

Chapter 2727

“Enough! Nobody move!”

Selena stood up suddenly. Her expression returned to normal, as before.

“Sir York is treating me right now, so do not interrupt him.”

Abel froze slightly.

“Lady Judd, this kid’s just disrespecting you...”
he quietly said.

“He isn’t. He’s actually treating me.”

Selena was confused as well. At first, she also thought that Harvey was just utterly conceited.

But after coming back to senses, she felt refreshed after coughing out dark blood, as if a huge thorn from her heart was finally removed.

Abel and the others were shocked after looking at Selena. The cold and distant Lady Judd herself was glowing with a hint of life.

This is exactly what a human should look like.

Undoubtedly, Harvey's slaps and the tea had completely forced the congested blood within Selena's heart out!

What was this sorcery?!

Abel and the others were completely shocked beyond belief.

The top ten doctors of Hong Kong, the saint's reputed hand from northern Europe, and the Island Nations' Imperial Physician couldn't even help with Selena's sickness!

And yet Harvey had dealt with it that easily with just a bunch of slaps and some tea?

This was all unbelievable.

“Lady Judd, my slaps stirred up the long lost anger in your heart.”

“Everything that you’ve endured for ten whole years has been coughed up.”

“You’ll be able to sleep soundly for the entire month. You won’t have nightmares about losing your son ever again.”

Harvey took some tissue from the table and wiped his fingers.

“Of course, this is just temporary. It’s not a permanent solution.”

Selena lightly tapped on her chest before realizing that she was a lot more relaxed...

As if she was completely reborn.

She no longer had doubts about Harvey then.

“No wonder you’re the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen at such a young age...” she said with a grim look on her face.

“No wonder Melissa, Quinton, and the others lost everything in South Light against you in a single day after so many years of preparation...”

“I had my doubts, but now I believe you.”

“I’ll accept your deal.”

Abel and the others looked shock after hearing Selena’s words.

With such a casual agreement, the Yorks of Hong Kong were about to experience endless bloodshed.

“How should I proceed next?” Selena asked.

Harvey smiled.

“Lady Judd, you should deal with whoever started this in the first place.”

“You should kill whoever who killed your son!

“What goes around, comes around after all!”

“When you exact your revenge and clear your mind, your illness will definitely go away!

“My condition is none other than your prescription!”

Selena’s expression shifted slightly and became terrifying.

Harvey’s words were simple: Vince was the one that had gotten Selena’s son killed.

“Do you have proof, Sir York?” Selena asked agitatedly.

“Do we even need to do such a thing?”

Harvey showed no emotion.

“If your son is still alive, whose position would he threaten the most? Who's the one that benefits the most out of your son's death?

“With your influence and power, it shouldn't be hard for you to figure that out, right?”

“Even if you can't, Lord York himself should be able to handle it for you.”

Chapter 2728

“You know exactly what happened back then.

“It’s been ten whole years, but I’m sure you’ll be able to find something if you really want to go deeper.

“You don’t need proof from me, do you?”

“Or rather, would you and Lord York believe me if I do?”

Selena’s expression worsened in an instant before she stood up and took a deep breath.

“Apologies, Sir York. I don’t have time to keep you company today.

“But I’ll make sure you give you an answer as soon as possible.

“If everything you say is real, Vince won’t even have a chance to rise, even without our deal!”

Harvey stood up and waved his hand. After leaving his phone number, he then left with Yoana.

Abel and the others were completely shocked while looking at his back.

They knew that a few slaps and a simple speech from this young man completely turned the Yorks of Hong Kong along with Hong Kong and Las Vegas around!

Bang!

Right when Harvey left the garden villa, Lexie slammed on the table with a horrible look on her face inside an office building of Victoria Harbor.

She was utterly enraged after seeing the picture sent to her phone by her spy.

“You’re getting more and more useless by the minute, Vince!

“You let that b*tch, Helena, listen in to our conversation?!”

“And she managed to get inside the Yorks’ garden villa?!”

“Do you not understand that she’s Selena’s trusted subordinate?!”

“If she’s alive, she’ll definitely tell Selena everything!”

“When that happens, you’ll have trouble getting what you want too!”

“Have you been living too comfortably recently, Vince?!”

“You can’t even deal with someone like that?!”

Quinton, Matthew, and Ellis were standing in front while giving each other looks. None of them stepped up to say anything.

Stephen kneeled with his face on the ground.

“It’s all my fault, Madam York,” he quietly said.

“If I was a little faster, I would’ve killed that b*tch already!

“Harvey and Yoana wouldn’t have the chance to get inside the villa either...

“Don’t blame Stephen, Aunt.”

Vince poured two glasses of champagne before handing one of them to Lexie with a warm smile.

“They didn’t mean for this to happen.

“Nobody thought that the bimbo, Helena, actually had the brains to know that she needed help from her master!

“Stephen and the others did their best. They even got ambulances ready just in case.

“But nobody from the garden villa even called a doctor in the first place.

“Helena’s either unscathed...

“Or she’s already dead.”

“But whether she’s dead or alive, things that she heard won’t be enough to do anything to us anyway!

“At this point, there’s no need to go against Selena for such an insignificant person. There’s no need for us to explain the situation either.

“Selena’s been muddle-headed all these years. She might not even trust Helena’s words.

“As long as we get past Grandma York’s birthday, everything will be set in stone when I’m officially under Selena’s charge.

“As for Harvey being there at such a perfect timing, I doubt he’ll be able to use her for anything anyway.

