

Chapter 41

Zack appeared like he had seen through the lie. “That’s right! It must be so. There are no other possibilities. If not, how could we explain the fact that their contract looks like a real one? But they’re so stupid. It didn’t occur to them that their lies would be exposed so soon...”

“Yes! That might be the case here. Senior Zimmer, call them home, and we’ll get to the bottom of it then.”

“That’s true! We’ve known about it for a long time now that the live-in son-in-law is just a useless man. Unexpectedly, he went and became a thief. Besides, how could Mandy bring home a fake contract? It’s a great humiliation for the Zimmers!” 1

The people from the Zimmers echoed what the others said loudly. ‘Mandy went too far. It’s an investment with an amount of fifty million dollars. A lot of us can gain many benefits and enjoy a luxurious life because of that. How bold of her to take a fake contract and fool us with that! She deserves to be punished severely!’

Senior Zimmer had no facial expression at that moment. He took out the void contract and took a few glances at it. He then said coldly, “Ask Lilian to call them home. If they didn’t give us a logical explanation today, we’d ask them to get the hell out of the Zimmers.”

A lot of the Zimmers looked at each other and nodded repeatedly.

That was a good thing. Without Mandy in their family, they would be able to get a larger share of properties in the future. They wanted so badly for Mandy and her family to be disowned from the family.

At York Enterprise.

Harvey had almost read through the documents in the company during those two days. York Enterprise was an investment company at first. But his cousin—Belle had made a lot of useless investments in the past, and she had made the company suffer a significant loss. She did not even manage the company well, and the profit they gained during the previous year was less than fifteen million dollars.

A profit like that was considered somewhat less for a company that was worth 1.5 billion dollars.

Luckily, the minute Harvey was appointed as the president, he canceled some of the contracts which were not carried out yet. The company was then able to take a break from suffering significant losses. Besides, they needed to be more careful with any investments in the future.

Harvey had roughly read through all of the investment projects before. In fact, except for the Zimmers's project of the shopping center, the only other project that was quite valuable was the automotive city's project.

Harvey read the information. He remembered that his electric bike was damaged, and it was quite troublesome if he always asked Yvonne to fetch him. He should have a car now.

He could go and buy a car that day and at the same time be able to go and investigate whether the automotive city had any investment value.

After he asked Yvonne to call the automotive city, he did not ask her to send him there. However, he rode on his electric bike and went there directly.

An automotive city was the new kind of commercial showroom. It was not used solely to sell cars of a certain brand. However, all of the luxury brands of cars were assembled there. The cars' sales were exclusive, and it was more convenient for the consumers to choose and buy the cars they wanted.

Certainly, the people who could go there were considered quite wealthy and prestigious.

When Harvey reached the automotive city, he was quite speechless. There were many luxury cars parked at the entrance of the automotive city, such as BMW, Audi, and Mercedes-Benz. It was clear that the people who could go there and purchase the cars were only wealthy people. He parked his electric bike there, and it was rather an unpleasant scene.

But it was fine with him. He parked the bike nicely and entered the place.

There were quite a lot of luxury cars which were displayed there. There were all kinds of luxury brands there.

But it was noon, so there were not a lot of customers.

A few salesmen gathered together and chatted among themselves. When they saw Harvey entering the place, they did not want to entertain him.

Harvey dressed up in a shabby manner, and he even came on an electric bike. He might be some kind of worker who worked in the factory nearby. He might have gone to the automotive city to enjoy the air-conditioning system there and might want to take some photographs there to post it on Moments to show himself off.

They had seen those kinds of people so much so that they did not want to serve them.

No one went to serve him, but he was not in a rush. After all, he went there to investigate the place. So he took a look around. He even opened the door of the cars that he favored and went into the car to sit for a short while.

At that moment, a salesperson who looked like a supervisor could not bear to see that anymore.

‘These workers just like to come and take photos. It’s fine. But why do they have to go into the cars like that? Will they be able to compensate for it if they’ve ruined the cars?’

“Mister, hello. May I know if you have gone into the wrong shop? The Kia dealership is on another street,” said the woman in a professional suit who walked over and smiled at him.

