

Chapter 2487

Harvey York frowned while looking at those gangsters. He said coldly, “You are all from the great Country H. Even though you are from the streets, can’t you show some humanity?”

“Watching the Islanders ruin a woman from the great Country H, not only did you not stop them, but you even help them?”

“What kind of men are you?”

“Ruin?” Kamishita said with a wicked smile. “It’s a supreme honor for her to serve our Young Master Takei!”

“These girls from the great Country H are fortunate to serve the noblemen of the Island Nation!”

“How can you say we ruin them?”

“Don’t you know that many ladies will immediately come flocking once I tell them my identity?”

“I know you, the people from the great Country H are unconvinced. However, this is the reality of this world. Only the strong can enjoy more and own more!”

“You seem to be a powerless man. You can’t even protect them, let alone have fun with them!

“Now, I want you to kneel, grovel, and f*ck off!

“Otherwise, I won’t mind killing you now!”

Apparently, Kamishita had always been domineering and arrogant in Hong Kong. Otherwise, he would not be able to say such words.

Harvey looked indifferent and ignored what Kamishita had just said. He warned him coldly, “

Let her go. Don't you understand what I said?

“Don't force me to do it!”

“Yo, are you really going to do it on our territory?” Some gangsters showed murderous intent in their eyes. “Do you know who we are?”

“The Briewood is arbitrary on both the streets of Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

“If you don't want your entire family to be killed, I advise you to kneel obediently and apologize to Mr. Kamishita!

“Otherwise, you will soon know how to write the word 'death'!”

Kamishita looked derisively at the moment. He squinted at Harvey, and he reeked of alcohol. He then said coldly, “Can't you see? If I want to hurt you, I don't even have to do it myself!

“The people of the great Country H will hack you to death first!”

Harvey said coldly, “It seems that you are determined not to let others go, right?”

“Young Master Takei still hasn’t had fun with her yet. How can we let her go?”

Kamishita squinted at Harvey and sneered, “I’m telling you. Even if this woman is your wife or your sister, she could only leave after she has served Young Master Takei tonight!

“No matter how much grievance and anger you have in your heart, you have to hold it in for me. Or else, you will be thrown into the sea to feed the fish, do you understand?”

Kamishita was extremely arrogant, and he did not take this Chinese, who came out of nowhere, seriously.

In his opinion, those who dared to challenge them, the Islanders in Hong Kong and Las Vegas, certainly had a death wish.

Harvey walked forward indifferently, “Do you think you will have a chance to touch her in front of me?”

Slap!

Kamishita instantly slapped Zina’s face and said coldly, “I’ve already hit her in front of you. Now, what can you do?”

Harvey did not talk nonsense and promptly stepped forward.

Kamishita sneered and turned around, pointing at the few gangsters from Briewood. “Kill him. I’ll bring this woman to Young Master Takei first.”

He then kneeled, grabbed Zina’s hair, and dragged her into the Island Bar next to him while speaking.

Harvey frowned and stepped forward. He then exchanged glances with those gangsters from Briewood and said at the same time, "Kill him!"

Several gangsters from Briewood and the few Islanders simultaneously rushed toward where Harvey was.

Chapter 2488

Bang, bang, bang!

Harvey York did not intend to show any mercy. Instead, the figures were instantly sent flying off once he moved and kicked them. All of them rolled on the ground with their broken legs as they landed.

The facial expression of the leading man of Briewood changed drastically. He pulled out his dagger at the moment and rushed forward.

Crack!

It was just that Harvey was already grabbing his throat with one hand before he could even touch Harvey and slowly lifted him.

This man was slightly startled at first. Then, he disdained Harvey and said, "Brat, you are from Mainland China, right?"

“I’m afraid you are unaware of our status in Hong Kong and Las Vegas?!”

“If you hurt me, the people of Briewood will hack you into pieces!”

Clearly, he believed that Briewood was extremely powerful, and he was not afraid that Harvey would kill him.

Harvey looked indifferent. He then applied some pressure on the right hand that was grabbing the man’s neck. Crack. The sound came from the man’s neck, and he instantly fell to the ground the next moment.

Seeing that his subordinates and the few gangsters of Briewood who were in charge of protecting him all slumped to the ground, Kamishita sneered and put Zina Hamilton down. He then said indifferently, “Brat, it seems you are capable!”

