Chapter 101: Chapter 87: The First Performance of the Forbidden Spell

Although his Divine cultivation was higher than that of the Martial Arts, he had mastered too few secret skills, and to achieve the greatest power against the enemy with his Yin God, he had to leave his body vulnerable.

Facing a Heavenly Phenomenon powerhouse like Ma Tiande would not work.

A slight oversight could lead to his demise.

War it is then!

Sixth Sword, Silver River Falling from the Ninth Sky!

The sword light seemed to be a long stretch of Milky Way falling from the sky, with the faint sound of the mighty river roaring, it forcibly cut open Ma Tiandes wind domain.

Ding

The blades collided, sending out a series of sparks, followed by scattered blade light and Sword Qi, tearing the mountain apart and sending rocks tumbling down.

The strong breath spread all over, causing the powerful ones who were still in Mingyue City to sense it, not being able not to be shocked.

Blade Qi, sword light, shaking the heavens and earth, with the power of destruction.

Fourth Sword, the world trembles with one slash!

Third Sword, Nine Yang Burning Rivers and Seas!

Jiang Ming completely unleashed his strength, showing various sword styles of Ten Thousand Swords Return to One, as if his Qi was endless, forming an infinite amount of Sword Qi. Every time, it was a limit breakthrough.

The output of Qi reached the limit of what his meridians could bear.

With each slash, Ma Tiande was pushed back, but it was difficult to form an effective restraint.

ii

Ninth Sword, One Sword of Creation of the Light!

Tenth Sword, One Sword, World Darkens!

These two swords were completely at opposite extremes. Under the light, the terrified soul unknowingly found peace and even put down its murderous intent without fighting spirit.

The soul felt lazy.

But then, the sword light rose again, and the world darkened as if the sun and moon had vanished, plunging completely into darkness. The heart unconsciously rose in despair, as if it had reached the end of its life, unable to see the path ahead or any hope.

From light to darkness, this extreme illusion made Ma Tiande want to vomit blood.

At the same time, he was even more shocked by Jiang Mings horror.

How could he comprehend so many terrifying realms? Incomprehensible, indescribable, unimaginable!

Ma Tiande was truly shocked.

Light, darkness, Yin and Yang, water and fire, and so on, it completely exceeded his imagination.

He knew how difficult it was to understand the realms, as it baffled 99.99% of martial artists of the world.

What was even more horrifying was that the front martial artist could switch between realms so freely and naturally, like an antelope hanging horns, without a trace.

Moreover, each style of his sword was extraordinarily powerful, seemingly infinite in variation.

Is this a true genius? Ma Tiande felt a sense of decadence, and even involuntarily rose in envy and jealousy, his face slightly distorted, So what if hes a genius? His realm is too low, and a difference in realm is like the difference between heaven and earth.

Jiang Ming, you are destined to die today!

Ma Tiandes murderous intent grew stronger.

The Mighty Dragon-restraint Skill!

He merged his intention into the heaven and earth, controlling the power of wind. With the slash of his long blade, the domain power turned into two silk threads, and with the rotation of the blade light, they entangled Jiang Ming.

He can use the Heavenly Phenomenon Power like this? Jiang Mings eyes widened. He felt a huge crisis of life and death, his body immediately ejected a series of Qi turning it into Sword Qi to block but was easily crushed.

Gee!

The rotating blade light tore through the Gang Qi of protection, wrapped around his waist, and almost split him in two.

Jiang Ming pushed his space power to the extreme, twisted the space, and barely tore a hole to escape.

Falling into the distance, looking at the blood stain on his waist, his face was extremely ugly.

If it werent for the strong Gang Qi of protection,

If it werent for some achievements in Body Refinement,

If it werent for the desperate focus on driving Qi into his body to form a third layer of defense,

He would have been split in half.

1 underestimated the power of Heavenly Phenomenon! Jiang Ming was at an unprecedented level of solemnity.

He finally realized,

Although Ma Tiande was not as strong as the man in blue inside the Sky Tower, it was only the first level of the Sixth Layer.

All kinds of hidden secrets and skills, as well as the further use of Heavenly Phenomenon Power, etc., had not been deployed.

You are worthy of being an Outer Realm Demon, to have escaped! Ma Tiande took a deep breath, forming a whirlpool as he sucked everything in and spat out with a roar that shook the heavens and earth.

Roar!

Like a dragons chant, a tigers howl, it set off an endless torrent, destroying the woods and shattering the rocks ahead.

The sky was distorted.

This was a sound wave attack, Dragons Chant and Tigers Howl Shaking the Nine Heavens.

Die!

Ma Tiande attacked again.

Unknowingly, whether he activated a secret skill or not, his aura even increased further, and his power soared, making the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure even more terrifying.

The endless power of wind swept, keeping Jiang Ming in the middle, and the blade light constantly appeared.

The rotating, speedy figure and the constantly flashing blade light made Jiang Mings heart race.

I cant wait any longer, or I'll die!

This time, he truly felt the crisis.

Life and death crisis.

Slaying Immortal Sword One!

Slaughter Immortal Sword Two!

Three Swords of Slaying Immortal!

Three swords were launched simultaneously, causing space to explode and the earth to tremble. The sweeping gusts of wind scattered, and the attacking blade lights shattered.

Even the endless powers of the Heavenly Phenomenon were shattered.

Ma Tiande retreated madly, directly crossing the 100-meter cliff to another peak, looked down, and saw a long wound on his chest, blood flowing.

Cold sweat dripped from his forehead.

Nearly, nearly slashed.

Such a frightening sword technique!

The power of the soul, the power of blood, and the Sword Intention, unexpectedly fused together, releasing an explosive strike.

If not for my speed.

ii

If not for my constant activation of Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure.

If it weren't for my vast combat experience,

I would have been slain just now!

However, you Ma Tiande stared at Jiang Ming on the other side, his gaze deep like a starved wolf, carrying the glow of bloodlust, Jiang Ming, you are destined to die. You only had one shot, and now that I've seen it, it no longer poses a threat to me.

I'm faster than you.

I can even control the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure, you won't be able to escape.

Jiang Ming, you're doomed.

Because I've seen through everything!

Yin God Dharma Image? Unparalleled Blood Qi? Sword Intent Against the Heavens?

They're all useless!

Ma Tiande's desire to kill Jiang Ming was more intense than ever before.

Because of this battle, he knew too well how monstrous the opponent was. If he didn't kill him today, he would definitely be no match for him in the future.

For the dynasty, for the kingdom, for the people, and for himself.

Kill!

Ma Tiande rode the raging wind, carrying infinite power, and crossed the hundred-meter-long void again to attack Jiang Ming.

Blade swirling the wild wind, the night was bleak.

The endless blade light turned the sky upside down.

Around this mountain, dense blades Qi gathered, and as the storm swept through, the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure descended, all pouring down on Jiang Mings body.

If I didnt have a true Forbidden Law, how could I be here blocking the enemy! Jiang Ming looked at the other party, his eyes cold.

This battle was harder than when he was fighting against the human-shaped lightning in the Nine Yin and Nine Yang World.

It was even more terrifying than when he faced the man in blue on the Sixth Layer of the Sky Tower.

Because if he lost, he would really die.

Boom boom boom

At the next moment, there were continuous explosions on his body.

That was the sound of meridian nodes being destroyed. At this moment, they were being crushed by his Qi and the Power of Blood working together.

This was his Forbidden Law.

It was also the self-destructive Ultimate Technique that he had specifically comprehended when he was triggered in the Nine Yin and Nine Yang Secret World because once the meridians were destroyed, it would be almost impossible to recover.

But it also brought terrifying power.

Because when the meridians were destroyed, the limit of Qi output would also be removed. The larger the Dantian, the more Qi there was, and the more terrifying the enhancement would be.

This was his true trump card.

Apart from the side effects of the meridian damage, the violent Qi would either tear the muscles at its slightest or destroy the internal organs at its worst.

After the explosion, he might die on the spot.

Even though he had the ability to Reincarnate of Nirvana, even though he could protect his internal organs with the power of Soul and Telekinesis, Jiang Ming didn't want to use it unless it was a life-and-death crisis.

But now, he must use it.

Rumble

The terrifying torrent gushing out of his Dantian had no bondage whatsoever, and in an instant, it was like a volcanic eruption and also like a nuclear explosion, turning Jiang Ming's face red and causing blood to flow from the corners of his mouth.

His internal organs had been impacted.

However, the Qi that sprayed out of his body filled a ten-meter radius, completely forming a solid Qi wall.

The Wind Blade, Sword Qi, and Pressure were all blocked.

Spurt

Ma Tiandes long blade fell, easily cutting through the Solid Qi Wall, but the speed slowed down as it went further, and his eyes bulged out, revealing an unthinkable color.

Damn, how is your Qi still so terrifying?

They had been fighting for so long.

He had consumed more than half of his own Qi, but the opponent had not only not exhausted his power, but also released a Qi that was frightening even to him.

This was more than terrifying.

It was simply appalling.

Monster, demon, Great Demon

Ma Tiandes heart sank to the bottom.

Boom

At the next moment, the exploding Qi blew him away. The horrifying power shattered his clothes and tore apart his Gang Qi.

He was almost blown to death.

Too much of it isn't good; it's hard to control! Jiang Mings mouth spilled more blood, then shouted angrily, Yin and Yang Rotation, slay for me!

Hum

The rich Qi suddenly spread out, reaching three hundred meters away, but it was still terrifyingly thick. As it rotated, it transformed into countless Yin-Yang Sword Qi.

Within range, trees were instantly obliterated, and rocks shattered.

The mountain peak collapsed directly.

Ma Tiande was trapped inside, and his face turned pale.

This Yin-Yang Sword Qi was at least ten times more powerful than what he had faced earlier.

Blade Scattering Clouds and Storm Raging!

He roared, his ultimate move erupting, even pushing the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure to its limits, but it was useless, still unable to break through the bondage of the Yin-Yang Sword Qi.

Moreover, the rotation brought terrifying power.

Spurt-

The protective Gang Qi was torn apart, and in an instant, tens of thousands of tiny sword marks appeared on his body.

Even though your realm is high, and you can control part of the power of Heaven and Earth, so what? In the face of absolute power, you still have to kneel.

Blood continued to stream from the corners of Jiang Mings mouth.

Inside his body, meridians shattered, muscles tore, bones trembled, and organs were severely damaged. Fortunately, his vitality was astonishingly large, and coupled with the binding of Telekinesis and the powerful talent of Reincarnation of Nirvana, it played a role.

His body was constantly recovering amidst the destruction.

The destruction was fast, but the recovery was faster.

This is the One Power Breaking Ten Thousand Skills.

Ma Tiande, do you still want to kill me?

Go to hell!

Jiang Ming raised his hand and pointed, the speed of Yin-Yang Sword Qi rotation surged once more, directly tearing his opponent into pieces, turning him into a cloud of blood..

Chapter 102: Chapter 88: The Worlds Path Against the Heavens

Jiang Mings Dantian was vast, his Qi endless. Although he was still in the Fourth Realm of Martial Arts, his Qi was far more terrifying than those of the Fifth, Sixth, and even Seventh Layer powerful individuals.

It wouldnt be an exaggeration to say he was without a historical precedent.

However, no matter how much Qi he had, due to his meridian limits, the output was always within a certain range. This created the limitation on output. Fortunately, Jiang Mings meridian tenacity and width were far beyond ordinary people. Together with his comprehension of various Realm of comprehension of Cultivation Skills, he was able to fight beyond his level.

By now, having lifted some of the restrictions, the powerful output of Qi resulted in a terrifying effect that resembled a mountain-moving tsunami and had the power to destroy the ancient and decrepit.

Upon witnessing Ma Tiandes impending death, Jiang Ming once again spat out a mouthful of blood, quickly dispersing the external Qi and focusing it with his will, telekinesis, and soul power, forcibly returning the Qi inside his body to his Dantian.

A moment later, he exhaled a murky breath.

All Qi had been gathered. When looking inside his body, he saw thousands of gaping wounds, even though his flesh and blood were extremely powerful.

After all, his Qi was too terrifying.

No, its just that my body training is too poor, as its still within the same realm. Otherwise, if my physical body were also without precedent, even if the Dantian restriction were lifted, I wouldnt suffer internal injuries. From now on, I can use this secret skill as a benchmark to measure the training level of my physical body. This standard is quite good.

Jiang Ming couldnt help but laugh.

This time, he truly saw the deficiency of his flesh and blood.

At this moment, the taut muscles and cracked internal organs were healing at a rapid pace.

The Talent Reincarnation of Nirvana was unleashing its miraculous effects.

Bright moon shining, the dust scattered.

Several surrounding peaks had been destroyed. All trees within the range had vanished. This battle was nothing short of a catastrophe.

Some martial artists who rushed over from Mingyue City from afar saw this scene and were alarmed.

Could human power reach such a level?

Jiang Ming spat out another murky breath. The internal injuries had been mended, but he revealed a strange expression: After experiencing severe injury and healing, my body has actually become stronger.

Lifting his head, he saw that the moon was shining brightly.

After resting for a while, he checked the scene. Ma Tiande had left nothing behind but a long blade. There was nothing else left.

He also found the flying sword belonging to the Godly Dharma Phase cultivator who had attacked him. Only then did he return to the city.

After a while, people began to arrive and inspect the area.

Only then did they realize the extent of the destruction.

Who was he fighting against? It must have been a Heavenly Phenomenon Realm powerhouse. But in the end, he won; what happened to his opponent? Are their remains obliterated or did they escape?

This was the doubt plaguing everyone.

Inside the city.

You're back! Yun Shuang was the first to greet him, full of concern.

It's good you're back! Yan Hongyi sighed in relief, immediately preparing hot water. After a moment, she handed over a hot towel, The bathwater will be ready soon!

Jiang Ming nodded, then stuck the long blade into the ground: I've killed Ma Tiande from the Bureau of Demon Suppression. There's not even a bone left. This is his blade. Tomorrow, set it on the front door and spread the news of his death. Killing a Heavenly Phenomenon Realm warrior will ensure no one dares to disturb our peace easily.

Yan Hongyi and Yun Shuang were taken aback, their faces filled with astonishment.

Ma Tiande, a Heavenly Phenomenon Realm warrior, had been lulled?

This

Is he that awesome?

Light sparkled in Yun Shuang's eyes.

She also found out that this little master didn't mistreat people. As long as one didn't have any mischievous thoughts, he basically ignored them.

With such freedom and happiness compared with Taiyin Palace, she felt even more carefree.

Killing a Heavenly Phenomenon Realm warrior meant their young male master was a true martial arts genius in the human world. By tightly holding onto his coattails, she would quickly advance.

I must hold onto this thick thigh no matter what. Worse comes to worst, I'll just bring my lips a little closer.

Yun Shuang's thoughts were in full motion.

Yan Hongyi's heart was also surging: She could finally feel at ease.

With the death of the Palace Master, Deputy Palace Master's murderous intent, and the ruthlessness of their Great Master Uncle, Yan Hongyi had experienced disappointment and despair consecutively. Now she can finally let go of her worries.

Without absolute certainty of killing Jiang Ming, who would dare to make a move?

Is it worth risking an Outer Realm Demon's retaliation if they fail to kill him with one strike? The counter-attack would be tremendously horrifying.

Nobody was willing to take such a risk.

Considering the great battle a few days ago, only the Monster, Ghost, Demon, and people from Taiyin Palace had appeared, while the Chunyang Sect, for instance, had not shown up.

If only he werent from the Outer Realm, this girl could still Yan Hongyis face turned red.

Hongyi!

Brother Jiang, what are your orders?

Once weve stabilized the situation within the city, we can start purchasing large amounts of Blood Qi replenishing Spiritual Medicine. Taxes, city funds, and so on are all up to you to handle at your discretion. As for those who wish to join us, as long they are not bloodthirsty and cruel, you can arrange them as you see fit. If there are any with higher cultivation levels than yours, just report to me.

Understood!

The hot bath had been prepared, and the immersion in it felt incredibly comfortable.

He heard some movement and saw Yun Shuang walking over. She lowered her head, shyly saying, Let me massage your shoulders and scrub your back for you, master. Im good at it.

She removed her veil and came over with her head down.

Shameless!

Even Yan Hongyi, who was handling things outside, couldnt help but listen in, stamping her feet and pouting, then humming a few times. She covered her ears, her cheeks flushing, but her curiosity also caused her ears to tremble.

The next day, Jiang Ming came to the study, continuing to look through Shen Zuis collection of books. As a Great Master Uncle from Taiyin Palace and a peerless powerhouse at the peak of the Grandmaster realm who had stationed himself in Mingyue City for many years, it was natural that his collection of martial arts secrets was vast.

There was even the Taiyin Immortal Scripture.

In Yan Hongyis words, the Eldest Senior Brother wasnt qualified to cultivate it, and there was a ninety-percent chance that Deputy Palace Master Yun Lu secretly sent it to him to win his favor.

Jiang Ming didnt care much, allowing both her and Yun Shuang to study it directly. Visit novelbin\(.\).com for new updates

Yan Hongyi hesitated.

On the other hand, Yun Shuang was naturally excited. This was the reason she finally couldn't restrain herself and wanted to completely bind this young man, leading to an impulsive engagement battle last night..

Chapter 103: Chapter Eighty-Eight: The Way of the World

Against Heaven_2

Yet she has not woken up to this moment. In Jiang Mings words: The physique of divine cultivators is too weak.

Jiang Ming closed the book in his hand, randomly picked up another one, after glancing at it, he straightened his body involuntarily.

This is a body refining method, called the Ironing Skill.

The first stage refines the skin and flesh, the second stage forges the bones and muscles, and the third stage quenches the viscera and organs.

There are only these three stages of practice.

Its incomplete and very low-grade.

The key is in its classification.

The primary world trains as a whole, this method, however, proceeds from the outside to the inside, advancing step by step.

This gives him a sense of familiarity.

No, its too familiar.

He saw it quite often in fantasy literature in his previous life.

Will there be marrow washing and blood replacement in the latter stages?

Jiang Ming pondered and kept flipping through the book. The content wasn't exceptionally sophisticated but it was unique, especially the part about refining skin and flesh, which even required external force to strike all over the body, and the application of medicinal paste to make any progress.

Its only when forging bones and muscles does the practice become on the right track.

There were a few comments afterwards: Initially thinking that using the Ironing Skill to refine the physical body could break through easily, dammit, not only did 1 not break through, my bones even turned black. If it weren't for the surge in strength, I would have thought I was poisoned.

Bones can also be trained to be black?

Yes, the bones turned black. It's a sense that came in an instant, I thought it was an illusion, so 1 cut my arm and there were clearly black spots appearing on the bone.

My goodness, this is unbelievable.

Training bones to be black?

Jiang Ming frowned and pondered.

He was never short of wide-ranging thoughts, which be free as a bird.

Black bone, silver bone, gold bone?

Is it breaking the shackle?

Just like the ten-square-meter Dantian Qihai, which had already hit its limit, but suddenly leaped to the level of a hundred meters.

Not to mention hearing about it, even the ten-square-meter Dantian Qihai isn't recorded.

Hongyi!

Brother Jiang, what's the matter?

A moment later, Yan Hongyi entered the room.

She saw more than a dozen pieces of paper floating in the air, each one had a brush writing in mid-air. Although she already knew that Jiang Ming was also cultivating the divine path, she couldn't help but be shocked.

A moment later, the brush fell into the brush rack.

Then, a gentle wind blew across the room, drying the ink on the paper and sending the papers to Hongyi. Only then did Jiang Ming say, There are three heart methods within these papers that can reach the Master-level Realm; there's also a divine method which, while not as good as the Taiyin Tranquility Scripture, still possesses some merits to cultivate. The rest are all unique secrets. Once they are cultivated to great success, they can be used to fight beyond your ability, amongst them also includes a set of sword techniques. If you successfully cultivate all of them, there is a high probability to comprehend the Rain Intent.bender

Next, you help me gather body refining methods. If theres not enough money, you can trade with the secret skills. You can decide about this. The requirements for body refining methods dont have to be too high, but there need to be enough of them. If there are any solitary or incomplete sheets, those about the ancient body refining methods would be even better.

Miss Yan, Im troubling you.

Jiang Ming smiled.

Brother Jiang, are you intending to adopt the body refining path? Yan Hongyi was stunned.

Have you forgotten? In the broken temple, 1 almost shouted Yun Shuang to death. Jiang Ming said, At that time, 1 didnt even stimulate all my Blood Qi. Otherwise, Yun Shuang would have definitely died.

Yan Hongyi smirked.

Brother Jiang, you are continually challenging my cognition. Yan Hongyi smiled bitterly, but her eyes sparkled, Brother Jiang, may I cultivate this secret skill?

Yes! Jiang Ming nodded, In the future, if there are things you dont understand, feel free to come to me.

Thank you, Brother Jiang! Yan Hongyi was overjoyed.

This is a peak existence who can slash at the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm, being guided by him, she would certainly progress astoundingly.

The City Lord Mansion, was renamed by Yan Hongyi to the Jiang Mansion.

It was quiet inside the mansion.

And the city was also tidying up.

However, there was a great disturbance outside the city.

Ma Tiande, from the Bureau of Demon Suppression, died?

Nobody wanted to believe it.

But seeing the precious knife stuck in front of the gate of the Jiang Mansion, after someone identified it, it was indeed Ma Tiandes weapon.

Furthermore, a few days ago, news had spread from the Capital City that Ma Tiande had left, and he was still missing.

Plus, the traces left behind after the great war.

Taking all this into consideration, its not hard to deduce that Ma Tiande, the one in Heavenly Phenomenon Realm, was indeed dead.

Dead?

There werent many people who wanted to believe it, but they were forced to do so.

Although the world was in turmoil, nobody dared to lay a finger on Mingyue City any longer.

Even though they knew well that Jiang Ming was an Outer Realm Demon.

Even Taiyin Palace didnt dare to make a move, Ten Thousand Demon Mountain was silent, Ghost City was still.

But many people from the world of martial arts had come to Mingyue City, for instance, lone practitioners, the persecuted, the hunted, and some juniors from families, etc., all came here.

For a while, Mingyue City was getting more and more lively.

Especially after the Jiang Mansion unveiled secret arts, the Supreme Heart Skill, the Soul Refinement method, and so forth, even more people flocked to the mansion.

But Jiang Ming was uninterested in the external matters.

There were too many things he needed to cultivate.

In the East Courtyard was the martial arts training grounds, because it opens up to a lake on one side.

It was fairly large.

The entire lake can be said to have once been the training grounds of the City Lord Mansion, but now it belonged to Jiang Ming.

Boom

His punches shot out like dragons, burst into roars, it was possible to see that the air had been punched into a straight path, stretching across the lake, ripping a long ravine into the surface of the water.

Body Refinement Arts, where I am currently at the Fourth Transition, yet this single punch of mine could demolish a novice Fifth Level Great Grandmaster!

This was pure bodily power.

No exertion of the Inch Fists power stacking technique was used.

He was just that strong.

Inch Fist, Jiang Ming pondered, next, I will focus on improving my delivery of force and strive to deliver a 100-fold amplification via a single punch. Even if I were to face Ma Tiande again, I can kill him in one punch.

This should be the future path of this fist technique.

A technique of force exertion, power amplification.

But by his speculation, it should only be the power circulating incessantly within muscles and bones, even within cells, thereby creating a formidable amplification.

He encountered this technique inside Sky Tower.

Terrifyingly powerful.

But the difficulty of cultivation was likely beyond imagination.

Besides, understanding this world's Body Refinement Method could further perfect my Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill or instead even start all over again. Black Bone? Silver Bone? Gold Bone? I could try. What if it works!

Then there is the World Intent, this type of intent should be similar to the Way of the Domain, can't miss it.

Also the Immeasurable Intent. If I were able to comprehend this Dao Resonance power, it would be useful for future derivations in Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill or Longxiang Prisons Power

Jiang Ming didn't dare to think any further.

Crackle

On this day, the sky was gloomy, and thunder boomed.

Jiang Ming was jubilant, and quickly sat cross-legged on the balcony, looking up to watch the transverse airborne thunder serpent and electric dragons.

Thunder, the most rigid and supreme yang, yet it is filled with an infinite destructive breath

Within destruction, there should still be hidden vitality.

On the day of awakening insects, thunder erupts, and everything revives. It should be this intent.

Destruction conceals vitality.

He had not yet comprehended this intent.

But now looking up at the sky, seeing the thunder serpent suddenly appear, he made a breakthrough in a moment.

He raised a hand and pointed, piercing a small tree in the distance, which even showed burn marks.

Hes started.

This is too simple!

Jiang Ming revealed a smile.

He continued to immerse himself. Over the next few days, the heavy rain never stopped, and the thunder and lightning continued, allowing him to make swift progress in the Thunder Scenario.

Until the Thunder Scenario was perfected.

This day, around Jiang Ming, various intents were emanating: wood, fire, earth, gold, water, wind, thunder, seven Dao Resonance Strings.

He was trying to merge them.

Merging is the hardest, it requires weaving layer by layer.

Jiang Ming was extremely careful.

Because of his experience in merging, even though he was handy, he still had to keep trying.

For example, on this layer, the Woods True Intent needs a tenth of the power, Fire a tenth, Earth half a tenth, and so on. On the next layer, Woods True Intent might need three and a half-tenths, Fire's power only needs half a tenth, and so on.

Layer after layer after layer, not every layer will carry seven kinds of Intent forces.

Trying is not scary, what is scary is that there are too many combinations.

And it would trigger a backlash from the Dao Resonance, thereby triggering Qi's disorder, harming the spirit, this is the real difficulty of merging the intent.

Jiang Ming had the Reincarnation of Nirvana, and he also had the Talent of the Soul Dominator. His soul and spirit were strong, so he had nothing to fear. But what if it were someone else?

Besides, the extraordinary comprehension granted by strong comprehension brought unimaginable benefits.

Days and months passed, time flowed onward.

At dusk.

When Jiang Ming sat cross-legged, he was surrounded by a ripple. The air twisted, and even outsiders could see that a transparent light shield had enveloped him.

World Intent, accomplished!

Jiang Ming rejoiced. Especially feeling the special effectiveness contained in the World Intent, he was ecstatic.

As expected, each of the Ten Great Intentions holds a special ultimate power!

With the World Intent, even if I faced Ma Tiande again, even without the Forbidden Law, I am confident that I can kill him.

Truly kill him!

This was my immense confidence..

Chapter 104: Chapter Eighty-Nine: Three Years Later, Growth Against the Heavens

The World Concepts combined with Qi formed an ability comparable to the Heavenly Phenomena's Pressure or domain that could bind and suppress the opponent.

Even ones own Qi could change its nature.

There was a growing trend of becoming the king inside the world.

With this ability, even facing the powerful beings in the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm again, at least I could counteract part of their Heavenly Might suppression.

It was this aspect that made the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm so powerful.

Under the pressure, even the weaker-willed Great Grandmasters would hardly have the courage to fight back.

The Yin and Yang Realm forms an area of attack and defence, and if compressed into Yin and Yang swords, the attack power is off the charts.

I havent really understood the Light and Darkness Intent yet, so its applications are limited.

The same goes for the Life and Death Realm, which is still just a Minor Success.

The Way of the World has been initially understood, and its potential is infinite.

The progress of Space Power is acceptable, but its attack power is absolutely terrifying, arguably the best in all realms. Having the Spatial Dominance Talent, its not difficult for me to reach perfection.

Soul Realms? Have I really started on the Path of Souls now?

Jiang Ming couldnt help but ponder.

Even if it wasnt the Soul Realms, he had mastered five out of Ten Great Intentions.

Im defying the heavens!

His face then turned bitter.

Thinking that he would have to continue comprehending and deducing the corresponding secret skills in the future, he couldnt help but have a headache.bender

Body Refinement Path.

Path of Souls.

And what if I integrate the power of realms on the Divine Path?Visjt novelbin\(.\)comcom) for new updates

Jiang Mings face became even more bitter.

If it werent for the Hundredfold Comprehension, he wouldnt have chosen this many paths at the cost of his life, as it would only tire him out.

Time slowly flowed, never stopping for anyone.

Mingyue City became more and more prosperous.

Thanks to the presence of the powerful here, comparable to the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm, as long as people abided by the rules within the city, no harm would come to them.

Three years passed in a flash.

One day, Yan Hongyi led a middle-aged man to visit.

He was a middle-aged man with a long sword on his back, an extremely sharp aura, and an infinite killing Qi, but his expression was a bit depressed.

He had a full beard.

A horrifying scar crossed his face, making it extremely ugly.

City Lord, someone has come to visit. Jiang Yan Hongyi introduced the visitor after leading the man over and seeing Jiang Ming open his eyes. This is Annihilation, Brother Jie. He has been traveling alone, slaying demons and exorcising evil, wandering on the edge of life and death. He has killed Ghost Generals, slain Great Demons, and has been on the verge of death and resurrected multiple times. Countless people have been saved by him. In the martial world, Brother Jie was known as the conscience of the Human Clan, and it was he who endowed us with a glimmer of hope.

With admiration, she continued, Brother Jie came from the Southwest Frontier, where he joined the Lean on the Mountain Sect. Unfortunately, the sect was nearly wiped out by demons and monsters, and their homeland was destroyed. Brother Jie narrowly escaped, vowing in his lifetime to eliminate all demons and monsters.

Fellow Jiang! Annihilation saluted. In an instant, his aura became extremely fierce. You were known as the Outer Realm Great Demon. I hesitated for a long time before finally coming today because I realized something. The Great Yu Dynasty, which dominates the land and is worshipped by the people, should have been slaying monsters and exorcising demons to protect the people. However, todays rulers are corrupt, and the court is dark. When the Ghost King destroys the city and the Great Demon encircles it, they turn a blind eye, choosing instead to collect tribute from the people and refine immortality pills for longevity.

Emperor Yu is a sinner against all the people and the gravedigger of the Great Yu Dynasty.

Taiyin Palace has colluded with demons and monsters and has already joined the Demon Path.

The Xuanxin Zhengzong, Chunyang Palace, Vajra Temple, worshiped as the righteous path but do not act righteously, watching the demons and monsters rampage and not thinking of slaying them only to compete for their territory, its a disgrace to be considered the Righteous Path.

Seeing all these things, I only foresee a future where this great land is ravaged and trampled by ghosts and monsters. It feels like the time when my sect was destroyed, and my family was devoured. I cant help but be grief-stricken! Annihilations eyes turned red.

Suppressing his slightly agitated emotions, he continued, I didnt originally have the surname Jie, but I changed it to Annihilation because of my vow to annihilate all the demons and monsters.

Ive tried my best to cultivate, working hard to increase my strength. Now, having reached the Great Grandmaster Realm, I still feel powerless and confused when facing groups of demons and monsters. Even if there are like-minded people, I feel theres no way forward.

But then you appeared His eyes burst out with radiance.

First, you beheaded the Great Demon Tiger Dali and Demon King Luo Mo; then a Ghost General, a Great Demon, and a Demon Head.

Which sect in the world has such an impressive record?

Which forces have such courage?

At that time, I was tempted to come here and invite Fellow Jiang to join me in slaying demons and exorcising evil, but everyone claimed you were the Outer Realm Great Demon.

Its true that your actions make you an Outer Realm Great Demon.

I hesitated because I was afraid you were a real demon who would harm the world.

But after a long observation and investigation of your actions, I found that you only enjoy cultivating and dislike getting involved in trivial matters. You do everything methodically. Furthermore, looking into many records about Outer Realm Great Demons, most of them were only interested in cultivating, challenging the powerful, and fighting demons and monsters after arriving. The idea that they harm the world is purely nonsense and just an excuse.

Its a way to borrow the mouth of fate, slaying the Outer Realm Great Demons and winning the favor of Heaven.

If there really is divine intervention, why not strike down Emperor Yu with thunder and eliminate the demons and monsters!

Annihilations voice grew louder.

Then he looked at Jiang Ming, his gaze as sharp as ever.

Today, I came here to ask, will you continue to slay demons and exterminate ghosts?

He asked with anticipation.

At least, I will eradicate the Ghost City and pacify Ten Thousand Demon Mountain..
Jiang Ming laughed, Since I came here, I have to do something!

Chapter 105: Chapter Eighty-Nine: The Contrary Growth

Three Years Later 2

Based on their emotional changes, they vented.

This person truly hates demons and monsters.

Theyre throughly disappointed with the royal dynasty, especially the so-called righteous path.

It even led to despair.

Otherwise, they wouldnt have come here.

No matter what, they were under Heavens will, an outer realm demon.

Really?

Really!

Lord Jiang, before you destroy the Ghost City and the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, you can command me as you wish. Annihilation knelt down on one knee, his voice resounding, As soon as Ghost City and Ten Thousand Demon Mountain are destroyed, my life will be yours.

Within a year at most, I should be able to make the trip! Jiang Ming made a semi-promise, because this was his original plan.

Before the descent of Heavens will, he planned to deter again, to avoid disturbances in the final year and to obtain victory at the same time.

Also, as he stated, he came here, he had to do something within his abilities.

Please rise! Jiang Ming raised his hand to indicate. Could you bring out the method of opening the acupoints that you have pioneered?

Yes! Annihilation directly explained his cultivation method, especially his method of investigating and opening the twelve acupoints, without any concealment.

The technique of the twelve original stars is not bad, but it is too few! Jiang Ming said, raising his hand, an invisible force entered directly into the others forehead.

Annihilation didnt even move.

A moment later, he looked excited, looking at Jiang Ming, and the assurance this time was real.

Because the other party imparted him the method of opening sixty-four acupoints.

Sixty-four acupoints, he didnt even dare to think about it.

It would be considered a supreme skill in the Chunyang Palace.

From this point, one could see the boldness of Lord Jiang.

For now, listen to Hongyis arrangements and maintain the security of the city!

Yes!

Annihilation left.

Jiang Ming stood up, stretched lazily, moved his feet as if shrinking the ground into inches, and in the next moment he arrived by the lake, and sat down in the pavilion.

The lake water ripples slightly.

A good spring day.

Three years, time flies so fast.

We have been here for exactly three years since we descended.

Jiang Ming stayed here and almost never left.

His accomplishments in these three years were huge.

If Elder Tang, Elder Song and others knew about it, they would find it unbelievable.

His gaze condensed, and the system screen appeared in front of him.

Mission: Become the Federal Martial Arts Champion in the final stage of the Martial Exam

The information seems not to change much.

But the underlying situation has undergone radical changes.

Yin and Yang Intent, perfection.

Light and Darkness Intent, perfection.

Life and Death Intent, perfection.

Spatial Intent, perfection.

World Concepts, great success.

Immeasurable Intent, beginner.

Four of the ten great intentions have reached perfection.

The world concepts have achieved great success, and it is not far from perfection.

Immeasurable Intent has entered the door.

This is against the achievements of heaven.

What should be the most difficult to comprehend, the spatial intent, because of the master of space, did not take long to reach perfection directly, and even comprehend the corresponding footwork: heavenly footwork.

Stepping on the spatial veins, shrinking the ground into inches, the ends of the world in one step.

If he faces Ma Tiande again, his speed will definitely render the other person to dust, this is the horror of spatial intent.

Besides these, the various sword styles of Ten Thousand Swords Return to One have further improved, and a few more sword styles have evolved.

Each sword style is comparable to a Tao.

A Tao contains ten thousand laws, and this is the most terrifying part.

The divine cultivation of the fifth series has not changed much, because it has been comprehending the corresponding usage, such as the Yin and Yang prohibition skill.

When Dharma Phase Crescent Moon and Great Sun came out together, it could form a terrible imprisonment, even more terrifying than the domain formed by the world intention.

Among these things, the list goes on and on.

Body cultivation has not changed much.

As he combined the body refinement techniques of this world with his reformed Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill, he started his cultivation from scratch once again.

First transition, refining skin and flesh, was completed without difficulty. The second level, forging bones and muscles, he deduced the ultimate standard for regular bone and muscle forging. This limit, which is also the limit of ordinary people, was hard to break.

Without talent, one cant refine beyond this limit.

However, Jiang Ming broke through the limitations, causing his bones to shimmer with black light spots. In an instant, from within his muscles and bones, from within his bloodstream, from his soul, and from the depths of his life source, a torrent of creation surged forth, refining his physique, enhancing his physical strength once again, and making his bones even harder.

Even if not by much.

After all, he was starting over.

But still, a rise was a rise.

Continuing his cultivation, the black light spread to all his bones, turning them thoroughly into black bones. Then, breaking the limit once again, a faint green gloss emerged amidst the black.

This was Copper Bone!

With the bones strengthening once again, his strength also increased further.

Caught in pleasant surprise, Jiang Ming couldn't help but rejoice.

He took on the right path of body refinement.

Why doesn't the Main World have this?

Jiang Ming couldn't help but ponder.

His only answer was that the former body refinement method, starting from a holistic perspective, was much simpler in comparison.

However, when it comes to the body refinement of this world, the tempering of skin and flesh requires external forces such as beating and the assistance of medicinal paste, which is too difficult.

What's even more challenging is the practice from outside to inside, which brings unbearable burdens to other organs that have yet to be practiced.

For example, at the Iron Bone Stage.

Strength surges with the enhancement of bones and muscles, and a punch can create sound blasts. While muscles and bones can bear the recoil, what about the yet-to-be trained organs?

It could even turn them into pulp if serious enough.

For the majority, the most suitable technique is the best!

Jiang Ming comprehended this.

He wondered if his ability to consistently break through barriers stemmed from the overwhelming vitality bestowed by Reincarnation of Nirvana.

After Copper Bone came Silver Bone, and now he has further advanced into the realm of Gold Bone.

Gold specks shimmered on his bones.

This was just the initial stage. According to Jiang Mings conjecture, once the gold color covered all the bones, he would have achieved the perfection of the Gold Bone Stage.

Perhaps there are even higher levels.

But now, hes only reached this level. Its not that his cultivation is slow, but rather extremely fast, given that he needs to deduce corresponding cultivation methods, break through the barriers for promotions, and rely on the support of great elixir pills, etc.

For others, it would be extraordinary talent if they could reach the Copper Bone level within three years.

Aside from this, he also had to understand many spatial concepts, calculate secret techniques, etc.

According to the standards of this world, Jiang Mings progress in the path of body refinement has barely crossed two stages. But clearly, the system is calculating this based on his previous cultivation level.

In addition, in order to exert his physical strength, he further deduced the Inch Fist from scratch, directly reaching the ninth layer.

Each layer doubled his strength.

The ninth layer amplified his strength ninefold.

