Daddy'.

"Don't tell me you didn't know that she trashed me through her show and her friends in the media, 'Daddy'.

"I gave you a chance yesterday to investigate the matter, but what did you I do, 'Daddy'?" Kaze's constant reminder of Sherry's relationship with him made Moses I shudder.

"It's too late for you to dissociate ) yourself from her." I Moses lost it. — { Thump! I He fell on his knees before Kaze and cried with a wry face, "I saw the error of my ways, Mr. Mayor. Give me a chance. I didn't know the woman was out to get you.

"Had I known, I wouldn't have agreed to her plans. I would've fired the woman right away."

} Chapter 1066 Zenny Flips I It hit Moses that the person Sherry had I poured all means to destroy was Kaze.

I Despite Moses' pleading, Kaze stood firm on his stance.

i Kaze said ruthlessly, "Instead of sacking her, you send your well-used plaything to me.

"you sure think little of me, Mr.

McKentucky.” “Thud!” Moses fell back to the ground, the sparkle in his eyes dimming.

He knew he was done for.

It was clear to him that Kaze would not let him get away with it.

Most importantly, Moses had nothing to say about it.

' Kaze's words rang true.

I Without looking at Moses, Kaze told f Caleb indifferently, “It’s time to purge I the local network from top to bottom.

\ I “Lilyrose TV Station represents Lilyrose.

t Yet, it is a place of corruption.” “Of course, sir.” Caleb shuddered.

Since Caleb introduced Moses to Kaze, he was to blame for what had happened.

He knew that he had lost trust with the mayor.

Caleb needed to earn Kaze's trust back.

Hence, he summoned his employee.

«Send out a circular detailing Moses’ and Sherry’s dismissal. I will be taking over the local network for a major overhaul.” Caleb’s words announced the fate of Moses and Sherry.

Zenny was shocked to find Sherry a harrowing mess. “What happened to you? Who hit you? “Did you meet the mayor? Did you become his secretary?” Sherry looked up at Zenny stiffly and said with a dreadful smile, “Secretary? I lost my job. I'm finished. I lost everything.” Without her job as the host, she could not befriend the elite, wealthy, and privileged.

Besides, Kaze was the mayor of Lilyrose.

From there on out, she had no foothold in

I "You lost your job? How?" I o . . " : I Surprised at first, Zenny soon flipped.

\ : N He kicked Sherry to the ground and I dissed her. "You deserved to be fired, I bitch! Weren't you cocky before? You made me give you massages and scrub the floor on my knees.

He held Sherry up and gave her a beating, taking all his previous grievances out on her.

"Click!" "Click!"

I" Flashes flickered in the stairwell.

) Zenny stopped and cocked his head back I to find a group of reporters. The group was taking photos of him attacking Sherry.

{Lying on the ground, Sherry opened her eyes and quickly recognized who the group was. i They were the candidates who met with Kaze.

"The mayor is wise. He said Sherry was mixing business with pleasure. Sure enough, we caught her in the act." "Oh, isn't that Zenny Soup who was on TV? He called Winnie, the CEO of Shangrila Group, out for cheating, but he's the real cheater." "No wonder Sherry wanted him on her show. They were in on it together." "This is going to make headlines."

) Chapter 1067 Four Ocean Commerce Guild I - I The journalists' words sealed Zenny's and Sherry's fate, and not in a good way.

In less than half an hour, Zenny's attack on Sherry went viral online.

That was when the truth came to light.

In an attempt to acquire Shangrila Group, Sherry colluded with Zenny to paint Kaze and Winnie's relationship as improper.

It was a shameless act.

The public condemned Sherry and Zenny.

Utterly disgraced, Sherry and Zenny became public enemy number one.

The next day, Lilyrose TV Station issued a public apology and statement to Kaze and Darcy's family which included the termination of Moses and Sherry.

I" Since then, Moses and Sherry ) disappeared from the city.

I Rumor had it that Sherry was spotted in a ' high-end club in Sunrise City, I entertaining her usual clientele of the rich and powerful.

I A contrast to her previous inclination, Sherry had to parade around with a smile on her face now.

Winnie, the victim of the very publicized scandal, came forward courageously and filed for divorce in the public eye.

Due to Zenny's exposed act and Kaze's request for expedition, the court granted the divorce fairly quickly.

In the end, Zenny could only keep his own assets. He did not get anything from Shangrila Group.

Finding the distribution of assets unfair, Zenny argued that Winnie had shares to Shangrila Group, so he deserved half as Kaze transferred the shares to Brenda I right from the start.

I Zenny beat himself up as everything blew up in his face.

He did not acquire the shares to Shangrila Group and could never show his face in Lilyrose anymore.

As the scandal died down, life returned as it was.

Darcy's family could get a breather and leave home with their heads held high once more.

The new mayor's instruction to launch internal investigations in each media outlet led to the revelation of Sherry's and her sugar daddy's despicable acts.

I Darcy's family gave the new mayor credit ) for pulling them out of the crisis.

I Agnes often expressed her gratitude to the mayor while continuing to grumble about Kaze.

Kaze tuned out Agnes' droning. No one ' would believe him if he said he was the new mayor anyway.

The next morning, Kaze attended the commendation award for outstanding journalism and gave a speech.

Although his appearance in the small setting was not published in the media, the new young mayor stirred a commotion in the event.

Kaze received a call from Darcy when he got back to the mayor's office.

"I have a dinner plan with representatives of Four Ocean Commerce Guild this afternoon, Kaze. You hold your liquor well. You should go with me," Darcy said in the call.

]!" Four Ocean Commerce Guild issued a { I boycott order on Shangrila Group before.

I The association had a terrifying influence I over the South River State.

I Following the order to cancel Shangrila Group, no business wanted to get involved with the company, and Shangrila Group had trouble getting its pharmaceutical product out in the market.

Fortunately, Kaze held shares in various online platforms and started marketing on the web en masse.

Shangrila Group managed to overcome Four Ocean Commerce Guild's boycott order.

However, Shangrila Group was a special case.

Four Ocean Commerce Guild happened to contact Darcy to take her in as a member.

Darcy wanted to grab the opportunity to establish a positive relationship with the guild.

Sensing Kaze’s reluctance, Darcy said, “You're going with me, Kaze. I have made plans with the representatives of Four \ “Expanding your network will help with I your career.” I Kaze's high tolerance for alcohol was not the only reason Darcy was bringing him ( along. She wanted him to engage with the representatives of Four Ocean Commerce Guild and lay the groundwork for his networking.

Picking up the concern in Darcy’s tone, Kaze was overjoyed.

He would be insensible to brush off his wife’s kindness.

“Alright, babe. I'm willing to do anything for you, drinking included. I'll drink with them and be the last one standing,” Kaze joked.

She drove off in her Maserati.

When approaching Nobel Hotel, a convertible cruised alongside Darcy’s ride.

“Honk! Honk!” The man behind the wheel wore a pair of sunglasses. With one hand across the door, he looked at Darcy and beeped at her while chatting with his friend in the front passenger seat.

It was clear he was trying to pick Darcy up.

Ignoring the man, Darcy slowed her car

3 The convertible decelerated, keeping the pace of Darcy’s car and honking. ~~ With Darcy paying him no mind, the man I grew frustrated and hit the gas pedal, I overtaking Darcy in her lane.

Startled by the convertible pulling ahead abruptly, Darcy slammed on the brakes without enough time to swerve.

“Bang! » Darcy’s front slammed into the convertible’s back. The impact was loud.

Once the car came to a complete stop, Darcy had turned pale from fright.

Still grappling with shock, she stared at the convertible angrily.

The man got out of his convertible.

{ He approached Darcy’s car aggressively and pounded on the car window.

“Get out. You rear-ended us,” the sidekick shouted menacingly.

Two fancy cars in the million-dollar range pulled up at the side of the road, and a few roguish young men swaggered their way around Darcy’s car.

Darcy did not dare to get out of her car.

“Bang, bang, bang!” The sidekick kicked the car door several times. “Don’t just sit there. Get out. We aren’t going to leave unless you pay up.”

She looked around. By then, many passersby stopped to watch the commotion.

Although the group looked mean, she believed they would not do anything to her in broad daylight.

She rear-ended the car.” Darcy was well-known in Lilyrose.

Sherry’s false claims in the last two days had become the talk of the town.

Many of the passersby recognized her.

So she was Darcy, the chairwoman of Sky Ocean Corporation.

The man with the sunglasses had been emotionless so far. He then turned to Darcy with an amused smile.

