Chapter 171: you said it yourself

"Gu Hui, you wretched girl. Why did you beat up your cousin with that stupid girl, Gu Nian? And second sister-in-law, what do you mean? Why did you hit my family?" Madam Zhang also stepped forward and pushed Gu Hui away. Seeing that she was about to pull Cai Xiaolian again, Cai Xiaolian stood up herself.

"Oh, it's sister-in-law's family! I thought it was someone who had a grudge against our family. You've bullied my Xinxin so badly again and again!" Cai Xiaolian asked in surprise.

"Ya! So they were first aunt's family! I'm sorry, I'm sorry. It's mainly because this person came up and said that he wanted to marry me. With my bad temper, I couldn't hold back. Forget it, I won't hit you for the sake of first aunt!" Gu Nian also stood up and stood beside Cai Xiaolian.

"Big tiger! Big tiger! My son!" Mrs. Gao looked at her son's swollen face, and her heart ached!

"You b * tch! You hit my grandson, I'll beat you to death!" Madam née Wang glared at Gu Nian and was about to give her a tight slap.

Grandma Gu grabbed her hand.

"Wang Dahua, are you sure you want to hit my granddaughter in front of me?" Grandma Gu looked at Madam Wang coldly and said in a deep voice.

"Gu xianglan, you can't bully people like this. Your entire family is bullying us. I won't do it, I won't do it! Xiaohu, Xiaohu, quickly go and invite Li Zheng over. He can't live anymore, the Gu family wants our entire family to die Here!" Wang-Shi was about to sit down on the ground and make a scene again.

Zhang Xiaohu rolled his eyes and was about to run.

In the end, Gu Xin and Gu si blocked his way. Gu Xin even showed him her fist.

"Mother-in-law, what are you saying! When did our whole family bully you! Your family has two grandsons, our family has two granddaughters, your family has a daughter-in-law, our family also has a daughter-in-law, your family has an old lady, our family also has an old lady! This was a completely fair battle! When one's skills are inferior, how can one bully another?"

"Also, if we really want to bully them, we'll be the ones doing it! Your family has two kids! I even suppressed Enzi and didn't let him do it. "

Uncle Gu spoke again.

The way Gu shouxin looked at uncle Gu was a little magical. His cheap big brother's brain was really weird.

"Cough, cough, in-law, how could it be so serious! They're just kids playing around." At this moment, Grandpa Gu, who had been silent all this while, stood up and walked over.

"In-law! I, Xiaohu, was beaten to such a state. Even Dahu was beaten to such a state! You call this a child's play?" Madam née Wang looked at grandfather Gu.

"Hasn't it always been like this? Big tiger and little tiger were pushing Xinxin, pulling her hair, and throwing small stones at her. Could it be that Xinxin's head had never been thrown? I remember when I went to look for you last year to talk about this, I told you to take care of the big and small Tigers. In-law, do you still remember how you came back to me?" Grandpa Gu chuckled and said, "didn't you say that we're in-laws? it's normal for this child to play well and often play together and play together! You even said, 'in-law, don't let the adults get involved and hurt our relationship.' Isn't that what you said, in-law?"

Grandpa Gu still had a harmless smile on his face. The three transmigrators gave him a thumbs up in their hearts. The older the ginger, the spicier it is!

you ... You ... Madam née Wang couldn't say anything to refute her, because she was the one who said it!

But, but, how could she have known that her own two grandsons couldn't even beat the two granddaughters of the other party?

Chapter 172: Taking away a piece of fat meat

"Father, mother, are you really so biased towards second brother's family? Now that their family is bullying my family, you still want to side with them?" Zhang Shi looked at grandfather Gu in disbelief.

She used to know that her nephew was bullying the wretched girl of the second branch. The old man at home wanted to interfere, but he didn't have the chance to say anything when he went to her maternal family!

"Aunt, how can you say that! We grew up together with Zhang Dahu and Zhang Xiaohu, so we're used to fighting. What do you mean by biased?" Gu Nian chuckled.

you wretched girl. When the elders are talking, how can you, a junior, interrupt? " Zhang Shi hated Gu Nian.

Although she was in confinement, the Gu family's courtyard was only so big. She knew that the second branch had earned money to repair the house. This was all earned by the food that this wretched girl had fiddled with.

sister-in-law, when father and your mother were talking just now, it was also the elders' conversation. If a junior like you can interrupt, my niannian will follow suit! Cai Xiaolian said.