“No wonder you dare to mess around with us!

“However, do you think you have the right to be arrogant with us?”

A shuriken suddenly appeared in his hand as soon as he finished his words. He then threw it straight toward Harvey's direction.

Harvey looked indifferent. He did not dodge and let the shuriken hit him.

Kamishita could not help sneering and said after seeing this scene, “What a joke! Do you think you are really invincible just with your mediocre skills?”

“Do you think you can save her?”

“Childish!”

Kamishita looked at Harvey with a smug look on his face. “You need to know that there is always someone better than us in this world!

“I won’t kill you now. Instead, I’ll keep you alive, so you can be an audience and see how Young Master Takei toy with the girl of the great Country H!

“After all, us Islanders like this the most!”

Kamishita sneered and grabbed Zina’s hair while talking.

Bang!

Harvey, who seemed indifferent, suddenly stepped forward and kicked Kamishita on the back without waiting for him to let go of Zina.

Kamishita could not dodge in time and was instantly kicked by Harvey to the ground the next moment.

Crack. His nose broke and fell flat on his face. Unsure how many of his teeth fell out.

“You... How could you still be alright?!”

Kamishita turned back with difficulty with an incredulous expression on his face. “My shuriken did hit you. How could you be unscathed? You...”

Crack!

Harvey stepped forward again, breaking both his legs this time, causing him to faint in pain on the spot.

“Who are they?”

Harvey did not even look at Kamishita. Instead, he went to prop up Zina, squinting at a gangster of Briewood who was mourning on the ground.

“You only have one chance to answer.”

The eyelids of the gangster who had both his legs broken twitched. However, he raised his head and roared, “Brat, they are our VIPs!

“You offended Young Master Takei. You are doomed!

“This is because Young Master Takei is from Shinkage Way of Island Nation!”

“Shinkage Way of Island Nation?”

Harvey kicked the gangster and said coldly, “Since you are from the Shinkage Way of Island Nation, go and tell them that I’m waiting for them in the No.1 room. I want to see how they are going to kill me!”

Harvey then helped Zina into the empty room while speaking.

Meanwhile, he made a phone call and asked Yoana Mendoza to send someone to detain the disabled Islanders.

Chapter 2489

Not long after Harvey York entered the No 1. Room, several disciples of Dragon Palace's branch nearby appeared and detained those Islanders.

Meanwhile, Yoana Mendoza also arranged for a doctor to come over and give Zina Hamilton an antidote for gastric lavage as soon as possible.

Although Zina drank a little, usually, she would not be so drunk.

The reason why she was in this condition was that she was drugged.

The doctor sent by Yoana was very skillful. After two or three treatments, Zina's complexion returned to normal, and the heat in her body was instantly dissipated.

Harvey took a bottle of mineral water and let her drink it. Then, he immediately saw Zina slowly open her eyes and regain her consciousness.

Zina unconsciously struggled after seeing a man in front of her with blurry eyes.

“Who are you?!”

“What are you going to do?!”

“Don’t touch me!”

“My father is the King of Gambling. He’ll kill you if you dare to touch me!”

Zina was yelling loudly at this moment, seemingly afraid that she would lose her voice.

Harvey said indifferently, “Ms. Hamilton, you don’t need to be so upset. I’m Harvey, and I won’t hurt you.”

“Harvey?!”

Zina was completely awake at this moment.

When she saw that the person in front of her was really Harvey, her face turned pale again. She whispered, “How dare you drug me? I want to tell my father, and I’ll let you pay the price!”

Slap!

Harvey was not courteous either. He instantly slapped her, making her feel a little dazed.

“Are you sober now? Can we talk properly?”

Harvey took out a tissue and wiped his right hand. He looked indifferent, showing no sign of pity toward her.

“Why would you have reached this point? Don’t you know what happened?”

“Wanting to put the blame on me? Have you ever considered the consequences?”

Zina’s face turned pale. After a long time, she seemed to be completely sober and looked at the Islanders with a look of fear. She then said in a low voice, “Young... Young Master York, did you save me?”

“It seems you have cleared your mind now.”

Harvey nodded. Although he did not ask for anything in return for saving people, he would not allow other people to put the blame on him simply.

“I happened to see you being picked up by someone when I was outside just now. I noticed that you were forced, so I saved you.”