“Kia?” Harvey was stunned for a short while. He then smiled and said, “I don’t want to buy that. I came to look at the BMW, Audi, and the others. I’m trying to see if any of it is pleasing to my eyes.”

“Anything pleasing to the eye?” The beautiful sales girl broke into a standard fake smile. She was filled with an unconcealable contempt.

‘Isn’t this guy so good at pretending? He’s clearly a devastatingly poor man. He has such messy hair too. How could he think that he has the right to put up a show here? Did he watch too many videos and pranks online?’

Chapter 42

‘How could such a useless person like him afford to buy literally any car in this automotive city?’

“Sir, how about this? Just look at your disposition. I think this car is suitable for you.” The beautiful sales girl looked at Harvey condescendingly. She specifically pointed at a Porsche Panamera not far away, smiled faintly, and said, “How about this? You can drive this car out. If no woman jumps into your car within a distance of a thousand feet, you may need to think whether you look too frightening.”

Harvey was amused. He walked over there and took a few glances at the car. He then said, “It’s not bad. But it’s been so long since I last drove a car. Why don’t you arrange for a test drive? If it’s suitable, I’ll take this one.”

“Test driver? For you?”

The beautiful sales girl indeed broke into laughter.

It never occurred to her that someone could be so shameless as him. How could he be so bold and ask for a test drive of a car which cost around four hundred thousand dollars?

“Sir, please leave now. We don’t welcome you here. If you want to make some jokes, could you please go to another place?”

Harvey was stunned. ‘D*mn! Is she kicking me out of this place? How could they want me to invest in them, given how they behave and react?’

Harvey was about to say something. At that moment, he saw a man and a woman entering the place. When he saw who the woman was, his facial expression became extremely ugly in an instant.

‘Mandy?’ 1

Harvey sneered inwardly. ‘I’ve just given you eight hundred thousand dollars for you to resolve your problem. But you’ve got another pursuer.’

There was a man beside Mandy. His hair was combed neatly, and he was wearing a suit with a pair of leather shoes. There was even a large shiny gold watch around his wrist. The way he brought himself was rather proper, and he was slightly handsome too.

Although Mandy was reluctant, she still smiled cordially. However, she was quite uneasy at that moment.

Kevin Quinn was Angel's cousin. He was considered a successful man. Lilian even thought inwardly that he was her best candidate for a son-in-law.

According to what Lilian said, many people tried to gain Mandy's affections. Besides, Kevin was the one who she was most satisfied with among that group of people.

He was not only handsome, but he was also the president of that automotive city. The amount of money and resources he had were quite high in number too. He was not only quite a good match for her daughter, but he could also share his properties with her family in the future. He was nothing like Harvey, who was nothing but a loser.

“Mr. Quinn!”

At that moment, the supervisor, who appeared quite arrogant and stood by Harvey just now, had rushed toward Kevin with a flattering smile. She even greeted Kevin respectfully.

Her behavior and response were entirely different from when she saw Harvey just now.

Kevin nodded and said, “Miss Xavier from York Enterprise called just now. She told me that their CEO would be coming for an investigation here. Did you receive him yet?”

The woman replied swiftly, “Not yet. I heard that the CEO drives a Bentley. I've been keeping an eye out since just now. No car came yet.”

Kevin nodded. He was in no rush. He then smiled and said to Mandy, “Mandy, why don't we have a sit in the office for a short while?”

In that instant, Mandy was slightly absent-minded. She then nodded casually.

Although Lilian wanted her to date Kevin, she always rejected that, especially after the hostage incident. Mandy found herself treating Harvey differently now. Sometimes, she even started to miss Harvey when she did not see him.

So she never mentioned the divorce at all.

The reason she went there today was because of what she heard from Angel. Angel's cousin knew the superiors who worked in York Enterprise. Hence, she learned that the CEO of York Enterprise was going there for a visit that day.

Mandy was quite curious about that CEO. She wanted to see what kind of person he was by going there deliberately. He did not even meet her, but he gave her the contract directly.

