

Chapter 2569

Harvey, who was sleeping soundly in the presidential suite of Three Seasons Hotel, was awakened once more by a sudden knock on the door the first thing the next day.

He glanced at his watch, and then reluctantly went to open the door. When he saw the neatly-dressed Leslie at the door, he sighed. “Ms. Clarke ... It’s only nine o’clock in the morning now. Why can’t you let me sleep a little longer?!”

“Can’t you just let me have a good rest?”

Leslie’s face was dolled up with beautiful makeup, but her expression was ugly. Ignoring Harvey’s grumbles, she yanked his hand and hissed, “Come with me to the airport. We’re going to pick someone up!”

Harvey initially wanted to ask in detail.

However, he kept quiet after seeing Leslie's ugly face.

Soon, Leslie's Porsche 911 drifted on the Huancheng Expressway and entered the departure lounge of the Hong Kong International Airport.

The Don family members were already waiting in the departure lounge.

When they saw her approaching, they hurriedly trotted over to help her with parking. At the same time, they pointed out the location of a western restaurant.

Leslie's face remained ugly. With a Hermes in her hand, she strode forward impatiently.

Harvey hesitated for a while, but followed her nonetheless.

He wanted to see what exactly could make the eternally cold Ms. Clarke furious.

Soon, the two arrived at the entrance of the western restaurant.

The place had been fully booked. There were no other guests, and all the waiters were serving a table of distinguished guests.

Among the guests were a man and a woman.

The man was of local descent; tall, handsome, gentle, and refined. He was also wearing a pair of golden glasses, giving him the impression that he was a nobleman.

Opposite him was a blonde from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

She was quite good-looking, but her unique temperament stood out immediately.

Harvey instantly noticed that she carried herself in a way unique to that of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets's royal family.

She did not have the beauty of the eldest princess of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, but her temperament could not be faked.

Such a person appearing at Hong Kong International Airport was very compelling, no matter how you put it.

Several inexperienced youngsters who hadn't seen much of the world secretly hid in the corner outside the western restaurant and took pictures from afar, apparently treating the man and the woman as popular influencers.

As for the man and the woman, they seemed to be used to being the focus of attention. Thus, they didn't care and continued acting lovey-dovey, their intimacy making their relationship very ambiguous.

Leslie's face grew a touch colder when she watched them act intimately.

Harvey stared at Leslie after watching this scene, and asked quietly, “Leslie... Don’t tell me that this person is your fiancé?”

“Yes.”

Leslie answered, her voice icy.

“Although I’ve never regarded him as my man, the Don family and the Evans do have a marriage contract. The ones getting engaged are me and him.”

“Senior Evans called my father last night and asked me to pick him up today.”

“Yet, this is what I see. Murphy Evans wants to embarrass me and the Don family!”

Harvey raised his eyebrows slightly. “The Evans? Which family?”

Leslie replied indifferently, “The Evans, where Elmer Evans is the senior.”

“He was the former Governor of Hong Kong. When the Don family got engaged with the Evans, we were out of their league.”

Although Leslie looked indifferent, her words were bitingly cold.

Harvey smiled. “Then, do you have any feelings for Murphy?”

“No!” Leslie exclaimed decisively.

Chapter 2570

“That brat Murphy grew up in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets since he was young. He found himself a girlfriend from the collateral family of the royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.”

“If these things happen outside, then it’s none of my business.”

“If he could call off the engagement with the Don family in advance, then none of this will have anything to do with us.”

“But... Forget calling off the engagement with us, the Don family! He actually brought a blonde to show off in my face after asking me to pick him up.”

“This isn’t over!”

Leslie’s face was ice. She didn’t care about this fiancé of hers.

However, she couldn't tolerate anyone disgracing her and the Don family.

The social circle in both Hong Kong and Las Vegas could only be so big. If word of her fiancé's actions spread out, the Don family might be made a big joke in the circle.

Harvey could also understand Leslie's sentiment. Smiling, he said, "What are you going to do?"

"Will you go now and ask if he likes you? Ask if he wants to continue with the engagement?"

"I won't!" Leslie snorted coldly, decisive.

Harvey smiled. "Then it's easy. Since you're here, just sort it out with him face to face."

"Since you both have zero affection toward each other, why not let the Evans call off the engagement voluntarily. Won't you both be done with it?"