"That's right, wife! Why should we, the younger generation, interrupt when their adults are talking? You're still in confinement! Come and sit here, don't get a confinement disease from the wind!" Uncle Gu said considerately.

Zhang Shi was almost angered to death by this man and didn't want to talk to him.

"Since sister-in-law has spoken, then I'll say something too! Aunt Wang, what kind of explanation do you want?" Gu shouxin got up, walked over, and asked.

"Second brother Gu, our big tiger has been beaten so badly! If you can't find a wife in the future, Gu Nian is the one who hit you. I'll let you marry my da Hu! We're all relatives, so let's not hurt each other. Gu Nian also said that we grew up together, so we have a deep relationship!" Wang-Shi glared at Gu Nian and turned to Gu shouxin.

"Mother! This Shrew, why did you marry her?" Madam Gao said in surprise, not expecting this at all.

"Mother, listen to grandmother. Besides, I also like niannian a lot! I've liked it since I was young!" Zhang Dahu sat up and chuckled at Gu Nian. However, his eyes were filled with hatred.

This b * tch, if it wasn't for the fact that you know how to earn money, I wouldn't want you!

Just wait!

Just wait and see how I'll deal with you after you earn money for me!

You dare to hit me?

Gu Nian watched the show calmly. Since her father had stepped forward and she had just moved her limbs, she was not needed anymore.

"How was it? In-laws, in-laws, and second son! There's no problem with my statement, right? In fact, the two children were playing around, but niannian didn't control her strength. The injuries on the Tiger's body were real. Either we get married, or we can only go to the Yamen to seek justice! Deliberately injuring someone and seriously injuring him. I heard that our County's Lord Cheng is a good official! He's a very fair person." Wang-Shi patted the dirt off her body and chuckled.

"Aunt Wang, I'm afraid you've already planned this! Do you want to rely on our niannian?" Fourth uncle Gu said in disbelief.

The Gu family's elders and the transmigration trio were not surprised at all. When Zhang Dahu had announced that he wanted to marry Gu Nian, they had already thought of this.

He didn't expect it to be true!

Ha, everyone in the village knew that Gu shouxin's family was building a house, and the Zhou family's carriage often went to their house. They had also seen them working with the restaurant.

Other people might not know that the food was made by Gu Nian, but as the Gu family's in-laws, the Zhang family was fully aware of it. Zhang Shi's big mouth had told her when her maternal family came to visit her.

Taking Gu Nian away was like taking away a piece of fat meat!

Chapter 173: Just bear with it

Fourth uncle Gu told them the Wang family's purpose directly. The Wang family didn't feel embarrassed at all. Instead of making a scene, they smiled and wanted to talk seriously.

Grandma Gu was getting annoyed. She looked at the Wang family coldly. "Wang Dahua, take your daughter-in-law and grandson and get lost! Otherwise, don't say that I'm not close to my family!"

"Mother, da Hu and Gu Nian are also very good."

"What do you mean" do "? send your mother and the others out! Otherwise, you'll also get the hell back to your mother's house!"

Zhang Shi wanted to say that they were a good match, but before she could say it, she was interrupted by grandma Gu's side-eye.

"In-law, don't be like this, let's talk this out! If da ya and da Hu couldn't handle this matter between children, er ya and Xiaohu could! Their brains are used to it anyway." Wang-Shi had a Rascal-like face.

"Niannian, sharpen the knife!" Cai Xiaolian couldn't stand it anymore.

"Alright!" Gu Nian turned around and walked toward the chopping board. She picked up her knife and was about to find a Whetstone.

"Mother-in-law, you'd better take your men and leave! This niece of mine is really good with the saber! Even I'm afraid. Let's go!" Uncle Gu pulled Zhang Shi along to chase them away.

"In-law, in-law, why did you make it like this? Let's talk things out! Let's talk things out! You injured my child. Even if you don't marry, you shouldn't make enemies! You can ask second brother Gu to pay us for the medical expenses!" The Wang family still did not give up.

"Alright! If you don't want my dad to pay, I'll pay! Tell me how much it's worth, I'll buy it and let me cut it for fun!" Gu Nian placed the knife on the whetstone. The sound of the knife being sharpened was a little scary.