The Inch Fist had no variations, only an ultimate eruption, driving the characteristic of Breaking Ten Thousand Skills with Strength to the extreme, let alone the addition of the newly grasped Infinite Intent

On giving it a thought, Jiang Ming felt a chill down his spine.

If I were to face Ma Tiande now, I am confident that I could smash him to pieces, easily at that.

Compared to before, his combat power has increased many times.

He's become incredibly powerful.

Next step, continue to deduce the body refinement technique, strive to refine the muscles and bones to their extreme, step by step, to solidify the foundation.

The path of divine cultivation must not be neglected.

Both the spatial concepts and the Infinite Intent need to be understood.

Also, is it time to open the acupoint for martial arts cultivation?

Jiang Ming hesitated.

Elder Tang has stated that the Fourth Realm of Martial Arts is the best stage for comprehending spatial concepts. However, it is not a solution to always remain in this realm. After all, should he comprehend Cause and Effect, Time, Reincarnation, should he continue to linger in the Fourth Realm of Martial Arts?

In the Fifth Realm of Martial Arts, spatial concepts are not prohibited from comprehension.

Moreover, the path of acupoints is also a challenge!

Given Elder Tang's authority, he could only provide Jiang Ming with a Two Hundred Forty Acupoint Map, which is far from three hundred and sixty-five.

His target is to open all acupoints.

All, there is so little time! Jiang Ming sighed.

Why not take a rest then? Yun Shuang came over.

Of course, sure! Jiang Ming was delighted. He directly carried her in his arms, leapt up, and plunged into the water.

With the rotation of Yin and Yang, his Qi repelled the water, forming a sphere.

The two of them sank into the underwater grass.

The curious fish swam around, looking at the odd-shaped object that embraced the others.

At some point, Yan Hongyi appeared in the pavilion.

Watching the rippling lake, while the soft and gentle rustle reached her ears, her cheeks flushed.

This sound, she was no stranger to it, having heard it and seen it countless times.

However, at this moment, she saw a phantom hand reaching out from the void. Alarmed, Yan Hongyi was on alert, but then she relaxed, offering no resistance and let the hand pull her into the water.

Apprentice niece, you are actually trying to snatch my man!

Yun Shuang wasn't happy..

Chapter 106: Chapter 90: Breaking Through Cultivation,

Kingdom of Light

The greatest joy in the world is pleasure.

No, it should be said that the greatest joy in the world is sleeping together.

Endless stamina, seductive body, rocking, rocking, and rocking from night until morning.

Beautiful!

Jiang Ming stood by the lake, looking at the great sun in the east, his spirit refreshed.

"It's time for a breakthrough!"

"Opening the Acupoints, stepping into the Fifth Realm of Martial Arts!"

Jiang Ming finally made up his mind.

Even if the understanding of the way of realm would be hindered after the breakthrough, the impact on him would not be significant, after all, he had the Hundredfold Comprehension.

After adjusting his state, Jiang Ming came to the closed-door training room, sat cross-legged, and calmed his mind. At the same time, thoughts about opening the acupoints also flowed in his mind.

Acupoints are mysterious, the great secret of the human body, and cannot be measured or quantified by anything other than a perfect realm of comprehension.

At the time of achieving the perfect state of comprehension, with the location of the acupoints established, one can use the power of realm to lock and open the surrounding ten concealed meridians, then open the acupoint, turning it into a small Sea of Qi.

“At the beginning, both the hidden veins and the acupoints are invisible, cannot be checked, and are extremely fragile. After locating them, use the realm to control the true Qi, and carefully open them. Once the hidden veins are destroyed, the corresponding acupoints cannot be opened at the lightest, and the realm will stagnate at the heaviest.”

It was recorded in the book, and Elder Tang had also explained it.

Once the acupoints are successfully opened, the power of self-origin will be triggered for the baptism. The acupoint transformed into a small Sea of Qi will rapidly expand, and the concealed veins will be recast, no longer fragile, forming a node of the internal and external channels.

“Opening the acupoint with the power of the realm as the source, the stronger the realm, the larger the acupoint. The largest can reach one-tenth of the Dantian Sea of Qi, so it is not an exaggeration to call it a small Sea of Qi.”

“The first acupoint is especially crucial. How big it opens determines the size of the subsequent acupoints, and it will become permanently fixed. Perhaps, this is why Elder Tang had me stay in the fourth realm for a longer time. It is not just a sedimentation and accumulation, but also a soaring resource.”

“The mysteries of the human body are truly endless!”

The more one cultivates, the more one feels that the human body contains endless potential.

According to the Acupoint Map given by Elder Tang, Jiang Ming had already located one. True Qi was operating, using the realm as the root, the soul was controlling it, and he was extremely careful.

Under the reflection of the realm, eleven hidden veins, invisible to the naked eye, were easily spotted. Jiang Ming did not take action immediately but further calmed his mind and used his powerful Soul Power to control a trace of the True Intent that merged with the realm, slowly opening it.

Like walking on thin ice.

And being composed.

Also, needing to be done in one go.

With his powerful soul force, there was no accident. The first hidden vein was successfully opened, followed by the second and the third...

After all were opened, eleven strands of true Qi needed to be controlled to flow from each hidden vein, finally converging together to open the endpoint acupoint.

This was the real test for people.

Without the most delicate control of true Qi, without a powerful spiritual mind, and without the composure to see a mountain collapse before one's eyes without changing color, nine out of ten times, one would fail.

Boom...

Eleven strands of true Qi merged into a tiny point, and in the next moment, it was as if the Creation of Heaven and Earth, from nothing to something, the tiny point suddenly expanded and rapidly enlarged.

This was internal expansion.

At the same time, a torrent of origin power was fed back into the hidden veins, rapidly strengthening and opening them.

Jiang Ming was even more cautious, waiting for the acupoint to be successfully opened, and then the Yin-Yang Realm was transformed into Dao Resonance and merged into it.

The acupoint space expanded again, finally stopping when it had reached three zhang in diameter.

"Still too small, far from reaching one-tenth of the limit of the Dantian Space." "World Concepts!"

"Spatial Realm!"

"Life and Death Realm!"

"Light and Darkness Intent!"

"Boundless Intent!"

"Five Elements Realm!"

"Thunder Realm!"

"Heavenly Sword Realm!"

And so on...

Various realm resonances were fully integrated into it, and the acupoint space collided and expanded again, stopping at a size of ten zhang.

The ultimate point.

The true ultimate point!

Jiang Ming had some epiphanies.

“A ten-zhang acupoint!”

He couldn't help but grin.

Who would believe if he told others?

Even Elder Tang and Elder Song would not believe it, and would not believe it even if they were beaten to death.

They had never seen a Dantian with a diameter of ten zhang, let alone an acupoint?

Absolute nonsense!

“I'm going against the heavens!”

After the astonishment, there was ecstasy.

Wait until all 365 acupoints are opened, the inside and outside will be connected, and the limiter will be removed. With his immense true Qi, who could contend with him in the world?

Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure?

Shatter it with one slap.

Dharma Realm?

Blow it to death with one breath.

He carefully inspected it again, and even though he had only opened one acupoint, the quality of the true Qi had undergone a further transformation under the influence of an inexplicable force.

More pure and more potent.

And the acupoint can communicate with the outside world, and with the slight operation inside, it attracts the energy of Heaven and Earth to roll in.

“With the acupoint reflecting the outside and further integrating the realm with Heaven and Earth, it is stepping into the Sixth Layer of Martial Arts.”

Jiang Ming suddenly realized.

Without opening the acupoint, it was impossible to reach the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm.

Heavenly Phenomenon, with the inside as the base, reflecting Heavenly Will.

The acupoint was the key.

Stabilizing his mind, he calculated the time and found that he had spent more than half a day.

“So slow!”

Jiang Ming couldn't help but shake his head.

This was also inevitable, after all opening the acupoint must not be treated carelessly, and his true Qi was so vast that he had to be even more careful when controlling it.

He closed his eyes and immersed himself in cultivation once again.

He didn't forget to temper his body during his cultivation breaks and ponder the Inch Fist technique.

He filled every day's time with closed-door training, but when he was wrapped up, he would sleep together with Yun Shuang and Yan Hongyi, enjoying life..

Chapter 107: Chapter 90: Cultivation Breakthrough, Light Kingdom!

Once, he went on a sword control flight with the two girls, rising in mid-air, conjuring clouds as a bed and rolling in the sunlight. He was so excited he almost lost control and crashed down.

However, after a great war, Jiang Ming was half-dead.

Having gained experience in opening acupoints, the rest became gradually faster, but it was still a long-term project. After all, once the acupoints were opened, he needed to consolidate the boundless Qi to fill them up, which was a whole other challenge!

Days slowly passed.

That evening.

“Liuli, how’s your cultivation going?” Jiang Ming asked as he looked at the now much taller Liuli beside him.

“I have already condensed the Yin God.” Liuli shook her head and said, “Brother Jiang, I’m awesome, right?”

“Awesome, truly awesome!” Jiang Ming gave a thumbs up.

“Of course, don’t look down on us!” Liuli proudly picked a piece of fruit with a toothpick and handed it to Jiang Ming.

Jiang Ming took a bite, and then he saw Yan Hongyi walk over with a serious look: “Brother Jiang, something big has happened.”

“What’s the big deal?” Jiang Ming laughed, “Is Emperor Yu dead? Or is Mingyue City being attacked by various forces?”

Yan Hongyi rolled her eyes and sat down beside him.

She had also reached the Great Grandmaster Realm, being an Unrivaled in the World genius, combined with Jiang Ming’s selfless guidance, her progress was extremely fast.

“The Ghost Chaos has expanded.” Yan Hongyi said, “Another city has been occupied, and not a single person inside has escaped.”

“The invasion of the ghosts is expanding, and the Court does nothing?”

“No!”

“They can pretend not to see the sneak attacks, but now it’s a blatant invasion, and they just shrink their necks? Are they all just fucking trash?”

Jiang Ming couldn’t help but get angry.

“Emperor Yu, I’ll kill him sooner or later!”

He truly had murderous intent.

Although he was not a native of this world, and he didn’t consider himself a good person, the fact that cities were turned into Ghost Chaos and the people were suffering still made him uncomfortable.

After all, as a human being, he had a conscience.

“He deserves to die!” Even Yan Hongyi showed a look of hatred, then worriedly said, “After all, we are close to the Ghost Chaos, and I’m afraid they will come after us next. Just thinking of the ghosts surrounding the city makes me shudder. Brother Jiang, what should we do next? Prepare for war? Or...”

“I’ll go and have a look!” Jiang Ming stood up and looked towards the northwest, “I’ve been cultivating for more than three years, it’s time for some action.”

“Brother Jiang, that’s Ghost Chaos, where most of the ghost’s powers are concentrated, including Ghost Kings. If you get caught in there...” Yan Hongyi hurriedly said, “It’s really dangerous, otherwise, why wouldn’t the Court put an end to it?”

“No problem!” Jiang Ming looked up at the sky and strangely said, “If I were to destroy the Ghost Chaos, would ‘Heaven’ give me a reward? Would they still say I’m an Outer Realm Demon? Hongyi, after I leave, send people to clean up the battlefield immediately. I know you’ve been worried about buying great elixir pills for me, now is the perfect opportunity to gain some resources.”

Yan Hongyi’s mouth twitched.

As night falls, after dinner, Jiang Ming stepped on his sword and disappeared into the night sky.

“Sword control, flying!” Yan Hongyi was envious, “I’ve learned the sword control skill too, but I can never do it. It’s too difficult, and the consumption is too much.”

“Sister Hongyi, when my cultivation level is achieved, I will take you to follow Brother Jiang, and we will fly together!” Liuli asserted.

“What, you’re not bringing me along?” Yun Shuang asked with disappointment.

Humph...

Liuli wrinkled her nose.

“Uncle Master, you hold Mingyue City, and I’ll take people to clean up the battlefield. I hope it can truly be cleaned.”

Yan Hongyi whispered, and Yun Shuang remained silent.

The three of them looked at the night sky for a long time without moving.

In the vastness of the night sky, there was silver frost everywhere.

Traveling by sword control, leisurely across heaven and earth.

His slightly depressed mood from long-term cultivation suddenly opened up.

“A man should stand at the pinnacle of the world, overlooking the vast rivers and mountains!”

Standing on high, one can see far, and from that vantage point, it breeds a heroic spirit.

Soon, a large mass of darkness appeared in front of him.

Black fog rose and spread across the sky.

The ghostly aura was chilling, and the cold air was oppressive.

That was the first Ghost City. As Jiang Ming approached it, even with his cultivation level and Blood Qi, he felt a coldness. The ghostly fog was pervasive, and all sorts of strange sounds were heard incessantly.

A woman appeared in mid-air ahead, wearing a blood-red dress, captivatingly alluring. She floated towards Jiang Ming, her voice soft and tender like a cat's claws gently scratching his heart, “My lord, do you want pleasure? Do you want to ascend to immortality?”

With a turn of her body, she was flawless like jade, and she tried to snuggle up to him.

Jiang Ming felt a brightness in front of him and inadvertently leaked a bit of his aura. This caused the woman to stiffen, and then a ghostly fog emerged from her body, turning her into a hideous ghost form.

Her body was decaying, maggots writhing, half her face gone, and her eyeball dangling. She was as hideous and terrifying as can be.

Even with mental preparation, Jiang Ming was still startled.

This thing was truly terrifying.

Exhaling...

His breath packed with intense Yang energy, it effortlessly obliterated the creature before him.

“The Qi of Supreme Yang is the nemesis of these ghostly creatures!”

Jiang Ming's speed suddenly increased, and he directly arrived above the city. Several powerful auras also soared into the sky to lock on to him.

He was utterly unconcerned.

At this time, his aura was utterly open.

The thick Blood Qi formed into a beacon, rushing straight to the sky. He released his Qi, which blended into the realm of light, filling his Qi with the ultimate power of purification.

Countless ghosts below suddenly looked up and discovered a sun in the sky.

It was intensely blazing.

Some weaker ghosts were instantly vaporized.

As the purifying Qi radiated outwards, the ghosts within its range wailed in agony and vanished.

Jiang Ming slowly descended, and within a hundred meters of him, the area was cleared instantly.

Two hundred meters, three hundred meters.

Neither Yin Spirits nor Fierce Ghosts could escape.

Even the Ghost Generals who retreated a little later succumbed to the same fate.

No one could resist.

It was like an autumn breeze sweeping away fallen leaves.

“Human, seeking your doom!” A furious shout came from a distance, as a ghostly claw tore through the sky and attacked Jiang Ming.

Jiang Ming casually grabbed it, his Qi forming a sword, executing Ninth Sword’s One Sword of Creation of the Light which severed the ghostly claw directly.

“Damn it!” Came an angry voice filled with murderous intent, “How dare you intrude into my territory, die!”

Dark fog gathered, forming a terrifying ghost nearly thirty feet tall with long horns on its head. The chilling aura forced back Jiang Ming’s released Qi.

“Thousands of ghosts bow, the domain descends!”

The Ghost King roared, and in an instant, darkness covered the heavens, moonlight was obscured, and countless Yin Souls and Ghosts wandered around.

The bizarre pressure from the heavens and earth descended, turning this space into a Forbidden Area.

Originally, this was already the lair of Ghost Chaos. Now, with the power of a domain added, it was extraordinarily terrifying.

“This is the advantage of the terrain!” Jiang Ming’s eyes flashed, “If I were at the same strength level as when I faced Ma Tiande, I might indeed be in great danger today, but now...”

“World Realm, Domain of Light, appear!”

Jiang Ming also burst forth..

Chapter 108: Chapter 91: Pushing Across the World

World Concepts and Qi merged, forming a simple domain prototype, but even so, with his immense amount of Qi, he easily blocked the Ghost Kings domain pressure.

Qi bloomed into light.

This Qi had transformed into the attribute energy of light, forming a complete counterbalance.

Grand Array of Ten Thousand Ghosts, Wail of the Netherworld!

Ghost King urged the myriad Yin Spirits to let out a roar together, turning into a peerless spiritual soul attack, crippling Jiang Mings World Realm prototype.

One Sword of Creation of the Light!

Jiang Ming was not worried, as outside his body, thick Qi had already turned into armor, fusing with the Power of Blood to block the roaring soul from entering. He reached out, condensing Qi into a sword, and with a casual swipe, a white light cut through the ghost fog, allowing moonlight to fall.

Countless Yin Spirits were slain by the sword.

Even part of the Ghost Kings body was severed.

Damn power of light! Ghost King roared, opening his mouth wide, suddenly inhaling the thick ghost fog, swirling into his mouth, his breath violently rising in an instant.

Netherworld Kings Finger!

The pitch-black finger pointed at Jiang Ming.

As thick as a towering pillar, it contained the power of destruction, desolation, corrosion, soul, and annihilation. Various powers gathered together, making the power of this finger extremely terrifying.

The newly maintained World Realm prototype was penetrated instantly.

Jiang Ming had landed on the ground, gripping the long sword in his hand and stabbing forward.

The twelfth sword, One Point of Black Hole Breaks Ten Thousand Skills!

In front of the sword tip, space was directly torn apart, forming a tiny spatial black hole, containing the power to annihilate everything. It fell on the finger and directly collapsed into annihilation.

The terrifying power transmitted through, destroying half of the Ghost King's body and then shattering the ghost body.

This sword was derived from Jiang Ming's comprehension of the Space Art.

Attack power reached its apex.

Nothing can withstand it.

In the darkness in the distance, the Ghost King appeared again, but his breath was visibly weaker.

ii

It's really hard to kill!

Jiang Ming frowned.

He also sensed the unique environment here, filled with endless negative emotions such as darkness, decay, death, desolation, destruction, silence, and despair.

If an ordinary person entered here, their vitality would be destroyed in an instant.

Even if a martial artist entered, they might not be able to resist their will being annihilated for long, turning into a fool, and then having their body corroded, eventually becoming fodder here.

This place has become a paradise of death.

Human, who are you? the Ghost King roared, not knowing what divine power he had used, a dim light appeared behind him, and countless wailing Yin Spirits were drawn to him, and his body began to swell.

It reached a height of ten zhang.

Standing tall and upright, like an ancient giant.

The breath became more violent.

Netherworld Kings First Bow: Life and Death Void.

Netherworld Kings Second Bow: Cause and Effect Achieved.

Netherworld Kings Third Bow: Burying All Living Beings.

Ghost King clasped his hands together, bowing three times in a row towards Jiang Ming. In an instant, an indescribable aura suddenly descended, bizarre and unpredictable, directly blending into Jiang Mings body.

This is Jiang Mings heart chilled, feeling his life force rapidly fading, and his soul beginning to wither.

Yin-Yang Tai Chi Suppressing Heaven and Earth!

In his mind, the Yin God directly transformed into a Dharma Phase, with the crescent moon and the great sun rotating between them, forming a terrifying suppressing force, sealing the Sea of Consciousness, and grinding to destruction the mysterious power that had invaded.

Rumble

Jiang Ming once again urged the endless Power of Blood, surging like a torrent, but still couldnt stop the life force from flowing away.

With a flick of his thoughts, the Light and Darkness Intent suddenly emerged, one black and one white, intertwining with the Qi like Yin and Yang, yet completely different. Visit novelbin\(.\)comcom) for new updates

This was the power of light and darkness, combined together, forming a great barrier, fusing with the Power of Blood, and finally suppressing the draining life force.

Curse!

Jiang Mings eyebrows furrowed deeply.

He never expected to encounter such a bizarre force.

What kind of inheritance has the Ghost King obtained?

The Yin Souls in this one-party world seem to be born out of thin air, without the ten layers of hell or the legend of the underworld, and they can even exist during the day.

Too bizarre!

As Jiang Ming thought, he blasted a punch towards the Ghost King.

Inch Fist, Ninefold Mountain!

With all his surging blood and Qi, he infused this punch with the power of Ninefold Mountain, achieving an extreme increase in power, making this punches might reach an extreme among extremes.

In order to kill the Ghost King completely.

He also incorporated the Light Intent into this punch.

The raging physical blood Qi, the purifying power of light, combined with the terror of a ninefold enhancement, made Jiang Mings punch cause ripples in space.

A path through the void was blasted in front.

Ghost Kings pupils shrank, utterly shocked.

My Netherworld Kings Third Bow didnt kill him? Impossible, absolutely impossible!

In the past, he had killed a Heavenly Phenomenon Realm powerhouse with a hard bow, and because of that battle, he had truly led countless Yin Spirits to establish a foothold and even turned a city into Ghost Chaos.

Now, he not only failed to kill this one, but he wasnt even severely injured.

However, immediately after seeing the power of the opponents punch, he was horrified, wanting to escape, but it was already too late.

He was shattered on the spot by a punch, then annihilated.

Not a trace remained.

This time he truly died, Jiang Ming could sense it.

To deal with Yin Spirits, the most effective means are the supreme yang power of Blood Qi, the power of light, and the power of thunder!

Jiang Ming thought, suddenly soaring into the sky, punching another watcher hidden in the darkness.

Compared to the first one, this one was much weaker.

It was clearly a little brother-level existence.

Body Refinement, I'm still in the second stage, Gold Bone and above, the color faded, transforming into Jade Bone. Jade Bone, crystal clear, but only half completed.

Immortal Flesh Jade Bone!

Perhaps, Jade Bone is the true limit of bone forging!

Jiang Ming's qi once again burst out, reaching a distance of 300 meters, all transformed into the attribute of light.

He moved rapidly, purifying Yin Spirits.

They couldn't even escape if they wanted to, Jiang Ming was too fast, and at the same time, he was also contemplating his own situation.

Normally, there were limits from the Black Bone stage, Copper Bone stage, Silver Bone stage, Gold Bone stage, and now the Jade Bone stage, with each stage becoming more challenging and time-consuming towards the end.

And the consumption was huge.

The income from Mingyue City, along with the sales of various Cultivation Skills, was not enough for his personal use.

Relative to this, the Body Refinement path was the most difficult and slowest for him.

He needed to refine step by step, not taking shortcuts, but the power brought about was solid and real.

Even though it was a re-cultivation, his physical power increased by more than ten times.

What would happen after Quenching Viscera and Marrow Washing?

Jiang Ming dared not even imagine.

The dark fog vanished, and the Ghost Chaos was purified.

The submerged Ghost Chaos finally reappeared, but it was now riddled with holes, rotting bones everywhere, broken and ruined, with collapsed walls and broken tiles.

There was no trace of living beings.

Jiang Ming didn't linger, but instead leaped onto his sword and headed toward another newly captured Ghost City. Before long, it too was purified.

By now, the Ghost Chaos had been eradicated.

Although there were still many Yin Spirits in the world, they could hardly pose a threat.

Jiang Ming didn't return to Mingyue City but instead flew on his sword toward the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain ahead.

Tonight, he wanted to wage a battle to eliminate the demons and ghosts.

At the same time, he aimed to complete an achievement: Kill a Demon King and a Ghost King alone.

Once completed, he would be free to harvest the rewards and leave at any time.

For him, this was the top priority. Once completed, there would be no more worries, and he could focus on cultivation or wander around as he pleased.

At the same time, he aimed to create a time difference.

To prevent the news from reaching the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain and alerting them.

At midnight, Jiang Ming arrived.

Ten Thousand Demon Mountain was an incredibly massive peak, filled with a thick demonic aura and the heavy scent of blood. However, Jiang Ming looked towards another side where there was a valley inhabited by many people.

Their clothes were ragged, and their expressions numb.

Captive blood food!

Jiang Ming understood the situation immediately.

His killing intent grew stronger, but he didn't act recklessly.

Hovering mid-air, his aura converged with the light of the dust and moon, making him difficult to detect.

Upon careful sensing, he discovered that inside the palace on the mountain peak, there was an incredibly powerful aura the Demon King.

Only a Demon King could reach such a level of power.

Deep within the mountain range, there was another extremely obscure yet equally formidable aura.

Another Demon King?

Jiang Mings eyebrows furrowed.

Besides that, on the peaks in front of him, there were four powerful auras, inferior to the Demon Kings, which clearly belonged to Great Demons.

Looking across the mountains, moonlight condensed into lines all around, attracted by the demons.

The power of demons mostly belongs to Yin, with Taiyin being the main source of Supreme Yin power. As a result, the demon race often cultivates at night, swallowing and absorbing moonlight to enhance themselves.

Jiang Ming had already understood these situations clearly.

His gaze shifted, and the corners of his mouth twitched slightly. At the mid-mountain waist, there was a bonfire burning fiercely, with a person being roasted on it.

There were also steaming baskets nearby.

And there were numb-looking people cooking a large pot of food.

Emperor Yu deserves death!

Jiang Mings heart was filled with nameless anger.

Kill the Demon King first!

His killing intent was unprecedented, and as his determination strengthened, his long sword suddenly fell from his feet and landed in his hand. With one step, he used the Heavenly Footwork, and in a blink of an eye, he reached the palace on the top of the mountain.

The fifteenth sword, One Sword to Confine All Beings!

This technique evolved based on World Concepts, focusing on imprisonment, binding, constraint, and suppression.

As the sword light flickered, it seemed to evolve into a one-party-world filled with various forces forming a constraining and suppressing power.

In an instant, the palace shattered and collapsed, revealing the Demon King.

He was originally lying on a jade bed, with a sheep's head and human body, holding two little lambs in his arms. Sensing the terrible killing intent, his reaction was not slow.

His lamb companion exploded into a mist of blood as the Demon King barely stood up, only to suddenly feel a heavy pressure restricting his movements.

He was Yang Dali.

One of the Demon Kings of the demon race.

Annihilate Spiritual Soul, Extinguish Soul Stab!

The sixteenth sword, Lightning Strikes to Destroy Demons and Evil!

Jiang Ming had fully unleashed his power.

His forehead flashed with light, and an invisible arrow shot straight into Yang Dalis forehead, the Soul Extinguishing Stab. This was a derived secret skill for attacking the soul.

Simple, yet with its terrifying lethal power, it could directly annihilate the soul if not blocked.

Yang Dali let out a miserable scream as blood flowed from his seven orifices, his aura rapidly deteriorating.

It was at this time that, Jiang Mings long sword swirled, the sword intent suddenly changing, with lightning rippling along the blade.

Especially at the tip of the sword, there was a terrifying power capable of destroying vitality, directly piercing Yang Dalis forehead and exiting through the back of his head.

The lightning burst forth, shattering his skull into fragments.

His demonic aura was also annihilated in large amounts.

The Demon King, Yang Dali, was dead.

And the rest of you

Jiang Mings murderous intent materialized, but he didnt continue to attack. Instead, he controlled his long sword to soar into the sky, racing towards the other Demon King.

Kill the king first, then eliminate the rest without mercy not leaving a single one behind.

Simultaneously, a System Notification Sound rang in his mind.

His fifth talent had arrived..

Chapter 109: Chapter 92: The Fifth Talent Against Heaven

The world of secret realm is very special.

Even if you make continuous breakthroughs and attain a high level, if you dont accomplish the corresponding achievement, you cant take out anything.

This is a restriction.

Obviously to filter out the real seeds of genius.

After Jiang Ming arrived here, one of the achievements was to kill a Demon King and a Ghost King. Now it has been achieved.

That also means that he can leave at any time and take away all the gains.

Equivalent to completely solidifying his cultivation level.

Divine Cultivators: Fifth Tier, State of Dharma Aspect.

This has entered the Fifth Realm, and the corresponding talent has once again arrived.

Ding: Congratulations to the host for stepping into the realm of the Fifth Tier of Divine, temporary solidification of Fates Love talent.

Ding: Please open 365 acupoints from the fifth level cultivation in Martial Art, otherwise the talent of Fates Love will disappear.

The prompt sound disappeared, Jiang Ming seemed to feel an inexplicable breath merged into his body in a trance. There was no promotion of his cultivation, nor any change to his soul, nor any enhancement of his true Qi quality.

It seemed that nothing had changed.

However, after carefully feeling the talent of Fates Love, he couldnt help but gasp.

Then, he was wildly joyous.

[Fates Love]: An inconspicuous breath of supreme fate rules has merged into your body, from now on, you have gained the favor of fate. Turning bad luck into good, life from desperation, overturning fate, great luck, deep fortune, accompanied by miracles, etc. are all to describe one in ten thousand. Note: Its hard for you to die.

Theres no specific increase in strength or potential, but this conceptual thing is truly against the heavens!

Exhaling a mouthful of turbidity, he was refreshed at once.

Its hard to die in the future?

Is there a better talent than this?

No, absolutely not.

Turning bad luck into good, life from desperation, even overturning fate

Is it because Im not strong enough?!

Great luck, deep fortune, accompanied by miracles

Tsk tsk tsk!

Awesome!

Am I the son of the heavens themselves?

Jiang Ming looked up, lost in thought.

No!

The heavens arent that powerful.

It should be, that Im the son of the Great Dao.

His eyes condensed, locking onto another Demon King that had appeared on the top of the mountain in the distance, named Lu Dali, a Deer Demon who loved to eat human flesh.

Human, you actually killed Yang Dali, who are you? Lu Dali sensed that Yang Dalis breath was gone and was shocked.

After all, that was the main base of Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, there were many powerful demons, and the owner was killed right at his home.

So, how powerful was this human?

If he hadn't sensed that he was targeted, he definitely wouldn't have shown up.

Im here to eat venison! Jiang Ming showed a grim expression, without saying anything further, he directly killed him.

The Heavenly Footwork, instant end-of-the-world distance closed.

Third Sword, Nine Yang Burning Rivers and Seas!

With one sword, the void shook, influencing the mind, as if seeing the Nine Yang come out together, and fall together, burning heaven, boiling the sea, destroying everything, terribly fearsome.

Die! Lu Dali exploded with fury and also took action immediately.

A palm splits the heavens, cutting off the front, but it couldn't stop this attack at all.

Open!

He showed a solemn expression, stretched out his hand, a trident flew over, which was made of his own fallen antlers, then captured human craftsmen for three years to forge, comparable to a divine weapon.

With the trident in hand, barely blocked Jiang Mings attack.

Fourth Sword, One Sword Shakes the Mountains and Rivers!

Fifth Sword, Golden Light Cuts Through the Sky!

When Jiang Ming arrived up close, his long sword spun, the sword Qi rushed to the sky, falling down and killing everything.

The mountains were cut open.

The smaller demons nearby were also killed by the scattered Sword Qi.

This was his goal, while practicing his swordplay, he would also exterminate all the demons here. Anyway, this was not human territory, and Yang Dali was already killed, he could let go of all concerns and go all out.

With every sword strike, the sword qi spread out three hundred meters, condensed into a substance, terrifyingly powerful and making Lu Dali tremble with fear and astonishment.

Sixth Sword, Silver River Falling from the Ninth Sky.

Seventh Sword, Wind Sweeps Away Scattered Clouds.

Eighth Sword, Yin-Yang Rotation, no beginning or end!

Ninth Sword, One Sword of Creation of the Light.

Tenth Sword, One Sword, World Darkens.bender

One sword after another continued without end, even though Lu Dali exerted Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure, he could not stop it, he was forcefully suppressed.

All the pressures were torn apart by the sword light.

He wanted to run away but could not do it.

In a short while, several mountains nearby were cut open, and he also suffered extremely terrible wounds, blood flowing.

Sword Eleven, Light and Darkness Da Luo Realm, One Sword Destroys the Soul!

This is the combination of light and darkness, the sword rises and light and darkness merge, the sword falls and forms a realm, sealing everything, reaching the depth of the sea of heart, and affecting the soul.

Rise and fall of the sword, exterminate the soul.

This sword is the most terrifying because it can directly reach the spirit and will, and has an incredible power.

Lu Dali trembled, his eyes showed a confused color, then his face was full of fear.

Die now?

Thats too cheap!

Twelfth Sword, One Point of Black Hole Breaks Ten Thousand Skills!

This sword has a terrifyingly immense destructive power, it strikes directly at the lower three roots, and Lu Dali, who just regained consciousness, gave a mournful scream.

He looked down, his face turned pale, then he raged and went crazy.

Ill have you die, want you to die, want you to die!

Lu Dali returned to his true form, a plum blossom deer, he lowered his head and charged at Jiang Ming.

With this charge, it seemed as if space is collapsing.

Thirteenth Sword, Wheel of Life and Death, Unpredictable Fate.

The sword light fell, Lu Dali was bombed and flew away..

Chapter 110: Chapter 92: The Fifth Talent Against Heaven_2

The Fourteenth Sword: Five Elements Sword Formation Performing Ten Thousand Laws!

It really is the performance of ten thousand laws.

The sword light directly transformed into the Five Elements attributes, combined to form the power of seals, scattered and reorganized into a large formation, sweeping across the sky with an incomparably terrifying killing force.

Demonstrating endless changes.

Its overwhelmingly powerful.

It could even transform into the Five Elements defense sword light.

Truly extraordinary.

The Fifteenth Sword: One Sword Transforms the Realm, Trapping All Beings!

This sword technique evolved from World Concepts, focusing on trapping and suppressing.

The Sixteenth Sword: Lightning Strikes to Destroy Demons and Evil!

The Seventeenth Sword: Ten Thousand Swords Pay Homage to the Supreme!

Especially the last sword, comprehended from Heavenly Sword Intent, once unleashed, ten thousand swords would submit, possessing the ultimate attack power.

These are the various sword techniques he derived.

Every technique was a profoundly broad and deep sword art, each considered the pinnacle of its kind.

Puff

Desperate Lu Dali was split in half by a single sword.

Too weak!

Jiang Ming flicked his sword and sneered.

Turning around, he resumed his massacre.

The slaughter went on seven times in and out, leaving Ten Thousand Demon Mountain littered with corpses and its peaks soaked red in blood. The pervasive Sword Intention also shredded all the vegetation in the vicinity.

In the end, only some captive humans remained.

I am Jiang Ming, the Outer Realm Great Demon Jiang Ming. Today, I have slain all the demons of the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, not sparing a single one. You are all free now!

Looking at the miserable people in the valley, Jiang Ming stood on his long sword, carrying the crescent moon, his resounding voice echoed between the mountains.

More than these had been captive.

The dumbfounded people all knelt down.

They had already noticed the sword lights that soared into the sky, ripping the universe apart, flying back and forth in the sky, slaying one demon after another.

Even around them, there were many small demon corpses.

At this scene, they were not afraid but instead thought they were dreaming.

Rubbing their eyes, pinching their legs, and slapping their faces hard, blood flowed from the corners of their mouths as they still could not believe it.

Not until this moment, when they saw Jiang Ming coming to explain.

They couldn't help expressing their excitement and reverence, kneeling down and worshipping.

You, you, you are not an Outer Realm Great Demon, you are our savior, sob sob sob, we are finally saved, we are saved.

With that, they cried.

For a long time, they did not stand up.

After a while, someone raised their head and saw that Jiang Ming had already left, so they bowed again and looked at the small demon corpses they had killed.

His mouth stretched wide in a twisted expression that was neither crying nor laughing, extremely cruel, and then he threw himself onto the demon corpses, gnawing and swallowing like a wild beast, sobbing out loud, Xiao Yu, Xiao Hu, father is taking revenge for you, revenge for you

The flesh and blood flew as he ate them.

The other people also pounced on the surrounding corpses.

Jiang Ming, who was hiding, saw this and felt very uncomfortable.

Demons, whether big or small, should all be killed!

Ghosts, whether big or small, should all be slaughtered!

Jiang Ming exhaled a turbid breath, turned around and left, but stopped at the outermost mountain peak. In the blink of an eye, he carved a line of words: Jiang Ming, the Outer Realm Great Demon, destroyed ten thousand demons here!

Every character was branded with Slaughter Sword Intent.

At dawn, he returned to Mingyue City.

But his mood was still not good.

Brother Jiang! Seeing him return, Liuli was so excited that she didn't care about the blood on Jiang Ming's body and jumped into his arms.

It's good that you're back! Yun Shuang also let out a genuine sigh of relief and immediately ordered someone to prepare hot water.

What about Yan Hongyi?

She had already gone to clean up the battlefield at Ghost City.

As for Ten Thousand Demon Mountain?

It was too far away to reach.

Yun Shuang, pass the news on, say that in one night I controlled the sword for ten thousand miles, first exterminating Ghost Chaos and then flattening Ten Thousand Demon Mountain. The two Ghost Kings of Ghost Chaos, as well as Yang Dali and Lu Dali of Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, have all been killed by me. And it was a complete eradication, not a single one spared. With my identity, I declare to the world that I will slay demons and ghosts, and extinguish them all! Jiang Ming took the teacup and drank it all.

Did you really wipe them all out? Yun Shuang's heart trembled.

That was the Ghost Chaos that even the Court couldn't deal with.

And Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, which boldly kept humans captive.

All wiped out in one night?

Despite having great confidence in Jiang Ming, she still found it hard to believe.

Jiang Ming looked at her indifferently, and the unrestrained killing intent made her shudder.

The next day, the news spread.

But not many people believed it.

In the afternoon, the news came back that Ghost Chaos had disappeared, and the people of the City Lord Mansion were cleaning the battlefield. Many people still didn't believe it, and went to Ghost Chaos to investigate for themselves.

When they arrived, the black fog had disappeared, and the ground was littered with bones.

After believing it, they were shocked and even more resentful towards the Yin Spirits. Get the latest

Three days later, news came back that Ten Thousand Demon Mountain had been leveled.

No matter the size of the demons, from small to Demon King, all were killed.

After the ghosts were killed, there was almost nothing left, but there were corpses all over Ten Thousand Demon Mountain with peaks nearly all dyed red, foolproof.

The writing on the stone wall, the evidence from the captured humans, and the discovery of the two Demon King corpses all pointed to one thing: Jiang Ming, the Outer Realm Great Demon, wiped out Ten Thousand Demon Mountain overnight.

Was he really a Great Demon?

If he was a Great Demon?

Are there any good people left in this world?

While shocked by Jiang Mings strength, many people couldnt help shaking their heads.

The world was shaken, and all the people paid homage.

Many even built a living shrine for him.

Court officials, looking at the direction of Mingyue City, all had complex expressions. With a sigh, they began to discuss in secret: Mingyue City was becoming too big, and it couldnt be left alone! As for Jiang Ming? Must be killed.

On this point, everyone in the court agreed.

Because he was an Outer Realm Great Demon..

Heaven_3

And even more so because he had killed Ma Tiande.

Of course, the biggest reason was that he had already threatened the Court.

If you could do something that the Court couldnt, wouldnt that mean the Court was utterly incompetent? Was Emperor Yu a complete waste?

Then you can only go to die!

