Chapter 781 Don't Need to Slap You Myself

The voice came from a phone via loudspeaker.

It was so abrupt that it caught everyone's ears.

Everyone was shocked by the bold words.

Who was that? Who called Dexter Bluenid and the others a piece of garbage?

Each of them ran their respective companies and since they were valued by the Vinlands, the companies were by no means small.

Even the Vikroms and Logmans dared not challenge them.

Yet someone among the guests called them a piece of garbage openly.

"Who said that?! Show yourself!" Dexter was furious as he stared in the direction where the voice came from. The guests in the same direction averted his furious gaze, trying to avoid a potential conflict with the Bluenids. There was one person who did not look away.

It was a young lady and to everyone's surprise, she stood up.

It was Sophie.

"You? Who are you to challenge me?" Dexter shouted angrily.

Sophie was trembling as she held the phone up.

“Don't be afraid. Get close and let them hear my voice.”

Kaze's voice came from her phone.

He then said, “Dexter Bluenid was it? You are a chairman of a company yet you have a foul mouth. Like daughter, like father. | slapped your daughter right.”

Sophie mustered up all her courage and walked forward so that everyone could hear Kaze's voice. Dexter immediately recognized the voice from the phone.

“Kaze Lee! You little fuck!” he shouted with clenched teeth.

“Get over here and kneel before us!” Jake shouted as well.

“Master Hudson sent you an invitation and demanded an apology. Not only did you not show, you even challenged Master Hudson's authority?”

“You can hide but you can't run! After this tea session is over, you and your family will have no place in Lilyrose!” The other chairmen shouted at the phone.

Kaze openly called them a piece of garbage in front of a crowd.

They wished Kaze was here in person so that they could force him down on his knees!

Hudson stood there expressionlessly and said nothing. He wanted to see how things developed.

“Kaze Lee, you have half an hour to get here or else we will slap the face off Winnie Souffle!” Dexter scoffed coldly. He tried to force Kaze to show himself.

Kaze said coldly, “Dexter Bluenid, just because you said that, your face will be ripped off, just like your daughter!” Dexter was more furious than ever.

Knowing that it was Kaze who disfigured his daughter’s face with a whip, he wished he could do the same to the bastard. He clenched his teeth and said, “Then get over here! I’ll let you rip my face off, if you dare!”

“I don’t need to be there to rip your face off,” Kaze said calmly.

Dexter scoffed even harder.

Kaze then said, “Dan Niners, are you there? I want you asleep Dexter!” Binenidisifabe until it The falls off!” Dan was surprised that he was cued. He got up instantly and walked forward. Dexter was stunned for a moment before he laughed.

“Hahaha! Kaze Lee, are you stupid? Dan Niners come one aid son and you nt him to slap my face?”

He was not worried at all even when Dan was striding over. 20

He laughed louder. “You little bastard, we’ll see if Dan Ni bitch.” The

His voice ended abruptly because a slap landed on his face. Slap!

Dexter bled as he spun on the spot twice before he fell on his butt.

Chapter 782

With Master Lee Here, Who Can Kill Me “What the hell?!” Dexter covered his face on the floor, crying in pain.

Everyone almost burst into laughter seeing his miserable state. They all gloated at him and looked down at him for crying like a child.

Winnie was slapped many times yet she did not even grunt in pain.

Dexter was weaker than a woman!

Then everyone was shocked because they did not expect Dan to listen to Kaze and slap Dexter in the face. Not even Hudson had expected it.

Hudson stared at Dan. “Dan Niners, what is the meaning of this?”

Dexter was with him, and if Dan slapped Dexter, Dan indirectly slapped him.

“I'm sorry,

sorry, Master Hudson, | didn't mean to offend you.”

Dan bowed.

Hudson looked slightly calmer. He said, “Explain yourself.”

“Alright.”

Dan nodded. He then grabbed Dexter by the hair and kneed him in the stomach, making him kneel on the floor.

He then slapped Dexter repeatedly, causing him to cry louder.

After numerous slaps, Dexter could not even make a sound anymore.

Dan then kicked him in the face.

Dexter was kicked to the floor, half dead.

The violent scene shocked everyone.

