

Chapter 2697

The Islanders, Daito included, were depressed and fearful at the same time.

They wanted to pounce right at Harvey, but something unspeakable shattered their hearts.

They stared at Harvey, unable to stop themselves from shivering.

In front of this young man, the Islanders' ruthlessness was completely meaningless.

The disciples of the Shinkage Way felt a cold chill down their spine. They couldn't even hold their longswords properly.

Scarlett and Mitchell overcame their shock soon after.

They finally came to terms that Harvey had killed Miyata.

He did it despite all their warnings!

How dare he?!

Where did he get his courage from?!

Who was supporting him?!

Carrie, who was sitting on the wheelchair, was completely shocked. She was in utter disbelief.

“Kill him! Take revenge for Mr. Shinosuke!”

Right as Scarlett was trembling in anger and fear, Daito let out a furious scream.

“Kill him! Kill him right now!”

The experts of the Shinkage Way bounced back before rushing forward, howling in anger.

Their longswords unsheathed in an instant, they were ready to fight Harvey to the death.

Clang!

Harvey picked up Miyata's broken sword and scanned his surroundings.

“What's this? Your master can't beat me, so you're all coming at me now?”

Pfffffft!

Several experts who were running at Harvey were all slashed to the ground one after another before they could reach him.

Harvey took a step forward, not wasting any time. Loud slashes filled the air, and what followed were broken blades that struck right through his enemies' throats.

In a blink of an eye, the experts from the Shinkage Way were all lying flat on the ground.

The others instinctively stepped back, petrified. Hate and hostility filled them, but they wouldn't dare move a single inch.

Scarlett's face went as cold as ice when she saw the experts die in Harvey's hands.

“What's the meaning of this, Harvey?!” she coldly exclaimed.

“You dare kill more people after all that?!”

“Aren't you afraid of dying?!”

“Are you planning to walk down this road to the bitter end?!”

“Admit that you're wrong! You should just give in right now!”

Mitchell chimed in and snarled, “Harvey! You're disrespecting Ms. Leithold and the Five Virtues Temple, along with the other sacred martial art training grounds!”

“Do you have a clue what those places mean?!”

“They are all passed down by ancient martial arts factions! Everyone there is extremely strong! They represent Country H's peak strength!"

"Even the Elder Group of Longmen has to pay their respects!"

"You're just a mere branch leader of Longmen! How dare you trample on the sacred martial arts training grounds?!"

"You'll only make things get out of hand if you continue!"

"You'll hurt our relationship with the Island Nations as well!"

Mitchell's face was bitter.

"Everyone will come for you because of this!"

"Kneel and give up!"

"This is your only way out!"

“If not, you’ll know what it means to live inside a living hell soon enough!”

Mitchell’s gaze was as cold as ice, similar to Scarlett. He desperately hoped that Harvey would kneel...

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2698

Harvey looked around him, still calm and unaffected by their anger.

“The Shinkage Way came to me for revenge, and I gave them a fair chance to fight for it.”

“That man just wasn’t powerful enough, so he died.”

“If all of you want to take revenge for him, I won’t oppose it.”

“I’ll just kill every single one of you.”

“You’re all practically useless, anyway.”

“Damn you, Harvey!”

An expert of the Shinkage Way screamed furiously, cursing at Harvey. That man looked like a King of Arms at his peak. Without hesitating, he ran to Harvey before following up with a slash.

Zephyr Slash!

He showed a killer move as soon as he started attacking. This was proof of his strength as a King of Arms.

Harvey calmly threw his broken sword, flinging in forward.

Pfffft!

The blade didn't pierce that man's heart, but he was immediately sent flying.

Blood gushed out of him the minute he smashed onto the ground. He was filled with disbelief.

“A God of War!”

He could feel that Harvey was definitely a God of War, judging from how easily he was defeated.

If not, as a King of Arms, he should've at least blocked a hit or two.

The knowledge pushed him to utter despair.

He realized that Miyata lost not because of any shady tactics...

