

Chapter 88 Puppy

Hunter's P.O.V.

I turn my head towards the Warriors and ask them if they have seen the training grounds of this Pack. "There are no training grounds any more, Alpha Frank says it is a waste of time and money. No one has trained since the day he brought home his Mate." One of them answers.

Uncle Todd confirms his answer, "Dad trained me in our backyard, away from prying eyes as Alpha Frank made it clear no one was allowed to train anymore. In the beginning some tried to train or talk to him about it, but that never went well."

"How the hell are you supposed to protect a Pack with weak fighters?" Max asks and he just gave me the answer to some of my questions. "He doesn't allow you to leave because he fears that the Pack will lose all its strength if you leave.

His Beta and his Gamma don't come from a line of High-ranking Wolves and I have a feeling that Alpha Quinten is still the Alpha. Somehow he made his Son think he stepped down, but I am not sure how he managed to do that." I say and everyone is lost in his own mind.

June pulls us all from our thoughts when she says "Make believe" and I start laughing as I realize the five year old is correct. Alpha Quinten used make believe to fool his Son and he has been very successful in it, but I don't understand why he hasn't stopped his Son yet.

"June, you are absolutely right. He used make believe." I say as I pull her closer and everyone is laughing. "With that most of the questions are answered, but the question that remains is why is he against the succession Law?" I look at Emma and Ella and they tell me they will dive into the Archives in the morning.

With all the talking we did we missed dinner, but I don't really mind. I have been able to settle my mind and I got to spend time with my family, I learned a lot about them by just looking at them. I am a little tired and I know I will be facing Alpha Frank again in the morning, not something I am looking forward to.

I send everyone off to bed and tell Uncle Todd that they can have this suite and the one next to it as the bathroom connects both rooms. I put June down in one of the beds and tuck her in as everyone else is leaving the room, I wish them all a goodnight before I walk out the room as well.

Jax's P.O.V.

I can tell our little Mate is exhausted as I watch her tuck June in and I smile as I wonder what our Pups will look like. I know this is something we have to discuss and I have a feeling our little Mate has this figured out before I will be finished asking the question.

I put my arm around her shoulders as she walks out the room and I guide her to the room we will be staying in. The bed is a little challenging, but Max and Matt had pulled a single bed from somewhere and that made it a bit better for our situation.

"Princess, after your studies we will never leave the Palace again." Jayce growls and I see her staring at the bed as she is trying not to laugh. She fails miserably and soon she is holding on to my arm to keep herself standing, but it is not helping her much.

I slowly lower her to the floor as she is still laughing and Jayce is trying to give her a stern look, but with her laughing he is unable to give her that look. He falls back on the bed and hits his head against the side table as he doesn't fall straight back, making Hunter laugh even louder.

He shoots back up straight and softly growls at her and the look on her face tells me she is getting herself in to trouble, "Oww, did I hurt my Puppy's feelings?" She says quietly and in seconds Colt has her pinned against the wall.

Her legs are wrapped around his waist and she looks him straight in his eyes, she shows no fear at all. I know that Justice is close by and will do what ever she needs to do to keep her Human safe. "What is wrong with my Puppy?" she asks as she is still staring into his eyes.

"Your Puppy has a little problem." Colt growls before he pushes his hips forward, she moans as he keeps pushing his hips forward against her core. "What does my Puppy need?" She asks breathily and Fuck that makes my cock grow hard in seconds.

Jason and Justin have removed their jeans to give their cocks some room and I follow their example quickly before my cock burst through my jeans. I never take my eyes off Jayce and Hunter, I never thought I could get turned on by watching my Brother with a woman.

Her moans are getting louder as Colt puts more pressure on her clit with his raging hard-on and I groan as I hear him say, "Your Puppy needs you on your knees." He lets her slide down his body, until she is on her knees in front of him.

He takes her hands and puts them on the waistband of his jeans. She opens the button and slowly lowers the zipper, never taking her eyes away from Colt's eyes as she pulls his jeans down. His cock is right in front of her mouth and she slowly sticks out her tongue to lick off a drop of pre-cum.

Colt growls as she licks his cock from base to top before she opens her mouth and lets it glide in over her tongue, the moment she closes her lips around his cock all four of us groan loudly. We keep watching as she starts bobbing her head, this is between Colt and our Mate, but I will enjoy watching them.

Colt's P.O.V.

The moment I hear her call us a Puppy I push forward and pin her against the wall. Hearing her call me a Puppy again makes me nearly lose control, but I decide to tease her a little and as I push my hips forward I tell her I have a little problem.

My cock grows insanely hard as she asks me what her Puppy needs and I say the first thing that comes to mind, instead of me teasing her she is teasing me. As she slides down my body I have to restrain myself from ripping my clothes of my body.

I feel like I have died and gone to heaven the moment she takes my cock into her mouth. I will never get tired of this feeling for as long as I live and now I know understand what Jax meant when he said he had never felt like this in his life.

One of her hands holds the base of my cock, moving up and down in rhythm with her head and her other hand is squeezing my balls gently. "Oh, Fuck.. Princess.. this is what your Puppy needs." I groan as she starts sucking harder.

I feel her teeth grazing my flesh from time to time and I can feel myself getting closer to releasing my load. I wonder why my Brothers aren't here to take care of our little Mate, but the moment she nips the tip of my cock every thought leaves my mind and my hips buck forward into her mouth.

She moans loudly around my cock and the vibration sends me over the edge, sending my cum in spurts down her throat. She keeps sucking and licking until my balls are empty and my cock is clean.

She slowly stands up straight and still her eyes are locked with mine as they have been since I pinned her against the wall. "Is my Puppy's problem solved?" She asks and I can see the lust in her eyes, just as I can smell her arousal.

Hunter's P.O.V.

I love what I can do to and for my Mates, just as I love what they can do to me and I know I will never get tired of exploring and re-discovering their bodies every single day for the rest of my life. I will leave the Puppy nickname for our bedroom or our mind-link.

I don't mind that the others didn't join Colt and I feel that my panties are soaked from our interaction. His eyes show me that he can tell I am turned on by what he made me do and I hope one of them will make me come undone before we go to sleep.

"I think our Princess needs some help from her other Puppies." Colt growls and the next moment I am faced with Slade as he lifts me of my feet. "This Puppy will take care of you, Princess." He groans next to my ear.

He takes long strides towards the bed and I expect him to put me down gently, but I was mistaken as he drops me on the bed next to Logan. Logan takes care of my shirt and bra, while Slade takes care of my jeans and panties.

Logan gently cups my face as he lowers his head to lock our lips for a breathtaking kiss and I feel Slade trailing kisses up my legs towards my core. Logan keeps himself busy with my mouth and breasts, while Slade is teasing the hell out of me.

I feel a hand grabbing my hand and it gets lifted of the bed, I moan when my hand touches a rock-hard cock. I know it is Brick and I follow his movements as he wraps his hand around my cock, guiding it up and down.

I start to grip his cock a bit harder and pump my hand up and down faster, his breathing becomes heavier the faster I move up and down. I moan into Logan's mouth as I feel a finger gently brush against my clit and my hips buck off the bed on their own accord.