“Do you even know how to drive? You better get off the road. You're making , female drivers look bad.” \ Samuel criticized Darcy arrogantly before I saying aggressively, “So what are you I going to do about this situation?” \ [ “You deliberately changed lanes to cause ( a car accident. If she was at fault, she would be quick to take full responsibility for her actions.

Darcy clearly saw that the guys were trying to hit on her with his fancy ride.

When she did not respond in kind, he switched lanes without warning and made her crash into him.

His behavior of ignoring the traffic laws and disregarding human lives made her sick.

Samuel sneered. “Don't try to put this on us, lady. You're jealous that Mr. Glitter drove a McLaren, so you tailgated him.

It was the joke of the century.

“Sam, have you no respect for women? Don't pull your dick moves on the beautiful lady.” The man with sunglasses drew close.

He took off the sunglasses, revealing his handsome face.

I “Yes, of course. You're right, Mr. Glitter.” Samuel toned down the attitude and I apologized to Darcy. “I'm sorry for being rude to you, gorgeous. If it makes you happy, I can hit myself.” I The cheeky man even gave himself a couple of light taps on the face. He was a jokester next to the condescending, tall, handsome man in sunglasses.

“Hello, gorgeous. My name is Leigh Glitter from the Sunrise Glitters. My father is a trustee of Four Ocean Commerce Guild.” The man in sunglasses extended his hand to Darcy with poise.

The way he checked her out made Darcy rather uncomfortable.

, The playful smile on Leigh's face deepened Darcy's resistance only sparked a competitive streak in him.

With that in mind, Leigh said with a grin, "You seem to get the wrong idea, gorgeous.

"It's clear that you rear-ended me. Yet here you are, seeking damages from me." He patted his sidekick's shoulder and said, "My boy here mentioned that I spent 10 million dollars on the limited- edition McLaren.

"One bad habit I have is that I never fix something once it's broken.

"So you need to pay me 10 million dollars."

Chapter 1071

Chapter 1071 Pay Or Sex “As for this lousy car, you can drive-it back after you pay me,” Leigh said I casually.

I Darcy felt like she was talking to a wall.

Leigh admitted that he hit her car on purpose yet he was shameless enough to demand compensation.

Darcy scoffed. She lost her patience in talking to the man.

She pulled her phone out and said, “Then there’s nothing left to talk about. We’ll let the authority decide who will pay for the damages.” It was then Samuel stepped up and snatched the phone away from her.

The young men from both their cars got closer and surrounded her. They all looked at Darcy with an unfriendly gaze.

“What are you doing?! Give me back my phone!” Darcy shouted.

She cautiously looked at the men around her.

I She did not expect them to be so I audacious in broad daylight. She felt scared all of a sudden.

The passersby who saw the scene also felt that Leigh and Samuel were being bullies but they obviously had a strong background, so no one dared to step in or intervene despite them feeling bad for Darcy. “Girl, don’t be afraid. It’s just a phone.

I’ll give you back when you pay me the damages.” Leigh started toying with Darcy’s phone and even sniffed it perversely as if it carried her body scent.

Darcy was embarrassed and angry. “No! You are the one responsible, I’m not paying!” “Gorgeous, pay what you owe. It’s the 4 rule of the universe, don’t you know that?” Leigh stared at Darcy’s breasts and grinned. “If you don’t have the money, then you can let me play with your body.

“Today is my first day here in Lilyrose.

Why don't you become my woman for the rest of my trip here and I'll spare you from the compensation? I can even give you 10 million. How about that? “That's a total of 20 million. It's a great deal for just sleeping with me a few times.

No women are worth that much.

Hahaha...” Leigh cackled, followed by his friends and followers.

They knew exactly how Leigh toyed with women.

He usually resolved in coercion and

I temptation together, pressuring the woman before giving her the illusion of freedom, hence making her succumb to "his evil grasp.

“Stop dreaming! I don't want your 20 million!” Darcy was shaking out of anger and embarrassment.

Leigh found her shaking body even more attractive. He grinned and said, “Gorgeous, don't be afraid. I give you a choice. You either pay me the money or let me sleep with you. Your choice.

Though I have limited patience and my time is precious. You only have one minute...” His wicked grin widened as if he already won and got on top of Darcy.

His men came closer upon hearing him, further pressuring Darcy.

Darcy's heart skipped a beat.

I Leigh and his men were shameless and audacious, and they might very well ravage her on the spot.

She wanted to call Kaze for help but her phone was in Leigh's hand and there was no one around to help her.

As Leigh's patience ran low, Darcy's heart fell into despair.

Chapter 1072 Wealthy Glitter Family Darcy could not imagine what would happen if Leigh and his men got her.

{| | She could never live with the humiliation.

| “Darcy, are you okay? You got into a crash?” The voice from heaven sounded, saving Darcy from the realm of despair. SEAR*ch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Darcy looked up and was overjoyed.

Kaze squeezed through the crowd and came to her, holding her hand. “Babe, are you okay? Are you hurt? Why are you crying?” The moment he received her call, he went to Nobel Hotel.

When he was near the hotel, he saw the commotion from afar.

He got out of his car to find out what happened and then spotted Darcy being | surrounded.

“I’m fine. Thank god you are here, Kaze.” Darcy regained her confidence. She held Kaze’s hand tightly and then pointed at | Leigh and his men. “These men hit my | car on purpose and wanted me to pay for “the damages.” “Isn’t this Kaze Lee? The useless husband?” “Useless? That’s past tense to you. He’s the chairman of Shangrila Group and the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm.” The crowd recognized Kaze and knew that he was Darcy’s husband.

Since Kaze had arrived, the passersby gained confidence and started to voice out.

“Mr. Lee, these men are bullying your wife. She’s driving nicely but these shameless men honked at her and made her rear-end them.”

| “Yeah. It’s dangerous.” “That guy even wanted to sleep with your wife just because he has a strong background...” | | Through the explanations provided by | the passersby, Kaze quickly got a hold of the situation.

His expression turned frosty as he looked at Leigh. “Leigh Glitter? You are the one who made my wife rear-end your car and caused all these problems? “You’re lucky that Darcy isn’t hurt, or else you won’t leave this city alive.” Leigh raised his brow. Usually, it was he who threatened others, not the other way around. Yet someone challenged him and threatened him in his face.

“I know you. You’re Kaze Lee.” Leigh stared at Kaze and scoffed. “You really think you have what it takes to talk to me like that? Just because of what you said, I have decided to raise the compensation to 20 million.

I “Of course, I can spare you from the payment if you let me sleep with your wife. However, as a punishment for you, j you won't be getting the 10 million that I I promised your wife.” Leigh did not take Kaze or Darcy's titles and statuses seriously.

As someone from a wealthy family, he was not bound by rules and laws even in Sunrise City, the capital.

Like he said, even if he ran over someone with his car and caused the death of the innocent, he could just cover it up with money.

As for those who wanted to hold him responsible or put him behind bars, they would be taken care of even without his orders.

Now that he came to Lilyrose, a city

I smaller than the capital, he neglected all the rules and laws.

I To him, Shangrila Group and Sky Ocean Corporation were just ants.

Moreover, he knew that Darcy was trying to figure out a way to join Four Ocean Commerce Guild.

The Glitters had quite the influence over the guild.

In fact, it was not too exaggerating to say that Darcy must go through him and his family to enter the guild.

With that, Leigh did not take Kaze seriously.

Chapter 1073

Chapter 1073 See Who Dares to Touch You Nn Under the people's astonished stare, Leigh demanded Kaze to let him sleep j with his wife.

' Even the passersby could not stand his arrogance.

“He thinks he can do anything just because he is rich? Ms. Quint is also rich but she's not an asshole like you!” “Yeah. Get out of the city, you filthy jerk! Lilyrose isn't your dirty playground!” “He has the money but not the character.

He really thinks he's above the law." The people criticized Leigh for his disrespectful words.

Leigh did not even take the people's criticism seriously.

He smiled and frivolously said, "Shut up,

y peasants! You can't do shit about it! You people should think twice before talking to me like that. Have you heard of the Sunrise Glitters? Oh wait, I forgot Lilyrose is a shithole. You filthy peasants \ are like cavemen! I "No one in this city can lay a finger on me, let alone stand in my way! Look, no one is here to stop me after what has happened." Leigh disrespected not only Kaze and Darcy but also the people of Lilyrose.

He called the people peasants and the city a shithole.

His superiority upset the people but his background deterred them and he was right.

