

Chapter 180 Stupid Remark

Nikolay's p.o.v.

Khal forces me to lie down next to her and as I wrap my arms around her Khal starts purring. I pull her closer to my chest as I bury my nose in her hair. I close my eyes as I inhale her scent and a moment later movement next to me makes me open my eyes to see our Angel looking at me with a smile on her face, before I can say anything she presses her lips against mine. I tangle a hand in her hair before I deepen the kiss and I enjoy exploring every inch of her mouth,

She pulls her left leg up over my leg, allowing me to press my raging hard-on against her core and she softly moans into my mouth. I keep pressing my cock against her clit with more force on every thrust and it takes a few seconds before she starts moving in the same rhythm.

“Fuck, Angel. This feels so fucking good.” I whisper against her lips and I roll over on my back pulling her with me, letting both of my hands move to her hips to guide her movement.

I feel her hand sneaking between our bodies and I expect her to go for my cock but instead she starts to unbutton my pants. She pulls it down my legs with my boxers in one go and I see her lick her lips as she is looking at my rock-hard cock, it twitches as she lets a finger run from the base to the head.

She smiles at me as she moves back up my body and before I understand what she is going to do she lowers herself on my cock, slowly inch by inch. Our eyes are locked as she moves up my cock before lowering herself again, moving in a teasingly slow way and I enjoy every fucking second of it.

My hands are still on her hips but she doesn't need my help to move herself up and down my cock and I let one hand glide over her ass cheek towards her backdoor, her breathing hitching when I press my middle finger against it.

“Fuck, that feels good.” Alayah moans and I keep pressing against her hole as she keeps moving up and down my cock.

She never loses her slow movement until my finger slips into her ass and I decide to speed things up a little bit, moving my finger in and out of her ass faster as she follows my rhythm going up and down my cock.

I place my other hand in her neck to pull her down and as our tongues are snaking around one another I push a second finger into her ass, forcing a moan from her mouth into my mouth. I push both fingers as deep as I can go as I start pushing my hips up, moving faster with every thrust into her body.

We break the kiss to catch our breath and she puts her hands on the headboard to push down my cock as I push my hips up, going deeper with every thrust. Her pussy starts clenching around my cock the moment I feel my balls tighten and we both scream the other's name when we come at the same time, shooting my load deep into her pussy.

I pull her down to my chest as we are both breathing heavily and it takes a while before I hear her breathing even out, my eyes close slowly as I listen to her breathing.

Someone pushing against my chest wakes me up and I think I finally understand how my Brothers felt after having their very vivid dreams about our Angel. I slowly open my eyes to be met by the emerald, green eyes of Alayah and I see a shade of red covering her cheeks.

Fuck, I had come in my pants with my Mate right next to me and you don't have to be a genius to understand that she has noticed it.

“Hi.” I say because I am not sure she will appreciate it if I call her Angel. “Hi,” She replies and I see her eyes wonder down my body.

“I am sorry for that, it seems that we have all had these dreams.” I say with my eyes closed and what I hear next makes my eyes fly open.

“When did they have those dreams?” Alayah asks and without hesitation I tell her when my Brothers had their dreams.

“Fuck, that is when I woke up in their beds.” She mumbles into my chest.

I wrap my arms around her as I kiss her forehead, “What do you think that might mean, Angel?” I ask, taking a leap of faith.

“I don't know, I couldn't even remember the dreams and I really tried to remember them. I can't even remember what this dream was about, but something tells me it was pretty real for you.” I hear her mumble before she starts giggling and I smile as I softly growl at her.

“Watch it, Angel, or I will take you over my knees. Or maybe I should call Noah in here.” I say teasingly and I feel her pressing her thighs together.

“Angel, we know that we hurt you and all we ask is that you listen to us. We are not asking you to forgive us this instant, but we are hoping that after we explain everything you will allow us to be a part of your life and if it is up to me I hope to build this bond that is between us.” I say as I make her look up at me. “Noah is aware of the fact he should have used a few different words and he has been beating himself up for screwing things up with you.”

Alayah seems to be discussing things with Topaz and I decide to give them some time to have their conversation, “I am going to take a shower before I go find the others, take all the time you need.” I say before I get off the bed, I grab a change of clothing before I walk into the bathroom and I take my time to shower and get dressed.

She is still talking to Topaz when I get out of the bathroom and I close the door behind me to go looking for my Brothers.

I find our entire family in the living room and Mara asks if Alayah is still sleeping, “No, she woke up a little while ago. She is talking to Topaz and I decided to give them some time to decide whether or not they want to listen to what we have to say.” I say as I sit down in my armchair.

“I asked her to listen to what we have to say and that we don't expect her to forgive us this instant. I think it will be best if Noah starts with explaining why he made that stupid remark.”
