

Chapter 2843

Cory York slightly froze before forcing out a smile.

“Miss Ishikawa, you must’ve been mistaken.

“The young lord of the family is Vince York. It’s not Harvey York.”

The meaning of those words was simple.

Harvey was not even from the Yorks of Hong Kong, and there was no need to be this polite toward him.

Cory then walked toward Taichi Ishikawa while showing a warm smile.

“I heard about what transpired yesterday, Young Master Ishikawa.

“This is no big deal. It’s all in the past now. Please stand up.”

He then tried to lift Taichi off the ground.

Taichi completely ignored him and kept slapping himself as he kneeled.

“I’m moved by your generosity , Chairman York, but we have to admit to our faults! This is the rule of the Ishikawa family!

“We came here today to ask for Sir York’s forgiveness.”

Yukiko ignored Cory and kept bowing in front of Harvey.

It was apparent that Cory had no say in the situation , and only Harvey did, but she did not say it out loud.

Cory’s expression slightly changed.

He did not know why Yukiko was this respectful toward Harvey, but he did not want this to continue.

Cory then showed a warm smile toward Queenie York.

“Queenie , sometimes it’s better to forgive another person than to keep holding a grudge.

“Representative Ishikawa seems pretty sincere. You should talk to Consultant York about this and bury the hatchet.”

For Cory , Yukiko bowing toward Harvey in front of this many people was not a good thing at all.

He instinctively tried to turn the situation around.

Queenie completely ignored him and curiously glanced at Harvey.

Naturally , Harvey had the final say in the situation.

“You’re kneeling already, Young Master Ishikawa?”

Harvey ignored Yukiko, respectfully bowing in front of him, and casually walked toward Taichi while sizing him up.

“If I remember correctly, you wanted me to kneel and break my own hand!

“Only then you’d let me off the hook, right?”

“Did you forgive me already?”

Taichi’s eyes frantically twitched before he slammed his head to the ground.

“I’m sorry, Sir York! I was wrong!

“Please forgive me! I won’t do it next time!”

“There will be no next time.”

Harvey calmly took a step forward before stomping on Taichi’s right hand.

Crack!

Taichi screamed in pain. His face had completely lost all color as he trembled uncontrollably.

He would not dare to fight back, but he did not even show a hint of resentment.

Harvey kicked Taichi to the ground and calmly exclaimed, "Since Yukiko came all the way here, I'll forget about what happened yesterday.

"Remember. Prepare the medical fees for the staff members you injured.

"Of course, you can still take your revenge, but I'll break your necks if I find out next time."

"I won't! I won't!"

Taichi frantically nodded his head.

“I’ll apologize with all my heart! Don’t you worry, Sir York! I won’t take advantage of the people here anymore!”

The higher-ups were twitching their eyes after witnessing Taichi in such a sorry state.

‘Where did this kid come from?!’

‘He’s merciless!’

Chapter 2844

Cory York and the board of directors squinted their eyes.

Everyone knew that Harvey York was making an example out of the Islanders.

Queenie York's consultant was trampling them all over like a bunch of dead dogs.

Who else would dare to go against Queenie in the future?

Simply put, Queenie's position as the executive CEO would be solidified after this incident.

“Thank Sir York properly and change your ways.”

Yukiko Ishikawa glanced at Taichi Ishikawa while she was constantly bowing.

“If it weren’t for Sir York, you would’ve been thrown to the fishes this afternoon.

“Be grateful!”

Everyone gasped after hearing Yukiko’s calm words.

‘The Islanders sure are ruthless! Not only are they merciless toward their enemies, but they also have no pity toward their own!’

Harvey glanced at Yukiko while filled with interest before raising his caution.

He knew if he did not manage to suppress Yukiko, he would have been the one to kneel and break his hand, and not Taichi.

Due to Yukiko's arrival and courtesy, Harvey had no reason to look for the Ishikawa family.

Simply put, Yukiko gained a great advantage by humbling herself here.

On that occasion, Harvey had no intention of looking down on her.

After all, those people knew when to act tough and when to give in.

They were a bunch of snakes crawling out of the shadows to strike when people least expect it.

“Sir York, this is our family’s contract within Country H’s borders . Please have a look.”

After dealing with Taichi’s matters , Yukiko respectfully got the legal department to hand over a contract.

“The contents are as you requested . If you sign it, all business under the Ishikawa Corporation within Country H will be under your control for three years.

“You have the final say in the products you sell, how you sell them, and how much you sell them for!

“And within these three years, the Ishikawa Corporation will only take ten percent of the profits.”

“Other than that, the person who signs the contract will be in charge of the project.

“The contract will be kept as evidence!”

The crowd was shocked after hearing Yukiko’s words.

Everyone’s jaw dropped when they looked into her eyes. Nobody expected that she would even say something like this.

They were practically giving away money at this point!

Whoever signed the contract would have no trouble bringing up a first-rated family in a short amount of time.

Almost everyone's gaze shifted toward Harvey at that time.

The higher-ups were filled with jealousy.

After all, Yukiko's words were crystal clear. Whoever signed the contract would be in charge of the project.

The contract was tied to a person and not the company as a whole.

Even Cory was glaring at Harvey with a profound look in his eyes. Nobody knew what was going through his mind at that instant.

Queenie was at a loss for words.

She knew that Harvey could deal with the Ishikawa Corporation, but not to this extent.

Only Harvey remained perfectly calm inside the room.

He was impressed as he squinted at Yukiko.

