Chapter 1511

Chapter 1511

“Change tactics. Use poisoned bolts!”

Jane shouted, taking out a blue bolt from the quiver and putting one over the crossbow.

Other mercenaries also took out their special blue poisoned bolts, loaded them to their crossbows, pulled the trigger, and fired at Sean.

Crossbows were already powerful and could easily pierce thin steel plates within 100 meters. It was why crossbows were lethal in the Middle Ages. Ordinary people who owned crossbows would be sentenced to severe punishment.

However, Jane and her mercenaries had taken their arrows to a new level by using poisoned bolts with their crossbows.

The special poisoned bolt would probably kill with a mere scratch, let alone hit a vital point.

Jane changed to poisoned bolts because she was determined to kill Sean to avenge herself, her father, and Billion Trees Group!

“Hurry and run!”

Sean realized something was wrong and quickly ordered Caitlyn and May.

Aware of the danger, Caitlyn grabbed May and ran outside.

“You must survive, Brother Sean!”

Caitlyn cried out in tears. She did not want Sean dying here trying to save May and herself.

If Sean died, she would never forgive herself!

The blue arrows let out an eerie blue twinkle in the sunlight.

The specially designed poisoned bolts would have no problem killing elephants weighing tens of tons or more!

However, not a single bolt could penetrate Sean's defenses.

Poisoned bolts flying in his face were either deflected aside with his dagger or cut in half and fell feebly to the ground.

However, Sean was under a lot more pressure than before!

After all, the only thing he had to do earlier was to be careful not to let any bolt hit his vital points. Now, even a scratch on his skin could kill him with poison, so the bolts were now more dangerous.

However, that was it!

As soon as May and Caitlyn left the compound, Zander led hundreds of special forces into the abandoned textile factory.

More people surrounded the entire textile factory from the outside!

The huge textile factory was surrounded in a short time. Even a fly had trouble escaping, not to mention people!

and the women would not survive.

However, Sean alone had managed to stop so many crossbow bolts by himself. How could they not be surprised?

"Who is this man? He's so strong! Is he Superman?"

The mercenary leader looked terrified as his hand holding the crossbow shook

As the mercenaries' leader, he and his men had taken on who knew how many missions, killed how many people, and even fought against some small countries.

However, he had never seen a man with Sean's ability to fight alone!

Such a man was far beyond ordinary people!

Jane already knew Sean was a tough guy to deal with but was now horrified.

This man was unbelievable.

They must kill him today. If he survived, he would be their nightmare for the rest of their life!

More people surrounded the entire textile factory from the outside!

The huge textile factory was surrounded in a short time. Even a fly had trouble escaping, not to mention people!

Jane was shocked to see this.

The mercenaries beside her were shocked and showed a look of terror.

"What the h*ll is this? Ms. Lidell, you said there wouldn't be any serious trouble and that all we had to do was kill Lennon. But why are there so many people here? And so many special forces! The entire Joules Town military's special forces are probably here!"

The bald mercenary leader asked as he angrily grabbed Jane by the collar.

Other mercenaries also looked at Jane angrily.

Jane was throwing them under the bus!

How were a dozen of them going to go toe-to-toe with special forces?

Forget about a confrontation. Even attacking from the sides was impossible!

“How... How could I know...”

Jane was so flustered that she ran out of ideas.

She also had no idea that Sean could get so many special forces. Who the hell was Sean?

Chapter 1512

Chapter 1512

How was he able to mobilize such a large number of special forces? What was his relationship with the Joules Town military?

After all, Joules Town military garrison sergeant was a three-star commander.

A three-star commander was the supreme commander of the Joules Town army to ordinary people. Even the governor of Joules Town, who had the highest ranking, must treat him with respect.

Besides, without orders from the higher-ups, the army would not deploy top combat forces like the special forces.

However, with so many special forces surrounding the abandoned factory, the entire thing seemed weird.

Was Sean a member of the army?

Jane was instantly overwhelmed with regret at the thought of it.

However, it was too late for that!

