Chapter 871 Criticism

"Sky Ocean Corporation? I've never heard of it. Who are they? Lil Dee donated millions to charity! I support him!"

"How dare that bastard hit Lil Dee?! What nonsense?! Call the police on him!"

Different social media were being flooded by similar comments.

Since Lil Dee donated a lot of money to charity before, many netizens supported him.

Some so-called insiders even said that when Lil Dee and his team arrived at Mountain Dew Estate, the staff there offered to pimp him.

Lil Dee was a morally righteous person so when he turned down the offer, he was beaten up.

Darcy was shaking with anger when she saw the news and comments.

It was Lil Dee who requested Kaze to pimp him and when he was rejected, he tried to coerce Nancy to sleep with him.

Yet the truth was distorted by his PR team.

"I bet that so-called insider is Lil Dee's PR officer. They don't want to be seen as passive, so they accuse us first, which escalates the situation. Then, when we reveal the truth, no one believes us."

Ash figured out what Lil Dee and his team were aiming for.

However, not all netizens and his fans believed the news and rumors because Lil Dee did not respond to them.

The netizens were divided by the news. Some supported Lil Dee while some questioned him, starting a comment war online.

goes!

Darcy sighed. "Lil Dee is influential online. If he goes live and says he was hit, it will put us in an even more difficult situation."

Ash knew how PR officers worked as well.

She explained, "Lil Dee is trying to use this to make us answer his demands. If he goes live, then there will be no turning back. We won't have a reason to negotiate with him anymore."

As expected, Alyssa called Ash shortly after the news was released.

"Ash, you saw the news online, right? When Kaze Lee apologizes to us, Lil Dee will go live and clear up everything," Alyssa said arrogantly on the phone.

Of course, apologizing was only the beginning. Lil Dee and his team would surely make Sky Ocean Corporation understand the consequences of hitting one of online's most famous people.

"Alyssa, if it's another request, we can talk about it. Mr. Lee is not apologizing," Ash answered without a second thought.

After the slap from Mathias, Ash knew how powerful Darcy was and there was no way she would ask Kaze to apologize anymore.

+15 BONUS

"You guys are really stupid and stubborn."

Alyssa then abruptly hung up the phone.

The news of Lil Dee getting hit went viral and trending on different social media platforms.

Someone even boosted viral videos or articles to reach even more people.

With the spammers flooding all the comment sections, Sky Ocean m Corporation soon became the public enemy online.

Lil Dee's PR team was professional and they knew their way around the Internet.

Sky Ocean Corporation did not have time to respond properly.

Ash's phone rang.

After the call, she looked at Darcy with a bitter look. "Ms. Quint, the person in charge of the advertising department of South River Station just called.

Chapter 872 Sleep With Me, Forgive Your Husband South River Station was one of the highest-rated television stations in the country and it had an insane viewership count.

To promote Mountain Dew Estate, Sky Ocean Corporation worked with the television station to broadcast their advertisement video during prime time.

Fifteen seconds of video cost around a million, per broadcast.

Now that the news of Kaze hitting Lil Dee had gone out, South River Station pulled the advertisement.

"Ms. Quint, the person in charge also said that the contract clearly states that if we are at fault for causing the advertisement to be pulled, the TV station won't be liable for anything..."

Ash's expression turned bitter.

Sky Ocean Corporation and South River Station signed a contract to broadcast the advertisement for one hundred prime time slots.

Now that the contract was breached, a hundred million in advertisement fees went down the drain.

Before everyone could recover from the shock, Ash's phone continued to ring.

"Every other social media platform banned our videos, promotional materials, and even restricted the hashtags."

The bad news flooded them like a tidal wave.

Not only did the TV station pull the advertisement, but the other promotional channels and platforms ceased their content as well.

Sky Ocean Corporation had plans to hire more influencers and celebrities to promote Mountain Dew Estate after Lil Dee.

The marketing campaign was planned for at least a year ahead.

The agencies who signed the contract with them called either to terminate the contract or keep it in view.

