

Guardians 671

Chapter 671

No one spoke.

Sean did not even look at Chad Stetson, while the female assistant gave Chad a pitying look.

Chad was going to be in trouble today.

However, the female assistant would not say much because she had warned him before but he did not listen.

“Miss, otherwise, just recruit them... Since I... don’t have any work experience anyway.”

This

girl was named Chloe Lathan. After hesitating for a few seconds, she walked over to the female assistant and whispered.

She also sensed that Chad’s status in Reach For Will Group was not low.

It was clear that he came here on purpose to seek justice for his nephew.

Chloe did not want to cause trouble for Sean.

“It’s okay, it has nothing to do with you.”

The female assistant smiled lightly, then reached out and patted Chloe’s shoulder.

“Uhm...”

Chloe was still a little hesitant.

However, seeing how calm Sean’s face was at this time, she could only remain silent for the time being.

“Just now, who said that he had the final say in Reach For Will Group?”

“Is it you?”

Chad placed his hands behind his back and looked at Sean knowingly.

“Who do you think you are? And you dare to question me?”

Sean finally raised his head and looked at Chad with a sneer.

“You!”

Chad never expected that Sean would dare to talk to him like that.

“You’re just a mere interviewer, do you really think you’re some kind of executive manager?”

“Even the head of the personnel department has to be polite to me, what are you?”

After Chad reacted, he frowned at Sean angrily.

“Believe me or not, a word from me can kick you out of here immediately!”

Chad got angrier and louder as he talked. By the end, he was already yelling at Sean.

“Then prove it.”

However, Sean replied with a mocking face without hesitation.

“Okay‘ Good‘

“I’ll show you today who has the final say in Reach For Will Group!”

Chad took out his mobile phone and was going to call the head of the personnel department.

“Anyway, it’s definitely not you who has the final say.”

At this moment, a sneer came from behind everyone.

Everyone followed the direction of the voice and turned to look subconsciously.

“Who the f*ck are you?”

Felix Xavian sneered even more as he turned his head and cursed directly.

Swoosh!

However, when Chad saw the person coming, he immediately pulled Felix aside and glared at him.

“Mr. Zachery, you... It’s just a small matter, why did this even reach you...”

After hearing the words from Chad, everyone in the office already understood that the person who came was the vice president of Reach For Will Group, Qamar Zachery!

It was said that Qamar was extremely capable and had a close relationship with Mr. Clarke of Reach For Will Group.

His status in Reach For Will Group was very high.

At least, in front of Qamar, Chad was a complete nobody.

“It’s so lively here, how could I not come to have a look?”

Qamar first looked at Sean but Sean, who was sitting on the chair, did not pay attention to him at all.

Seeing Sean’s expression, Qamar was immediately shocked.

It seemed that Sean was a little dissatisfied with him!

Could it be that Sean already knew that Felix was introduced by him?

Thinking of this, Qamar was certain that was the case.

If Sean was dissatisfied with how he handled this matter today, perhaps he would be punished as well.

“Mr. Zachery, you came just in time.

“This guy in charge of the interview created an inside story to discredit Reach For Will Group during the interview process.

“Also, he said boldly that he had the final say in Reach For Will Group.

“How do you think this should be resolved?”

Chad spoke very quickly. He immediately listed Sean’s crimes one by one.

Everyone in the office, except the female assistant, Chloe, and Qamar, all looked at Sean with mocking faces

‘Aren’t you, Sean, arrogant?’

‘Now I want to see if you still dare to be arrogant?’

‘Even if you dare to confront Chad, could it be that you still dare to confront Qamar Zachery, the vice president of this company?’”

Just based on Sean saying that he had the final say in Reach For Will Group, he was definitely going to be in big trouble today.

“Mr. Zachery, look, you’re already here and as an employee, he didn’t even bother to stand up to greet you.”

Chad pointed at Sean again and added another crime before him.

“Mr. Zachery, what do you think? How should we solve this problem today?”

Chad narrowed the distance with Qamar and asked flatteringly.

“Hmm... How should we solve this?”

Qamar touched his chin and then began to fold his cuff.

It looked like he wanted to hit someone on the spot.

When Felix and the others saw this, they immediately became excited.

Qamar was definitely going to hit Sean!

Sure enough, Qamar turned his head to look at Chad after folding his sleeves.

“Mr. Stetson, do you think it’s inappropriate for us, as senior executives of the company, to rough some one up?”

Qamar looked at Chad and asked very seriously.

“Oh, Mr. Zachery, what’s so inappropriate?”

