Chapter 161 Club for the Socialites

Jackal and his team used to be reconnaissance soldiers, so they had excellent tracking techniques, but they paled in comparison to Kaze.

He already knew someone was tailing him since he drove out of the house, but he did not know it was Dan's men. Jackal said, "God of War, our boss wants us to follow you around so we can help you settle problems and run errands." "Fine. Just stay low."

Kaze nodded.

He indeed needed people to run errands for him.

He could mobilize the Tiger Fangs and Garo Spec Ops Team at will, plus several other battalions and special forces under the command of Lilyrose Strategic Department, but it was not that convenient to move that many people around.

He did not want serving soldiers to be at his side at all times as well.. It would risk exposing his identity. Jackal and his team were the perfect choice.

They might be nothing to Draco but Draco was the strongest war general under the God of War, so it was not actually fair to begin with.

"Thank you, God of War! We'll do our best!"

Jackal and his men were excited.

Being able to run errands for the God of War, the almighty general that all soldiers admired, was a dream come true.

“Just call me Mr. Lee from now on.

Kaze then went back to his car.

“Yes, Mr. Lee!”

Jackal and his men put on a straight look. They knew the consequences of exposing Kaze’s identity.

Kaze waited in the car for a while but he still did not spot his brother- in-law anywhere.

Darcy called Sky earlier and told him to call Kaze as soon as he came out of the train station.

Kaze wondered if anything happened to Sky.

He picked up his phone and made a call. It finally got through after several attempts.

“Who is this? Why do you keep calling me?” Sky’s irritated voice came through the phone.

The voice sounded youthful but short-tempered.

“I’m your brother-in-law, Kaze.”

“Kaze? I’m warning you. | don’t acknowledge you as my brother- law! Don’t be so shameless!”

Sky grunted in contempt.

Kaze smiled. "It's fine. As long as your sister calls me her husband then you will have to accept me as well." "Dream on! I'll tell Darcy to divorce you right away!" Sky grumbled.

Kaze heard a piano melody from the other end of the line. "Where are you now? You're not on the train, are you?" "I'm at Socialite Club, Tiffany's place. Piss off and stop bugging me!"

Kaze said, "No can do. Your sister wants me to pick you up."

"I'm not a kid! She has no control over me! Freaking annoying! Hello? Wait? What? That prick hung up on me!?" Sky slammed his phone on the table.

He was drinking at Socialite Club.

"Sky, who called you? Why are you so angry?"

Tiffany chuckled at the boy's childish temper.

Sky and Darcy looked alike. If he put on a dress, he could easily disguise as Darcy.

His skin was fair and his facial features were pronounced.

On top of that, he was still youthful like a puppy at its cutest stage. He was exactly Tiffany's type.

Irritated, Sky said, "Kaze Lee, the stupid ass that my family forced my sister to marry a while ago. | have known him since | was young. He's always clinging to my sister like a fly. Annoying ass!"

"Your brother-in-law? I've heard of him. Kaze Lee is a well-known name in Lilyrose. Everyone knows him."

Speak of the devil. She smiled and said, "Why don't you invite him here and I'll welcome him." "No, Tiffany. I don't want to see him," Sky said.

Then, a waiter came into the room.

"Boss, someone who claims he is Mr. Quint's brother-in-law is looking for him. He's outside."

Chapter 162 Tiffany Chapman

"Tell him to piss on, f, didn't want to see him," Sky said impatiently.

He did not want Kaze to embarrass him in front of Tiffany, the lady he fancied.

Tiffany smiled and said Sky if your sister knows you ditched him, she will be mad at you!!

"Tiffany, I know you are doing this sometime, but he's a retard. I don't want him to cause a scene here your business." Tiffany was the owner of Socialite Club, and it was Sky's first time here.

The moment he stepped in, he was beautifully decorated and the customers were a bunch. He even saw some regulars from the

"It's fine. Even if your brother-in-law thrashes Socialite Club today, I won't give him a hard time. For your sake." Tiffany got up. She stroked the boy's face slender

Then, she turned to the waiter and said, "Invite Mildred inside."

Tiffany you are so kind to me."