They saw no possibility of working with Sky Ocean Corporation anymore.

Some previous brands who worked with Mountain Dew Estate released a statement to cut ties with it as well.

Sky Ocean Corporation was facing a great loss!

In addition, it was just the beginning as it would trigger a longer chain reaction.

Now that Mountain Dew Estate's reputation was ruined and was tied to some underworld gangs, no tourists would visit it anymore.

The project of rebranding Mountain Dew Estate died in the cradle.

Then, Alyssa called Darcy.

+15 BONUS

"Ms. Quint, I believe you have received the news right? How about it?"

Everyone felt like they could almost see the arrogant look on Alyssa's face just by listening to her voice through the phone.

Darcy bellowed, "Alyssa, you are distorting the truth! We can reveal the truth and turn the tables against you!"

"Hahaha!"

Lil Dee's laughter came from the phone.

He took the phone and said, "Turn the tables against us? Do you think you will have that chance?"

"I, Desmond Litman, the famous Lil Dee, have tens of millions of followers! Everything I see can go viral!

"I haven't even made my statement.

All I did was ask my influencer friends to spread the news and fan the flames, and all your collaboration partners terminated the contract with you. "This is what Lil Dee can do!

Unless you have someone more powerful than me taking your side, no one will believe you!"

Darcy clenched her teeth in anger while listening to Lil Dee's provocation.

No matter how angry she was, she knew Lil Dee was speaking the truth.

He had not yet made a statement and Sky Ocean Corporation was already facing a huge PR crisis.

"Lil Dee, there's no way Kaze will apologize and kneel to you."

Darcy tried to lower herself and said, "Why don't you name other requests name and we can compensate you more."

"I did not expect you to love your lousy husband that much. Love really makes people blind." Lil Dee then laughed and added, "Actually, there's something else you can do instead of asking him to apologize. Why don't you sleep with me for a night and I'll forgive your husband?" and "I'll forgive your husband?"

Chapter 873 Invite Professor Whiteman

"I have seen your picture and goddamn you are pretty. Hehe..."

Lil Dee's perverted chuckles sounded creepy on the loudspeaker.

"Desmond Litman, stop dreaming! It's not happening!" Darcy shouted.

She really wanted to hang up the phone.

Lil Dee scoffed. "If you don't want to, then there's nothing left for us to talk about. I'd like to see without me, who can bring Mountain Dew Estate back to life? I hope you won't come begging me later."

Darcy clenched her teeth tightly. She no longer had hopes to revive Mountain Dew Estate.

Kaze then went over to Darcy's desk and said to the phone, "Desmond Litman, don't think too much of yourself. I can simply find someone else to replace you and revive Mountain Dew Estate. I hope you won't come begging me later as well."

Kaze was furious that Lil Dee insulted Darcy over the phone.

The office was quiet. No one expected Kaze to continue arguing with Lil Dee after what had happened.

"Kaze Lee?"

Lil Dee clenched his teeth and said angrily, "We'll see about that."

He then hung up the phone. Kaze's words did not bother him at all.

In fact, even Ash and the other executives believed Kaze was bluffing.

Ash said, "Ms. Quint, I think we should figure out a way to bring Lil Dee back to the negotiation table. As for what he said, I believe it's just an angry vent of his grievance. No one would say no to money."

She was speaking the truth. Even if Lil Dee wanted to do it, his agency would not allow him either.

Lil Dee and his team were trying to extort more benefits from Sky Ocean Corporation by pressuring them with criticism.

However, Kaze did not want his wife to feel aggrieved. He argued, "There's no need for negotiation anymore. It's just an ambassador, we can find someone else to fill his spot.

Darcy was slightly agitated by the situation. "Kaze, stop fooling around. Now that the company has become a public enemy, no one would take up our offer no matter how much we pay."

Find someone else to replace Lil Dee?

It was easier said than done.

Sky Ocean Corporation had the budget to hire more famous people than Lil Dee to be the ambassador. They could even hire celebrities or movie stars. However, after the PR disaster, the company's reputation plummeted.