"Let's go, wife, come and help sister-in-law! Big tiger, little tiger, do you want niannian to chop off your heads and limbs for fun?" Uncle Gu saw that Zhang Shi did not move and said.

As a man, he could still pull his mother-in-law away, but as for the Yue family's sister-in-law, forget it, don't touch her. As a member of the Yue family, he liked to touch her.

The Yue family had no reason to blame their daughter for letting their daughter-in-law do it.

Gu Nian raised her knife and chased after him.

"Boss's family, do you think that I won't dare to ask boss to divorce you just because you gave birth to a grandson for the Gu family? It seems that your body is in the Gu family, but your heart is in your maternal family! Fine, I'll fulfill your wish. When you're done with your confinement, you'll go back to your mother's house!" Grandma Gu said as she looked at Zhang Shi, who had just sent the patient in.

"Mother, I gave birth to a son for the Gu family. You can't ask his father to divorce me!" Zhang Shi had always been proud of having a son.

"Hmph! Second brother, write a divorce letter and let Boss stamp it with his handprint!" Grandma Gu didn't want to waste any more time and went straight to the point.

"Oh, okay." Gu shouxin nodded.

"My wife! You're in the wrong in this matter! Do you really want to set your nephew up with niannian Xinxin? Why don't you take a look at the two tigers? Everyone in the Gu family is pretty, even third sister's husband is good-looking. I'm already unlucky enough to marry you, who's not good-looking, and you want niannian and Xinxin to find a shabby one too?" Uncle Gu didn't admit that he wanted to divorce his wife. He was just telling the truth.

"Gu shouren! W-what do you mean? You said I'm ugly?" Zhang Shi was mad with anger. She pointed at uncle Gu and shouted.

"It's not ugly, it's just, how should I say it! Sigh, don't worry, I've already married you, why would I divorce you? I've endured it for more than ten years. I'll just have to endure it for the next few decades." Uncle Gu's expression was indescribable.

Chapter 174: A headache

"Wife, listen to me, I won't stop you. As long as you don't do anything evil, as long as you don't harm the Gu family for the sake of your maternal family, I will not divorce you. Don't be like this in the future. Come, come, let's go back to the house. You're already exposed to the wind. What if you fall sick? If you're sick, you still need silver."

"You're blowing the wind for your mother, right? I'm telling you, if you're sick, she won't pay for you. But we will! So, think about it, who is good to you? En 'Zi, quickly go get your mother some thicker clothes and wrap her head. If she gets blown by the wind, she'll have a headache in the future. When you grow up, you'll have to spend money on her treatment often, right?"

Uncle Gu advised his son.

Zhang Shi felt that uncle Gu was concerned about her, but why did it feel so bad to hear these words of concern?

The child's father wouldn't stop talking about him. This was more like it. He had already given birth to two sons for him, unlike the second branch's Cai Shi. It had been a few years and she still didn't have a son.

Hmph, you're looking down on my family, aren't you? Just wait and see, when second brother is a scholar, he'll divorce you.

That b * tch, Madam Cai, is so eager to marry second brother. Second brother clearly doesn't have her in his heart. Just wait and see. When second brother is successful, that woman from before will come back. You'll see.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shi's mood became better. She was now completely not repulsed by the second branch studying. In any case, if the second branch finished studying, their first branch would also have benefits.

Moreover, the second branch could earn money now and could not spend their parents "money.

He would be a fool not to take advantage of her!

She now especially hated Madam Cai. She felt that Madam Cai was being pretentious, thinking that her second son was studying again, and that her two daughters had become more noble. She was looking down on her nephew from her maternal family.

Hmph!

Just wait and see!

There will be a time when you watch your two daughters call someone else mother.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shi walked to the door and turned back to look at Cai Xiaolian, her eyes full of gloating.

Cai Xiaolian,"hehe."

She must be crazy!

'You're still gloating over my misfortune after being said by miracle bro?'

"Let's eat!" Grandma Gu sat down and invited the whole family to dinner.

"Second brother, second sister-in-law, niannian is already 14. Do you guys have a good impression of her? It's better to settle down so that today's situation doesn't happen again." Fourth uncle Gu kindly reminded him.

He knew that many of the young men in the village had their eyes on his niece. In fact, his niece used to hang people up, but she seemed to have quieted down a lot recently.