They were in the busiest commercial street of Lilyrose.

The patrolling officers were usually quick in giving parking tickets and one could not even leave the car for three minutes, let alone a car crash.

Yet no police officers were in sight-to deal with the crash.

I Could it be as Leigh said, the local police department was afraid of him and his family? Kaze scrutinized Leigh from top to bottom with furrowed brows.

He had heard of the Glitters before.

He was upset not because of Leigh's rude and disrespectful manner but the lack of attention from the local police department. The crash had happened for a while now but no police officers were in sight to deal with the matter.

Leigh looked at Kaze with a grin. "Hey, useless shit, now you know the difference between us. The peasants are right. You think you can do anything you want just because you have the money? Without power and status, your money is nothing but a big piece of pie waiting for others to devour. \ "I don't want to waste my time with you.

I've given your wife a minute and time's I up. Now I'll let you choose: pay up or let I me sleep with your wife.

"Guys, surround them. Don't let them leave unless they give us a satisfying answer." Leigh clapped, signaling his men to surround Kaze and Darcy.

His men stared at the husband and wife fiercely. Some of them rolled their sleeves up, revealing the tattoos on their arms.

One word from Leigh and they would throw punches at Kaze.

“Kaze, what should we do?” Darcy clenched Kaze's sleeve tightly.

“Don't worry, Darcy. I'm here.” \ | Kaze held Darcy's hand tightly and stared | at Leigh coldly.

Given his capabilities, he did not even see Leigh and his men as threats, yet Darcy was right beside him.

Resolving in violence might hurt her.

“Who said we are leaving?” Kaze smiled and said, “You said no one in Lilyrose dares to lay a finger on you right? Then let's see if that's true.”

Chapter 1074

Chapter 1074 The Iron Justice Leigh raised his brows. He scoffed. “We'll see about that.” He had never even considered Kaze as a person.

Even though Kaze was the chairman of Shangrila Group and not just any peasant, he was nothing compared to the Glitters.

Leigh believed even the mayor of Lilyrose would be afraid of him once he revealed his family's name.

“Kaze Lee, I'll give you a chance. You can call whoever you want, you call the mayor for all I care.

“But if you can’t get anyone who has the balls to touch me, don’t blame me for getting rough. Not only must you compensate me, but I get to sleep with your wife, Your time starts now...”

Leigh grinned as he stared at Dai seductive body Darcy was scared. She did not want to waste her time with the pervert anymore She tugged at Kaze's sleeve and said, “Kaze, why don’t we just pay...” Kaze shot a killer glance at Leigh “Darcy, believe me. This is Lilyrose.” He calmed her down and then pulled his phone out for a call. “Don, my wife and I are caught in a car crash and we are confronting the person who caused it. I need you here to settle the problem.” He called the chief of police, Don Braders.

Don was astonished the moment he heard someone tried to give Kaze a hard rime.

He bolted up immediately and left his astonished colleagues as he charged out of the meeting room

Less than ten minutes later, several police cruisers came with the siren blaring Don arrived in person. He even dragged the vice chief of the Traffic Department, Duran Alm, together.

Darcy was surprised. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

She knew Kaze and Don were close but one phone call to summon the police chief was still amazing.

On the way here, Don had told Duran to investigate the situation and got surveillance footage from the surrounding cameras. They easily found out what happened.

The officers who arrived together got the footage from Darcy’s dashcam as well and even questioned the passersby about what happened.

Throughout the process, Leigh leaned on his supercar, smoking casually

“Mr. Glitter, we found out who is the leader. He is the police chief of Lilyrose, Don Braders. Also known as the Iron Justice for strictly upholding the law,” Samuel said after running some checks on his phone.

“Iron Justice?” Leigh scoffed. “No iron can’t be bent by the power of the Glitters.

Go tell him who I am and if he has a brain, he will know what to do.” The officers might be taking statements from witnesses and investigating the footage but Leigh believed once he revealed his identity, even the police chief would side with him and help him cover up the matter.

With Leigh's order, Samuel strutted over to Don and said arrogantly, "Chief Braders, the owner of the McLaren is Leigh Glitter, from the Glitter family of Sunrise City. I believe you know what to do "The Glitters? I see. I know what to do now." Don nodded.

Samuel grinned and then walked away.

I He knew people like Don always liked to be neutral but had a preference.

They would always do things under the table. As long as Don understood his meaning, Samuel did not need to spell out his words.

Leigh grinned when he saw Don ordered his men to sum up the situation. S~earch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

It seemed like Don had decided to side with him, blatantly.

"Kaze Lee, I told you. At a place like this, no one dares to lay a finger on me. Now I can have fun with your wife." His grin widened as he pervertedly I scrutinized Darcy. He was already picturing all kinds of filthy sex positions in bed.

I He was not afraid of Kaze backing on his word. I Kaze said coldly, "You should be grateful that there are people here, or else you will end up terrible,"

He was the mayor of Lilyrose, so he had a reputation to maintain.

Even though not all the people knew about his new identity, it would be revealed sooner or later.

I It was also the main reason why he did not resolve in violence this time.

Otherwise, he did not even need to contact Don and could take care of Leigh and his goons himself.

"I'll allow you to continue barking." While Leigh curled his lips, Don came over to him. Leigh chuckled and asked, "Chief Braders, how's the investigation? I believe it is Ms.

Quint's responsibility, right?" Don said, "Mr. Glitter, am I right? After our thorough investigation, we found out that you are the one who caused the crash, so you are responsible for this.

Also, you are driving dangerously and disrupting peace and order with the pling I commotion you made. Come with us and we will determine your punishment back at the station. You will be detained and fined..." Leigh's grin froze when he heard Don.

"Thank you, Chief Braders!" Darcy was delighted by the outcome and thanked Don for his help.

"All hail the Iron Justice!" "Yeah! Detain that bastard! Teach him a lesson!" "He really thinks he's rich enough to do anything." "He looked down on us Lilyroseans and he thinks he can get away with it?" The passersby chanted and cheered in praise. They even applauded Don's actions.

Leigh arrogantly disrespected everyone

[and now they could finally get back at him through Don.

Slap! Aloud slap sounded.

Leigh slapped Samuel in the face and shouted, "How the fuck is this happening? I told you to tell him about my identity! Are you trying to embarrass me?" He freaked out.

One moment he was imagining wild sex with Darcy, and now he was being told that he would be arrested and fined.

He was upset and drowning in anger.

"Mr. Glitter, I told the police chief your identity..." Samuel covered his face as he replied timidly, but his voice grew soft as he explained.

He looked at Don and shouted, "Chief Braders, what is the meaning of this? Mr.

Glitter is responsible and will be fined Are you trying to mess with the Glitters? "It's Darcy Quint's responsibility! Mess with us and the Glitters will retaliate! You will even lose your..." + Slap! Before he could finish, Don slapped him in the face as well.

Chapter 1076

\ Chapter 1076 An Eye for an Eye I “Y-You hit me?! You are a police officer! I This is police violence! Do you want to get canceled?!” Samuel covered his face, shouting as he looked at Don in disbelief.

“A slap is the lightest punishment for you,” Don said coldly.

He then said to his men, “This man here is suspected of obstructing justice and threatening a police officer. Take him away.” The people cheered once more. They did not find the slap on Samuel’s face to be inappropriate.

Samuel was also arrogant, like Leigh, and through Don, the people were relieved of their grievance.

A goon of an arrogant prick threatened the police chief of the city?

. Aslap was a small warning to remind him of the integrity of the police force.

Leigh’s expression turned grim knowing that Don slapped Samuel without hesitation even after his identity was revealed.

He finally realized his background did not scare Don.

If he continued his arrogant attitude, given Don’s feisty temper, he might be slapped as well.

With that, Leigh decided to step away instead of continuing the argument.

When he was taken away by the officers, he shot a glance at Kaze and said, “Kaze Lee, I won't forget this! You think this is over? I'll be out soon! Until then, I'll get you and your wife...” Kaze laughed at Leigh's threats. He went over to the McLaren which belonged to Leigh, and kicked it on the door.

. Bang! The door was heavily dented.

“What the fuck are you doing?!” I Leigh’s expression turned grimmer.

After the crash, he no longer wanted to drive the car but Kaze kicking it in front of the crowd was humiliating to him.

Kaze said with a smile, “You kicked my wife’s car just now. I'm just returning the favor. If you want to get out, pay for damages you did to my wife's car and compensate for her emotional distress damages.” He also shot a glance at Don, signaling the police chief.