+15 BONUS No one would want to be affiliated with them.

Kaze smiled. "You can't be too sure about that. I can get someone better than Lil Dee. Once he's here, we can turn the tables around."

If he wanted to, he could silence the comments and remove all negative criticism on the Internet. He had the shares of a dozen social media companies after all.

He could also cancel Lil Dee completely with just one word, but he disliked using such an aggressive method. He could silence the mouths of people but he could not change people's opinion.

If he chose to silence everyone, it would only destroy Sky Ocean Corporation.

"Who is it?" Darcy asked.

Kaze smiled and said, "Professor Sam Whiteman. He's influential enough. Lil Dee is just some punk with some followers. He's nothing compared to Professor Whiteman.

Besides, Professor Whiteman is a righteous person and we don't need to worry about him doing morally wrong. stuff."

"Professor Sam Whiteman?"

Everyone was surprised by his suggestion.

If it was true, then Professor Whiteman was LilDee inter certainly better than of influence. and character.

If the professor could be the ambassador of Mountain Dew Estate, then the tables would certainly turn.

On

1 second thought, Ash shook her head and rejected the idea. idea. "It's not going to work.

Chapter 874 Free Ambassador

"When Professor Whiteman and his team came back from the foreign battlefield, they were welcomed like heroes. Many big companies tried to invite him to endorse their products or services but he rejected all the offers."

Ash hoped that Professor Whiteman could be their ambassador but she knew it was impossible. Professor Whiteman was a scholar and a doctor, nothing else.

He did not need the extra money from endorsements and he disliked being distracted by not his profession.

Darcy shook her head as well. "Kaze, stop dreaming. Professor Whiteman might be a friend of the family but this is the company's matter. Now that the company is in a tough situation, I am too embarrassed to ask Professor Whiteman."

Ash and the others did not know that Darcy's family was friends with the professor. They revered and respected her even more knowing her background.

However, as Darcy said, this was a company matter, not a private affair.

Professor Whiteman would never say yes.

"Don't worry. I'll talk to the professor. It will be fine."

Kaze then called the professor on his phone.

Darcy could not even stop him in time.

When Kaze talked to the professor about becoming Mountain Dew Estate's ambassador, the man agreed without a second thought.

"Hahaha, I have always wanted to visit Mountain Dew Estate but I don't have the time. Now that you offer me to become the ambassador, does it mean I can stay at Mountain Dew Estate free of charge?"

The people in Darcy's office were shocked how easy-going the professor was.

Kaze smiled and said, "Don't worry, Professor Whiteman. You won't be charged a penny and I will make sure you enjoy yourself fully!"

"You make sure of that? My my, I am flattered!"

Professor Whiteman was thrilled. He added, "Then I will be your ambassador free of charge!"

Not only did the professor agree to be the ambassador, but he was also not charging a cent.

Even Darcy was shocked.

If the news got out, people would literally go crazy.

Everyone knew the professor did not agree to become the ambassador because of the freebies and benefits.

They were surprised by Kaze's influence over the professor, especially Ash.

Darcy was thrilled. She did not expect Kaze would get the professor to agree to this easily. She +15 BONUS quickly said, "Professor Whiteman, thank you so much! You've helped us a lot in this case! But we will still pay you accordingly. We can't just ask you to endorse for free."

Professor Whiteman agreed to be the ambassador for Mountain Dew Estate, which could greatly help Sky Ocean Corporation out of its current situation.

Darcy would be more than willing to pay ten times the endorsement fee of Lil Dee to the professor for his help.

Since Darcy insisted, the professor nodded ultimately. "I don't know about endorsements or anything. Why don't I ask one of my students to talk to you? He's working in the orthopedic specialist hospital."

After the call, Professor Whiteman contacted the orthopedic specialist hospital and asked for Vayne.
novelbin

Many years ago, Vayne Tucker was one of his students. He was currently running a company specializing in researching and developing medical machinery for orthopedic purposes. Some of the patents his company held were developed by the professor and his research team.