But because he was completely outmatched!

Harvey looked at the King of Arms, filled with interest. He didn't expect Miyata to have an expert like this as a subordinate.

However, Harvey didn't have any intention to go easy on them. With a stomp of his right foot, the broken blades flew right at the King of Arms' throat in an instant.

The man was filled with despair. He was all spent of energy, too exhausted to fight. There was no way he could defend himself...

Clang!

When the King of Arms closed his eyes to embrace death, a brilliant light flashed in front of him and blocked the attack.

Daito, who was 5.6 feet tall, deflected the attack with just a single slash.

The expert of the Shindan Way held his longsword down, glaring daggers at Harvey.

“Are you trying to kill everyone, Harvey?!”

“You Islanders really are embarrassing.”

Harvey remained emotionless.

“I had a fair fight with Miyata.”

“He died because he wasn’t powerful enough.”

“Then, you all came at me out of rage. I kill a few more, and you start calling me ruthless?”

“Can you be more shameless?”

“It’s fine if you want to come at me, but at least admit defeat if you die by my hands.”

“If you don’t even have the courage for that, then just stay at home! What’s the point of coming here in the first place?!”

“Stop trying to learn martial arts!”

Harvey showed no emotion, but he spared no time to disrespect his enemies.

Daito was both enraged and fearful at the same time.

“These people are Mr. Shinosuke’s top disciples! It’s only natural for them to fight back for their teacher after you killed him!”

“That’s right! Even though it was a little unexpected, it still makes sense!”

“If they wouldn’t even avenge their teacher, how are they even human?!”

“On the other hand, you have no respect for anyone at all!”

“Don’t you know you should be generous to these students who are trying to avenge their teacher?! This is a code of honor!”

Scarlett and a few other female companions screeched at Harvey.

‘He thinks he can do whatever he wants just because he’s a little powerful? Is he blind to the ways of the world?’

‘He’s not even showing any respect to the Shinkage Way! And he planned to kill them instantly?! That’s not how a powerful person does things at all!’

Chapter 2699

“Code of honor?”

“Be merciful toward the avengers?!”

“You people actually have rules like these?”

Harvey flashed them a disdainful look.

“You think you’re standing on the moral high ground just because you yap about this rubbish every single day?!”

“Besides, their relationship is none of my damn business.”

“Nobody gets away from me!”

“I’ll destroy whoever comes at me, but not their families. They’ll all have a chance to turn a new leaf if they want to.”

Harvey glanced at Daito before releasing the full might of his powerful aura.

Daito's expression changed frantically before he quickly brandished his longsword in a defensive motion. Clearly, he was terrified of Harvey's power.

At this very moment, Harvey stomped his right leg. The broken blades flew again.

Shwing, shwing, shwing!

The blades pierced right through the King of Arms' forehead, throat, heart, along with other places. The remaining hate shown on his face turned black in an instant.

He never expected Harvey to take action under such circumstances.

He glared at Harvey with the last bit of hate in his eyes, muttering his final words...

“Damn you...”

He lay on the ground without moving an inch. Only resentment was left on his handsome face.

The Islanders' expressions changed frantically. They were both horrified and vengeful at the same time.

Daito's face was thunderous.

"Harvey!" he howled.

He never thought that Harvey would kill off one of Miyata's best disciples.

Scarlett, too, was boiling with anger.

Harvey kept escalating the situation further, since he wouldn't bother to discipline himself.

How was she supposed to inform the Island Nations of this catastrophe?

Because of this ignorant fool, she would get in big trouble!

In Scarlett's eyes, Harvey only won because he used shady tactics against Miyata.

Yet, what actually happened?

Harvey won without even a scratch on him!

He also had the audacity to kill off an important guest from the Shinkage Way!

He deserved death!

Scarlett's anger was close to exploding.

"I wanted to make the call and keep your corpse intact, and stop the Islanders from dragging your family down with you..."

"But since you want me to walk down this path ..."

"I'll just let you be!"

