

Guardian 862

Chapter 862 Let Him Go

"I hope you can keep your word."

Kaze then deleted the recording before Lil Dee.

He did not care if Lil Dee was lying. If the man wanted to get back at him, even without the recording, he could easily squash Lil Dee regardless of how many fans or followers he got online.

The recording was merely a tool to discourage him.

Lil Dee breathed a sigh of relief when the recording was deleted.

He relied on his fans to make a living and cherished his reputation more than his life. He would do anything to stop the recording from being leaked.

"Lil Dee, I hope this little misunderstanding won't affect our collaboration. We should continue drinking and talk about how to work together, am I right?"

Kaze dragged Lil Dee to the couch and poured him a glass of wine with a smile. "Here, a toast."

Lil Dee felt extremely aggrieved. He was just beaten up by the man before his eyes and now he was forced to drink with him.

He dared not reject Kaze either. If he did, he would not be drinking wine but something else. Lil Dee clenched his teeth but he forced a smile on his face. He raised his glass and said, "I should be the one pouring you the wine. Here, a toast!"

Their glasses clinked despite the awkwardness in the air.

Nancy breathed a sigh of relief seeing Kaze propose a toast to Lil Dee and take the initiative to mitigate the conflict.

This would probably be the best outcome.

She was afraid that Kaze's temper would get the best of him and ruin the collaboration.

Since Lil Dee cooperated, Kaze no longer gave him a hard time.

However, after what happened, they could not sit down and drink happily. The meeting ended prematurely and everyone scattered back.

Kaze brought Rose and her friends back to their rooms. On the way back, they excitedly talked about how Kaze beat up Lil Dee and Taz.

After taking a shower, Kaze hopped onto his bed.

Right before he fell asleep, he received a call from Nancy.

"Kaze, Lil Dee and Taz just left the estate without saying anything!"

Nancy realized Lil Dee lowered himself before Kaze earlier because he was forced to.

He feigned reconciliation with Kaze but resented him deep down.

Nancy was worried that it would affect the collaboration with Sky Ocean Corporation.

+15 BONUS

"If the sky is going to rain, no one can stop it. Just let him go."

Kaze was not bothered by Lil Dee leaving in the middle of the night. He calmed Nancy down and went to sleep.

Around 4:00 A.M., Rose and her friends knocked on his door and woke him up.

Kaze thought something had happened but it was just the teens trying to catch the first light, which scared him.

Mountain Dew was famous for its sunrise and Rose and her friends chose this place because they wanted to see the first light at the mountain peak.

While Kaze was having fun with Rose and her friends, Sky Ocean Corporation was having a weekly meeting.

Darcy attended the meeting with the company's executives.

Since Sky Ocean Corporation wanted to focus on rebranding Mountain Dew Estate the meeting revolved En around the topic.

"We have signed a collaboration contract with Lil Dee, the famous influencer, and he will be the brand ambassador of Mountain Dew Estate. If anyone has any ideas or suggestions on marketing, feel free to speak," Darcy said.

Suddenly, Ash, the acting CEO when Darcy was not around, received shocking news and the look on her face changed.

She got on her feet and said, "Madam Chairwoman, we just got some bad news."