The professor had always thought highly of Vayne.

"Vayne, Sky Ocean Corporation in Lilyrose is asking me to become the ambassador of Mountain Dew Estate. I don't know anything about business so can you come to Lilyrose and help look at the En contracts?"

The professor skipped to the point and stated his intention directly.

Vayne was surprised. "Professor, I thought you never take endorsements. What changed?"

Chapter 875 Like & Follow Cure Sickness Professor Whiteman said, "I'm friends with the chairwoman's husband. He came to me, asking for help, so I figured why not? I have to talk to you later. A patient is waiting for my consultation."

Vayne was rather jealous.

He tried to ask the professor to promote his company before but was scolded instead.

Yet Kaze was able to convince the professor to endorse his project?

Who exactly was Kaze Lee?

Vayne told his assistant to find out more about Kaze.

"Kaze Lee, the son-in-law of the Quints is a well-known garbage in Lilyrose. His wife is the chairwoman of two companies operating in Lilyrose.

"The professor is a prestigious doctor and scholar. He didn't even care about the invites from famed politicians yet he agreed to help a useless garbage?"

Vayne was annoyed and could not figure out why the professor would agree.

"Sir, I found out that the professor treated Kaze Lee's father-in-law's legs before. Sky Ocean Corporation is facing a major PR disaster because Kaze Lee hit a famous influencer."

The assistant updated Vayne on Kaze's background and the current situation. "I see. He used the professor's compassion and tried to clear the name of his company with the professor's prestigious status."

Vayne scoffed. His impression of Sky Ocean Corporation plummeted instantly.

However, since the professor had tasked him to liaise with Sky Ocean Corporation, he had to visit Lilyrose.

"The professor is taking business endorsements but why must he take the one from Sky Ocean Corporation? It's going to tarnish his reputation.

"Why don't I leak the news and let other big companies bid for the chance? I can also remove Sky Ocean Corporation in the process..."

Vayne came up with another solution that would benefit himself. He could do a favor for the big companies and widen his connections as well.

Meanwhile, at Lee Solutions, Taz finally came back after being beaten up.

His face was covered with patches and cream but he looked at his father, Samson, excitedly.

"Dad, Lil Dee is going after Sky Ocean Corporation. With you fanning the flames, they will be dead meat this time!"

The reason why the incident went viral was that Lee Solutions paid to promote the content regarding the incident.

+15 BONUS Samson was also the one who contacted South River Station's advertising department's person -in-charge to tell them to pull out the advertisement from the golden hour slot.

His actions started a domino effect, causing the other affiliated parties to back out on Sky Ocean Corporation.novelbin

Lil Dee alone could not have made the incident viral.

Samson fanned the flames because he wanted to avenge his son.

He did not intervene for his own personal gains because he had his plate full with other matters.

"Lee Solutions acquired failing hospitals in Lilyrose due to Narian's nonsense a while back and nown have to deal with this. I have to invest E some money into advertising to revive the hospitals," Samson grumbled as he rubbed his swollen temples.

"Dad, we can just ask Lil Dee to endorse our hospitals!" Taz said.

Samson looked at his stupid soon and said, "He's a stupid influencer who had no professional knowledge of medicine if we hire him to endorse our hospitals, is he going to ask his fans for likes and follows to cure the patients in the hospital? People might think we are crazy."

"Come on, Dad. I'm not that stupid, I know what it means..." Taz grumbled softly.

It was then Samson's assistant came into the office.

"Sir, we just got news that Professor Sam Whiteman is accepting o endorsements! He asked his student, Vayne Tucker to take charge of it and he's coming to Lilyrose!"

Chapter 876 Then Make Her Wait

"Is it legit news?" Samson asked his assistant eagerly.

It was no secret that Professor Whiteman never accepted endorsements.novelbin

Samson might be thrilled but he remained skeptical.

"It's legit. Vayne Tucker leaked the news himself," the assistant said.

as Samson nodded in excitement. "Vayne always boasts himself as the professor's student. When he started his company and wanted marketing solutions, he came to me for help. If it was he who leaked the news, then it must be real."