Sky's heart was pounding after the little tease. His face even blushed puppy.

flashed in Tiffany's beautiful eyes. She was skilled in easing innocent boys like Sky and she had never failed to ensnare their hearts

Many boys who were infatuated with her succumbed to her temptation.

Kaze was brought into the club.

He ignored the decorations in the club and went straight to Sky.

"Sky, your sister wants me to bring you home right now. Come with me."

Sky lost his mood and patience the moment he saw Kaze.

He turned away with a grumpy look. "Stop irritating me. I am not a child anymore. I know when and how to go back!" Kaze frowned.

The boy was a university student but acted like a boy in elementary school.

Tiffany said, "Mr. Lee, I'm Tiffany Chapman. Sky came to my place for the first time today and he's just starting to enjoy being here. Why don't you stay and have some fun before you take him back?"

Kaze looked at the lady with enchanting eyes that could devour a man. "Tiffany Chapman? You're from the Chapman family?" He heard from Snow that one of the three representatives of the families who took over Hilfinger Corporation was Tiffany Chapman. Tiffany nodded. "That's right, Mr. Lee. Nice to meet you. I have heard a lot about you."

She extended her slender, hand for a shake.

Kaze simply shook it and broke contact with her.

“Fine. I'll wait for Sky then.”

He sat down. He wanted to find out what the woman was planning.

She teamed up with the other two families to snatch Hilfinger

no HD Lying

No one would believe that she was plainly flirting with the boy. A hint of coldness flashed in Tiffany's eyes. The nonchalance she felt from Kaze displeased her.

All men who saw her would fall for her charms and their desire for her would show in their eyes. They wished they could eat her alive.

She was confident in her charms, yet Kaze was indifferent.

Sky was irritated by Kaze's presence. He got up with a bitter look and said, “Tiffany, let's go somewhere else. I don't want to see him. He was about to leave for another section of the club as two young men wobbled into the place.

They looked arrogant and somewhat drunk. They pushed Sky away and went up to Tiffany.

One of the men grabbed Tiffany's waist and moved downwards to her boction to tease her.

Tiffany, you've been practicing yoga lately? Look how firm your. Tsk. Tsk. When can I have a taste?”

Chapter 163 Sky Got Hit

Tiffany tried to break free from his grope but failed.

She reluctantly said, "Howl, I'm not young anymore. Please don't tease me."

Howl from the Vikroms, a first-tier family.

His sister would be Vicky Vikrom, the girl that Samus had chased for years and still did not get. Howl attended the yacht party at Horizon Mirror the other day.

The other man was Daniel Logman, also from a first-tier family. He grabbed Tiffany's hand and said with a giggle, "Tiffany, you must be joking. You are at the golden age of all women. You are more mature than those insolent girls outside. Why don't you have some fun with us?"

The two of them laughed as they teased Tiffany.

Tiffany might be from one of the top three families but Daniel and Howl were not afraid of teasing her because it was not their first time.

She was known as a seductress in the circle and many men had played with her before.

They might be teasing and flirting with her but they all knew that they might not be the predator in this little game. The strongest predator usually appeared in the form of prey.

Daniel and Howl's disrespectful teases angered Sky.

He stepped in and pulled Tiffany behind him. He glared at the two of them and bellowed, "Piss off. You are making Tiffany uncomfortable!"

Kaze was on the couch, eating snacks and playing Tetris on his

He looked at Sky when he heard the commotion but he was not overly concerned. "Yo, isn't this the little boy from the Quint family? The second-tier family?"

Howl recognized Sky. He scoffed, "We are just having fun with Tiffany here, we're not making her uncomfortable. Besides, she's not your girlfriend, why are you poking your nose into this?"

"Yeah. Piss off, little boy. Are you asking for a beating?"

Daniel crossed his arms and peered down at Sky, provoking him with an arrogant look. "Shut your piehole! | am not a boy!"

Sky roared at the two of them. "You two better piss off. | won't allow you two to harass Tiffany!" "If you don't want to be a boy, then fight like a man!" Howl chuckled,

He rolled up his sleeves and slapped Sky in the face.

Slap!