Another reason was that they no longer needed to guard against Ghost City and Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, and could free up a large number of manpower to specifically deal with Mingyue City.

Xuanxin Zhengzong, Chunyang Palace, and Vajra Temple had all fallen silent. bender

Taiyin Palace was trembling.

Demon King Sect disappeared without a trace.

Jiang Ming completely ignored the outside world. When Mingyue City became more and more bustling, and there were more and more martial artists, he directly made public a part of his cultivation skills, and declared that he would spread martial arts throughout the world, allowing these martial artists to spread the skills all over the world.

Moreover, he threatened that whoever stood in his way would die.

This was a universal mental technique he had specially deduced.

In a world filled with monsters and ghosts, only when every person cultivates can the situation of being enslaved and killed by monsters and evils be changed.

Otherwise, with the passage of time, monsters and ghosts would grow stronger again, and the past situation would reoccur. This is not a possibility, but a predetermined outcome.

Just like division and reunification in the world, it is a cycle.

The longer the Dao lasts, the weaker the demons become, and vice versa.

Jiang Ming barely paid any attention to the outside chaos. Besides quiet cultivation, he occasionally took Liuli or Yan Hongyi to walk on the streets, taste delicacies, and merge into the bustling crowd.

Time slowly passed.

Body refinement is too slow, fortunately, Jade Bone cultivation is completed, and the second layer of body refinement forging bones and muscles has reached its limit!

Next step, Quenching Viscera!

This is also a slow task, and it requires the assistance of great elixir pills to nourish Blood Qi.

Of the 240 acupoints, only a few have not been opened yet. The methods for opening acupoints that I collected from this world only added up to 22 more. As for the others? I have to rely on myself its such a headache!

Jiang Ming really had a headache.

Cultivation was getting slower and slower.

Whether it was body refinement or opening acupoints, neither could be completed in a short time, and both required long-term cultivation.

One day, Heavens Will Descends.

Yun Shuang and Yan Hongyi were also powerful people in this world, naturally sensing it and immediately found Jiang Ming.

Brother Jiang, Heavens Will has descended to slay Outer Realm Demons. Whoever receives Heavens Wills favor will have great fortune, breakthroughs in their cultivation, and break numerous shackles. Even if they dont take the lead, as long as they participate, they will receive the hidden benefits. Yan Hongyi was particularly nervous. Brother Jiang, are we going to face the siege of the powerful from the whole world next?

Then lets overturn the Heaven and Earth! Yun Shuang seemed to wish for the chaos in the world. What about the whole world? With Young Masters strength, what is there to fear, Hongyi? Dont forget about Ghost Chaos and Ten Thousand Demon Mountain!

She was very confident in Jiang Ming.

Relax! Jiang Ming laughed. Dont worry about whether they will besiege or not. If they come, just kill them. If they dont, it will save trouble. The most important thing for you two is to cultivate, work hard to cultivate, because in a year, I will leave.

Leave? Yan Hongyis heart tightened.

Young Master, you cant abandon me! Yun Shuang immediately snuggled close.

Brother Jiang, and me and me, when you leave, you must take me with you! Liuli quickly held onto his arm.

Thats why you have to cultivate diligently. Otherwise, you wont even be able to keep up with my pace! Jiang Ming said, Only by achieving Martial Arts Celestial Phenomena and entering the Domain of Divine can you have the chance to transcend this world. Otherwise, you can only be trapped here forever.

Jiang Ming completely told them about the concept of the outer world.

And Ascension.

This left the three of them extremely shocked.

Starting today, I wont do anything but cultivate, cultivate, and cultivate! Yun Shuang was greatly excited.

Ascension?

This was worth pursuing!

Yan Hongyi was also slightly excited.

As long as I can follow Brother Jiang, anything is fine! Liuli was the most innocent.

From this day on, Jiang Ming, however, regretted it.

Because the fastest cultivation progress happened when he was in bed with the women. So, the two women decided to take turns one today, the other tomorrow.

This left Jiang Ming somewhat exhausted.

The Vajra and Iron Bones couldnt withstand the tender embraces, truly causing a man to gasp for breath and a heros love to deepen.

In this case, his cultivation became even more intense, just for the sake of a mans windward urination.

Meanwhile, the slaughtering of monsters and ghosts was still going on everywhere with great intensity.

Apart from that, everything was very peaceful.

Even after Heavens Will descended, many powerful forces did not make any moves.

This kind of peace made Yan Hongyi feel very uneasy.

Brother Jiang! As night fell and the yard became dim, several people sat together for tea. She couldnt help but say, I sense that a crisis is approaching. They must have united, but within the sect and the courts army, there is no movement at all its very strange.

Ive already made it clear to the world that numbers dont matter to me. Jiang Ming laughed. No matter how many people there are, its useless. Since thats the case, naturally, there wont be any movements.

You mean? Yan Hongyi's eyebrows furrowed and jumped.

Jiang Ming nodded.

Hongyi, Yun Shuang, your cultivation levels are incomparably greater now. It is more than enough for you to defend Mingyue City, and you are sure to be safe. He stood up and looked towards the north, Everything that's supposed to come has come. In this battle, I'll take the opportunity to annihilate everyone in the world and kill everyone above Great Grandmaster!

The Dynasty!

Sects!

I'll let them wither for a hundred years!

Then take the opportunity to sweep through the monsters and demons once again!

To pave the way for your growth!

Jiang Ming spoke, reached out and beckoned. The Mingyue Sword flew into the air and hovered in front of him.

Brother Jiang, have they come? Yan Hongyi was touched, My master and I are both confident of resisting one Heavenly Phenomenon Realm expert. Let us join you!

Together! Yun Shuang was even more touched. She was truly moved.

From a slave to a close confidant.

And me! Liuli patted her chest, pledging, I'm very strong, too!

Haha, you are very strong! Jiang Ming laughed. He jumped down and landed on the long sword. Protect our home. As for them? They are just jumping clowns. Let me slaughter them all and leave none alive!

His voice was resolute, filled with a strong killing intent.

As he finished speaking, he soared into the sky.

Jiang Lang! Yan Hongyi whispered with a worried face.

If anything happens to him, I will become a big demon head! Yun Shuang's eyes showed a bright moon.

On the North Mountain.

Jiang Ming didnt hide it at all; his aura soared into the sky, and his Killing Qi reached the heavens. He looked around and said, To deal with me, you have all indeed made great efforts!

The Human Emperor Sword!

Spirit Calming Mirror!

Haha, you really think highly of me!

Jiang Ming stood with his hands behind his back, arrogant and domineering, looking down on the world..

Chapter 112: Chapter 93:1 am the peak of the martial arts

Jiang Mings voice fell, and eight figures appeared around him indeed, eight beings of the Sixth Realm.

Six of them were scattered around.

Two were hanging high in mid-air, clearly Yin Gods.

Youre worthy of our joint efforts! One white-haired elder spoke up.

He had an immortal appearance and exuded a sense of spring breeze, but now he looked solemn and alerted.

Chunyang Palace, Zhang Yangzi, greetings fellow Jiang! He bowed respectfully to Jiang Ming, I do this on behalf of all the people in the world.

On behalf of all the people? Jiang Ming showed a mocking look, Eight human powerhouses, yet you let vengeful ghosts attack cities and turn them into Ghost Chaos, and let the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain imprison humans. You have the nerve to say you are on behalf of all the people? If you can represent them, their curses can drag you down to hell.

Zhang Yangzis mouth twitched.

The powerful figures around did not change their expressions, obviously, matters of the common people meant little to them.

To them, the people were merely sheep to govern.

There are many powerful human beings, but most of them have small-minded thoughts, making it difficult to unite. Otherwise, how could we let the demons grow stronger? The elder carrying the Human Emperor Sword spoke with resentment, saluting Jiang Ming, Great Yu Royal Family, Yin Kaishan!

Heh Jiang Ming sneered, Imperial shepherds, receiving numerous worship, your duty is to guard the territory, protect the people, yet in the court, they watched with their own eyes as the Yin Spirits invaded the cities and turned them into Ghost Chaos, hearing the wails of the people but ignoring them; They watched the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain imprison and feed on the people but did nothing. You're telling me that nowadays, the powerful cannot unite? What a big joke, this is not your responsibility. I exterminated the Ghost Chaos and the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, and received the admiration of the world and the respect of the people, yet you're here to suppress me! Great Demon? Haha, you tell me, who is the real Great Demon?

And all of you!

Born noble?

Born powerful?

Didn't you all come from humble cultivation?

Looking back, weren't your ancestral generations have crawled and fought out of the muddy ground?

Now that you're on top, you look down on everything.

Ignoring the havoc of the fierce ghosts and the tyranny of the demon race.

You have betrayed your ancestors and the human race.

You all deserve to die!

With every sentence, Jiang Ming's killing intent escalated, and his blood qi grew more turbulent.

His desire to kill had never burned so intensely.

He had never wanted to kill like this before.

Amitabha Buddha, all beings are equal, and if they cause harm, they will inevitably have to face the consequences of cause and effect! An old monk put his palms together.

Screw equality!

This sentence drove Jiang Ming crazy.

Inch Fist, Ten Waves!

Infinite Power!

He wasted no time in making his move.

Clenching his fist, his power exploded, and in an instant, his heart thumped like a war drum, his hot blood rushed like a river, and the force from all the muscles and marrow surged together into this fist.

Boom

A loud explosion, shattering heaven and earth.

At the pinnacle of his corporeal power, the ten-fold amplification, coupled with the integration of the Infinite Realm, made the power of this punch strong enough to shatter the stars. The old monks face changed dramatically, his expression turning extremely ugly.

He could sense the terror of this punch.

Nothing human could have possibly counter it.

Yet he couldnt dodge it.

Amitabha Buddha, Vajra Immortal, the thirteen-layer Salvation Buddhas Light protects the body!

He clapped his hands together, and layers of golden light bloomed, rigidly protecting him within.

Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure also descended, condensed into a mass, and blended into his defense. The old monks defensive power, which he believed none could break in this world, was part of the Vajra Temples foundation.

From a distance, it really looked like a real Buddha had descended, but the layers of golden light were successively shattered by Jiang Mings punch.

The strongest defense was like paper, offering no resistance. The old monks eyes bulged, his mouth opening, but before he could utter a sound, his body burst and his flesh scattered.

Heavenly Phenomenon Realm.

Destroyed with a single punch.

This caused the remaining powerhouses to be stunned, looking horrified.

They knew how strong the old monk was but now he was killed so easily?

In their understanding and cognition, even if the old monk was defeated, his formidable body-protecting divine power should have been able to hold on for a while. But now they were all dumbfounded.

Outer Realm Demon, Jiang Ming, die! Yin Kaishan reached out and grabbed the hilt of the Human Emperor Sword, which he drew in an instant. A sharp aura tore the heaven and earth apart, making Jiang Mings hair stand on end.

There was a terrifying power hidden within this sword.

Die! Zhang Yangzi also took action.

The others began to make their moves too.

They had come to kill Jiang Ming today. Why did they ally themselves together? It was simple: they had no confidence that they could kill him alone.

Furthermore, if you didnt participate, you wouldnt get the benefits of slaying the Outer Realm Demon. Watching your fellow powerful advancing or breaking through while you stagnated would be the greatest sin for them.

What about all the people? What about the common people?

They didnt care.

They guarded their power and looked up to their strength.

In an instant, Jiang Ming was engulfed by sword light, blade light, and various spells.

However, Zhang Yangzi and the rest changed their expressions again.

Because they saw Jiang Ming suddenly disappear.

ii

Die!

ii

At some point, Jiang Ming had already appeared behind Yin Kaishan, the Bright Moon Sword in his hand falling towards the latter's neck. The sharp sword qi cut through the void, causing Yin Kaishan to be terrified. He raised the Human Emperor Sword in his hand, and it burst forth with dazzling golden sword qi, just in the nick of time to block Jiang Ming's attack.

His speed is unparalleled. He must have comprehended the art of space. Everyone, suppress him! Yin Kaishan discovered the truth and quickly warned.

Boom

The Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure was fully launched by the others as they united, causing the space to warp and form a terrible phenomenon.

Jiang Ming's figure faltered for a moment.

At the same time, a Yin God in the distant sky manipulated a mirror. The divine light emitted was projected towards Jiang Ming and fell upon his face.

Calming Spirit Realm!

Jiang Ming, who was about to struggle, seemed to be trapped and unable to move for a moment, and he also had some understanding.

In his mind, his Yin God was infiltrated by a strange power, making the Yin God stiff and almost difficult to move.

Obviously, this is a treasure specifically aimed at restraining the Yin God.

The main body of the god.

The Yin God cannot move, and even thinking seems to stop functioning, making it more difficult for him to move.

Many Heavenly Phenomenon Pressures outside descended, trapping him tightly.

However, Jiang Ming was unmoved because he had deduced this situation.

Yin and Yang Realm blend with Yin and Yang Method, Chaos Supreme, invulnerable to all Evils!

Blood Qi like a rainbow, shaking heaven and earth.

Transforming True Qi into a dragon, acupoints like stars, and infinite treasure body.

Integrate essence, Qi and spirit!

Five Elements, Yin and Yang, and the world, bless my body!

Boom

Many forces merge together, as if there is an erupting volcano inside Jiang Mings body, forming an endless torrent, first smashing the power of the Calming Spirit realm, difficult to enter the body.

The realm of Five Elements, Yin and Yang, and the world are combined and urged, the Five Elements are running, Yin and Yang are merging, the world is descending, forming a real domain.

Inside it seems to have evolved into chaos, supporting all the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure that was suppressed.

This is another achievement of his, taking all things in the world, turning chaos into the world, evolving infinite into Yin and Yang, Yin and Yang transforming the Five Elements, and the Five Elements performing all things.

Successive inheritance and evolution.

Jiang Ming only tried and didnt expect to succeed.

He resisted many attacks, although he was beaten to a bloody mess, but his body was unharmed. The strongest attack was the Human Emperor Sword, which directly cut three inches in front of his eyebrows, but he dodged it with the rotation of his body.

Three Swords of Slaying Immortals!

Essence, Qi, and spirit are integrated, and the three murderous, death, and destructive realms are integrated into the most brilliant sword in the world.

The moonlight is broken, heaven and earth are divided, the night is desolate, and the remnant souls are also broken.

With the improvement of strength, the power of this sword has become more terrifying.

Between the sweeping sword lights, two were killed in an instant, the sword Qi that burst their bodies turned into a bloody mist, and no bones remained.

Heavenly Footwork!

Jiang Ming stepped on the spatial veins, his figure suddenly disappeared, and then appeared next to the Yin God of an Elder from Xuanxin Zhengzong.

This Elder was holding the Calming Spirit realm.

What a terrifying Great Demon! The Elder exclaimed, his Yin God was about to retreat as soon as he moved, but Jiang Mings eyes shot out two rays of light, one Yin and one Yang, forming a Tai Chi rotation, trapping Yin and Yang, making the Elders figure stagnate. Although he broke free in an instant, it was already too late.

The sixteenth sword, Lightning Strikes to Destroy Demons and Evil!

Thunder is the purest nemesis of the Yin God.

With a sword falling, the Yin God was cut in half, and then bombarded by the thunder, his soul was completely destroyed, leaving no trace.

Eight powerful men were killed in just a short time, leaving the remaining four with a dramatic change in complexion, looking as if they had eaten shit.

Heavenly Footwork!

Jiang Ming stepped on the spatial veins and first attacked another Yin God, but this one was too clever and suddenly retreated.

As the Yin God retreated, his speed was unmatched.

The twelfth sword, Chilling and Fast!

This derives from one point of black hole breaking, taking the speed of space attack, and the sword light reaching one point. The space fluctuation condenses and flashes tens of thousands of miles away in an instant.

Although it is not as terrifying as the attack of One Point of Black Hole Break, it is fast enough and far enough. The Yin God that was fleeing was directly penetrated at one point and remained motionless in mid-air.

With a sword, he killed him.

ii

Its your turn!

Turning around, Jiang Ming looked at the three Heavenly Phenomenon experts of Yin Kaishan.

The three were already together, looking at Jiang Ming as if they had seen a ghost. If there was any regret medicine, they would desperately swallow it.

Fellow Jiang, slow down, slow down! Yin Kaishans voice was extremely fast, and dozens of words were spoken in an instant. How about stopping here today? From now on, you will be the offering of the Great Yu Dynasty. The court is willing to do everything to support your cultivation, and the entire treasury is open to you. The army can be mobilized at will, and you can dispose of hundreds of officials at will. Among the people three thousand, no, thirty thousand beauties will be selected from the people to fill your harem. If you are willing, the throne of the Great Yu Dynasty can be given to you, and you can rule the world with a word. With unparalleled strength; superior rights; enjoyment, food, and beauty, as long as you want, the whole world can prepare it for you. Fellow Jiang, I just ask for today's forgiveness and spare our three lives.

Spare? Jiang Ming sneered coldly.

Although they didn't introduce each other, he could guess almost right.

Yin Kaishan represented the court, and there was another one with an unstable breath, obviously after a recent breakthrough, which should also be from the court.

One from Chunyang Palace, one from Vajra Temple, two from Xuanxin Zhengzong, one from Demon King Sect, and one wild Heavenly Phenomenon Realm expert.

Eight top-notch people, gathering the power of the world's pinnacle, just to kill him completely.

Want to let it go when things are impossible? Get the latest

Wishful thinking!

If I want to, killing you all will still be mine! Jiang Ming said, and then made another move.

Under the Heavenly Footwork, he was invisible and traceless, as if he was teleporting, appearing at will, making it difficult to defend.

No one could block his powerful sword technique.

Even if Yin Kaishan held the Human Emperor Sword, he eventually ended up in failure.

All eight powerful men were buried in the night without leaving any.

Jiang Ming stood on the top of the mountain, smelling the bloody smell, and his face was still extremely cold.

If you want to kill, kill enough, and sweep the world!

Hongyi, Yun Shuang, come here!

His voice entered the mansion.bender

A moment later, Yan Hongyi and Yun Shuang arrived, feeling the residual horror of Dao Resonance in the void, and they were all shocked.

Fortunately, Jiang Ming was fine.

Young Master, have you killed them all? After Yun Shuang was shocked, her eyes flashed with love, You are too powerful, who can rival you in the world? You are at the pinnacle of martial arts, unparalleled; rights, nobody above you; enjoyment, food, beauty, as long as you want, the whole world can prepare it for you. Jiang Lang, only ask for todays matters to be revealed, and spare our three lives.

Jiang Lang, do you want to, do you want to leave a testimony of love here?

Yun Shuang walked gently.

White sand is translucent, and the moonlight is shy..

Chapter 113: Chapter 94: Battle with the Human-like

Lightning Again

The Chunyang Palace was divided by a single sword, causing countless deaths and injuries.

Jin Gang Temple was bombarded into an abyss, with an unknown number of survivors.

Xuanxin Zhengzong, Jiang Mings murderous intent grew stronger. As the leader of the Righteous Path, they should have exterminated monsters and demons but were nearly wiped out by him instead.

The Demon King Sect was swept away, leaving nothing behind. The Taiyin Palace was destroyed!

Within the Imperial City.

Executing Emperor Yu and slaying traitorous ministers.

Most of the powerful within the Imperial Palace were massacred, only leaving behind a well-regarded prince; the ministers? After a brief investigation, a bloodbath ensued in the Imperial City.

It wasnt until the next afternoon that Jiang Ming returned to Mingyue City.

Inside the mansion.

Hongyi! I have already killed countless powerful people and the Old Emperor has also been killed by me. Would you like to become a Female Emperor?

I dont want to! I just want to cultivate, so that one day I can break the void with my fist and follow in your footsteps. If I become the Female Emperor, I'll be responsible for the world and wont have time for cultivation.

Yun Shuang, what about you?

I also dont want to, no interest!

Alright! Jiang Ming reluctantly said, To prevent chaos in the world, I will first release the powerful within the city to sit in various directions and spread martial arts to ordinary people. I truly hope that everyone can become like dragons and suppress the monsters and demons forever.

Everyone becomes a dragon! Yan Hongyi was stunned, revealing a look of longing. She hesitated and asked, Brother Jiang, is it really possible for everyone to become like dragons?

Of course!

How do we do it?

Create a perfect system, establish an avenue for the common people to rise, establish academies to enlighten the masses, spread martial arts to the world, and improve the economy and peoples livelihood. Jiang Ming rambled on, and eventually pointed at Yan Hongyis forehead, causing her to be stunned for a long time.

After more than half an hour, she finally regained her senses, and her gaze towards Jiang Ming changed, her eyes bursting with infinite brilliance: Brother Jiang, following the methods you taught me, it really seems possible for everyone to become like dragons. It may take some time, but there is hope! Also, once the dynasty operates smoothly and adopts a cabinet system, the Emperor can be liberated.

She hesitated, uncertain, and somewhat eager to try.

Are you tempted?

Yes! I came from a humble background and understand the suffering of the common people. Although I was later taken to Taiyin Palace, I always wanted to do something for the world. Just that, Brother Jiang, I am afraid I wont be able to do it well.

You'll only know if you try. If you don't try, it will never be good. According to the method I taught you, even if it turns bad, how bad can it be? Moreover, I have already reorganized the powerful in the world. In three months, I will do it again. By then, Mingyue City will have the strongest power in the whole world, and that will be your foundation and support.

Brother Jiang, I will do it! By the way, I will establish a martial arts holy land to cultivate more powerful experts who can break through the void and ascend, so that they can assist you in the future!

Hahaha, you're thinking too far ahead!

Jiang Ming couldn't help but laugh.

He also thought of the Ninth Princess Yan Feng, who was the first female emperor he had trained, and Jin Yinhua and Lan.

He wondered how they were doing now?

After a while, Jiang Ming began examining the Calming Spirit and the Human Emperor Sword, two very special weapons.

According to the records, they were passed down from ancient times.

Ancient times?

Jiang Ming was puzzled.

If they were really passed down from ancient times, then what about the method of refining?

With the Calming Spirit, one could immobilize the Yin God Dharma Image, making it difficult to move and allowing people to have control over it.

It's not too powerful, otherwise, it would be really invincible if it were impossible to move after being immobilized!

Jiang Ming sighed.

As for the Human Emperor Sword?

He found that it contained a powerful imperial aura and an indestructible sharpness, like the Sharp True Intent, but even more profound and mysterious. It's the Sharp True Intent!

Jiang Ming suddenly realized.

That was a higher level of Dao Resonance power, the further evolution of the power of the realm, and the profound mystery of the deeper levels of Heaven and Earth, containing the true indestructible power.

If I could take it out, it would be two great weapons, but its a pity!

Jiang Ming shook his head helplessly.

He gave the Human Emperor Sword to Yan Hongyi, and the Calming Spirit was controlled by Yun Shuang. In addition, he arranged for several divine weapons to be given to Yan Hongyi.

A day later, the world was shaken.

Eight Peak Powerhouses were all killed, the Chunyang Palace, Jin Gang Temple and others were destroyed, the Imperial City was bathed in blood, and the Old Emperor was killed

Each of these events was earth-shattering, making people feel like they were in a dream and that it was unreal.

Didnt this mean that the top forces in the world had been wiped out?

The remaining smaller forces and families were all terrified, and they all paid tribute to Mingyue City, while restraining their family members.

When the common people gradually heard the news, they were all overjoyed and spread the news: Jiang Ming was regarded as a living sage.

Immediately afterward, Red Hongyi led a group of people directly into the Imperial City, forcefully seizing the throne. Many who resisted were killed, and there was even unrest among the border troops, but Jiang Mings fierce sweep made them all obedient.

Yan Hongyis first step was to reorganize the army with Mingyue City personnel at its core, and gradually seize power. However, controlling the world as easily as controlling ones own arm would be a long process.

Time slowly flowed by.

Jiang Ming occasionally traveled the world as a Yin God, even going through the deep mountains and forests, as well as the rivers and lakes several times, wiping out all the powerful monsters and demons he encountered.

This was considered a thorough reorganization of the world, and only then did he truly feel at ease.

One day, outside the Imperial City.bender

Jiang Lang, do you really want to challenge the Heavenly Might? Yan Hongyi had already gained much prestige and power, but she was very worried at that moment..

Chapter 114: Chapter 94: Battle with the Human-shaped Lightning Again_2

Yun Shuang was the same.

Liuli also followed her.

As well as Annihilation and others.

This step is necessary. Otherwise, it is almost impossible for you to shatter the void, let alone ascend. Jiang Ming looked up at the moon, and the power inside him was rapidly awakening.

Having learned about the past, he found that although there were people from the Outer Realm in this world, there was no existence that had broken the shackles of Heaven and Earth or ascended.

If he didnt break the shackles, it would be even harder for Yan Hongyi and the others in the future.

In fact, he had no idea, because his cultivation level had not reached the Sixth Realm.

Now with only a month left in the five-year period, he was preparing to try it out first.

With a focused gaze, an information screen appeared before him.

Name: Jiang Ming

Qi Cultivation: Fifth Level (Great Grandmaster, Yin-Yang Scripture)

Body Cultivation: Fourth Transition (Dragon Elephant Heaven Suppressing Skill)

Divine Cultivation: Fifth Tier (Dharma Phase, Yin and Yang Spirit Refining Scripture)

Cultivation Skills: Ten Thousand Swords Return to One, Three Swords of Slaying Immortal, Heavenly Footwork, Inch Fist (Ninth Layer), Yin and Yang Prohibition Skill, God Controlling Skill, Sword Control Skill, etc.

Talent: Hundredfold Comprehension, Reincarnation of Nirvana, Soul Dominator, Master of Space (Temporary Solidification), Fates Love (Temporary Solidification)

Mission: Become the Federal Martial Arts Champion in the final stage of the Martial Exam; cultivate 365 acupoints at the Fifth Level of Qi Cultivation.

Not much changed.

His divine cultivation still remained at the fifth level. He didn't know if it was because he had been refining his body and opening acupoints, but the Path of Souls did not break through.

Body refinement was relatively slow compared to the others.

Especially when quenching the viscera, with the nourishment of qi and great elixir pills, he deduced a corresponding breathing method and gradually strengthened the five viscera and six bowels step by step, ultimately forming a powerful and rigid viscera.

Furthermore, he truly entered the Fourth Transition realm, refining the marrow channels.

This was the Marrow Cleansing Realm.

As he cultivated, a faint silver light appeared in his marrow channels.

This reminded Jiang Ming of a saying: marrow like silver frost.

It was not yet perfect, though.

Even so, his strength has increased nearly a hundred times compared to the previous Fourth Transition.

The terror was beyond imagination.

Most of the reasons were that his bone refinement reached the Jade Bone Realm, which in turn developed the potential of the viscera and marrow cleansing, thoroughly refining the physical body to an extreme state.

He had only completed 210 acupoints.

It seemed that he was quite slow compared to others. After all, Yan Hongyi had opened up 120 acupoints.

But in reality?

It was incredibly fast.

Because each acupoint had a space of ten feet in diameter, and once it was opened, it had to absorb the energy of Heaven and Earth to transform, condense, and fill it with its own qi. It was a massive project.

In addition to that, he still had to keep comprehending the realm of comprehension, deducing secret skills and extraordinary techniques.

Even when he was being intimate with Yun Shuang, he felt like he was wasting time.

If it weren't for the many elixirs and aids in the secret realm world to help me in my cultivation, I don't know how long it would take me to reach my current state.

Jiang Mings thoughts turned as he leaped toward the distance.

His aura pierced the sky and twisted the void.

Open!

With a fist, he hammered down the night sky, revealing countless space rifts in the sky dome. From them, a destructive breath leaked out, causing ones scalp to tingle upon sight, and the terror felt even more shocking in the heart.

It seemed that Jiang Mings power had reached the limit that this world could bear, and the dark clouds in the sky quickly gathered, with thunder rolling and revolving around Jiang Mings head.

This scene astonished Yan Hongyi and the others.

But Jiang Ming remained calm.

Because he had experienced it once before.

Dark clouds rolled, and lightning serpents shuttled back and forth.

The whirlpool grew larger and larger, eventually forming a vortex eye surrounded by thunder, and a man engulfed in thunderlight walked out of it.

He landed a step right in front of Jiang Ming.

Enveloped by the arcing thunder, with a powerful aura, the ground sank an inch, and the distant Yan Hongyi and others couldn't help but step back.

The momentum was too strong.

Jiang Mings eyebrows twitched involuntarily.

The next moment, his face changed drastically, because the human-shaped lightning in front of him exerted the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure. However, this time the pressure was too strong, even carrying lightning, densely covering the surroundings and forming an absolute domain.

The terrifying pressure made his heart tremble.

How can your Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure be so strong? Jiang Ming couldnt help but ask, originally thinking that the other party wouldnt answer and would directly attack, but to his surprise, the human-shaped lightning spoke, The strength of the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure is related to the strength of the realm of comprehension, the degree of integration between the realm and Heaven and Earth, and the number and size of acupoints opened in the body.

The cold tone, without a hint of emotion, made Jiang Mings pupils constrict, and many thoughts flashed through his mind in an instant.

He also understood what the other party was saying. Elder Tang had explained it before.

It was just that the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm powerhouses he encountered seemed to not have such strong pressure, and only now did he truly gain some insight.

Neither Yin Kaishan nor Zhang Yangzi and others would likely have opened many acupoints.

With acupoints as the carrier, and will as the core, controlling the realm of comprehension and verifying the Heavenly Heart will bring the corresponding Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure.

The more acupoints, the larger the space, and the more Heavenly Heart Dao Resonances will be verified; the stronger the realm of comprehension, the same principle applies.

Verifying the Heavenly Heart with ones own heart is a gradual process, from wisps and strands to individual imprints, gradually imprinting ones own will-controlling realm completely onto the void, reflecting the inner acupoints, only then is it considered perfect.

Yin Kaishan and others probably didnt have much of their realm integrated into the Heavenly Dao Resonance..

Chapter 115: Chapter 94: Battle with Human-shaped

Lightning Again_3

“They should all be at the early stage of the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm, as well as the man in blue inside the Sky Tower!”

Jiang Ming thought thoroughly.

As for the human-shaped lightning in front of him?

It must be an existence at the peak of the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm.

Having opened 365 acupoints?

Will completely integrated into the Void Dao Resonance?

Thunder Realm?

This is not an ordinary strength.

Jiang Ming then told his thoughts, which were meant for Yan Hongyi and others to hear.

“That’s right, the stronger the foundation, the stronger the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure.” The human-shaped lightning spoke, then grabbed a lightning sword in his hand and slashed it towards Jiang Ming.

At the same time, the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure came pressing from all directions, giving Jiang Ming the feeling of being trapped in a bath.

“World, descend!”

Jiang Ming activated his World Concepts, and combined them with Yin and Yang and Five Elements Realm, creating a complete domain. However, he was barely able to withstand the opponent’s Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure.

Immediately after, the World Realm was split open by a single sword stroke, and Jiang Ming was knocked back.

“So strong!”

He showed a shocked expression.

Facing the human-shaped lightning, it was even more terrifying than confronting Yin Kaishan and the other Eight Strong Men back then.

“Come again!”

Jiang Ming’s blood was boiling, and he actively went to counterattack.

He barely managed to fight the opponent as various sword techniques were deployed.

The two fought, the sky roared, and the ground cracked.

Yan Hongyi and the other people watching the battle were all shocked and pale, constantly stepping back. Even so, when they saw the deep pit cracks extending in front of them, they couldn't help but feel chills.

Too strong.

Jiang Ming was much stronger than they had imagined.

The human-shaped lightning was even more powerful, a complete mess. They also understood what Jiang Ming meant: if he couldn't break the Heaven and Earth bond, who could in the future?

In the end, he used his Space Edge move, almost shattering the human-shaped lightning's body.

But the next moment, Jiang Ming's pupils shrank to the size of a needle tip, because under the opponent's sword, he melted the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure entirely into it in a single move.

With the electric light and thunder flash, the power surged more than ten times.

"This is the ultimate control of the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm's pressure!"

"Three Swords of Slaying Immortal!"

Jiang Ming also burst out, an extremely powerful sword, but was knocked away by the opponent.

Although uninjured, he could not help being shocked.

"Is this the essence of the power of Heaven and Earth?"

Jiang Ming's blood boiled, and he attacked once again.

The Mingyue Sword couldn't bear the terrifying destructive force and crumbled, so he met the enemy with his fists, his Blood Qi shaking and filling the sky dome.

Thunder and lightning flashed, engulfing the two of them.

He fought until dawn, and only then did Jiang Ming kill the opponent.

It was too difficult.

He had suffered many injuries on his body.

“Killing the first human-shaped lightning, the World Imprisonment should disappear. As for the second and third ones? They should be a reward challenge!”

Regarding this situation, Jiang Ming had already researched a lot before coming to this world, and with the information revealed by Elder Tang and Elder Song, it was not difficult to guess.

Rumble...

Above their heads, thunderclouds surged, and the whirlpool shook the sky.

Immediately after, another human-shaped lightning descended, seemingly no different from the previous one, just more powerful.

The strength of this one made Jiang Ming's heart tremble.

At the same time, there were also 365 light spots shining around this entity's body, which were the acupuncture points that had been opened, like the Zhou Tian Lightning Entity.

On the left, a raging wind swept across, on the right, thunder roared like a waterfall.

“Two kinds of Realms!”

Jiang Ming's eyes narrowed into a slit.

However, in the next moment, his body suddenly sank as if the sky was collapsing on him. His back bent, and he struggled to breathe.

He couldn't help but reveal a look of shock..

Chapter 116: Chapter 95: Fifteen Extreme Ways, Returning to Provincial Examination

Jiang Ming was not shocked by the two kinds of realms, but by the fact that the power of the two realms had merged into the void and turned into Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure.

This formed a terrifying Heavenly Might, which made him feel heavy.

“Multiple realms can imprint on the void?” Jiang Ming asked in response.

The human-shaped lightning only answered with one word: “Indeed!”

“The more, the stronger! The more, the better?”

Jiang Ming asked again.

The first sentence was an affirmation since it had already been confirmed, but the second sentence was a question.

“Only perfect realms can imprint on the void and turn into the might of heaven and earth that you can control,” the human-shaped lightning answered again. “The more realms merge, the greater the burden. If you exceed your own limit, at best your cultivation will stagnate, and at worst your will collapses, or your will becomes assimilated by heaven and earth.”

“How to judge?” Jiang Ming humbly asked for advice.

“Measure by your own acupoints, by your own will, by the strength of your soul. The more, the stronger, the greater the ability to bear.”

“I see!”

Jiang Ming suddenly realized.

It was clear what the other party meant: the more acupoints opened, the greater the ability to bear; the more determined the will, the greater the ability to bear; the stronger the soul, the stronger the ability to bear.

“Is there a real limit?”

“Fifteen strongest realms!”

“Fifteen? Aren’t the strongest realms only ten?” Jiang Ming couldn’t help but be stunned.

Whether it was textbooks, the Internet, or Elder Tang, they all agreed that there were only ten strongest realms. Now the human-shaped lightning was saying fifteen?

This...

Jiang Ming was somewhat baffled.

However, he was still willing to believe the words of the human-shaped lightning and understood that the other party was imparting knowledge and solving doubts in a different way.

This time, the human-shaped lightning did not answer but just grew stronger and stronger. The pressure formed by the power made the space around Jiang Ming hard to bear, twisting and even creating space rifts.

It was too strong.

Strong beyond imagination.

It was more than ten times stronger than the first human-shaped lightning.

It was also clear that the other party was going to take action.

“Hongyi, Yun Shuang, Liuli, the World Imprisonment has been broken. In the future, when you cultivate to the limit, you can break the void and ascend. You guys of annihilation, work hard in your cultivation. I hope we can meet again in other worlds, take care!” Jiang Ming’s gaze turned to Yan Hongyi and the others. After saying this, he returned directly to the Main World.

Killing the human-shaped lightning in front of him?

He had no confidence in this.

It was even possible to be killed by the other party.

There was no need to take the risk at all.

When Jiang Ming disappeared, the human-shaped lightning collapsed directly into nothingness. The rolling black clouds in the sky dissipated rapidly.

Bright moon and sparse stars, it was another beautiful night.

But Yan Hongyi and the others in the distance were not calm.

Jiang Ming’s strength, the horror of human-shaped lightning, made them truly feel their insignificance.

“Break the void and ascend? Jiang Ming, wait for me! You have to wait for me!” Yan Hongyi whispered in her heart.

“Damn little man, even took away my heart,” Yun Shuang’s face was full of reluctance.

“Brother Jiang, wait for me!” Liuli clenched her fists.

In her heart, Jiang Ming’s position was really special.

At the moment of being killed, Jiang Ming descended from the sky to save her. From then on, she was treated like a pampered little princess.

The people of annihilation were even more shocked.

“It turns out people can be strong to this extent!”

“Human-shaped lightning, is that the will of heaven?”

“Heaven’s will can be killed? Even if another one comes out!”

“Breaking the World Imprisonment and ascending? I can feel that when Jiang Ming killed the first human-shaped lightning, it seemed that an indescribable bondage on my body was lost, becoming relaxed, free, and even feeling as if I could fly.”

“Jiang Ming, you are paving the way for our martial arts and immortality!”

“I must guard the Great Jiang Dynasty, protect the emperor and the others, and strive to cultivate, ascend, and worship at your feet in the future!”

This was the true thought of the people of annihilation.

They had once been desperate, but they had never thought that Jiang Ming, who was called the Outer Realm Great Demon, would annihilate the Ghost Chaos, level the Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, and even sort out the world.

After the change of dynasty, various systems were guided so that the people could truly become human beings.

From then on, they were wholeheartedly devoted.

Main World, Ten Thousand Realms Tower, Fourth Floor. Gett the latest

Jiang Ming came out.

“You’re back?” Elder Tang, who hadn’t left, had been checking the time, and when he saw Jiang Ming’s figure, he breathed a sigh of relief, with a smile on his face, “It’s good that you’re back, it’s good.”

Then, he sensed the immense aura hidden in Jiang Ming’s body, which made him feel both terrified and overjoyed: “Good, good, good! You are indeed the unrivalled genius that only appears once in a thousand years in Pingyang City!”

“No Heavenly Phenomenon, not Heavenly Phenomenon Realm, just the Fifth-Level? But this kind of Fifth-Level...” Elder Song couldn’t help but grin.

When Jiang Ming returned, he didn’t completely conceal his aura since he had just faced the human-shaped lightning.

This allowed Elder Song to glimpse a few points, which made him extremely moved.