He knew Vayne well enough to understand the man's character.

Vayne boasted himself as the professor's student and used the professor's fame and reputation to quickly cement himself in Sunrise City's business world in just a few short years.

"Sir, our hospitals needed an ambassador. If we can get the professor to endorse us, the hospitals will flourish, not just come back from the dead," the assistant said.

Samson was intrigued. "Yeah. The professor is a master in orthopedics. Why don't we change all our hospitals to orthopedic specialist hospitals? With the professor's reputation, we can start a brand and slowly target a nationwide expansion. How about that?"

With the professor's name and a huge sum of funds to propel the project, the orthopedic specialist hospitals could expand across the country easily.

Lee Solutions had sufficient funds to do that.

With the Lees backing them up, there were many ways for Samson to secure funds.

Samson was excited. He rubbed his hands eagerly and said, "We must get the professor to endorse us and propel our hospitals to fame!"

"Keep an eye on Vayne. When he reaches Lilyrose, update me right away," Samson said to his assistant.

"Yes, Sir."

Vayne had arrived at Lilyrose and checked into a suite in Dynasty Hotel.

He released the news when he departed from Sunrise City.

"Now let's see who will come knocking."

He sat on the leather couch and started smoking.

He released the news and made a commotion about it because he wanted to know who would make the best offer.

Vayne had a beautiful assistant named Selene Blanks. She was coming into the suite with the latest update.

"Boss, Darcy Quint from Sky Ocean Corporation is here to see you."

+15 BONUS

"Hoho? She's fast. I bet she's eager. I guess that can't be helped since her company is in a difficult situation. If that's the case, let her wait."

Vayne did not budge from his couch.

Downstairs at the lounge of the hotel, Darcy and Ash were waiting to meet Vayne.

She brought Ash along to Dynasty Hotel when she learned that Vayne had arrived.

They looked relaxed and casual because the professor himself had agreed to be the ambassador. All they needed to do was fix the details with Vayne.

Out of appreciation for the professor's help, Sky Ocean Corporation had prepared an astronomical amount of endorsement fee and they believed the professor would be happy with it.

"Ms. Quint, Vayne Tucker's assistant is here," Ash said.

Darcy got up and asked politely, "You must be Selene. Is Mr. Tucker here yet?"

"Mr. Tucker said he is in the middle of something and he would like to have you wait for a while," Selene said stiffly.

Not only Ash, who had more experience in the business world, but even Darcy could sense the coldness in Selene's tone, which saddened her.

"Alright. Then we will wait for him here."

She had no idea why Selene treated her and Ash coldly but she was m willing to wait.

Darcy and Ash waited for another hour.

Darcy's stomach was growling since it was already lunchtime.

It was then she saw Selene coming down from the tower.

Selene went over to the entrance and brought several men upstairs.

One of the men with a bloated stomach and stern look caught Ash's attention.

"Ms. Quint, the man that Selene brought upstairs is the director of Lee Solutions, Samson Hobbs."

Chapter 877 Wait for the Prey

"Why is Vayne meeting with him?" Darcy wondered.

Samson was with the Sunrise Lees, who teamed up with the Vinlands to annex Darcy's companies.

When Darcy saw Selene inviting Samson and his men upstairs with a polite smile, she had a bad feeling.

"Ms. Quint, I heard that Samson Hobbs is trying to revive the dying hospitals that they acquired in Lilyrose. Are they here to ask the professor to endorse them as well?" Ash said with a heavy look. As an experienced manager in the business world, she knew Samson would only make a move when there was something important involved, or else he would not even be here.

Darcy furrowed her brows. "Unlikely. The hospitals that Lee Solutions acquired had a bad reputation for insurance fraud and false advertising."

She knew the professor would never agree to endorse the hospitals.

Ash did not care if the professor would endorse the hospitals or not. She was worried about Sky Ocean Corporation's deal with the professor./

With Samson involved, would the deal be affected?