Harvey knew that Murphy was Elmer's grandson, but he still hoped that Leslie could solve this matter discreetly.

After all, he had a certain responsibility for seeing the Don family and the Evans get this far.

For now, Harvey felt he should help the Don family resolve this problem.

He had the option to walk away and leave Hong Kong and Las Vegas in the future, but it was different for the Don family. They still had to gain their ground.

Leslie frowned. "I did want to call off the engagement, but I'm afraid that things won't be that simple."

"Murphy returned at this critical moment. Will it be so easy to talk to him?"

Harvey said indifferently, “If he messes around, I’ll teach him how to talk properly.”

“Let’s go.”

As Harvey and Leslie were talking, they were about to enter the western restaurant.

At this moment, the customers inside seemed to have finished eating.

Murphy and that blonde walked out of the western restaurant, arm in arm. When Murphy saw Leslie, he was slightly stunned.

His face changed drastically, however, when his gaze fell on Harvey. He then said coldly, “Leslie! How dare you show up in front of me with a man! What’s this supposed to mean?”

“Are you cheating on me right in my face?”

“You b*tch! Now that I’ve caught you red-handed, do you want to die?!”

Murphy's expression was now colder than ice. He spoke harshly, as though Leslie was the one who acted outrageously.

He acted as if he wanted to slap Leslie to death.

The blonde beside Murphy raised her head and looked condescendingly at Leslie. She said softly, "Murphy, is this your fiancée back home?"

"She certainly behaves like a peasant."

"I'm telling you. If you want to make her your second wife like what you've promised before, I won't agree to it!"

"In the future, you'll be the live-in-son-in-law of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets."

"Your lover must be a reputable woman!"

"She's just a peasant. She doesn't deserve the honor!"

The woman from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets used her hand to cover her nose, looking at Leslie as though she was staring at something truly smelly.

Chapter 2571

Murphy shot Leslie a disgusted look, his face full of loathing after he listened to the blonde's words.

He looked carefully at Leslie, and then glanced at Harvey with a look of disdain. Pursing his lips in distaste, he sneered, "It's no wonder I caught a terrible stench after I got off the plane just now. So, it came from you!"

"Say, Leslie. Do you know what stench Ms. Pearl is talking about?"

"It's you! You're too shabby and poor!"

"The Don family is nothing more than a first-class family after all. Do you honestly think you've become a member of the upper circle? That you could fit into the upper circle of Hong Kong?"

“Looking at how shameless the Don family is acting fills me with disgust!”

“Especially you, Leslie. Compared to Lady Pearl from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, you’re worthless!”

Murphy didn’t hide the hate in his eyes. “Get out! Take your pretty boy and go back to the sh*t hole where you came from!”

“If there isn’t anything, don’t appear in front of me anymore in the future.”

“Oh, right. I’ll ask my grandfather to call off the engagement.”

“But I have one condition.”

“You and your boy will have to kneel in front of the gate of the Evans for three days, three nights, and beg for our forgiveness!”

“After that, you’ll be free!”

Leslie's aura became even colder after being mocked by Murphy.

She glared coldly at Murphy and shouted, “Evans! You've only acted as a foreigner for a few days, and you think you've become a lackey of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

“Let me tell you!”

“Even if the engagement is going to be called off, I'm the one who should do it!”

“You're the one who should kneel in front of my house for three days and three nights! Only then will I break off the engagement!”

“Otherwise, don't ever think of becoming a lawful couple with your mistress!”

“Mistress?!” Murphy glared at Leslie coldly. “B*tch! You better be careful with your words!”

“The lady standing before you is the forty-ninth successor to the throne of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

“She’s a genuine princess! A true big shot! An existence you and the Don family should look up to!”

“How dare you call her my mistress?”

“Are you out of your mind?!”

“Ms. Pearl is the one who gave me the privilege to get close to her. What a blessing to the Evans! A mere small fry like you know nothing!”

Murphy’s face was filled with cold anger, but he didn’t jump around in fury. Despite his annoyance, the fact that Lady Pearl, the forty-ninth successor, seemed to be a blessing for the Evans.

But this was to be expected as well, for the Evans had always acted as lackeys of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Now that their master showed them appreciation, it was natural for them to be so happy.

“That’s enough, Leslie. Stop clamoring.”

“Only the incompetent ones will bark so much.”

