

HARVEY YORK'S RISE TO POWER

Chapter 3811

Slap!

“You’re the prince of the Osborne family. The successor of India’s royal family!

“You’ve been acting all high and mighty, but who knew you have such a cowardly side too?”

Harvey York kept slapping Clyde Osborne around to the point where his face was swollen completely.

“You b*stard

Clyde stumbled backward after taking all those slaps. A horrible expression was clearly showing on his face at that moment.

He wanted to pull out his firearm and pull the trigger on Harvey desperately...

But as soon as he grabbed his firearm, Emilio Garcia and the others quickly exclaimed, “You can’t, Prince Osborne!”

Naturally, they cared more about their interests than Clyde’s own pride.

They came here to flaunt their strength, not to die horrible deaths.

“Shut up! Every single one of you!

Clyde was utterly enraged.

“Did you all forget who the instigator is?!

“I’ll kill him! I’m going to kill him!”

After being continuously disrespected, Clyde wanted to strangle Harvey so badly.

He took off the safety of his firearm before pointing it right toward Harvey's head.

"We're telling you to stop! You hear me?!"

Emilio's expression was icy cold when he spoke in a dominant tone.

"If you ruin the interests of India's Martial Arts Alliance, do you think the prince will forgive you for this?!"

"Don't forget. A so-called successor like you is nothing before the prince!"

Clyde's hand trembled after hearing those words. His trigger finger also instinctively slowed down.

Without question, the prince's identity was extraordinary; his power was no less than terrifying as well.

Clyde would not dare lash out any longer.

"You're done?"

Harvey cracked a smile

He grabbed the firearm in Clyde's hand before slapping him once again.

"Come on! Come at me!"

"You pulled out your firearm already! Why are you still scared?! I'm embarrassed for my own country, seeing you like this! You're half a citizen of Country H, aren't you?!"

"There's no way filth like you is born here!"

Clyde's eyes were bright red. He covered his face while boiling with anger. It was clear that he was about to snap.

Emilio and the others quickly dragged Clyde back after seeing that sight.

"Enough!"

“Don’t you dare cross the line! You’re taking advantage of us here!

“We’re not going to die with the likes of you!

“Do you think you can just threaten us like this?!

“Let me tell you something! We’re only trying to stop things from escalating further! We’re trying to maintain world peace! Don’t even think that we’re scared of you!”

“World peace?

Harvey let out a chuckle.

“At this point, might as well just say you’re fighting for the entire damn galaxy.”

Emilio’s eyes twitched after hearing Harvey’s words. He wanted to slap Harvey to death so badly...

But he knew that he had no chance against him.

After taking a deep breath to calm himself down, Emilio quietly said, “Tell me, Harvey. What do you want?

“Name your conditions!”

“You still don’t have an idea?” questioned Harvey calmly.

Emilio looked resentfully before coldly exclaiming, “We’ll stop sanctioning Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance.

“We’ll also restore your reputation back.

“Happy?”

"No," replied Harvey York with a calm look.

Emilio Garcia showed a horrible expression.

"I guarantee similar incidents will not happen for the next five years!

"The attacks on citizens of Country H from abroad will also halt instantly!

Haru Miyamoto and the others felt resentful but had no choice just to nod in unison.

"That's right! From now on, we'll coexist peacefully. From now on, we won't get involved with affairs!"

Clyde Osborne gritted his teeth after hearing those words.

He only showed a cold expression without saying a word. Speaking out against this would mean going against the front he previously put up for the sake of the people.

He was already thinking of a million ways to end Harvey's life at this moment...

He was dead set on seeing Harvey getting ripped to shreds!

"Yeah!"

The workers of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance happily cheered.

The pressure of the four great Martial Arts Alliances was just too immense.

Everyone felt much more relaxed when they were finally relieved from all the pestering.

Even Colton Torres showed a bright smile. He was utterly impressed with Harvey's work.

"Thank you all for giving Country H's Martial Arts Alliance a chance.

Harvey smiled faintly, as if he was satisfied by the conditions...

