

Chapter 269

Alpha Talon's P.O.V.

Xandros links me and I want to tell him not to bother me. "Father, you need to know this." And the sound of his voice makes me change my mind, I tell him to come to my office.

I am in a videocall with Roger and I tell him that Xandros needs to talk to me.

"Leave this running, I might be able to help if there are problems." I nod my head and turn the laptop, so Xandros can't see that Roger is listening in.

After he knocks on the door, I tell him to enter and within a second I know that whatever it is he wants to tell me, is really bad news.

"Xandros, what is the matter?" I ask as my Son takes a seat. He looks as if he is thinking about the right words to say and instead of rushing him, I actually give him the time.

"Father, I don't know what really happened, but by the time I got there, Taliyah was holding Alena by her throat. A lot of Pack-members had already gathered around them and Ayden had called in a few Warriors."

I see no harm in what he is telling me and I smirk as I say "We both know they don't get along. It wouldn't surprise me if Alena made demands on dinner and Tali was not comfortable with it."

He shakes his head and I can see a frown forming on Roger's face. "Father, Alena charged her with assault and attacking a Luna. The Pack convicted her and I already called the Council to come get her."

Roger and I both shout in anger "What the Fuck." I start pacing behind my desk, because this is going to ruin everything. I know Xandros only did what he was supposed to do, but with the Council being informed I cannot keep my Daughter here.

I dismiss Xandros and sit down again, looking at Roger who is fuming. "That Bitch of yours is going to pay." He grumbles and I just nod my head.

Alena knew what we had planned for Tali and her lack of control just costed me dearly.

Taliyah's P.O.V.

I have packed everything and right now I am just waiting on the Council's Delta's to show up.

I look outside and wonder if I will ever see Blue Crystal Mountain again, Elder Matthew told me about the Human civilization and that this had once been known as the Kittatinny Mountain in the Kittatinny Valley in the state of New Jersey.

Nowadays a Pack's Territory is named after the Pack that has claimed it, so this Territory is now known as Blue Crystal Territory.

I have no idea what is going to happen to me once I am brought before the Council, but I know that whatever awaits me is better than a future as Alpha Roger's Mate.

He has had a few Mates over the years and from the conversations I heard between Alena and a friend of hers, they didn't live long. If Alena was telling the truth, then he killed all of his chosen Mates after they miscarried.

I also heard her tell her friend that she had once insisted on accompanying my Father to see Alpha Roger. Father had denied her at first, but she said that she had kept on bugging him until he agreed to take her along.

Her friend had asked her what he was like and thinking back on Alena's response, a shiver runs down my spine.

She started telling that the Territory and Pack-house looked amazing and that she had asked Father why none of the Warriors wore marks of a fated Mate. He had just smiled at her and told her that she would find out soon enough.

The story turned grime real fast as she told her friend that the second she walked in to the Pack-house, Alpha Roger had grab her and shoved her up against a wall. That it soon became clear why Father had insisted on her wearing a dress.

She said that Alpha Roger had torn her panties and shoved his cock inside her. That he had fucked her up against the wall and no one had done anything to stop him, not even Father.

She describe that they had taken turns with her and that they had not cared who saw. But what had been the biggest shocker was when she recalled a Warrior walking in with his Mate and that he had told Alpha Roger to punish her for disobeying him.

Her friend asked what kind of punishment the woman had gotten and she had gasped, when Alena told her that he had forced his cock in to her. He had demanded my Father to help him out and the Warrior had stood guard next to Alena.

When I heard that my Father and Alpha Roger had forced themselves on the woman at the same time, I ran for the bathroom and threw up my lunch.

I still feel sick to my stomach thinking about that conversation and even though my future is unsure, I am glad it is not with Alpha Roger.

Xandros' P.O.V.

I am standing in front of the Pack-house, awaiting the arrival of the Delta's the Council has send.

I step of the front porch as a black SUV pulls up, three huge men exit the SUV and they walk towards me.

"What is the reason for her conviction?" One of them asks and I can tell that I can trust them with the truth. I quickly tell them about my Father's plan and my warning note to Taliyah.

They nod their heads and they follow me inside. Father is standing in the hallway and I can tell he has to restrain his Wolf from acting out.

"Alpha Talon, your Daughter has been convicted of attacking and assaulting your Luna. We are here to take her to the Council for her sentencing." The Delta standing in front of my Father says.

I can tell my Father wants to react, but there is nothing he can do. Nothing other than order the Warriors to escort her down the stairs.

As she walks down the stairs I hear her say through the mind-link "This is for the best, Xandros. Just remember that I love you." I tell her that I love her too and that I will help her out after she has served her time.

But I make sure that my face remains expressionless.