It had happened. What was the point of regretting it now? What was done could not be undone!

“Listen, everyone inside! You are surrounded. Put down your weapons and surrender with your hands in the air. We can go easy on you!”

The special forces leader, who came to provide support, shouted at the abandoned textile factory with his weapon aimed.

Sean was finally relieved and smiled.

The project was a complete success at this point.

Not only did they rescue May and Caitlyn, but they also captured so many mercenaries. It was a huge accomplishment.

Of course, Sean would not take the credit. After all, he had gotten help from the Joules Town military.

Therefore, he would let them have the credit.

However, he had achieved his goal by saving Caitlyn and May, not to mention settling Jimmy and Jane.

Jimmy and Jane's capture meant Billion Trees Group's complete collapse.

From then on, Billion Trees Group no longer existed!

Zander was calming Caitlyn and May.

The two women sat on the rocks outside the abandoned textile factory, gasping for air

The shock they suffered earlier made them unable to calm down. Their cheeks were still pale. Even their lips had no color.

"Take a drink, Madam Randall and Ms. Green."

Zander brought two glasses of water and held them out to May and Caitlyn.

Caitlyn took the water and gave it to May. She was not in the mood to drink. Instead, she grabbed Zander's hand and asked, "Zander, how's Brother Sean? Is he hurt?"

"Well "

Zander could not answer that. After all, instead of fighting along with Sean, he was soothing

the two women

Therefore, he had no idea what was going on in the abandoned textile factory, let alone whether Sean was injured

However, he believed in Sean's strength, so he hesitated slightly before answering firmly, "Don't worry, Ms. Green. The commander will be fine. He has survived a lot of near-death situations. How could something bad happen to him because of something like this... On the other hand, why don't you take a drink first, Ms. Green? The commander will blame me for not taking good care of you after seeing the way you look."

Caitlyn felt a little relieved to hear Zander say this.

Therefore, she took the glass and drank. She had just put the glass down when a voice came from not far away.

"Are you alright?"

Caitlyn's heart burst with joy at the voice!

Chapter 1513

Chapter 1513

Because it was Sean's voice!

Sean's voice was calm and a little hoarse. It also sounded like it had gone through the hardships of life. How could Caitlyn mishear such an obvious feature?

She quickly got up and looked excitedly in the direction of the voice. Sure enough, she saw Sean stride toward her and May with a smile.

Sean was not hurt.

The bombardment of crossbow bolts did not harm him.

Even though the poisoned bolts later gave him stress, they did not hit him, and he did not suffer a single scratch.

Now that he returned safely, the first thing Sean wanted to do was see May and Caitlyn.

After all, the two women made him worried.

"Brother Sean!"

Caitlyn ran to him excitedly, threw herself into Sean's arms, and began to sob.

"You're a grown-up. Why do you still behave like a child?"

Sean said in a slightly accusatory tone.

Although he said so, he was happy.

The two most important women to him, May and Caitlyn were safe. Great!

Caitlyn wiped the tears and rubbed her face against Sean's firm chest before saying tearfully, "I... I thought I'd never see you again..."

"How is that possible? Even if you and Aunt May are brought to hell, I will barge into the underworld to save you! Let alone being kidnapped!"

Sean said firmly.

Hearing this, Caitlyn was deeply moved while May smiled happily.

To see her adopted child grow into the staunch, strong, and reliable man he was now, May felt a deep sense of happiness, satisfaction, and intense accomplishment.

However, May did not talk nonsense but asked directly, "Sean, what happened to Jane and Jimmy? And the mercenaries Jane hired. Did they surrender?"

"They surrendered."

Sean nodded.

The mercenaries surrendered when the special forces surrounded the entire abandoned textile factory and stormed into the compound.

Mercenaries were only a crowd with no faith and were not resolute. Though they were good fighters, they had no faith.

Suddenly faced with special forces stronger than them, how could these mercenaries not surrender?

Jane wanted to escape with her father Jimmy, but the abandoned textile factory was surrounded. How could they escape?

