

Guardians 670

Chapter 670

The office was silent.

The crowd who had been clamoring for an explanation fell silent.

“What do you think that’s supposed to mean?”

Sean sat in the swivel chair and looked at the young man calmly.

The young man blushed and could not help lowering his head.

“Do you have a problem with that?”

Sean unfolded his hands and placed them slowly on the desk.

Everyone looked down in unison again as soon as he said that.

They finally figured out what the female assistant’s previous sentence meant.

Character mattered.

Sean would not hire them, given the way they mocked him earlier!

The girl named Chloe followed over and saw Sean sitting behind his desk from behind the crowd.

She finally figured it out.

No wonder a rookie like her was chosen over a group of experienced professionals.

Sean set it all up.

“Thank you.”

Chloe watched Sean from the back of the crowd, thanking him silently.

“You can now leave if there’s no problem.”

Sean waved his hand and asked them to leave the room unceremoniously.

Although they were reluctant, they dared not behave too presumptuously in Reach For Will Group.

Although they were not some company owners, they were not afraid of Reach For Will Group picking on them.

However, they also knew that things would end miserably if they offended Reach For Will Group.

One word from Reach For Will Group, companies in River City would be afraid to hire them.

Therefore, everyone was silent for a few seconds before getting ready to turn away.

“Wait!”

However, Felix then got up with a sneer on his face.

He had just gotten off the phone and seemed confident.

His uncle had rushed back from outside after hearing what had happened.

He was ready to get justice for his nephew.

“What are you afraid of? Why can’t we have a problem?”

“Reach For Will Group was recruiting staff, but you just gave the position to a newbie without talking to anyone.

“We have reason to suspect that Reach For Will Group recruitment has been colluding!”

Felix sneered as if he had Sean by the balls.

“Yes! Colluding!”

“I suspect there’s something fishy too.”

When Felix took the lead, several others began to speak.

“There’s no doubt about it.”

Just when everyone thought Sean would make up some excuse, he shook his head and chuckled.

“Don’t doubt it. It’s true.

“So what if there’s some colluding?”

The smile on Sean’s lips was meaningful and sarcastic.

Explain?

He was not in the habit of doing that.

Not only in River City but the entire Dragon Kingdom.

Except for Willow, Sean did not bother to explain the rest.

The crowd was instantly stunned.

They had no idea Sean was so brazen.

He told them so what if there was some colluding?

He owned the company, so he could decide who to hire. After all, he was the boss!

Everyone blushed and said nothing.

“Sean, how dare you say that?”

“Do you think you own Reach For Will Group?”

“You’re just an interviewer. Aren’t you afraid of losing your job by saying things like that and embarrassing Reach For Will Group?”

Felix clenched his teeth and said to Sean with a cold snort.

“What does it have to do with you?”

“Listen here. Reach For Will Group belongs to me.

“This place, including where you are standing and where your car is parked, is mine.

“So I call the shots.”

Sean got up slowly, his voice forceful and overbearing.

The crowd was shocked by Sean’s arrogance.

“Ah–ha! What a joke!”

Just then, there was a sudden sneer from outside.

Then a middle-aged man in his 40s walked in with disdain.

He was in a suit and tie and was slightly overweight. A strong man in black followed him.

The man was Felix’s uncle, Chad Stetson.

“Mr. Stetson, you are often out on business, so there are some things you don’t know.

“You’d better stay out of this today.”

The female assistant stopped Chad at the door and warned him.

She was referring to Sean’s identity, of course.

However, Chad came to get justice for Felix.

How could the female assistant change his mind with a vague warning?

“Get off me!”

The strong man in black behind Chad frowned and pushed the female assistant’s arm away.

“Uncle, I’m here.”

Felix shouted before glancing at Sean with a sneer on his face.

Chad walked forward with his hands behind his back and a confident face.

They all looked with respect at the job title written on the nameplate on Chad’s chest.

“I heard someone say that he called the shots in Reach For Will Group.

“Did I hear you wrong, or did someone really say that?”

Chad asked hypocritically with his hands behind his back.