“You’re the vice president and we’re all just the employees, the vice president educates the employees, isn’t that normal?”

“Besides, it’s definitely an honor to be educated by you!”

Chad was very happy and even kept flattering Qamar.

“It seems to make sense.

Qamar nodded thoughtfully, then slowly raised his palm.

“Then... Do you wanna try to be educated by me?”

When Qamar asked this, Chad was a little confused.

The next second, Qamar directly swung his arm into the air and then slapped Chad hard in his face.

Smack!

Before everyone could clearly see the movement of Qamar’s arm, they heard a crisp smack sound.

Thump thump thump!

Immediately afterward, everyone saw that Chad covered his face with one hand and kept stepping backward.

Did Qamar actually slap Chad hard in his face just now?

Chapter 672

Chad covered his face and stared at Qamar, stunned.

Felix and the others were also stunned.

“Look, that’s how amazing Mr. Lennon is.”

The female assistant smiled lightly said to Chloe while looking at Sean admiringly.

“This...”

Chloe was completely confused.

Since Qamar came over, Sean did not even say a word but just sat in his chair calmly.

Now, Qamar slapped Chad hard in his face without hesitation.

What was going in here?

Could it be that Sean’s identity was more than just an interviewer?

“Mr. Zachery, I... You... What does this mean?”

Chad covered his face with one hand and asked with gritted teeth.

“What does this mean?

“Didn’t you say it was an honor to be beaten by me?”

Qamar shook his head slightly, then suddenly stepped forward and gave Chad another backhanded slap.

Smack!

Soon, a red slap mark appeared on both sides of Chad's face.

Chad was stunned again and again. Felix was speechless with eyes widened on the spot.

At this moment, a very bad premonition surged in his heart.

Today, he might have really beaten in his own game.

Felix had not seen Sean for such a long time. What had happened to Sean between then and now?

"Mr. Zachery, I don't understand what you mean..."

"It's right to be educated by you, but I didn't make any mistakes."

Chad tried his best to suppress the grievance in his heart and asked respectfully.

"You didn't make any mistakes?

"Don't you know that Mr. Lennon is an honored guest of Reach For Will Group?"

"It's an honor for us that he personally came to help us with the interview."

Hearing this, Chad, Felix, and the others were all shocked.

"And you, Chad Stetson, are so disrespectful to our honored guest!"

"So, do you think I should teach you a lesson?"

Qamar spoke sternly again and Chad fell to the ground with a thud.

He was so angry and aggrieved until his face was like a palette of spattered colors.

Felix looked more like he had swallowed a fly, his face flushed, and remained silent

Those men and women who came to apply for the interview all kept their heads down and quietly took a few steps backward without saying a word.

At this time, they dared not utter a word and everyone wanted the opportunity to escape as soon as possible.

"Mr. Zachery, I didn't know, I really didn't know..."

Chad did his best to ignore the pain in his face and immediately explained.

"Mr. Zachery, I've already warned him just now."

The female assistant strolled forward and fanned the flames.

This time, Chad was completely dumbfounded and his heart was pounding.

"Now go to the finance department to settle your salary."

Qamar said as he waved his hands because he did not want to listen to Chad anymore.

“Yes!”

Chad gritted his teeth and then he could only keep his head low and left.

“You wait for me!”

Felix pointed at Sean and scolded him before leaving.

He planned to contact Quill Zimmer as soon as he could leave and then figure out a way to teach Sean a lesson.

“Why should I wait for you?”

“You, stay right there!”

Sean slowly got up with a sneer.

“You, what do you mean?”

Felix’s face sank abruptly and looked at Sean with a frown.

“Come, let me tell you what Mr. Lennon means.”

Zander Young, who rushed here after hearing the news, directly moved through the crowd and grabbed Felix’s collar.

Such minor characters did not deserve Sean’s personal time. He would take out the trash himself

“Mr. Lennon, my nephew was ignorant, spare him please, Mr. Lennon.

“He shouldn’t have offended you, please let him go.”

At this time, Chad no longer had the slightest hint of his former arrogance and kept begging Sean.

Sean did not say anything but just glanced at Zander.

Zander immediately understood what Sean meant. He stretched out another hand and grabbed Chad’s collar.

“You come along too.”

Zander, who was holding a person in each hand, looked unstoppable at this moment.

As brave warriors in the army, they were indeed impossible to fight.

That being said, that also meant they did not tolerate cowards and blind slights.

Chapter 673

In response to Felix’s provocation, Zander would definitely make him suffer

In Zander's hands, Chad and Felix struggled like two little chicks and could not do anything
Zander carried the two people out at the same time.