Certainly, Mandy was still unaware of the fact that the contract had been ruined now. If she knew of that, she would be much curious.

But Mandy was not even aware of the fact that Kevin did not even know the CEO of York Enterprise.

That day, Harvey called them directly because he suddenly intended to take a look there. When Kevin received the call, he rushed there obediently and willingly, preparing himself to serve the CEO.

The reason Kevin told Angel about that was because he wanted to boast about himself in front of his cousin. He wanted to show that he was quite capable and to improve both his status and identity. Hence, he could take that opportunity to get near to Mandy.

At that moment, Harvey mocked at himself. He had no intention to give in. But he strode over there directly.

‘Mr. Quinn? Isn’t he the one who called for numerous times to beg York Enterprise for the investment shyly? It seems like he’s that Mr. Quinn.’

“Alas! Why haven't you left yet?” When the supervisor saw Harvey walking toward them, she appeared annoyed and upset. ‘Doesn’t this worker have some self-awareness? Is this the kind of occasion for him?’ 1

Kevin took a glance at Harvey casually. He thought that Harvey was the kind of worker who went there to take photographs for Moments. So he soon frowned and said, “Didn’t I tell you about this long ago? You need to block these kinds of random people at the door. Why did you let them in? They can’t even afford to buy a car wheel!”

“Besides, the new CEO of York Enterprise is coming soon. I heard that the CEO is young and capable. If he’s being disgusted by people like him, can you take responsibility for that?”

Chapter 43

“Alright! Mr. Quinn, I’ll ask him to get lost immediately!” The supervisor nodded swiftly. She then turned around and stared at Harvey angrily. She then said, “Sir, please leave now. We don’t welcome you here. If you don’t know how to leave, we’ll ask the security guards to escort you out...”

Harvey did not want to be bothered by her. He just took a step forward and stared at Mandy, who stood before him.

“Harvey? Why are you here?” Mandy only recovered herself now. When she saw Harvey, her beautiful figure was seen trembling slightly. She was filled with both joy and awkwardness at that moment.

Even she could not figure out why she had those kinds of feelings.

She clearly felt quite superior in front of Harvey before. Now for some unknown reasons, she found Harvey quite pleasing to the eye. Most of the time, she felt quite lonely when she did not see him.

The most important thing was, she felt quite awkward and worried when he saw her being with another man. She was afraid that he might be angry. Mandy was quite puzzled about those kinds of feelings.

Harvey said nothing, but he took a glance at Kevin beside them.

Mandy took two steps forward. She hesitated for a short while before she held Harvey's hand and pulled him aside. She then said softly, "Harvey, don't misunderstand it. This is Angel's cousin. Although he always tries to gain my affections, I always reject him. But today, my mom forced me to come here..."

Hearing that, Harvey finally figured out the truth. Before Mandy could finish talking, he nodded and replied, "I understand it now."

He could only say that his mother-in-law was an impatient person. They had not gone through with the divorce, but his mother-in-law had started to look for another son-in-law impatiently.

Don was gone, but now they had another man named Kevin. Harvey sneered inwardly.

“Mandy, who is this?”

Kevin was quite stunned at that moment. What kind of person was Mandy? She was a famous goddess in Niumhi. She was always superior, cold, and aloof. A lot of people wanted to gain her contact number, but they failed to do so. How would she ever know such farmers or workers? Besides, they seemed quite close to each other.

At that moment, Kevin was rather annoyed. ‘Who is this? How come such a man like him can get close to the goddess? He has no self-awareness at all!’

Mandy opened her mouth slightly, but before she could say anything, Harvey pulled her behind him. He then looked at Kevin and said calmly, “I’m her husband. Besides, not any random person by the road can address her as Mandy. Please behave yourself.”

Kevin was stunned for a short while. After a moment, he looked like he had understood the situation. He sized Harvey up and broke into laughter all of a sudden. “Just when I’m trying to figure out who you are. It turns out that you’re the live-in son-in-law. Why? Have you become quite smug and arrogant after mooching off your in-laws and wife? How arrogant you are! If the others are unaware of it, they might think that you’re some kind of CEO!”