Don knew Kaze cared a lot about Darcy.

As long as Darcy was involved, Kaze would be a ruthless beast out for revenge.

If Leigh did not comply, Kaze would never release him from detention.

“Take them away!” Don signaled his men to arrest Leigh and his men.

! Traffic returned to normal.

Darcy’s car was towed away for repairs.

The car was badly damaged.

Kaze offered to buy her a new one but Darcy did not accept it because he gave her this car. She did not want to change it.

“Why are you driving the car with the city council’s number plate?” Darcy got into Kaze’s car, a Passat. She was surprised to see the documents from the city council and the specialized number plate.

“Oh, I’m running errands for the city council lately, so I borrowed a car from them,” Kaze said.

Ph . The city council had a car prepared for him but since he was just the acting mayor, he rejected it.

Darcy did not expand on the thought. She simply assumed Kaze got the car from Don or someone similar.

“Let’s go to Nobel Hotel. We still have time. We still can meet the representatives from Four Ocean Commerce Guild,” Darcy said as she fastened her seatbelt.

Chapter 1077

Chapter 1077 Max Kang ' At Nobel Hotel, Kaze and Darcy were welcomed by the hotel employees.

I All the employees had a strong impression of Kaze after he made Harrison, the consul of Paladia, kneel in front of the hotel.

“Hi, can you please inform the representatives of Four Ocean Commerce Guild that the chairwoman of Quartet Group, Darcy Quint, requests a meeting with them?” Darcy politely said to the reception manager.

The Four Ocean Commerce Guild sent a group of representatives over and booked an entire floor in the hotel for themselves.

“Please wait, Ms. Quint. I'll inform the representatives right away.” The reception manager nodded at Darcy and Kaze before he went off.

At the same time in a meeting room on the fourth floor, the representatives from the guild gathered but the atmosphere was unusually quiet.

“What?! Leigh was arrested and I got detained?!” I Aman with a scrawny face shouted in disbelief.

His name was Max Kang, one of the representatives sent by the guild to inspect Darcy's company.

His expression turned grim when he learned that Leigh was arrested.

Leigh came to Lilyrose as a member of the guild but it was more like a vacation than a business trip to him.

Given his personality, there was no way he would stay with the other representatives. Therefore, the moment he arrived, he went off with his friends.

. Max had no authority over him and dared not interfere.

\ Leigh's father, Zel Glitter, was not just the core member of the Glitter family, but he was also part of the commerce guild as 'one of the high-ranking members.

At the same time, he was also Max's benefactor.

Max was nothing more than a lapdog to Zel.

Therefore, he was furious when he learned that Leigh was arrested after being involved in a car crash.

“Go! I want to know who gave the order to have Leigh arrested!” Max said to one of the members.

The man nodded and went off to investigate the matter.

Then, another member came into the meeting room, saying, "Mr. Kang, Darcy Quint of Quartet Group is here, asking for a meeting..." "Tell her to wait!" Max said impatiently.

Not even the mayor's arrival was more important than Leigh's matter.

I Leigh came to Lilyrose with him yet he failed to keep him safe. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

What would he tell his benefactor when he got back? A while later, Max's man came back with an update.

"Mr. Kang, we found out that it is the police chief of the local PD, Don Braders, that arrested Leigh." Max's expression turned cold.

"Police Chief Don Braders? Who gave him the authority to arrest Leigh?" "He really thinks being the police chief gave him the right to disregard the Glitter family and the guild?"

"With the guild's influence, not even the mayor can stand in our way, let alone the police chief..." Everyone else was similarly angry when they heard the news.

I Four Ocean Commerce Guild was the biggest business guild in South River State. Many powerful and influential family heads were members of the guild.

With such a powerful background, it fueled the arrogance and confidence of its members.

Even the lowest-ranked member of the guild felt a sense of superiority over others.

"Cut the crap. We must focus on getting Leigh out!" Max interrupted the others and said coldly, "I'll contact Samson Hobbs of Lee Investments. We'll ask him to contact the local authorities."

Chapter 1078

Chapter 1078 Samson Hobbs' Influence Samson was the first person that Max thought of.

I Although Max had no respect for anyone in Lilyrose, including the police chief, he could not just get any John Doe to settle the problem with the local government and the police department.

He wanted to contact the mayor directly but since the mayoral position had just gone through a transition, Max did not know who the new mayor would be, so he did not know who to call.

Soon, the call to Samson got through.

"Max, I just learned what happened. I know the police chief, Don Braders.

People call him the Iron Justice, strict and adheres to the law. It's going to be tricky trying to free Leigh from his apprehension..."

Samson made it sound difficult on the other side of the phone.

Max wiped his sweat off as he flattered.

"Samson, with your methods, even the strongest iron can be bent at will. Please, I need your help. As long as I can get Leigh back, you will not only get my gratitude but also the Glitter family's." Samson feigned hesitation and then said, "Fine. I'll have to contact Don Braders' superior then. I will contact the new mayor and see if he can get Leigh out." Max thought Samson was just pretending to be troubled so that he would owe him bigger. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

As a matter of fact, Samson did not have the confidence to get Leigh out either.

He had never seen the new mayor before, but he knew that after the new mayor was sworn into office, a number of people got fired and punished.

The new mayor seemed to be a difficult person to deal with.

"Since Samson had no way of contacting the new mayor, he called the deputy mayor, Caleb Leed.

I Back in Nobel Hotel's lobby, Kaze "received a call from Caleb.

"Mr. Mayor, Lee Investment's Samson Hobbs just called me. He wanted us to release Leigh Glitter." Caleb learned from his past experience with Moses and did his homework this time.

He learned about the conflict between Kaze and Samson, so he dared not make the decision alone and had to refer to Kaze.

“The Glitter family has already reacted?” Kaze chuckled and said, “They asked Samson Hobbs for help but if they don’t get Leigh back, I think they might go to the governor.” He was not afraid of the pressure but he had to consider his subordinates like Caleb and Don.

Otherwise, they would end up like I Johnson, being sandwiched between the Lee and Vinland families. i “Release Leigh Glitter then, but tell him he has to pay what he owes,” Kaze said with a grin.

If he refused to release Leigh, the man could be detained until his death and that would be meaningless.

The detention center was the city council’s property and Kaze did not want to abuse the rules.

However, if Leigh was released, then it would only fuel his arrogance and make him an even worse bully.

Kaze was not afraid of him but what Leigh said to Darcy had crossed the line.

Soon, Samson received a reply from Caleb.

He was delighted knowing that it was the mayor’s order to release Leigh.

His efforts paid off. Even the new mayor I who was rumored to come from a powerful background respected his ! demands.

He called Max.

“Max, I just contacted the mayor and he has agreed to release Leigh, but he has to pay up.” “Thank you, Samson! I owe you big time!” Max breathed a sigh of relief and then brought his men downstairs to the hotel lobby.

“Mr. Kang, I'm the chairwoman of Quartet Group, Darcy Quint!” When Max and his men came out from

- i VIR the elevator, Darcy and Kaze went up and stopped them.

I

Chapter 1079

Chapter 1079 10 Million . Compensation Max's eyes shone when he saw Darcy get in his way.

I The lustful greed in his eyes flashed but he was able to conceal it. He frowned and said, "Ms. Quint? I thought I told you to wait." Darcy had been waiting for a while now and seeing the impatience on Max's face irritated her.

Even though she was the one being inspected by the guild, they should have mutual respect for each other.

Max made it sound like she was begging him.

Darcy politely said, "Mr. Kang, we had a lunch appointment and now it's lunchtime. Why don't..." Max cut her off before she could finish.

He grunted impatiently and said, "I don't have the time now. Just wait here." He wanted to bring Leigh out of detention, not waste time on lunch with Darcy.

I He then led his men out of the hotel, leaving Darcy behind with a sour look.

Kaze coldly stared at Max and his men leaving the hotel. He said to Darcy, "Darcy, since he doesn't want to meet us, let's go." "We'll wait for a little longer..." Darcy said with a sigh and a shake of her head.

Four Ocean Commerce Guild was a titan in the business world and it was completely understandable that their members had an attitude. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

For the sake of the companies' future, Darcy had to bear with it.

Max brought his lawyers to the southern branch of the police department.

Since the car crash happened in the southern part of the city, Leigh was detained in the southern branch.

Kaze had told Caleb to inform Don, so the police officers in the southern branch released Leigh without giving them too much trouble.

However, after Max received the bill, it infuriated him.