Most importantly, the mercenaries got so angry that they tied up both Jane and Jimmy and gave them to the special forces as gifts. They sort of atoned for their sins that way.

Sean was not sure what would happen to these mercenaries because the last person to make the order was the seven-star commander of Joules Town's military district.

However, Jimmy and Jane were going to jail.

Hiring a rogue foreign force, kidnapping, and attempted murder were so many charges that the father and daughter would spend the rest of their lives in prison. They could forget about seeing the light of day again!

"Zander, get Jane and Jimmy here."

Sean commanded as he turned to look at Zander.

"Yes!"

Chapter 1514

Zander immediately turned around and left. He soon brought Jane and Jimmy over.

Zander handled Jane and Jimmy, who were handcuffed with hands behind their backs, like they were toddlers.

Zander was furious with both of them. Therefore, after bringing them to Sean, he pressed them on the shoulders and forced them to kneel in front of Sean, May, and Caitlyn.

May was calm, but Caitlyn could not stand it. She ran up to Jane and slapped her!

"How dare you kidnap me? How dare you threaten my brother? Kidnap me again if you dare!" Caitlyn pointed angrily at Jane's nose.

However, though Caitlyn had slapped Jane, she had no energy after starving for more than two days.

The slap did not hurt Jane at all.

Jane sneered. Without looking at May or Caitlyn, she only raised her head and glared at Sean. "Sean, I lost to you this time. You can kill or hurt me, but I hope you can let my father go!"

Jane's remark made everyone in the room look at her like she was an idiot.

Not only Zander, May, and Caitlyn looked at her like she was an idiot, but Joules Town special forces, who came to arrest her, also looked at her with disdain.

'Does this woman think she can get away with what she's done?

'Is this a joke?

'Did she get her head slammed in the door?

"I won't hurt you, let alone kill you. What awaits you is the law."

Sean said indifferently.

He was furious just now, but he had now calmed down.

He did not want to quarrel with two prisoners who were going to prison and would never get out.

However, there were some things he needed to make clear.

Before he could speak, Jane snapped, "Stop shedding crocodile tears. Do you think I won't hold a grudge against you by saying so? Sean, even if I die and become a ghost, I won't let you go!"

Jane's father, Jimmy, was not as tough.

Jimmy cried as snot ran down his nose He was a mess. You could not tell that he was the chairman of Billion Trees Group, which held tens of billions of dollars in assets.

“Sean, Brother Lennon, Mr. Lennon, I was blind to go against you. I’m sorry. I won’t go against you anymore. Please let me go... I have another fortune hidden away in a secret place. If you let us go, I will give you the money...”

As soon as he said that, everyone around him looked shocked.

Jimmy had a stash of money!

They did not expect it. As the saying went, a sly person had more than one plan to fall back on. Jimmy not only had more than one, but he also had a lot!

However, come to think of it, it made sense. How could the chairman of Billion Trees Group, Jimmy, not leave some options open?

“Dad, what are you talking about? Don’t give in to him. Even if you give him money, he’ll change his mind and deny it!”

Jimmy did not listen to his daughter’s words. After all, money was important, but his and his daughter’s life were more important.

So what if they give up all their fortune as long as both of them could survive and even get out of prison?

They could make more money, but they would have nothing if they were dead!

Chapter 1515

Chapter 1515

However, to his surprise and the surprise of everyone in the room, Sean refused without hesitation.

“Sorry, I’m not interested.”

As soon as he said this, everyone fell silent.

Everyone besides Zander looked blankly at Sean.

They could not believe Sean just said no without even thinking about it.

It was the fortune of the chairman of Billion Trees Group, Jimmy Lidell. With its strong financial resources, Jimmy must have left a lot of money for himself.

The average person would have been amazed at the amount of money!

Billion Trees Group had gone bankrupt, and this was the money Jimmy kept for himself before he went bankrupt!

It was not Billion Trees Group's money!

However, Sean was not interested at all. He remained unfazed, which shocked everyone present.