"Ms. Quint, I'm afraid that Lee Solutions will try to intercept us and stop us from working with the professor. I just found out from my friend that South River Station pulled our advertisement from the prime time because Samson was fanning the flames after the incident with Lil Dee."

Ash knew that Lil Dee was not that powerful, so she asked her friend to investigate. She learned that it was Samson fanning the flames behind.

"Why would Samson Hobbs come after us without any reason?" Darcy was quite surprised.

"Last night, other than Lil Dee, Samson's son, Taz, was also at Mountain Dew Estate. He, too, was beaten up by Mr. Lee.

"Samson Hobbs also demanded Mr. Lee to release Cosmo from the detention center within three days. Ms. Quint, why don't you talk to Mr. Lee and see what he can do about it? Lil Dee alone is already a problem for us, we can't afford to go against Samson and Lee Solutions now."

11

After being taught a lesson by Mathias, Ash no longer dared to badmouth Kaze.

She simply offered a kind reminder and tried to convince Darcy to keep Kaze out of trouble.

Darcy said, "Strange. It's the mayor and the chief of police who had the right to release Cosmo. What does it have to do with Kaze?"

"I think the Lees are simply targeting Kaze."

She was worried but it was the least of her concerns right now.

O +15 BONUS

"Samson, welcome! Have a seat!"

Back in the suite, Vayne welcomed Samson with open arms.

He used to ask Samson for help and he knew that Samson was a big player in the game, so he dared not be arrogant before the behemoth.

"Vayne, I heard the professor is accepting endorsements now. I have a few hospitals that need the professor's help. I hope you can arrange for it to happen."

Samson skipped right to the point when he sat down. he point when he sat down.

Vayne was waiting for the best offer to maximize his profits but the first one to come to him.

was Samson.

He owed Samson a debt of gratitude and if he repaid it now, he would not be able to gain anything.

"Samson, I really wish I could help but the professor has strict criteria even though he has agreed to take on endorsements. It depends on him whether we can work together or not," Vayne said, feigning a tough look. novelbin

"Haha, I understand your difficulties. Don't worry. We just want the m professor to run alfew advertising campaigns with us. We won't tarnish his reputation or whatsoever."

Samson laughed. He did not believe a word Vayne said.

He knew Vayne was waiting for the bigger prey before he would strike.

Samson's beautiful secretary, Natasha Laxton, opened her om briefcase and took several documents out.

Chapter 878 Sky Ocean Corporation Is Not Worthy

"What might this be?"

Vayne looked at the documents.

Samson smiled and said, "Vayne, if we get this done, other than the professor's endorsement fee, we will also invest fifty million into your company. Sign it and the money will be transferred into your account."

Vanye was moved but he was not satisfied just yet.

The investment might be good but it was still a business deal.

Besides, Samson would also acquire a part of his company shares with the investment.

He believed the professor's reputation could bring him much more than just fifty million. "Samson, you are being too kind. Investment or not, you helped me before..."

Samson's eyes glared coldly at Vayne's pretentious character.

He forced a smile and said, "Vayne, you might not know but the Lees are also hoping for this deal to go through.

"You know that Narian's legs were broken right? His father had been asking the professor to look at his injuries but due to a certain misunderstanding, the professor did not answer the family's requests.

"The Lees hoped to clear up this misunderstanding through this deal. Of course, you, as the one who made it happen, and also the professor's student, will also benefit from it. You can secure a connection with them."

Secure a connection with the Lees?

Vayne's heart raced and his eyes gleamed.

It was a dream of many people and he was one signature away from getting it. "Alright. I will do my best to convince the professor and make this deal happen."

Vayne agreed without a second thought and practically sold his professor away to the Lees.

"Vayne, I like your swift decision!"

Samson got up and shook Vayne's hand. He had a glance at his Rolex on his wrist and said, "It's lunchtime. Why don't we get lunch downstairs and we can talk about the details?"

"Of course."

Vayne quickly signed the documents, afraid that Samson might go back on his word.

"I'll make the necessary arrangements," said Samson's secretary.