“Endless accumulation, profound foundation, this is the standard of a genius!” Elder Tang laughed, “Let’s go, go upstairs to Old Song’s office, and have a detailed talk with us.”

Jiang Ming had no objection.

Top floor, office.

Elder Song personally poured him a cup of Xuewu Tea, which was refreshing and invigorating, a top-notch product.

Jiang Ming took a sip and immediately liked it, and he also briefly talked about his situation in the secret realm world. He didn’t have much to say about this experience.

“Eliminating Ghost Chaos, destroying Ten Thousand Demon Mountain, breaking through the Gate of the Hill, slaughtering the dynasty, laying down martial arts in the world.” Elder Song couldn’t help but want to scratch his head as he listened.

Eliminating Ghost Chaos and Ten Thousand Demon Mountain were bearable, but breaking through the Gate of the Hill and slaughtering a dynasty? That was too outrageous..

Chapter 117: Chapter 95: Fifteen Extreme Ways, Returning to Provincial Examination_2

1 never thought this kid would be so ruthless!

Good! Elder Tang praised, Acting with decisiveness and determination, thats the style of our generation of martial artists. If you cant stand it, do something about it. If you encounter injustice, kill the perpetrator. As for foreign races? If they are committing atrocities and doing all kinds of evil, killing and exterminating them is the only way to go.

Thats exactly what 1 think! Jiang Ming nodded and asked, Are the demon race and the ghost race very common? They are so ruthless!

They are not common now, but for you, they will be in the future. Elder Tang became serious, in the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, you will realize there are countless races in the world, far beyond your imagination. There are countless vicious, evil, tyrannical, and cruel races. Ghosts are just one of them, and not even the most evil kind!

Jiang Mings heart sank.

In just a few sentences, the cruelty of the outside world was pointed out, and it was absolutely terrifying.

Actually, compared to the outside world, the World of Secret Realm is much safer. Inside the realm, the strongest in the world are limited. Add in the fact that geniuses usually enter with some prior knowledge on how to act, the danger isn't that big. Of course, there are exceptions for the foolish! Elder Tang said, However, for students with little actual combat experience, it's still very dangerous. I don't recommend entering the Secret Realm during high school.

Jiang Ming nodded.

Indeed, for high school students who are inexperienced in the ways of the world, it is dangerous, even more, if they stir up trouble, nine times out of ten they might end up dead.

After chatting for a while, Elder Song instructed, Today is the fifth, the Provincial Examination will take place on the seventh. The round robin matches will be broadcasted live. It would be the most glorious time for the students, and if they perform exceptionally, they will become famous in the United Federation in the shortest time possible. Use the next two days to consolidate and review what you've learned, and try to participate at your strongest.

With your strength, becoming the Provincial Champion shouldn't be difficult, but just in case, you should still prepare! Elder Tang advised.

Jiang Ming nodded, he understood this reasoning.

Preparing for battle does no harm.

Preparations still needed to be made.

Afterward, he and Old Tang left, and for the time being, they stayed on the other side to avoid any disturbances.

When he returned to his residence, he took a bath, changed his clothes, and trimmed his long hair. After contemplating for a while, he decided to slightly shorten the length and adjusted it.

If he wore a long robe, he would still be a handsome and elegant young master.

He turned on his phone.

Despite setting it to reject calls from strangers, there were still many missed calls. He briefly looked at them and opened his class chat group.

It was as lively as ever.

They talked about the Martial Exam and the upcoming Provincial Examination.

Many students felt sentimental, as they were about to graduate and go their separate ways. Some reminisced about the past, some invited others to gather while others talked about their secret crushes who didn't dare to confess their feelings. However, at this point, everyone had opened up their hearts.

All, the student days!

Jiang Ming sighed with a bit of nostalgia.

Some say that it is the best stage of life, with no pressure of being a son, a husband, or a father.

All one has to do is focus on their studies and nothing else matters.

When one enters university, life becomes even better youth, freedom, ideals, no responsibilities, almost no supervision, and money to spend.

Once past this stage, most people face workplace politics, oppression from their superiors, and can only remain silent most of the time.

Not to mention when one finds a partner, or has a child. Their freedom would be all but gone, tied up by countless invisible ropes.

Private chat.

Jiang Ming: Fatty, how's it going?

Wang Fatty: I'm getting a massage and back rub, blissful!

Jiang Ming: Damn, you really went all out!

Wang Fatty: Hehe, the Martial Exam is over, and I have no chance for the Provincial Exam, of course, I have to enjoy myself! Anyway, I'm still considered a genius and your best buddy. Since arriving here, they've given me a month of free service and the best massage. That tender and soft touch almost made me fall asleep.

Jiang Ming: You really know how to enjoy yourself!

Wang Fatty: Life is short, we must enjoy every moment! Ming, are you coming? They said as long as you come, you'll get a lifetime of free services and the best treatment.

Jiang Ming: Give it a rest.

Wang Fatty: Knew you wouldn't come. Such a shame, they said if they could get you to come, they'd give me 300,000 yuan as a referral fee! 300,000, just like that, slipped away from me, Ming, my heart aches I can't breathe.

Wang Fatty: But hey, if you actually came and we took a photo of you getting a massage, just imagine how many people would come here after seeing: Our gentlest hands and most attentive service got Jiang Ming in top form to become the Martial Arts Champion.'

Jiang Ming:

Wang Fatty: Haha, if that really happened, do you think you'd be laughed at by the whole Federation?

Jiang Ming: Get lost!

Wang Fatty: Okay, I'm gonna roll around in bed now, envy me, be jealous, drool. Wanna see some pictures?

Wang Fatty: Hehe! I can imagine your face right now, eyes shining but trying to act reserved. Alright, I won't tease you anymore.bender

Wang Fatty: Cheer up, keep striving, and try to become a true Martial Arts Champion. Then, we can ride your coattails, and even use it to impress girls: Look, the guy on TV, on computers, and in photographs, that's my iron buddy.. My buddy is the Martial Arts Champion, so how could I be any worse? The strength in my waist can overturn three mountains!'

Chapter 118: Chapter Ninety-Five: Fifteen Extreme Ways, Returning to the Provincial Examination s

Jiang Ming was speechless.bender

After chatting for a while, he saw Qin Zhiyan's message: In the provincial exams, the top hundred contenders will fight for a spot in the top ten in order to participate in the Federation Major Examination. I'm not confident no, the chances are slim. I plan to enter the World of Secret Realm again, Jiang Ming, do you have time?

I'm just, just

Alright!

I want to hear your advice, and I want to learn more about secret skills.

Am I too ambitious?

She hesitated.

Strong, restrained, with a youthful face, and a bit of a tsundere.

Jiang Ming laughed and replied to her message.

In the afternoon, Qin Zhiyan came over and Jiang Ming led her to the yard. Elder Tang winked at him and then left for a walk.

During the last Sea Election, you scored within the top twenty in the province. Your strength is already very high. Nearly all martial arts universities in the Federation could accept you. By following the system within the university, you can learn martial arts at a very high level. Your future achievements will be limitless. Why take the risk? Jiang Ming asked, perplexed, as he invited her to sit down.

But I still can't control my own destiny. Qin Zhiyan smiled bitterly.

You're this strong, and it's still not enough?

Jiang Ming frowned deeply.

He only knew that she came from a good family and had an admirable background, but it was still a small city after all.

What kind of problem would prevent a genius who has reached the Martial Realm of the Third Level by the age of eighteen from controlling her own destiny? Once she enters the Martial Arts University, she will surely progress rapidly and will be taken care of by the school.

It's still lacking, not secure enough! Qin Zhiyan took a sip of tea and sighed. Brother Jiang, I came to learn from you. In the future, I will spare no effort to repay you.

Her tone was incredibly resolute.

We have been classmates for three years. If it's within my power, of course, I'd help, but Jiang Ming said seriously, Today, I went to the One-party World again. It's very dangerous!

You went again? Qin Zhiyan was stunned.

She really didn't know this.

In fact, after hesitating for a long time, she had decided to venture into it. She came to seek help from Jiang Ming to increase her chances.

During the Sea Selection phase, she knew how monstrous Jiang Ming was. He had actually breached the sixth layer, which was unthinkable.

But she couldn't believe that Jiang Ming, who was so powerful, had actually ventured into the World of Secret Realm again. This further solidified her determination.

Yes! Jiang Ming nodded and started telling her about the Divine cultivation he experienced in the last Secret Realm World, the fierce ghosts, the Demon Race, etc.

A Fierce Ghost Chaos, treating humans as blood food Yin God Dharma Image Qin Zhiyan was shocked and speechless for a long time. After slowly digesting the information, her eyes lit up. I'm only at the Martial Realm of the Third Level. The Secret Realm World I am going to enter is far less complex than yours. It definitely wouldn't be as dangerous.

It's up to you! Now that Jiang Ming knew he couldn't persuade her, he asked, Which path of cultivation do you follow?

You've passed on to me the Drop Rain One Sword technique. It led me to the threshold of Rain Intent. I plan to continue on this path, using rain as a launch pad, then understand Cold and Fog Intent, and integrate the three to comprehend the stronger Realm of Water. This is my goal! Qin Zhiyan did not hide anything.

Your goal is too small! Jiang Ming advised, At the Fourth Realm of Martial Arts, try to spend more time. This realm is the best stage to comprehend the realm of comprehension. It's a crucial step in building a strong foundation! Is the Realm of Water still too small? Qin Zhiyan was shocked.

As far as she knew, the Realm of Water was already among the pretty good ones in the Five Elements.

The stronger the realm, the more profound the foundation you will build, and the broader your future path will be!

Of course I know that, but

Qin Zhiyan smiled bitterly and gave Jiang Ming a melancholy look.

Indeed, everything has its limits!

I will pass you two sets of sword skills, try to comprehend them as much as you can. Jiang Ming grinned. He pointed his finger and touched her forehead.

Rain? Water?

He passed on the related Five Elements Swordsmanship and Yin and Yang Swordsmanship to her.

Each set of sword skills contains countless underlying principles. If they are fully comprehended, its possible to understand the realms of the Five Elements and Yin and Yang.

After a while, Qin Zhiyan opened her eyes. She was utterly shocked and overwhelmed.

The subtlety of these two sets of sword skills was far beyond her imagination. For a while, she couldnt fully comprehend them.

She stood up and bowed deeply. Then she bent her knees in a show of respect, taunted her playfully. Young Master Jiang, should I offer my body in gratitude?

Jiang Ming was speechless.

Qin Zhiyan waved her hand and left.

As night approached, he received a message from her: Perfect. Jiang, see you the day after tomorrow.

Congratulations, see you the day after tomorrow! he replied. I didnt expect this girl to succeed again. I wonder what shes experienced and what realm shes stepped into now?

Day 7, Month 6, Year 9918 of the Tianwu Calendar.

8:00 in the morning.

Jiang Ming arrived at the City Lord Mansion. The provincial exam would be held here. After entering the Network of Combat, the top talents from all over the province would gather and compete for rankings.

Elder Tang came.

Mr. Chen came.

Headmaster Chang also came.

Of course, Qin Zhiyan did, too.

The most pleased ones were Mr. Chen and Headmaster Chang. The fact that there were two students ranked among the top hundred in the province from their school was a huge honor.

Generally, provincial cities would take most of the places in the top hundred, and the rest would be taken by students from various cities and schools.

Just like this year, besides him and Qin Zhiyan, there was only one student from the high school who made the top hundred, ranking 86th.

They waited in a room.

Zhiyan, what kind of world did you experience? Jiang Ming asked her telepathically.

Qin Zhiyan looked a little unhappy: Mystery

Mystery?

Yes! It wasn't too high in terms of actual strength, but it was extremely terrifying. I initially landed outside a broken temple. It was dusk and crows were crying, it was filled with a deadly silence. I was going to rest there for a while to get adapted to the change in power, but after taking a deep breath and sighing slowly, Qin Zhiyan continued, Inside the broken temple, I was almost scared to death..

Chapter 119: Chapter Ninety-Six: The Cunning of Deception, Officially Begins

Inside the broken temple, the stone statues were toppled and askew, appearing rather hideous.

At dusk, crows cawed and a gloomy wind blew, making even Qin Zhiyan, a martial artist, shudder in fear.

Yet, she was a courageous and talented lady. She went to the backyard where several meditation rooms were pretty clean. On the east side stood a Bodhi tree, on which hung a human face skin. Its two pitch-black eye sockets stared right at her. This chilled Qin Zhiyan to the bone, and she shivered involuntarily.

Even as a young woman who had been through the World of Secret Realm, she couldn't help but fear.

Underneath the tree was a well. At that moment, a large amount of hair emerged from the well and spread rapidly and silently. Simultaneously, she felt a brightness on her neck. As she turned her head, she found a stone statue appearing behind her out of nowhere.

I was almost scared to death! Qin Zhiyan conveyed solemnly, Then I screamed and lashed out, killing everything in sight. But they revived almost immediately, which chilled my heart! Later, by triggering the Sword Intention and killing them again, they were finally obliterated.

What on earth was it?

Its called Bizarre. It was truly unbelievably bizarre, possessing incredible abilities, and devoid of emotion, ruthless, bloodthirsty, and so on. To kill them, one can only rely on the power of realm, Buddhas Light, Thunder Power, and so on.

Qin Zhiyan shared her experiences.

Bizarre creatures were similar to ghosts but different in several ways.

They were genuinely bizarre.

In the vast world, there really is everything! Jiang Ming had a feeling that he would also encounter them someday.

Qin Zhiyans experiences were rather straightforward. After the incident in the broken temple, she found a city to settle down temporarily and began her arduous cultivation.

Because of the sword art he taught her, she gradually comprehended the Realm of Water. Later, she also luckily entered the Fire Realm.

Relatively speaking, the Fire Realm was more deadly against the Bizarre. After all, fire represented the Yang energy and it also contained light.

Of course, she also entered the Fourth Realm of Martial Arts.

With her increased cultivation level, her strength became even more solid.

Among many achievements, theres one that was relatively easier for me, Qin Zhiyan spoke slowly, That is to kill the source of the Bizarre within the Bizarre City.

I thought it would be very easy!

Really!

I waited till there were only three months left before departure to make my move, just to avoid any accidents.

But when I got to Bizarre City, my scalp tingled, said Qin Zhiyan, still somewhat fearful, During the daytime, there was not much difference between it and other places. But when I unintentionally released my killing intention, everyone on the street stopped and turned to look at me.

Do you know what that feels like!

It made me feel a bone-chilling cold deep in my heart.

At that moment, my scalp exploded.

I stayed in a wine shop overnight. When I heard some noise outside and opened the window to look out, I saw a headless man over ten meters tall walking down the street. He had no arms but numerous tentacles. He grabbed a person from a nearby house and stuffed them into the cavity of his neck. Enveloped in black fog, it was deathly cold!

Then a tentacle swiped at me. In my panic, I didn't hesitate to fight back, using the power of the Fire Realm to kill it!

It was not as strong as I imagined!

After I killed him, all the windows on both sides of the street opened, and each window had a person staring at me. Behind them was darkness, but something seemed to squirm in that darkness. The terrifying aura almost made my heart stop, and my blood turned cold.

Especially their eyes, they were extremely cold, without any emotional color. They looked at me as if they were looking at a dead person, no, more like a delicious food.

Then, the house door opened, and a mass of people rushed out towards me. Some were holding forks, some kitchen knives, some rolling pins, some ladles and so on

Coming from all eight directions, like a raging tide!

Jiang Ming, what should I do?

Qin Zhiyan was still terrified.

That scene was like a nightmare, but it still affected her to this day.

Kill!

Kill? Why?

The Bizarre you mentioned was comparable to ghosts. Would there be any normal people in the Bizarre City? And all other indications clearly show they were not normal. Even if they were not Bizarre creatures, they were probably not living people anymore. You absolutely have to kill them. The first rule after descent is self-protection.

Jiang Mings voice was somewhat indifferent.

The first time, he felt extreme pity; the second time, he merely adhered to his bottom line. If he had the capability, then he would do more.

When facing danger, if youre unable to let loose and worry too much, then youre only digging your own grave.

When you say it like that, I feel a bit relieved! At that time, I was merely defending. But the crowd was too large. They came from every direction. I eventually had to fight back. After killing one, I found their bodies rotted rapidly. Even so, I still felt very guilty. I kept asking myself: if I have struck an ordinary person, am I still a good person? Do I still have a conscience? Do I still have a moral bottom line? If it were a bad person, it wouldnt matter, but those were ordinary people! Qin Zhiyan looked a bit lost, Ive been contemplating.. What are we cultivating for? If the shoes were on the other foot and I was killed randomly, how would I feel? I just want to take control of my destiny by enhancing myself, but what about the ones who got killed?

Chapter 120: Chapter Ninety-Six: The Cunning of

Deception, Officially Begins_2

Weak, protect yourself; strong, care for the world. Jiang Ming said, Those who have the seven emotions and six desires are ultimately selfish. Protecting oneself and doing good deeds when capable is already a good person, a very, very good person.

Jiang Ming, I understand, thank you!

The two chatted slowly.

Not long after, Master Song and others arrived. He solemnly looked at Jiang Ming and the other two, Next, you three will represent Pingyang City in the competition. Dont feel pressured, just do your best!

According to this years rules, only the top hundred in the province during the Sea Election stage can participate in the Provincial Examination.

In addition, during the period between the Sea Election and the Provincial Examination, those who break through to the Martial Realm of the Third Level can apply. After passing the assessment, they can join the Provincial Examination.

The top ten students in the Sea Election in the province can directly enter the finals. Other students will have round-robin matches, where they win one match and score one point, with no points for draws and losses. In the end, ten students will be selected to enter the finals.

The finals are also round-robin matches, with the same scoring system. The top five will participate in the United Federation AAartial Arts Grand Examination.

During the consecutive matches, there will be a five-minute break in between!

The rules are very simple!

Next, each of you will have a virtual war room, made of alloy. It will not be opened until the exam is over.

There will be me and several instructors outside, and cameras in the city will be monitored at all times to ensure that nothing unexpected happens.

First, take care of your personal hygiene, and then enter the virtual war room!bender

At nine o'clock, the Martial Exam will begin on time!

I wish you all good results!

Master Song showed a smile.

Especially when facing Jiang Ming, he genuinely had high expectations.

Then, everyone went to the virtual war rooms.

As for personal hygiene?

By the time they reached the Martial Realm of the Third Level, there was very little waste in their bodies, and they could remain motionless for several days without any problems.

At Jiang Mings level, he could completely refine the impurities in his body and expel them through his meridians and pores.

The virtual war room was no longer a seat, but rather a luxurious version of a massage chair, where one can recline on it.

After checking, Master Song personally took everyone out and locked the door himself.

It would not be unlocked until it was over.

There were cameras in the room, and there were specially made glass windows on the side, through which the inside could be seen clearly.

Jiang Ming started the machine directly, and after the retina scan and gene authentication, his vision went black, and he arrived in a seat.

Welcome Jiang Ming from Pingyang No.2 High School Class 34 to participate in the Tianzhong Province Martial Exam. In the United Federation Sea Election stage, you ranked first. In the Provincial Examination, you can participate directly in the finals.

You are now in the martial combat field for the Provincial Examination!

After the end of the preliminary round, you will be prompted to prepare for the finals.

During the finals, opponents will be randomly selected. Once selected, you will be immediately transported to the martial arts stage, with thirty seconds to prepare!

A voice came to Jiang's ear, and a screen appeared before him, scrolling information.

After reading it, Jiang looked at himself.

There was no change.

It was just like his real body.

The only difference was that there was no green seed in his Dantian.

The seed was strange, staying in his Dantian without absorbing Qi or triggering the power of his soul, remaining still and even unable to be removed. New chapters will be fully updated at

Is this fake or real? If it's fake, then even the real one is a bit too much! As Jiang Ming entered the Virtual Combat Network again, he couldn't help but be shocked.

I suspect it's real, but it's somewhat fake! A soft voice came from the seat next to him, and as Jiang looked over, the voice smiled, Jiang, I'm Tian Tian from No. 1 High School. Miss Qin, hello. Please take care of me, both of you! Hello, Tian Tian! Jiang Ming greeted.

Tian Tian was not tall and had a sweet image, a bit inferior to Qin Zhiyan, but she looked very comfortable.

He also learned that she was an undisputed genius.

She had never entered the World Secret Realm and had cultivated to the Martial Realm of the Third Level by her own efforts, making it among the top hundred in the province.

In terms of genius level, even Qin Zhiyan couldn't compare, and it could be said that she was far behind.

Have you both entered the World Secret Realm? Can you tell me about the situation inside? I want to try too, but my parents, my grandparents, my maternal grandparents, my uncles, my aunts, and others won't let me go. Tian Tian appeared innocent.

Jiang Ming was speechless.

That was really a big family. But was it appropriate to say this to an orphan? It sounded like boasting to him.

It's good not to go! Jiang Ming said calmly, The World Secret Realm I went to had not only monsters but also ghosts. For example, when I woke up after resting, there was a ghost face with blood and flesh in front of my eyes; and when I went to the bathroom, a ghost hand suddenly appeared from below.

In the eerie realm I experienced, there were human faces hanging from trees, a mass of wriggling hair appeared in wells, and crazy extensions; stone statues came to life, quietly appearing behind you. The most unexpected thing was when the house you were staying in suddenly came alive, and the food you ate turned into maggots. Qin Zhiyan gave Tian Tian a glance, making her stories even more horrifying.

To find a sense of superiority in front of Jiang, just watch her scare you to death.

Tian Tian's face turned paler and paler, and she couldn't help but shudder.

Fear filled her eyes.

Some World Secret Realms are indeed terrifying, with monsters, ghosts, and various demons. If you're faint-hearted, you may even die of fright! A young man stood up from the front, turned around, and gave Jiang Ming a fist salute, Provincial City, Long Aotian, I have met Brother Jiang.

Long Aotian? Jiang Ming showed a strange expression.

Well, my parents named me that, and I'm quite embarrassed too! Long Aotian felt helpless, then stared at Jiang Ming and said, I thought I could take first place in the province during the Sea Election stage, but I didn't expect you to surpass me and take first place in the United Federation. Impressive, but Brother Jiang, I'm not too bad either. Three days ago, I killed my way through a martial world. This time, if you want to win first place, it won't be so easy!

Little Dragon, enough! A girl next to him, wearing a blue battle suit and a single ponytail, looked disdainful, Jiang made it to the Sky Tower Sixth Layer, are you confident now? Besides, it's been seven days since then, has he entered the World Secret Realm again?

Lan Xin, ranked third in the Sea Election in the province, has met Brother Jiang! She folded her hands toward this side, very serious.

She didn't bother with Tian Tian anymore.

People around also greeted them one after another.

Strong individuals will always be respected, even more so for an orphan who has reached the pinnacle level. The hardships they went through can be somewhat imagined.

If the situation were reversed, how many of them could accomplish this?

As they chatted casually, nine o'clock arrived, and they all received a prompt tone.

The Provincial Examination began.

Everyone sat up straight, including Jiang Ming..

Chapter 121: Chapter 97: The Extreme Realm, The Strongest Attack

In the martial combat field, ten battle platforms were directly set up.

Jiang Ming found that even if he just sat still, he could bring the battle platform closer to get a clearer and more detailed view.

Virtual inside the virtual.

On the other three sides were the spectator areas, where many spectators had already taken their seats.

Outside world.

Pingyang City, the City Lord Mansion.

In front of the virtual war room was a row of screens, which were currently live broadcasting the provincial examination of Tianzhong Province. Elder Song and Elder Tang were sitting and watching together, also guarding Jiang Ming and the others from any accidents.

The two whispered privately, with their voices only traveling between them.

“This provincial exam has no surprises.”

“Indeed, there are no surprises. He entered the sixth layer of the Sky Tower during the sea election. Now, he has experienced a world of secret realms, greatly enhancing his strength. In previous years, he would have certainly won the final championship. But this year, it’s really uncertain.”

“Elder Tang, did you hear any news?”

“Hmm! As an orphan, Jiang Ming entered the sixth layer of the Sky Tower, which clearly indicated that he possesses excellent Qi Luck and a heaven-defying fortune. Naturally, this attracted many young genius talents. Some have returned from the starry sky, seeds have appeared in the secret realm of cultivators, and there are even elite training camps and the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield. These young talents all want to meet Jiang Ming. Perhaps, through him, they seek a means to collide with each other, and even get special rewards.”

“So, this year’s Martial Exam will be extremely exciting?”

“Definitely more exciting than ordinary! Special Talents, Awakening of Different Abilities, Saint’s Inheritance, Immortal Path Bloodline, Dao’s Embryo, Divine Body, and so on. They will all probably appear.”

“Really?”

“You old man, trapped in petty schemes, do not have the broad vision to see the vast heavens and the terrifying nature of genius.”

“You old man, just looking for a sense of superiority!”

“Hehe, it’s the truth!”

“In that case, Jiang Ming...”

“This kind of collision is essential to him. He’s too talented and rising too fast. Inevitably, arrogance might develop, and he may even end up becoming overly self-confident. This way, he can learn from the truly outstanding talents of the younger generation and sharpen his edge, which will be of great benefit to his future growth.”

“What if he ends up suppressing all those talented individuals? This is not just a possibility but a high probability!”

“Well...”

Elder Tang smacked his lips.

Normally, with Jiang Ming’s strength, he should be able to win the final victory in about eight out of ten cases. Although this year is special, there is still a good chance of winning.

Yet, he secretly hoped Jiang Ming would lose once.

In the school, on the playground.

Most students gathered here, and as Wang Fatty put it, the atmosphere was intense.

“Finally, it begins. Can we watch Jiang’s rampage?”

“We will definitely see it! It’s a pity that during the sea election stage, rankings were the only indicator, and it wasn’t broadcast live. This time it’s different, and we can see his full strength.”

“See it clearly? Don’t count on it! With his cultivation level and speed, it’s absolutely impossible to see it clearly!”

“Then watch it in slow motion!”

“Do you guys think Jiang has a chance to win first place? I have heard that there are a few geniuses in the provincial city, like Long Aotian of the Dragon Family, who is said to have a strand of True Dragon Bloodline, far more potent than one can imagine.”

“No matter how strong he is, he’s not Jiang Ming’s opponent!” Wang Fatty interrupted, “If that kid from the Dragon Family were really strong, he wouldn’t have been left far behind during the sea election stage.”

“That’s true. Jiang Ming will definitely win!”

“Yes, Jiang Ming will definitely win. He is from our school, who else should we support! If I could curse, I would curse all his opponents first.”

“Hehe, that’s not a bad idea…”

The surrounding students couldn’t help but laugh.

At this moment, not only in Pingyang City but the entire Federation was watching the live broadcast.

Last time, during the sea election stage, only rankings were available.

But this time, it was different with live broadcasting.

Most of the provinces were only watching their own province’s exam, but Jiang Ming of Tianzhong Province still attracted a large audience.

The virtual martial combat field.

The rules were clear.

According to the rankings during the sea election stage, the eleventh place would fight against the one hundred and fifth place. Apparently, the last five places had entered the Martial Realm of the Third Level within these seven days.

Jiang Ming was very surprised.

Martial artists’ battles were quick.

Some killed their opponents in the blink of an eye, after all, it was not a friendly match, so, they went all-out without fear of death.

Only when opponents were evenly matched would the battles last longer.

Tian Tian was teleported away, and immediately reappeared, looking terrible, “Is the gap between me and the front-ranking students so big?”

She couldn’t believe it.

But then she saw Qin Zhiyan being teleported back with a smile on her face, apparently having defeated her opponent.

Her face turned slightly ugly, but thinking about the subsequent situation, she couldn’t help but shudder: “I still have more than ninety matches.”

Tian Tian felt desperate at once.

“This is not tempering, this is a disaster!” Tian Tian scratched her head.

At first, she was very excited, thinking that she could rise to fame in the live broadcast, but the first great battle made her face reality.

She was a genius.

Absolute genius.

But which one of those who came here wasn't a genius? for the best novel reading experience

Just one round of confrontation had hit her hard, so what about the following?

“Can I really keep up?”

She even doubted herself.

“This is the best place for tempering!” Qin Zhiyan's eyes sparkled, “Although some students are not that strong, most of them have formidable strength. These great battles will definitely help me improve.”

“It's only useful for a few!” Jiang Ming smiled, “However, you should still take it seriously, and through them, estimate the strength of geniuses in the entire United Federation..”

Chapter 122: Chapter 97: The Ultimate Point Realm, the Strongest Attack_2

“Hmm!” Qin Zhiyan nodded, “What I'm worried about now is whether I'll be mentally exhausted at the end.”

“Definitely not!” Jiang Ming said, “If you're mentally exhausted, then there's no point in round-robin battles. After each big battle, you should recover to your peak state. Your opponent just now was too weak, so you didn't feel much. Student Tian Tian should have had a more intuitive feeling?”

Tian Tian's mouth twitched.

How could she not have had an intuitive feeling? She had just been stabbed through the throat with a sword, and she could still feel the pain faintly.

After being killed, her vision went dark, and she was reborn in her seat.

“Boring!” Long Aotian in front of her said, “Brother Jiang, what’s your strength now? Can you tell? I’m already at the Martial Arts Fourth Layer, and my comprehension of realms has reached a very deep level.”

“I’d also like to know!” Lan Xin turned her head, looking at the martial arts stage, the competition really wasn’t attractive to her, “I’m also at the Martial Arts Fourth Layer. Before the Sea Election, everyone said I would definitely be the top of the province, but, hum.”

Even Tian Tian turned her ears to listen.

Qin Zhiyan also showed curiosity.

“Fifth Level!” Jiang Ming did not hide it.

Hiding it was pointless; his strength would be exposed in the following battles anyway.

“Fifth Level?” Tian Tian exclaimed, widening her eyes, “How is that possible!”

The next moment, she was teleported away because she had already rested for five minutes.

“Fifth Level?!” Long Aotian scratched his head vigorously, then bared his teeth and grinned, “Is it really the Fifth Level?”

“Fifth Level!”

“Damn it! There is less than one in ten thousand chance to defeat you. No, wait, there is a chance, what if the realms you comprehend are relatively weak, then I still have a chance to fight back!”

“You really think his comprehension of realms will be weak?” Lan Xin sneered, “Stop dreaming!”

She paused, puzzled, “Martial Arts Fourth Layer is very important, very important, the strength of the realms we comprehend is related to the future. If you comprehend a few more kinds of realms, or even breakthrough in the fusion of realms, you will be able to go further and have greater combat power in the future. Jiang Ming, why did you break through so early?”

“The higher the realm, the stronger the strength, such a simple reasoning!” Jiang Ming laughed.

“Is it that fun?” Lan Xin glared at him, “The realm doesn’t represent the future, you must know better than that! Jiang Ming, what kind of realm did you comprehend? Don’t tell me that you have comprehended one of the Ten Great Intentions. If you really did, that would be too perverted. I have a Great Success in comprehending the Thunder Scenario, and I'm not far from perfection. I have also touched upon the realms of water and fire."

She was very straightforward.

While asking, she also revealed her own details.

"One of the Ten Great Intentions?" Qin Zhiyan flashed a strange look and thought to herself, "He certainly has comprehended Yin and Yang, but it's definitely more than just that. Otherwise, he wouldn't easily pass the Yin Yang Swordsmanship to me. By giving it to me, it means he has more powerful secret techniques."

"Jiang Ming, my first goal in life is to have you always ahead of me so I can pursue and look up to you. That way, I'll have more motivation."

Qin Zhiyan's thoughts were complicated.

Then she was teleported back to the Martial Arts Stage again.

"Yin and Yang!" Jiang Ming spat out two words.

"Do you still want to live?!" Long Aotian was shocked, then slumped back in his seat, scratching his head again, "Meeting you is really my misfortune."

Then he straightened his back, snorted, "I may not be your opponent this time, but next time, I'll definitely not lose to you. After all, I have the True Dragon Bloodline. Right after the Provincial Examination, I will immediately..."

He didn't finish his sentence.

"You should focus on passing the current hurdle. If you can't even get into the top five, huh..." Lan Xin was also shocked, suppressing the turmoil in her heart, and glanced at Long Aotian, "Then you'll really become a joke."

Long Aotian's expression tightened, and he couldn't help but take a deep breath: "If I can't get a ticket to the United Federation's Grand Examination, I'll be killed when I go back, definitely."

Lan Xin showed a ill-intentioned smile: "You can't beat Jiang Ming, and you're no match for me! Miss Qin hasn't fully exerted her strength yet, but it's obvious she's also at the Martial Arts Fourth Layer, definitely a powerful enemy. Look, how many opponents are there?"

Long Aotian's scalp exploded.

The fight was very fast.

Especially Tian Tian, who had just left and then immediately returned.

The longest fight lasted only two minutes.

But every time she came back, her face looked worse, grinding her teeth and clenching her fists, showing a fierce expression, but then feeling defeated and resigned.

“Can’t you quit?” Jiang Ming reminded her.

Quitting would end her own competition, and all future matches would be considered forfeited.

“If I quit early, I’ll definitely become the laughing stock of the whole province.” Tian Tian pouted.

Jiang Ming smiled and watched the battle.

His attention was really on only two people. One was Qin Zhiyan, who was very serious but casual in her moves, and almost no one could withstand her for more than a few rounds.

The other one was a young man, not very old, probably only about fifteen. He wielded a long spear with incredible skill, almost no match for anyone, very dominant.

Even on the martial arts stage, he occasionally glanced over in Jiang Ming’s direction, full of provocation, even pointing his spear at him several times. “Qiang Jiu!”

Jiang Ming already knew the opponent’s name.

What was strange was that even Long Aotian and Lan Xin didn’t know his background.

“He must have a big background!”

Jiang Ming didn’t care much.

Time slowly passed.

“It’s finally over!” Tian Tian’s eyes were dull, even though she was healed after each big battle.

But the feeling of being killed again and again left a deep impression.

She was so fed up with being killed.

If it weren't for fear of being labeled as a sore loser, she would have quit already.

"Jiang Ming, Qiang Jiu is very strong, very, very strong. I activated the initial power of the fusion of water and fire, but he still killed me." Qin Zhiyan reminded him, "I feel that he hasn't used his full strength yet."

"Indeed, he hasn't." Jiang Ming nodded, "He has comprehended the Realm of Penetration, with his power concentrated in one point, achieving an extreme degree of piercing force."

"It's the Realm of Penetration? No wonder his spear technique is so fierce, giving me an eerie feeling." Long Aotian frowned, "But fortunately, it's not the Ultimate Point Realm, otherwise, Brother Jiang, you would be in danger!" "The Ultimate Point?" Jiang Ming straightened up.

"It's normal that you don't know about it because 99.9% of the martial artists in the world don't know about it." While Long Aotian hesitated for a moment, he then whispered, "This is a terrifying Realm, comparable to space and time. Although it does not belong to the Ten Great Intentions, according to the records in my family, if one comprehends this Realm, their attack power will become extremely terrifying, unparalleled in the world. There is no record of it on the internet, and even the major Martial Arts Universities do not introduce it. Only some ancient families have some records, because this Realm has not appeared for over a thousand years."

"That powerful?" Suddenly Jiang Ming remembered what the human-shaped lightning in Tianxuan Secret World had said, that there are fifteen Ultimate Realms.

Could it be that the Ultimate Point is one of them?

"Hmm!" Long Aotian nodded, "Once, I accidentally saw a sentence in my family's ancient books: among the Ten Great Intentions, the strongest in attack power is Penetration. The extreme of Penetration is the Ultimate Point. When the Ultimate Point comes out, it pierces through space and twists time! At that time, I was shocked and asked my grandfather, why is Penetration so terrifying, yet the Ultimate Point is not listed among the Ten Great Intentions?"

He stopped for a moment.

Jiang Ming suddenly clenched his fists and wanted to kick him away with one foot..

Chapter 123: Chapter 98: The First Kill, The Super Sensational Event That Shakes The Federation

The Ultimate Point Realm, this was the first time Jiang Ming had heard of it.

As for Penetration?

He knew about it, but he had not yet comprehended it.

Long Ao tian laughed and continued, "The universally recognized methods are the best; the ones that are publicized offer a chance to comprehend them. If it's not revealed, then it means this method is too difficult, beyond human ability."

"Space is difficult, but in the World of Secret Realm, it's relatively simple because it can break through space."

"Time is even more difficult, but when descending and returning from the World of Secret Realm, there is a chance to comprehend the Dao Resonance of time, although the probability is slim."

"Cause and Effect is also difficult, elusive and hard to predict, but some special Secret Realms of the World also involve it."

"As for the others, they are relatively easier. However, they are still difficult for ordinary people."

"As for the Ultimate Point?"

"This kind of supreme Dao power is truly unfathomable, without heavenly luck, one can't even touch the threshold."

"Unexpectedly, such a genius has appeared in the province, who has comprehended the Penetration Intention. This Qiang Jiu's background must be extraordinary, most likely, he appeared because of you, causing us trouble."

Long Aotian sighed.

"As a Tianjiao, one should have the pride of suppressing their peers. If one cannot suppress even the Penetration Intention, then can they be considered a genius!" Jiang Ming laughed.

He did, however, take note of the other's words.

Beyond the Ten Great Intentions, there are equally powerful existences. But because they are too difficult to comprehend, it's better to hide them away than to have everyone know about them and aim too high.

Because it is too difficult to comprehend.

Time still has hope.

But the Ultimate Point? According to Long Aotian, it is despair.

“Suppressing the same generation?” Long Aotian grinned, looking at Jiang Ming helplessly, “I used to have that kind of confidence, but now? I don’t even have half of that confidence! There are too many Tianjiao, countless monsters, and sigh futilely.”

“Little Dragon, you are already defeated like this? Wasted as a man!” Lan Xin snorted.

“Or, we switch places, and you become a man?”

“Get lost!”

The time slowly passed, and the preliminaries finally came to an end.

A figure appeared above the martial combat field, it was a woman, with a thousand kinds of grace in her frown and smile. She held a microphone and opened her vermilion lips, “Those who come to the martial combat field are the elite among elites, the geniuses among geniuses. They represent the future and hope. In this battle, whether they win or lose, they will become the backbone of our human race in the near future.”

She acknowledged the participating students significantly.

Even if they lost, they were still Unparalleled Geniuses with a bright future.

No one would deny that.

Because it was a fact.

“The competition just now was very exciting and brought us a visual feast. It also made us believe that with them in the future, our human race will become even more potent and prosper!”

“We have already selected the top ten contestants, and next, they will compete in the finals with the top ten from the Sea Election stage.”