"That said, I think that you should be doing all this in the first place.

"And in my eyes, this isn't even good enough. That's why I decided to come up with a few more conditions..."

"More?!"

"How is this not enough?!"

Emilio and the others froze when they were about to leave the room.

"Don't you dare cross the line, Harvey!" they exclaimed with horrible looks.

"We're giving you enough respect already!"

"Our country has five thousand years worth of history! Can't you at least act like you belong in it?!" exclaimed Clyde coldly.

"Why are you still haggling at this point?!"

"You're embarrassing the country here!"

Slap!

Harvey wasted no time slapping Clyde aside.

Emilio and the others were enraged.

"You're crossing the line, Harvey!"

"Crossing the line?"

Harvey showed a faint smile.

"Not quite. Now, this is crossing the line."

Harvey stepped forward and slapped Emilio and the others around to the point where their faces were completely swollen.

Harvey did not feel satisfied after all that, so he kicked all of them down soon after.

Then, he stepped on Emilio's face and coldly exclaimed, "How's this?"

"The four great Martial Arts Alliances banded together just to show off in front of the country. All of you act like you're kings of the world now. How come you didn't think that you were crossing the line then?"

"You're telling me that I'm crossing the line just because I slapped you people around and kicked you down?"

"Are you people really ignorant? Don't you know that you shouldn't do anything you don't want to happen to yourselves? Didn't your parents even teach you about this?"

"And you say that I'm crossing the line?"

"I'm only paying you back for what happened to my people outside the border. How is that unfair?"

"Let me tell you something. I'm already giving you people enough respect by keeping you alive!"

"If you keep on yapping, I'll break your necks right now!"

"The people supporting you wouldn't even dare make a sound after this."

Harvey York crossed his arms before disdainfully sending Emilio Garcia flying with a single kick.

When Harvey was wiping his fingers with some tissue, Emilio and the others were frantically twitching their eyes before they fearfully took a few steps back.

At this point, they knew that Harvey was right...

Even if Harvey killed them off, the Martial Arts Alliances would not even bat an eye.

After all, Harvey knew their biggest weaknesses.

Emilio and the others felt utterly resentful when they saw Harvey acting dominantly.

They were here to show off and boss around Country H's Martial Arts Alliance...

But they were no different than mere dogs compared to Harvey at this moment.

This was completely off from what they had in mind.

With a bitter look, Emilio took a deep breath and said, "It's better if you don't burn all your bridges right now, Sir York..."

Harvey swung the back of his palm across Emilio's face.

"I'd rather do just that."

Haru Miyamoto gritted his teeth and stepped forward after seeing the sight.

"It's always better to forgive, Sir York..."

Slap!

"I'll only forgive you when you're six feet under."

Gordon Moreno's mouth twitched after seeing the sight.

"We'll surely meet again in the future, Sir York! We all belong to the South Sea and the Far East. There's no need for us to fight! None of us will benefit from this..."

Slap slap slap!

“Are you threatening me?”

Harvey squinted before he kicked Gordon aside.

Then, he shifted his gaze toward Rowen Caddel before coldly exclaiming, “Since you haven’t been running your mouth, I’ll pay you some respect...”

Harvey then slapped Rowen aside!

‘What the f*ck?!

Rowen was filled with anger as he covered his face.

‘I said nothing!

‘Didn’t you say that you were going to show respect?!

‘Were you just putting up a front?!’

When the group of representatives stumbled off the ground again, they were utterly speechless.

‘Doesn’t Country H have a strong etiquette?’

‘Aren’t the people here supposed to be generous?’

‘This b*stard isn’t even holding back!’

The representatives were filled with resentment. They would usually be thanked by people who were in tears if they decided to stop flaunting their strength.

Though, Harvey did not even hesitate to make demands.

Clyde Osborne showed a righteous expression when he exclaimed, “What do you want?!

“Are you not scared of the representatives getting reckless?! Everyone’ll fall if this continues!”

Clyde badly wanted to shoot Harvey, but he would not dare.

“You’re right. That’s precisely the plan.”