"10 million? I thought the car involved was just a Maserati? Why is it this much?" A Maserati did not cost that much and paying that car's worth was nothing to the guild.

Now, the amount was far higher than the expected number.

Max did not want to be taken advantage of.

“Mr. Kang, the 10 million included the cost of the car and also the emotional distress damages for the owner. You have to pay the exact amount for this case to be closed, or else based on what happened, it’s unlikely that Mr. Glitter will be released today,” the branch chief said.

It was an astronomical amount for emotional distress damages! Max was furious but he forced himself to calm down and paid the compensation.

He paid the money out of his own pocket.

It would be up to the Glitters on how much he could get back.

After all, he was the one who brought Leigh to Lilyrose.

He had heard about Lilyrose Police Department being extremely corrupt.

Cosmo Lee of the Lee family was detained for a few days and was beaten up, forced to wash the toilets, and broke two of his legs when he was released.

Therefore, Max could not afford to let Leigh spend even a night there.

If something happened to Leigh in the detention center, the Glitters would skin him alive and no amount of money would ' save him.

A while later, Leigh was released.

Even though it had been less than an hour since his detention, Leigh had already been beaten up.

There were barely any injuries on him but he could not walk properly.

It was understandable given his feisty attitude.

Most of the people detained inside were gangsters and criminals. Given Leigh’s disrespectful and arrogant manner, he would certainly get into conflict with them.

Chapter 1080

Chapter 1080 Troublemaker “Leigh, are you alright?” .

Max went up to Leigh immediately and (escorted him out of the police station.

I “Dollook alright to you?” Leigh lit a cigarette and took a puff before he looked at the signage above the police station.

His gaze turned grim as he said coldly, “There were a few of them who took charge. I want everything about them. No Tom, Dick, and Harry can walk away alive after laying a finger on me. I’ll make the peasants know how severe the consequences are!” Leigh came from a wealthy and powerful family and he had always been the bully, not the other way around.

Even in Sunrise City, less than a handful of people would dare to challenge him.

] Sw *15 BONUS I Yetin Lilyrose, aside from losing the argument to a useless trash, he even got beaten up by the people inside the southern branch station, If the news got to Sunrise City, he would I lose face.

“Don’t worry, Leigh. Ill take care of it as if it’s my matter. Even without your orders, I’ll find out who did it and give you a satisfying answer,” Max said with a polite bow.

Leigh grunted and added, “Those insides are just goons. I’ll never forgive the two people who caused all this.

Coincidentally, these two people are closely related to your business trip here.” “Related to my business trip?” Max was baffled.

Leigh said strongly, “They’re Darcy Quint and her husband Kaze Lee, the one whose company you are inspecting. You know Wy TY OUNUS what to do, Max.” He shot a glance at Max, causing the man to shiver.

Max said without a second thought, « ) : f “Don’tworry, Leigh! I’ll never let that woman join the guild!” Slap! Right after he spewed the words, he got a slap on his face.

“Did I say I don’t want her in the guild?” Leigh shouted furiously.

Max covered his swollen face and nodded repeatedly. “Y-Yes, I understand. They messed with the wrong people. They won’t escape this easily. The husband shall be beaten up and the wife will be delivered to your bed, is that right?” He anxiously looked at Leigh after that, afraid to get another slap on his face. search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

I “Oh, and which asshole called Don I Braders to release me?” Max then told Leigh about Samson and how Samson contacted the mayor to get Leigh out of the detention center.

“Taz’s father? Fine, I owe him one. I’ll call him and thank him now.” Leigh pulled his phone out and called Samson.

Samson sighed on the other end of the phone and said, “Leigh, you don’t need to thank me. I just found out that it was Kaze Lee who got you arrested. He’s a stubborn one.” “No matter how stubborn he is, he’s not as influential as you, Uncle Samson. You

“Leigh, you shouldn’t take this idiot lightly. He’s not as simple as you think.” I Samson then explained, “You might not know but Kaze Lee is the one who broke Taz’s legs.”

Chapter 1081 Testing Kaze's Trump “And also Cosmo Lee from the Lee family. Kaze Lee broke his legs as well.

I (“That man is crazy, an idiot. To him, all of you wealthy young masters are nothing but a punching bag,” Samson said heavily.

Whether he was intentionally fanning the flames or just simply warning Leigh, only he himself knew the answer.

Samson’s words successfully piqued Leigh’s interest. He felt challenged.

“Cosmo Lee? He’s just a sissy,” Leigh said with a contemptuous grunt.

He added, “This time, I’ll show that bastard what it means to be a young master from a real wealthy, powerful family. I can crush him easier than crushing an ant!”

U - With his family’s support, Leigh had the confidence.

Samson continued, “Leigh, I don’t think you should take this lightly. Kaze Lee is quite close with the ex-mayor, Johnson I Brooks. Although Johnson is no longer around, his legacy remains. Don Braders, the chief of police, used to be his right- hand man.” “I see. His support is Johnson Brooks. I see it now!” Leigh grinned.

After hanging up the phone, Samson curled his lips into a grin as well.

The Lees were afraid of Johnson because of the governor, Loid Farland. Since Kaze was close with Johnson, they dared not go after him. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Therefore, Samson was tasked to target Kaze, With this opportunity presented to him, he could use Leigh to continue testing Kaze to see what else he had under his sleeves.

Samson's eyes narrowed as a hint of hatred flashed. He suddenly thought of I Taz who was still hospitalized.

He called his assistant into the office.

"Get someone to keep an eye on Kaze Lee's movements. Once he is caught in some big trouble, it will be our chance to snatch his wealth." Samson had gotten even more greedy.

Be it Darcy's companies or Kaze's Hudson Investment Firm, he wanted them all.

"Leigh, I've found out everything about the officers of the southern branch..." After Leigh hung up the call with Samson, Max gave him a tablet.

"his, This, This, And this."

Leigh pointed at the list of officers shown on the tablet and said angrily, "I want them at my place!" "Leigh, they are police officers. You can't simply hurt them!" Max said anxiously I "Stop the car!" Leigh shouted and then glared at Max.

"Get out!" "Leigh! I..." Max swallowed nervously.

Bang! The driver opened the door and Leigh kicked Max out of the car.

"Other than those fuckers, you better do something about Darcy Quint as well! Take videos of her, naked! «gamson's idea is workable. That woman is proud. If I have her sex tape and nudes, I can spread it all across the city and show the peasants how filthy their goddess is!

"Then I'll crush her useless husband! And if you can't get it done, you will be removed from the group of representatives!" Leigh then shut the car door.

I Max got up from the ground and watched the car drive off. He then called his benefactor, Leigh's father, Zel.

“Why are you calling me about something this trivial? Cosmo was beaten up by the Lee family’s abandoned son. If the news got out, it would make the Glitters look bad.

“Have the Glitters stayed in the dark for too long to the point that some Tom, Dick, and Harry got the nerves to lay a finger on my son? Do whatever Leigh wants. I'll send my men to Lilyrose...”

Chapter 1082

{ He forgot that to a wealthy family like the Glitters, reputation and dignity were more important than money. search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Moreover, Kaze was not just any John Doe, he was the abandoned son of the Sunrise Lees.

The Glitter and Lee families were competitors in many different fields.

No matter how ridiculous Leigh's demands were, the Glitters had to answer them.

With that, Max knew what he should do next.

He asked his men, “Are Darcy Quint and her husband still at the hotels

?” “Yes, sir. We just got confirmation from our men back there. They are still at the hotel.” Max nodded and said, “Let’s go back.” Back at Nobel Hotel, Darcy and Kaze continued waiting for Max.

Darcy’s stomach was growling already.

Suddenly, Max and his men came back and strode into the hotel lobby.

Darcy went up to him and asked, “Mr.

Kang, you're back. Are you free now?” She and Kaze had no idea that Max went to bring Leigh out of the police station.

“I'm free now. So sorry to make you wait, Ms. Quint,” Max said with a bow.

Darcy was delighted to see politeness from the man. It seemed like things could progress smoothly from here on.

She asked, "Have you taken lunch? If not, we have a table ready at the restaurant upstairs." "I'll pass on that. Ms. Quint, let's cut to the chase," Max said.

"Here, this way please." Max and his men brought Darcy and Kaze to the lobby's lounge area.

"Ms. Quint, let's be honest here. The guild has run multiple thorough checks on your companies. You are qualified to join the guild and all that's left is the standard operating procedures. This inspection is just one of the steps..." Max succinctly said.

Darcy was delighted. She did not expect things to progress this smoothly.