‘What a scheme!’

Chapter 2845

While the others only saw profit, Harvey York saw through Yukiko Ishikawa's evil plans hidden underneath her generosity.

Simply put, if Harvey were to sign the contract, he would turn into a menace within the entire company, maybe even to the Yorks of Hong Kong too!

He would need to fight them all to the death if that were the case!

Yukiko understood how powerful Harvey was. Since the Yorks of Hong Kong was one of the five hidden families, they would also have immense strength.

If both sides were to fight each other to the death, Country H's entire upper social circle would also be dragged into it.

Trading three years' worth of an exclusive deal with utter chaos between Harvey and the Yorks of Hong Kong...

For the Islanders, who only wished for the people of Country H to suffer, this was an extremely lucrative deal.

Without a second thought, Harvey reached out and raised Yukiko's exquisite jaw with a warm smile.

"Three whole years of that just isn't enough, Miss Ishikawa.

"I have two other conditions."

Yukiko froze slightly, then showed a tender smile as usual.

"Our family will abide by your needs, Sir York."

"Right."

Harvey nodded.

“Number one. Three years of the deal within Country H isn’t enough. I want the far east, your country included.”

Yukiko trembled before gritting her teeth.

“Fine. We accept.”

“Number two. Within the next three years, other than the far east, we want to sell all of your company’s products worldwide. After all, it’s healthy to have some competition.”

Yukiko frantically twitched her eyes.

“Of course.”

Obviously, Yukiko had already made preparations to satisfy Harvey so that he would take the bait.

After hearing Harvey’s conditions, the higher-ups behind him were showing scornful glances as if they wanted to take a bite out of Harvey.

After the legal department of the Ishikawa Corporation drew up the contract, Yukiko signed it and respectfully handed it over to Harvey.

Harvey took a few good glances for a moment, then threw the contract in front of Queenie.

“Sign it, Queenie. From now on, you’ll be in charge of their project in the far east!

“You’ll be on it for three years!

“Don’t forget what I said! You can make money, but don’t you dare let these people take advantage of you.”

“What? He wants Queenie to sign the contract?!”

“Is he mad?!”

“Does he not understand what this means?!”

Everyone was utterly shocked after hearing Harvey's words.

The malicious looks on higher-ups' faces became sluggish in an instant.

Nobody expected that Harvey could just hand the billion-dollar contract over to Queenie.

If Queenie were to sign the contract, her status within the company would be frighteningly immense to the point where she could threaten Vince York.

In just a few days, Queenie's position was completely solidified!

Even a calculating man like Cory trembled slightly while twitching the corner of his mouth with a confused expression.

A character such as him would naturally know what Yukiko was planning...

But he did not think that Harvey would do something like this to deal with the situation.

Yukiko felt sluggish while she looked at Harvey, full of disbelief.

She wanted to gain some advantage, but she managed to end up in a worse situation than before!

This was a terrible situation for her!

Chapter 2846

With Queenie York's signature on the contract, the Ishikawa Corporation incident came to a close.

Queenie's position within the company and the family was set in stone.

After seeing Yukiko Ishikawa and the others stumble out of the venue, Harvey York calmly turned toward Dante Castro.

Dante frantically changed his expression and tried to back off.

"You remember the deal we made yesterday, Manager Castro?" asked Harvey calmly.

"You're supposed to leave the company if I get the contract, right?"

"So, when are you planning to do that?"

The higher - ups looked at each other after hearing Harvey's words.

Nobody thought that Harvey would bring that up at this point.

Dante's face turned pale.

"I... I... I..." he muttered.

"Since you have a deal with Consultant York, you should leave then.

"Since you've worked so hard for the Loxus Consortium for so many years, I'll give you a year's worth of salary as severance pay! Don't you dare show up in front of me ever again!

"Come! Give him the money and throw him out right now!"

Cory York showed a righteous expression, but in reality, he was still trying to protect Dante.

After all, Queenie and Harvey got a contract that greatly benefits them.

Even Cory would not dare provoke Queenie at this moment. Everyone else would go against him if he did.

After hearing Cory's words, his secretary walked forward to take Dante away.

Queenie did not say a single word.

Harvey took a step forward and calmly smiled.

"Hold on, Chairman York.

"I know you're trying to take care of your butler's son, but a deal's a deal.

"If you want to give him your money, that's your business.

"But according to the deal, he has to break his hand before he gets to leave.

“Are you planning to do it? Or do you want me to do it instead?”

Harvey snapped his fingers before someone brought over a baseball bat.

He smiled faintly at Cory indifferently.

If he were to do it, Dante's hand would be crippled without question...

And if Cory were to do it instead, Dante's hand would probably be saved, but his loyal subordinates would have second opinions about him in the future.

Simply put, Harvey's simple request was enough to put Cory in a tight spot.

Dante's face had lost all color. He stared at Cory with a pleading look on his face. He knew Cory would hold back, so he would not be crippled.

Cory's face darkened in an instant. After squinting at Harvey for a long while, he heaved a huge sigh.

Cory then grabbed the baseball bat from the table and swung it right toward Dante.

Crack!

Dante's hand was snapped in half. He was trembling wildly because of the pain, but he did not even let out a scream the entire time.

Clang!

Cory threw the bat to the ground and glared coldly at Queenie and Harvey.

“Are you happy with this, Consultant York?”

he asked with a steady tone.

Harvey smiled before he shrugged.

“If I’m not, are you going to break his other arm too?” 2