Only then Dan looked at Hudson and laughed. "I did it because Master Lee wanted me to slap his face off!" Hudson's pupils shrank

He stared at Dan with a furiously sharp gaze. Even though he was an astute man, he almost 1/3 lost his calmness due to Dan's insubordination.

Dan called him Master Hudson but he also called Kaze Master Lee.

It was obvious that Dan barely respected him and had decided to side with Kaze.

"Dan Niners, how dare you!"

Jake pointed at Dan's face and shouted, "How dare you take orders from that little fuck in front of Master Hudson? Where are your manners?"

The others berated him as well.

“| think you are just trying to mess with Master Hudson and the Vinlands. Don’t forget how Steve Lee and his son died yesterday!”

Dan’s expression turned bitter instantly.

Steve and Sully’s death frightened him.

Steve was a kingpin in Melrose yet he was killed just like that.

If Dan was in Steve’s shoes, he might end up worse.

“Dan Niners, slaps their faces off as well! | don’t want to listen to garbage shouting.”

However, the voice from Sophie’s phone fueled his confidence.

“With Master Lee here, no one can touch me!” Dan laughed loudly.

He strode up to Jake and kned him in the stomach to force him on his knees as well. He then slapped Jake mercilessly.

“Dan is right! If Master Lee is here, not even the grim reaper can take my life! I’m in!”

Gold Tooth stepped out and joined the fray.

He was no longer young but with the confidence from K

Was in his teenage days. The

None of the chairmen were his match despite being younger than him. He grabbed chairman after chairman and slapped them to the floor. Everyone was shocked, speechless. “Master Hudson, save us!”

The chairmen were forced onto their knees and were slapped repeatedly. 253} They regretted following Hudson to Lilyrose.

Out of all the terrible things, they encountered Dan a out holding back.

They were chairmen of reputable companies. The

Yet they were pressed to the floor and slapped repeatedly.

How could they face the public after this?

Chapter 783 One Slap, One Hundred Million

“Stop them!”

Hudson was infuriated. He squeezed the words out through clenched teeth.

“If you don’t want to die, stop this at once!”

Two men from the Vinlands stepped up and threatened Dan and Gold Tooth.

However, their ferocity did not work on Dan. He was known for being brutal and ferocious in the underworld. “If you don’t want them to die, stand right there!”

Dan grabbed one of the chairmen’s necks and squeezed it tightly, causing the man’s face to turn red and his eyes rolled back. “Hehe, one more step and I’ll squeeze his balls out!”

Gold Tooth was not as young as Dan, hence the lack of strength but he was much more vicious.

He grabbed Dexter by the scrotum instead.

It was all men's weakness. Even the man of steel would have to surrender and beg for mercy.

"Master Hudson! Stop! Don't do it! I can't take it anymore!"

Dexter cried like a little boy, his body shook, and his eyes rolled back.

Hudson could not just let his men lose their manhood, so he had to tell his men to step down.

He was aggrieved. The men he brought to Lilyrose were all hospitalized because of Kaze, or else he would not find himself in such a passive state.

Then, Kaze's voice came from the phone again, saying, "Hudson Vinland, your men slapped Winnie just now and it will cost you one hundred million per slap. Are you paying on behalf of your men or can they pay up?"

No one expected Kaze to demand compensation from Hudson.

One slap, one hundred million?

What an exorbitant price!

Hudson's expression turned grim. He said, "Kaze Lee, you are playing with fire."

Dan and Gold Tooth exerted more strength on their victims.

“Yes! Yes! We'll pay! We'll pay! One hundred million per slap!”

All the chairmen were mortified.

Hudson did not want to lose their trust and support, so he said, “Fine. I'll pay for them.” One slap, one hundred million?

No. He would never pay the money.

He just had to stall Kaze for now by writing a check.

“Great. Then transfer the money into Shangrila Group's account now.”

Kaze demanded an immediate transfer.

Hudson's brows raised. He said coldly, “Kaze Lee, do note that my money comes with a cost.”
“Aaaaarh!”

Even without Kaze's order this time, Dan and Gold Tooth exerted more strength. “Make the transfer!”

Hudson squeezed the words out from his gritting teeth.