In other words, she could be part of Four Ocean Commerce Guild after she settled the necessary paperwork.

"No wonder the guild is expanding so well. I see the guild has many capable and talented people like you, Mr. Kang." Darcy praised and flattered Max for making things easy for her.

She asked, "What are the other terms and ( conditions?" "They are not actually terms and conditions..." Max said with a polite smile.

"We would like you to participate in a commercial shoot and get some promotional footage and items for the guild." "Uh, I'm a businesswoman, not a professional actor or model. I don't think it's a good idea..." Darcy did not like the idea at all as it did not appeal to her.

After what she had been through in the past, she hated exposing herself in front of the camera, let alone shooting a commercial or promotional video.

Why? However, since the guild agreed to let her join, she believed the terms and conditions were not that harsh, so she did not give a clear rejection.

Max noticed her hesitation and saw it as a chance. He tried to persuade her by saying, "Ms. Quint, have some confidence in yourself. You are better than the professional models. Besides, the guild has many actresses yet your looks stand out.

"Did I mention that it is quite tough to join the guild as the terms and conditions are strict? Those who successfully joined must contribute something to the guild."

Chapter 1083

Chapter 1083 I'm a Cutie Too “This time, the guild will not set any terms and conditions for you and all you need to do is promote the guild. Ms.

Quint, it's a very small favor in exchange for the strict terms and conditions...” Max tried to provoke Darcy but he was gloating at her deep down.

He made it sound like Darcy was already part of the guild but it was not true.

Once Darcy fell for his trap, her nudes would be all over the city.

Then, he would have a reason to reject her application because it would tarnish the guild's image.

It was a vicious idea.

Darcy would walk straight into the trap and suffer in the end.

She had no idea the wicked idea was brewing in Max's mind because she was considering his offer.

"It made sense. — Joining the guild was beneficial to every business because the members had a brand new platform to find potential businesses and expand further.

Four Ocean Commerce Guild had connections and resources that were available for all its members.

It was also the reason why it was so difficult to join.

Darcy did not want to lose the chance.

As for the commercial or promotional shooting, she assumed it was just a few short videos.

Once her business grew, she would have to face the camera even more and the internet would also dig out every detail about her.

I No matter how much she disliked it, she had to get used to living under the I spotlight.

Therefore, after some careful consideration, she nodded. “Alright, Mr.

Kang. IL..." "Hold on." Kaze suddenly spoke, stopping Darcy. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"What's the matter, Mr. Lee?" Max frowned. A hint of frostiness flashed in his eyes but he managed to conceal it.

Kaze said, "Mr. Kang, my wife doesn't like to be in front of the camera. Why don't I take her place?" "You?" "yeah. I'm as good as her. Or is it because you look down on me?" Kaze joked.

He added, "I'm the chairman of Shangrila Group and also the CEO of Hudson Investment Firm. Though I'm stripped of my title right now, I believe I will be reinstated in a few days.

"I have a good image as well. Compared to the old men the guild has, I'm practically an idol. I'm more than enough to be an ambassador for the guild." Everyone from the guild frowned at Kaze's words.

"He's so ordinary yet so confident," said a woman behind Max.

The woman with heavy makeup did not conceal her disrespect and contempt for Kaze.

Kaze glanced at her but did not say anything.

Max frowned. "Mr. Lee, you might not be suitable. Ms. Quint is a woman, it will be more effective..." "The guild provides a communication platform for businessmen and women,

I nota brothel with a pimp. Why so sexist?" Kaze joked.

"His words offended everyone in the-guild, I including Max.

"Mr. Lee, mind your words!" Max bellowed angrily.

"Kaze. Stop it!" Darcy nudged Kaze to stop him and then said to Max, "Mr. Kang, I'm sorry. Kaze thought I don't want to do it, that's why he tried to take my place. I'm so sorry about that.

"As for the shooting, it's settled. Please let me know when it starts."

Chapter 1084

Chapter 1084 Helicopter Helicopter "Upon hearing Darcy's words, the anger on Max's face faded.

"Very well. Ms. Quint, you are quite I decisive. The shoot might start today. You two can go home for now. I'll inform you about the location and time later," Max said to Darcy and Darcy only.

He did not even look at Kaze.

"Thank you." Darcy smiled and nodded. She nudged Kaze, signaling him to leave.

Max watched Darcy and Kaze disappear from his sight. He then said to the woman who mocked Kaze earlier, "Loren, get someone to set up a set and contact the production crew.

u I "When you inform Darcy Quint later, tell her not to bring her husband. The ) production crew will take care of her." Max did not take Kaze seriously but he did not want the idiot to cause trouble.

I He knew from his sources that Kaze was physically strong.

"No problem, Mr. Kang. If that idiot appears, I'll twist his dick. He's so ordinary but he's blindly confident.

What's his problem..." Loren narrowed her eyes as she answered. She seemed to dislike Kaze a lot.

After leaving the hotel, Kaze and Darcy went to cure their starvation.

When the food was served, Kaze said, "Darcy, when they inform you of the time and location, let me know. I'm worried that the guild is planning something

I else." "Really? Mr. Kang doesn't look like a bad " guy," Darcy said.

Kaze shook his head helplessly. His wife was stupidly kind and naive, only good at I building business, not identifying hidden danger. € Then, Kaze received a call from Draco.

"Boss, Four Ocean Commerce Guild suddenly applied to use the airspace.

They are having a helicopter flying below normal altitude this afternoon." The Lilyrose Strategic Department was also in charge of controlling the airspace above the city, so not even drones could be flown at will, let alone a helicopter.

If a drone or an air vehicle had to be airborne, one must make the necessary application with the strategic department.

It was not a big deal but Draco knew that r Four Ocean Commerce Guild blacklisted Shangrila Group, so he ordered his men to put the guild under surveillance.

Any move the guild made would be investigated thoroughly and reported to the superior. No low-ranking soldiers I could give them clearance.

Draco noticed it the moment he received the application.

“Why are they using a helicopter?” Kaze asked. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“The reason they stated is for a promotional video shooting,” Draco said.

I g The application did not state for what kind of promotional video shooting.

“Alright. I got it.” Kaze nodded.

After lunch, Kaze sent Darcy back to Quartet Group while he went back to the city council to work.

A while later, Darcy received a call from Loren.

“Ms. Quint, the set is ready and the production crew are here. Can you-corry now?”
“Now?” Darcy was surprised.

Loren proudly said, “Ms. Quint, it’s nothing surprising. That’s how the guild does things. One call and we can get a famous director from Sunrise City and his crew to Lilyrose.”
Based on Leigh’s demands, Darcy would be the female lead of this “promotional video”.

Therefore, Max asked for a famous director to take naked pictures of Darcy.

It also showed how powerful the guild was.

Chapter 1085

I Chapter 1085 On Set “Okay, I'll be right there.” Darcy put her work aside and had the company car to send her to the location.

The shooting location was arranged at an old castle just outside Lilyrose.

The castle was originally planned to be a set for movie shooting but the repairs halted for some reason and the project did not go as planned.

Now it had become a tourist spot.

The production crew set up cameras near the pond inside the castle. All the crew members were busy preparing for the shoot.

“Ms. Quint, you're here. Let me introduce you to the director—Guillermo Tarantino.” Loren brought Darcy to a bearded man with a beer tummy “Director.” Darcy greeted the director politely and was impressed by Four Ocean Commerce Guild’s influence and resources.

I Guillermo Tarantino was a famous director who had shot many feature films that had great box offices.

Even Darcy, who was not into entertainment news, heard of his name before.

"Wow! Look at you, beautiful! I heard the crew say you were a beauty, but you looked even more stunning in person!" Guillermo stared pervertedly at Darcy as he spoke loudly.

He knew Leigh had his eyes on her, so he did not try anything that might get himself in trouble.

Darcy’s first impression of the director plummeted but she was not in a position , to voice her complaints, so she simply nodded.

“Ms. Quint, please get your makeup-done first. We have the makeup artists ready for you.” I Loren told the makeup artist to get Darcy ready for the shoot.

She stayed behind and chatted with the director, giggling and laughing from time to time.

Darcy noticed her interaction with the director and it baffled her.

“Is this a period costume?” Darcy was asked to change into a set of period costume, seemingly from ancient Rome or some sort. She had only seen such costumes on other people and had never worn them herself before.

“Not just that. There are a lot of costumes here you can try, like the western costume, spy costume, et cetera, This is , your first time and you get to try all these.