"You're not interested? How could you not be interested? Do you know how much money I have? Do you know how much money that is? That's billions of..."

Jimmy said eagerly, looking at Sean pleadingly.

Hearing the words "billions", the look in the eyes of many people present changed. Some even gasped.

How much were billions of dollars?

An average family of three earned around two hundred thousand dollars a year, and that was a generous estimation.

Two hundred thousand dollars a year would total up to two million in a decade. It would be twenty million in a century.

No average family could earn billions of dollars in several lifetimes! If you had that amount of money, you could leisurely spend the rest of your life in bed!

Even people who did not love money could not keep calm when they heard the word "Billions".

However, Sean chuckled.

"Is billions of dollars a lot of money? Maybe billions of dollars is an astronomical amount to the average person, but it's nothing to me. Jimmy, you thought too highly about the power of money. You also overestimate your strength and wealth. I'm sorry, but I'm not interested in your money at all."

Sean shook his head, still looking calm.

Hearing this, the special forces of Joules Town Military District present could not help but cast a shocked and respectful look at Sean.

May and Caitlyn were thrilled.

Zander smiled and nodded, of course.

It was the nine-star commander he was familiar with!

He was uninterested in money and would not give himself away for money!

Only someone like him was qualified to have him work for them!

However, Jimmy was devastated.

His last hope was gone. Losing his last lifeline, how could he stay strong?

“Why did you get my daughter and me here? Why do you want to see me? Sean, don’t pretend to be righteous. I don’t believe you don’t love money!”

Jimmy yelled like he had lost his mind.

Sean looked at Jimmy with pity, which hurt Jimmy more than sarcasm.

He had worked hard for money for most of his life. His wealth was nothing to the young man in front of him. How ironic!

“I asked Zander to bring you here to tell you that it wasn’t me who did this to you. You brought this onto yourself.”

Sean said indifferently, shaking his head as if he was sorry for Jimmy and Jane.

“Bullsh*t!”

Jane finally swore as she could not keep quiet any longer.

At that point, Jane knew there was no way out for herself and her father, Jimmy, so she threw all caution to the wind and vented her anger and hatred.

Chapter 1516

Chapter 1516

“Isn’t it? Jimmy’s in prison because he’s done too many things against the law. How could I send him to prison if he hadn’t done anything against the law?”

Sean said with emphasis.

Jane was instantly at a loss for words.

It was because it was the truth.

Sean was indeed strong and powerful. Jimmy was no match for him.

However, Sean could only kill Jimmy if he did not break the law. There was no way he would take legal action against him.

Therefore, Jimmy could only blame himself for being thrown into prison. It was not Sean’s fault!

Sean looked at Jane and added, “Is it my fault that you’re facing justice now? Did I hire foreign mercenaries to kidnap Madam Randall and Caitlyn?”

Jane tried to retort but found herself unable to utter a single retort.

Ghastly pale, Jimmy was on his knees, shivering.

“What goes around comes around! Jimmy and Jane, reflect on yourselves!”

Sean’s icy words made Jimmy and Jane feel lost as if the future had been cut off, and there was no more hope.

Jimmy was still in a stupor, but Jane lowered her head and sobbed softly.

Huge drops of tears spilled from her eyes, sliding down her cheeks and falling to the ground.

In a short moment, the ground in front of her was already wet with tears.

Jane regretted it.

However, it was too late for that.

“Take them away... Zander, contact the government. Give these two to the government’s custody.”

Sean said, waving his hand.

“Yes!”

Zander nodded heavily.

Then Sean looked at the commander of Joules Town’s special forces and said, “The government can’t handle these mercenaries. It’s already under the army’s control. So these mercenaries are yours to take care of. Take them away and take care of them.”

The commander of Joules Town’s special forces nodded vigorously.

Capturing so many foreign mercenaries would be a feat.

The mercenaries were quickly taken away by the special forces, and government officials arrived soon after.

However, before she was escorted away, Jane glanced deeply at Sean. No one knew what was on her mind.