“I’m well aware of your situation. Mrs. Lilian Zimmer had told me about it clearly. You’re their live-in son-in-law for three whole years. But you know nothing else except doing the house chores. You’re the legendary good-for-nothing, right?”

Kevin smiled happily. Then he gave Harvey a meaningful look, “I’m quite curious indeed. Don’t you have a tinge of dignity? How could you stay in the Zimmers still? If I were you, I would’ve gone and killed myself. How could a man be so shameless like you? Certainly, your ancestors wouldn't be able to rest in peace seeing you like this! Besides, Mrs. Zimmer had asked you to leave Mandy. When do you plan to go through with the divorce? Do you want me to send you there now?"

Kevin was filled with contempt and disdain. 'He's just a live-in son-in-law. A loser! How could he put on such a show in front of me?"

Mandy bit her lips slightly and said softly, "Kevin, please drop it now. We..."

Kevin smiled faintly and interrupted Mandy. He then looked at Harvey and said, "Mr. York, I won't get angry at you today for Mandy's sake. If not, I would've asked somebody to beat you up vigorously and break your legs given my temper!"

After that, he took a glance at the supervisor beside him and said coldly, "What did he come here for? Did he say anything about that?"

The supervisor said softly, "He came to buy a car.

He has his eyes on the Porsche Panamera.”

As she was talking about that, she was filled with disdain. ‘How could there be a person like this? He lives his life, mooching off others. Who the hell does he think he is? Why isn’t he at home doing the house chores obediently? Why did he come here and act like he wants to buy a sports car?’

“Porsche Panamera?” Kevin was amused. “This car is not expensive. It’s just slightly more than three hundred thousand dollars. Can you afford that? You even have your eyes on the Porsche. It’s hilarious! I heard that you only have like fifteen dollars as your pocket money daily. Certainly, you’ll need to save up to three hundred thousand dollars by using one entire year, right?” Kevin broke into laughter.

As they were talking, they saw a charming and cute girl entering the place. Surprisingly, it turned out to be Mandy’s best friend—Angel. She wanted to bring Kevin and Mandy together. So it was normal for her to go there. ①

She waved at Mandy from afar. When she reached the door, she soon saw Harvey before she could say anything else. She was filled with disgust. After that, she said, “Mandy, why is this good-for-nothing here?”

Chapter 44

Mandy appeared awkward, for she did not know how to reply to that. But Angel looked at Kevin in confusion.

Kevin smiled and said, “Angel, don’t you know, this live-in son-in-law came here today to buy a car? He has his eyes on the Porsche Panamera. Why don’t you help him pick the color?”

Angel sighed and said, “Let’s forget about it. There are no green cars for the Porsche brand, so it’s hard to pick for him.”

After she said that, she went over and glared at Harvey. She then said, “Loser! Don’t you see that Mandy is dating my cousin? If you have a tinge of self-awareness, just get lost immediately! Don’t you know that you’re quite an eyesore here?”

Kevin laughed too when he heard that. At the same time, he glanced at Harvey. ‘This guy does lead a pathetic life. I heard that he even helped my cousin to wash her shoes. It's a great shame for men!'

Harvey's facial expression was slightly unpleasant. He knew for a fact that Angel had a sharp tongue. But it never occurred to him that she was so wicked and vicious.

Harvey was about to get angry, but Mandy had pulled Angel aside and said something to her softly. "Angel, could you please don't be a matchmaker and create a mess here? There's really nothing between your cousin and me. Don't you know why I came here today? Besides, I'm not ready to divorce him for the time being yet."

When she said that last sentence, she felt quite guilty, and her voice was incredibly soft.

Angel appeared shocked. She then stretched her hand out and touched Mandy's forehead. She then said in confusion, "You do not have a fever. Why did you say such nonsense?"

Thinking about that, Angel averted her gaze. She soon stared at Harvey and said contemptuously, “Harvey, do you think that the others will listen to you now that you managed to borrow some money? How could you threaten Mandy not to divorce you?”