“The real one-on-one competition!”

“The first will face the twentieth, the second will face the nineteenth, and so on and so forth!”

“A victory earns one point, defeat and a draw both earn zero points!”

“Next, we will have uninterrupted nineteen rounds of exciting battles, and in the end, we will choose the top five geniuses to represent our Tianzhong Province in the Federation Championship and compete for the final title of Martial Arts Champion!”

“Now, please look at the twenty contestants for the finals...”

She was passionate and full of infectious energy, and behind her appeared a myriad of rainbows, evolving into many beautiful scenes.

Finally, with a wave of her hand, there were colourful flow and purple qi, condensing into huge figures of Jiang Ming and others.

All revealed to the world.

At this moment, seventy percent of the people in Tianzhong Province cheered.

This was also the most anticipated segment.

The real contest of geniuses was about to begin.

Every year at this time, many girls would fall for them, and many young men would secretly make model dolls and hide them in their beds.

On the seats.

Looking at the huge portraits and the fantastic background, Jiang Ming’s blood was boiling.

“Glory does not belong to me!” Tian Tian beside him sighed.

Although she had been defeated, she still had the right to sit here and watch ‘live’.

“Jiang (student)!” She turned her head, her expression complicated.

“Hmm?” Jiang Ming looked at her.

“I really envy you guys!” Tian Tian said with complexity.

“No, I should be the one envying you!” Jiang Ming said.

“Why?” Tian Tian did not understand, “Being the top of the Sea Election and now the first place, receiving the attention of everyone, having a bright future and limitless prospects.”

“You have a family, I don’t; you can be pampered, I can’t; you have someone always caring for you, I don’t; you have family support, I don’t; you are an Unparalleled Genius, without risking your life you can step into the Martial Realm of the Third Level, but I have to go to the World Secret Realm risking my life after just stepping into the Martial Arts Second Realm. At that time, someone told me that entering the World Secret Realm at the age of eighteen without any significant combat training would likely result in me not coming back.” Jiang Ming said earnestly, “Tell me, should you envy me, or should I envy you?”

Tian Tian opened her mouth wide, her face flushed with shock, and she whispered, “Jiang... Jiang (student), I’m sorry.”

“To go against the current is to see a man’s character. Jiang (student), I like you more and more!” Lan Xin, who turned her head, admired him.

This “like” was evidently not “that” kind of like.

“If it were me...” Long Aotian smacked his lips, thought for a moment, and finally shook his head, “I can’t do it! Brother Jiang, I am not as good as you!”

Chapter 124: Chapter 98: The First Kill, The Super Sensational Event That Shakes The Federation !

He raised his fists in salute.

“Jiang Ming, you’re not alone, you have us!” Qin Zhiyan looked at the classmates beside her with an inexplicable sense of tenderness.

“That’s right, you have us too!” Long Aotian stretched out his hand.

“Let’s exchange contact information!” Lan Xin projected her info to him.

“And me!” Tian Tian’s voice was much weaker.

Jiang Ming smiled wryly.

He shook hands with Long Aotian and exchanged contact information.

Loneliness?

Perhaps there was, but it was far from what they could imagine.

Finally, the finals began.

“First match, Jiang Ming vs. Zhu Yuanyuan!”

“Please, both students enter the stage!”

As the host announced, a screen appeared before Jiang Ming with the word ‘Teleport’ on it and a ten-second countdown.

He tapped on the teleport, and the next moment he was in the martial combat field.

On the viewing platform, everyone's attention was instantly focused.

Outside, at the City Lord Mansion.

"It's starting!" Old Tang was a little excited.

"I'm looking forward to it too!" Old Song laughed, "Do you think the kid will win in an instant? The gap between first and twentieth place isn't small!"

"Let's see if the kid goes easy on her!"

"Hard, hard, hard. Once they've entered the World of Secret Realm, they'll be decisive. Go easy? Unless they're showing off, usually not!"

The two agreed on this point.

Without ruthless decisiveness, it would be impossible to achieve anything in the World of Secret Realm, unless one had heaven-defying luck.

"The final match is finally here!" Teacher Chen behind them was the most excited, his face even a little flushed, "Qin Zhiyan's strength has exceeded my imagination, so what about Jiang Ming? Finally, we can see his true strength."

"Yes, even though I'm decades older, I actually feel a sense of blood boiling excitement." Headmaster Chang was excited as well, "I wonder just how strong that boy is? Can he win this smoothly?"

"He can, he definitely can!" Mr. Chen was extremely confident.

In the school, excitement and anticipation filled the air.

"It's starting, it's finally starting!" Wang Fatty waved his hands and shouted, "Qin Zhiyan is my classmate, killing all directions; Jiang Ming is my deskmate, now he's finally appearing, he'll crush everything."

"Little brother, is Jiang Ming really your desk mate?" A refined-looking girl approached and spoke in a soft voice.

"Of course!" Wang Fatty's eyes lit up, and he puffed out his chest, "I even call him Little Ming, can you see how close we are?"

"Wow, closer than real gold!" the girl's interest grew, but she hesitated, "Could I, could I..."

“Of course, of course!” Wang Fatty quickly took out his phone, ready to exchange information with her.

“Really? That’s great, you’re such a nice person.” the girl was happy, “So, what’s his contact information?”

After that, seeing the girl leave, he ground his teeth: “That kid’s peach blossom luck must be counter to the heavens! Humph, but he won’t take calls from strangers. It’s more realistic to find me; find him? Don’t dream! Spit, spit, spit, isn’t that saying I’m not as good as him?”

“You’re really not as good as him!” A male student next to him couldn’t help laughing, “I’m so envious and jealous! Instant fame, and all kinds of girls flock to him – petite, cute, pure, sweet, etc. If it were me, I’d keep them all, change one every day.”

“One per day, the ultimate dream of men!” Wang Fatty couldn’t help showing a yearning expression, then suddenly snapped to attention, “Quick, look, it’s about to start. Wow, Jiang Ming’s opponent is a little girl. What do you think, will he crush her or roll her up?”

“Crush, crush, crush her to dust!”

“If he really does that, it’ll definitely be a super big event that shocks the federation!”

With cheers, excitement, and joking.

This was the life of a student.

In Pingyang City, Tianzhong Province, people from countless places among the Federation’s one hundred and eight provinces switched their livestream to Tianzhong Province to see how strong the top selection was.

In the martial combat field.

As Jiang Ming stood there, feeling the gazes from all directions, he remained unmoved. A screen appeared before him, allowing him to choose weapons.

A thirty-second countdown.

After thirty seconds, the battle would begin, whether they chose a weapon or not.

After some consideration, he chose a Green-light Sword, which instantly appeared behind him.

“Jiang, I’m Zhu Yuanyuan. Can we exchange contact information?” The girl on the opposite side suddenly asked, straightforwardly, “I know I’ll end here, but it’s such a pity not to get to know you, a genius. After all, there’s always something to gain from coming here.”

Jiang Ming was speechless.

I am considered a gain?

He was not stingy, though, and sent his own contact number to her.

“You’re so nice!” Zhu Yuanyuan narrowed her eyes, “Remember me, Zhu Yuanyuan. I’ve already sent you a message.”

Jiang Ming had already received it and naturally accepted her request.

At this moment, the countdown ended.

“Jiang, please give it your all!” Zhu Yuanyuan showed a serious expression, saluting with her long sword pointing to the ground.

Her figure surged with intense energy, accompanied by a gust of wind.

Wind’s Intentions.

Martial Arts Fourth Layer.

But she was just at the beginning!

The strength of this group of students was far beyond the previous batches.

“Please!”

Jiang Ming saluted, hesitated for a moment, and then released the Qi from within his body. It transformed into Yin-Yang Energy and formed a defensive barrier.

“Yin-Yang?” Zhu Yuanyuan gasped, then frowned in pain, “How am I supposed to attack that?”

She had a discerning eye.

The Yin-Yang Rotation of her opponent was clearly a very clever defensive tactic, no, a killing intent hidden within the defense.

She realized that Jiang Ming was letting her attack freely, while also conveying another message: If I make a move, you will lose any chance.

“I apologize for any offense!” Zhu Yuanyuan furrowed her brows and shouted, “With the wind, I rise like the great Roc, a thousand miles with a single flap, my song like a great windstrike...”

All of her spirit, qi, and mind fused into this one sword, exploding with an unparalleled brilliance.

Sword Intention surged, Sword Qi crisscrossed.

Amidst the raging wind, she soared into the air, her long sword turning into a streak of light, striking towards Jiang Ming.

The tip of the sword touched the Yin-Yang Tai Chi diagram, barely piercing three inches before it could no longer advance.

Zhu Yuanyuan’s expression changed, revealing disbelief.

Then as the barrier parted in front of her, she involuntarily plunged into the Yin-Yang Tai Chi diagram, filling her with fear.

For within, there was great terror.

The dreadful aura made her heart tremble, and in the next moment, she was engulfed by countless Sword Qi.

Zhu Yuanyuan’s vision turned dark, and when it cleared, she was back in her seat. She shuddered, her face white as a sheet.

“He’s terrifying!”

She was truly shocked.

“But he shows no mercy to women!”

Zhu Yuanyuan snorted softly, but her gaze at Jiang Ming was complex: “Just how powerful is he? He displays the Yin and Yang Realm right from the start, is it his strongest move? Impossible, absolutely impossible!”

Chapter 125: Chapter 99: Space Against the Ultimate Point,

The Strongest Showdown

Jiang Ming’s first battle shocked the whole world.

Many people showed expressions of disbelief.

That was the Yin-Yang Realm, one of the Ten Great Intentions. Anyone who comprehended one qualified to step into the pinnacle of martial arts.

In each generation, there might not even be one who could comprehend it in several realms.

But now, he easily demonstrated it.

“He really comprehended the Yin-Yang!” Long Aotian gritted his teeth, “How did he do it? He’s in high school, even if he entered the World of Secret Realm, after a few years of hard work, how could he comprehend such a heaven-defying realm! I know that if you want to comprehend Yin-Yang, you must first understand Taiyin and the Sun.”

“That’s why he’s the heaven-defying genius!” Lan Xin sighed, but her eyes were bright, “Jiang Ming could be a lifelong rival!”

“Yes, he could definitely be!” Long Aotian nodded solemnly, “Being in the same generation as him, I don’t know if it’s our luck or misfortune!”

Lucky because there was such a good opponent to constantly sharpen oneself; unlucky because with such an opponent, it would be almost impossible to dominate a generation.

City Lord Mansion!

“Yin-Yang Realm as his first move... This youngster is going against the heavens!” Elder Tang was shocked, “After experiencing two secret realms in a row, his mental strength is extraordinary, and I’m sure this is not his strongest move.”

“If this is just his ordinary move...” Elder Song also showed a look of disbelief, “How can he not be going against the heavens, he’s really shocking the world! There’s going to be a lot of fun to watch next, and I believe even more that he can suppress all the Tianjiao.”

“I still can’t believe it!”

“Who isn’t?”

The two elders couldn’t help but sigh. Behind them, Mr. Chen and Principal Chang were already dumbfounded.

“Yin-Yang Realm? Killing the opponent just by standing still? Principal, I’m not dreaming, am I?”

“Dreaming, I’m with you.”

“With whom?”

“Uh, spit, spit, spit, I misspoke. Just, just... It’s so unbelievable, Mr. Chen. One of our students has actually comprehended one of the Ten Great Intentions?! Has this ever happened in our city before?”

“Principal, you should ask if it has ever happened in our Tianzhong Province before.”

The two people fell silent.

Outside, the sensation was even greater.

Especially the people of Pingyang City, cheering endlessly because everyone in the martial arts knew what the Yin-Yang Realm represented.

It was obviously an upcoming rising dragon.

Martial combat field.

Jiang Ming also returned, sensing the resentful gaze from the distance, and turned his head to see Zhu Yuanyuan.

He smiled apologetically.

“You really don’t know how to be tender to girls!” Qin Zhiyan couldn’t help but laugh.

“I was just standing still!” Jiang Ming said innocently.

“I’m also going to stand still!” Long Aotian gave a thumbs up without looking back, and the figure disappeared.

Sea Election, he was second in the province.

Lan Xin was third.

“Standing still, with your move...” Lan Xin frowned, “I’m afraid I might not be able to break it. Brother Jiang, Yin-Yang Tai Chi, endless and constantly turning, represents an ultimate defense. But, I observed your Yin-Yang Tai Chi form, it seems that Qi can be transformed into Sword Qi at any moment, right? That’s also the key to killing Zhu Yuanyuan.”

“That’s correct!”

Jiang Ming was slightly surprised.

Hidden inside, rotating outside.

If not for her extremely keen insight, she would not have discovered that within the Tai Chi Yin and Yang, Qi could be transformed into a terrifying Yin-Yang Sword Qi Storm with his single thought.

This was the turbulence beneath the calm surface.

“Tai Chi Yin and Yang were originally for protection, but were transformed into Sword Qi. How did you do it?” Lan Xin’s knowledge was extraordinary, so she naturally knew the difficulty involved.

Yin and Yang were all about balance.

Once it was transformed into Sword Intention, how could it be maintained?

She waved her hand and said, “Wait for our battle, and I will experience it for myself!”

At this moment, Long Aotian returned.

“Too weak!” He bragged, “I couldn’t bear to kill her instantly, so I gave her five rounds. But our generation is quite something, the top twenty have all stepped into the Fourth Realm of Martial Arts. In previous years, it would be good to have one or two.”

“That’s what makes it interesting, isn’t it!” Lan Xin stood up, and the next moment she disappeared from sight, appearing on the battle platform.

Jiang Ming sat quietly.

He watched Long Aotian’s battle, and it was strong, very, very strong. The realm he comprehended was extremely special, it was the Suppression Realm.

If it wasn’t for his careful research of various True Meanings, and his keen perception, he might not have discovered it.

Suppression, was somewhat similar to Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure.

But it was much weaker. Coupled with his powerful physique, just relying on his fists, he could easily kill his opponent in several rounds.

It was really strong.

“His physical body is strong, and his cultivation level is also strong!”

“Suppression Realm, it should be a power that comes with the Dragon Bloodline, going up to the Emperor, the Overlord, the Supreme?”

Jiang Ming pondered.

This was a good opponent.

With a sudden thought, he looked over and saw Qiang Jiu shifting his gaze from Jiang Ming. He was not sitting, but standing upright, his chin raised, quite arrogant.

“It must be because I’m with me!”

Jiang Ming couldn’t help but laugh.

During the screening, he had watched almost every one of Qiang Jiu’s battles, especially when he fought Qin Zhiyan, displaying the Penetration Realm that amazed him.

At the same time, he was also considering whether he could comprehend the Penetration Realm.

Penetration, the Ultimate Point...

He was somewhat envious.

As he thought this, he looked at the battle platform.

Lan Xin was very strong, very, very strong. In Long Aotian’s words, although he achieved second place in the provincial Sea Election, he might not be able to beat her in a head-to-head battle..

Chapter 126: Chapter Ninety-Nine: The Ultimate

She radiated with thunderous lightning arcs all over her body, resembling a female God of Thunder descending to Earth, her force domineering and unstoppable as she ruthlessly annihilated her opponent.

Soon, she was teleported back.

“Brother Jiang, how was it?” Lan Xin asked with a smile.

“Amazing!” Jiang Ming raised a thumbs-up in approval.

“How long could I have lasted in your hands with the performance 1 just displayed?” Lan Xin inquired.

Long Aotian, Qin Zhiyan, Tian Tian, and the surrounding students all turned to look.

Jiang Ming simply smiled and kept silent.

“I see!” Lan Xin sighed, her fighting spirit surging, “This is what a real worthy opponent is! Brother Jiang, I can hardly wait!”

One by one, the duels continued.

In the ninth round, it was Qin Zhiyan’s turn.

She had ranked second in the selection, losing only to Qiang Jiu.

“She’s very strong, really strong!” Lan Xin acknowledged solemnly, “I have watched all of her battles, and she has improved in each one. Her mastery over water and fire integration is also getting more skillful. Just comprehending one of either Water path or Fire path is already extremely commendable, but she has managed to understand both and even grasp the path of fusion. Against her, I have absolutely no confidence in winning.”

“Neither do I!” Long Aotian agreed seriously, “Moreover, I feel that there is more to her Sword Intention, as if she is capable of showcasing even more formidable sword techniques. She is indeed a worthy opponent!”

“It’s a battle of dragons and tigers!”

“Win or lose!”

“Move forward or retreat!”

Long Aotian clenched his fists together, his strength erupting. Fortunately, a special force field was present to eliminate the impact of his collision.

Soon enough, Qin Zhiyan returned victorious.

She was the first student to have reversed the odds and broken into the top ten.

“How was it?” Qin Zhiyan looked at Jiang Ming, anticipation in her eyes.

“Very good, you have grown rapidly,” Jiang Ming said sincerely. “You’ve gained experience through battling and have grown steadily while being cautious. However, the top five are not guaranteed. As for the path of water and fire, I have some insights. Let me help you.”

As his words fell, he pointed right at Qin Zhiyan’s forehead.

She didn’t evade.

“Transmitting methods through thoughts? Damn!” Long Aotian swore, pointing at Jiang Ming with a trembling hand. “Are you...are you really a human?”

“Definitely not human!” Lan Xin couldn’t help laughing bitterly.

A single minute touch could reveal so much.

He was surprisingly also a soul cultivator, or rather a divine cultivator... a cultivator.

And his realm was not low.

“Little Dragon, are you still struggling?”

“How can I not struggle? I am a Dragon, a True Dragon bloodline!”

“But why is your face so terribly distorted?”

“Distorted? No, this is happiness. My muscles are in a frenzy, my skin is cheering, my heart jumping for joy.”

“Haha!”

Lan Xin couldn’t help but laugh.

Qin Zhiyan also absorbed what Jiang Ming had transmitted, her eyes filled with surprise. She didn’t say thank you, but simply stated, “I will make it into the top five!”

Jiang Ming nodded.

Being classmates for such a long time, they shared a good relationship. Naturally, he hoped that she would be able to go further. It was nothing for him to lend a helping hand.

In the next round, Qiang Jiu showcased even more dazzling skills, killing the student who was previously ranked tenth in just a few attacks.

Then, he looked at Jiang Ming and raised his eyebrows, full of provocation.

The duels continued, one after another, all of them extremely exciting.

In the second round, Jiang Ming stood still, the Yin and Yang rotating. He saw that his opponent was just skirting around the edge and attacking from the outside, so he had no choice but to expand the Yin-Yang Tai Chi Diagram suddenly, trapping his opponent within.

After that, there was no more ‘after that.’

In the following rounds, no one was able to break his Yin-Yang Tai Chi Diagram.

Simply by standing still, he defeated all the geniuses.

Finally, he once again found himself facing an opponent on the top.

His opponent was Qin Zhiyan.

“Brother Jiang, please show me the way!” Qin Zhiyan cupped her fist in one hand.

“Let’s pit fire against fire and water against water!” Jiang Ming also gestured back, saying this while his Qi gushed out, his water-fire realm merged within it. As it rotated, it formed a Tai Chi shape once again.

Only this time, it was formed by the power of water and fire.

“Thank you!” Qin Zhiyan showed a grateful expression.

Jiang Ming’s water-fire Tai Chi diagram suddenly expanded, covering a range of a hundred meters, trapping her within it.

Only then did Qin Zhiyan move. In the face of the Sword Qi, she defended while also sensing the trajectory of the Sword Qi, along with the hidden Dao Resonance of water and fire around her.

She knew that Jiang Ming was transmitting his technique to her, so naturally, she seized the opportunity, completely immersing herself in it, tangling with the Sword Qi that Jiang Ming had created.

This sight stunned quite a few people.

“Publicly transmitting techniques on the battle platform, wow, they’re even showing affection before the entire Federation. Brother Jiang is amazing. This kind of romance is simply unheard of. Coupled with transmitting techniques, wouldn’t Miss Qin be completely devoted?” Long Aotian’s eyes glowed with excitement. “I’ve learned, really learned a lot.”

“There’s not a single good man out there. However, Miss Qin does have feelings for him, but Brother Jiang seems indifferent.” Lan Xin huffed.

“Brother Jiang seems indifferent?” Long Aotian looked surprised and then shook his head, “Impossible, absolutely impossible! Miss Qin is sweet and unrivaled in her exquisite beauty, has a top-notch figure, and is a martial arts prodigy. How could Brother Jiang not be moved by her? Moreover, how would you know for sure?”

“Never underestimate a woman’s intuition,” Lan Xin huffed again. “Brother Jiang must have had a complex experience in the Secret Realm World.”

“Did he start a harem?” Long Aotian was excited.

“You pig!” Lan Xin was speechless, but then frowned, “Haven’t you noticed yet? Brother Jiang has fused the power of water and fire to the extreme. Even though he has the Way of Yin and Yang, it’s still incredible. Also, the range of his Qi is too wide, isn’t it? Covering a hundred meters in all directions, the Qi still remains extremely dense, evolving into endless Sword Qi. Just how profound is his Qi capacity? To what extent has he opened up his Dantian Space?”

“The top ten realms do indeed have Heaven-Defying effects, and moreover...” Long Aotian looked serious, “He has entered the Fifth Realm of the Martial Arts and has opened up his acupoints, which is why his Qi volume is terrifyingly high..”

Chapter 127: Chapter Ninety-Nine: The Ultimate

Showdown at the Poles of Space_3

Fifth Level. Yin and Yang Realm of comprehension. Who can withstand that? Lan Xin couldnt help but shake her head.

City Lord Mansion.

Mr. Chen, are they both in love now?

In love? Arent they practicing right now?

No, I mean, are they both in a romantic relationship? I mean, they are facing the whole Federation, and they are passing techniques to each other in public. This is really, really Principal Chang, their relationship shouldnt be romantic! Before the Martial Exam, Qin Zhiyan was always the Class Monitor, and she was good to her classmates. She has also given guidance to many students. As for Jiang Ming? He has always been insignificant.

Jiang should have had deep admiration for her, but he used to be inferior in cultivation, so he felt inferior. Now, after his meteoric rise, hes confident to give Miss Qin a romantic surprise. It must be like this, definitely like this. Thats excellent, really excellent. Golden boy and Jade girl, talented man and beautiful woman, a perfect match made in heaven!

Mr. Chens mouth twitched as he listened.

She knew the situation; before, Jiang Ming and Qin Zhiyan were just classmates.

As for now?

It seemed quite possible.

After all, geniuses attract each other.

The outside world.

The weaker ones only feel the two fighting fiercely, while the stronger ones naturally see through their tactics. For a time, the world was in an uproar, and countless young girls were envious to death.

Showcasing their love in front of the whole world.

What could be more romantic than this?

If this happened to me, I'd be willing to die for it.

This reflected the thoughts of many people.

This is truly the highest level of winning a girl's heart! Many boys' eyes were full of passion, but then they shook their heads one after another, But we can't afford this game, even if we have money!

Martial combat field.

Qin Zhiyan received further instructions from Jiang Ming and immediately tested them in her Water and Fire Path, so her progress was clearly seen.

Her Water-Fire Realm became increasingly stronger.

Her swordsmanship became smoother and more potent.

Finally, she stopped, her face flushed, looking at Jiang Ming with a grateful gleam in her eyes, she whispered, Isn't this too much?

We haven't broken any rules! Jiang Ming smiled, It should be okay now. As long as you don't make mistakes, getting into the top five shouldn't be a problem.

Thank you! Qin Zhiyan whispered and then conceded defeat voluntarily.

The two left.

On their seats.

Brother Jiang, I am impressed! You're really awesome. Long Aotian gave him a thumbs up, I dare say that in the future, some students will learn from you guys, and some girls will force the boys to put on a show like this.

Whoever does this for me will be my true love. Tian Tian held her cheeks, looked at Jiang Ming, then at Qin Zhiyan, pouting her lips.

Jiang Ming was speechless.

Long Aotian laughed and was teleported away.

Qin Zhiyan beside him blushed again.

It was just a small incident.

Finally, Jiang Ming took the stage once more.

I've been waiting for you! Qiang Jiu carried his silver spear backward, staring at Jiang Ming. His whole body was full of energy, ready to pierce the sky, shattering the sun and the moon.

The fierce aura was terrifying.

But then he frowned and was filled with anger, You're humiliating me!

No, I'm learning from you! This time, Jiang Ming changed his weapon, holding a long spear in his hand.

The spear shook, and innumerable spear flowers appeared in mid-air.

Ripples seemed to surge through space.

Space Power! Qiang Jiu's pupils shrank, filled with excitement, People say that Space is king, Time is supreme, but The Ultimate Point is the most potent ultimate attack power! Unfortunately, I've only comprehended the lower realm Penetration of The Ultimate Point. Today, let me borrow your hand to stimulate my potential.

I hope you can comprehend The Ultimate Point, so I can witness what is called the most potent ultimate attack power! Jiang Ming held the long spear in his hand, and his aura also condensed to the extreme. It was incredibly fierce.

The two's momentum collided, and it was clear that Qiang Jiu was at a disadvantage, an absolute disadvantage.

Jiang Ming's imposing power had been suppressed by a few points.

You really look down on me! Qiang Jiu was even angrier.

Fine! I look down on you!

If you don't give face, then fight, fight fiercely, and trample him with your feet!

Arrogant! Being the Top Selection in Sea Election? Today, I will step on you! Qiang Jiu was extremely unyielding. As his voice had not even fallen, his long spear had already attacked.

Fast as a meteor.

The sharpness penetrated everything..

Chapter 128: Chapter 100: Building an Invincible Path

The whole world was in an uproar, shaking with shock.

What did they just see?

Jiang Ming had actually comprehended the Spatial Realm.

This was the realm of space, considered the force of a king. Even a touch of understanding could elevate combat power to an alarming degree.

This kid is really defying the heavens! Elder Tang was taken aback, Yin and Yang, space, each carries the profound resonance of Dao, understanding even a little of these will provide endless benefits. He has actually comprehended two. 1 knew he had extremely high comprehension, unrivaled in the world, but reaching this level is beyond imagination.

Indeed! Elder Song was also shocked, But, he demonstrated this in the Provincial Examination to deal with the Penetration Intention, what does this imply?

It implies that this is not his trump card. Elder Tang couldn't help but grin, He hasn't mastered the other ten great intentions, has he?

The two looked at each other and arrived at the same conclusion.

Yes, he must have!

The Provincial Examination is not the end, moreover without pressure, he had no need to use his strongest abilities but Jiang Ming still did.

Where there is something extraordinary, there must be a secret.

Not just the two of them were shocked.

Everyone in the federation who was watching Jiang Mings battle was startled, and news was spreading at breakneck speed.

In all the live streams, people were as excited as if injected with chicken blood, full of praise.

First Yin and Yang, then space, my god, is this real? In previous Martial Exams, mastering one would already make you a strong contender for Martial Arts Champion, but hes mastered two.

Is he going against the heavens?

Do you think, is he unrivalled in the world?

Is he going to suppress his generation?

Is he unique in all times?

Genius, demon, Tianjiao, they all succumb under Yin and Yang and space!

I dare to predict that he will certainly be hailed as Martial Arts Supreme in the future, he will become a Martial Arts King!

Do you know what is the most amazing thing about him?

Hes from a common background just like us, without any background or resources, leading a mundane life, day by day. But once he stepped into the Martial Arts Second Realm, he had the qualifications to enter the World of Secret Realm, and instantly rose like a dragon.

The live room fell silent.

It was banned.

For inciting fans to take risks?

The host looked at the reminder and couldnt help but curse out loud: shit!

Everything I said is the truth!

If we dont take risks, would we have any chance!

Once the host calmed down, he sighed.

At the martial combat field.

Space?! Long Aotian stood up abruptly, his mouth dropping open, and then turned to look at Lan Xin, asking in confusion, Is he really an eighteen-year-old high school student?

I suspect hes the reincarnation of some old monster, Lan Xin stared absentmindedly, At eighteen, he has comprehended two of the top ten intentions, this? It breaks the norm, its beyond conventional.

Yes, if it was those immortal second generations, it would be possible. After all, they receive limitless opportunities right from birth, but Jiang Ming Long Aotian slowly sat down again, From what we guess, hes entered the World Secret Realm at most twice. Entering low-level Secret Realms wouldnt provide him with enough opportunities to grow to this extent!

Who knows! Lan Xin sighed, Even if hed hidden his abilities, I almost lost all confidence to compete with him. Its quite a blow.

Same here! Long Aotian gave a bitter smile, I had initially hoped to compete with him, but now it seems even more impossible.

The one whos been hit the hardest is probably Qiang Jiu! Lan Xin quickly composed herself, looking at the battlefield with a sinister smile, This kid, either came from a special Secret Realm or is the descendant of a powerful warrior. Hes always been arrogant and unruly, aiming to take down Jiang Ming. Now, facing two of the top ten intentions, I have a feeling hes going to cry!

Hes not crying, instead hes angry, haha, it looks even worse than crying. Long Aotian let out a sigh of relief, feeling a bit gloating.

Qin Zhiyan to the side was staring with fiery eyes.

Tian Tians small mouth gaped open with a shock, her red tongue involuntarily moving around.

Zhu Yuanyuan lost her composure.

Not many were able to stay composed.

On the battlefield!

Watching Qiang Jius attack, feeling the unrivaled penetrative force concentrated at the tip of his spear, Jiang Ming showed a stern expression for the first time.

With a flick of his spear, he blocked an attack as quick as lightning.

Spear tip against spear tip.

A moment of stillness.

The force of the collision turned into ripples, visible to the naked eye as it swept all around. Within a short distance, a destructive storm was whipped up. Qiang Jiu's face changed color, and he hastily retreated, stopping only when he was a hundred meters away.

You actually know spear techniques! His face was truly unpleasant.

He thought Jiang Ming was targeting him.

I made my name with the spear, and you're using a spear too?

Even a smack in the face should not be done like this!

Knowing one method illuminates a thousand others, there's nothing surprising about that. Jiang Ming twirled his spear and said to his opponent, Your Penetration Intention does indeed have its merits, it condenses the pinnacle of power, can penetrate everything, nothing can block it, it is definitely the nemesis of defense secret skills.

As for spear techniques?

He had encountered quite a few, though he had never practiced them, he had deduced them.

Just like he said, knowing one method illuminates a thousand others.

Though he hadn't practiced, it doesn't mean he didn't master it.

Jiang Ming also discovered that the opponent's Penetration Intention, while not in the top ten intentions, was indeed very powerful.

After a single collision, his heart finally had an idea, had a sense of it.

Dare you defend with Yin and Yang? Qiang Jiu snorted coldly.

Why wouldn't I? Jiang Ming laughed.

No matter how strong the Penetration Intention was, it was beneath the ten great intentions.

Hummm

The next moment, the power of Yin and Yang emerged from body, forming the Tai Chi Yin and Yang Diagram. Yin and Yang circulated like fish, tail to head, in an endless cycle, never stopping..

Chapter 129: Chapter 100: Building an Invincible Path_2

“Please!”

Jiang Ming held the spear in his right hand behind his back and raised his left hand to signal.

“Arrogant!” Qiang Jiu’s eyebrow raised, and his anger flared up.

He always believed that the Intention of Penetration’s attack power was unparalleled, especially when dealing with defense, it was always advantageous. The opponent’s stance clearly showed his disdain for him.

“A Point of Cold Light Breaking Nine Heavens!”

Surges of Qi emerged from within Qiang Jiu’s body, transforming into silver cold light and merging into the spear. In the next moment, it shot out.

The man and spear formed a straight line.

This was Man and Spear As One.

Moreover, both the spear and the body were enveloped by the spear’s intention, and the silver light protected the body, forming a conical shape, with the power converging at the spear’s tip.

The extreme power seemed to cause a subtle distortion in space, and in the blink of an eye, it pierced into the Yin-Yang Tai Chi diagram.

The speed was too fast, leaving trails of real afterimages.

It wasn’t until ripples appeared in the Yin-Yang Tai Chi diagram that many spectators realized Qiang Jiu had acted. This speed made many people feel shocked and turned pale.

The Intention of Penetration brought extreme speed.

The cold light flashed, and it disappeared without a trace.

Ding, ding, ding...

Yin and Yang rotated, releasing countless Sword Qi, which defended, slaughtered, twisted and turned, and borrowed power to strike, all integrated into the Sword Qi.

In an instant, the Sword Qi collided with the spear hundreds of times.

The extreme speed rapidly decreased.

The Gang Qi protective layer around Qiang Jiu's body quickly weakened.

Seeing that the spear's tip was about three feet away from Jiang Ming's body, Qiang Jiu's face suddenly looked terrible.

Even though they were still moving forward and the speed was fast, he knew it was no longer possible.

His Penetration Power had been weakened to the extreme and lost its sharpness. And next...

Just as Qiang Jiu prepared to burst out again, his pupils shrank. He saw countless tiny Sword Qi in front of him, merging into an arched Sword Qi over one meter long, descending onto him. The terrifying power transmitted over and blasted him away, landing over 300 meters away.

After Qiang Jiu stabilized himself, he looked down and saw his clothes torn, with a diagonal cut on his chest, almost bisecting him.

"Why?" Qiang Jiu grew even more furious.

There was a long sword mark that only tore the skin and oozed blood.

Showing mercy during a battle was humiliating to him.

"You're amazing. Truly amazing. Your spear intent sent chills down my spine, and all my energy was focused on countering your spear intent. Although I had enough energy to counterattack, I didn't have enough power, and unfortunately, it's a pity. If you were just a bit stronger, you'd be cut in half!" Jiang Ming expressed his regret.

Only he knew the truth about the situation.

However, he was still envious of the Intention of Penetration.

The attack was too fast, and the penetrating force was terrifying. If it were a battle between equals, the opponent would likely be killed before they had a chance to react.

"Really?" Qiang Jiu was skeptical.

“Really!” Jiang Ming’s face was serious, he shook his spear and aimed at his opponent, “Up next, I’ll use Space Power, which is the strongest attack. Qiang Jiu, be careful!”

“Strongest attack?” Qiang Jiu smirked, “Let’s try it and see who’s the strongest.”

He attacked again.

“Shadow Escape, Spear Shadows in All Directions!”

Qiang Jiu’s figure suddenly twisted, as if disappearing into thin air. In the next moment, numerous spear shadows appeared around Jiang Ming and launched a terrifying attack.

As the figure twisted, the spear shadows directly formed a circle surrounding Jiang Ming.

This was extreme speed that shocked the spectators.

Long Aotian abruptly stood up.

Lan Xin’s face changed.

Qin Zhiyan clenched her fists.

Tian Tian’s face was full of uncertainty.

Zhu Yuanyuan’s face turned pale.

“What would you do?” Long Aotian stared at the battlefield intensely.

“Although I have comprehended the Thunder Realm, it seems that my speed is still a bit slower than his. In this situation, I can only passively defend, but I may not be able to defend it unless...” Lan Xin frowned, “I don’t hide anymore. Even so, I may not be his opponent.”

“This youngster is excessively strong! The Intention of Penetration is already powerful, but his mastery of the Art of Spear is also overly fierce. The spear family, I’m familiar with it, but I can’t remember it,” Long Aotian frowned, “Lan Xin, which powerful spear family members are there in our Tianzhong Province?”

“I have a vague impression. It seems that there’s an ancient spear family. Wait, let me ask...” Lan Xin thought but couldn’t remember, so she tried to contact someone outside.

A moment later, she received the news.

“Indeed, there’s such a family. They keep a low profile and don’t show themselves. They’re a Hidden Major Clan that has opened up their own Blessed Land of Pocket World, hidden in the Void,” Lan Xin said, unable to help but gasp, “No wonder he’s so terrifying at just fourteen or fifteen years old. His spear art is unmatched, and his Intention of Penetration incomparable.”

“Unexpectedly, the provincial examination produced a Strong Second Generation,” Long Aotian grinned, “The United Federation competition will definitely be livelier.”

“Aren’t you also a Strong Second Generation!”

“What kind of Strong Second Generation am I? Alas, my old man said that if I can’t make it to the final Grand Examination, he’ll whip me with the Dragon Blood Whip forty-nine times.”

“Holy shit, forty-nine whips? Won’t that turn you into mincemeat!” Lan Xin’s eyes widened.

“That’s why I often say that my family’s Old Man is inhumane. He said that if I can endure it, it’s a fortune; if I can’t, I’ll go back to my mother’s womb and be reincarnated!”

“Oh, my God!” for the best novel reading experience

Lan Xin couldn’t help but curse repeatedly, and then looked at him with sympathy.

Long Aotian smirked.

“And you don’t worry?” Lan Xin asked strangely..

Chapter 130: Chapter 100: Building an Invincible Path_3

Worried? Long Aotian gave a self-mocking smile. If I really cant get into the top five, Lan Xin, on this day next year, burn me some paper money in memory of our childhood friendship and pour me a drink.

Dream on! If you want a drink, go buy it yourself! Lan Xin snorted but revealed a worried look.

Hey, hey, hey, when youre my opponent, dont go easy on me, okay? Otherwise, Ill die even more miserably. Long Aotian suddenly reacted and quickly warned, You know how that old man in my family is. He doesnt tolerate any nonsense.

That old man Lan Xin couldnt help but curse.

Ding Ding Ding-bender

On the battlefield, the sounds of collisions were endless. The clash of the two spears produced sparks at such a fast speed that they merged into a sea of fire. At the center of the spears shadow, Jiang Ming stood still.

Fast speed?

He had comprehended wind, thunder, light, the state of mind of speed, and even space. Which of these wasn't fast? For the best novel reading experience

With his divine comprehension of various realms after baptism and the reaction of the Divine Fifth Layers nerves and the Soul Dominators nerves, his response far surpassed the imagination of others.

Although Qiang Jiu was fast, it was entirely within Jiang Mings control.

Jiang Ming stood still, his spear spinning around, defending against attacks from the front, back, left, right, and even above him without stopping.

And every time he attacked, it was always spear tip against spear tip.

He never made a single mistake.

Suddenly, the sky full of spear shadows disappeared, and Qiang Jiu retreated to a distance, looking at Jiang Ming with disbelief in his eyes.

You, you, how did you do it? His voice was somewhat hoarse.

I did it by standing still! Jiang Ming replied honestly.

I, I, I Qiang Jiu really wanted to curse.

He had always been invincible among his peers.

His spear shocked both gods and demons. Even many of the powerful in the Martial Arts Fifth Layer had fallen under his hands.

He had always been proud of his offense and speed and was even more confident.

But today, he had some doubts.

At the same level of power, his attack was blocked by his opponent, and his speed was restrained by his opponent.