After getting more than a billion, Dan and Gold Tooth finally released Dexter and the others. Hudson's expression remained gloomy.

He stared at Dan and Gold Tooth grimly and then switched his attention to Winnie. Everyone could see that he was infuriated.

“Gold Tooth, Dan, send them back to Shangrila Group,” Kaze said.

“Ms. Souffle, we'll escort you back.”

Dan and Gold Tooth were happy to oblige.

They knew Winnie was Kaze's good friend's wife, so if it yhelred het) t couldn Kas attention again. The

“Mr. Chairman, is that enough?”

Sophie teared up, not because of fear but because of joy charts. The

He was not even there yet one phone call was all he needed to turn the situation around. “Hold on, I still have something to say.”

Kaze then said, “Hudson Vinland, you sent me the invitation and Row, I have for you as well: get out of Lilyrose.” The

He sounded calm but indubitable.

Many of the guests widened their eyes in disbelief.

How arrogant!

Kaze demanded Hudson of the Vinlands to get out of Lilyrose? Hudson lost his patience.

He said coldly, “Kaze Lee, you really think you can challenge me with Dan Niners and Gold Tooth?”

Chapter 784 Change the Underworld

“Challenge you? Are you even worthy?”

Kaze scoffed. “This isn’t for you alone, it’s for your whole family.

Everyone else in the room gasped in shock.

What did Kaze mean?

Hudson was not worthy? Kaze wanted to target the entire Vinland family?”

“You can hang up now, Sophie.”

Kaze then went silent.

Dan and Gold Tooth escorted Winnie and Sophie away.

“Master Hudson, are we just going to let them go? This is unacceptable!”

Dexter and the others had just escaped the devil’s grasp and the more they thought about it, the angrier they got. They were aggrieved. They would implode due to grievance if they could not get revenge.

“Silence!”

Hudson stared coldly as Winnie and her group walked out of Wuthering Pavilion. He did not try to stop them.

Awhile later, his frosty gaze calmed down. He said, "A bug dares to challenge me? I'll give him a few more days to buzz around. He really thinks Lefteria Group is enough for him to oppose me? If so, I'll overthrow the hierarchy of power in the underworld completely!"

Hudson sounded calm but his words shocked many of the guests.

After Dan and Gold Tooth slapped Dexter and the chairmen, Hudson did nothing to stop them. This made the other guests assume that Hudson was not so scary after all.

Some of them even started to look down on the Vinlands.

However, Hudson spoke the most frightening words in the calmest tone, which stated how confident he was in changing the underworld completely.

"Master Hudson, we just got news from Melrose!" Then, one of Hudson's men came in with an excited look. "Miru Scarlet was hunted by the Twin Ghosts. She managed to escape back here but at the expense of her men. She's hurt now and is hiding at Alan Cummingham's place.

"The Twin Ghosts then wiped out the Melrose underworld. All the gangsters have submitted

The news stunned almost everyone in the room. Their eyes widened in disbelief.

It had only been a night and the underworld of Melrose was conquered by the Twin Ghosts. Even Miru barely escaped death. It was certainly explosive news that could shake up the underworld.

The Twin Ghosts were terrifying.

The guests' expression shifted, knowing that Hudson ought to change the hierarchy of power of the underworld in Lilyrose. He was certainly being serious.

Many of them revered Hudson even more.

The Vinlands had been around for a hundred years.

No wonder Hudson never took Dan or Gold Tooth seriously.

Since Dan and Gold Tooth sided with Kaze, they would also face the wrath of the Vinlands.

“Bring the Twin Ghosts here to Lilyrose,” Hudson said calmly.

Many of the guests were shocked.

The underworld of Lilyrose would see a huge shift of power soon and it might even affect other fields.

“Master Hudson, you are sending the

Twin Ghosts after Kaze Le ? Hahaha,

| look killing

we must torture him

first,” Dexter said with a wicked grin.

Even though his face hurt, he could not hold back his laughter.

He was delighted and he could already picture the scene of Kaze being trampled.

“That’s an overkill,” Hudson said.

“Master Hudson, you are right. There’s no need for the Twin Ghosts to go after a useless piece of garbage!”

“Miru Scarlet, Dan Niners, and Gold

Tooth. They are RPE G's ter. | wonder if they can escape their clutches.”