Harvey walked forward and patted Clyde on the face with a faint smile.

Then, Harvey made a gesture.

Elanor Stanton calmly brought a few contracts forward and set them before the four representatives.

“Come. Come. Take a look at the contracts I have for you.

“As long as you agree to my conditions, your secrets and weaknesses will forever remain untold!

“Number one, apologize to Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance and admit your mistakes!

“Not just the Far East. I also want the entire Northern Europe to see your apology!” exclaimed Harvey.

Emilio and the others looked at each other after hearing such a demand.

“We’ll oblige,” they replied while gritting their teeth.

“Number two, compensate for all the losses of Country H citizens abroad.

“Pay for their damages and punish the people who did it! Not a single dime less, and not a single person left out!

“Other than that, every single one of you will pay a hundred and fifty million dollars as pension and mental loss fees for the citizens of Country H!

“My assistant, Elanor Stanton, will decide how to proceed with the situation.”

Emilio Garcia and the others frantically twitched their eyes.

Harvey York was going for the people's hearts.

That said, the conditions were still within their tolerable range. No matter how resentful they were, they had no choice but to nod their heads.

"We'll accept these conditions too."

"Number three, and also the final one..."

Harvey calmly said, "I don't trust the four great Martial Arts Alliances to keep their word.

"That's why I'm asking the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances to acknowledge Country H as the fifth permanent director of the World Martial Arts Alliance.

"After all, you wouldn't be able to pull off something like this anymore after that!"

After hearing those words, Colton Torres and Dane Benett's eyes lit up instantly.

Naturally, they knew this was infinitely beneficial to the country if it were to go through.

This would mean that Country H's Martial Arts Alliance would have immense authority over the martial arts world in the future.

The five great directors represented the highest order of the World Martial Arts Alliance.

"No chance!" exclaimed Emilio and the others in unison.

It would be hard for the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances to accept the condition, but it would not be impossible either.

But the same could not be said for India and the Island Nations' Martial Arts Alliances.

There was a vacant position for the World Martial Arts Alliance director. India and the Island Nations were both desperately vying for that.

How could they accept the conditions if that was the case?

They would essentially be supporting their enemies' rise.

"Give me a reason you won't comply," replied Harvey calmly.

"You can slap us around and make us apologize! You can even get us to grovel in front of you..."

Emilio took a deep breath with a serious expression on his face.

"But we will never band together and acknowledge Country H's Martial Arts Alliance as one of the five great directors!

"We'd be crazy if we actually went along with it!

"Give up, Harvey!

"Even if you expose our secrets, we'll never accept that condition!"

Emilio gritted his teeth with a decisive look. This was clearly his limit.

"Right! We won't go along with this either!

"If you really want to drag everyone down, then so be it!

"I do want to see whether Country H's Martial Arts Alliance goes down before us or not!" exclaimed Haru Miyamoto and the others coldly.

Clyde Osborne let out a cold chuckle.

"Don't be naive, Harvey! Do you want Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to be listed as one of the five great directors?

"This isn't about money. The representatives have no say in the matter either..."

"Even if everyone here agrees, even if the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances go along with this..."

"Do you think the current directors would do the same?

"Think again!"

Update Chapter 3814 of Harvey York's Rise to Power

Announcement Harvey York's Rise to Power has updated Chapter 3814 with many amazing and unexpected details. Clyde Osborne was not just spouting nonsense either. The four great directors would always side with America and the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets' Martial Arts Alliances.

Not only did they have the monopoly of the world's many martial arts resources, but they would also often band together to suppress the other Martial Arts Alliances of top countries. The cooperation between both sides would be considered near-perfect.

Safe to say that the world's Martial Arts Alliances would always follow the four great directors.

Because of the Far East and South Sea's complicated situation, the World Martial Arts Alliance would usually not get involved with them.

They already owned the rest of the martial arts world anyway.

Why would the four great directors even let Country H's Martial Arts Alliance rise to power under such circumstances?

Not only would there be another person in charge, but all the directors would also be on a different page again.