I have comprehended the ultimate understanding of penetration through my spear, making me the Unparalleled Pride of Heaven, unequalled among peers. Qiang Jius face changed continuously. Then, he swung his long spear, stirring up the sky and clouds, revealing his craziness. I came into this world to suppress all the geniuses in the world. Hearing that you, a commoner, got the top selection, I applied to join the Martial Exam just to step on you. You will be the starting point for my invincible martial path!

This is just the beginning!

The Peak of Martial Arts and the Starry Sky and Ten Thousand Worlds are waiting for me!

How can I stop here!

Jiang Ming, watch me kill you!

His roaring voice echoed in the martial combat field and resounded throughout the one hundred and eight provinces of the federation, officially announcing his arrival and his determination of the invincibility of his martial path.

His momentum kept rising, and a long shadow of a spear appeared above him, reaching into the vast expanse, as if it was tearing the virtual battlefield apart. Shadowless Spear, Lethal Kill!

As his voice fell, he suddenly attacked with invincible power.

Qiang Jiu focused his eyes, and his powerful willpower and invincible thoughts were all integrated into his spear. He didn't move but simply thrust his spear in the air. They were a hundred meters apart, making it a simple move.

Jiang Mings pupils shrank as he sensed a threat.

This spear

Qiang Jiu stood still, the tip of his spear unmoving. A hundred meters apart, an extremely sharp power seemed to penetrate the void and come close to him.

What a Shadowless Spear!

With a flash of light, he stabbed his spear, which contained an incredibly powerful space power, at the tip.

Star-Pointing Spear, Break!

Jiang Mings power also converged to the extreme, blocking the lethal blow.

Bang

The void exploded, setting off an endless surge..

Chapter 131: Chapter 101: All Beings Are Buried, The True Dragon Battle Body

The needle points to the wheat awns.

The invisible cold light is shattered by Jiang Ming, causing the energy torrent to surge like a tide. The scene is terrifying.

The spear has no god, and all living beings will be buried!bender

Upon seeing his spear fail to land an attack, Qiang Jiu steps down and suddenly leaps a hundred meters into the air. His spear hovers in mid-air with an unbeatable momentum, triggering his Secret Skill. Immediately, countless spear auras appear around him.

From above, it looks as if heavy rain has arrived or a shower of meteors is about to fall.

The scene is incredibly grand.

The application of understanding to the realm

Jiang Ming raises his head and narrows his eyes, his expression filled with excitement.

Qiang Jiu has taken the Intention of Penetration to the extreme, far beyond Jiang Mings understanding. Is this a higher-level weaving?

Weaving? This is his metaphor.

Like a fist technique, an ordinary punch cannot even deliver ones full strength, while a powerful fist technique can cause ones entire strength to explode at one point, naturally making it powerful.

The most ingenious thing is the amplification of strength, where one part of the force can produce ten times the intensity.

The same is true for a realm of comprehension.

Up until now, Jiang Ming has only managed to perfectly use the power of the realm, but he is still unable to harness the power beyond it, while Qiang Jiu's spear has achieved it.

Using spear technique to drive the amplification of the realm, this path

His heart surges with excitement.

As the spear is swung in mid-air, it seems as if the sky is divided into two, opening the galaxy and separating heaven and earth. The countless spear auras twist and make it difficult for a genuine attack to land.

At this point, Qiang Jiu turns upside down, Man and Spear As One attack while the endless spear auras quickly fuse into the tip of the spear, increasing his momentum.

This spear is truly extraordinary, but, it's not enough! for the best novel reading experience

Jiang Ming frowns, and with a swing in mid-air, Spatial Warping forms on the tip of the spear, transforming it into a black hole that sends Qiang Jiu flying away.

As the force of the collision spreads, another power appears on his body, faintly visible before it converges.

Intention of Penetration, comprehended.

Time to end this!

Having gained what he wanted from his opponent, Jiang Ming has no more interest in continuing. During the fight, he has been suppressing his own strength.

Otherwise, Qiang Jiu, although strong, would not have been able to hold on for so long.

But this guy is truly powerful.

An icy glint reaches the horizon far away!

Jiang Ming suddenly throws his spear, and in a flash, it seems to traverse space, suddenly appearing in front of Qiang Jiu.

Not good!

Qiang Jiu is greatly alarmed.

As fast as his reactions are, he ultimately cannot escape the spear and is pierced through the heart on the spot.

Just with understanding of the realm, I can attack along the Space Veins, just like space jumping, its hard even for me to react in time. Jiang Ming, among my peers, I willingly call you the strongest!

When the Federation finals come, I will be sure to defeat you!

Qiang Jiu grabs the spear, staring at Jiang Ming, then loses his breath and is subsequently teleported away.

Jiang Ming smiles and disappears from the battlefield, returning to his seat.

Cheers erupt from the onlookers.

Its an extraordinarily exciting fight.

Indeed, its unparalleled in excitement. The Intention of Penetration, Yin and Yang Realm, and Spatial Realm of this battle are more exciting and blood-boiling than the previous Federation Grand Finals.

Awesome! I admire you! Long Aotian turns his head to look and gives Jiang Ming a thumbs up, Qiang Jiu with all his strength, yet easily killed by you. No, you couldve easily killed him from the start, why hold on for so long? After all, youve only spent time with Qin Zhiyan from the beginning, and all other opponents were extinguished in an instant.

Is it because you want to understand the Penetration Realms traits in detail, Brother Jiang, am I correct? Lan Xin chimed in.

Yes! Jiang Ming admits, After all, its my first time facing such an extreme power.

Extreme? Isnt Yin and Yang considered extreme? Isnt space considered extreme? Lan Xin experiences a toothache, then raises an eyebrow and says, During the battle with Qiang Jiu, you never moved, did you?

Didnt move? Long Aotian comes to his senses, his eyes bulge, and then grins, Damn, thats more than just amazing; its incredible. Theyre not on the same level. If Qiang Jiu had reacted, Im afraid

He looks over.

He happens to see Qiang Jiu looking this way, his face full of astonishment, followed by distorted expressions, then grief, anger, and finally a defeated sigh.

Obviously, he thought of it! Lan Xin says, trying to suppress her laughter.

All those changing expressions just now, it sure was unpredictable! Long Aotian laughs, and then gets teleported away.

His next fight is up!

Jiang Ming watches quietly, but his mind is split in two, also silently replaying Qiang Jius spear technique and contemplating the Penetration Intention.

Meanwhile, he keeps competing on stage.

Finally, Lan Xin becomes his opponent.

Brother Jiang, please go all out and grant me a defeat! Lan Xin makes a salute, looking very serious.

Trying to beat him seems too far-fetched, so its better to enjoy a fight wholeheartedly.

Please! Jiang Ming raises his hand to signal.

He carries a long sword on his back, his demeanor indifferent.

Then I will be going all out. I will not hold back in any way, and have Brother Jiang witness my true strength! As Lan Xins words fall, bolts of lightning surround her body.

Electric arcs shoot out in all directions, extending tens of meters away.

The destructive breath is terrifying.

This isnt just the Thunder Scenario! Jiang Mings pupils contract, making a judgment in no time.

He has mastered the Thunder Scenario too.

The power of the realm alone would not produce such terrifying phenomena.

Exactly, I have awakened the Thunder Power! Lan Xin clenches her fist, and her long blade spews lightning, its power overwhelming and domineering..

Chapter 132: Chapter 101: All Beings Buried, True Dragon Battle Body_2

Her breath also surged in succession.

“Special abilities, lightning?” Jiang Ming was very surprised, “Since you have such abilities, why are you still in high school?”

Those who awaken special abilities are usually taken away for special training. As a result, it is difficult to see such geniuses in the Provincial Examination. “My family says that the path of ordinary students can shape good character and improve cognition,” Lan Xin smiled, “Besides, although the special training camp is good, my family can provide the corresponding conditions. So, my cultivation is not slow, and my thunder ability is even sealed during normal times.”

“Your family is really enlightened!”

“So I am very fortunate to have many good friends! Brother Jiang, I won’t hold back!”

“Please!”

“Thunderstorm Crazy Knife, chop, chop, chop!”

Lan Xin leaped into the air, and her long blade spewed out more than 30 meters of blade Qi, surrounded by thunder, and arc flashes, as if the God of Thunder had descended to the world.

God of Thunder?

Jiang Ming looked up, and his eyes fluttered: If she held a hammer, she might really look like a female God of Thunder.

“Brother Jiang, you are actually lost in thought!” Lan Xin in mid-air was looking carefully, and couldn’t help but raise a flame of anger in her heart.

She was a martial artist who had comprehended the Thunder Realm.

Pinnacle Realm of the Fourth Level.

She also had awakened the innate lightning abilities.

When facing Qiang Jiu, she nearly ended up with both sides losing, but now she was being ignored.

This was unbearable!

The blade light suddenly shrank, all condensed on the blade edge, making the power of this knife terrifying to the extreme, and it could be clearly seen that the void was divided into two.

Jiang Ming opened his mouth to explain, but then thought there was no need.

Clang...

The long sword behind him jumped out and landed in his hand, and he swung it mid-air, spraying out the sword Qi that also flickered with lightning.

Moreover, the sword Qi condensed and turned into a human-shaped lightning. "The boundlessness of human-shaped lightning!"

As soon as the sword technique came out, the oppression dominated the surroundings. The condensed sword light turned into human-shaped lightning, which was enlightened by stimulating the secret realm world's human-shaped lightning.

It contained violent destructive power.

It was the evolution of another form of the sixteenth sword.

As soon as this sword came out, it seemed like thousands of calamitous waves converged, splitting Lan Xin in mid-air and flying away, landing far away.

After stabilizing, she looked at Jiang Ming and revealed an inconceivable look: "You actually comprehended the Thunder Scenario, and even perfected it. How is that possible? How much energy do you have?"

"No, no, not right, you actually evolved human-shaped lightning with sword skill!"

"That is the recorded power that broke the limit of power in the World of Secret Realm and pioneered the martial arts in ancient times, breaking through the world's blockade and coming down to face the trial!"

"Every human-shaped lightning is at the pinnacle of a certain realm, and it is impossible to defeat within the same realm."

"No, it can be defeated, but the hope is too slim!"

“You actually evolved such a sword technique. Does it mean that you have fought against human-shaped lightning and won?”

“Only in this way can you break the iron law and break the shackles, making you such a demon!”

Lan Xin’s speed of speech became faster and faster, and her expressions kept changing, and in the end, only admiration was left.

She was truly impressed.

“Brother Jiang, please teach me!” Lan Xin bowed solemnly and then flew up again. The knife in her hand carried the Thunder Power, slashing mountains and moons, and was extremely fierce.

Jiang Ming was still standing still, his long sword spinning around, deducing the thunder technique, and grappling with the opponent, while constantly evolving human-shaped lightning.

He understood the other party’s meaning.

That was to ask him for guidance, and he didn’t mind, and at the same time took advantage of this battle to learn the wisdom and skills hidden in the other party’s knife technique.

Their fascinating fight could be seen on the viewing platforms and has already boiled in the outside world.

City Lord Mansion!

“Yin and Yang, space, water and fire, the art of spear, and now even the way of thunder, this kid is really a demon, extremely demonic!” Elder Song exclaimed in amazement, his face showing incredulity, “The most unbelievable thing is that he evolved human-shaped lightning, containing destructive power, his wisdom is against the heavens.”

“Yeah, against the heavens!” Elder Tang was also shocked.

He had seen too many geniuses, but compared to Jiang Ming, they were nothing.

“I have a discerning eye, and one Peiyuan Pill has made a true dragon!” Elder Tang was proud.

“It’s true!” Elder Song nodded, “If it weren’t for your Peiyuan Pill to build a foundation for him, saving time, there would be no shocking Martial Arts College Entrance Exam that made him soar to the heights.”

“Without me, he would still soar to the heights!” Elder Tang said, “This kind of genius and talent is rare in a thousand years.”

“Rare in a thousand years!” Elder Song deeply agreed, “I am looking forward to his future performance.”

Not only was he looking forward to it.

Countless people were also looking forward to it.

Without realizing it, the live broadcast of Jiang Ming from across the 108 Provinces occupied an absolute share.

It was truly a world-renowned battle in an instant.

On the battlefield.

As Lan Xin kept attacking, she also understood the subtlety of Jiang Ming’s evolution of human-shaped lightning, and the more excited she got, the deeper her understanding of the Way of Thunder became.

Jiang Ming showed a strange expression.

“Although I have evolved human-shaped lightning, which contains terrifying destructive power and has a very strong path of destruction, it is only one strike.”

“If only human-shaped lightning could be preserved... like the one in the secret realm world...”

“True Qi Transformation!”

Jiang Ming’s spirit shook.

This was a concept he saw in fantasy literature in his previous life.

True Qi permeated the body and formed a human shape, possessing a certain degree of spirit nature.

He shook his head.

He didn’t need to think about how difficult it would be, even if it was successful, it would not be accomplished in a short time, and he could try it later when he had time..

In the end, Lan Xin retreated in defeat.

Jiang Ming still had one final battle, and it was the one the audience was most looking forward to.

His opponent was Long Aotian.

Not long after, he once again stood on the martial combat field.

“Brother Jiang, could you tell me if there’s anything you don’t know?” Long Aotian asked, “In the previous battles, you demonstrated the Way of Yin and Yang, defeating numerous geniuses without even moving; when facing Miss Qin, you illustrated the Water and Fire Path, teaching her on the spot; against the absolute genius Qiang Jiu, you revealed the Space Art and showed an astoundingly strong combat power; when Lan Xin appeared, you even comprehended the Thunder Realm, and developed the unparalleled move of human-shaped lightning.”

“Brother Jiang, I feel like we became friends at first sight!”

“Can you give me some guidance as well?”

“I also want to improve further!”

“After all, I’ll soon face the geniuses from the entire Federation, and I’m not confident enough!”

Long Aotian looked at him with hope.

He even appeared somewhat ingratiating.

He defeated Qin Zhiyan and fought fiercely against Qiang Jiu, losing narrowly but also shattering half of Qiang Jiu’s body.

In his words, it was because the opponent had restrained him.

When he fought against Lan Xin, he won.

Now it was also his last battle.

“You really want to?” Jiang Ming raised his eyebrows.

He also realized that fighting against these geniuses, especially those with unique qualities, allowed him to absorb a vast amount of wisdom.

Their combat experience, secret techniques, powerful realms of comprehension, and so on could all be turned into his nourishment. As for being high-profile? He didn't care at all.

Because the Federation itself protected geniuses, and anyone trying to harm them secretly would immediately be crushed by overwhelming force. The more genius one was, the more attention they would receive and access to even more resources.

“Brother Jiang, do you have profound achievements in the Body Refinement path as well?” Long Aotian asked, holding onto a hope.

Unexpectedly, he received such an answer.

Although he desired it, he couldn't help but curse secretly: Fucking hell, is this youngster even human? I suspect he's the reincarnation of an Immortal.

His martial arts cultivation was outrageous; he also mastered Divine power, though he didn't know the extent of his strength, it was certainly not weak. Now he even had accomplishments in Body Refinement, and it seemed that they were not shallow either.

This could no longer be described as just amazing.

In these recent battles, Long Aotian had continuously demonstrated his terrifying Path of the Physical Body – sword Qi couldn't harm him, blade light couldn't damage him, and with every punch or kick, he could crush mountains and destroy peaks.

Jiang Ming must have known how strong Long Aotian's physical body was, but he still said such words, which meant what? Gett the latest

It meant that his strength was at least not worse than his!

“Of course, I want it, as strength is the only guarantee of safety!” Long Aotian became even more eager, “Brother Jiang, if you can help me improve further, from now on, I'll be your little brother!”

“A gentleman's word!”

“As fast as a team of horses!”

“Hahaha, I accept you as my little brother!” Jiang Ming laughed loudly, “Now it’s your turn to make a move!”

He straightened his body, and a smoke of essence Qi rose from his head, reaching the sky and turning into a red light.

This was the external manifestation of the Power of Blood being extremely dense.

“I admit defeat, I really admire you! From now on, you’re my big brother Jiang!” Long Aotian felt Jiang Ming’s blood Qi, which was like an avalanche, and was immensely shocked by it.

Following that, he took a deep breath, made a fist salute, and acknowledged Jiang Ming as his big brother.

It was worth it for him to acknowledge Jiang Ming.

“Brother Long, there’s no need for this.” Jiang Ming revealed a smile, “Now, make your move, let me see your true strength?”

“Alright!”

Long Aotian’s body shook, and he suddenly grew taller, reaching a height of about two and a half meters. He really resembled a small giant.

A horn grew on his forehead.

Scales covered his fists.

A violent aura exploded in the air, stirring up violent gusts.

Strong, domineering, invincible, wild, and supreme – all these qualities were gathered within him.

This was his True Dragon Battle Body..

Chapter 134: Chapter 102: Revealing the Hidden Cards,

Shocking the Ten Thousand Realms

As their fists clashed, it was like the rumble of a muffled thunder.

Dragon Domination, Twin Fists Suppress the World!

Long Aotian charged forward with a stomp, his fists like mighty hammers, breaking through the void, causing a blast of roaring sound, creating a sonic wave around his fists.

This punch was incredibly terrifying.

Containing the horrifying power to shatter everything and destroy all that stood in its way.

His unique Suppression Realm was also integrated into it, making Jiang Ming feel as if it was a weakened version of Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure, but it had no effect on him. After all, he had experienced the real pressure countless times, let alone a weakened version of it.

This punch really means something!

Jiang Mings eyes narrowed, and with the flicker of his gaze, he saw through Long Aotians attack.

The strength of the opponent was very strong, incredibly strong, the blood Qi had condensed into a substance, and there was a faint shadow of a True Dragon behind him, which greatly increased his power.

Explosive Fist!

Jiang Ming struck after the opponent and managed to block his attack with a punch.

Brutal force against brutal force, strength against strength.

There was not a bit of deceit.

It was a complete battle of flesh and blood.

Boom

The fists of flesh and blood seemed like the hardest steel in the world, and with the collision, they made a metallic ringing sound, blasting apart the surrounding airwaves. Long Aotian trembled and kept retreating.

With each step backward, the heavy force seemed to shake the ground.

He retreated continuously for about 180 meters before finally stopping.

Long Aotian looked at Jiang Ming with an inconceivable expression, I mainly cultivate my body and have the True Dragon Bloodline, so among my peers, when it comes to physical strength, I claim to be second, and no one dares to be first. I didn't expect you to be even stronger than me, and by a considerable margin. The key point is that I can feel that both you and I are in the Realm of Fourth Body Refinement Transition.

He was genuinely shocked.

I thought that this punch would blow up your arm. I never thought you could withstand it! Jiang Ming was even more surprised.

He continuously deduced the Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill, refining it over and over again, forging Iron Bone, Copper Bone, Silver Bone, Gold Bone, Jade Bone, and refining his internal organs. Now he had stepped into the Marrow Washing Stage.

Marrow like Silver Frost.

Incredibly powerful.

But the result was that he only managed to blast his opponent away with a punch.

It truly shocked him.

Are you speaking human language! Long Aotian was furious. My Dragon Family has a legacy of over a thousand years, possessing a peerless Body Refining Technique and a True Dragon Bloodline. With strong power and a solid body, I have always been invincible within the same rank. Do you know that with just one punch, you have completely crushed my pride? I have the True Dragon Battle Body, which I originally wanted to show off in the Federations Ultimate Showdown, but I was forced to use it by Qiang Jiu. At least I almost took him down with me, but you? You blew me away with one punch! If Qiang Jiu were to be hit by my punch, he would definitely die; there is no second possibility.

He was going crazy.

Even though he knew Jiang Ming was strong.

But Jiang had surpassed him in his proudest field of Body Refinement!

No one could stand it.

He lost to Qiang Jiu because his speed was too fast, and he possessed the most extreme level of attack power, which was his natural enemy!

Now what?

It was all about physical strength!

It is only natural that I blew you away. Do you know how hard I worked? Jiang Mings eyes surged with emotion, and a thought flashed through his heart. He felt that this idea was feasible and could show his worth with limited exposure. In my opinion, that punch should have blown you up!

In the First Secret Realm World, I took the path of Body Refinement and reached the Fourth Transition Realm quite early. However, when I discovered that I couldnt fully unleash the potential of my body, I gathered a vast amount of body refining techniques to absorb, organize, integrate, create, and deduce step by step, experimenting until finally

I deduced a Peerless Body Refining Technique!

Since then, I began to re-cultivate.

The first transition was easy, and in the second transition, I focused on tempering my bones and muscles until I reached the limit! The real limit, however, I felt that there was still a higher potential above the limit. Do you know, I almost trained myself to death, but I finally broke the limit again! At that time, I was shocked, ecstatic, and had even higher expectations for the Body Refinement path.

After breaking the ordinary limit, my power surged, my bones began to emit a dark light, and continued until they were completely covered in darkness, reaching another limit! I knew this couldnt be the real limit, so I continued to cultivate. I would not stop unless I died from the training. Because I knew I had no background, no resources, and I had to dig for the hidden treasures of human power within myself.

I won the gamble again!

Breaking the limit once more, green spots appeared on my dark bones!

I called them Black Bone, Copper Bone, then Silver Bone, Gold Bone, and finally, the color faded, transforming them into Jade Bone!

Bones Like Jade!

My power also reached the pinnacle!

At this moment, I felt that this was the true limit that ordinary people could temper their bodies and bones!

Also, I was confident that within the same rank, I could blow everyone away with a punch!

No one could stand against me!

I originally wanted to use this as the trump card in the Federations Ultimate Showdown, but you forced me to expose it.

I didnt expect that my proud physique would suffer a setback, as 1 failed to kill you with just one punch!

What does that mean?

It means 1 havent worked hard enough!

It means 1 havent fully tapped into the power of my fleshly body!

It means 1 havent fully understood the great secret of the human body!

Jiang Mings voice was impassioned and thunderous, reverberating throughout the martial combat field and broadcasted to the one hundred and eight provinces of the federation via live stream.

As his words fell, the entire martial combat field fell silent, everyone looking at Jiang Ming in a daze..

Chapter 135: Chapter 102: The Reveal of the Trump Card, Shaking All Worlds_2

The billions of people watching the live broadcast were all shocked.

As everyone has just seen. Long Aotian is astonishingly powerful in Body Refinement. Hes brutally defeated every genius who dared to fight him, whether it was Qin Zhiyan or Lan Xin. Even the extraordinarily powerful Qiang Jiu was almost sent to his death by him. But what was the result?

Damn it! He was blasted off in his own best move!

Long Aotian, the ancestral tradition of Long Family is long-standing, with their Body Refinement technique surpassing those of the past and present. Furthermore, he awoke the True Dragon Bloodline, which made his body even more fearsome. To think that he was forced back by an ordinary person? This is just too unbelievable!

Did you all hear that? If you don't die in practice, continue to practice. What a mad will, what a terrifying determination.

Continuing to practice if you don't die? Thinking about it gives me the chills. No wonder he managed to achieve this much!

Wait a minute, wait a minute. If practicing without dying could lead to great success, then the world would be teeming with the powerful! Haven't you noticed? He collects Body refining methods, organizes them, integrates them, understands the essence, and then innovates. He actually broke human body limits one after another with his own Body Refinement. This is simply incredible!

This just goes to show one thing: he has an unbelievable talent!

Great determination, great wisdom, talent that defies the heavens, Jiang Ming, no one in the entire Federation can possibly compare to him. I admire, I really do!¹¹

Speaking of which, does Body Refinement really have a limit? Can the limit be further pushed? Blackened bones? Green bones? Silver bones? Gold bones? Jade Bone? Haven't heard of these. I just looked it up and there are no related records online! Could it be fake?

Fake my ass! You haven't heard of it just means you're ignorant. It's not online because it's classified. But, I've only heard of Silver Bones; never thought there would be Gold and Jade Bones above it. Jiang Ming, he's really defying the heavens!

There were heated discussions everywhere; the netizens were shocked.

Jiang Ming's humble background is no longer a secret.

He had only entered the World of Secret Realm twice at most, yet he achieved such accomplishments; this is simply unimaginable.

In terms of Martial Art, it's preliminarily speculated that he's at the Fifth Level, comprehending the power of realm like space, Yin and Yang, Water and Fire, and Thunder. This alone is earth-shattering and sounds like a myth.

Who would have thought that he could go this far in the extremely difficult way of Body Refinement?

Just listen to himbender

He feels that he hasn't fully tapped into the potential of his physical body, so he collects a large number of Body Refinement methods, integrates them, and then creates his own method. Is he still human?

A load of bull!

Two World of Secret Realm, at most ten years.

Not only did you create a successful method, but you also broke through human body limits one after another. Iron Bone? Copper Bone? All the way to Jade Bone?

Anyone who hears this can't help but curse: Damn, this is too fake no matter how you look at it!

But they saw it clearly, so there's no room for denial.

City Lord Mansion!

How is this possible? Elder Tang stood up abruptly for the first time, looking extremely shocked.

Impossible! Elder Song's expression changed.

It's extremely hard to break the limit of the physical body truly hard. The Body Refinement method promoted by the Federation is created based on the physical condition of the human body, practicing holistically, progressing step by step from easy to hardest. But Jiang Ming Elder Tang took a deep breath, clearly took the difficult path of Special flesh refining, forging bones and muscles, and Quenching Viscera. This path is even harder, whether it's stepping onto it or cultivating it, it can easily cause internal damage. But not only did he take this path, he even created his own method. It would be one thing if he just created the Body refinement, but he actually broke the limit of the muscles and bones and cultivated into the legendary Jade Bone Realm! Get the latest

Jade Bone, I've only heard of it. Elder Song wasn't much better, According to the records, only those with special bloodlines, or through the help of heaven-sent treasures, have the possibility of breaking the limit of the muscles and bones. As for Jade Bone? While it's recorded, there has never been anyone who was able to cultivate it before. It's monstrous!

Indeed monstrous, monstrous to the extreme! Elder Tang nodded, as he slowly sat down, This youngster is quite mature, he did not reveal his cards until now. Why did he do so? Just for a fight with Long Aotian, to prove himself? No, he's making a name for himself, promoting himself, setting his own value, and even defending himself. Good lad, you fooled us.

Given his displayed talent now, could it be? Elder Song pointed at the ceiling. It will, it definitely will! Elder Tang confirmed, nodding vigorously, Hes far too monstrous, one in a hundred years, no, one in ten thousand years. He will definitely be pur on the list. Whoever wants to make trouble for this youngster in the future will have a hard time. Good, good.

He was even more excited.

Martial combat field.

Long Aotian was in chaos.

He glared at Jiang Ming, with flames blazing in his nostrils.

You created your own method after collecting and integrating Body Refinement methods?

And you consecutively broke human body limits and forged Jade Bone?

Impossible, absolutely impossible!

My Dragon Family has advanced Body Refinement to its utmost, yet we could only achieve Gold Bone, and even that was incredibly hard to reach!

Ive awakened the True Dragon Bloodline, even if its just a strand, its still Dragon Vein! But I only achieved Silver Bone level and could no longer break the limit!

You, you, you achieved Jade Bone in just a few years of Kung Fu, relying solely on yourself?

I dont believe it!

I really dont believe it!

Long Aotian was somewhat delirious.

Because this completely shattered his understanding.

He took the path of Body Refinement and naturally knew how difficult it was to continuously break the limits of muscles and bones. Each time its as difficult as ascending to heaven. His forging of Silver Bone is just as difficult as comprehending one of the Ten Great Intentions..

Chapter 136: Chapter 102: Revealing the Hidden Card,

Shocking the Ten Thousand Realms_3

Moreover, its just Jiang Ming with an ordinary bloodline.

The mysteries of the human body are endless, and miracles are meant to be created. I succeeded, so Im standing here! Jiang Ming didnt continue to provoke the other party, Brother Long, lets go again!

Come on! Long Aotian roared, I dont believe Ill lose to you in the path of Body Refinement, I really dont!

True Dragon Power!

His body grew taller again, reaching three meters tall.

A layer of silver-colored flames emerged from his body.

It was clear that he had stimulated a terrifying secret technique.

BangGett the latest

With a leap, he charged over. His fist wind howled like thunder as he moved through the air.

This punch was even more terrifying.

It got rid of all changes, leaving only the most violent power.

Inch Fist, Three-wave!

This time, Jiang Ming truly unleashed the terrifying amplification secret technique of his physical body.

Three waves, amplifying power three times.

Unleashing four times the physical strength with one punch.

Bang

The void shattered, the sky exploded, and Long Aotian was blasted away by a single punch. His arm couldnt bear the load, moaning as it burst open multiple wounds, blood pouring out. He tumbled and landed two hundred meters away. Amplification secret technique!

He made a judgment the first time.

Dont tell me, you created this yourself? Long Aotians voice was hoarse.

Today's blow to him was too great.

Yes! Jiang Ming nodded honestly, Originally, I drew inspiration from the River Sea Turmoil and created a fist technique based on overlapping tides, endless waves. Each punch could produce multiple layers of power. But during the Sky Tower battle, I realized I had taken a wrong path. Hence, I developed the Inch Fist based on the guardians power amplification techniques. With each punch, the amplification is multiplied. Under this kind of explosion, whatever waves or thousands of variations, all are overturned. Absolute power kills everything! Brother Long, you of the Dragon Family practice the path of body refining. Surely you have such fist techniques, right? Dont tell me you dont!

I, I, I Long Aotian was once again in chaos, trembling as he pointed at Jiang Ming, I am only eighteen years old! I have to cultivate, I have to develop bloodline power, I have to comprehend realms, and I have to practice various offensive techniques. Where do I have time? Ive encountered the power amplification techniques, but they are too difficult, really, too difficult!

He felt wronged and wanted to cry.

Is it hard? Its not hard. Its much easier than comprehending the Ten Great Scenarios! Jiang Ming said.

You Long Aotian almost spat out blood.

Ten Great Scenarios?

Nima!

How did he want to pounce and bite you to death, you son of a bitch?

Its too damn annoying!

Tell me, how did you cultivate? Did the heavens open a plugin for you? Long Aotians eyes were bloodshot, his body swaying, and his breathing fluctuating. He continued counting on his fingers, Martial Arts Fifth Level, Spatial Realm, Yin and Yang Realm, Water-Fire Realm, Thunder Scenario, and these are just the known ones, what about the unknown? My knowledge of the path of body refinement has reached its limit, but I dont even dare to dream about Jade Bone. You actually completed it just by relying on your own derivation of secret techniques! My thousand-year-old family, my True Dragon Bloodline, are they all trash? That old man from my family, acting arrogant like a big rooster, claiming that our Dragon familys body refinement is unparalleled, Silver Bone, Gold Bone, Unrivaled Bones. What a joke, a thousand years of accumulation cant compare with several years of cultivation. Hes still so proud, so arrogant. I spit!

No, that's not right. You've been on the path of body refining for a long time, and then you practiced again, breaking the limits one after another, and even deriving amplification secret techniques yourself!

Brother Jiang, you must be the son of Heaven.

Biological son!

Absolutely true!

Otherwise, how could you be such a demon?

Damn it! bender

Am I in a battle with God?

Long Aotian was going crazy.

Brother Long Jiang Ming grinned, I just wanted to show off a little, but how did I break this kid down like this? My bad, my bad.

At this moment, Long Aotian rushed over, knelt on one knee in front of him, and hugged his thigh, saying, Big Brother, let me be your dog's leg from now on!

Pfft

Jiang Ming almost spurted out..

Chapter 137: Chapter 103: Awakening the Supernatural

Power, Mind-Blowing to the Sky

No one could have imagined this scene.

But it was even more shocking.

A physical enhancement secret technique?

Those who didn't know felt it was amazing, while those who knew were dumbfounded.

Long Aotian's shock was their shock as well.

Incomprehensible, unimaginable, difficult to understand.

Could it be that Jiang Ming is really the son of heaven? Otherwise, how could he be such a monster? A monster beyond common sense!

But Long Aotian kneeling, even if only on one knee, broke many peoples defenses. Nnêw n0vel chapters are published on

Brother Long, this is the martial combat field, broadcast live to the whole nation! Jiang Ming hurriedly helped him up. bender

He knew that this guy was shocked and confused.

Or to put it more brutally, heavily beaten.

Lost and disoriented.

So what! Long Aotian stubbornly said, In any case, you have crushed me in every aspect, a comprehensive crushing. Facing you, I have no fighting spirit left.

No! Jiang Ming said seriously, In the face of the martial arts path, we are only at the starting point. I am one step ahead of you, but there are thousands, millions, even tens of millions of steps in the future. Who knows what will happen and what we will experience in this process? Temporary speed does not mean true speed. Only those who can reach the end are truly fast and surpassing. Now you shouldnt be discouraged or lose heart, but take me as your target and strive to catch up and surpass me. When you stand at the peak of martial arts someday, looking back, past failures are not humiliations but the foundation that helped you reach the peak.

Brother Jiang, not only are you strong and talented, but your heart is as vast as the ocean and as expansive as the starry sky. I am determined to be your sworn brother for life!

Haha, then lets work together!

Then, Long Aotian admitted defeat.

But this step was also spread out.

Especially Jiang Mings words, which captured the hearts of countless young men and women, uplifting the spirits of many frustrated people.

His image also became even more towering, dazzling, and eye-catching.

Afterward, Jiang Ming, Qiang Jiu, Long Aotian, Lan Xin, and Qin Zhiyan were all teleported to the Martial Arts Stage, showing themselves to the world, waiting for the 15th of June when they would represent Tianzhong Province in the United Federations Grand Examination.

Even the stubborn Qiang Jiu was excited.

But Long Aotian still had confusion in his eyes and his mind was not in the right place.

You hit him too hard, the poor child. Lan Xin glanced at Long Aotian and said to Jiang Ming, Dont think hes careless on the surface, but hes actually very proud, more proud than Qiang Jiu.

At the Sea Election, he once loudly said that he would make it to the top three of the United Federation, but he didnt even make it to the top ten!

He almost died of anger.

So he began to practice hard, even going to the World of Secret Realm once. When he came back, he swore to win first place in the Provincial Examination.

But in the end, he lost to Qiang Jiu. Although the loss was acceptable since Qiang Jiu was also an excellent opponent who comprehended the terrifying Intention of Penetration, which was his natural nemesis. The fact that they almost killed each other proved that he was remarkable.

But

You shattered him completely in front of his proudest technique!

The Jade Bone Realm, which he didnt even dare to dream of, yet you have refined it on your own.

Remember, behind him is an ancient family with countless secret techniques and endless resources. He has a True Dragon Bloodline, but you surpassed him.

Then, with your Inch Fist, you completely destroyed and trampled on his pride.

Its amazing that he didnt go crazy!

Sigh!

He originally wanted to use his strong body to compete for the final Martial Arts Champion.

But in the end

It was too miserable!

Unprecedented suffering!

His confidence, his pride, his future, everything was shattered.

From now on, he might be completely disheartened, lose his fighting spirit and become a useless person, or perhaps, it will further stimulate his powerful pride, so that he can stand up again, turn his pride into backbone, face defeat without despair, and victory without arrogance!

Brother Jiang, please help him in the future!

Dont let him be disheartened!

In the end, Lan Xin asked with a pleading tone.

If he really becomes disheartened, Ill just beat him up a few more times! Jiang Ming responded.

Lan Xins face was suddenly covered in black lines.

The host appeared, once again introduced them all while vividly and impassioned, and announced the rewards.

The first place got ten million Federation Credit Points, the second place 8 million, and the third to fifth places got 5 million each.

Those who ranked outside the top five all got one million.

The rewards were quite meager.

The real rewards were the choice of Martial Arts University, secret skill rewards, and various invisible benefits, such as advertising endorsements and the like.

After the cheering, the live broadcast ended.

Brother Jiang, see you in the Provincial City! Lan Xin said, Ill be your host then!

Hes my big brother, so its my turn to treat! Long Aotian took over.

Be careful when you go back and get beaten! Lan Xin showed a gloating expression, Kneeling down to acknowledge a big brother in front of at least tens of billions, or even hundreds of billions of people in the United Federation, tsk tsk, do you think your familys Old Man wont hang you up and beat you? The Long Family is proud and even more high-headed. Haha, I cant help but want to see your miserable look.

1,1 Long Aotian looked terrible.

He really wanted to slap himself in the face..

Chapter 138: Chapter 103: Awakening of Special Abilities,

Unbelievably Awesome_2

At that time, it was pure insanity, actually kneeling down to recognize my big brother. For the disciples of the Long family, it was, it was...a great humiliation!

“Frother Jiang, you really should have stopped me!” Long Aotian looked at Jiang Ming with a look of despair, “I was hit hard by you, and you took advantage of me.”

“What, you want to take it back?” Jiang Ming laughed.

“As a man, once I spit out a promise, I must keep it. Since I recognized you as my big brother, it means I’ve accepted you as a lifelong companion.” Long Aotian thumped his chest but then slumped, revealing a look of despair, “What to do next? The old man of my family is stubborn, cruel, domineering, ruthless, iron-hearted, cruel, arrogant, and prides himself on noble heritage, but now...”

Sigh...

He ruffled his hair hard.

“Now that you’ve acknowledged me as your big brother, I won’t let you suffer!” Jiang Ming said, throwing a punch into the sky, it exploded the air and stirred up an endless turbulence, leaving a straight void channel until ten thousand meters away.

“Inch Fist, Ninefold Mountain!”

“How about that?”

Jiang Ming asked with a smile.

“Ninefold? Ninefold enhancement?” Long Aotian was astounded.

Because of the close range, he felt every detail of the punch just now, clearly and vividly, sending chills down his spine and disturbing his heart and mind.

If it were to hit him, he would probably be burst apart.

It was terrifying.

“Mmm. Do you want it?” Jiang Ming asked with a smirk.

“You’re going to give me the secret technique for amplification?” Long Aotian widened his eyes and hurriedly shook his head. “It’s too precious. I can’t accept it. If I did, my family’s old man would definitely kill me.”

“You’d be killed if you accepted?” Jiang Ming looked intrigued.

“Stubborn, arrogant, how could I take something from someone else for free.” Long Aotian said helplessly.

“Well, let him buy it then!” Lan Xin smiled, “Your Dragon family has countless resources, rare treasures, great elixir pills, etc., you can give them to Brother Jiang! You will get the secret technique, adding to your foundation; Brother Jiang will get treasures and great elixir pills, which will speed up his cultivation and make him even stronger. This is mutually beneficial. But since the amplification secret technique is too precious, Little Dragon, you can’t let Brother Jiang be shortchanged.”