"Go to hell!"

“Damn you and your entire family!”

In Scarlett’s eyes, Harvey’s fate had already been sealed because of his ignorance.

Harvey, however, ignored Scarlett, who was blabbering non stop completely. Instead, he glanced at Daito.

“I’m not done with the Shindan Way just yet.”

“That’s the only reason you’re still alive right now.”

“When I go to the Island Nations, I’ll deal with you all myself.”

“If you know what’s best for you, you should get out of here right now.”

“If you don’t and you keep getting in my way, I wouldn’t mind killing you.”

Harvey picked up a longsword from the ground and wiped it clean.

After seeing his movements, the Shinkage Way experts showed horrible expressions.

This man was completely disrespecting the Shinkage Way!

Mitchell narrowed his eyes at the emotionless Harvey.

“Mr. Yashiro, I think this man must be at his wits’ end!” he whispered quietly.

“Even if he’s a God of War, he’s probably just showing off right now!”

Chapter 2700

Mitchell was certain that no matter how strong Harvey was, he must've been completely spent after his battle with Miyata.

Now would be the best time to deal with Harvey once and for all.

If they missed the opportunity, there probably wouldn't be another one.

Daito, who was extremely fearful, forcefully calmed himself down.

His gaze was filled with murderous intent as he glared at Harvey.

“For the sake of the head of Longmen’s Law Enforcement, I won’t kill you if you give up right now!”

“I’ll take you back to the Island Nations to stand trial!”

“You might have your corpse intact when you die!”

“But if you keep resisting, I guarantee that you won’t get out of here alive!”

Daito felt that everything would be easier if Harvey just gave up.

If Harvey was taken back to the Island Nations, he would be forced to make a confession admitting that he used shady tactics against Miyata.

That way, Miyata’s failure would be Country H’s shame, and not the Island Nations’!

After hearing Daito’s words, Mitchell chuckled coldly.

“Hear that? Kneel already, Harvey!”

“Mr. Yashiro’s being extremely generous right now. Cherish it!”

“If not, there will be dire consequences if he gets angry!”

Scarlett and the rest of the rich heirs glared coldly at Harvey, patiently waiting for Harvey to kneel at any moment.

“Why are you still standing?! Are you waiting for me to force you down?!” Daito screamed.

“You’re fast, but you’re already spent! You can’t keep this charade for long!”

“Even if I can’t kill you, we can tire you out with numbers alone!”

Harvey narrowed his eyes at Daito.

“Why don’t you see for yourself if I’m spent?”

“Fine! Keep showing off!”

Daito let out an arrogant laugh before making a gesture.

Immediately, shadows appeared out of the forest.

The men were wearing black masks, and no aura could be felt on them. They were extremely nimble as well. It was clear that they were professional killers.

In an instant, every single one of them disappeared. Yet, a hint of murderous intent could be felt locked on to Harvey.

“Island Nation Ninjas?”

Harvey remained aloof, completely unimpressed.

“I have to admit, you people really are full of tricks.”

“The ninjas are here, but what about the onmyojis?”

“Of course they’re here too!”

Daito laughed again before making another gesture.

A person hovered in the air before making a grand entrance, rune papers burning all around him. It was an eerie sight.

“This here is the Tsuchimikado family’s Master Abe!”

“He can end your life with just a single rune paper!”

“Just you wait!”

Even Scarlett and the others gasped when they saw the appearance of the ninjas and onmyoji.

They didn’t think that Daito would be this cautious where Harvey was concerned, and actually brought all these powerful characters with him.

In their eyes, Harvey was dead for sure!

Ninjas, swordsmen, and an onmyoji now had him completely surrounded.

Forget Harvey, even a true God of War would be dead in this situation.

“If you want to survive, then kneel!”

Daito’s gaze was icy.

“If not, don’t blame me for what happens next!”

“When were the Islanders allowed to show off in a place like Hong Kong?!”

A person appeared in midair before landing behind Harvey, as if God Himself had descended to Earth.