Perhaps it was chagrin.

Perhaps it was remorse.

However, it was too late to say anything because they could not turn back the clock.

After handling everything, it was time to send May and Caitlyn back to Queen Children’s Orphanage.

The two women only calmed down after returning home. They finally felt relieved after being scared for so long.

Sean sent Zander out to buy some food.

As he sat at the table, watching May and Caitlyn ravish their food, he grew increasingly happier.

“Take your time. Don’t panic. Be careful not to choke.”

Sean said to May and Caitlyn.

Caitlyn instantly blushed, embarrassed.

She was a woman after all, and women were always very self-conscious about how they looked, so shyness was inevitable.

However, she had not eaten for a long time and was starving, so she soon began digging in again.

Chapter 1517

Chapter 1517

May seemed much calmer, only occasionally looking up at Sean with a smile and saying with great relief, “Sean, you’ve really grown up. I can now depend on you.”

“Aunt, you’re acting like we’re strangers. You took care of me when I was little. Now that I’ve grown up, isn’t it my job to take care of you?”

May’s heart melted when hearing Sean say so.

After a meal, the two women washed up and rested. They were too scared to sleep during the two days they spent in the abandoned textile factory.

They could finally have a good rest.

May and Caitlyn returned, and the orphanage was back on track.

Partly to celebrate and partly to make up for the two days they had not eaten, May cooked a hearty meal.

Caitlyn giggled as she looked at all the good food on the table.

“Stop giggling and eat!”

Sean patted Caitlyn on the head and urged her with a smile.

Caitlyn replied in acknowledgment and nodded heavily. Then she said, “Brother Sean, it’s so nice to have someone as reliable as you.”

“Stop talking nonsense. The food’s going cold.”

Sean said, pretending to be angry.

However, he was happy. What could be happier than getting the approval of someone he cared about?

Just then, Zander walked in suddenly.

May immediately said, “Zander, I don’t think you’ve eaten. Sit down and eat with us.”

Zander immediately shook his head at this.

“No thanks, Madam Randall. I’m not hungry.

As a subordinate, it was one of the rules Zander had always followed-not eating at the same table as his boss. Besides, he wanted to show his respect for Sean in this way.

Sean did not care about it at all. He wanted Zander to be more flexible instead.

Zander might be his right-hand man, but Sean preferred to think of him as his brother!

“Why did you come over suddenly? Did something happen?”

Sean put down the cutlery and asked as he looked at Zander.

Zander nodded before looking at Caitlyn and Madam Randall. What Zander meant was that it was inappropriate to talk about it in front of Caitlyn and Madam Randall.

However, Sean shrugged it off and said with a nod, “Just say it here. Caitlyn and Aunt May are not outsiders.”

Since Sean had said so, Zander stopped hesitating.

“Commander, the government just sent word that Jimmy has told us where his savings are. There’s a total of 4.3 billion dollars. The money has now been confiscated by the government.” Sean nodded with satisfaction at that.

“Hand it over to Dragon Kingdom. Very good.”

However, Zander’s expression looked ghastly as he continued saying, “But the government is upset with you. They asked if we played along with Jane’s plan to get Jimmy out of prison because we knew about Jimmy’s savings.”

Sean’s brow furrowed slightly.

Zander did not elaborate, but he probably figured it out.

When Caitlyn and May were kidnapped, Sean contacted Henry to save the two women from being tortured by Jane.

Henry went to the head of the Joules Town government, Victor Barlowe, and asked him to cooperate with the rescue plan.

However, Victor did not take Henry’s advice and only let Zander take Jimmy out of prison. Besides that, the Joules Town government did not give Sean any help.

Chapter 1518

Chapter 1518

It was fair to say that the Joules Town government did little to rescue Caitlyn and May.

Now that Jimmy and Jane were in prison and had given up such a large sum of money, some people in the government were beginning to have ideas about it.

They thought Sean knew about the money, so he took Jimmy out of jail to get him to talk.

Some even wondered if Sean pocketed the money or took some of it.