In the office, only Qamar, the female assistant, and the newly recruited employee, Chloe Lathan, were left.

"Mr. Lennon, Chad Stetson was invited to interview by me.

"I thought he was a native of River City and his connections were quite extensive, so.

Qamar explained to Sean with embarrassment.

"This is your company's business, why do you have to tell me?"

Sean glanced at Qamar and said lightly

"Uhm..."

Qamar was startled when he heard the words. Then, his face flushed a little.

It was because Sean's identity had always been a mystery to them.

He did not hold any positions in Reach For Will Group, but he was able to enter and leave the Reach For Will Group building at will.

Moreover, even the president, Harry Clarke, who held the highest position in Reach For Will Group, was polite to Sean.

So, Qamar sometimes even thought that Sean might be the big boss behind Reach For Will Group.

However, after thinking about Sean's age and how Sean was being treated in the Quinn family, it felt unrealistic.

Therefore, he was also very confused.

"Ahem, Mr. Lennon, in short, this matter is my fault, please put it behind us.

Qamar was silent for a few seconds and then apologized to Sean.

"Mm."

Sean nodded lightly. As for Qamar, he did not stay there any longer and quickly left.

"M-Mr. Lennon..."

Chloe hesitated for two seconds but still stepped forward slowly and nervously.

"Work hard. Someone will guide you."

After Sean finished speaking, he left.

Sean's attitude made Chloe immediately stunned.

She originally thought that Sean had a thing for her.

Now it seemed that Sean did not see her that way.

“Mr. Lennon, why do you want to help me?”

Chloe summoned up her courage and shouted again.

Sean slowed down his footsteps slightly but did not turn his head.

After saying this, Sean turned around and left.

Chloe watched Sean leave with complicated feelings.

Quinn Corporation’s branch office.

When Willow came back from Reach For Will Group, she immediately convened a meeting with all the staff.

Now that the crisis of the Quinn family had been resolved, she had to calm the anxious hearts of the staff.

At this time, many employees of the Quinn Corporation also knew that the crisis of the Quinn family was solved by Willow.

Therefore, these employees had great respect for Willow.

The meeting went smoothly.

“Phew!”

“Willow, the staff are all genuinely loyal to you now.

The female assistant sighed as she poured some warm water for Willow.

She still remembered how unpopular Willow had been in the company before.

With Simon and Faye playing a conspiracy behind her back, how could Willow not suffer?

Willow sat, took a sip of water from the glass, and let out a long sigh of relief.

However, Willow had really won over most of the employees of this branch office now.

When Willow was about to say something, the mobile phone next to her rang.

“Hey, Lexie.”

Willow smiled and answered the phone.

“Willow, do you remember the day we went to Soaring Wyvern Nightclub to sing?”

Lexie’s tone sounded a little out of place.

“Wh—what’s wrong?”

Willow certainly remembered.

“Then do you remember that day they said that there was a man named Sean, who was making trouble at Soaring Wyvern Nightclub?”

Lexie was silent for a couple of seconds before asking again.

“Yes, I remember.”

Willow nodded lightly.

At that time, she also thought that person was Sean.

However, Sean was physically disabled and had to be in a wheelchair all the time, so she thought that it was definitely not him.

“That person may be Sean Lennon.

“Your fiancé.”

Lexie’s tone sounded very serious.

Chapter 675

The female assistant was stunned when she heard the words, then immediately shook her head and replied, “Impossible, it’s definitely not him.

“Ms. Quinn, this is absolutely impossible.

“As I said, no one will keep a low profile that even if they’re ridiculed, no one would endure and continue to pretend to be a loser.”

The female assistant replied in an extremely certain tone.

“Okay, I’d like to take a break.”

Willow nodded slightly, then said as she waved her hand.

“Okay!”

The female assistant nodded and left the office immediately.

“Phew!”

Willow exhaled and reached out to massage her temples.

Mr. Lennon. Sean Lennon.

These two names kept flipping in Willow’s mind.

This man named Mr. Lennon was really too mysterious.

Not only could he make a scene at Soaring Wyvern Nightclub, but he could also leave unharmed.

Moreover, in the past two days, Flint Howard, the big boss of the underworld, had also been silent and did not take any revenge.

Also, the young man who drove a black Jeep Wrangler that Willow met at the entrance of the Reach For Will Group building,

It should be this Mr. Lennon

Although the appearance of this Mr. Lennon was somewhat similar to that of Sean's, it was really difficult for Willow to associate Sean with a big shot who had such a terrifying identity.