Then, how could they use their authority to exploit the people at large?

Harvey chuckled when he saw the righteous looks on Emilio's and the others' faces.

"Are you sure you're not going to accept it?"

Emilio and the others immediately shook their heads.

"Of course not!" they exclaimed coldly.

"No need to be so decisive.

Harvey calmly smiled.

“There are people supporting you behind the scenes, right? Why don’t you ask them about this instead?”

“No! We can decide on our own!”

“Either you set another condition, or we’ll leave this place right now!”

“Besides, Prince Osborne is right. Even if we go along with this, the four great directors will never acknowledge it!”

Harvey calmly smiled.

“I do think that they’ll accept it, though.

“I’m only missing your recommendations at this point.

“With this, everything else will be smooth sailing.”

“If Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance manages to become one of the great directors, I’ll kneel and even call you ‘Daddy’!”

Harvey clicked his tongue.

“Just kneel. Don’t call me that.

“I wouldn’t want an idiot of a child like you for a son anyways.

“Besides, you have no say about this matter.”

Voom!

Almost simultaneously, Emilio and the others’ phones started vibrating.

After looking at Clyde, who was utterly sluggish at the moment, the representatives had a bad feeling about the situation.

“I apologize to the citizens of Country H for the outlandish conditions!

“You may leave now, representatives!

“I’ll get my family to talk to Harvey.

“He will not expose your secrets. You have my word!”

Clyde could not help but speak up after losing himself a little.

“About Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance being one of the great directors, that was just a joke!

“Even if the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliance wants to recommend them, at least one of the great directors needs to do the same before they even have the right!

“Please ignore Harvey for his ignorance, everyone.”

Emilio and the others’ eyes lit up when they were about to say something...

“Are you sure you don’t want to pick up the call first?

“What if your bosses are calling you?”

Emilio and the others came to their senses before they quickly picked up their calls.

“What?! The World Martial Arts Alliance held a meeting just today! The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets recommended Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance to become the fifth great director!

“Other than America’s Martial Arts Alliance, the other two directors are in agreement!

“Only the South Sea and Far East Martial Arts Alliances’ votes are left!”

Read Harvey York's Rise to Power Chapter 3815 - the best manga of 2020

Of the A Potato-Loving Wolf stories I have ever read, perhaps the most impressive thing is Harvey York's Rise to Power. The story is too good, leaving me with many doubts. Currently the manga has been translated to Chapter 3815. Let's read now the author's Harvey York's Rise to Power A Potato-Loving Wolf story right here

Clyde Osborne’s face instantly darkened.

He could not imagine how such a coincidence would even happen.

At such a crucial moment, the World Martial Arts Alliance held a meeting and nominated Country

H's Martial Arts Alliance as one of the great directors.

'How is this possible?!

'Everything happened exactly like that b*stard, Harvey York, said!

'Did he plan for all this?!

The thoughts came to Clyde's mind like a surging tide crashing onto the shore.

He quickly calmed himself, thinking that this would never be the case.

'A small fry like Harvey wouldn't be able to do anything to the World Martial Arts Alliance.

'All this is just a coincidence!'

"Don't be scared, everyone!" exclaimed Clyde.

"He must've known about this through his sources!

"That was why he would come up with such a condition!

"Don't give in to his terms!

"We, the people from Country H, know our limits. We have no right to sit in such a powerful position."

Even before Clyde was done talking, Emilio Garcia and Haru Miyamoto put down their phones.

They were showing horrible looks on their faces as they were gritting their teeth.

Rowen Caddel and Gordon Moreno quickly jogged toward Harvey before bowing respectfully.

"I'm sorry, Sir York. Please forgive us for being ignorant.

“The Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances have made a decision.

“On behalf of our Martial Arts Alliances, we’ll nominate Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance to become one of the great directors!

“As for India and the Island Nations’ Martial Arts Alliances, their decision will not affect ours in any way!

“We hope you can see our sincerity!”

Rowen and Gordon’s arrogant attitude was immediately replaced by fear and humility.