“Let me tell you. That little amount of money doesn’t mean anything. Besides, you mooched off the Zimmers for three whole years. It’s what you should do, giving them some money. If you have some dignity as a man, you’d better get the divorce over with. Don’t stop her from gaining her happiness!”

Harvey stared at Angel coldly. “You’re just a kid. How could you have the right to meddle in the affair between me and my wife? Who the hell do you think you are?”

“You!” It was beyond Angel’s expectation to see Harvey retorted to her, given that he usually acted like a coward. “You’re a man, but you stalked your own wife. How shameless of you!”

Harvey said coldly. “Who said that I stalked her? I came to buy a car.”

Standing behind them, Kevin smiled happily when he heard that. “That’s right. You came to buy a car. But don’t even think about the Porsche. Even if you can afford to buy the Audi beside it, I’ll kneel down today in front of you and address you as my father!”

Having said that, Kevin was filled with disdain. He had seen so many people like that who wanted to act smugly and arrogantly up until the last moment. The people like Harvey did not even know what a Porsche meant.

On the other hand, the salespersons, receptionists, and other customers could not help but burst into laughter.

“Did I hear that wrongly? A live-in son-in-law acting so boldly, and he came here to buy a luxury car.”

“It seems like he’s the Zimmers’s live-in son-in-law. He stays there for three years now, and his pocket money is given to him by his wife!”

“How could he become so daring and come here to buy a car!”

Many people there burst into a roar of laughter. In Niumhi, those who were slightly wealthy were well aware of that incident. The people from the upper class were well aware of the wedding ceremony, which was held three years ago. Not many people knew the useless live-in son-in-law from the Zimmers, but most of them had heard about him.

“Who said that I can’t afford that?” At that moment, Harvey remained cold and said.

Angel broke into laughter. She then said, “Yes, you can certainly afford that. Not only can you afford to buy a car, but you can also afford to buy the Porsche!”

After that, Angel walked toward Mandy and said softly, “Mandy, tell me the truth. Did this loser stalk you and see you meeting my cousin? Did he threaten you and ask for the alimony from you? If that’s the case, don’t you ever pay him a penny!”

Standing beside them, Harvey was almost tongue-tied. Angel really had a wild imagination. She could even think of such a thing like that. What kind of thing did she want to do in the future? Did she want to go and shoot for TV dramas?

Mandy almost could not bear to see that now. She said swiftly, “Angel, can you please don’t talk nonsense anymore... It’s true that we bumped into him here... He didn’t ask for money from me.”

“Why can’t I condemn him? Don’t tell me that you want to protect this loser! Mandy, don’t feel touched by what he did before as he took your place and be the hostage for you. Let me tell you. It’s not worth it!”

“Not only did this man waste your three years of youth, but he also humiliated the Zimmers tremendously for three whole years. Why would you want to be bothered by a person like him? You don’t have to care about him at all. You should’ve divorced him long ago!”

“Besides, Mr. York, if you’re a man, don’t cling onto Mandy and bug her anymore. I don’t see you as a true man at all.” She then sneered.

Chapter 45

At that moment, Harvey did not even want to be bothered by Angel. He only laughed casually, looked at Kevin, and said, “At first, I do want to cooperate with you. But unfortunately, your behavior and manners here are really quite disappointing. I think that we can forget about cooperating.”

Kevin broke into laughter. “You’re indeed quite amusing.” He then pointed at Harvey and said, “Do you even know what cooperation is? Have you read too many novels? Do you think that cooperation means buying a pathetic car? It seems like Mrs. Zimmer is not wrong in her perception of you. You’re truly a pathetic man who has such a high ego. You’re not much better than anyone when you boast about yourself.”

“Let me be frank with you. If you’re really a man, hurry up and get lost. Don’t humiliate Mandy here. I couldn’t bear to see you like this anymore!”

Kevin was filled with contempt. Angel, who stood beside them, was laughing ceaselessly now. ‘This live-in son-in-law has put great shame on men!’

“That’s enough, Harvey. Don’t go too far. I don’t have time to talk nonsense with you here. I need to talk about something serious with Mandy later. Please leave.” Clearly, Kevin had lost his patience. He swung his golden watch and said.