“Kaze Lee is relying on them to challenge us and with them dead, he would be no one.

“Lefteria Group, Perfect World Group, Shangrila Group, Quartet Group, Sky Ocean related to Kaze would be destroyed!” The Jake and the others laughed as they regained their confidence.

Chapter 785 The Vinlands and the Lees

All the important figures of Lilyrose in Wuthering Pavilion heard Jake and the other chairmen clamoring. Their eyes widened and many thoughts flooded their minds.

Jake and the others listed out the five companies behind Kaze and decided to go after them openly. Hudson did not stop them either.

“So, Hudson Vinland is targeting those five companies, he’s being ambitious.”

“The Vinlands are late to the party. The Lees and Queens had taken a majority of the top three families’ assets after they were stripped of power. Now they are after the rest.”

“He did not take Kaze Lee seriously at all. He just needed an excuse to go after the five companies.” All the important figures were smart and they knew what Hudson was after. The five companies, no matter which one of them, were not small in scale.

If either of them went bankrupt, it would be another explosive news that would shake the city after the collapse of the top three families.

Besides, other than the five companies, how many other companies would be involved? The collapse of the top three families caused a chain reaction and affected every single entity related to them. Since it was closely related to everyone’s benefits and wealth, they were forced to think carefully.

“Master Hudson, I heard that Sky Ocean Corporation is actually bought by the Butterworth Queens and Darcy is just a manager,” someone said.

It was to test Hudson’s resolution since Darcy had the Butterworth Queens behind her.

If Hudson decided to move against Sky Ocean Corporation as well, then it would mean that the Vinlands wanted to challenge the Queens. A war between the two families might break out in Lilyrose.

“Hahaha, you mean Mathias Queen? Even he had to show me some respect when he saw me!”

Then, a loud laughter came from the entrance.

The Vinlands* butler led a group of men into the hall.

“Gregory Lee of the Lees from the capital?!”

Everyone was surprised because they knew him. The Lees used to live in Lilyrose before they moved to Sunrise City, the capital. “We the two seniors here, I bet Mathias wouldn’t even dare to talk back. Am I right, Hudson?”

Gregory went over to Hudson and extended his hand for a shake.

Hudson smiled. "You are right, Greg. We won't touch the Queens but Darcy Quint does not deserve what she has now. They should be ours."

Wuthering Pavilion was shaken once again. The Vinlands of Chrysant City and the Lees of Sunrise City were teaming up! It would surely make the headlines.

Gregory then looked at the guests and said, "Kaze has been abandoned by my family. He is all bluff and nonsense. He got lucky enough to bring Shangrila Group back from the dead and he got ahead of himself. He's so blindly confident that he can resist us.

"Not only did he break my son's legs, but he even wanted my entire family to kneel and apologize to his wife's family! I am here on behalf of the Lee family to get rid of the embarrassment."

He sounded fierce and threatening. The meaning between the lines was obvious.

Whoever took Kaze's side would be against the Lees entirely.

The crowd clamored. It was not a secret that Kaze broke Narian's legs but not all of them knew about it as well.

"Kaze that little bastard! He is being disrespectful and brutal. Just because he is clever, he doesn't earn how to respect the Vinlands! The

"If he is allowed to grow stronger, he will be a public menace. We will suffer!" Hudson said righteously. The

He looked at everyone and said, "People of Lilyrose, shouldn't we unite and get rid of him?"

before he poisons the city?”

Everyone knew Hudson was forcing them to take his side.

“Master Hudson and Master Gregory are right! Kaze Lee is Viglen ang will be has to Wit him! The Bowmans will support you!” The Blake, the family head of the first-tier family, the Bowmans, stood up and voiced his support.

Chapter 786 Top Three Family Heads Take A Stand

“The Lee and Vinland families must bring justice to the people of Lilyrose! We cannot let Kaze grow into a menace that will destroy us all!”

“That bastard impersonated the God of War multiple times yet he did not learn from his mistakes. His disrespect for the God of War is unforgivable. Even if the God of War doesn’t hold him responsible, we cannot just let him continue! We must punish him and make an example out of him!”