Sky's fair cheek turned red instantly.

Daniel seized the chance and kicked Sky in the stomach.

"You bastards, how dare you hit me!"

Sky glared at the two of them on the floor. His eyes were bloodshot.

and his face red.

Tiffany, who was sweet and caring a moment ago, did not bother to help Sky up. She stood there with her arms crossed and feigned a frightened look.

She was trying to see how Kaze would react.

However, Kaze remained on the couch and glued to his phone. He did not even care about the little fight or show signs of coming to the rescue.

Tiffany showed contempt.

The useless son-in-law of the Quint family was cold-blooded.

She shot a gaze at Howl and Daniel.

“Yeah, little boy. Sad because we called you little boy? You are still as useless as you used to be in school. We beat you up back then and you called your sister on us. Too bad your family is no longer in power and your sister won’t have your back this time.”

Howl peered down at Sky as he walked closer.

Daniel scoffed, “Sky, your sister used to be fierce. What happened to her now? She married an idiot husband. Go ask your sister if she is still horny. We can volunteer to satisfy her together. She can have two of us together.”

“Hahaha...”

The two of them laughed.

“You fuckers!”

Sky was infuriated. He looked at Tiffany with teary eyes. “Tiffany, throw them out! They insulted my sister!”

Chapter 164 Brother-In-Law’s Second Lesson

“Sky, they are my customers. How can the boss throw their customers out? Come on, it’s just a little prank.” Tiffany did not ask Daniel and Howl to leave. Instead, she told Sky not to be calculative.

Sky was aggrieved. “They hit me and insulted my sister!”

“They were just joking with you,” Tiffany said, showing no signs of helping.

Sky widened his eyes in disbelief.

Tiffany was sweet and caring a while ago yet now she was like a stranger to him.

Howl scoffed, “Sky, you useless piece of shit. Are you hoping Tiffany will help you? We are the Platinum members of the club. Who do you think you are?”

“Why don’t you call your sister here and she could ‘beat’ us back on the bed? Hahaha!”

Daniel laughed as well.

“You two fuckers!” Sky wished he could beat them up, but he could not.

Then, Kaze put his phone away and came over.

Tiffany raised her brows. It seemed like he finally decided to intervene and defend Sky.

However, she believed he would not be able to do anything to Howl and Daniel. He might even get beaten up worse than Sky. 4/4

Sky would then make complaints to his sister and Darcy would be fed up with Kaze, thus divorcing him. It was the main reason she instigated Howl and Daniel to bully Sky.

“The useless son-in-law of the Quint family is here as well? What’s wrong, wanna avenge your brother-in-law?” Kaze stared at them. His hand moved as fast as lightning and slapped the two of them.

Before Howl and Daniel knew it, they were already on the floor.

The slaps were so strong that it paralyzed them for a moment.

Tiffany was stunned, and so were the other customers.

Kaze seemed to be powerful. No one saw how he beat up Daniel and Howl.

Sky stared at Kaze blankly.

Kaze then slapped Sky in the face.

Sky cried. He covered his face and glared at Kaze. "What's wrong with you?!"

Kaze looked at him coldly. "You are useless. Your sister is being insulted and you can't even fight back?" "I'm not useless!" Sky was infuriated.

Howl and Daniel called him useless, and now Kaze, who he looked down on, called him the same.

"If you want to prove that you are not useless, break their legs."

Kaze reached out to the baseball bat in the corner with his foot and then shoved it into Sky's arms.

Sky's hands shook terribly as he held the baseball bat. He looked at Howl and Daniel, hesitating.

The two of them were on the floor, immobilized. He could do whatever he wanted to them, but he dared not.

"You are a coward and useless trash."

Kaze shook his head in disappointment and grabbed the baseball bat away. He wanted to do it himself. The two pricks insulted his wife, so their legs must be broken today.

"I said I am not useless!" Sky shouted suddenly and snatched the baseball bat from Kaze.

He ran up to Howl and Daniel and swung it at their knees.

Crack!

Aloud bone-cracking noise was heard, followed by Howl's excruciating scream across the club. "Aaaah!"

Daniel cried his lungs out as well.