Harvey smiled faintly. He then said, “Mr. Quinn, you don’t have to kick me out since I’ll leave. But I’m afraid that you’ll kneel and beg me to stay if I’m leaving later!”

Harvey glanced at Kevin coldly. ‘I’m afraid that this guy doesn’t even know who he’s talking to now! Currently, I don’t even know how many people in the entire Niumhi cries, shouts, and beg me to invest in them. Besides, this automotive city has great debts. If I refuse to invest in them, they’ll certainly go out of business in less than half a year.’

“Harvey, I do know a specialist in psychiatry in the city hospital. Do you need my help to arrange an appointment for you? Why don't you go and meet the psychiatrist? You don't have to do much. Just let the doctor stick a needle in your brain to let some water out. See if you're still able to daydream here." Kevin could not help but break into laughter. "Do you want me to kneel down and beg you? If there's really a day like that, I'll bow down to you and worship you like a God. I'll even address you as my father. Is that okay? Get lost!"

"Then you need to remember what you said. I hate the kind of people who fail to keep their promises the most." Harvey smiled faintly. He then turned around and strode away.

"Mandy, don't bother about that crazy person. But let me give you a word of advice. You need to divorce him. The sooner, the better. A person like him is insane. Who knows if he'll hurt you one day?" Looking at Harvey as he left, Kevin was filled with a tinge of sympathy. "That's enough. Don't talk about that useless person anymore. Let's go and wait for the CEO of York Enterprise in the office. He may be here soon.”

“Kevin, are you talking about York Enterprise? Is that York Enterprise who has invested in a lot of companies in Niumhi? I heard that their new CEO is young and capable. Besides, he’s quite mysterious, humble, and handsome. He’s really my prince charming. Kevin, you must introduce him to me!”

Angel was filled with deep admiration. She then glanced at Mandy and said, “Mandy, my cousin knows a lot of people, and he’s got great connections in Niumhi too. You must cherish him!”

Mandy shook her head, but she did not reply to that. At that moment, her mind was filled with the image of Harvey’s figure when he turned around and left.

‘Why did he seem so strange? But he’s so handsome for some unknown reason.

‘Besides, it’s noon now. How did he come here? Did he ride his electric bike?’

Thinking of that, Mandy was anxious inevitably.

Beside her, Angel glanced at her cousin smugly. How well did she do that! She praised her cousin in such a good way.

Kevin also gave Angel a thumbs up secretly. Angel really gave him such a big hand. With her there, he might be able to grab onto that chance and gain Mandy's affection that noon. Maybe he could even get close and be intimate with her.

After all, he was much more exceptional if he was compared to her useless husband.

In the end, both Kevin and Angel were still smug when Mandy gritted her teeth all of a sudden. She then said softly, "I'm so sorry. I remember that I've got some business to deal with. I'll meet the CEO of York Enterprise next time."

Having said that, Mandy did not even wait for their responses. She then rushed out of the lobby quickly.

"Mandy!"

"Mandy!"

Both Kevin and Angel were stupefied. ‘What happened exactly? Everything seemed so smooth just now.’

Outside of the automotive city, Harvey could not start his electric bike engine for a long time. When he was quite helpless, Mandy had come to him.

“Harvey, where are you going? Do you want me to give you a ride?” Seeing that, Mandy hesitated for a short while before she said.

Harvey looked up at her and said calmly, “Don’t you have some kind of serious business with Mr. Quinn? Why did you come out here?”

Even though Mandy was forced to meet with Kevin because of how hard Lilian and Angel tried to bring them together, Harvey was still quite uneasy and annoyed about that. After all, she was his wife, and he had fallen hopelessly in love with her. ①

“No... It’s not what you think.” Mandy bit her lips softly. She hesitated for a short while before she continued, “I never want to meet with Kevin. It’s him who told me today that he knows the CEO of York Enterprise. He said that he could introduce the CEO to me. That’s why I came.”

Hearing that, Harvey smiled. He then breathed a soft sigh of relief.

“Are you... coming home tonight?” For a moment, they had nothing to say to each other. After being quiet for a short while, Mandy spoke softly.