"Fourth uncle! I'm not in a hurry. Sister Huihui hasn't decided yet! We're a family! This has to be done in order. Is it only my turn after sister Huihui has decided?" Gu Nian answered on behalf of her parents.

After she finished speaking, she felt a kick on her leg. Then, she looked over and saw that it was Gu Hui who had kicked her.

Gu Nian let out a wide smile.

Gu Hui rolled her eyes at her and said, " "Fourth uncle is older than me. We haven't even decided yet, so why should I be in a hurry?"

Fourth uncle Gu,"Yingluo"

"That's right, fourth. You're already nineteen. When I was your age, your second brother was already born." Grandpa Gu chuckled as he watched his youngest son being ridiculed by his granddaughter. He then stood on his granddaughter's side without hiding anything.

"I'll write a letter to your third sister tomorrow and ask her how the fortune-telling session she gave you went! You better behave yourself! Quickly get married so that we can move out! I get a headache just looking at you bastards!" Grandma Gu was obviously in a bad mood. Her eyes swept across everyone at the table, not letting anyone go.

Chapter 175:

At that moment, grandma Gu really wanted to refute her late father's words. She wanted to say, "dad, you didn't see your Rascals. They are the ones who are really tormenting.

When eldest brother first married a wife, it was completely because he fell into Zhang Shi's trap. He could spend a night with Zhang Shi in the cave just to go up the mountain to gather firewood. He was also very upright and did not want to ruin the young lady's innocence. Even if he did not do anything, he still married her.

This was obviously Madam Zhang's doing. She thought that she didn't know!

Look at what Zhang Shi has done at home?

The second son was even more torturous. He had wasted more than ten years for a woman before he realized what a man he was! She should have gotten rid of that extra thing when she gave birth to him. Why did the Gu family have such a piece of trash? Even though her second brother was slowly getting better, she still wanted to curse him every time she thought about the past ten years.

Third was a girl, so logically speaking, she should be the most obedient. No, not at all. She was the most troublesome of the four siblings. The in-laws would come to complain every two months, and the son-in-law would come crying every six months.

Her family's third girl seemed to be a gentle and sensible one. Heh, once she got married and met a crafty mother-in-law, her tormenting nature was exposed.

If her mother-in-law bullied her, she would bully her mother-in-law's children.

In any case, her in-laws' younger brothers and sisters-in-law had all been bullied by her, but she was still extremely filial to her mother-in-law. With that sharp mouth of hers, she could even make a dead person live.

After beating up her son-in-law, she could still coax him into thinking that she was wrong. When her son-in-law reacted and his martial skills could not keep up, wouldn't he come to her, his mother-in-law, to complain?

She didn't care about the matters between husband and wife. If she didn't help, her son-in-law would come to her brother Chuan!

That wretched girl, couldn't she just live her life in peace? Didn't she know that her father's health wasn't good? every time he saw his son-in-law, he had to worry about her for a few days!

As for fourth, well, he was a young man with a bright and energetic appearance, and was very well liked by the eldest girl. However, this marriage was so troublesome that she was already impatient to see the matchmaker.

If it wasn't for the fact that this thing had crawled out of his stomach, she really wanted to throw it out.

Well, there was only one son and daughter left who had not found a partner, and the grandchildren were starting to show signs of being tormented again.

Huihui was the kind of person who could give her crush a nosebleed with a single punch. She had very high ambitions and wanted to earn her own money without relying on men. She even planned to raise a few pretty boys.

Who knew how she felt when she heard her eldest and youngest granddaughter say this?

She was already very fierce when she was young, but she only wanted brother Chuan!

Her eldest granddaughter had truly surpassed her master.

Her second granddaughter, well, was even more powerful than her eldest granddaughter. Not only did she think that way, but she also did it. She knew five, no, six young men in the village. Now there was Zhang Dahu, who received things from others all day long and sowed discord between them. Two of them were brothers, but they would fight each other whenever they had a disagreement.

Oh, recently, she heard from the gossiping women in the village that her second granddaughter had taken a fancy to Li Zheng's brother-in-law's little husband, who was also a scholar. Tsk tsk, if she hadn't been with her parents every day these days, she would definitely be stopped by those young men when she went out of the village.

Xinxin and sisi! She used to be an obedient granddaughter, but now she seemed to have changed. It was not that she was not obedient, but she felt that the development of these two girls might be even stranger than that of her eldest and second granddaughters!