The few of them then went down to the hotel restaurant to enjoy lunch.

Darcy and Ash spotted them.

"Ms. Quint, is Vayne Tucker ignoring us? Should we talk to him?" Ash sounded unhappy.

+15 BONUS They came first and told Vayne's assistant to inform him of their arrival, yet Vayne made them wait for no reason.

"Vayne Tucker is the professor's student and he should be here to talk to us about the details. I don't think it's appropriate for us to intervene like this. Let's wait and see," Darcy said calmly.

"Nothing will happen if we keep waiting!"

Ash was not as optimistic as Darcy. She strode forward and intercepted Selene, who came out from the VIP room for a phone call.

Ms. Blanks, can you tell Mr. Tucker that Ms. Quint and I have been waiting for him?"

Selene had a few drinks inside and her face was reddish. She blurted. waiting.

"Then just keep waiting. You guys are asking for Mr. Tucker's help, why can't you wait for a little while?"

Her attitude was not friendly at all.

Ash said coldly and stiffly, "Ms. novelbin

Blanks, the professor told your boss to come here to discuss the details e of the endorsement with us. Being the professor's student, your boss should know that Ms. Quint's family are close friends with the professor."

Selene laughed.

"So what if she's close with the professor? Mr. Tucker knows that it is that useless son-in-law theo curries favors with the professor and convinces him to agree with the endorsement. As for Sky Ocean Corporation, you are not worthy to invite the professor to be your ambassador."

ЧИВАТ

Chapter 879 Exclusive Endorsement Ash's heart skipped a beat.

As Vayne's assistant, Selene was the closest person to him. Her answer must reflect Vayne's opinion on the matter.

Could it be that Vayne did not want the professor to work with Sky Ocean Corporation?

Even Darcy had a bad feeling about this.

"Ms. Blanks, mind your attitude. My husband did not curry favor with anyone. He is friends with Professor Whiteman."

Darcy went up to Selene and said coldly, "And please explain why Sky Ocean Corporation isn't worthy of inviting the professor as its ambassador?"

"Who do you think you are? Why must I explain myself to you? You think you are the chairwoman of the world? No, you are just the chairwoman of a company in this lousy city!"

Selene argued with Darcy, showing off envy in her eyes.

"Darcy Quint, is it? Let me tell you something; don't even hope to get the professor's endorsement. Lee Solutions have already signed an exclusive right for the professor to endorse their hospitals!"

Selene laughed as she went back into the VIP room.

"What? Samson Hobbs got the exclusive endorsement of Professor Whiteman?"

Darcy and Ash were shocked. A hint of panic ran through their expressions.

If Lee Solutions obtained the professor's endorsement, they might not have been so scared and panicked.

Like other celebrities, one could endorse multiple brands and products.

However, an exclusive endorsement was different.

It meant that the professor could only endorse one brand in the business.

Judging from Selene's words, Lee Solutions seemed to have bought the exclusive rights to Professor Whiteman's endorsement.

The hopes for Sky Ocean Corporation having the professor endorse Mountain Dew Estate were completely ruined!

"Ms. Quint, Samson Hobbs is doing this on purpose!" Ash said bitterly.

Darcy reacted bitterly as well but she still had hope because she believed the professor's character. He would never simply go back on his promise.

"Let's go talk to Vayne Tucker."

She brought Ash into the VIP room.

Vayne and Samson were drinking with their assistant and secretary beside them.

+15 BONUS The strange thing was that Vayne and Samson were accompanied by each other's assistant and secretary.

Vayne had a few drinks and started to get handsy with Natasha.

When Darcy and Ash entered the room, they saw the unbelievable scene.

The professor's student was a pervert!

Which was unbelievable.

Darcy and Ash's unannounced entry surprised everyone in the room.

Vayne nervously pushed Natasha away and slammed on the table. He shouted, "Who the hell are you? Who let you in?"

He had always maintained a positive image in front of the public. His most perverted side would come out only in private.

