

Chapter 317

Taliyah's P.O.V.

Father gets out of his chair and turns towards the bookshelf behind his desk, but I stop him by saying "Don't bother, Father. There are two Royal Squads waiting for you down there. Sit the Fuck down."

My Father and both Guards sit down and Roger just stares at me. The door opens and I am swooped up by a pair of arms, before I can see who it is. Luckily his smell tells me it is one of my Mates and I nuzzle his neck because I need to get rid of the feeling inside of me after listening to those two idiots. "Let go of me, do you have any idea who I am. I am the Son of Princess Izabella." I hear Ayden shout as he is pushed in to the room by Amand.

A young woman, I recognize as Eva, is right behind him and the second she sees Father, she gets out of Kaelan's grip. She runs towards my Father and jumps in to his arms, nuzzling his neck.

"Ward, can you please put me down?" I ask, but all he does is shake his head and holds me even tighter. I smile at his action and I grab his face between my hands, I place my lips on his and he kisses me passionately.

I hear growls coming from Father, Roger and Ayden, I slide my arms around his neck and deepen the kiss even more. "What about us?" I hear Eamon whine through our mind-link and I giggle as I realize that he just wants to annoy my Father.

I break the kiss with Ward and turn my face towards Eamon saying "Kiss me, Handsome." He grabs my face and starts kissing me, devouring me as if we have been apart for days. I moan as the heat inside me builds and I have to break the kiss to get up for some air.

I have barely taken a breath before Malachay slams his lips on mine and I hear them growl again, but I don't care.

"Okay, boys. That is enough, let the girl get some air." Barin says and reluctantly Malachay lets go of my mouth, I whine at the loss of contact which makes Barin chuckle.

I look at him and say "Why did you do that? I like kissing you Sons, Dad." My Father growls at my words and Barin's eyes have widened at my words and I see that he has to control his Lycan from reacting. Ward has already put me down, so I quickly walk over to him and walk straight in to his open arms.

"Thank you, Taliyah. I love you." Barin says through the mind-link and I tell him that I will always refer to him as Dad. He kisses the top of my head and then he releases me.

Ayden is still putting up a fight, while Father and Roger are staring daggers at me and my Mates. Apparently Grandfather has had enough of Ayden, because he walks up to him and says "You may be my Grandson, but you will never refer to yourself as the Son of Princess Izabella again.

The Council will open a full investigation in to your actions, those of your Father and those of Alpha Roger. The three of you will be punished accordingly and the fact that you are of the Royal bloodline will not help you."

Princess Maleah's P.O.V.

I put my hand on the arm of my Mate and I pull him away from Ayden. Dante is right, he might be our Grandson, but it won't do him any good.

"Ayden, your Grandfather is right. You will have to face your actions and hiding behind the Royal bloodline is not an option.

Your Uncle found that out, when he tried to hand of your Mother to his Gamma. We are not above the Law, we have to answer to it and bear the consequences of our actions." I say as I look him in the eye.

I turn towards Talon and the young girl on his lap. "You killed my Daughter and I am going to make you pay for that. I hate the fact that she never came home again, but at least I know she did everything she could to keep you away from the real power."

I turn to Dante and ask him to get me the hell out of here, he puts his arm around my shoulder leading me out of Talon's office. Xandros tells us to go down the hall to the living-room and I can't resist saying "Thank you, Grandson."

Xandros' P.O.V.

I know that that was a jab towards Ayden and I can't help the smirk on my face. "Amand, can you link Ragnar and Armand and ask them to come up here. There is no use in them waiting down there any longer."

I see the smirk on his face as he says "Yes, Prince Xandros." I hear Taliyah chuckle and soon the bookshelf behind Father opens up. Ragnar and Armand tell me they send the others up through the other access points and they take up positions behind me.

Both my Uncles walk in to Father's office and I see their Mates and children follow them in. Through the mind-link I ask Taliyah if I can turn over the Pack to our Cousins and she tells me that I can do that.

"Father, because you will be investigated and charged for planning a forceful marking, I, Prince Xandros, strip you of your title as Alpha. You are no longer the Alpha of Blue Crystal Pack." The second I am finished speaking, he howls in agony at the loss of his title and his power.

I turn towards my Cousins and they take a step towards me. "I, Prince Xandros, hereby declare that you are the new Alpha, Beta and Gamma of the Blue Crystal Pack." I know they will do a better job at guiding our Pack than my Father ever did.

Our Cousins, Aunts and Uncles stare at the two of us and I know that they have a lot of questions. I am about to tell them to follow me to the living-room so I can explain things, when I feel a hand on my shoulder.

I turn to face Ward and he says "Little Brother, I think you forgot one person." as he points at Alpha Roger. Barin nods his head at me and I step towards Alpha Roger.

I repeat the words I used on my Father and he also howls in agony at the loss of his title and power. His Guards stare at the floor and I ask Ragnar if he can make sure that those two men are also brought in front of the Council, facing the same charges as their former Alpha.

He nods his head and soon the door opens to reveal the Royal Squads, they start to take the prisoners away. Eva looks mad as hell and before anyone sees it coming, she lunges at Taliyah.

I freeze as I see her claws slash in Taliyah's direction, but as usual I underestimate my Sister. She turns to her left, just avoiding the attack and she grabs Eva by her hair slamming her face in to the floor.

"Armand, get this Bitch out of my sight. Make sure she gets charged with attacking a Royal." Taliyah says through gritted teeth and I do the only thing I can think off, I start applauding.

She turns to me with a huge grin on her face and sends me in to a fit of laughter as she takes a bow.