“The five companies are Kaze’s accomplices! We must get rid of them as well!”

Several other heads of the families stepped up and criticized Kaze and the five companies. They had no grudges against Kaze or Darcy, and neither had they talked to the couple.

They voiced out because they wanted to take advantage of the situation and benefit from it. Since the Vinland and Lee families were going after the five companies, even if they could not get a share of the pie, they would be happy to have some leftovers.

The earlier they sided with Hudson and Gregory, the more chances they had.

“Very well. | praise you for the wise choice. Don’t worry, as long as you are part of our crusade to take down evil, you will be rewarded!” Hudson said with a wide grin.

He raised his hand and signaled. "Serve tea!"

Beautiful waitresses brought in trays of tea and served the family heads who had taken their stand.

With Hudson's assurance, the family heads were thrilled and finished the tea.

The cup of tea symbolized the promise by Hudson to them.

"We will support Master Hudson!"

"We will eliminate the menace!"

"Only the capable shall be rewarded! Darcy is not capable of handling that much money from the city council! Two billion, we will make her spit out the money!"

Seeing the first few heads of families had gotten the assurance from Hudson, the others joined them and voiced their support. They too drained the cup of tea served to them.

Gregory laughed and said, "Hudson, the Vinland family is truly influential."

"I can say the same to the Lees as well," Hudson said with a smile.

They were happy with the outcome of the tea session.

Gregory grinned wickedly and said, "I think we should get a few more fierce hounds to chase and bite Darcy and her family so they will remember the pain."

"Greg, great minds think alike."

Hudson then looked at the guests.

"Flint Golding, Belarus Chapman, Edward Everia, where are you three?"

The hall went silent for a moment before the three family heads stepped forward and bowed. "Master Hudson."

Hudson signaled them to be at ease and said, "I heard what happened to your families. I know it was the God of War's order but Kaze was the one fanning the flames. He was the one who tricked you and forced you to give Golden Edge to Shangrila Group for free.

"Now, I am giving you three a chance to make things right for yourself. I am giving you a chance to take revenge on Kaze Lee. Of course, you three will be heavily rewarded as well."

The three families were no longer at the top of the power hierarchy but they had rooted themselves in Lilyrose for many years. In order to conquer Lilyrose, the Vinland family had to take them in as lap dogs.

It was what Hudson had in mind.

He signaled. "Serve them tea."

The waitresses brought tea to the three of them but neither of them took it.

“What's wrong? The three families don't trust me? You don't even want to drink the tea?” Hudson was unhappy with their response. He already saw himself as the emperor of Lilyrose. The three family heads were nervous.

They exchanged a glance and saw the clarity in each of their eyes. They knew they could not take the tea. 1

“Yeah, Master Hudson. After we were stripped of our powers, we were miserable and down on our hands and knees. We are actually grateful to Mr. Lee for improving our situation regardless of our previous grudges.” The

Chapter 787 The Mayor Takes A Stand

No one expected Flint, Edward, and Belarus to reject Hudson. Hudson's expression turned grim.

The rejection ruined the great atmosphere that he created.

“Hmph! Are you three still the family heads that everyone used to fear? Though I think you look more like losers now. Are you afraid of Kaze Lee?”

Blake, the head of the Bowman family, sneered at them.

The other heads joined him and mocked the trio, who kept quiet.

Those who sneered at them had a good gloat when they were stripped of their powers.

If not for Kaze who told Leteria Group to issue the warning, the others might still be oppressing them.

“Blake Bowman, I’d watch my mouth if I were you. Don’t go looking for trouble that will destroy your family, or you might end up worse than the three of them,” Bernard Vikrom, head of a first-tier family, stepped up and warned Blake.

“Bernard Vikrom, what is the meaning of this? What good will it do you from cursing my family? I called Kaze Lee a piece of garbage and my family would be destroyed? Who do you think he is?” Blake shouted angrily.

“Then don’t blame me for not warning you.”

Bernard grinned and got up from his seat.

The heads of the two other families, the Logman and Joestar families, got up as well. Three first-tier family heads intended to leave.

“Hold on, the three of you haven't finished your tea,” Hudson called out to them.