“Helena’s just a crazy b*tch that only know how to pity herself.

“She’s not dead only because I can still use her.

“Who said that I was ever scared of her?”

Chapter 2729

After hearing Vince's words, Lexie managed to calm down.

"You're right. Helena's a nobody. Her words don't amount to anything. Nobody will believe her," she quietly replied.

"But there'll be trouble if we keep her alive.

"Find a chance for the Islanders to deal with her."

Lexie's emotionless words had already sealed Helena's fate.

Quinton's phone vibrated at this very moment.

He went to pick up the phone in the corner of the room. His panicked expression could be clearly seen soon after.

He then stumbled toward Vince and exclaimed, "

Something's wrong, Young Lord York!

“We have news from the garden villa!

“Selena's mobilizing her forces to investigate what happened ten years ago!

“It's said that Harvey was the one who convinced her!

“Helena's testimony might have played a role in this as well!”

Clank!

Lexie's face completely lost all color before dropping her champagne on the ground.

Vince's expression changed in an instant before taking a step forward and kicking Stephen over.

“Useless!

“Filth!

“It’s all because of you useless filth that things turned out like this!

“No... We can’t let Selena know what happened!

“If not, not only will my position be threatened, the people involved in this will die!”

Lexie’s expression changed slightly before she took a deep breath.

“Don’t panic, Vince. We covered up all the loose ends back then.

“No matter how great Selena’s people are, they won’t find anything.

“After all, the people that were involved are already dead.”

Lexie then glanced at Matthew and the others with a hint of murderous intent in her eyes.

If there was ever a need, she wouldn’t mind dealing with the others either.

Vince looked over before his expression twisted further.

Those people were his most trusted subordinates. Was he actually about to kill them off?

If he did, his position as the young lord would falter.

Vince forcefully regained his calm before he quietly said, "Aunt, these rumors are nothing. We're all in the same boat now.

"Besides, the people that did it are dead.

"Nothing will come out of the investigation.

"Even if they manage to find out about us, they won't figure it out in time.

"If we can hold on until the birthday banquet...

“Everything will be fine.”

Quinton walked forward with a ghastly expression.

“I’m afraid things aren’t that simple, Young Lord York.

“Lady Judd might be easy to deal with, but since Harvey’s also involved with the situation, things are going to get messy.

“It’s best that you be careful.

“If not, you’ll suffer great losses.”

Bang!

Vince swung his right leg forward and kicked the table down with a wretched look on his face.

“Harvey?! Harvey again?!”

“If that’s the case, Harvey has to die no matter what!

“Right now!

“I want him dead before dawn!”

“You can’t do anything about it right now. This is a special time for you. I’ll handle this.”

Chapter 2730

“I’ll try convincing Harvey.”

“If he doesn’t know what’s best for him, I wouldn’t mind killing him off either.”

Lexie’s calm words clearly showed her resolve to put Vince to power.

She had suffered great losses in front of Harvey before, so she wanted to rip him to shreds badly.

But if Harvey was willing to back down, Lexie wouldn’t mind giving away the Dragon Palace’s branch either.

At the Three Seasons Hotel.

A calm drizzle showered from the sky, covering the entire place in a cloud of water.

Harvey, who was about to enter the lobby after getting out of his Toyota Prado, heard a loud rev coming from a car's engine.

A bright red Ferrari 488 was parked next to Harvey.

As soon as the car windows rolled down, a woman with a beautiful and tender-looking face that resembled a painting could be seen. She was wearing a black Chanel dress with Gucci sunglasses, making her seem fashionable and elegant.

Harvey slightly frowned after seeing the enchanting woman in front of him.

It was Lexie from the Yorks of Hong Kong.

Since Quinton arranged such a big show, surely he would tell Vince about Selena's investigation as well.

If that was the case, it would be perfectly normal for Lexie to show up then.

But Harvey was a little surprised. She didn't seem like she was here to fight at all as she came alone.

Harvey was perplexed. Were pigs starting to fly or something?

Lexie held onto the steering wheel and leaned on the car window after seeing Harvey's look of confusion.

"Why don't we speak inside, Harvey?" she suggested, with a warm smile on her face.

"The Huancheng Expressway looks beautiful in the rain. Why don't we go take a look together?"

Her calm expression was showing a hint of allure then.

It was as if Lexie was actually pretty close to Harvey.

Harvey held onto the car window with both hands while tilting his head.

“Madam York, if I remember correctly, we’re supposed to be enemies, right?”

“With a strong grudge against each other, in fact.

“When did we become friends that watch the rain and drive around together?”

“This doesn’t seem right!”

Harvey knew full well that he got the Dragon Palace’s branch from this woman.

It was good enough that she didn’t cause him more trouble, but why would she even try to get into his good graces?

If this was an assassination attempt, this would be a frightening attempt to say the least.

“What? The high and mighty prince is scared of a mere woman like me?”

Lexie’s calm look was showing a hint of ridicule, provocation, charm, and a bit of resentment.

“You're afraid of me biting you or something?”

Harvey chuckled.

“Not really. I’m just worried that I might hurt you accidentally.

“No matter what, you’re getting pretty old...”

Lexie’s pale forehead was filled with freckles in an instant.

A woman like her hated being called old the most.

“Enough! Are you a man or not?!”

“Get in already!”

Lexie had a twisted expression on her face. She was being utterly decisive then.

“I’m leaving if you’re just going to stand there!

“Don’t regret it though!

“When you do, it’ll be all too late!”