Of course, these were all rumors. However, if people in the Joules Town government believed that, that meant that the Joules Town government was hostile to Sean.

Sean and the Joules Town government had a difficult relationship due to William.

The conflict between Lennon Group and Billion Trees Group had caused turmoil in Joules Town.

Therefore, it was normal for the leader of the Joules Town government, Victor, to complain about Sean, and it was understandable that the Joules Town government was hostile to Sean.

However, it did not bother Sean.

“Is that all?”

Sean asked with a smile.

Zander shook his head and added, “There’s going to be a party at Joules Town’s Myron Hotel in three days. Many members of Joules Town’s high society will be there, including some big shots. Victor will be attending too.”

“A party? I’m not interested.”

Sean said no immediately because he was not interested in it.

Having been in the army, the last thing he liked was partying and drinking.

Banquets and wine parties were places where good-for-nothing heirs and so-called successful people enjoyed themselves.

As a nine-star commander, Sean was to protect Dragon Kingdom and the people, ensuring they could live in peace rather than accompanying these people at their parties.

Forget about attending such parties. Sean turned his nose up at them.

However, Zander sighed helplessly. “Victor says he has something to talk to you about, so he wants you to be there, Commander.”

Sean’s face grew solemn.

'Victor was so cocky!'

Sean did not reveal his identity as a nine-star commander in Joules Town. Only a few people know that he was the legendary guardian of Dragon Kingdom.

However, even if Victor did not know Sean's nine-star commander identity and only regarded him as an ordinary chairman of a corporation, he should not have behaved like this!

Who was he putting on airs for?

"Commander, I'll turn him down for you if you don't want to go."

Zander said solemnly.

Sean was going to nod, but he broke into a smile after looking at Caitlyn.

"Caitlyn, would you like to attend the party?"

Caitlyn was taken aback by Sean's question.

She had lived in Queen Children's Orphanage since she was little. She had never attended a banquet, not to mention an ordinary wine party.

To hear Sean ask her whether she wanted to attend such a high-end party, her heart almost popped out of her throat!

"Can I?"

Caitlyn asked excitedly.

"Of course, Aunt May. If you want to join us..."

Before Sean could finish, May shook her head and said with a sigh, "Forget about me. I have a lot of work to do with the orphanage. I don't have time. Sean, just take Caitlyn and have fun. Let her experience it."

Chapter 1519

Chapter 1519

"Alright."

Sean nodded before saying to Zander, "Tell Victor I'll be there."

"Yes!"

Zander nodded heavily.

Once Zander left the orphanage, Caitlyn asked sheepishly, "Brother Sean, do you have trouble with Victor because of the orphanage?"

"It has nothing to do with the orphanage. Victor is narrow-minded and can't stand people who are more capable than him. I didn't see him after coming to Joules Town, so he has a problem with me. I set up Lennon Group to compete with Billion Trees Group, which also made waves in Joules Town for a while and caused trouble for the Joules Town government, so he disliked me even more... But don't worry. It's nothing."

Caitlyn was relieved to hear Sean say this.

"I wonder what high society's parties are like."

Caitlyn mumbled to herself as she thought about the parties she had seen on television.

"You'll see."

Sean said with a smile.

Time flew.

On the night of the party, Sean drove Caitlyn to Myron Hotel's parking lot.

After getting out of the car, Sean went to the front passenger door, opened it, and held Caitlyn's arm to help her get out.

Blushing, Caitlyn said sheepishly, "I feel like I've turned into a rich heiress on TV dramas."

"You're a rich heiress when I'm around."

Sean quipped.

Caitlyn could not help looking down as she grew shy.

“Hold up your head and be confident. You’re beautiful as you are. You cannot lose to those so- called rich heiresses.”

Sean encouraged her.

With Sean’s encouragement, Caitlyn finally felt a little more confident. She tried hard to hold her head up and her chest out. Holding Sean’s arm, she walked toward Myron Hotel with him.