Peter Logman paused and scoffed, “Master Hudson, I’m afraid we cannot afford to have your tea. We might get a stomachache, or worse, we might drag our family down.”

“The Joestar family won't be taking it as well. I also have a piece of advice for all of you: don’t be blinded by petty gains or else you will end up like the top three families,” said the head of the Joestar family.

The three of them crossed paths with Kaze before.

The Logman and Vikrom families were visited by Kaze and they were forced to invest in Darcy's company. The Joestar family even gave Kaze Lily Garden Hotel.

Like the heads of the top three families, they knew Kaze's true identity. They almost laughed out loud when Hudson and Gregory gathered people to start a crusade against Kaze.

"Master Hudson, I think I need to give you a piece of advice as well."

Bernard continued, "If Mr. Lee wants you and the Vinland family out of Lilyrose, it is best for you to pack your things and leave right away. Or else it will be too late."

No one expected Bernard to speak to Hudson in such a manner, telling him to leave Lilyrose.

The Vikrom family was a first-tier in Lilyrose but they were nothing beyond Lilyrose's border, let alone when compared to the Vinland family—both of them were not on the same level.

Everyone thought Bernard had lost his mind.

"Bernard, how dare you disrespect Master Hudson!?"

Blake and the others berated him. Hudson stared at the three of them and said coldly, "The three of you don't seem to welcome us here."

He believed the Logmans, Vikroms, and Joestars disrespected them because the Virdahatesrnily penetrated Lilyrose like a storm, which caused a clash of benefits. The

He knew well how the business world operated. Some families chose to obey him and some decided to walk away.

“I am just giving you a gentle reminder, consider it a kind gesture. Mr. Le egmedpissel’so you better eau Nee suggestion,” Bernard scoffed. The Hudson’s expression turned grim. “Who does he think he is?”

“Mr. Vikrom is right. Mr. Lee isn’t joking with you. Mr ipang: think y shoudget Gut Lilyrose as soon as possible.” The

Then, the mayor, Johnson, stepped up and voiced his opinion.

He even poured his cup of tea on the floor.

Chapter 788 Don’t Say Things You Won’t Do Everyone was shocked.

Not only did the Vikrom, Logman, and Joestar families ask Hudson to leave Lilyrose, but even Mayor Johnson stepped up and expressed his opinion openly.

Regardless of the blood and storm that the Vinland family had or would cause, they were at huge investor in the city, and having them would only develop the city further.

Yet as mayor, Johnson asked the major investor to leave the city.

What would people think of him if the news got out?

Hudson’s expression turned grim. He scoffed, “Mayor Brooks, you don’t welcome the Vinland family as well?” The Brookses were also a first-tier family in Lilyrose yet Hudson spoke to the mayor with absolute disdain.

He showed no respect to anyone who dared to turn on him, even if it was the mayor.

His reputation and power were the source of his confidence.

Back in Chryasant, the Vinland family had the power to determine who would be mayor.

The new mayor would have to visit the Vinland family and pay respect to Hudson in person, or else the mayor's term would be cut short.

Johnson shook his head. "No, I am just respecting Mr. Lee's decision and I hope Mr. Vinland would consider leaving as well. Don't speak too soon."

He was speaking the truth; Kaze had openly demanded Hudson to leave Lilyrose.

From that moment onward, those who knew his true identity knew what he would do to the Vinlands if they disobeyed him. It was only natural that the top three families—and the mayor sided with Kaze.

"Stop saying that name in front of me. You people are just using that little bastard as an excuse and want the Vinland family to leave!"

Hudson was a master at controlling his emotions yet even he lost control of his control of his anger when being provoked openly.

He was furious after being provoked, not once but thrice. He looked at Johnson and the others with disdain and said, "A few first-tier families are not enough to stop the Vinland family."

He stubbornly thought that Johnson and the others simply disliked them and used Kaze as an excuse.

As for the top three families, who should resent Kaze more than anyone else, they were obviously scared of what Kaze did to them, thus refusing to express their stance.

Johnson shook his head and sighed.

If Hudson wanted to court death, then no one could stop him.

“Guys, let's go somewhere else for tea,” Johnson called out to Bernard and the others before leaving.

After Johnson and the others left, even though the Vinland family got the majority of the support, they were families of second— tier or lower.

