Alpha Roger's P.O.V.

I am sitting behind my desk, when I get an incoming videocall from Talon. "This better be good." I say as I connect the call and the smile on his face tells me that he has something to tell me.

"Xandros will be coming home tomorrow morning and he will be bringing Tali with him. They will leave while her Mates are still on border-patrol, I was not able to get any more information from him.

We were interrupted by someone and he hung up before I could ask if they had marked her." He says and I have a feeling his smile is not just about this.

"Do you think he would take her home if she had been marked?" I ask him and he shakes his head. "I think she might have welcomed his request, she has never been comfortable around men and having three Lycans as Mates is probably too much for her.

She was raised as Wolfless and having to deal with one Lycan would be much, guess what three Lycans would demand." He says with a huge grin on his face.

I laugh as I picture my fated Mate with three Lycans and I know that he is probably right. Three Lycan Mates probably scared the shit out of her and she probably sees Xandros as her savior.

I look at Talon and that is when I see the mark "What the Fuck." I growl and he just smiles at me. "You have a new Mate, who is she?" I ask him and he tells me about Eva.

He tells me she likes him just the way he is and wants whatever he is willing to give her in every way he wants to give it to her. My cock hardens when he tells me that he wants to share her with me and I tell him I will be leaving right away.

Alpha Talon's P.O.V.

I link one of the Guards and tell him that Alpha Roger is on his way. He acknowledges my message and will let me know the moment he arrives. Knowing that Eva is still asleep, I make myself comfortable in my chair and doze off.

The Guard lets me know that Roger has arrived and I wait for him on the front porch. As he walks up the steps, he asks me why I marked Eva and I tell him about my Wolf.

"Yeah, your Wolf always knows what he wants." He chuckles. "Once he has set his mind to something, he goes for it and I doubt you would be able to stop him." I nod my head, because I know that he is right.

My Wolf has made me do things I had doubts about, but in the end I was always glad he pushed through.

"Why don't you follow me, Roger? I want to introduce you to Eva." I say and we walk up the stairs to the Alpha floor of the Pack-house. On our way up, we run in to Jean and my Wolf decides to have a little fun.

"Alpha Roger, this is Jean. She is Eva's Mother." She looks up and down his body and I know what she is thinking. But my Wolf is not done yet, so he says "Jean, Alpha Roger is without a Mate at the moment."

I can see her eyes widen and she gives him a lustful look. Roger is staring at me and I can tell that he doesn't understand where I am going with this. "Jean, he is not here for you or any other She-wolf. He is here to introduce himself to your new Luna." Her jaw drops after I say the word Luna.

A smirk appears on his face and he turns to Jean as he says "I think Alpha Talon and I will enjoy our night with your Daughter, Jean." After that we leave her standing in the corridor.

I open the door to my bedroom and I step aside so Roger can see Eva sprawled on my bed, butt naked. He groans as he looks at her and his hand reaches for his groin.

We both take our clothes off and I wait for Roger to make his move. Because of the way she is sprawled across my bed, he can reach her core without having to get on to the bed.

He shoves two fingers in her pussy and I hear her moan in her sleep, he keeps sliding his fingers in and out of her. My eyes are strained on her face and I see her slowly wake up, the moment she sees me her eyes widen.

She slowly turns her head to find Roger standing behind her and she pushes her body back on his fingers. He slams his fingers in to her core again and even adds another finger, she moans at the stretching of her pussy.

My cock is rock-hard and I walk towards the bed, knowing I want her to suck it. She turns her head, opens her mouth and I shove it in as deep as I can go. "Talon, you found yourself a fine Mate. I love the way she opens up to my fingers and I can't wait to slide my cock in." Roger growls as he keeps pounding her pussy.

She moans at his words and I slide my cock deeper in to her mouth, she puts her teeth on my cock as I pull back. "Fuck, Eva. Keep doing that and I will come in that mouth of yours soon."

She puts a little more pressure on my cock with her teeth and my Wolf roars out loud. I keep sliding my cock in and out of her mouth as she lets her teeth scrape my shaft and I roar as I shoot my load down her throat.

Roger pushes her over the edge at the same time, but he doesn't relent his actions as he keeps pounding her pussy. I walk to the other side of the bed, standing next to Roger I watch as his fingers keep slamming in to her and within seconds my cock is coming back to live.

He pulls his fingers out and tells her to lay down on her back, she does as he asks without hesitation. Her eyes shift back and forth between our cocks and she licks her lips as we both grab hold of our cock.

"You want this?" Roger asks and she nods her head. I ask her the same question and again she nods her head.

Roger and I step forward at the same time and her eyes widen as she realizes what we are going to do. I expect her to back away, but apparently my girl is not scared easily.

Roger looks at me and just mutters "Fuck." She grabs hold of her knees and spreads herself as wide open as she can. We don't waste a second as we put our cocks at her entrance and start pushing in to her core.

This is the first time Roger and I take a woman this way and it feels so tight as we both push our cocks in. We stop moving the second the heads of our cocks are in and we just stare at the sight in front of us.

"Please." Eva whispers and we both start moving again. Soon we are in as deep as we can and the three of us are panting. I pull back as Roger pushes in a little deeper and then we reverse the motion, soon we are in a nice and fast rhythm.

I look in to her eyes as I shove my cock in to her core and I can see that she is close to coming. "Don't you dare come, Baby. Not until I tell you to." Her eyes widen and I know it takes a lot of her to hold off on coming, but she does as I have ordered.

Roger and I pick up the pace as we keep slamming our cocks in to her, I feel my balls tighten and Roger tells me he is going to come. We shove our cocks in to her pussy at the same time and I tell her to come.

As Roger and I shoot our load in to her, she comes undone and screams my name as she comes on our cocks. We pull out of her, I crawl in to bed next to her and pull her on to my chest. Soon she is fast asleep again and I look at Roger with a huge grin on my face.