The onlooker saw most of the game. Willow's mind was now a mess.

"Am I chasing a dead end?"

"I always stubbornly thought that Sean had not recovered, so he couldn't be that Mr. Lennon.

"But what if Sean has recovered?"

Willow muttered to herself, sat alone for a while, but still found a phone number and dialed it.

The owner of this phone number was a doctor.

In the past two years, Willow took Sean to seek countless hospitals and countless so-called renowned doctors in order to heal his legs.

There was only one doctor who relieved Sean's symptoms

Although Sean's legs had not been cured, at least he was no longer mentally unstable or spouted nonsense after the treatment by this doctor.

Therefore, Willow still trusted this doctor more.

After the call was connected, Willow quickly told the doctor about her intentions.

Willow mainly wanted to ask the doctor if Sean had any chance of recovery.

"Ms. Quinn, this is impossible.

"Sean's illness is very complicated, especially the condition related to the legs as you mentioned, it's absolutely impossible to recover.

"Some people with disability on their legs have the chance to walk by themselves with crutches after rehabilitation.

"But for Sean, it's impossible for him to Stand up in this life."

The doctor, who was on the other end of the phone, said in a very affirmative tone.

"Why?"

Willow frowned when she heard the words.

LE

'Because the human nervous system had always been a huge problem for the whole world.

“Regardless of internal medicine or surgery, I believed you’ve heard of bone grafting or even suturing blood vessels, but have you heard of suturing human nerves?”

Hearing this, Willow shook her head slightly.

“So, nerve damage is really difficult to recover from.”

After the doctor finished speaking, Willow’s eyes suddenly lit up with hope again.

“Difficult to recover? It means that there is a chance to recover, right?”

Willow seized on the doctor’s words and asked urgently.

“No, a miracle may happen to someone else.

“But for Sean, this is absolutely impossible.

“I already told you that Sean’s leg nerves are neither damaged nor necrotic.

“Instead, it disappeared completely, as if the nerves were all extracted out from his legs. Do you understand what I mean?

“He no longer has the nervous system to control his legs to walk. So, how can he possibly recover?”

The doctor patiently explained to Willow.

“I got it, thank you, Dr. Zayn.”

Willow was a little helpless and unhappy but she politely thanked the doctor before hanging up the phone.

After putting down the phone, Willow was not too disappointed.

It was because, in the past two years, she had heard too many such words when she took Sean to seek treatment.

‘Sean could never recover in his life.’

Those words had long been deeply ingrained in her mind.

Therefore, when Sean told her that he would recover in the future, Willow did not believe him at all.

Now, Willow had received Dr. Zayne’s affirmative answer again, and hence, she had completely lost hope for this matter.

“Looks like I’m thinking too much.”

Willow shook her head, throwing those unrealistic thoughts out of her mind.

Now that she had finally taken control of the Quinn Corporation’s branch office, of course, she had to strike while the iron was hot in order to make some achievements.

Only in this way could she have more right to speak in the Quinn family.

Perhaps she could even control her own destiny.

Knock-knock!

Just as Willow turned on the computer, someone knocked on the office door.

“Ms. Quinn, Ms. Faye, and Mr. Simon are here.”

The female assistant’s voice sounded outside the door and before Willow could answer, the office door was pushed open.

Chapter 676

Faye Quinn and Simon Quinn walked in forcefully.

“Yo, Willow is really arrogant now huh? Your assistant still needs to report to you if we want to see you, hah!”

Faye folded her arms in front of her chest and said it with a sneer on her face.

“Please have a seat.”

When Willow saw the two of them, she did not even stand up but just sat there and replied.

She was indeed gentle and kind.

That being said, this did not mean that she was a fool.

Faye and Simon never treated her like family at all.

Willow was not stupid enough to show undue enthusiasm to people who always bullied her

Faye and Simon sat down unceremoniously. The female assistant poured a cup of tea for each of them.

“Get it over with, I still have lots of work to do.”

Willow looked at the computer screen and tapped the keyboard lightly with one hand.

This cold attitude was even more cause for offense in the eyes of Faye and Simon.

“Willow, stop pretending.

“Didn’t you just beg
Reach For Will Group to let go of the Quinn family? Stop pretending you did anything heroic!”

Faye snorted coldly. Her tone was full of disdain.

“If you think you can do it, you can go and try.”

Willow spoke indifferently while staring at the screen intently.

“Hah, I don’t have as many means as you.

“Mr. Clarke of Reach For Will Group is willing to let go of the Quinn family? I think you’ve let him feel you up isn’t it?”