Those who sided with Kaze were the mayor and three first-tier families. Hudson was embarrassed.

“Master Hudson, don't mind them. The four of them and their respective families are no match for the top three families. They can't start anything together. When you get the five companies, you can go after them and make them regret their choice.”

“They are trying to stop the Vinland family from entering Lilyrose. How foolish!” “Yeah! They even addressed Kaze Mr. Lee, what a joke.” Blake and the others tried to flatter Hudson.

They wished the Vinlands would go after those who disobeyed them.

If it really happened, the second-tier families would benefit from the conflict and rise to power. In the end, the tea session ended on a dull note.

“Greg, I heard that the mayor, Johnson Brooks, has been being Kaze Lee. He's judging from his tone, he doesn't want our families here,” Hudson The said.

“You're right. I don't like Johnson either. When Darc {alley the funds,. New O re sent the specialists away and broke the rules by giving Quartet Group two billion dollars.” Gregory had been unhappy with Johnson for a while now.

When the Lee family was applying for the funds, the specialist gr up sided with ta en away

‘local police department based on some false accusation. The

Mr. Yale from Sunrise University was also beaten up by Kaze and was still hospitalized just because he was close with the Lees.

It forced the Lees to use many of their connections and debt of gratitude.

Chapter 789 The Most Ferocious

“Grey, Johnson isn't with us. If we are to enter Lilyrose's market, we won't be able to get clearance on the policy and stuff. He will stand against us,” Hudson said.

Gregory looked at him. “What do you have in mind?”

“It's time for Lilyrose to have a new mayor,” Hudson said grimly.

“That's workable.”

We'll

Gregory nodded in agreement. working on it and find someone we can trust.

Once Brooks is taken away, Kaze will lose one of his supporters. From there, we will move on to the five companies. "You speak my mind, Greg. We will have to go after the Vikrom, Logman, and Joestar families as well," Hudson said. The two of them grinned and nodded, feeling like they could change the mayor of the city with just a few words. After Alan retired from his business, he resided at Streamwise Estate.

Miru was also there, hiding. She went to the estate right after she came back to the city, and dared not even go back to Lefteria Group.

Death brushed her very closely this time. Her men gave their lives to escort her back. In the end, only two of them made it back alive. with her.

"The Twin Ghosts are really ghosts. They don't have human emotions, it's like they are two ferocious monsters. Anyone who encounters them won't get away with their lives..."

Miru already had her injuries treated and she was sitting beside Darcy, recounting her encounter with the Twin Ghosts at Melrose.

Her injuries were not from the Twin Ghosts but from the other gangsters in Melrose.

The Twin Ghosts got a number of gangsters working under them since they already conquered the underworld, so the gangsters were sent to hunt Miru down.

Darcy felt terrible after seeing Miru's condition. She teared up and said to Kaze, "Why don't you go out and wait for me, | want to be with Miru for a while."

Kaze was not interested in women's talk either, so he nodded and walked out.

"Mr. Lee."

Alan came over with a cup of tea when Kaze came out.

“Is the estate safe enough? Do you need me to transfer some soldiers here?” Kaze sat down and enjoyed his tea.

The Twin Ghosts might come to Lilyrose and finish the job, so Kaze could not afford to put Miru in harm’s way.

Miru might be annoying but she was Darcy’s good friend.

“Thank you for your concern, Mr. Lee. I have my men watching out. I don’t think those two can make it in.” Alan rejected the offer. Kaze nodded. “Who are the Twin Ghosts of Chrysant?”

“The two of them caused quite the commotion at Chrysant a few years ago. They were involved in multiple homicides, but then they disappeared one day. Some say they were in prison, so their enemies sent people in to kill them, yet none returned. I didn’t know they were still alive.”

Alan sounded frightened when he talked about the Twin Ghosts.

“No matter how strong those two are, they are trapped beasts and it’s easy to kill them. Someone has been protecting them for some time now.”

Kaze’s eyes gleamed coldly. “Don’t tell me it is Hudson Vinland who released them to hunt me down.”

“You are right, Mr. Lee. Hudson admitted that the Twin Ghosts are his men. He made the announcement just now at Wuthering Pavilion.”