Before anyone could react, Sky broke his leg as well.

The two of them cried excruciatingly. Their screams echoed across the club, assaulting everyone's ears.

It was frightening! Sky felt the adrenaline rush in him as he looked at the two of them. The fear in him was replaced by anger.

Kaze nodded happily. "Next time, whoever insulted your sister, fight them. No matter what trouble you cause, I have your back. Got it?"

"I got it! Kaze!"

Sky clenched his fists tightly and it seemed like he had acknowledged Kaze.

He looked at Kaze with a hint of admiration that even he did not notice.

Kaze encouraged him to truly be a man today, to stand up against insult and injustice. Darcy used to protect him when they were younger but now he could finally stand up for himself, and his sister. Sky lifted his chest.

"Kaze, am I still useless?"

Kaze shook his head.

Sky pursed his lips.

Kaze said, "A man must have something stronger than his fists-his brain. You have to learn how to differentiate the bad from the good. Now, I am teaching you lesson two."

He then swung his hand at Tiffany, slapping her face all of a su

Chapter 165 Destroy Socialite Club

Slap!

The loud slap was like a bell ringing in everyone's head, striking fear into their hearts. They all looked at Kaze in disbelief.

He must have lost his mind! How dare he slap Tiffany?

She was an elite of the Chapman family!

Tiffany covered her face in shock.

Sky was also surprised. He held Kaze's hand and grumbled, "Kaze, why did you slap Tiffany? She's good to me! She's kind and caring! It's not her fault, she's just trying to do business!"

Sky was so dumb that he did not know he was the prey.

Kaze shook his head and said, "There are people who are villainous on the outside, whereas some are wicked on the inside. Just wait.

Someone is going to reveal their true colors soon." "Kaze Lee! How dare you slap me!" Tiffany screamed. She recovered from her shock and glared at Kaze with a ferocious look.

"I'll fuck you up, you stupid fucking retard! I'll get my men to abduct your wife, strip her naked in front of everyone, and throw her onto Howl and Daniel's bed! They will fuck your wife up so hard that she won't even get to scream!"

Sky looked at Tiffany in shock.

The expletives that she spewed from her mouth made her an entirely

Sky even suspected that he heard her wrong.

Was she the same person? How could she say something so vicious and vulgar? "See? This is who you think has been good to you."

Kaze added, "Yesterday, she was with Eliot Everia and Frank Golding at Hilfinger Corporation. They made Kelly and Henry jump off the building and took the company that belonged to us. How could a vicious woman 'like her be a kind and caring lady?"

His brother-in-law was not only a coward, he was a naive fool who could not differentiate the good from the bad.. It must be because of what happened to the Quint family in the past five years that caused his current character. It was also the reason Kaze did not help him when he was being beaten up by the other two.

He used the chance to instigate the boy to break Daniel's and Howl's legs, trying to awaken his ferality.

Now, he taught a second lesson to his naive brother-in-law.

Through practical lessons, he let the young boy know not to judge a book by its cover.

Sky looked at Tiffany in shock. "Tiffany, is it true?"

Tiffany shifted her grudge on Sky as well.

Since she was exposed, there was no point in hiding her true colors anymore. She said viciously, "Yeah, I made Kelly and Henry jump off the building. We took Hilfinger Corporation from the Quint family. Every one of you is useless trash! Hilfinger Corporation should not be in your hands!"

Sky's eyes were bloodshot.

Tiffany used to be a kind and caring lady, a lady worthy of his love, but now his image of her was completely shattered. Kaze captured the expression on Sky's face but did not say a word.

It was growing pains.

"Let's go."

He tapped on Sky's shoulder and wanted to take him away.

"Go? Where the fuck are you going? Don't even think of walking out of this club!"

Tiffany grunted and summoned her employees.

“Call security!”

Then, she looked at the other customers and said loudly, “I’m sorry everyone. This is a personal affair. Socialite Club is closed for now. All your drinks are on the house today, so please leave at once.

“And, be mindful of your mouths. I do not want to hear others talking about me being slapped. Understand?” She glared at everyone with a threatening gaze.

All the customers left the club immediately.