Harvey only looked at Zina with great interest after casually explaining the situation. He said, “You are the daughter of the King of Gambling. How did you fall into Kamishita’s trap?”

Although Harvey did not know Zina well, since she was the fifth young lady of the Hamiltons, she could not be that stupid. Ordinary people could not easily fool her.

Zina's expression changed, and she said softly after a while, "I ran into a friend today. He said that the best way to deal with you is to ask the Islanders for help.

"So, I met up with Kamishita and gave him some money.

"At that time, Kamishita said that he wanted to have a drink with me to show his sincerity.

"I thought it was just a drink, and it should be okay. But I never thought I would faint after that. I realized that something was wrong then, but it was too late for me to resist.

"Anyway, thank you, Young Master York.

"Something's gotten into me this time. I actually wanted to take revenge against you because of what happened yesterday!

"Everything was my fault!

“Yet you still saved me despite all our past conflicts!

“From now on, I’ll side with you. I’ll do whatever you want me to do!”

Zina looked at Harvey with admiration as she said this.

Apparently, Harvey’s heroic saving just now had inadvertently captured Zina’s heart.

Chapter 2490

After hearing Zina Hamilton's explanation, Harvey York was a little dumbfounded.

It could only be said that the daughter of the King of Gambling was undoubtedly a person who was not afraid to love or hate.

She hated Harvey because of the affairs concerning the Hamiltons. She actually thought about getting in contact with the Islanders to deal with him.

Unfortunately, she was too naïve, and she might have already been targeted the moment she met those Islanders.

However, this could also be considered a twist of fate for them. The previously poor relationship could have been salvaged a little from this incident.

This was very important for Harvey to get the Hamiltons' support in the future.

Harvey said indifferently while he thought of this, "Ms. Hamilton, since you are so straightforward about finding someone to deal with me, I'll turn a blind eye to what had transpired.

"However, I hope nothing like this will happen again in the future.

"It won't happen again. I promise." Zina was a little embarrassed. "Please forgive my ignorance."

Harvey smiled and did not continue to dwell on this topic. He then pointed at the few Islanders, who were moaning, and said indifferently, "I took them down to save you. At the same time, I'm waiting for their master to come here and find me.

“I estimate that they will be here in three minutes.

“Do you want me to get someone to send you back first?”

Harvey poured himself a cup of tea while speaking. He drank it while waiting for Zina’s answer.

Zina’s expression slightly changed. She then gritted her teeth and said, “I’m not leaving!

“You saved me this time, Young Master York. If I abandon you and leave, then I’ll tarnish the reputation of the Hamiltons!

“Besides, the Hamiltons aren’t afraid of the Islanders!”

Zina quickly took out her mobile phone and sent a message while speaking.

Harvey looked at Zina and smiled. He was delighted with the growth of this little girl.

At least the current Zina was no longer the unreasonable girl from yesterday.

Sure enough, encountering problems could make people grow exponentially.

“Okay, there’s no need to send anyone.” Harvey clapped his hand and glanced at Edwin Mendoza, who was standing not too far behind. “You will be in charge of taking care of Ms. Hamilton in a while. If she is hurt, I’ll hold you accountable!”

“Yes!” Edwin looked calm and squinted at the front.

He must perform well in front of Harvey.

While Harvey was talking to Zina, a gangster, whose hands were both broken, staggered into a luxurious room.

Dozens of gazes instantly fell on him at the same time.

A man and a woman were sitting on the sofa in the middle.

The man was an Islander. He had a slender body and a pale face. He had a faint smile on his face, but his eyes were so cold that one could easily notice that he was not an ordinary person at first sight.

Opposite him was a woman who seemed to be in her twenties with a standard V-shaped face and bright ruby lips. She had a slim body and a pair of straight legs, which made people feel excited at a glance.

The pale-faced man was obviously the top talent of the Shinkage Way of Island Nation, Naoto Takei!

As for the woman opposite him was the daughter of the Briewood Gang's Don, the second most powerful person in the gang, Carol Parker!

Carol continued to drink her tea after seeing the gangster who budged in. Her expression did not change, as if the person in front of her had nothing to do with her.

“M'lady, we were attacked...”

The eyelids of the gangster who came in twitched, but still, he gritted his teeth to speak.