With disgust, Darcy said, "Mr. Tucker, I'm Darcy Quint, chairwoman of Sky Ocean Corporation

"I don't care who you are! Get out!"

Vayne had one too many drinks. He slammed the table and shouted.

"Vayne, Ms. Quint here is one of the most beautiful women in Lilyrose and you are asking her to leave? How ungentlemanly. Why don't we invite Ms. Quint to drink with us?" Samson said with a perverted grin.

He had a few drinks but his mind was clear. His eyes were glued to Darcy's body as his lips curled.

He knew who Darcy was and he wanted to see what she wanted..

Vayne scrutinized the beautiful Darcy.

Darcy's beauty instantly outshone Natasha's and Selene's.

"Hehe, you're right, Samson. Have a seat, Ms. Quint. I know why you are here. Why don't we talk over a few drinks?"

Chapter 880 Darcy Is Hit Vayne smiled and invited Darcy to have a seat.

His perverted gaze scrutinized Darcy's voluptuous body.

Darcy did not sit down. She said, "I'm not drinking. I heard from your assistant that Lee Solutions have gotten exclusive rights to Professor Whiteman's endorsement.

"Is it true? If it is, then we have no reason to waste our time here."

Vayne shot a warning gaze at Selene, blaming her for having a loose mouth.

He was infatuated with Darcy's beauty and body. He wanted to sit her down, try his chances on her, and then reveal to her that he had sold the exclusive rights to Samson.novelbin

Now his plans were foiled.

"Ms. Quint, what is the meaning of that? Are you questioning me?"

Vayne's smile faded and said with a stern look, "Yes, it is true."

Darcy's heart skipped a beat. It was true.

Samson then asked, "Vayne, does it mean Ms. Quint's Sky Ocean Corporation is also interested in the professor's endorsement?"

He had no idea that it was Sky Ocean Corporation who started all this.

Vayne turned to Samson with a smile.

"The professor wanted to accept Sky Ocean Corporation's offer."

Vayne scoffed. "You know how kind the professor is. I believe it's Ms. Quint's useless husband who begged the professor to help his wife's company."

"So, you're saying I intercepted their deal with the professor?" Samson grinned.

He was happy that he intercepted the deal and seized the exclusive rights to the professor's endorsement.

Darcy was aggrieved listening to Vayne insulting Kaze, but it was no time to confront him about that.

She asked, "Mr. Tucker, Professor Whiteman agreed to become the ambassador for Sky Ocean Corporation and you, as his student, sold off his exclusive rights to Lee Solutions? This is wrong."

"What is wrong about it?" Vayne scoffed.

"Sky Ocean Corporation's reputation plummeted because of the incident and the entire online community views you as the villain. They even say you are affiliated with gangsters. Don't tell me you don't know about that.

"Now you want to use the professor's reputation to clear your name? The professor is deceived. Once he agrees to be your ambassador, his good name will be ruined!"

"I, as his student, shall step up and expose your malicious intent. What is wrong with that?"

+15 BONUS Darcy was furious listening to Vayne's excuse.

She said coldly, "Vayne Tucker, Lee Solutions want the professor to endorse their hospitals. You should know how their hospitals are doing yet you claim to save the professor's name by selling the endorsement rights to them? I think you are the one who is trying to ruin your professor's name by betraying him!"

Vayne's expression shifted.

He slammed the table and bolted up. "Get out! Stop talking nonsense!"

"Ms. Quint, I am the director of Lee Solutions and I find your words toward my company offensive," Samson said coldly.

"Nat, see them out!"

Samson signaled his secretary, Natasha.

Natasha went up to Darcy and om gestured to her to leave

"Please leave."

Darcy shot a cold glance at her and wanted to leave.

Slap!

Suddenly, a slap landed on her face and left her cheek red.

"Why did you hit me?!"

Darcy covered her face and glared at Natasha.

Slap!

Natasha slapped her on the other side of Darcy's face. She then crossed her arms and said, your useless Husband hit Young Master Husbands Taz at Mountain Dew Estate. This is for him!"