Emilio and Haru’s faces instantly darkened. They would not say a single word at this time.

India and the Island Nations would never accept Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance to rise to power

But the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, the Far East, and the South Sea’s Martial Arts Alliances said otherwise.

At this point, the matter was already set in stone!

The representatives were already being pestered by the people supporting them, saying that this was too tricky of a situation and was not allowed to make any statement.

Even if this did not happen, they also would not dare say a single word about it.

Not only were the workers of Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance completely froze, but even Dane Benett could not help but slap himself in the face to ensure he was not dreaming.

Clyde, on the other hand, was utterly shocked.

His words instantly came back to bite him.

Harvey took a sip of tea that Elanor Stanton had brought over before he calmly said, “Enough nonsense.

“When are you going to send over the recommendation?”

“Don’t worry! The Far East Martial Arts Alliance will hold a meeting in three days! Two-thirds of the members will agree to the recommendation! You have my word!” said Rowen enthusiastically.

“Sir York, the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance will hold a meeting this afternoon! Ninety percent of the members will agree to this!

“With three out of four great directors’ acknowledgment, all we need to do is to go through a collaborative process!

“Soon enough, Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance will be able to send a representative to the World Martial Arts Alliance’ headquarters!”

Gordon Moreno and the others did not want this to happen. They were still screaming at Harvey York moments before but already bowing in the next second.

There was no other choice. Their bosses had already made the call.

Since three out of four great directors of the World Martial Arts Alliance agreed to the condition, what else could the representatives even do?

Colton Torres was completely frozen.

Dane Benett and the others were shocked as well.

At this point, they could not even believe what was happening before their eyes.

“I oppose this! Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance cannot be allowed to be one of the great directors!” bellowed Clyde furiously.

“We know what we’re capable of! Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance isn’t suited for that!

“Not only are you pushing us to go against the Far East and South Sea regions...

“You’re trying to kill Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance here!

“I’ll never agree to this!”

Then, Clyde coldly glared at Emilio Garcia and Haru Miyamoto.

His intention was clear. He wanted the two to stand with him as well.

After all, he knew that his conditions and reasons were not justifiable at all.

Emilio and Haru simultaneously looked away, desperately trying to escape the subject.

“You’re just a half-blood, Prince Osborne. What right do you have to talk about Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance like this?

Harvey glanced at Clyde calmly.

“Are you even worthy?”

“You b*stard! I’ll never allow this!

Clyde pointed toward Harvey’s nose.

“Talk! What sort of heinous things did you do to let the four great directors agree to this?!

“How much of the country’s interests did you sell out for this to happen?!

“The country will not pay such a huge price just for a simple victory!”

Naturally, Clyde was already going a little out of control.

He desperately tried to blame Harvey for whatever reason he could think of.

He knew if Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance were to rise to power, Harvey’s efforts would be immensely appreciated.

How could Clyde even take his revenge against him after that?

How could he possibly take him out?

“Enough! Shut up already, Prince Osborne!

Gordon stepped forward before he swung the back of his palm across Clyde’s face.

“Let me tell you something! Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance being one of the great directors is already set in stone!

“Country H has five thousand years worth of history! They’ve also won their fight against India this time!

“If they’re not appointed after that, how would that even be fair?!

“Besides, you’re just an outsider! You’re not a part of the four great Martial Arts Alliance, nor are you from Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance! What’s the point of you opposing anybody here?!

“Step aside!”

Harvey curiously watched the sight.

Because of his phone call, the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets had constantly been putting pressure, causing the four great Martial Arts Alliances to crumble.

The Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances had no choice but to carry out the four great directors’ commands.

India and the Island Nations’ Martial Arts Alliances felt utterly resentful, but they would not even dare speak up about it.

Clyde was the only one left jumping around like a clown. It was a spectacular sight.

The others became extremely sluggish after hearing those words.

Nobody expected that Clyde Osborne, who seemed like the instigator, would be slapped around by Gordon Moreno.

‘What exactly happened here...?’

“How dare you touch me, you b*stard...?”