Faye sneered as if she had seen through everything.

“What nonsense are you talking about?”

Hearing this, Willow turned her head and glanced at Faye coldly.

What Faye meant in her words was that Willow used her body to make a deal with Harry Clarke?

This was a big insult.

“Am I talking nonsense? I think you should know better than me?”

Faye still kept her sneer. She felt that she had guessed it right, so that was why Willow was furious.

It was because they had racked their brain trying to understand how Willow solved this matter.

They thought that whatever Willow could come up with would not convince Reach For Will Group.

The only thing she could use was her appearance and body, so Faye and the others guessed that Willow must have used her body to seduce Harry Clarke.

“Both of you may leave now, you are not welcome here.”

Willow suppressed the anger in her heart. She did not want to waste time on Faye.

“Hmph! Do you really consider yourself the head of the Quinn family?”

“This is the property of the Quinn family. We’re members of the Quinn family and this is the territory of the Quinn family.”

“You, Willow Quinn, what right do you have to drive us away?”

Simon patted the table, stood up, pointed at Willow, and shouted.

“Because I’m the general manager of this branch office here.”

Willow slowly stood up and looked at both of them with extremely cold eyes.

At this moment, Simon and Faye could not help being slightly stunned.

They found that Willow seemed a little different from before.

Although the former Willow could not be described as cowardly, she tolerated them all the time.

In the face of their mockery, she acted as if she had not heard anything at all.

However, Willow actually dared to resist now?

Moreover, this aura was not weak.

Where did she get the confidence from?

“Sure enough, you must have had Mr. Clarke of Reach For Will Group as your lover, so you dare to be so tough now, right?”

Faye was silent for a few seconds and said with a sneer again soon after.

“Get out now!”

Willow said with a very serious tone as she pointed at the office door.

For the past two years, she had tolerated the Quinn family in every possible way and swallowed all her grievances.

The reason was, of course, that she was afraid that once she had turned against the Quinn family, they would do everything possible to drive Sean away.

Therefore, Willow could only hold back all the humiliation and took Sean to live with her.

However, Sean was still kicked out at the end.

Hence, did Willow still need to endure them?

“You!

“Hmph! Don’t think of yourself as somebody.

“Young Master Zimmer liked you before because he wanted power for the Zimmer family.

“But now, there’s no possibility for anything between you and Young Master Zimmer, how dare you be arrogant here?”

Chapter 677

“Let me tell you the truth, you’re now totally useless to the Quinn family!

“So, the Quinn family can kick you away whenever they want to!”

Faye pointed at Willow’s nose and sneered with disdain.

At this time, a team of security had walked into Willow’s office and stood directly in front of Simon and Faye.

The security captain glanced at Simon, then lowered his head and spoke.

“Mr. Simon, please do not disturb the general manager.”

“Who the f*ck are you?”

Simon scolded angrily and almost wanted to hit the security captain.

“You can hit him.

“I’ll also tell grandma everything you did today.”

Willow narrowed her eyes slightly and namedropped Old Madam Quinn to scare him.

“Hmph!”

Simon hesitated for a couple of seconds and finally put his palm down.

If Simon bullied the employees just because he was a member of the Quinn family, and if this news was spread to Old Madam Quinn, he would definitely be punished.

"We came here today just to inform you.

"Grandma is looking for you, she asked you to come over after getting off from work."

After saying this, Simon and Faye glanced at Willow, turned, and left the office.

"Phew!"

The female assistant finally exhaled a long breath.

"Ms. Quinn, why are you being.... So bold today?"

The female assistant slowly stepped forward and asked in surprise.

She had also worked with Willow for a long time.

In the past, Simon and Faye deliberately humiliated Willow on the pretext of inspecting the work

At that time, Willow would meekly swallow all their criticisms.

Simon and Faye often yelled and bossed Willow around in front of all the employees of the company.

As for Willow, she did everything she could to tolerate them.

However, Willow's defiant attitude today really surprised the female assistant.

Hearing this, Willow slowly turned her head to look out the window.

"I just figured out a few things."

Willow muttered to herself. A bit of bitterness appeared on the corner of her mouth.

In the past, she always swallowed all her pride to curry favor with the Quinn family.

She did that just to please them and hope that they could accept Sean or at least not drive Sean out.

However, she had endured every possible slight, insult, and abuse, but in the end, nothing had changed.

She suddenly realized how ridiculous it was to pin her hopes on the people of the Quinn family.

"No matter how good your heart is, eventually you have to start treating people the way they treat you.

"They don't treat me like family.