Chapter 176 Cai family

As for his two grandsons, well, the eldest grandson was like the second granddaughter, and they were very well-liked by the little girl. He often cheated the little girl of her candy.

The little grandson was still young and probably the most torturous. He was only seven months in his mother's womb and could not help but want to see the outside world. He cried loudly every day. With that cry in the morning, they didn't even need to raise chickens at home!

Oh, oh, there was one more thing. She had a grandson. Perhaps the inheritance of her son-in-law's family was too powerful, and her grandson had not inherited the personality of the Gu family. Perhaps he was like her grandfather, with a good personality.

The more grandma Gu thought about it, the more she felt a headache.

"Brother Chuan, let's go back to the house!" She put down her chopsticks and stopped eating. She pulled her husband back to the house.

"Lan lan, what's wrong with you? Why do you look so tired all of a sudden?" Grandpa Gu stood up and supported his wife as he said worriedly.

"I'm fine. I just thought of a group of bastards! Sigh, let's go to father's grave tomorrow. I have a lot of things to say to father!" Grandma Gu stopped and turned to look at her grandchildren. Then she turned back and said, "

"Alright, I'll accompany you. I'll bring you into the house first and then get you some water. Soak your feet and warm them up." Grandpa Gu said gently.

The Gu family's bastards who had inexplicably eaten a big bucket of dog food: "....."

"I feel like the bastards grandma was talking about are you and your brothers!" Gu Nian said softly as she regained her senses.

"No, that includes you little ones." Gu shouxin said with certainty.

Everyone looked at each other. Alright, they were despised.

Gu Xin was a little hurt. In the past, her grandmother would never look at her and sisi when she looked at others like that. However, her grandmother had also looked at her and sisi earlier.

Had the two sisters finally been reduced to the same treatment as their family?

However, why couldn't he be happy?

The Zhang family had come to the Gu family in the middle of the night, so no one had seen it. The Gu family, except for Zhang Shi, were not gossipmongers. The Zhang family also did not have the face to spread the news. Therefore, the villagers did not know that these two in-laws had almost started a one-on-one fight. They had even taken out their vegetable knives.

A few days later, the Cai family heard the news that the Zhang family was going to the Gu family's house in the middle of the night. That night, the Cai family of four also came. They didn't go to the old house, but went directly to Gu shouxin's house.

The Cai family was the maiden family of the Cai clan. Their population was simple, and they only had the Cai clan's elder brother, Cai Dacheng, sister-in-law, and her two nephews, Cai Bao and Cai TOU.

In Cai Xiaolian's memory, even if they were from the same village, after the death of the original owner's mother, her big brother's family didn't have any contact with her at all.

Now that it had happened, and with the Zhang family's incident, she completely understood that it was time to take advantage of her again.

Moreover, it was two nephews. Cai Bao was 19 years old, and Cai TOU was 16 years old. She had a faint feeling that they were probably going to be closer to each other!

"Sister, brother-in-law, we just came back from your sister-in-law's house. It's only been half a month, why have you started building the house? Why didn't you wait for me to come back first?" Cai Dacheng said in dissatisfaction after he entered the room and sat down.

"Brother-in-law, why do we have to tell you that the Gu family is repairing our house?" Gu shouxin chuckled and said.

"This, don't I often help people repair their houses? He had enough experience! Brother-in-law, it's not that I want to criticize you, but what kind of people have you invited? You should've waited for me to come back, or you should've asked someone to bring a letter to me!" Cai Dacheng shook his head in disagreement.

Chapter 177: She would never agree hehe, we've been working for a few days now, but we can't stop them, right? what does brother-in-law plan to do?" Gu shouxin was still smiling.

"That's easy. Brother-in-law, tell Chen er tomorrow that I'll be in charge of building the house. I'm familiar with the rest of the materials, so I'll help you buy them. Brother-in-law, sister, don't worry, I've built so many houses for you and I'm very experienced. I promise to save money for you and build your house beautifully." Cai Dacheng was relieved to see Gu shouxin so easy to talk to.

"Uncle, Cai TOU and I can also help. Really, the two of us brothers can do it!" Cai Bao tried his best to recommend himself.

his aunt, uncle, you two don't know anything about building houses. Even big brother Gu doesn't know anything about it. Why don't you just leave it to Cai Bao's father? besides, we're all relatives! Cai Xiaolian's sister-in-law, miss Duan, also said with a smile.