Clyde wanted to kill off Gordon, but he managed to hold back.

He could take out someone like Gordon in a heartbeat...

But he was being supported by the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance. Clyde also could not afford to go against them.

“What? Do you think you’re impressive just because we call you ‘Prince’?”

“Do you want to come at me right now?!”

Gordon disdainfully pushed Clyde aside.

“You’re useless! All you can do is run your mouth!”

“Let me tell you something! No matter how hard the decision is or how many people are against us, the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliance will stand with Country H!”

“We’ll get our members to sign the contract to nominate Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance as the fifth great director!”

While Clyde gritted his teeth, Gordon strode toward Colton Torres and said, “Leader Torres! We’ll have to congratulate you first!”

“The South Sea Martial Arts Alliance will follow your lead now!”

“Congratulations, Leader Torres! The Far East will now be under your command!”

“Thank you, representatives.

Colton did not know how things turned out this way. He was showing a bright smile at this moment.

“I’m honored that Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance is able to become one of the five great directors. Don’t worry. We’ll also consider the Far East and South Sea’s interests in the future!”

Bam!

Clyde slammed his hand on the table when he saw the sight, snapping it in half.

“The table’s made out of yellow flower pear wood. It costs fifteen million dollars.”

“Just you wait, Harvey...”

Clyde trembled before he wrote down a check while gritting his teeth before leaving the place.

Emilio Garcia and Haru Miyamoto looked at each other before following Clyde out of the room.

“What just happened?! Tell me!”

When the three came to their parked van, Clyde kicked a small table aside.

Emilio momentarily hesitated before he replied, “The Chief Instructor himself called the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets yesterday.

“He said that he knew this would happen.

“He didn’t ask for anything, but the Empire held an urgent meeting after they got spooked by the call.

“That was how it all happened.

“Prince Osborne! Since the Chief Instructor knows about this, we have no chance against Harvey!

We need to stop this!”

“The Chief Instructor?!”

Clyde came to his senses after hearing that name.

“That b*stard! No wonder he’s acting so high and mighty today! He’s being supported by such a prominent figure?! 1

“Why would the Chief Instructor be interested in that small fry, though?!”

“When all this blows over, I want to see how Harvey will die!”

Clyde thought that Harvey was actually impressive enough to get ahold of the four great Martial Arts Alliances’ secrets while forcing the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets to get Country H into position.

‘The Chief Instructor was behind all this, after all!

‘At the end of the day, Harvey’s still just filth!’

On the next three days, Harvey York had to deal with Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance’s matters along with Colton Torres.

Along with the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances’ sending their recommendations ... Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance had successfully become one of the great directors.

Other than that, not only did the attacks toward Country H citizens from abroad stop, they were all fully compensated for the damages.

After dealing with the matter, Harvey told Rachel Hardy and the others to stay in Flutwell and cooperate with Mandy Zimmer to run the Hearthstone Corporation.

As for the Martial Hall, Elanor Stanton and Layne Naiswell would be in charge.

With the two together, they would have both connections and the strength to do anything.

Martial Hall's development would naturally be on track, along with the Torres family supporting them.

After that, Harvey told Rachel to buy him a plane ticket before he went off.

Dean Cobb's injuries were still untreated after his fight against Julio Garcia.

From a certain standpoint, Harvey was also responsible for his injuries.

That was why Harvey would not just sit back after making some free time for himself. He was planning to head to Blackburn City as soon as he could.

After getting to the airport, Harvey received a call. It was from Mandy.

After hesitating for a moment, Harvey picked up the call.

"I heard your subordinates say you're heading to Blackburn City..."

"I'll be back after a few days," replied Harvey quietly after hesitating momentarily.

"What's the matter?"

"A senior of mine got hurt.

"As his junior, I need to go take a look."

Mandy was dead silent for a while.

"Do you remember what we talked about before?"

Before Harvey could even say anything, she continued speaking.

"I won't be staying in Flutwell after dealing with the matters here. I'll be heading to Golden Sands after this.