The last sentence was said with utmost seriousness.

“Brother Jiang...” Long Aotian was in a quandary.

“It’s just a secret technique that I worked out, it’s not that precious, if there are any great elixir pills, that would be even better!” Jiang Ming chuckled, “Just don’t let me be at a disadvantage. By the way, I particularly like great elixir pills that rejuvenate the body.”

“Brother Jiang, thank you!” Long Aotian showed his gratitude.

He understood the value of this secret technique.

For a family, it is their accumulation, the basis of their power, the source of their strength, and the capital for their rise after decline.

Jiang Ming lightly touched his forehead with his finger and directly passed on the first nine layers of the inch Fist technique using the Divine Skill.

Though this method is astounding.

He didn’t really mind.

Moreover, he has mastered more than nine layers already. If he could exchange it for some rare rejuvenation pills, that would greatly aid his body refinement progress.

The body refinement method is too slow after all.

“Brother Jiang, I admire you!” Qiang Jiu, who had been silent all this time, finally spoke up. He knew the value of this secret technique. Even he couldn’t afford to offer it.

Let alone giving it out without any benefits in return.

This courage, it made ripples in his heart: "See you in the provincial city,, dueling in the Federation again, I bid you goodbye!"

As his voice faded, he immediately logged out of the virtual world.

Long Aotian had already assimilated the information and looked at Jiang Ming with gratitude, "Power, courage, talent, and magnanimity, big brother, you are the best in the world! I will go back and extort my family's old man to get all the good stuff."

They chatted for a while and then left.

Jiang Ming also came back to his senses.

He opened his eyes and stood up.

Seeing what was going on inside, Master Song, who had been waiting outside, immediately opened the door with laughter, "Haha, as expected from the unparalleled genius of our Pingyang City, a fight that shocked the world, talent unmatched in the world, even the elite disciples of the hidden world's Long Family accepted you. Jiang Ming, well done!"

"Indeed well done, you made us proud, the entire Pingyang City is proud of you!" Elder Tang also came over.

Mr. Chen and Headmaster Chang who followed him were even more excited.

"Elder Tang, Elder Song, Mr. Chen, Headmaster Chang," Jiang Ming greeted with a smile, "Wait until I win the Federal Martial Arts Champion title, then you can pride yourselves on me. Now, I still have a lot to do."

"Good boy, I'll wait for you to bring home the Federal Champion title!" Elder Tang was even more delighted, "Tomorrow, Elder Song, Mr. Chen, Headmaster Chang, and I will accompany you to the provincial city. Oh yes, and Qin Zhiyan."

Qin Zhiyan walked over, with a serene look on her face.

Tian Tian felt like an invisible person.

After each of the three had their interviews, they were allowed to leave.

But for Pingyang City, the celebration was just beginning, but all this had nothing to do with Jiang Ming.

“There are people who want you to be a spokesperson, who only want one picture of you, and countless others. Do you want to make some extra bucks? They’re willing to pay in tens of millions.” On the way back, Elder Tang asked with a laugh.

“Forget it!” Jiang Ming laughed, “I’m not that needy. Power is the best wealth. Rather than waste time, it’s better to use the time to cultivate diligently. With strength, you have everything.”

“Haha, you see things clearly, kid.” Elder Tang couldn’t help but laugh loudly. Raising his fist, he exclaimed, “Fist! It’s power, and it’s money.”

Jiang Ming strongly agreed. CHeCk for new stories on

“Not going back?”

Chapter 139: Chapter 103: Awakening Special Abilities,

“I won’t be going back, and there’s nothing worth packing. Elder Tang, could you please find someone to look after my house, so it doesn’t get destroyed?” “Don’t worry, it might even become a sacred place for others to admire. With your current achievements, who dares to damage the place where you grew up? If someone does, the entire Pingyang City will tear them apart.”

“Just keep it intact, it’s also a thought in my mind.”

“Thoughts, huh!”

Elder Tang lets out a sigh.

The older one gets, the more thoughts one has, which also means losing more things.

“Tomorrow, you will go to the provincial city. There will be special training and abundant resources for the five of you, as well as lots of secret skills to learn and guidance from the powerful. For you, this is a rare opportunity, even better than what you can get from entering a Secret Realm.” Elder Tang explained, “Secret Realms can increase your strength, but they will be limited within a certain realm and can’t really help you widen your horizons.”

Jiang Ming nodded, understanding the importance.

Once they returned home, Elder Tang slipped away, leaving the place to him.

Not long after, Wang Fatty arrived.

“I thought you forgot about me, your old friend!” Wang Fatty joked while examining the surroundings. “This place is incredible, with all the plants and trees maintaining the harmony. They’re all precious, full of rich primal qi and refreshing aromas. It’s no wonder this is a big shot’s secret cultivation base. I’m so envious.”

“You’re still as disgusting as ever!” Jiang Ming was speechless, “Did you find a target?”

“With my results, I can barely make it into Central Divine Martial College, so I’ll go there. I saw that you picked up a formidable guy as your little brother at the martial combat field. I did some searching, and it turns out he’s from the Long Family, even in the Provincial City, he’s at the top. Your little brother is also my little brother, so if anything happens in the future, I can lean on him too.”

“You really know how to plan!”

“Absolutely! Not taking advantage of opportunities makes one a fool.” Wang Fatty leaned closer and whispered, “Now you’re a famous figure, known throughout the Tianzhong Province and the entire Federation. Most of the hot search rankings are about you, and you have countless fans. Fans, that’s money, tons and tons of money. How about I become your agent? I can prepare a model for you every day, whatever type, whatever personality, I guarantee you’ll be satisfied.”

Jiang Ming glanced at him, “I recorded this and will send it to Uncle Wang later!”

“Damn, you’re sneaky!” Wang Fatty jumped a few feet, and promptly waved his hand, “Okay, I won’t do business anymore!”

He became a bit more serious, “Will you ever come back? I’ve heard that people like you with the title of Tianjiao will head to special cultivation sacred places after the Martial Exam and receive the best training possible, before eventually going to the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield. The Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield...”

Wang Fatty’s expression changed, “I really don’t want you to go there. If you have to, just go later.”

“Don’t worry, I know what to do!” Jiang Ming waved his hand, “What are you good at in the Martial Arts? Or, what do you like?”

“Good at? Like?” Wang Fatty pinched his chin, “I’m good at lying down, and I like lying down as well!”

“Get out!”

“Flehe, I’m an honest man, only speaking the truth!”

“Fine, I’ll teach you the Five Elements Skill, the Way of the Five Elements. There’s bound to be one suitable for you!” After that, Jiang Ming transmitted the Five Elements Sword Formation and Performing Ten Thousand Laws using the Divine Skill. The Five Elements can be divided and combined, cultivating endless mysteries.

Jiang Ming didn’t stop there. He then used the Wood Life Aura and Life and Death Reincarnation Force to help Wang Fatty with Cleansing Marrow, improving his talent a bit. At least, in the future, he could take a few shortcuts, cultivate faster and have higher growth potential.

Immediately after that, a bizarre aura rose from Wang Fatty’s body.

“What...?”

Jiang Ming was astonished.

Once Wang Fatty absorbed the information, he also noticed the changes in himself and couldn’t help but widen his eyes, “Ming, you’re so incredible, you made me awaken a special ability. My goodness, am I going to be invincible in the sky?”

“You’ve actually awakened!” Jiang Ming looked at him strangely, “What special ability?”

“It’s my stomach, it seems that my digestion power has increased to a terrifying level. I can digest and absorb quickly, and even refine the essence to improve my strength, this...” Wang Fatty was shocked, but then overjoyed, “Ming, am I going to be invincible in the sky?”

“Not just the sky, you’re going to go against the heavens!” Jiang Ming couldn’t help but be amazed.

Helping the other party with Cleansing Marrow had unexpectedly triggered the awakening of a special ability.

It was just too bizarre.

Jiang Ming thought to himself: He must have been on the verge of mutation, and 1 catalyzed it.

“Haha, can 1 keep increasing my strength just by eating and drinking?” Wang Fatty danced with joy, “As expected, I’m the favorite child of the heavens!”

“You...!” Jiang Ming couldn’t help but shake his head, but warned, “Don’t forget to work hard in your cultivation. Without effort, even if your awakened power is strong, your achievements will still be limited.”

“Don’t worry.” Wang Fatty nodded.

They chatted for a while before Wang Fatty left.

The next day.

Jiang Ming and the others rode a warplane that roared into the sky.

It was a real warplane, a powerful weapon with automatic driving and the ability to simulate the environment outside. It was very comfortable. Nêww chapters will be fully updated at Elder Tang followed them, and Elder Song was there as well.

Mr. Chen naturally couldn't be absent; after all, two of the students she mentored were among the group, and none of them could be left behind.

Even now, she was still excited.

Two out of five in the entire province were from her class.

Which class in the world could achieve that?

It was a great honor.

Headmaster Chang followed them as well.

"Jiang Ming, Zhiyan, when you get there, follow the City Lord's arrangements," Mr. Chen constantly instructed and reminded them.

Both of them listened attentively.

Starting from today, they wouldn't have a chance to listen to this anymore.

Life keeps moving forward, and you can look back, but there's no going back to past experiences.

Recalling the past, chasing the future.

"Jiang, Miss Qin, do you know the arrangements there?" Elder Song suddenly spoke, mysteriously, "Because of you, this year's Martial Exam is very special, with a large number of Tianjiao appearing, and countless geniuses gathering. The rewards are generously frightening, and even I can't help but feel envious. In order for you to prepare for the exam, the province has taken out treasures from the treasury to help you with your cultivation."

"Can you tell us more?"

“Of course!”

Elder Song told them everything he knew about the rewards.

“Divine Beast Treasure Blood?”

“Enlightenment Tea?”

“Sea of Qi?”

“Realm Simulation?”

“Guidance from a Heavenly Human realm expert?”

Each reward left Headmaster Chang exclaiming and even speechless.

Mr. Chen wasn't much better.

Jiang Ming and Qin Zhiyan exchanged glances, their eyes full of excitement.

Just the 'Realm Simulation' alone made them eager to try.

“That's nothing!” Elder Tang laughed, “The real good rewards will be in the final Grand Examination, Jiang Ming, do your best. If you win first place, you'll truly soar to the skies..”

Chapter 140: Chapter 104: The Vast Wasteland Holy Body, Three Eyes, and Innate Dao Body free webno vel

Jiang Ming and the others arrived in the Provincial City first, and after being received, they met Long Aotian, Lan Xin, and Qiang Jiu.

Brother Jiang, haha, finally meeting the real person! Long Aotian strode over, very happy, even radiant.

Didnt get beaten up! Jiang Ming laughed and hugged the other guy.

Im in the top five in the province, and Im someone with status! Long Aotian puffed out his chest, Of course, the most important thing is that I have a good brother like you. My familys old man keeps praising me.

Jiang Ming was speechless.

Then he suddenly realized.

It must have been the effect of his Inch Fist.

He then greeted Lan Xin and Qiang Jiu.

Five people sat together.

Qiang Jiu was still very arrogant.

Lan Xin and Qin Zhiyan were whispering together, not knowing what they were talking about.

Brother Long, do you have any idea how we will be arranged next? Jiang Ming asked.

We will definitely be taken to a special place for special training, but I don't know where that is! Long Aotian shook his head, but took out a box from his bosom, opened it, and handed it over. Inside was a jade bottle and two booklets. He explained in a low voice, Brother Jiang, after going back, I thought for a long time and got you the Nine-turn Beast Blood Pill. This is made from the essence and blood of nine extremely powerful monsters from the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, combined with many spiritual medicines. It is a top-grade product. After taking it, it provides an incredibly powerful Blood Qi, tempering the body, and enhances the potential. It is one of the strongest elixir pills of my Dragon Family.

Nine-turn Beast Blood Pill? Qiang Jiu exclaimed in a low voice, his eyes a little hot, I've heard about it in my clan. Just one pill can take someone who hasn't set foot on the path of Body Refinement directly to the Fourth Transition after refining. The most important thing is that the medicinal effects are mild and there are almost no side effects. It's hard to come by with a huge value, my father couldn't even get one for me.

He showed a trace of envy, then raised his arrogant head again.

Brother Qiang is indeed well-acquainted with our family's knowledge. Long Aotian laughed, pointing to the booklet and said, That stubborn old man in my family was quite generous this time. In addition to the elixir pill, there are also two Body Refinement methods. One is the Skill of Cultivation of Wilderness collected from the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, which is an exceptional Body Refinement Skill, directly cultivable to the Sixth Transition. And the other one?

It's the Body Refinement Fragment!

It was collected from an ancient site in the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, containing extremely profound principles. It reflects the cosmos with the human body and transforms the human body into the cosmos. It is vast and profound, but too damaged.

Our Dragon Family has had it for many years, but have only understood some principles. That stubborn old man of our family saw your extraordinary comprehension, so he took it out for you to try, perhaps you might gain something. Get the latest

Long Aotian explained.

Too much! Jiang Ming shook his head.

His Inch Fist was more than enough with the Skill of Cultivation of Wilderness. Yet, he also added a top-grade elixir pill and a secret skill that even the Dragon Family found hard to understand.

The value was too great.

For my Dragon Family, the value of Inch Fist is immeasurable. Long Aotian directly stuffed it into Jiang Mings arms, Besides, whether its the Skill of Cultivation of Wilderness or the fragment, they are both accidental gains, and the wilderness skill can only cultivate up to the Sixth Transition, so its value is greatly reduced. Overall, I still got the better end, Brother Jiang. If you dont accept it, youre looking down on me.

Okay, Ill accept it!

Thats right.

Jiang Ming put the jade bottle in his pocket and took out the Skill of Cultivation of Wilderness. He flipped through it quickly, after a little thought, he clapped his hands, and the technique turned to dust.

Brother Jiang, youre as careful as a woman! Lan Xin laughed.

After reading it, I remembered it, so theres no need to carry it around. Its better to destroy it! Jiang Ming didnt look up, and took out another booklet.

Destroying the technique is also a statement, absolutely not leaked.

Although some things were not mentioned explicitly, he had to take a stand.

As for the Skill of Cultivation of Wilderness?

Its very ingenious.

Its even more ingenious than the Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill he had practiced before, an incredible Body Refinement method for forging a strong body and full of Blood Qi.

Its just a pity that its only the first six transitions, with limited value.

Jiang Ming looked at the fragment in his hand and couldn't help but frown.

It really is a fragment.

Broken and severe, just talking about some conceptual things, such as the cosmos in Heaven and Earth, and the human body as a small universe.

Reflecting the great universe with the small universe.

Comparing the countless cells to the cosmic stars.

Small stars are meteorites, larger ones are satellites, even larger ones are stars, supergiant stars, and so on.

Evolve cells? Rise in rank as stars?

This concept is too big.

Even bigger than Longxiang Prisons Power.

In the end, he clapped his hands and destroyed it too.

Did you get anything? Long Aotian asked with a smile. bender

If I did, your family's old man would definitely come to kill me. Jiang Ming said unhappily.

If he really gained something, he couldn't say it.

After all, it was something the other party couldn't gain with the whole family's power, but he suddenly gained some insight in a short time?

Isn't that a joke!

Before long, someone took them out, where Elder Tang and the others were waiting outside. After a brief farewell, they boarded the warplane and roared away.

On the warplane.

In front of Jiang Ming and the others sat a middle-aged man with a gentle face: I am the instructor of your special training this time, you can call me Instructor Yu.

All of you in this group are good talents, any one of you could have a chance to compete for the champion of the past Federal Exam..

Hyperdimensional Universe: I have Three Thousand Ultimate Talents #Chapter 141 - 104: The Great Wilderness Holy Body, Three Eyes, and Innate Path Body_2 - Read Hyperdimensional Universe: I have Three Thousand Ultimate Talents Chapter 141 - 104: The Great Wilderness Holy Body, Three Eyes, and Innate Path Body_2

Chapter 141: Chapter 104: The Great Wilderness Holy Body, Three Eyes, and Innate Path Body_2

As you may know, besides regular high school graduates, there might be some other young people who could participate as well.

As long as they are under eighteen, they all have one chance!

In previous years, many real geniuses didnt take the Grand Examination route because it wasnt attractive. However, this year is different. Due to Jiangs rise to fame, a large number of geniuses have been drawn out.

For example, talents like Qiang Jiu from hidden family.

And those who came from the starry sky, or returned from the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, young prodigies with awakened special abilities, and so on.

There are just so many of them!

And because of that, this years Grand Examination will be extremely brutal.

From what i know, there are several geniuses that are truly astonishing, even I was shocked after hearing about them.

One of them has an Innate Path Body since birth. With this body, not only are all the meridians opened, but also all 365 acupoints are in a semi-open state. This is just one of the many benefits of an Innate Path Body, in addition, they also naturally resonate with Dao Resonance, comprehensively understanding Realm of comprehension. They are at least ten times faster than ordinary people.

Theres also one with three eyes. The third eye contains the destructive power of Thunder, which is very terrifying.

One person has a rare Holy Body. In terms of physical potential, they are no weaker than Long.

Before Instructor Yu could finish his sentence, Long Aotian exclaimed, Holy Body? The legendary Great Wilderness Holy Body? How is that possible?

He was truly shocked.

In fact, Jiang Ming and the others were shocked as well.

Innate Path Body?

Does such a thing really exist?

Born with three eyes? And containing the destructive power of Thunder?

It feels like something out of mythology.

Three Eyes, Yang Jian?

Jiang Ming secretly smirked.

This world is too strange.

Before they could recover from the shock, there's already someone with a Holy Body and it's the Great Wilderness Holy Body?

What the hell.

His mind was in chaos.

It is the Great Wilderness Holy Body! Instructor Yu nodded, This physique is extremely rare and special, appearing only once in thousands of years. Yet, this generation has produced one.

There is also the Innate Path Body and Three-eyed Thunder Eye, both of which have unparalleled physical constitution and possess endless potential!

And one more I know of is even more special, born with Supreme Bone, their talent is so demonic, it's simply beyond comprehension!

Instructor Yu couldn't help but sigh.

Supreme Bone? Long Aotian opened his mouth and twisted his face, Instructor Yu, am I hearing things? How could there be a Supreme Bone? Even if there was, why would they participate in the United States Major Examination?

With my authority, I can only know this much, so I am telling you that this years Grand Examination is very brutal. Instructor Yu sighed, It gives a feeling of a golden age.

But theres one thing he didnt say: it also makes people feel their hair standing on end, and fills their hearts with unease!

Instructor Yu, can you tell us more about the specific situations of the Innate Path Body, Three-Eyed, Great Wilderness Holy Body, and Supreme Bone? This is the first time Ive heard of them. Jiang Ming revealed a curious expression.

He was really curious.

So curious that he wanted to curse: Damn it!

Would there be another tough guy?

Another Sage figure?

And another City Lord Luo?

What the hell!

Not only him, but Lan Xin and Qiang Jiu also showed curiosity.

Qin Zhiyan, however, looked puzzled.

She knew even less.

In fact, Jiang Ming was curious that since the sea election of the College Entrance Exam, Qin Zhiyans family members had never appeared. She clearly had relatives, and her family background was extremely, exceptionally good.

Quite strange.

Alright, Ill briefly explain them to you! Instructor Yu began to explain slowly, Innate Path Body is a physique that is most compatible with the Dao Resonance of Heaven and Earth, born with Dao Resonance alongside it, making cultivation much more effective with a substantially stronger foundation. To give you a direct example, someone with an Innate Path Body, even through normal cultivation, can create a Dantian with a radius of one zhang.

Hissss

Qin Zhiyan and the others all inhaled a breath of cold air.

Normal cultivation, one zhang square Dantian radius?

What if they were properly cultivated?

Definitely exceed one zhang (3.3 meters).

They can almost smoothly step into the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm. Even if they practice Dao, they have unparalleled talents. Even if they take the Body Refinement path, their achievements won't be worse than Long (Student)! Instructor Yu said, Innate Path Body practitioners are like the illegitimate children of Heaven; it's like they've cheated in their cultivation!

As he said this, he looked oddly at Jiang Ming.

This guy is even more awesome than those who cheat.

From starting at the first level of Martial Arts without Muscle and Bone Resonance, how many days has it been to his current achievements?

It's only been about ten days, all things considered.

Thinking about it that way, holy shit. bender

If the Innate Path Body is an illegitimate child, then this Jiang (Student) must be the biological father!

Having three eyes is like having special abilities or mutations, just that the mutation is a bit more severe. Although I don't know the specifics, I can guess one or two things. When the third eye is opened, it unleashes lethal power. When you encounter this in the future, be careful and treat the power of the third eye as a forbidden art.

If Innate Path Body and Three Eyes appear once every several years or even decades, then Great Wilderness Holy Body and Supreme Bone might not appear even in thousands of years.

Legends say that in ancient times, our human race had a terrifying branch. Their bodies possessed endless potential, and in the path of Body Refinement, they were unrivaled in the Myriad Heavens Worlds. They were invincible within the same realm, and even defeating enemies of higher levels was easy.

n

It is said that this branch inhabited the Great Wilderness, and this invincible body constitution was called the Great Wilderness Holy Body.

As for where the Great Wilderness is located? I'm not sure, but it's definitely not on our Blue Star!

Once the Holy Body is cultivated to the Great Success stage, they can destroy a star with one punch.

As Instructor Yus words fell, the sound of gasping echoed.

Destroy a star?

In other words, destroying a celestial body!

With just one punch?

Does this star include the Sun too? Jiang Ming said carefully.

It even includes supergiant stars! Instructor Yu laughed, As for exactly how, I am not sure. Lets talk about the Supreme Bone, which is an even more amazing body constitution, rarer than the Great Wilderness Holy Body. But once it appears, as long as it grows up smoothly, it will surely become the Martial Arts Venerable, dominating the world.

Supreme Bone, born supreme!

Undying and destined to become the Martial Arts Supreme!

This is the evaluation of the Supreme Bone, but the specifics are unclear!

Actually, when I heard that the Great Wilderness Holy Body and Supreme Bone were participating, I couldnt believe it.

These two terrifying constitutions appearing in the same era and taking part in the United States Major Examination together are just unbelievable! They even leaked the news!

It feels like a game.

Instructor Yu couldnt help shaking his head.

Jiang Ming and the others also felt that something was off.

If such terrifying constitutional abilities truly emerged, shouldnt they be hidden and cultivated? Why announce it so publicly?

After all, theres still the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, and humans must have enemies.

Arent they afraid of being secretly eradicated?

Instructor Yu, I don't believe it. Are you trying to discourage us? Lan Xin said quietly, With so many terrifying big shots, what's the point of us participating in the Grand Examination?

This is the news I got, and many other provinces have received it as well, so it should be true. Instructor Yu said solemnly, Don't think too much. I told you all this to put some pressure on you. From now on, work hard on cultivation. If you can't fight for first place, you can still fight for the top 100!

Top 100? Qiang Jiu couldn't help but shout, With our strength, we can only compete for the top 100? Not even the top ten? Impossible! Absolutely impossible!

The top ten is also within the top 100! Instructor Yu couldn't help but laugh.

Lan Xin and the others all showed resentful looks.

You must realize that there are a total of 108 provinces in the Grand Examination. Besides this, there are hidden families, blessed lands of pocket worlds, starry skies, Ten Thousand Realms Battlefields, and so on. On average, it's possible that one province might not even produce a single candidate ranked within the top 100!

These words made Qiang Jiu sink into despair.

Guaranteeing the top 100, fighting for the top ten, and striving for the first place. Instructor Yu continued, Especially Jiang (Student), there's some hope for you to fight for the first place. After all, you have mastered the Yin and Yang and Space Art. If you further immerse yourself in these days, there's no reason to lose hope.

Jiang Ming remained silent.

He was genuinely bewildered.

Originally, he thought winning the United States Major Examination was a piece of cake. But Instructor Yu's words made him feel unreal and less confident.

Great Wilderness Holy Land? Who has the confidence to defeat them?

Supreme Bone? Just listening to it makes people despair.

What the hell kind of messed up world is this!

Jiang Ming cursed silently..

Chapter 142: Chapter 105: Opening the Sky, Time and Space, Strength Soaring

After exiting the warplane, Jiang Ming found himself inside a mountain.

Then, under Coach Yu's guidance, they took an elevator straight down, and according to Jiang Ming's estimates, they reached about three hundred meters underground before stopping.

After further verification of their identities, they arrived in a vast underground world.

The ceiling was high above, mimicking the colors of the sky outside. The huge interior space was divided into different areas, and through his senses, he could detect many powerful individuals.

Some were extremely powerful, making Jiang Ming's heart tremble.

Coach Yu also gave a brief explanation.

"This is a cultivation sacred place built by our Tianzhong Province. You are only allowed to enter the Cultivation Area, Dining Area, and Book Collection Area. You cannot go anywhere else."

"The Cultivation Area has been completely cleared for the five of you, with no one else inside."

"The Dining Area provides unlimited food 24 hours a day."

"The Book Collection Area contains martial arts techniques, and you can access everything except the restriction level ones. The positions and methods of opening all 365 acupoints are open to you, but you must sign an agreement not to disclose this information."

"By the way, signals are blocked here, so mobile phones won't work; also, taking photos and saving them is not allowed."

"All information about this place must be kept in your mind."

As Coach Yu spoke, he led them to visit the three areas.

The Dining Area was huge, capable of accommodating thousands of people at once. The Book Collection Area was quite unique, with electronic screens for browsing and reading in addition to paper books.

Finally, they arrived at the Cultivation Area.

Entering inside was a circular hall, with sofas, virtual projections, drinks, and liquor, resembling a leisure area.

To Jiang Ming's surprise, the concentration of vitality in this place was incredibly high, forming wisps of mist. When he reached out to grab at the fog, it condensed into droplets of vital essence.

There were thirty-six doors around them.

"Behind each door is a dedicated cultivation room. You can choose any one of them to enter. Once someone is inside, no one can open the door from the outside, except the base commander. However, you can come out freely. If you encounter any problems and can't come out, press the rescue button."

"There are Heavenly Powerful in the Book Collection Area to answer any questions you may have."

"I'll take you out on the afternoon of June 13th, we'll leave for Tianwu Sacred Academy on the 14th, and the grand martial arts examination will begin on the 15th!"

"Alright, I'll leave you to it, and I'll see you on the 13th!"

Coach Yu was straightforward and left as soon as he finished talking.

"This place is as good as our family's Blessed Land of Pocket World!" Qiang Jiu looked around with glittering eyes, "I can sense terrifying formations in here, gathering the energy of Heaven and Earth and also guarding here." "Formations?" Jiang Ming showed a bizarre expression.

Martial arts were dominant, but now formations had appeared again. chapters at Only

Right, there were already elixir pills.

What about talisman scripts?

What about refining devices?

"Hmm!" Qiang Jiu nodded, "It's an incredibly powerful profession, but the threshold is extremely high. Those without talent won't even be able to grasp the basics even if they study for a lifetime."

"Brother Jiang, you can give it a try." Lan Xin suggested, "After all, you have extraordinary comprehension, maybe you'll gain something."

"You're trying to harm me!" Jiang Ming glared at her, "I've already practiced enough. If I study the way of formations as well, how will I increase my strength!"

“Brother Jiang, you’re pretending to be innocent!” Long Aotian complained, “The Way of Yin and Yang, Space Art, Way of Thunder, Path of the Physical Body, and amplification secret techniques... just thinking about it, I still feel shivers.”

Qin Zhiyan and the others agreed.

Then they strolled around together.

They visited the Dining Area, Book Collection Area, and finally returned to the Cultivation Area.

Jiang Ming casually chose a room and entered. Once inside, he was completely astonished. He had thought that the vitality concentration in the room would only be slightly richer, but the result...

There was a pool in the center of the room.

A pool of liquid, formed from condensed vital essence.

“This scale is unbelievable!”

He was truly shocked.

Besides that, he also felt waves of coolness in the room, which could quickly stabilize his mind and keep him calm.

This was definitely a supreme treasure for cultivation.

In addition, there were virtual projections, which could be connected to the Book Collection Area, so he could read many martial arts secrets right here.

Jiang Ming sat down directly in the pool, with the liquid level just covering three inches below his navel. After some contemplation, he began to operate the Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill. The liquid vital essence was madly absorbed into his body, refining his marrow.

His marrow had yet to reach perfection like silver frost.

However, his absorption speed was too fast. In just a short while, the liquid level dropped by an inch.

This was liquid vitality.

Containing an unimaginable amount of power.

Jiang Ming gasped in astonishment when he noticed that the consumed vital essence was actually being restored.

“Isn’t this endless then?”

He showed a strange expression.

Jiang Ming took out the elixir pill given by Long Aotian and swallowed it. As his mind was divided into two parts, one was operating the Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill to refine the elixir and absorb the essence liquid for body refinement, while the other opened the virtual projection, entering personal information verification before starting to read the books.

He started with the Zhou Tian Acupoint Map first. This map showed the positions of the 365 acupoints and the methods to open them very clearly. He quickly memorized everything in his mind and moved on.

It was enough to remember it.

If he tried to practice it now, it would be a waste of this opportunity.

Jiang Ming began to search for the word ‘realm of comprehension’ but only got results on the Ten Great Intentions and other classifications of realms..

Chapter 143: Chapter 105: Opening the Sky, Time and Space, Strength Soaring !

“No ultimate point!”

“And none of the other hidden realms I expected!”

Jiang Ming frowned, but didn’t think too much about it and continued reading the books.

He first looked at the Body Refinement path, on which his foundation was very shallow, and it was extremely difficult for him to deduce by relying on his own abilities. Now he took this opportunity to accumulate and precipitate a bit.

“The Body Refinement path that I have comprehended actually has detailed realm divisions: Skin and Flesh Refining, Forging Bones and Muscles, Quenching Viscera, Marrow Washing, Blood Replacement, Vajra, Big and Small Wish-Fulfillment, and Limb Regeneration.”

“Interesting!”

There are three body refining techniques that can reach the realm of limb regeneration.

This made Jiang Ming very happy.

There were also the orthodox cultivation methods of the Main World, which were refined from the whole, and each realm was equivalent to breaking a layer of shackles.

Jiang Ming was completely immersed in it.

His body was improving at a crazy speed.

One day later, Coach Yu looked strange.

He received the news that the consumption of the Primordial Liquid in the Cultivation Area was too fast, far beyond the expectation.

According to the estimates, it was good enough for Jiang Ming and the other four to consume a tenth of the stored Primordial Liquid during these days.

But it ran out today.

“The Primordial Liquid is flowing into the Cultivation Room No. 6, where Jiang Ming is cultivating. According to the calculations, ninety-nine percent of it was absorbed by him.”

This was the news that Coach Yu received.

He found it incredible.

Because the amount was too large.

“No wonder he is called the peerless genius that only appears once in a thousand years in our Tianzhong Province.” Coach Yu couldn’t help but sigh, then without hesitation, he continued to supply after discussing with several others.

A sufficient supply.

As long as it was needed, they would satisfy him.

They were not afraid of demons, but of mediocrity.

“Marrow like Silver Frost, has been refined to the extreme, achieving the Perfection of the fourth Body Refining Transition!” Jiang Ming was overjoyed.

His body refining was slow because he had to deduce the cultivation skills, break through the limits, and most importantly, he lacked resources. The collected medicine was insufficient to provide him with enough Power of Blood.

As for the absorbed Primal qi?

His Dantian was a big consumer, and so were the acupoints that had already been opened.

It simply wasn't enough.

But now the opportunity had come.

From that day on, Jiang Ming never went out again.

Techniques of Body Refinement, Martial Arts, and Divine Cultivation, all kinds of notes, countless comprehensions, etc., he had seen too many.

This completely made up for his foundation.

At the same time, he truly understood how to walk on the path in the future.

Divine Eighth Tier, Eight Layers of Qi Cultivation, Eight Transitions of Body Cultivation, a series of complete cultivation methods, he obtained many of them.

In addition, there were various secret skills and bizarre secret methods.

Jiang Ming swallowed them all like dates, transforming them into memories, settling in his Sea of Heart.

Today, the voice of Coach Yu sounded in the room: "Jiang (Student), it's the afternoon of the 13th, time to leave the closed-door training!"

"So soon?" Jiang Ming was surprised.

He woke up from his cultivation and reading, stood up, and a terrifying breath echoed in the room, then he converged it.

"What a pity, with millions of books, I have not read even a tenth of them even when I skimmed through them with my divine sense!"

Jiang Ming was helpless and somewhat regretful.

To him, this was the real treasure.

He focused his gaze, and his personal information appeared before his eyes.

Name: Jiang Ming

Qi Cultivation: Fifth Tier (Great Grandmaster, Yin-Yang Scripture)

Body Cultivation: Fifth Transition (Blood Replacement, Longxiang Heaven Suppressing Skill)

Divine Cultivation: Fifth Tier (Dharma Phase, Yin and Yang Refine Divine Technique)

Cultivation Skills: Ten Thousand Swords Return to One, Three Swords of Slaying Immortal, Heavenly Footwork, Inch Fist (Fifteenth Level), Yin and Yang Prohibition Skill, God Controlling Skill, Sword Control Skill, etc.

Talent: Hundredfold Comprehension, Reincarnation of Nirvana, Soul Dominator, Master of Space, Fate's Love (Temporary Solidification)

Mission: Become the Federal Martial Arts Champion in the final stage of the Martial Exam

Jiang Ming's information didn't change much.

It really didn't.

His Qi Cultivation hadn't improved at all, and no new acupoints had been opened. However, his Dantian and the more than two hundred acupoints that had already been opened were full.

His Divine Cultivation was still at the peak of the Fifth Tier Dharma Phase.

His Body Cultivation had improved greatly, reaching the peak of the Fifth Transition, and achieving great success in Blood Replacement.

His blood was like mercury, flowing like beads on plates when it circulated.

His Blood Qi was extremely vigorous.

Furthermore, the only secret skill Inch Fist he deduced had also greatly improved, reaching the realm of the fifteenth level.

Fifteenth Level?

That means a fifteen times amplification.

But the more he went to the later stages, the more difficult it was to deduce. It was quite difficult for him.

"The biggest benefit is that more than a hundred thousand books have entered my heart, turned into wisdom, and become the foundation."

Jiang Ming was very satisfied with this cultivation.

He opened the door and walked out.

“Brother Jiang, you’re awesome, you haven’t been out once in these days!” Long Aotian gave him a thumbs up, “With such a strong demeanor, you’re still burying your head to practice hard, making us feel ashamed. Even if we take you as a target, the four of us still come out to gather from time to time. Closed-door training is really boring.”

“Yeah, it’s too boring.” Lan Xin agreed, “That’s why we admire you even more.”

“To achieve extraordinary results, besides the stunning natural endowments, one also needs to have perseverance. In this aspect, we can’t compare to you.” Qin Zhiyan sighed as well.

Qiang Jiu nodded involuntarily.

“You have to suffer a lot in order to become a person above others!” Jiang Ming smiled, “Compared to you guys, all 1 have is hard work!”

“Bullshit!” Long Aotian jumped three feet high, “Who can obtain the path of space and Yin-Yang just by hard work?”

“This guy is too hypocritical!” Qiang Jiu fingered him.

“And loves to pretend to be low-key!” Qin Zhiyan laughed.

“Even more deserves to be beaten, but unfortunately not an opponent, otherwise I would definitely press him down and beat him hard to vent my frustration!” Lan Xin gritted her teeth..

Chapter 144: Chapter 105: Opening the Sky, Time and Space, Strength Soaring_3

Chatting and joking, they started to head out but abruptly stopped. The entrance was blocked by a few men.

One of them was Coach Yu, the other three were middle-aged cherishing power beyond belief. Their terrifying auras, as deep as a chasm or as chilling as a prison, gave Jiang Ming a start.

Were no match for them, we definitely cant take them on!

Jiang Ming sounded the alarm in his mind but remained calm.

So, did you make any progress? Coach Yu asked with a grin.

Our gains have been massive! Long Aotian interjected, I used to think that my Dragon Family had an extensive background, but compared to this place, its nothing!

An entirety of one provinces resources is assembled here, Coach Yu explained, There are definitely some things here that your Dragon Family does not have!

Long Aotian smiled but did not say anything else.

At this point, one of the middle-aged men turned to Jiang Ming saying, We, the three of us have maintained this place. One of us focuses on the Divine Path, one on the Path of Qi, and one on the Path of Body. Weve been waiting for you to consult us, but youve been doing closed-door training the entire time. Your diligence and tenacity are admirable qualities for a young man, but it might not help if you dont prioritise. We brought you here to strengthen your foundation, but the strongest foundation you can get is from us three. They ask questions frequently, but we have not seen you at all. Weve gone from anticipation to worry, to finally giving up.

He couldnt help but laugh at the end of his statement.

Young Jiang, you are too mature for your age. Thats not good! said another middle-aged man.

Your arrival here and us being here is fate. Moreover, you are the most powerful genius of our generation in Tianzhong Province. We have great expectations from you. We can answer one question each from you in this remaining time. said the last middle-aged man.

I was so captivated by the massive collection of books and the Primordial Qi that I lost track of time during my training! Jiang Ming replied while showing his respect, I apologize for causing concern to the elders.

The elder sighed

If you had come here earlier, maybe, your achievements would have been even greater.

If he had arrived earlier, and accumulated knowledge earlier

What level of proficiency he could have achieved?

Without any background or forces, he had come so far by only relying on two secret realm worlds, which was unbelievable.

From their point of view, the low-level Secret Realm was far inferior to this place.

If I had come here earlier, maybe I would have missed some valuable life lessons!
Jiang Ming laughed.

Good mentality! There are gains and losses in everything. All things in the world are interconnected, another middle-aged man said, Alright, you can ask your question now.

Thank you, elder! Jiang Ming said earnestly, thought for a moment, and then asked, Does walking the Path of the Soul naturally lead to the understanding of Soul Realms?

Yes and no! stated the man on the left. The Path of the Soul encompasses the laws of the Mind Master and is deemed invincible at the same level. However, it seems not so powerful in the early stage, and indeed it is. But once it reaches the Sixth Tier, that's when it becomes truly terrifying.

The Sixth tier of the Soul Path, also known as the Domain. To call it a Domain may not be entirely accurate, but it does implicate many issues.

Within the Domain, I am the king.

Once the Soul Path reaches the Sixth Tier, it will inevitably comprehend the Soul Realms. If one cannot comprehend, they will never step into the Sixth Tier and will always be a false Sixth-Tier.

Do you understand?

The man smiled and asked.