Gu Nian had been silently sizing up her uncle's family. She felt that the host's mother was an adopted daughter.

Oh my God, why does the Cai family look like this?

Her cheap uncle was thin and yellow, and his eyes were slanted to one side. Her aunt was even more so, with her front teeth protruding out and the gap between them wide. Her eyelids were drooping, and there was a mole at the corner of her mouth. It was the size of a Pinkie nail, and there was a hair on the mole.

Well, he had two cousins. The eldest cousin looked at his uncle with slightly slanted eyes, and the second cousin looked at his aunt with bared teeth and a mole. Compared to the two Tiger nephews of his aunt's family, these two were really incomparable!

As for her mother, she wasn't very beautiful, but she had regular facial features. After some time, coupled with her temperament from her previous life, and with some dressing up, she could be considered a beautiful lady.

Why was there such a huge difference between her uncle and her mother?

Forgive her for not having the original owner's memories and not knowing what her grandfather and grandmother looked like, so she could not be sure which of the siblings was adopted.

"Younger cousin sister, What are you looking at me for? I, I'm a little shy!" Cai TOU, who had a mole on his head, looked at Gu Nian shyly and coyly.

"Cousin, you're wrong. I wasn't looking at you!" Gu Nian pursed her lips. Alright, her period was here today and she did not want to eat too much. Fortunately, she did not eat too much. Otherwise, what if she vomited because of Cai TOU's cousin's actions?

"Aiyo! Niannian, you little girl, you've always liked to chase after your second cousin since you were young! Your second cousin also often brings you good food and fun things. Niannian will be fifteen after the new year! His aunt, his uncle, do you think we should get even closer to each other?" Miss Duan patted her leg, extremely happy.

Gu Nian's eyes widened in shock.

Is there a problem with the host's appreciation level? Just this cousin, and he still chased after her?

Even the black-skinned man from the Zhang family that you hung looked better than this!

Once again, Gu Nian felt how terrible it was to not have the memories of the original owner.

"Aunt, it's second older Biao brother who is chasing older sister. Older sister also does not like to chase after second older Biao brother!" Gu Xin retorted and looked at her parents, "father, mother, I'm right. You guys definitely remember, right?"

After what happened to the Zhang family a few days ago, she more or less understood that if someone wanted to marry her sister, she would not agree.

Her sister was going to marry the scholar!

She wanted to protect her sister from being married off just like that!

Gu Nian's heart was filled with sweetness!

look, look, as expected of the female lead, so understanding!

What a cute little sister!

Chapter 178 true feelings

"That's right, aunt, don't talk nonsense!" I've been getting closer to sister Huihui recently. She told me that I should just beat up those who don't know what's good for them and spout nonsense," Gu niandu said without waiting for her parents to say anything.

aunt, cousin, don't say that we're relatives. I've seen sister Huihui beating up her cousin quite a few times. Don't think that I'm gentle and weak. When I beat someone up, I'm afraid of myself too. Gu Nian moved her wrist.

"Hehe, younger cousin sister, I'm not afraid!" Cai TOU did not take Gu Nian's words seriously. He chuckled foolishly. As he laughed, the mole at the corner of his mouth moved. The hair on the mole was still swaying with his laughter.

Gu Nian,"Yingluo."

Brother, don't move. If you move again, I'll vomit it out no matter how little I eat.

"Big brother, sister-in-law, no matter what you say today, I will not agree." Cai Xiaolian, who had been silent all this time, said with a sullen face.

The three members of the Gu family all looked at Cai Xiaolian in surprise. She had never been so obvious about who she hated before.

"Little Lian, what are you saying? we're brothers, and there can't be two talents in one stroke. Our parents are long gone, and we're the only ones left. No matter what unhappy things happened between us in the past, as your brother, I'm the only one your maternal family can rely on!" Cai Dacheng's face was full of 'stop fooling around, I'm doing this for your own good'.

"One stroke can't produce two Cai's. After all, one stroke can't produce one Cai's. Brother, let's be frank. Ten years ago, when I just gave birth to Xinxin, didn't you say that we should stop seeing each other? I just finished my confinement and my mother died. When I returned home, did the fifth Mrs. Qiu, who was close to mother, say that mother left something for me?"