Right then, Johnson entered the room, with the heads of the Vikrom, Logman, and Joestar families.

Johnson invited them to have tea elsewhere, but they. and to visit iru at the same time. The Kaze then had them over for tea.

“Mr. Lee, you have to be careful. Hudson was angry because you asked Dan Niners and the others. He said he would bring the Twin Ghosts here to Lilyrose. They might not hurt you but they will go after the people around you,” Bernard The said as he sat down.

“Twin Ghosts? I'll make sure they are real ghosts sine |

Someone barged into the room with murderous intent. Johnson, Bernard, and the others were frightened and bolted up on their feet to salute the man.

“Chief Commander Hiden!”

Chapter 790 Relieved of Duty

“Boss, how's Miru?”

Albert was fuming, though he saluted Kaze nevertheless.

He was furious when he found out that someone tried to kill Miru. He came all the way from Sunrise City as soon as possible. “Go check on her first. We'll talk about the Twin Ghosts later,” Kaze said as he pointed Albert the way.

Bernard and the others were surprised that Miru and Albert were close, which explained Albert's anger. Albert nodded and went into the room.

“Mr. Lee, the Lees and Vinlands are working together now...”

Johnson then brought Kaze up to speed with the situation.

“They are quite ambitious.”

Kaze’s eyes turned cold.

He originally thought Hudson was after Darcy’s Quartet Group and Sky Ocean Corporation, but now it seemed like the man was after the other companies as well.

Even the Lee family got involved.

The two wealthy families were powerful and resourceful but greedy; they were trying to seize the market share of Lilyrose City. “But Mr. Lee is here. Those two families will hit a snag here in Lilyrose.”

Johnson and the others smiled, they were not worried about Kaze at all because they knew who Kaze really was.

The two families were simply playing with fire and they would soon be burned.

“But there are also ungrateful families here in Lilyrose. Mr. Lee removed the top three families from power and gave the city council a huge fund to distribute to those who needed it so that the city could develop better. Yet Blake Bowman and the others sided with Hudson and Gregory, and even openly criticized you,” Bernard said with a sigh.

The others nodded in agreement.

They saw what Kaze did for the city.

Even though it was still about their benefits, they believed a better city meant a better environment to make money. Now that the Lee and Vinland families wanted to seize their share of the pie with dirty tricks, it angered them.

“Bowman is nothing. He used to be mayor at Chrysant but he was relieved of duty due to bribery, so he returned to Lilyrose,” Johnson said.

“Clown. Just ignore him,” Kaze said.

He did not care about clowns who made a fool of themselves.

He did

There was a long line of people who hated him, and if he were to go after those who cursed him, he would be extremely busy. Johnson and the others left after a few cups of tea.

Albert then came out of the room.

“Boss, since I am closely related to Miru, I can’t just send my soldiers after the Twin Ghosts. But I would like to get them with my own hands.

“They called themselves monsters. I bet it will remind me of how I decapitate monstrous foes on the foreign battlefield when I get them!”

He was overflowing with murderous intent and fuming because Miru almost lost her life. “Sure.” Kaze nodded.

“And Hudson Vinland as well. I will make him pay for what he did,” Albert said with a grim look

He found out that it was Hudson who sent the Twin Ghosts after her.

“That won't be necessary. I will deal with him myself,” Kaze said with a wave of his hand.

The sinister old man wore a kind look just because he wanted to take advantage of Darayrak@ the 2 cbripani SShe owned. He would do anything just to achieve his selfish desire. The Kaze was angered by Hudson's hypocrisy.

The next day, at the city council, Johnson was working on some files when he received rewe tht the minister of the governor's office, Trafford Law, was coming to Lilyrose. The

The administration minister was in charge of all state government officials and their promotions or whatnot. Only the governor's most trusted man could take up the position.

That made the administration minister a rank higher than Johnson's mayor of the city.

“Minister Law, welcome to Lilyrose. What brings you here?”

Johnson and the other important government officials welcomed Trafford at the city council's entrance.

“Don't even ask me why, Johnson. I am here to relieve as coldly and fiercely. The

“From now on, Blake Bowman will take over as the mayor of Lilyrose City!”