I understand! Jiang Ming nodded, The way of the soul and the Soul Realm are two different things. But, comprehension of the Soul Realm is a prerequisite for reaching the Sixth Tier. Without it, one can never break through.

Exactly! The other man nodded, A Sixth-Tier Soul Cultivator can trap gods, execute hearts, and shatter willpower in an instant. Within the Domain, one can turn the imaginary into reality, suppress myriad laws. It is known as One-Thought Kill and One-Thought Myriad Laws. Even the Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure of the Heavenly Phenomenon Realm can be driven away. The Blood Qi of the Body Refinement is strong enough to resist the Yin God, but if it is protected by a Domain, it is indeed hard to be harmed. Of course, every path has its unique features and taboo powers.

Jiang Ming listened attentively.

He was also reminded of the Sixth-Tier Soul Cultivator he had encountered in the Tianxuan World, who was probably not a real Sixth-Tier, but a false Sixth-Tier.

The domain they formed was not particularly strong.

There was a good chance it was a pseudo-domain.

The Domain of the Sixth Tier is fundamentally built on the comprehension of the Soul Realm. If the domain is formed by integrating other Realms into the Soul Power, then that is a pseudo-domain, a pseudo Sixth-Tier, the middle-aged man added.

Thank you elder! Jiang Ming finally understood the concept completely.

Long Aotian and his companions listened intently.

He asked his second question: In my understanding, there are fifteen major realms of comprehension in the world, yet only ten realms are recorded, whether in books or on the internet, or even here. Why is that? And what are the other five realms besides the Ultimate Point?

You know about the fifteen major realms of comprehension? The middle-aged man in the center was extremely surprised as he looked at Jiang Ming, You're not supposed to!

I learned of it in the World of the Secret Realm! Jiang Ming added his own sentence.

The others immediately wore a bizarre expression.

Coach Yu too.

They looked at Jiang Ming with complicated expressions.

Certainly, through this one sentence, they guessed something!

The middle-aged man cleared his throat and said: The Ten Great Intentions are comprehensible. The other five can only be achieved through immense Qi Luck, great source of blessing, great comprehension, and perseverance. If these are made public, it will only make some people aim too high and try to comprehend them, thereby wasting time for cultivation. Therefore, they have been hidden.

The Ten Great Intentions are: Time, space, soul, cause and effect, world, Yin and Yang, light and darkness, immeasurable, reincarnation, life and death. Beyond these, there are five even more terrifying realms!

Incorporating everything, encompassing all the Dao Resonance in the world, is the Chaos Realm, which is referred to as the source of the Dao, the origin of all things, and the course of destruction.

This is just a theoretical speculation, according to ancient records, no one has encompassed the Chaos Realm to date.

The second kind is the Spacetime Realm, the fusion of time and space.

Our existence is based on the sequence of time and rooted in space. The power of space-time seems visible and tangible, but it is the most mysterious. Its hard to get one out of time and space, let alone spacetime.

The third kind is the Dimension Creation Realm!

The Dimension Creation Realm, possesses the ultimate destructive power, capable of creating heaven and earth, destroying everything, nothing is indestructible.

Whether its the soul, Blood Qi, etc., under the Dimension Creation Realm, everything can be destroyed.

The fourth kind is the Creation Realm.

Rumors say that by comprehending this realm, one could deprive all beings of their vitality, grant spirituality to all things, and even create all things, etc.

Its too mystical.

The fifth kind is the Ultimate Point Realm.

Creation of Heaven belongs to creation and destruction.

The Ultimate Point belongs to the compression of ultimate power, condensing the strongest penetration power at one point, capable of penetrating space and reaching the end of time.

There is a saying that the end of the Ultimate Point is Chaos!

These five powers, just listen and let it be. If you really want to try to comprehend, youll have to wait until the Heavenly Human Realm. Otherwise, its purely a waste of time, youth, and life.

This man spoke all he knew.

But obviously too generalized, most of it is hearsay.

However, in any case, Jiang Ming now has a clear conception.

Chaos, creation of heaven, spacetime, creation, the ultimate point

He memorized them firmly in his heart.

At this moment, Long Aotian and his companions were all greatly shaken.

They couldnt have access to these secrets.

They felt as if they had opened their eyes today.

Last question, is there a Gene Evolution Skill in the way of body refinement? Jiang Ming asked in the end..

Chapter 145: Chapter 106: Breaking the Seal of the Nine

Tribulations Secret Scripture

Three questions, representing three paths.

Either the problem focuses on the crux of the matter or has great implications, hiding a peerless secret.

Through these three questions, Coach Yu and others looked at Jiang Ming with newfound respect. Without delving deeper into cultivation or encountering supreme beings or possessing terrifying wit and wisdom, one wouldn't be able to raise such concerns.

This question the middle-aged man pondered before continuing, I wasn't supposed to tell you, but since you asked, I'll give a simple explanation! There is indeed a Gene Cultivation Skill, but it is incredibly difficult. Cultivating genes means allowing the life level to sublimate and the essence to transform. Out of ten thousand people who try, nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine of them will die from gene collapse. The remaining one will experience various complex situations, with a very high chance of leading to a painful death. The essence of life is a forbidden force.

This is a huge topic!

And it's a goal we've been pursuing. Although many gene cultivation methods have been developed, none are perfect. No, it should be said that gene cultivation is itself plagued by a curse.

It seems reasonable when deducing and summarizing it, but practicing it will invariably lead to failure!

Our Martial Arts Qi Cultivation and Body Refinement are only about enhancing our strength on the foundation of our own life essence and consolidating our origin.

The essence of gene cultivation is a leap of life, which fundamentally differs from our concept.

Simply put, our ordinary cultivation is constantly digging into potential based on the foundation of human, reflecting Heavens Will with our inner self and controlling it with our small self.

But if gene cultivation succeeds, genes will change, and life will leap forward. Whether the result is still human becomes debatable. In fact, this is the ethical paradox of gene cultivation, which has always been controversial.

But the horror of gene cultivation cannot be denied.

In reality, some inherit Demonic Beast Bloodlines, Insect Race genes, Ghostly Power, and so on, which could also be considered alternative gene cultivation. CHeCk for *n*ew stories on

Like Long Aotian of the Dragon Family, who has the True Dragon Bloodline in his body. It is because his genes have integrated with True Dragon gene fragments that he possesses some power of the True Dragon once he awakens. At a glance, he appears human, but his genes have changed, and his life essence differs from that of a pure human.

This is the Pseudo Gene Sublimation Method.

In theory, the orthodox Gene Sublimation Method is about continuously strengthening and evolving genes based on human bloodlines, passing them on.

If the Dragon Family continues to fuse with the True Dragon genes and strengthens their bloodline, they could eventually transform into a True Dragon. So, are they human or dragon?

Bloodline, genes, talent these are the ultimate research topics for our human race, no, they span many races.

However, they are usually innate and determined by life essence. If broken, it shatters the iron law and breaches the taboo.

Whether pursuing bloodline or gene research, we cannot deny that any life possesses immense potential. Unleashing ourselves, strengthening our essence, we can still reach the pinnacle of the Myriad Heavens Worlds. This is the magnificent path followed by countless races.

The methods that involve fusing species bloodlines and altering genes are defined as side paths or unorthodox practices! But, ultimately, it is a way to enhance power, which is the fundamental reason for the research.

Only by embracing all laws and opening all paths can a grand situation be formed!

Being human, we belong to the body of the path. We are connected to the Zhou Tian Star and the Cosmos, and to the Nine Netherworlds and the Various Heavens Worlds below. Although humans are born fragile, we possess the most terrifying formability, the strongest comprehension, the most unyielding will, and the most potent potential.

Humans are the most precious and noble!

With that, the middle-aged man defined the essence.

Overall, gene cultivation methods exist, and many have been deduced and summarized. However, it is incredibly difficult to practice these techniques, and they have virtually no possibility of success.

The middle-aged man, with his words, described it as a forbidden force.

To break the taboo, one must bear unimaginable backlash.

Furthermore, integrating other bloodlines is considered as an alternative gene cultivation method, but this way of directly changing the life essence of a species is frowned upon or considered unorthodox.

Devouring, Nine Tribulations Secret Scripture!

Jiang Ming thought of a successful example of gene cultivation just as his mind was turning. However, it was merely a fantasy.

That method was also extremely difficult and even considered a universal taboo.

A secret skill cursed by the cosmos, even documenting it was extremely challenging.

Strengthening ones foundation and moving forward steadily is the most stable, sublime, and promising path! Coach Yu concluded.

Jiang Ming and the others couldn't help but nod.

They returned to the Provincial Mansion.

Long Aotian had his family accompany him, an old man who looked stubborn; Lan Xins parents came along with their daughter.

Qiang Jiu also had family members with him.

Qin Zhiyan and Jiang Ming were together.

Jiang Ming found it strange when he noticed that Zhiyan had no family around, but he didn't question her.

How was the harvest? Elder Tang took him away.

They would relax tonight and set off to Tianwu Sacred Academy tomorrow to start the final Federation Grand Examination.

The harvest was great, immense! Jiang Ming said, his expression turning serious, Elder Tang, its going to be very difficult for me to achieve the title of Federal Top Scorer this time!

Indeed, it will be difficult! Elder Tang sighed.

They arrived at a villa, which was his residence.

As the Vice President of Central Divine Martial College, he was more than qualified in terms of both strength and status..

Break the Seal_2

But there is only one nanny to clean at home.

“I just received the news myself, and didn’t expect so many terrifying geniuses to emerge. I was bewildered for quite a while after hearing the news—it’s simply inconceivable!” Elder Tang spoke gravely, “I have a feeling that the Golden Age is upon us. According to ancient records, each Golden Age is inevitably accompanied by the birth of countless monstrous geniuses, marking a true peak in martial arts. However, it also harbors the threat of calamitous disasters.” CHeCk for new stories on

“Fortune and misfortune are two sides of the same coin, as it has always been.”

“Underneath the prosperity, endless disaster lurks. Those who survive it will meet true glory; those who fail might welcome dark catastrophe.”

“No matter what the future holds, Jiang Ming, give it your all.”

Elder Tang considered the deeper implications.

Beneath the surface of prosperity, turbulent waves were bound to hide.

Ever since learning about the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, Jiang Ming understood one thing: beneath the apparent peace and prosperity of this world, there must be an undercurrent of extreme bloodshed.

The World of Secret Realm offers a glimpse into this.

“For me, it’s a good thing. Having so many formidable rivals to exchange ideas with will undoubtedly speed up my advancement in martial arts!” Jiang Ming was full of confidence, his voice resonating, “They may have unparalleled physiques, boundless talents, powerful backgrounds, but I’m not too shabby either. Only after the battle can we know who will ultimately emerge as the champion.”

“Haha, I love your pride, your arrogance!” Elder Tang couldn’t help but burst out laughing.

Quietly watching from the side, Qin Zhiyan’s beautiful eyes flashed.

Jiang Ming couldn’t help but laugh.

Elder Tang then turned his gaze onto Qin Zhiyan, his voice softened a bit, “Regarding your situation, I know a little. Regardless of your performance in the Grand Examination, your results are your capital. If you go back to your clan, your status will definitely not be low, but... the Qin family, hmm, is full of old, stubborn conservatives!”

“If you go back, your future will be planned out for you, and your achievements will not be low.”

“Do you want to go back?”

Elder Tang asked.

“No!” Qin Zhiyan shook her head without hesitation. “My mother did her best to let me leave, allowing me a peaceful life as my true self. But I wasn’t willing to settle, alas, my natural endowment is average, so the only thing I could do was try my luck in the World of the Secret Realm. I didn’t expect to rise with Jiang Ming’s help.”

“Since my rise, once I participate in the final Grand Examination, I knew that the Qin family would pay attention to me. I’m afraid they’re watching me now, after all, Jiang Ming is too famous, and we both come from the same school.”

“According to their way of doing things, they will surely ask me to return to the family after the Grand Examination. Because this year’s Grand Examination is special and I’m able to participate in the final examination and compete with the Tianjiao, I will be considered relatively distinguished. My worth will be higher, and they will be able to sell me for a good price!”

Her face was filled with scorn and hatred as she uttered her last sentence.

“After participating in the final Grand Examination, you will have the right to reject, not just the Tianwu Sacred Academy, but even the Central Divine Martial College, let’s see if they dare to force you?” Elder Tang sneered, “It’s just a poor Qin family, they may be in decline but they still want to put their clan rules above federal laws? Nothing more than a bunch of deluded old men. If they overstep, they can be crushed with a slap.”

Clearly, he held no favorable impression of the Qin Family.

“Can you tell me what exactly happened?” Jiang Ming asked.

Elder Tang looked to Qin Zhiyan.

“Sure!” Qin Zhiyan didn’t refuse but simply nodded, speaking softly, “I was born into the Qin family, located far away in Qinchuan Province.”

Qinchuan Province?

This Qin was from that Qin Family.

In times past, the Qin Family was a powerful clan in the Federation, renowned for producing countless Tianjiao, who struck fear into the hearts of numerous races in the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield.

But after their glory, they eventually declined.

In the current era, the older generation changed their strategy to protect the family’s reputation—arranging marriages for the talented women in their family to influential figures in order to maintain the pride of the Qin Family. This strategy had been used for several generations.

“In order to cultivate more quality daughters, the Qin Family schemed to marry many talented women, most of whom came from the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield!” Elder Tang interjected, “Miss Qin’s mother was from there, originally she was...”

He hesitated.

“Elder Tang, I already know!” Qin Zhiyan laughed bitterly, “My mother was from the Red Flame Cold Ice Bird clan, she was captured and ended up in the Qin Family. This is the real reason why I have some talent in the Water and Fire Path.”

“The Red Flame Cold Ice Bird clan, indeed advantageous by nature, but your talent is not just that, it should have been sealed by your mother!” Elder Tang sighed, “Perhaps she just wanted you to live peacefully, and happily.”

Qin Zhiyan’s eyes turned red.

“My mother took me and broke out of the Qin Family. Although my elder sister secretly helped us, we were still severely injured. Not long after settling here, she...” Qin Zhiyan sobbed, “Everything here was arranged covertly by my older sister!”

She looked at Jiang Ming: “This is also the reason for my constant cultivation struggle and why I risked my life to enter the World of Secret Realm. I did hesitate at times because my mother’s dying words were only wishing for me to live peacefully, and to have a life truly belonging to me.”

“But I really can’t accept it!”

“I want to fight for my mother.”

“I want to fight against my destiny!”

“And more than anything, I want to trample on the Qin Family.”

Qin Zhiyan revealed her hidden thoughts and couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief. She then knelt before Elder Tang.

“Elder Tang, you said there is a seal my mother left inside me. Please help me break it, I want to fight and see if destiny has truly abandoned me!”

She was persistent.

“Think carefully!” Elder Tang warned sternly, “Once the seal is broken and if you don’t return to the Qin Family, that group of old stubborn ones will regard you as a disgrace and will truly target you. If the seal is not broken, there is still room for maneuver.”

“Elder Tang, ever since I stepped into the secret realm world, I have decided to struggle against my destiny!” Qin Zhiyan declared with determination.

“Good child!” Elder Tang let her stand up, “In the past, I would have hesitated, because your accumulation was not enough, and your foundation was not solid. But now you’re ready.”

He lifted his finger and pointed it at a fake mountain in the distance. Immediately, a fleeting light flashed by, and Jiang Ming realized that countless symbols appeared in the void, which then disappeared, as if nothing had changed.

“This is a Formation that can isolate Qi!” Elder Tang gave a brief explanation, his aura changed slightly, as if a terrible Heavenly Might had descended.

“This isn’t Heavenly Phenomenon Pressure, not at all.” Jiang Ming’s pupils shrunk, “Is it the Way of Heaven and Man?”

“The Way of Heaven and Man, Power of Truth.” Elder Tang seemed to see through his inner thoughts, and explained, “In Martial Dao Sixth Level Celestial State, using oneself as a basis, the Realm of comprehension is branded in the void, controlling the Power of Dao Resonance like Heavenly Might. Going further, understanding the deeper Power of Dao Resonance, merges the Realm of comprehension, will, spirit, and Qi into the Void, human heart with Heavenly Heart, Heaven and Man unified, every action is Heavenly Might.”

As his voice trailed off, he pointed a finger at Qin Zhiyan.

Suddenly, the Power of Water and Fire emanated from her body, intertwined with each other. There was a faint sound of something cracking.

Humming...

Then, the Power of Water and Fire on Qin Zhiyan’s body began to boil, followed by bird’s chirping. She radiated a Water and Fire intertwined brilliance that transformed into a gigantic bird covering above her head, only to be confined by the power of the Formation.

“The awakening of the Power of Origin Seyal has been cracked, her natural talent is commendable, it’s quite stunning!” Elder Tang’s eyes lit up and then nodded, “That’s true, she has comprehended the Power of Water and Fire, this is actually the power of Origin controlled by the Vermilion Flame Icebird, so the awakening is natural. This girl’s potential and power will increase by two levels, not inferior to people like Long Aotian, perhaps even better, since she’s from a second-generation bloodline. If she can further comprehend the Way of Yin and Yang, that would really be amazing.”

Having said that, he weirdly glanced at Jiang Ming.

“Elder Tang, your look is not quite right.” Jiang Ming mysteriously felt a chill.”

However, Qin Zhiyan’s changes surprised him.

He clearly felt her Qi increasing rapidly, and even the Water-Fire Realm was constantly improving.

At the same time, the energy of Heaven and Earth was also rushing towards her, transforming into a vortex and pouring into her body.

“Hehe, there will be benefits for you in the future!” Elder Tang only responded with a cunning smile and didn’t explain. However, it made Jiang Ming feel even more uneasy, having a bad premonition..

Chapter 147: Chapter 107: First Encounter with the Supreme Bone, Three-Eyed Yang Jian

Elder Tang saw that Qin Zhiyan's breath was stable, stood up, and waved to Jiang Ming before walking out.

Jiang Ming watched quietly and waited patiently.

Her breath gradually converged.

Qin Zhiyan opened her eyes. She was already incredibly sweet and beautiful, and now she was even more breathtaking. Her eyes were filled with innocence, yet there was a hint of seduction.

"Congratulations!" Jiang Ming smiled.

"I didn't expect to awaken directly." Qin Zhiyan sounded a little sad. She took a deep breath, then smiled. "If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be who I am today."

She stared at Jiang Ming and tilted her head, "I have a very sensitive feeling now. You give me a terrifying sensation as if there is a ferocious giant beast lurking within you. Once it awakens, it will rule the world."

A giant beast?

Indeed, there is one.

But it is resting for now.

Jiang Ming was speechless and asked, "How do you feel?"

"Very good, extremely good. My body has been baptized and become much stronger. My True Qi quality has improved by one grade, and I have a more exquisite control of the power of Water and Fire. My Realm of Comprehension has directly reached the Great Success stage, and I'm not far from the perfection of Water and Fire. I vaguely feel that there is another power hidden in my body, on the edge of awakening."

"The power of Bloodline Ability?" Jiang Ming's heart moved, and he said involuntarily.

"It should be!" Qin Zhiyan hesitated. "Long Aotian has the True Dragon Battle Body. In comparison, I inherited more of my mother's bloodline and should possess some unique abilities of the Vermilion Flame Icebird. But without guidance, it needs to be developed bit by bit."

"However..." Qin Zhiyan looked troubled. "Am I still a human now?"

“Haha...” Jiang Ming couldn’t help but laugh. “Brother Long had the same doubts. What did we say at that time? That he was a long worm. But you, you are a human, a beautiful one!”

“Brother Jiang...” Qin Zhiyan softly scolded, causing Jiang Ming to feel a tingling sensation.

In the following time, the two of them turned on their phones to contact their classmates and watch other provinces’ Grand Examinations.

As expected, there were more geniuses than in the previous years.

A lot more.

Jiang Ming took a quick look and then closed his eyes.

The upcoming examinations, if he wanted to achieve the final first place, would be extremely difficult.

Great Wilderness Holy Body, Supreme Bone, Three Eyes, Innate Path Body...

And that’s only part of it.

What about people like Qin Zhiyan and Long Aotian with special bloodlines?

And those who have comprehended terrifying inheritances and extremely strong Realms of Comprehension?

“My killing moves are no longer enough!”

“The Three Swords of Slaying Immortal need to be deduced again!”

“I need a comeback ultimate killing move!”

Jiang Ming thought about it, immersing himself in his own world. Part of his mind was merged with his body, and another part was merged with Heaven and Earth, deducing secret skills, and integrating Prohibited Skills.

Qin Zhiyan, who was sitting next to him, suddenly shuddered and looked at Jiang Ming in shock.

“It’s similar to the aura emitted by Qiang Jiu!”

“Intention of Penetration?”

Qin Zhiyan was surprised and felt it was only natural.

“Brother Jiang truly deserves to be a once-in-eternity genius!”

Sighing, her eyes softened.

Soon, she noticed ripples in the space around Jiang Ming, making her feel an enormous threat. She quickly retreated to the side and shook her head helplessly, “Even after awakening the power of my maternal race, my strength still pales in comparison to Brother Jiang’s.”

From time to time, Jiang Ming’s body emitted a terrifying aura, making Qin Zhiyan feel shocked and unsettled.

However, as time passed, his breath became more and more elusive, eventually blending into Heaven and Earth, becoming one with nature.

Elder Tang didn’t return until the next day.

Jiang Ming also opened his eyes.

He seemed unsatisfied.

Qin Zhiyan said nothing, looking up at the sky, biting her teeth, before looking at Jiang Ming with a faint voice: “Do you know that you deserve a beating?” “Really?” Jiang Ming rubbed his nose, his eyes full of confusion.

Qin Zhiyan rolled her eyes.

After experiencing two World of Secret Realms, he was still so innocent?

What a load of bull!

No, 1 don’t have balls!

Pull...

Ahem!

“You gained something again!” Elder Tang laughed. “Back in my day, 1 was just like you, improving day by day, improving every night, and was also regarded as a Tianjiao. 1 ranked first in the Sea Election in the third province, and finally ranked in the top five in the Grand Examination. However, as time went by, my talents gradually faded, and now I’m only guarding this small plot of land. Old, I’m really old.”

“Elder Tang, with your realm, living a few hundred years should be very stable. With this calculation, you might still be considered young!” Jiang Ming laughed.

“Haha, you little guy with a sweet mouth, you must be good at coaxing girls.” Elder Tang couldn’t help but laugh. “Let’s go, have breakfast first, then go to the Provincial Mansion to gather and head to Tianwu Sacred Academy.”

“Elder Tang, I’d like to enter the World Secret Realm again to consolidate my gains.” Jiang Ming said, “I originally felt that winning the Champion of the Grand Examination was a sure thing. But now, I have no confidence. Anyway, it’s only an hour to go back and forth, there’s enough time. Can I borrow this Ten Thousand Realms Tower here?”

“You can use any Ten Thousand Realms Tower, but...” Elder Tang shook his head. “Since the beginning of the Provincial Examination, the World Secret Realm has been sealed.”

“Sealed?”

“Yes. In the past, due to the emergence of many geniuses and abundant rewards, many geniuses entered the World Secret Realm after the Provincial Examination to sprint for the final ranking. Coincidentally, a special world appeared at that time, and the result...there were heavy casualties, which shocked the entire Federation.” Elder Tang explained the reason, “Since then, the World Secret Realm has been temporarily closed during the Provincial Examination and won’t be reopened until the end of the Grand Examination..”

Chapter 148: Chapter 107: First Encounter with the Supreme Bone, Three-Eyed Yang Jian_2

So that's how it is, what a pity! Jiang Ming sighed and asked with a sudden thought, I entered the World of secret realm twice. The first time it was brand new, with no Descenders; the second time there were Descenders, but the gap was a hundred years. I want to know, are all secret realm worlds independent, or are there countless replicas?

This was a question that always lingered in his heart.

If they were independent, then how many worlds would there be?

If there were replicas

Jiang Ming's heart grew heavy.

Qin Zhiyan shot him a sideways glance, pursed her lips, and muttered under her breath: All men are like pigs.

They are both independent and yet replicating! Elder Tang exposed a strange smile. With a raise of his hand, a stream of water was brought over and several branches diverged out from it extending in all directions. The divisions continued non-stop until the branches formed a dense mesh.

Do you understand? Elder Tang asked with a smile.

I see, in the beginning, a secret realm world is unique. When the first Descender arrives, it evolves in a specific direction. At the same time, without Descenders, it follows a predetermined path. Each additional Descender creates another world along the course of time. Over time, the number of secret realm worlds increases, Jiang Ming realized.

Indeed! Elder Tang nodded, Two seemingly identical secret realm worlds are, in fact, completely different. Even with the same background, different characters and dynasties emerge, resulting in entirely bizarre worlds. Im not clear about the origin of the secret realm worlds, but according to conjecture, there must have been many sources at the beginning which then evolved into various types of worlds. Moreover, if a person in a secret realm world breaks free from the shackles of fate, shatters the Void, and soars upwards, they will become the true self. The true self is unique, this is only speculation, but it is quite plausible.

Numerous sources have evolved into endless worlds, Jiang Ming couldnt help but gasp, To shatter the Void, turn the illusory into reality, and become the unique true self, what horrifying power is needed to accomplish this?

He truly was shocked.

Qin Zhiyan was also immensely stunned.

Thats why, the more you know, the more you feel your insignificance, Elder Tang looked up wistfully as he spoke, hands clasped behind his back, Even now, although I have achieved some success, I still feel like a drop in the ocean, extremely insignificant. Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, Ten Thousand Clans, Various Heavens, and Cosmic Starry Sky. You can think about how vast the sky is above our heads, while we are still struggling on this planet, unable to break free from the planets shackles to go to space, let alone traverse the starry sea.

Thats why, young man, the cosmos is above your head, but the path is under your feet. Work hard! Elder Tang laughed, Step by step, eventually you will be able to measure the cosmic starry sky.

I took one step after another, reaching the end of time, only to return to the starting point!

Haha, you naughty boy!

After breakfast, they arrived at the provincial mansion.

Even though they had only been apart for one night, the reunion felt incredibly warm.

Coach Yu was the one to lead them to Tianwu Sacred Academy this time as well.

As the Vice Principal of Central Divine Martial College, Elder Tang was allowed to accompany them, but other family members were not allowed.

Despite sitting next to Coach Yu on the warplane, the group no longer felt uncomfortable around each other.

Little Dragon, did you ask when you went back? Are you really a dragon or a worm?
Lan Xin teased.

Of course, I am a dragon! Long Aotian replied confidently.

Oh, I see, you're not human after all! Jiang Ming pretended to realize and then bellowed, Demon, show your true form! When else will you do it!

This left Long Aotian dumbfounded.

Lan Xin and the others couldn't help but laugh.

Jiang Ming checked the class group chat on his phone, with messages scrolling by rapidly.

Liu Yi: Latest update, Jiang Ming has boarded the warplane for the Grand Examination. Grand Examination, warplane, I've given up hope for this in my lifetime.

Yin Xinchao: No worries. Have a hundred or two hundred children, there's bound to be a genius who can replace you.

Ma Chao: Haha, that sounds like a plan!

Wang Fatty: Watch out for Jiang Ming and the class monitors' appearance, just one slap from each and you'll be obliterated.

Liu Yi: Trembling with fear!

Liu Yi: Jiang Ming, come on, I'll be praying for you 36 hours a day.

Wang Chuan: Good job, everyone else does it for 24 hours, you actually added half a day.

Wang Fatty: Reversing time, that's the hidden boss among us ordinary people. Worship!

Liu Yi: Worship!

Han Li: Worship!

Liu Xin: Jiang Ming, Zhiyan, have you guys arrived yet? What does the Saint Academy look like? Send pictures, please.

Jiang Ming: Still on the warplane.

Qin Zhiyan: Hehe, will send pictures once we arrive!

Wang Fatty: Good heavens, the gods have blown their cover!

Han Li: Thighs are here; hug them tightly!

Wang Fatty: A bad image appeared in my mind.

Liu Yi: A bad image appeared in my mind, dog head!

Yin Xinchao: A bad image appeared in my mind, one thigh each, dog head!

Jiang Ming smiled and sent a private message to Wang Fatty: How is it?

Wang Fatty: Hehe, Im pretty badass now. Using your name as my deskmate and buddy, I can enjoy the best for free every day, and theres a new flavor every day. Oh, what a taste, how wonderful. Ming, my brother, my own brother, work hard, strive for a first place, so we can enjoy all the citys entertainment for free in the future, even occasionally go to the Provincial City and have fun..

Supreme Bone, Three-Eyed Yang Jian_3

Jiang Ming: Get to the point!

Wang Fatty: Very good, extremely good! I can eat so much now without gaining weight. My strength is improving rapidly. I think Ill be able to reach the Martial Realm of the Third Level within half a year at most.

Jiang Ming: Thats good. When you get to university, be sure to report your special abilities so you can get more resources for cultivation.

Wang Fatty: Got it! Ming, Im counting on you for my future happiness!

Jiang Ming: Heh, I've just comprehended a curse. Want me to try it on you, so your spear will never stand tall again?

Wang Fatty: Damn, you're ruthless!

They chatted for a while before hanging up the phone.

Instructor Yu clapped his hands to attract everyone's attention, then began: I'll explain the rules of the Grand Examination. Both provincial contestants and latecomer geniuses will participate in the initial screening together. Ten will be selected as seeded contestants, advancing directly to the finals. Eighty others will enter the semi-finals. The top ten of the remaining contestants will join the semi-finalists to form a team of ninety. They'll compete in round-robin battles, with the ten contestants with the highest points facing the seeded contestants!

All in all, there will be a total of twenty-two days of competition!

The first day is for selecting the seeded contestants, divided into different levels.

The second day is for determining the final ten to join the semi-finals from the remaining ninety.

The third day is for selecting the top ten from the semi-finalists!

Starting from the fourth day, there will be only one battle platform, and each person can only compete once a day. So, there will be ten battles per day for nineteen days!

Time is abundant, which provides a rare opportunity for you to broaden your horizons. This is also a once-in-a-lifetime chance for you to grow! Seize the opportunity to hone yourself, and you might reap great rewards!

This is even better than experiencing one or two secret realm worlds!

As long as you make it to the finals, you will receive a huge reward, an unparalleled opportunity. There are also significant benefits for the top hundred competitors.

I heard that the rewards this time exceed those of previous years.

Go for it!

Instructor Yu shared everything he knew and didn't forget to encourage them.

Long Aotian was moved, but remained silent.

Make it to the finals?

Although twenty places seem like a lot, when divided among the 108 Provinces, numerous Secret Realms, and the Ten Thousand Realms Battlefield, it is just too few.

Lets fight for the top hundred! Lan Xin didnt set her sights too high.bender

Top twenty, huh? Qiang Jiu glanced at Jiang Ming, then looked at Long Aotian, his mouth curving into a small smile and gritting his teeth. Finally, he showed his determination, Lets give it a try. My spear technique is second to none!

Jiang Ming turned to Instructor Yu and asked: Instructor, what cultivation level do the strongest students in the Grand Examination have? Are there any Heavenly Phenomenon Realm students?

No! Instructor Yu shook his head, Those who can make it to the Grand Examination usually have extraordinary backgrounds and are extremely intelligent. They would not choose to force their growth, instead opting for a steady path to accumulate experience step by step, for a better future.

But to quickly advance through the Martial Arts Fifth Layer is practically impossible. Its a huge threshold!

Opening up the 365 acupoints one by one and having them overflow with Qi, how long would that take?

In the Way of Souls, the Sixth Tier is also a threshold, because understanding the realms of the soul is extremely difficult.

As for Body Refinement? Instructor Yu hesitated for a moment, In theory, Body Refinement is even more difficult. Each step is a world apart, filled with perilous barriers and extreme limits. However, with the emergence of the Great Wilderness Holy Body and the Supreme Bone, its hard to say.

Jiang Mings heart sank.

Not long after, their warplane came to a halt.

Everyone got off one by one.

It was a huge platform, with a panoramic view of tiered mountains in all directions. It was clearly formed by cutting off the top of a mountain.

At this moment, numerous warplanes had already landed here. After dropping off the passengers, they immediately took off to make room for others. RêAd lateSt chapters at Only Warplanes were constantly landing and taking off.

Jiang Ming sensed something and turned his head, seeing a young man who had just disembarked from a warplane.

The young man looked very young, but he exuded a noble air.

He had a warm smile on his face.

Supreme Bone! Jiang Ming looked at the young mans chest and inexplicably felt an extremely terrifying power hidden within.

The young man sensed something and looked over at Jiang Ming while giving a slight nod.

Jiang Ming nodded in response.

As the young man looked at someone else and called out, Yang Jian!

Shitou, so you really came.

The young man had a vertical mark at the center of his forehead, which was his tightly closed third eye. Despite his arrogant and confident demeanor, he strode over with large steps.

He covered a distance of more than a hundred meters in just two or three steps.

It was obvious that the two knew each other well.

Three-Eyed Yang Jian?

Jiang Mings mouth twitched.

If his eyes were emitting red light, he would be really cunning; if he were carrying a triangular double-edged blade, he could be mistaken for a Law Enforcement Celestial..

Chapter 150: Chapter 108: Reincarnation, Devouring, and Mobilizing the Power of the Provincial Mansion

Jiang Ming never expected that he would run into these two just upon arrival.

Yang Jian?

Shitou?

He couldn't help but feel his scalp tingling.

Then they were taken to a place halfway up the mountain and settled into a delicate courtyard. The main house was a two-story building, surrounded by six or seven independent bedrooms, enough for several people to stay.

After getting settled, Coach Yu left in a hurry.

Elder Tang stayed behind and said with a smile, "You can wander around at will, but remember not to cause trouble. If you encounter any problems, contact me or Coach Yu immediately, and come back at night."

"I've been wanting to visit Saint Academy for a long time, and now I finally have the chance. Who's going with me?" Long Aotian was very excited.

"Not going, preparing for battle!" Lan Xin said simply.

"I need some more time to settle down!" Qiang Jiu went straight into a room on his own.

"I also need to think it over further!" Qin Zhiyan said too.

She had just awakened her mother's bloodline and was now short on time; she couldn't afford to leave.

Long Aotian looked at Jiang Ming expectantly.

"Don't look at me!" Jiang Ming laughed. "There are too many powerful people around, and the pressure is immense. I also need to continue deducing secret skills. One day and one night is enough for me to improve two or three." "You're insane!" Long Aotian gritted his teeth, sighing. "As well, I might as well cultivate! I'm afraid that after the Grand Examination, I won't be able to stay here and wander around, which would be a great loss."

"You lack ambition, making plans for failure before it even starts." Jiang Ming said speechlessly. "Work harder and strive to make it into the top hundred. I heard that those who rank within the top hundred can basically stay at Saint Academy!"

"There may be more places this year since there are so many geniuses." Elder Tang added.

"That's great! I'm going to start closed-door training now!" Long Aotian directly chose a room.

"Is it because he was repressed for too long during his last practice session?" Jiang Ming looked at Lan Xin. "It seems like he's let go of his stress now when he should actually be grasping his time more tightly."

“Being in the top five of the Provincial Mansion and obtaining your Inch Fist, he probably received encouragement from his family’s patriarch. A child who has been suppressed since childhood can hardly stand such kindness, so now he becomes overly excited.” Lan Xin speculated.

But her understanding of Long Aotian was quite close to the truth.

“Poor child!” Jiang Ming couldn’t help but laugh. “Being so optimistic, he really has a good mentality.”

“Indeed!” Lan Xin agreed.

Everyone returned to their rooms.

The place was fully equipped for living, and Elder Tang had brewed a pot of tea and brought it over, sitting under the tree in the courtyard.

“Tianwu Sacred Academy is the highest institution in the Federation and a sacred place for martial artists. There are countless powerful people here, and even I am not ranked among them. Since it’s a holy place, material supplies are far beyond ordinary people’s imagination. For example, this tea for welcoming guests is called Wake-up God. One cup refreshes the mind, two cups expand one’s comprehension, and three cups seem to reveal the true face of Heaven and Earth.” Elder Tang laughed as he poured Jiang Ming a cup, “Of course, that’s just a joke, but this tea is indeed a rare treasure.”

“It smells great!” Jiang Ming picked up the cup and took a sniff. The aroma went straight to his head, invigorating him. He took a sip and his eyes lit up, “Great tea!”

“Of course, it’s great tea!” Elder Tang took a sip from the cup and slowly savored it. “But compared to the real world’s finest teas, it’s still not ranked.” “What do you mean, sir?”

“Not in a hurry to cultivate?”

“I can split my intent in two, enjoying the tea while deciphering secret skills!”

“Good boy, you have this ability.” Tang Laoda praised, “In the future, you can look for the Beheading Mind Division Method which allows you to split your intent even more. When one aspect becomes tired, it can rest while the other continues to ponder, maintaining peak condition at all times. However, there is one downside: over time, it can cause personality splitting and mental fatigue.” “Elder Tang, although I am determined, I won’t be abusing myself.” Jiang Ming laughed.

“That’s a good mentality!” Elder Tang agreed heartily, “Life is too long, and it’s difficult to see the final outcome; life is also too short, because there’s too much to do. Actually, are all the necessary things really that important? Otherwise, it’s just ordinary people troubling themselves. Without someone in this world, things will still move on. Just do your best, be loyal to the heavens and the earth, your parents, and have a clear conscience. That's enough. Embrace life, put in the hard work, and enjoy every moment, whether it's poetic or mundane."

"You are very open-minded, sir!" Jiang Ming admired.

People's troubles often stem from discontent.

When they don't have something, they want it; when they have it, they want something better. Endless desires breed countless troubles.

Lie down, and everything is all right.

In layman's terms: Screw it, I just want to eat, drink, and be merry, without a care for the troubles of the world.

"Of course, this kind of open-mindedness can lead to a lack of ambition!" Elder Tang laughed and continued, "Speaking of tea, if the tea leaves are good, the water is good, and once it's boiled, it's good tea. As for the various tea ceremonies, most of them are simply labeled 'elegance,' in general, it's simply a display of leisure. Without going off-topic, the best tea I know of must be the Enlightenment Tea. With a single sip, one's comprehension soars, approaching the dao resonance of Heaven and Earth, falling into the realm of enlightenment."

"Now that's truly the world's finest tea!"

"I have never tasted it, and I regret it very much!"

"Secondly, I think it is the Blood God Tea. This tea is extremely unusual, truly a rare treasure in the cosmos. A sip can unlock a person's potential, even directly awakening their bloodline power.."