"I was just asking you at that time, but you said that I was thinking about my mother's family's inheritance. You and sister-in-law took advantage of the fact that I had just finished my first month of confinement and was bored, so you made me keep watch at night and pretended to be a ghost to scare me. I was so scared that I fell sick for a few days and didn't send my mother up the mountain. At that time, you said that I was unfilial and cut off all ties with me, that you didn't have a sister like me, right?"

"Sister-in-law, how did you gossip about my niannian with those gossiping women in the village? You said that my niannian is not easy to deal with and is destined to be a prostitute, right?"

"Oh, now that our family has money, you're rushing here? I'll spit!"

Cai Xiaolian spat.

"I'm telling you now, my silver, ah, I won't give it to you even if I throw it into the Qing River! You're so experienced, aren't you afraid that you'll cut your tongue? Get lost, you family of four! I'm now the Gu Cais, not a member of your Cai family! Don't come here to seek help! Our family is very busy and we don't have time to waste with you!"

Cai Xiaolian looked at the family of four with disdain.

Without giving the Cai family a chance to speak, Cai Xiaolian continued, "Gu shouxin, Gu Nian, do you not see me as a member of the Gu family? The person had already rushed over to bully you, and you still invited him in? Are you chasing me away?"

Before the transmigrated father and daughter could react, Gu Xin ran to the door and came in with a broom, " "You actually bullied my mother. No wonder she didn't return to her family! Bad guys, go away, I don't want you to come to my house! Hurry up! Hurry up and run!"

The transmigration trio: " Yingluo "

Out of the four of them, this girl was the only one who had the most genuine feelings!

Chapter 179 past

After the father and daughter chased the Cai family out of the house, Cai Dacheng was also furious. He cursed, " "Cai Xiaolian, you b * stard, don't come and beg me if you regret it in the future!"

"Right! Cai Xiaolian, you can just wait to spend the rest of your life in this countryside!" Miss Duan also said.

"Bang!"

Gu Nian slammed the door shut and ignored these people.

He returned to the central room and sat by the brazier.

The family of four, each in one direction, the father and daughter all looked at Cai Xiaolian.

Gu Nian did not have any memories and did not know what kind of conflict her mother had with her uncle.

Gu Xin had just been born at that time and didn't know either.

As for Gu shouxin, well, even if he had memories, he had no feelings or care for his wife and daughter. How would he know what happened to the Yue family?

I have to start from the year Xinxin was born. Cai Xiaolian sighed. She had also felt the true feelings of the original owner of the body. She was indeed a little angry.

"Xinxin was born on the 15th of the first month, and my mother passed away on the 15th of the second month. Originally, your grandmother wanted me to stay in confinement for forty-two days, but my mother passed away. I had no choice but to leave early. The moment I returned, that fifth Mrs. Qiu pulled me to the side and said that mother left something for me, but it was kept by my eldest brother and eldest sister-in-law."

"I'm going to ask now! Immediately, they exploded and said that I, a married woman, wanted to share my maternal family's property? no way! When I got married, she had prepared enough dowry for me. "

"At that time, granny Qiu was also old. I thought that mother died suddenly and she came to see me with eggs when I was in confinement. If she had anything to give me, she gave it to me at that time. I just thought that granny Qiu had misheard and didn't think too much about it. " in the end, when I was in the mourning hall that night, the couple pretended to be ghosts to scare me. When I gave birth to Xinxin, I almost couldn't make it. After a month of confinement, my body was still very weak, so I was really frightened by them.

"I was unconscious for two days. When I woke up, my mother had already been buried. After that, they started to spread bad rumors about me. They said that I was not only unfilial, but also greedy for my mother's property. If I'm angry, I'll go and refute it!"

"The two of them even wanted the internal Justice to be a witness, saying that they wanted us to break off relations and not move around. I felt that they were so anxious because granny Qiu didn't lie to me. Mother must have left something for me. "

"After this, he's even more determined to break off relations. After that, your grandmother came forward and cut off the engagement. Your grandma said that if the elder brother of the Cai family doesn't want me, the head of the Gu family will. She will just treat me like her own daughter."

"That's why we haven't visited each other since then. Now that you're rushing over, isn't that just taking advantage of us?"

Cai Xiaolian told him everything that had happened in her memory.