When they left, they looked at Kaze as if he was a dead person.

The top three families were powerful in Lilyrose and they held influence in every field.

Tiffany was the eldest daughter of the Chapman family, which made her as prestigious as a princess. Kaze slapped her on her turf. He was as good as dead.

All the security guards of the club arrived at the scene.

There were forty of them, all huge and robust.

Instead of calling them security guards, it was more appropriate to call them thugs the Chapman family had legally hired. Tiffany looked at Kaze with a hint of delight. “These are all the experts we hired. We spent more than a million on each of them every year. The money spent alone is something the Quint family can never catch up to.”

The forty thugs glared at Kaze and Sky.

Sky turned pale immediately when they were surrounded.

"I'm sorry, Kaze. I shouldn't have dragged you into this," he said with a trembling voice.

"Kaze Lee, no one can slap me! This is my turf! You should have known better before you raised your hand! You are fucking dead today!"

Tiffany glared at Kaze.

Kaze scoffed, "Socialite Club is nothing. I'll thrash your club today!"

Chapter 166 Six Ferocious Men

"Kaze, stop challenging her! We are going to die here!" Sky got nervous.

Kaze said he wanted Socialite Club thrashed.

Not only Tiffany did not believe him, but even Sky felt the same.

Kaze took his phone out and shoved it into Sky's hands. He smiled and said, "Do you believe if I call this number, Socialite Club will be thrashed and we will walk out of here unscathed?" "Kaze! Stop fooling around!"

Sky got so nervous that he almost broke down and cried. The phone in his hand was like a piping hot potato that he wished he could let go.

His mother, Agnes, told him on the phone that Kaze loved to brag.

He also knew that Kaze lied to everyone in the Quint family and got them thrown out of the street yesterday. Now he believed what his mother said.

Their lives were on the line and he was still bragging.

“Just believe me. Make the call, tell them to thrash Socialite Club immediately.”

Kaze helped Sky tap to call and put the phone next to his ears.

“Mr. Lee, what is it?” Jackal’s voice came from the phone.

Sky bit the bullet and did what Kaze said. “Thrash Socialite Club immediately!”

Inside the van opposite the club, Jackal put down his phone and said to his team, “Mr. Lee wants us to thrash Socialite Club!”

“Let's go!”

The others got out of the van immediately.

When the customers walked out of the club, they saw six ferocious men stride inside.

They looked vicious and scary.

All the customers scuttled away and dared not get in their way.

Then, the six of them arrived at the front door, but it was already shut.

They exchanged a quick gaze before they lifted their legs together.

Bang!

The six of them kicked the door down!

The three-meter door that weighed more than a thousand kilograms was kicked down immediately. Aloud bang sounded.

The six of them then bent over, each carried a corner of the door, and entered the club.

“Where did these six ferocious men come from?”

“They kicked the club’s door down and took it inside? They are here to cause trouble!”

The customers who were leaving were frightened by the scene.

They quickly left the scene and dared not linger for another minute.

“Kaze Lee, you're dead meat and still speaking so loudly. Thrash my club? Who do you think you are?” Tiffany lost her patience and signaled his men to attack. “Get him!”

“Yes, Ma’am!”

Forty thugs answered together.

They strode over to Kaze, trying to grab him.

The intimidating scene frightened Sky and made his legs weak.

Screech!

Aloud metallic screech resounded all of a sudden and it came from behind the forty thugs.

All of them turned around and saw something shocking.

A three-meter door was hurled at them!

The screech was because the edges of the door scratched the frame of the entrance.

It even spun around in the air, releasing a heavy whirl.

“Move!”

Someone screamed to warn the others, but it was too late.

The heavy door crashed onto the forty thugs.

Excruciating screams were heard.

Jackal and his team rushed in and jumped on the thugs.

They attacked with punches and kicks, causing even more painful screams.

All the so-called experts were defeated by Jackal and his team.

All forty of them were crippled, immobilized, and knocked out on the ground after a while. Sky was shocked by the sudden twist of events.

Chapter 167 Weak “Yup.”

Kaze looked at Tiffany, whose expression had gone blank. He chuckled and asked, “So, Ms. Tiffany Chapman, are these the so-called experts your family paid over a million each every year?”