"If you still haven't changed your mind by then, come find me there.

"Safe travels..."

Mandy hesitantly hung up the phone.

Harvey showed a faint smile when he heard the busy tone.

It was rare for Mandy to show her caring and jealous side.

Right when Harvey was about to put his phone back, another call came through.

The call came from overseas. The string of numbers was beautiful.

After picking up the call, Katy Cobb's anxious voice could be heard.

"This is bad, Sir York! My grandfather's condition is getting worse..."

"Please save him!"

"Slow down. What happened exactly?" asked Harvey with a stern look on his face.

"He was still barely conscious before. He could talk for a bit and eat porridge on his own..."

"But he coughed up a lot of blood just now! When the doctor we hired was about to stick needles in him, his skin was so hard he couldn't even do that!"

"At this point, my grandfather might just not make it..."

"Skin as hard as metal, and coughing up dark blood. He's going berserk..." said Harvey quickly after changing expressions.

"Get a bucket of ice water and soak your grandfather in there. Add more ice every half an hour.

"My plane's almost here. I'll be in Blackburn City soon."

After giving a few more instructions, Harvey hung up the call before heaving a huge sigh.

He was glad he managed to deal with the four great Martial Arts Alliance relatively quickly.

If not, he would not be able to get time to visit Dean.

After the phone call with Katy Cobb, Harvey York gave Queenie York and Yoana Mendoza a call.

He was going to Blackburn City so he could help Dean Cobb. Katy would definitely arrange everything for him properly...

But it was still better to prepare for the worst, just in case. After all, Blackburn City was outside the borders.

Harvey called Queenie and Yoana since Hong Kong and Las Vegas were enclaves of Country H in the South Sea region. It would be easier to send more men to Blackburn City than compared to Mordu and Buckwood.

Then, Harvey walked up the VIP passageway before boarding the plane.

He rested his eyes for about ten hours before the plane landed.

When he opened his eyes again, he could already feel the warmth and calm breeze of the South Sea

It was already around nine o'clock in the morning. The plane was about to land in Blackburn City.

The passengers started to collect their belongings.

Harvey did not bring a lot with him, though. Then, he wanted to freshen up himself in the restroom.

After all, he would at least need to look presentable to meet up with Katy after a long while.

When Harvey went back to the VIP cabin, a man with a musky smell walked past him before moving his hand around Harvey's luggage without looking back.

“Wait. ”

Harvey immediately pulled the person back.

“Give it back!”

The man was swift, but Harvey could still tell that he had snatched the wallet from his luggage.

Mobile payment was popular these days, but people from the South Sea were still used to making payments in cash.

That was why Harvey carried some with him.

He did not expect that someone would already do such a thing before the plane even landed, though.

“What are you doing?!” exclaimed the man.

He wanted to break free, but he never managed to do so.

“Give it back,” demanded Harvey.

“You’re not from the South Sea?”

After hearing Harvey’s accent and sizing him up, the man let out a cold scoff.

‘Let me tell you something, kid! This isn’t Country H! This is the South Sea!

‘How dare you provoke us in our own turf?! Do you understand what you’re trying to do here?!

‘Nobody will even stand up for you if I take you out right now!

‘I suggest you get out of here as far away as you can!’”

A lot of passengers gathered to the sound of the conflict.

Some people were frowning when they looked into Harvey’s eyes. Since the flight made a transfer from Hong Kong, most of the people on the plane were from the South Sea.

After seeing a man from Country H do this to their own people, the passengers were filled with utter disdain.

‘I’m telling you this one more time. Give me back my wallet,” replied Harvey calmly.

“Screw you!

“Why would mighty people from the South Sea like us even steal your wallet?!

“Let me tell you something! We’re all honest and righteous people here!

“If you keep running your mouth like that, you’ll have to pay the price of law!

“Even if I did take your damn wallet...

“You have no choice but to treat it as a welcoming gift for me! Do you understand me?!”

The man showed a prideful look on his face, as if he was the king of the world.

Harvey let out a sigh before he swung his palm across the man’s face.

Slap!
