Chapter 2: Time Travelling Mother

Gu Xin saw her mother take out twelve eggs from the locked box. She did not lock the wooden box.

Twelve eggs. All twelve eggs were put into the pot.

“Mother, are the eggs not for sale?” Gu Xin asked in a low voice.

She remembered that when she saw the children of her uncle’s family, her cousins ate eggs. She wanted to eat eggs too. When she came back, her mother beat her up.

She deeply remembered what her parents said when they beat her up back then.

“Eat, eat, eat. What else do you know besides eating?”

“Eggs are so expensive. Can you, this wretched girl, eat such expensive stuff? Is it something you should eat?”

“This is for sale. How can I give you so much to eat!”

“You wretched girl, you still dare to think of eating eggs? I’ll beat you to death!”

Of course, her parents had scolded her and refused to let her eat eggs. They hadn’t eaten any either.

But now, such an expensive egg was being cooked like this. Was their family going to become an expensive family?

Cai Xiaolian covered the pot and turned around. “What did you say? I’m sorry, your voice is a little low. I didn’t hear you.”

Gu Xin was shocked again.

Her... her mother actually said she was sorry?

Her mother smiled at her so gently.

She suspected that she had not recovered from her illness and had died of it. When she went to another place, the mother in front of her was a figment of her imagination.

It must be.

Cai Xiaolian looked at the dazed little girl and asked guiltily, “Er... Er, what happened to you?”

In her memory, this little girl was a little silly. She shouldn’t have been so astute to see that she was no longer her mother!

If the child’s father and sister could see it, she would still believe it.

Gu Xin summoned up his courage and looked at Cai Xiaolian and asked timidly, “Mother, shall we eat eggs for lunch?”

“Well, it’s almost noon now. I don’t have time to cook. Let’s eat boiled eggs first to fill our stomachs. We’ll cook something else tonight,” Cai Xiaolian said with some embarrassment.

It wasn’t that she didn’t have time, but that she didn’t know how to cook at all.

1

She only knew how to cook with the rice cooker and the gas stove. She couldn’t understand this big pot!

She thought about thinking about how to cook dinner in the afternoon. While the father and daughter didn’t notice her abnormality in the past few days, she would learn everything the original owner knew. It was in her memory!

That’s right, Cai Xiaolian wasn’t Gu Xinni. She was a transmigrator. She had transmigrated here after her death. She was a terminal cancer patient. It took her three days to digest the fact that she had transmigrated.

Gu Xin still couldn’t believe it. Her mother cooked so many eggs. She stared blankly at Cai Xiaolian.

“Er, go get your father and sister to wash up and get ready for dinner.”

Cai Xiaolian was a little scared by the child’s gaze and wanted to send her away.

“Okay,” Gu Xin answered blankly and then turned around to look for her father and sister.

She wanted to go and see if her mother was a figment of her imagination and if her father and sister had also become a figment of her imagination?

“Father, Father, are you awake?”

Gu Xin came to Gu Shouxin’s door and knocked twice.

“Awake? What’s the matter?”

Gu Xin was so scared that she took two steps back.

The voice belonged to her father, but it didn’t sound like her father at all!

In the past, when she called her father, her father would scold her impatiently. It was always ‘damn girl, why are you yelling? If you yell again, I’ll beat you to death!’.

Should she say something?!

Gu Xin: “I want to cry.”