Gu Xin's tears fell as she sat down on Cai Xiaolian's bench, " "Mother, when you gave birth to me, you lost your body. In the future, I will definitely study hard with sister. I will work hard to earn money and support mother. Take care of mother's body and mother will give birth to a little brother for me. "

Grandpa Gu and grandma Gu had told Gu Xin that Cai Xiaolian almost lost her life when she gave birth to her, but they had never told her about the Cai family.

"Be good! Mother doesn't want a younger brother. Mother is satisfied with you and your sister. You're all my big treasures!" Cai Xiaolian said sincerely.

mother, I'll work hard to invent in the future. We'll earn a lot of money to help you take care of your body and make you the most beautiful lady in great Zhou! Gu Nian ran to the other side of her and held her arm as she leaned on her.

Chapter 180: Uncle said

Gu shouxin raised his eyebrows. In fact, he felt that he could have a few more younger brothers. They could be the backing of his two older sisters. It was actually good to have more brothers in the maternal family.

But he believed that if he said it, he would be beaten by Cai Xiaolian.

that fifth granny Qiu also died a few years ago. I'm afraid only the two of them know what mother-in-law left for you! Gu shouxin said.

He cursed the host in his heart again. What kind of man was he? his wife was being bullied, but he didn't show up. In any case, he didn't have any memory of this at all.

"I don't care, maybe it's just some jewelry! My mother has never liked sister-in-law, and she doesn't have a granddaughter, so she's leaving it to her daughter. In any case, our family is not short of money now. If we run out of money, we can earn it ourselves. Don't come into contact with that family in the future." Although Cai Xiaolian had the original owner's anger, she really didn't care about the things left behind by the original owner's mother.

"Mm! Mother, I won't bother with them in the future! They were bad! I'll Learn Kung Fu properly. If their family bullies you again in the future, I'll help you beat them away! After I'm done, I can do it alone when father and sister are not around!" Gu Xin clenched her fists. There were still tears on her eyelashes but her eyes were filled with determination.

“Good! Then in the future, let little Xinxin protect mother!” Cai Xiaolian was really warmed by this little girl.

That night, while everyone was asleep, Gu Xin sneaked into Gu Nian’s room.

“Sister, Sister, I have something to tell you.” Gu Xin stood by the bed and whispered.

“My dear, it’s late at night, aren’t you afraid of the cold? Quickly get in!” Gu Nian hurriedly carried her to the bed.

She realized that her female lead’s younger sister seemed to have gotten heavier. She was at least five kilograms heavier than when she had first arrived.

Tsk, tsk, tsk. Was their family feeding pigs? In more than a month, he had weighed ten pounds.

Fortunately, her sister didn’t grow horizontally, but vertically. Otherwise, she wouldn’t dare to feed her like this. Ten pounds a month, that’s a year’s waste.

“Sister, let’s get sister Huihui and sisi to beat up Cai Bao and Cai leader!” Gu Xin only showed her small head and said as she turned to the side.

“What?” Gu Nian thought she had heard wrong.

“Beat them up! I can’t beat up the adults. Otherwise, if others find out, they’ll say that I’m impolite, but I can! Big Uncle said that we can beat anyone of the same generation. If we can’t beat them, then it’s because we’re not capable!” Gu Xin said.

Gu Nian, “Yingluo.”

Uncle, you’re awesome. I’m impressed!

“Sister, think about it. Cai Bao and Cai TOU’s parents scared our mother, causing our mother to be unable to send grandma to the grave. They caused our mother to carry the reputation of being unfilial and caused our mother to faint for a few days. Eldest uncle said that it’s only right and proper for a son to pay his father’s debt.” Gu Xin thought that Gu Nian did not agree so she tried to persuade her again.

Gu Nian, “Yingluo.”

Uncle, please accept your niece’s knees!

“Also, Cai Bao and Cai TOU are older than us. Didn’t father say that? When it came to revenge, one had to measure the strength of both sides. If they were not a match for each other for the time being, it was never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. However, the four of us sisters are completely capable of defeating the two brothers. Sisi and I will take the Gunny sacks while sister and sister Huihui subdue them. Then, we’ll punch and kick them, throw them in front of grandma’s grave, and scare them to death! Hehehe, big sister, what do you think of my plan?” Gu Xin explained her plan.

“Good, very good!” Gu Nian nodded.