You're quite brave,” the makeup artist I said with a smile.

Confused, Darcy blinked helplessly. The makeup artist’s words felt strange.

Other than her, there were other women at the makeup desks as well. All of them had heavy makeup on, which somehow made them look slutty. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

The makeup artists said the women were extras and Darcy was the main lead.

The women were also asked to change into different costumes, like western dresses, spy costumes, et cetera.

However, after the women got changed, Darcy could not even lay eyes on them because their costumes were too revealing.

One of them wore a see-through costume that almost revealed her entire breasts.

The others had revealing parts all over their bodies as well, The makeup area instantly felt like a brothel with prostitutes in cosplay-trying to seduce their customers.

Darcy was too embarrassed to wear the costume even at home, let alone in front of the camera.

“Isn’t this a promotional video for the guild? Why is everyone wearing such revealing costumes?” Darcy put the costume down and asked with a hint of annoyance in her tone.

She thought the makeup artist or the costume designer got it wrong.

The makeup artist looked at her, confused.

“Ms. Quint, stop pretending. This is what we are shooting today. You are already here, don’t you know the context of the shoot?”

“What do you mean revealing? Are you living in a cave?” “I didn’t expect to see a pretentious bitch here.” “Pretentious indeed. I have never seen such a woman in this industry before. I bet she’s trying to get the director’s attention.” The other women heard Darcy and were unhappy with her questions.

Chapter 1086

Chapter 1086 For You The women were so-called “internet prostitutes”, They probably had OF Pages and sold their nudes and videos for a living but judging from their looks, they were not the popular ones.

They were jealous of Darcy when they saw her and they were annoyed when the makeup artist called them extras.

Now, they got the chance to vent their grievance, “What do you mean revealing?” One of them, Lena, even pushed Darcy’s shoulder.

Darcy managed to keep herself from falling by holding onto the table. She looked at Lena angrily and bellowed, “Why did you push me?! The costumes are revealing! I’m not wearing them!”

J +1580NUS 4 “Where’s the person in charge from the guild? Is this some kind of mistake?!” Darcy called for Loren. “What is going on? Are you sure this is right?” Loren was talking to the director about taking Darcy’s nudes and videos. She heard the commotion and had a glance, but was unfazed, The director raised his hand, asking his assistant what happened.

After communicating through the walkie-talkie, the assistant said, “Director, Ms, Quint is arguing with the other extras. She said the costume is too revealing and doesn’t want to change into it.”

“Ms. Lager, what should we do...” Guillermo looked at Loren with a troubled expression, Loren was just a normal employee of the guild but even the famous director had to take orders from her.

He could not afford to mess with the guild since it was extremely powerful: “That pretentious bitch!” Loren cursed and strode over to the makeup area.

After Loren came over, Darcy said, “Loren, the makeup artist wants me to wear a revealing costume. Is this some kind of mistake? What kind of promotional video is this?” “There’s nothing wrong, Darcy. You are to wear the revealing costume,” Loren said with a heavy sigh.

She added, “Haven’t you kept up with the trend? What is wrong with the costume? It’s sexy.” “What is wrong?” Darcy widened her eyes in disbelief and argued, “This is going public, how can I wear this? Whose idea was this? Was it yours or Mr. Kang's? I want to talk to him!"

Loren laughed. "You don't need to. The idea doesn't belong to any one of us, it's actually the entire guild's idea. You can walk away, but you will also be walking away from the guild." She crossed her arms and spoke \ | arrogantly.

Darcy was embarrassed and angry.

Max was polite when he made the offer but now Darcy was asked to wear a revealing costume for a promotional video shoot.

"If this is the terms and conditions of joining the guild, I'm out." Darcy started to walk away. S~earch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"Don't embarrass yourself!" Loren did not expect Da rcy to really walk away. Her expression turned grim.

"Don't just stand there, stop her!"

Heeding Loren's order, a group of tall and buff men came out and surrounded Darcy.

"What are you people doing!?" Afraid and angry, Darcy stared at the men who had her surrounded. She saw them \ i when she arrived and thought they were the security or workers since the production crew was huge.

Only right then she found out they were Loren's men.

She looked at Loren and asked coldly, "What is the meaning of this?" Loren crossed her arms and laughed.

"Darcy, let me tell you what is going on.

This entire shoot is prepared for you and you only. We are going to take your nudes and maybe a few videos, nothing promotional.

"This isn't a place where you can simply walk away. Now that you are here, we will Darcy shuddered as her heart plummeted into despair.

Chapter 1087

Chapter 1087 Don in Trouble Darcy finally figured it out.

It was Leigh. He was behind all of this because he wanted to get revenge.

When Darcy connected the situation to Max's sudden change of attitude back at the hotel, it made sense.

He pretended to invite her to the shoot as a requirement to join the guild so they could ravage and humiliate her.

Darcy was deeply shaken.

From the moment she got into the car crash with Leigh, she had been blindly walking into the trap. SEARCH the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

She forced herself to calm down and shouted at the men. "Move! This is illegal! My husband is close with the police chief! One phone call and he will send officers over to arrest all of you!"

Darcy used Don's name and title to try to scare them off.

"The police chief of Lilyrose? I'm so scared... Hahaha!" Loren laughed. "Darcy, don't expect to see the police chief here. He messed with the wrong people and he's in huge trouble himself.

"Leigh is ready to get someone to take his place. Your husband called the police on Leigh, so when one of us becomes the police chief, you and your husband, your family, and everyone you know will be destroyed!" Even though Leigh was not around, Loren had strong admiration for him judging from her zealous tone.

Darcy's expression shifted. "Nonsense! You can't just replace the police chief with one of your men!" "The police chief is nothing but a dog in front of the Glitter family!" Loren grunted and continued, "You must have underestimated the Glitters to think that they are incapable of doing something like this.

"But this isn't all about you or your useless husband. They are making plans to enter Lilyrose's market. You two are nothing but bugs to the Glitter family..." The moment Loren revealed the Glitter family's true intention, Darcy's heart sank.

She knew how powerful and influential the Glitters were.

Previously, the Vinland and Lee families swapped the mayor with one of their men with ease.

The same thing could happen with the police chief.

If the Glitter family replaced Don with one of their own, it would be catastrophic for Darcy and her family.

“What's wrong? Scared?” Loren laughed at Darcy's pale look. “Be a good girl and do as we say. The sluttier you are, the better. You might even impress Leigh and once he's done playing with you, he'll let you go...”

“You people, out! Don't disturb our dear Ms. Quint from changing. It's damn hot today. Let's wrap this up as soon as possible!” Loren told her men to scatter before she walked away with a vicious smile.

She believed she had the situation under control.

If Darcy did not want catastrophe to befall her family, she would cooperate and strip herself in front of the camera.

“She messed with Young Master Leigh? No wonder they want her nudes!”

“The other day Young Master Leigh came to our set and the female lead caught his eye. The agency sent her to his bed that night.” “How dare she mess with Young Master Leigh?” The crew members shook their heads as they scattered away, leaving Darcy alone.

Darcy's heart sank.

The men who surrounded her had left the scene but they were still on set. They could come and threaten her again at any time. She could not escape.

“What are you looking for? This?” While Darcy was looking for something, one of the women in a revealing costume, Lena, waved Darcy's phone in front of her, teasing her.

Chapter 1088

Chapter 1088 A Woman's Malice Earlier, Darcy put her phone down when she was about to change.

“Give it back!” Darcy could not just do nothing and wait for them to ravage her.

She tried to snatch her phone back but Lena quickly hid it behind herself and stepped away.

Darcy teared up when her snatch attempt missed and grew anxious.

“You want it? I’m not giving it to you,” Lena said with a grin.

She continued to tease Darcy.

She then tapped on Darcy’s phone and saw the screensaver of Darcy and Kaze.

Lena scoffed, “The guy here is your husband? He’s ugly! Is he rich? Or else what do you see in him?”

“Rich? Loren said the guy is just some useless piece of trash.” “A piece of trash? Then why did she fall for him?” “Because he’s a piece of trash?” I “Hahaha!” The other women laughed at Darcy and mocked Kaze.

Darcy was upset and teared up, and the women gloated at her even more.

“Give me back my phone!” Darcy wiped her tears away and darted toward Lena.

Lena was prepared. She took a step back and quickly countered with a slap. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Slap! A red mark covered Darcy’s fair face.