They were surrounded by people going to Myron Hotel for the party, and they were mostly couples or married couples.

These people were dressed to the nines. Men were in suits, while women were in gowns. Everything was fancy.

Caitlyn felt as if she was in a dream in that environment.

However, Sean and Caitlyn were stopped by two security guards in front of Myron Hotel.

“Please show us your invitation. Thank you.”

A security guard reached out his hand to Sean.

Sean frowned-he did not have an invitation.

He had come to the party because he had been “invited” by Victor. He did not know beforehand that he needed an invitation to enter. He was surprised to be stopped by the security guard.

“Do we need an invitation for this party?”

Sean asked.

His question was met with a burst of laughter from everyone nearby.

Everyone attending the party cast disdainful glances at Sean and Caitlyn as if they were looking at clowns.

The two security guards at the door were unabashed in their disdain.

One of the guards snapped bluntly, “Nonsense. This party is very exclusive that the guests here are all Joules Town's elite. They're either dignitaries or business tycoons. Do you think any random people can attend it?"

Chapter 1520

Chapter 1520

Another security guard snorted coldly and said, "Do you have an invitation? F*ck off if you don't. This is no place for people like you!"

Sean was annoyed.

He did not care about his face. After many years on the battlefield, he did not care about life and death. Face did not matter to him.

However, he was now not alone. Caitlyn was also here.

Even if he did not think of himself, he had to think of Caitlyn!

How could he embarrass Caitlyn with all these people here?

"I was invited here by your VIP. You cannot afford the consequences of not letting us in!"

As soon as Sean said this, one of the party guests covered their mouth and laughed. They asked sarcastically, "Who is this VIP you speak of? Why don't you tell us their name?"

"Yes, yes. Tell us the name if you have the balls. Anyone can brag."

With everyone laughing at them, Caitlyn hung her head so low that she dared not look up.

"It was Victor from the Joules Town government who invited us to the party."

Sean said, suppressing his anger.

Hearing Victor's name, the guests and the two security guards froze momentarily before laughing together, covering their bellies.

"Victor? You said Victor invited you? Are you kidding me? Victor is the supreme leader of the Joules Town government. How could a man of his stature invite a minor character like you to such a fancy party?"

“You didn’t even do your homework before bragging. How dare you use Mr. Barlowe’s name? Aren’t you afraid Mr. Barlowe will have you both arrested and throw you into Joules Town prison?”

“These two are so funny. Coming here tonight is worth it. It’s worth it. Hahaha...”

Caitlyn could not take it any longer when so many people were laughing at them.

She lowered her head, tugged at Sean’s sleeve, and said, “Brother Sean, let’s go. Let’s not attend this party...”

Caitlyn’s timidity irritated Sean.

Of course, his anger was not directed at Caitlyn but at the people before them.

Even describing these snobs as trash was a compliment!

“In that case, don’t blame me for being rude.”

Sean pulled out his phone and sent Victor a message.

In less than half a minute, a young woman in her twenties appeared at Myron Hotel’s entrance and ran quickly their way.

The woman was Rosie Barlowe, Victor’s daughter.

Her appearance immediately attracted everyone’s attention.

“It’s Rosie Barlowe, Victor’s daughter!”

“Ms. Rosie is here. We have a good show to watch. How dare these two jokers have the nerve to use Victor’s name. Let’s see what they’re going to do now that his daughter is here!”

“Rosie has an exceptionally hot temper. She’ll probably give these two fakers hell!”

The guests around said, all looking like they were enjoying the show.

The two security guards obsequiously went up and said to Rosie, who ran over sweating, “Ms. Barlowe, these guys lied to us, saying they’re your father’s guests. It’s a good thing we saw through them and stopped them.”

“Ms. Barlowe, what should we do with these two? Shall we kick them out?”

Rosie breathlessly wiped the sweat from her forehead before looking at Sean and Caitlyn.

Then she fumed. “Who told you to stop Mr. Lennon and Ms. Green? They’re my father’s guests!”

The place fell silent as soon as she spoke.