The so-called experts were weak and useless before veterans who returned from the battlefield.

Thump!

Tiffany fell to her knees and looked at Kaze in fear. “They are your men?”

Kaze smiled.

The woman must be frightened to ask such a dumb question.

He lost interest in threatening the woman; even the daughter of the Chapman family was no match for absolute power. “Thrash everything you can in the club,” Kaze said before he walked out.

The top three families made Henry and Kelly kill themselves.

yesterday to warn him and he had been searching for a chance to fight back.

Now with Tiffany presenting him with an opportunity, he used the thrashing of the club to humiliate the three families. Tiffany shuddered when she heard Kaze.

Everyone in the upper social circle knew that Socialite Club was Tiffany's turf.

Yet it was thrashed before her face to humiliate her.

"No!"

She tried to get up and stop Jackal and his men.

Bang!

The expensive chandelier on the ceiling was struck off, breaking into pieces. The floor even shook a little. Tiffany felt a massive heartache for losing the chandelier of sixty million.

The chandelier was just the start.

Jackal and his men carried out their tasks thoroughly.

They thrashed the place for half an hour.

When they were done, not a single piece of item in the club was intact.

The news of Socialite Club being completely destroyed spread across the upper social circle like wildfire and caused a huge commo

Thrashing the Socialite Club would be indirectly humiliating the Chapman family.

Kaze brought the terrified Sky back home.

“Kaze, who are those six men? Are they your subordinates or something?”

Sky was in the passenger seat, looking at Kaze in fear and reverence.

“No.”

Kaze shook his head.

Jackal and his men were temporarily errand boys. They were not worthy of being his men yet.

Then, he saw the slap mark on Sky’s face and one of them was because of him.

When Agnes saw that her precious son was slapped, she would lash out at him again.

Kaze stopped the car outside the neighborhood and called Draco.

“Draco, do you still have the balm that | made last time? Bring some over to me. I’m at the entrance of Skylar View.” “On it boss.”

After the call, Draco came running to the entrance with the sexy shades hanging over his nose.

He gave Kaze a round box and asked, “Someone’s hurt?”

“Here, put some on your face.”

Kaze ignored Draco and gave the box to Sky.

Sky opened the box and smeared some cream onto his face.

Draco then saw the slap mark on Sky’s face, one of which resen Kaze’s palm. His lips pursed and was speechless. “Using the balm just to clear slap marks? What a waste!”

The balm played a vital role in the war against foreign enemies. It ha saved many soldiers’ lives.

There was once a foreign biomedical company that offered a billion just to purchase the prescription but Kaze denied it. “Kaze, the marks are gone!”

After applying the cream on his face, Sky was delighted to see the marks disappear.

It was magical!

“Great, or else your mom will kill me.

Kaze breathed a sigh of relief and then drove into the neighborhood, leaving Draco behind and speechless.

Chapter 168 Hand Him Over

Sky heard that his family won the jackpot and bought a big house, but he did not expect it to be Horizon Mirror at Skylar View Residential Area.

When the car drove into the neighborhood, Sky's jaw dropped and remained open until they reached the house. Agnes was delighted to welcome her son back and she prepared a feast.

Darcy came back for the meal as well.

The family sat down at the table to celebrate over the elaborate meal.

"Did you hear, the club that Tiffany Chapman ran was ruined! It's all over the news now!"

Agnes spoke of the news halfway through lunch. She seemed intrigued.

Darcy was rendered speechless by her mother's reaction. "Mom, why are you so happy that Socialite Club was ruined? The customers there are rich and influential, but it has nothing to do with us."

"What do you mean it has nothing to do with us?"

Agnes cried in surprise and then gloated, "The three families. snatched the Hilfinger Corporation from us and made us the laughingstock. They had it coming! | wonder who is so powerful to teach them a lesson? I'd like to thank him for avenging us!"

The three families were on the same side, so humiliating the Chapman family would also be humiliating the Everia and Golding families.

That was an established fact in Lilyrose.