"Why should I take them as my family?"

“I, Willow Quinn, am no fool.”

After Willow finished speaking, the female assistant was silent for a few seconds, then nodded lightly.

She found that Willow had really changed a lot since Sean was kicked out.

The other side.

Eclipse Golden Entertainment Club in River City.

Felix Xavian and Quill Zimmer were sitting in the private room talking.

“Didn’t you say you’re going to an interview at a big company?”

“And you said you’re going to surprise me, so what’s the result?”

Quill took a sip of the red wine and asked casually.

“Oh! Forget it!”

“Young Master Zimmer, tell me what happened to that cripple Sean.

Felix rubbed his face. He was taught a good lesson by Zander Young today.

If it was not for him begging for mercy honestly, he would be hurt even more.

“Sean? What else can he do? Didn’t he get kicked out of the Quinn family?”

“He used to be an ugly pet but now he has become a homeless dog, hah!”

Quill sneered. His tone was full of disdain.

“Then why does he work in Reach For Will Group?”

Felix was stunned when he heard the words and then asked inexplicably.

“What did you say?”

Hearing this, Quill could not help but widen his eyes.

Chapter 678

Quill felt that he must have heard wrong.

“I said, Sean actually works in Reach For Will Group.

“And he seems to be doing well. I could have succeeded in the interview today

“But I was rejected with just a single word from him. D*mn it!”

Felix shook his head slightly and repeated it again.

Clunk! Shatter!

The wine glass in Quill’s hand fell to the ground and shattered.

At this moment, Quill's head was buzzing.

Seeing Quill's reaction, Felix asked doubtfully.

"Young Master Zimmer, what's wrong with you?"

He had been away from River City for a long time, so he had no idea about what happened recently.

"No! Impossible!"

"How could he work in Reach For Will Group?"

"How could that loser have anything to do with Reach For Will Group?"

There was a buzzing sound in Quill's head. He found that things were gradually going out of their control in the past two days.

First, Willow negotiated with Reach For Will Group and successfully solved the crisis of the Quinn family.

Next, Sean also appeared in Reach For Will Group and he was working there.

It was okay if Sean worked there but he could reject Felix's job application in one word, it meant that his status in Reach For Will Group was definitely not low!

"Young Master Zimmer, I didn't lie to you.

"When I was interviewing, he rejected my job application as an interviewer.

"And..."

When Felix said this, he felt embarrassed for a while.

Originally, he wanted to rely on his uncle's connection to thrive in his career in Reach For Will Group.

As a result, not only did he fail to get a job, but he even caused his uncle to lose his job, and even the two of them were beaten up.

If this kind of news got out, people would definitely laugh their heads off.

"And what?"

Quill gritted his teeth slightly, suppressing his inner shock, and asked.

"And the senior executives of Reach For Will Group are also very polite to him.

"They said that Sean is an honored guest of Reach For Will Group."

Felix was silent for a few seconds before telling the truth.

"An honored guest of Reach For Will Group..."

Quill scratched his head in shock.

That cripple Sean, who was useless and had no identity or background, how could he be an honored guest of Reach For Will Group?

“No wonder he dared to come to the Zimmer Corporation with such confidence before.

“It turned out that he is backed by Reach For Will Group?

“But, it’s f*cking impossible!

“What is there in him that can be valued by Reach For Will Group?”

Quill was silent for a while, he racked his brains but still could not understand. This matter had turned his brain to mush.

Reach For Will Group, a dark horse in the business world of River City, had caused several storms brewing since its establishment.

They had taken over most of the businesses in River City. It was not an exaggeration to say that they were the tyrants in the business circle.

Moreover, Sean was also quite well-known in River City. In the high society, who did not know that the Quinn family had a vegetable prospective son-in-law in a wheelchair?

A vegetable cripple without any identity and background who was not even comparable to those inferior people at the bottom of society.

No one could understand how these two parties who were worlds apart from each other were related.

“Young Master Zimmer, what the h*ll is going on?

“Can you explain it to me?”

Felix glanced at Quill and asked curiously.

He really wanted to know what this loser Sean had gone through to achieve this achievement today.

Hearing this, Quill looked at Felix for a few seconds and slowly shook his head.

He was not in the mood or time to explain anything to Felix now.

He had to quickly tell his father about this and discuss countermeasures together.

“Don’t talk about this first.

“Especially the fact that Sean is no longer a cripple, keep this secret.”

Quill got up slowly and warned Felix.

“Why?”

Felix did not understand.

Quill waved his hand irritably, then turned and walked out of the room.