“I know that our engagement made you so happy that you couldn’t sleep at night, since you like me so much.”

“I mean, I’m an excellent man! It’s natural for you to be overjoyed.”

“Unfortunately, I have my dearest Lady Pearl with me now. And she despises your shabbiness!”

“You don’t have the right to be my lover, Leslie!”

Murphy’s eyes grew colder and colder. “Now, take your pretty boy and go kneel at the gate of my house!”

“Stop being stubborn!”

“Just kneel. I’ll consider giving you your freedom.”

Despite Murphy’s harsh words, he was quite disappointed by the turnabout.

After all, Leslie was an alluring beauty with a sensual body. But since Sharon Pearl hated Leslie so much, he had no choice but to pass up on Leslie.

Chapter 2572

“Anyway, we’re heading to the auction held at the Three Seasons Hotel next.”

“Stop being disgusting here. Just get lost!”

Murphy was quite upset and stole one last glance at Leslie’s beautiful body before turning around, about to leave with Sharon.

It couldn’t be helped. Becoming a noble of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets and getting the chance in succession to the throne was his biggest dream.

Even if he was far from being eligible to succeed the throne, he was still very happy.

Harvey narrowed his eyes at Murphy. Unable to stop himself, he hissed icily, “Hey, Evans. Don’t you know that your mouth reeks?”

Murphy's face twisted in anger at Harvey's insult.

Leslie, however, didn't want Harvey to get into trouble. She instantly pulled Harvey and quickly advised him, "Young Master York, forget it. There's no need to take a man like him seriously."

"Later on, he'll end up begging to me."

Seeing Leslie's firm attitude, Harvey didn't say anything more after. After all, this was her personal problem. It would do him no good to interfere with it too much.

Unexpectedly, the mention of Harvey's name left Murphy slightly stunned. He blurted out without thinking, "Wait. Are you that rude kept man who acted boorishly in Hong Kong under the mistaken assumption that the Don family will support you? You're Harvey?"

“Kept man?” Harvey shot Murphy an indifferent look, unimpressed. He wasn’t sure why Murphy was addressing him in such a manner.

“Aren’t you a kept man?”

Murphy threw Harvey a disdainful glare.

Just because the Don family has your back, you attacked the distinguished guest from the Island Nation and the former Governor of Hong Kong!”

“You’ve got no real power of your own, but you still had the audacity to flaunt around like some big shot!”

“You’re certainly ignorant!”

“Do you really think you’re someone important?”

Harvey was aloof to Murphy’s jabs. “Why? Are you upset with me because I hit your old man’s face?”

Murphy snarled coldly, “I’m not referring to how you’ve upset me. It’s whether you deserve it or not!”

“If you are a distinguished guest of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, my grandfather will most certainly let you hit his right cheek after his left cheek!”

“But you’re just a normal, powerless citizen! You used your ability to leech off others and harassed a gentleman from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, despite him refusing to retaliate!”

“You savage brute!”

“If such behavior is known by the westerners, you’ll be despised by everyone!”

“If I were you, I’d just kill myself right this instant!”

“You’re a disgrace!”

Murphy thought himself as a just and righteous man, putting on a holier than thou act. “I’m telling you! The reason why the great Country H has been falling behind the world is because there are too many people like you!”

“You’re clueless about human rights and are ignorant to the concept of civility. You’re a savage!”

“Sometimes, I really feel ashamed to know that I have the blood of the great Country H!”

Harvey sent Murphy a smile that didn’t reach his eyes. “If you feel that ashamed, then why don’t you kill yourself?”

“You’ll reincarnate and go to the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets in your next life. Wouldn’t that be good enough for you?”

“You...!”

Murphy was so furious by the snide remark, he almost spurted out a mouthful of blood.

“You know nothing! Don't you know that God decreed that one would go to hell if he kills himself?”

“Talking to a person who falls behind the rest of the world like you is a waste of my energy!”

“I really hope you go to the internet and do some research to see just how big the outside world is. Don't be bound to the small civilization in the Great Country H that's blind to the real world!”

Murphy was smug and condescending, as if he was teaching Harvey a valuable lesson.

For him, the western world was a bright lighthouse that symbolizes civilization.

He chose to ignore the fact that he was in truth a kept man who was clinging to Lady Pearl for her power to remain significant.

For him, flattering her was a valuable ability he took pride in.