Sky looked at Kaze with admiration and said, "Mom, that someone is just right beside us. He's Kaze!"
"What are you talking about?"

Agnes tapped Sky's hand and said, "Him? All he knows is brag!"

Only Darcy looked at Kaze differently. She then asked, "Sky, you went to Socialite Club?"

"N-Nope!" Sky shook his head.

If Darcy found out that he went to Socialite Club and got into trouble, he would be scolded!

"Darcy, don't believe it. Think, Darcy, Think! How could Kaze do something like that?" Agnes said scornfully. The little conversation ended together with lunch.

At the same time in the Quint family's mansion, Master Quint was eating with Rudy and family.

Ever since Rudy lost his power at the company, he had been spending time at Master Quint's place, hoping to win more affection from his father.

Then, two uninvited guests came to visit.

They were middle-aged men and with a temper they came bearing.

The maids were beaten along the way as they made their way to the dining hall.

“Who the hell is causing trouble at our house? You really think you can do whatever you want to the Quint family?” Master Quint shouted and slammed the table when he heard the

The Quint family became the laughingstock of the city but they were still a second-tier family. Not any Tom, Dick, and Harry could barge into their house and leave at will.

However, when he saw the two men, his anger disappeared and was replaced by a flattering smile. “Butler Jensen, Butler Anson, what are you guys doing here?”

The two of them were butlers of the first-tier families, the Vikroms and the Logmans, respectively.

Both of them represented the first-tier families, someone Master Quint could not afford to mess with.

Butler Jensen said ferociously, “Master Quint, Young Master Howl got his leg broken at Socialite Club. He’s unconscious in the hospital now. After a little investigation, we found out that it was a young man from the Quint family who did it. Hand him over.”

“Young Master Daniel is also hospitalized, so hand over the your man now!”

Butler Anson was fiercer than Butler Jensen. He even tried to threaten Master Quint with his fists.

Master Quint was afraid. He immediately said, “What? How did it happen? The juniors of the Quint family would never do such things to Young Master Howl and Young Master Daniel.”

“We are certain that it is someone from the Quint family!”

The two butlers were furious as they stared at Master Quint.

“If the Quints refuse to hand him over, we will do whatever we can to destroy you and your family!”
Master Quint, Rudy, and the others were devastated!

Chapter 169 Kneel, You Bastard Master Quint was frightened.

The Quint family was just a second-tier family, there was no way they could stand against a first-tier family, let alone the Vikroms and the Logmans.

He turned around to Samus and Deborah. “Which one of you went to Socialite Club yesterday?”
“Grandfather, we came here yesterday and didn’t go out.”

Samus and Deborah were frightened as well. They swore they had never been to Socialite Club before.
Rudy stepped up to vouch for his children.

“Then it must be the other family members. Call them back now!”

Master Quint said with clenched teeth.

Rudy made the call and summoned all the other family members back to the house.

Deborah then said, “I heard Sky came home for his semester break.

Could it be him?”

“Whether it is him or not, call them here first. We must give the Vikrom and Logman families an explanation today,” Master Quint said as a promise to the two butlers.

The butlers grunted impatiently.

They did not have time to wait for the Quint family to identify the culprit.

“When you find him, tell him to come to us and apologize. We will then decide what punishment he deserves.”

The two butlers then left the house.

They were not afraid of the Quints tricking them since the family was basically rooted in Lilyrose. There was nowhere else they could run.

If the Quint family wanted to survive in Lilyrose, then they must surrender the culprit.

Soon, all the Quints received a call from Rudy and came to the house. Agnes brought Sky along.

“Which one of you went to Socialite Club today?”

Master Quint stared at everyone coldly. He looked as fierce as a hungry tiger. Everyone was confused about what happened.

No one stepped up to admit it, and it fueled Master Quint’s anger. He bellowed, “If you don’t want all of us dead, step up and admit it!”

Sky shuddered. He bit the bullet and stepped up.

“Grandfather, I went to the club.”

Master Quint went up to Sky and slapped him in the face.

“You bastard! Kneel!”

Sky covered his face and got down on his knees.

Thump!

Agnes knelt as well and started crying. She said, “Father, what did Sky do? Why must you slap him? He’s also your grandson!” “I have no such grandson!”