Why?

Of course, it was still for the Zimmer family's plan.

If Sean not only recovered from his physical disability but also had a very high status, perhaps Old Madam Quinn would change her mind.

At that time, if Old Madam Quinn made Willow and Sean get back together, what should they do?

Therefore, what Quill needed to do now was to keep these things under wraps.

Only in this way could the Quinn family know that only Quill and Willow were the best fit.

Felix was silent for a few seconds with a bewildered face while watching Quill leave, then he sat down alone and drank to drown his sorrows.

He thought he could be hired for the job of Reach For Will Group, so he had already resigned from his previous job.

Now, it turned out to be a dead-end, he was extremely aggrieved.

He originally thought to ask Quill what was going on with Sean.

If there was a chance, he would immediately try to take revenge on Sean.

However, Quill showed such a strange reaction after learning about this matter, which made him extremely puzzled.

Now, he could only temporarily hold back his anger towards Sean and see what Quill was going to do.

Zimmer Corporation. The chairman's office.

"What did you say?"

"It's impossible! Absolutely impossible!"

Jon Zimmer's first reaction when he heard Quill's report was disbelief.

Chapter 679

"Dad, Felix will definitely not dare to lie to me."

Quill shook his head helplessly. He did not want to believe this either.

However, Felix had no reason at all to deceive him with such a thing!

"I've sent someone to observe Reach For Will Group in secret.

"If they have a new executive appointment, I'll know that person's information as soon as possible."

Jon glanced at Quill and spoke slowly.

The two of them were indeed narrow-minded and extremely insidious.

However, this did not mean that Jon was brainless.

If he was not capable, he would not be able to develop the Zimmer family, which was originally a third-rate family, to their current state.

Therefore, as early as he found out that Reach For Will Group had signs of targeting the Zimmer family, he had already made various arrangements.

Observing the personnel and various appointments of Reach For Will Group was only one of the steps, and it was also an indispensable step.

It was because Reach For Will Group was a foreign enterprise. Although it had strong capital, it had no foundation here.

The only thing the Zimmer family could compete with Reach For Will Group was its background and foundation in this River City.

If Reach For Will Group wanted to develop further, they had to have great connections.

As for Jon, he could take advantage of being a local entrepreneur to quickly get information about those people.

In this way, Jon might also have the opportunity to bribe those people to help him steal various intelligence of Reach For Will Group.

In business warfare, this kind of thing happened frequently.

Over the years, Jon had also swallowed up many hostile companies by this means.

"I've all the appointment information of Reach For Will Group since its inception.

"But I've never heard of Sean's appointment.

"Why? Could it be that he is the boss of Reach For Will Group so he can take up the post at will without any appointment?"

Jon sneered. Compared with the news he heard, he believed more in what he had discovered.

Not to mention hearing the rumors from Quill's friend, even if he saw it with his own eyes, he would also not believe that Sean had the ability to work in Reach For Will Group.

"Then, could it be that Felix lied to me?"

Quill frowned slightly. A coldness flickered in his eyes.

"I don't know if he lied to you or not.

"But what I know is that it's absolutely impossible for Sean to have Reach For Will Group supporting him.

"Because there's nothing in him that's worthy of Reach For Will Group's attention."

Jon narrowed his eyes slightly as if he had seen through everything.

“That’s true.”

Quill also nodded.

On the way back, he was wondering if Felix was telling the truth.

Did that not mean Sean now had a close relationship with Reach For Will Group?

However, Quill had dismissed this thought quickly.

Sean had been in a catatonic state for two years and had been in a wheelchair without accomplishing anything.

As for money, he probably had a little bit of it.

As for background, he had nothing at all.

What was there for such a loser to be valued by Reach For Will Group?

Even if the Reach For

Will Group was short of people, they would definitely not recruit such a loser, right?

“Dad, I understand everything you said.

“But what if Felix is telling the truth that Sean really is working in Reach For Will Group now?”

“I think this matter needs to be investigated in depth.”

Quill was silent for a while before he made a suggestion.

“Hmph! I’m glad you’re willing to use your brain to think about these things.

“However, as for the investigation, I’ll arrange for someone to do it.

“All your focus now should be on the Quinn family.

“As long as we’ve taken over the Quinn family, the Zimmer family could instantly hold the strongest power and authority in River City.

“Even in the face of Reach For Will Group, we don’t have to be afraid.”

Jon’s tone sounded extremely confident.

“Dad, actually, I’ve always been a little confused.