“I’m not giving it back! Stop wasting your time! I’ll fucking slap your face off.” Lena was jealous of Darcy’s looks and she “wanted to ruin it with her own hands: The makeup artist quickly stepped in and stopped Lena. “Stop it! If you ruin her looks, my makeup can’t save her from being disfigured and if the shoot is canceled or delayed, Young Master Leigh will be mad and we will all suffer!” The women were struck with sudden realization. No one dared to attack Darcy anymore.

Darcy initially thought the makeup artist was trying to save her but it was simply out of fearing Leigh.

Darcy drowned in her own despair.

The makeup artist went up to Darcy and said, “Ms. Quint, get changed. We are just doing our job, don’t give us a hard time.” “Yeah. Get changed. If Young Master Leigh is mad, we will all suffer with you!”

The women surrounded Darcy immediately, trying to coerce her into compliance.

In fact, the women alone were enough to handle Darcy.

Loren did not need to bring her men out.

Once a woman harbored malice toward another woman, anything could happen.

Darcy felt extremely helpless.

'Kaze, where are you...' She prayed in her heart and regretted not allowing him to come along.

It was at that moment, that someone came behind them.

"Why are you lot surrounding my wife?" the person bellowed.

It was Kaze.

He got suspicious when Max's attitude toward Darcy changed back at the hotel.

After he got back to the city council, he called Darcy's assistant and requested her to call him when Darcy left.

When he arrived on set, he asked one of the crew members for Darcy's location.

However, the strange reaction of one crew member raised even more suspicion in him.

Kaze's voice was angelic to Darcy's ears.

"Kaze!" Darcy pushed the women away and darted into Kaze's arms, crying like a baby.

Chapter 1089

Chapter 1089 My Double Eyelids! "It's okay, Darcy. I'm here now." It was Kaze's first time seeing Darcy this vulnerable. He hugged her tightly and patted her back to soothe her.

When he saw the slap mark on Darcy's face, he was infuriated.

"Who did this?" Kaze looked at the women angrily.

They were not afraid of him after knowing his identity.

“Go you are the useless piece of trash? So what if I slapped your wife? She’s a pretentious bitch!” «yeah. It’s done. What can you do? You want us to kneel and apologize to her?” “To her?” The women, including the makeup artist, looked at Kaze arrogantly.

The anger of the weak was meaningless.

Kaze was just a useless man who got married and took his wife’s family name.

They did not take him seriously at all.

“Great! This is great! Great!” Kaze was fuming.

“Darcy, wait for me. I’ll bring you back in a moment.” He released Darcy and went over to the women. “If no one wants to admit it, then I’ll consider everyone to have slapped her.” “What are you going to do? You useless shit!” «pouch us and Loren’s men will break you!” «He’s one guy and there’re so many of us!”

The group of vicious women fueled each other’s confidence.

They were not scared even when Kaze might hit them. They crossed their arms and looked at him arrogantly.

Kaze’s gaze turned cold. He grabbed the closest one to him, Lena, and slapped her face.

Slap! It was loud.

Lena did not expect Kaze to do it without a second thought.

Her face was burning and the slap even blinded her right eye temporarily.

«My double eyelids! You fuck!” The woman screamed like a witch and attacked Kaze like a frenzied cat.

Slap! Kaze slapped her to the ground and then Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality. looked at the others.

He went after every single one of them and slapped them all to the ground: “My face! My botox!” “My nose! You broke my nose!” “you fuck!” The witches screamed as they were being targeted by the angry hunter.

Kaze did not spare any of them, including the makeup artist.

The women's faces went through multiple plastic surgeries and now with a slap from Kaze, they had to go back to their plastic surgeon once more.

Their faces were their bread and butter in making cheap content.

Slapping and disfiguring them was much worse than killing them.

"you fuck. You hit a woman? You are not aman!" The women screamed and cried at Kaze on the ground. They finally felt fear: No man had ever hit them like Kaze did.

"you bitches got it coming. You didn't treat my wife as a woman as well when you hit her." Kaze then went back over to Darcy's side.

"Darcy, let's go." "Where do you think you are going?" It was then Loren appeared with her goons.

Chapter 1090

Chapter 1090 A Talking Lesson Loren glanced at the women on the floor and roughly figured out what had transpired. She coldly stared at Kaze and bellowed, "Kaze Lee, you have some nerves to show up here. You ruined Leigh's plans. Don't even think about leaving now." Lena and the others gained confidence from Loren's arrival.

"Ms. Lagger, you must avenge us! That fucker ruined our faces! How are we going to continue the shoot?" "That piece of shit slaps a woman! He's a misogynist!" The others got up on their feet and stared at Kaze viciously.

Upon hearing their claims, the other crew members started to criticize Kaze Shut up! Loren silenced the women before saying loudly, "Get over here!" Following her command, the men who surrounded Darcy earlier swarmed over immediately.

They stared at the couple viciously. The leader shot a contemptuous gaze at Kaze and said, "Ms. Lagger, is it him?" "There's no rush in crushing him," Loren said casually. "Since he has the balls to show up here, let's have some fun with him first." Kaze was alone and she had a dozen strong men at her command, which fueled her confidence and arrogance. She strongly believed she had the situation under control.

Loren strutted over to Kaze and looked at him disdainfully. “Kaze Lee, [ remember you were unhappy when I scolded you back at Nobel Hotel. Now that you are in this situation, what do you want to say \ for yourself?” Kaze did not even remember the little encounter back at the hotel but Loren did.

He said, “You are just Leigh Glitter’s little bitch, and not the only one either. I don’t think I have anything to talk to you about.” “you fuck!” Loren’s brows tightly furrowed as she glared at Kaze, but they quickly smoothed out as she grinned.

Chapter 1091 Attack Together “Aaaargh!” Loren screamed in pain as she was sent flying before crashing into one of the vanity desks.

Kabam! The cosmetics fell off the desks and splashed all over her body.

The entire area was covered in powder and a pungent fragrance of a perfume.

Everyone else was stunned.

No one expected Kaze to kick Loren when he was surrounded by a dozen men.

Lena and the other women were horrified.

Kaze had slapped them in the face and now he kicked Loren in the stomach! He was a savage!

Not only Lena and the women, but the other crew members were similarly shocked. \ They assumed Kaze had messed up big time.

Loren was a member of the Four Ocean Commerce Guild, supported by Leigh and the Glitters.

“you punk! You are dead meat!” The leader of the men shouted, but he did not order his men to attack Kaze right away.

Instead, he and his men went over to help Loren up.

“Ms. Lager, are you alright? We didn’t expect that punk to hit you...” the leader apologized.

He knew Loren was SO arrogant and bold because she had slept with Leigh before.

Some time ago, Leigh and Max had a gathering with his team and Loren was there.

Leigh had one too many drinks that night and got drunk.

Loren seized the chance and dragged him to her room and had sex with him.

It was not an understatement to say that Loren raped Leigh.

However, Loren was fine even after Leigh regained consciousness. Quite the contrary, Leigh slept with her two more times and they even had an orgy with his friends.

Loren was completely fine with the orgy.

The men were security guards of the guild and they knew exactly what happened.

The sex with Leigh authenticated Loren's identity.

After that, Loren called herself Leigh's woman, and her arrogance grew.

Even Max was afraid of her at times.

Even the crew members shot a sympathetic gaze at Kaze.

Kaze messed with Loren—a witch in other words.

Darcy was horrified as well. She dared not even imagine what would happen to her if Kaze lost.

I Then, Kaze held her hand and said, "Darcy, don't worry. They are just some bigger trash. They can't stop us." He released Darcy's hand and went over to the men.

"You guys can come at me together, let's not waste time."

It had never been heard before.

Kaze said, "Nope. I just despise you lot." His words further fueled the men's anger.

Loren shouted, "Cut the crap and get him! Crush him and then strip Darcy naked for the shoot! "Kaze, the helicopter will take your wife's naked pictures and scatter them across the city. Your wife will be the 4

"Get him!" The leader raised his hand, signaling his men to attack Kaze.

Kaze's gaze turned cold. He grabbed the closest man to him and twisted the man's arm into a freaky angle.

Crack! "Aaaargh!" The man screamed in pain before he was kicked in the chin by Kaze. He was sent flying like a loose kite, crashing on the ground, and lost all signs of life.

The others, including the leader, were scared.

They did not expect Kaze to be this strong.

With just a simple move, he knocked out one of the security guards.

Before they could react, Kaze charged at them.

Fump! Thump! Whack! Like a tiger jumping onto its prey, Kaze threw a flurry of punches and kicks, breaking bones and knocking heads to the ground.