Master Quint slapped Sky again. He roared, “How dare you break the legs of Young Master Howl and Young Master Daniel? You’ve

: “Huh?”

Agnes almost passed out on the spot.

She moved closer to Sky and tugged his arm. “Sky, tell your grandfather that you didn’t do it! You’ve always been a timid boy, tell me you would never have done something like this!” She knew what would happen to Sky if he admitted it, so she started begging.

“Mom, I broke Howl and Daniel’s legs because they insulted Darcy!” Sky said righteously. He believed he did nothing wrong. Everyone else was shocked.

The timid Sky became so bold after he came back for his semester break.

No one expected him to admit it.

Master Quint waved his hand at Rudy and said, "Rudy, send your stupid nephew to the Vikrom and Logman families! They will punish him for what he did!"

Sky was taken away no matter how Agnes begged.

She was devastated.

In order to save her son, she went to Passion Fragrance District for Darcy.

Kaze and Darcy went back to the construction site after lunch and only found out what happened after Agnes arrived.

Kaze said, "Mom, don't worry. Sky will be fine. I'll go bring him back from the Vikrom family."

Chapter 170 Eliot Could Save Sky

Kaze then drove off to the Vikrom family.

Agnes did not believe him at all.

Sky broke the legs of Howl and Daniel, the sons of the Vikrom and Logman families, not just any rando.

She grabbed Darcy's arms and cried, "Darcy, think of something. Sky is your little brother. He broke their legs because of you. Those two families will never spare him..."

She dared not finish the sentence.

Considering how vicious the Vikrom and Logman families were, breaking Sky's legs would be the least they could do. "Mom, calm down. Let me think..."

Darcy's mind was blank. The only help she could think of was Miru, but even she could not deal with two first-tier families combine

While she anxiously thought of a solution, she received a call unknown number.

"Is this Ms. Darcy Quint? | am Eliot Everia. | heard your brother taken to the Vikrom family. Maybe | can help get your brother back

Eliot Everia?

Darcy knew he was the first son of the Everia family, but she barely knew the man.

She also found out that Eliot teamed up with Tiffany and Frank to snatch Hilfinger Corporation from them. Eliot must be calling for something else. She carefully asked, "What

"Come to Nation Hotel and we'll talk," Eliot said casually.

Darcy clenched her teeth. After some serious consideration, she decided to meet Eliot at Nation Hotel. However, after what happened with Henry, she learned her lesson and decided to bring two of Dan's men from the construction site.

In the suburbs of Lilyrose was a high-end residential area.

The mansions mostly belonged to the Vikroms.

Sky was delivered to the entrance by Rudy and was taken inside the mansion.

Rudy was stopped outside. He did not even get a peek at the mansion before he was asked to leave. Sky was brought to the biggest mansion in the residential area.

The head of the Vikrom family, Bernard Vikrom, lived in it.

In front of the mansion were members of the Vikrom family and also the Logmans.

"On your knees!">

The men who brought Sky inside kicked him behind his knees, forcing him to kneel.

Then, the people from the two families went up to him one by one and slapped him in the face.

Sky's face was swiftly covered with slap marks.

The last one who slapped him was Vicky, Bernard's daughter.

Slap! She did not hold back at all and her slap caused Sky's mouth to bleed.

Vicky peered down at him and bellowed, "You broke my brother's leg? How dare you! You are just useless trash from a second-tier family! Do you know what you have done!?"

Sky clenched his teeth. The scorching pain on his cheeks made him tear up, but he refused to back down. "I did nothing wrong. They insulted my sister!"

Slap!

Vicky slapped him again.

"You little fuck! How dare you talk back! I'll kill you right now and your family won't even make a noise!" Vicky grabbed Sky's collar and wanted to coerce him into submission.

Sky remained stubborn. "I am not afraid. My brother-in-law, Kaze, will come for me. He can call in powerful people with just one call was the one who ordered his men to thrash Socialite Club!"

"Your brother-in-law thrashed the club? That useless son-in-law Quint family?"

Everyone from the Vikrom and Logman families was doubtful.