“The Quinn family used to be very powerful, but now they’re not even comparable to the Zimmer family

“Perhaps, the annexation of the Quinn family may bring us some help, but is it as much as you said?”

Quill lit a cigarette and asked with a frown.

“Hah, you can’t just look at the surface.

“The Quinn family is in decline now, it’s only their own stupidity that is to blame.

“Levi Quinn was with great power and high status in the army back then.

“Although he has passed away, all of his comrades in arms back then had achieved meritorious deeds, and those who survived are in high positions.

“You’ve to know that such a big shot can change the situation of a city with just one word.”

Jon squinted slightly. His face exuded the shrewdness of an old fox.

“Then why didn’t the Quinn family go to these people?”

Quill understood what Jon meant and then asked another question.

“That’s why I said they are stupid!

“But it doesn’t matter, since they don’t know how to make good use of their connections, we will use it then.

“As long as our plan is successful, at that time, you’ll be able to connect with these big shots as the son-in-law of the Quinn family.

“At that time, let alone Reach For Will Group, even the top leader of the business circle of Souz River will have to bow down before the Zimmer family!

“The Zimmer family will have the chance to become the up-and-rising star amongst the business circle of Souz River.”

Jon’s eyes were filled with dazzling excitement.

He was looking forward to that day.

Chapter 680

“Dad, I got it!”

Quill nodded heavily He finally thoroughly understood fon’s plan

The Quinn family was just a stepping stone for them

If the Zimmer family wished to develop further, they must make good use of this stepping stone

Therefore, Quill had to try everything he could to get Willow

“You don’t have to do anything these two days, just follow my instructions

“Old Madam Quinn will cooperate with you. You just do as I say

Jon knocked on the table and said with a serious tone

Quill was stunned when he heard the words He did not understand what fon meant

“Hah, you’re still too young after all”

Jon picked up a cigar and looked at Quill meaningfully

Quill rolled his Adam's apple several times and scratched his head, still somewhat puzzled

After a few seconds, Quill slowly opened his mouth and asked tentatively

"What do you mean?"

"Didn't that old woman have an agreement with Willow that as long as Willow resolves the crisis of the Quinn family, she will no longer force Willow to be with me?"

"Hmph!"

Jon snorted, got up, and walked to the French windows to look at the bustling city of River City.

There was a meaningful expression on his face.

Was there a time he did not have confidence in what he handled himself?

Quill did not ask any more questions. He was full of confidence now

With Jon personally contacting Old Madam Quinn, there must be no problem with this matter

"Although this River City is small, it is complete in detail.

every

"Speaking of its geographic location, it is close to both Joules Town and Midwich, these top level prosperous and top-tier big cities.

"The current River City looks like it's still not fully developed yet.

"However, it won't be long before this place will become an extremely important economic stronghold, an important hub connecting everywhere."

Jon's eyes were sharp and extremely filled with greed.

If his eyes were not sharp enough, he would not have led the Zimmer family from a third rate family to their current level in River City.

"Although there are many people in the River City business circle with more financial resources than the Zimmer family, after all, they've not analyzed the situation outside River City, and they don't have someone with a background like Mr. Yeast supporting them.

"So, they're short-sighted and also ill-informed.

"No one except me knows how promising the future of this River City is.

"Winning River City is equivalent to winning half of the business circle of Dragon Kingdom, and all this will eventually belong to the Zimmer family!"

“At that time, the Zimmer family will be the biggest business family in both this River City and Souz River.

“We can be called the owners of the world!”

Jon stood in his office on the 16th floor of the Zimmer Corporation building, slowly spread his arms, and looked over most of River City.

Quill, who was behind Jon, was very excited when he heard it.

He finally understood how huge Jon’s ambitions were.

He also finally understood why Jon must let him win Willow.

“Dad! I finally understand now!

“I promise I’ll get this done!”

Quill responded and immediately turned and walked out of the office.

Next, he would follow Jon’s plan and execute it step by step.

In the office, Jon held a luxury cigar between his fingers and there was an intense desire in his eyes.

He had huge ambitions but lacked an opportunity.

The Quinn family was that opportunity.

“Sean? He’s just a mere shrimp.

“Reach For Will Group is at most a slightly bigger crab.

“Once the Zimmer family’s plan is accomplished, you’ll all be crawling and trembling under my feet!”

Jon laughed slightly, letting the sunlight hit on his face.

Standing at the height of this building taller than ten stories, it looked like the entire River City had been trampled under him.

Meanwhile.

Zander Young’s residence.

“You’ve been with me for so long, and you know me so well.

“Since I brought you back, it proves that you are not an outsider.”
